NO UMBRELLA

By Dr. Alfred P. Haake

Editor's note: Alfred P. Haake, Ph. D., is a noted economist, public relations consultant, author and lecturer.)

What, now seems many years ago, witnessed the sacrificing of a principle and the appeasement of a man, that there might be "peace in our time."

But Neville Chamberlain, the British Prime Minister, did not prevent war. He and his umbrella postponed it until Hitler, the German Dictator, was better prepared to precipitate the issue. And when it came millions of people perished as an extra dividend to the God of War.

Munich and an umbrella became symbols of compromise unto destruction, betrayal of a nation to buy temporary security. But the holocaust that ended at last with the decisive defeat of Hitler only brought us new Munichs, without umbrellas.

Yalta saw the betrayal of an ally and the seeds of a new war and ultimately more disastrous holocaust. When we yielded to holocaust. When we yielded to Russia what we had won back from Japan, without so much as consulting China, the ally to whom we had solemnly promised restoration of the lands and concessions Japan had wrung from her—we asked, in effect, for the Korean War. We deserted a friendly and faithful ally only to build up the communist "agrarian reformers" who turned what had been our friendly ally into a bitter enemy led by the then minions of Russia. We have not yet paid the price for that folly.

We gave Berlin to East Germany into the power of an alien philosophy and murderous hijackers, potentially a worse enemy than Hitler.

We backed away from the bluff that sealed off Berlin and used our airlift instead of the far more practical and less costly trucks and cars over the road that was ours by treaty to use.

We recently reiterated our pledge to defend the freedom of Berlin and sent in additional soldiers as a confirming gesture.

But Mr. Khrushchev goes on sealing off eastern Berlin and our momentary spasm of determination may even prove to have been a fool's paradise.

At Postdam another President gave Russia control of Eastern Europe and walked out on helpless people who could not defend themselves against the unholy capitulation.

We have Cuba, on which we do have a military base surrounded by an entire island in the process of becoming a base for Russia, a point of entry for subversion and attack from communism only ninety miles from our shores. The ring of strangulation promised us by Stalin is drawing closer and tighter, while we talk and hope for peaceful agreement with an enemy bent frankly on our destruction.

We had warning of what could happen in Cuba. A senator from Florida tried, months ago and without success, to alert the American people and government to what lay in prospect there.

Senator George Smathers sees clearly. He has courage as well

Annual 4-H-FFA Beef Tour Successful Event

The annual Coleman County 4-H and FFA Beef Calf Tour proved to be another success, although the number attending was less than last year. Approximately 45 people attended most of the visits, with seven out-of-county visitors present for the entire tour.

Eleven 4-H and FFA boys and girls exhibited a total of 27 steers and one heifer. The boys and girls showed their calves and told interesting facts about them. Sara Sue and Mary Lou Taylor were awarded the First Place showmanship award and Joe Pat Hemphill received the second place award.

Bill Sneed was 20 pounds out front in the highly competitive weight guessing contest and received the contest award. There were eight or ten experienced cattlemen coming close to second and third, but Jim Williams was second and C. T. McClatchey of Trickham was third.

The showmanship awards and weight-guessing awards were presented by Don Hart, representing the Coleman County Electric Cooperative.

A jolly atmosphere existed throughout the morning and those attending seemed to sincerely enjoy each of the interesting stops.

FREAK WATERMELON

Lyndon Haynes, an employee of the City of Santa Anna, brought in a freak watermelon last week. It is on display on our front counter and will remain there for a few more days.

Haynes found the melon growing in the City Dump Grounds. It had grown completely through a tin can, with the melon bellling out at each end of the can.

Which, as several who have seen it have suggested, goes to prove that it is possible to can watermelons.

as vision. And he seems to understand what so many others have thus far failed or refused to recognize — that we cannot preserve principle and freedom through negotiations with or appeasement of governments that are utterly contemptuous of the ethics and bases of character that we hold up as standards for our conduct.

Lacking the umbrella that hid the vital truth from Chamberlain, Senator Smathers knows that there comes a time, postponed only at frightful peril, when we must recognize that the surest way to avoid war is to be ready and instantly willing to risk it in defense of freedom, character and honor — to meet colossal bluff with measured precision of action.

It may not be too late, but the time slips by and if action continues to wait on futile words, we may discover that what was an opportunity to establish respect for ourselves in the eyes of the world has become the involuntarily chosen act that precipitates mutual destruction.

And even that, horrible and unnecessary as it may yet be, is preferable to slavery.

New Doctor To Begin Practice Here Sunday

J. W. KEGLEY, M. D.

Dr. James W. Kegley will begin practice at the Santa Anna Clinic Sunday, Sept. 17. He will practice general medicine, along with Dr. John D. Murrell.

Fred Murray, administrator of the Santa Anna Hospital, said he had been personally acquainted with Dr. Kegley for more than a year. During this time he had been making every effort to get him to come to Santa Anna to establish his practice.

Murray said he was sure the people of this area would like the new doctor and extended everyone an invitation to visit the hospital and get acquainted with him.

Dr. Kegley was born in Lacey, Washington. He spent four years in the U. S. Air Force, about half of which was spent in the Pacific Theatre, where he served in New Guinea, Guadalcanal, Admiralty Islands and the Philippine Islands.

He graduated from the University of Nuevo Leon School of Medicine in 1958 in Monterrey, Mexico. He took his internship at Hinsdale Sanatorium and Hospital in Hinsdale, Ill., during 1959 and 1960. For the past ten months he has served as Staff Physician at the Terrell Hospital. He also served six months in the Public Health Service in Monterrey, Mexico.

Dr. Kegley is married and they have two daughters. Mrs. Kegley, also a native of Washington, is a registered Nurse, receiving her degree from William Mason Memorial Hospital, Murray, Kentucky, in 1944.

Postmaster Lee Strother announced today that Rural Mail Carriers will begin distributing 1961 Acreage Survey Cards to patrons on their routes about September 14.

The Post Office and U. S. Agriculture Departments cooperatively make this survey each year. These reports, directly from farmers, are the basis for official estimates for Texas acreage of all crops harvested in 1961.

To be sure this community is well represented in the survey, Postmaster Strother urges each patron receiving a card to fill it out and return it to his mailbox.

Rural route carrier working on this project is M. L. Guthrie Jr., carrier on Route One and Two.

If both dependent parents are receiving social security benefits, each amount will be 75% of the deceased's basic retirement amount; if only one parent eligible, it will be 82½% until the other qualifies.

Ward School Game Postponed

The Junior High football game between the local Juniors and the Blanket Juniors, scheduled for Tuesday night, was postponed because of the weather.

Coach A. D. Donham said the game would be played Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. if the weather cleared up by that time. If not, the game is scheduled to be played on Saturday night on the local field.

On Tuesday night of next week the local Junior High team will entertain the Juniors from Early on the local field. Both games are conference games for the young boys.

10 Men Added To Ranger Force

AUSTIN — Colonel Homer Garrison Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today the Texas Public Safety Commission has approved the appointment of 10 new Texas Rangers in the largest expansion of the 138-year-old law enforcement body since 1935.

The increase in the Ranger force from 52 to 62 men was authorized by the Legislature in the appropriation bill which went into effect Sept. 1, 1961. Garrison said:

"The Legislature recognized the need for additional Texas Rangers, resulting from great industrial and population growth in the state which, in turn, increased the number of calls for assistance from local law enforcement officers.

"We regard this as an important step toward meeting the increasing problems of crime which always accompany industrialization and population expansion. In addition, we are faced today, as is the rest of the nation, with a situation whereby the crime rate is outstripping the population increase.

"This expansion of the Ranger force means we will be better able to assist local authorities in meeting situations which reach beyond the scope of their facilities or authority. In keeping with our system of local self-government, in over 99 percent of the cases, Ranger activities are in coordination with, and at the request of, local authorities."

Good Crowd Attends Festivities At First Baptist Annex

Rev. Raymond Jones, pastor of the First Baptist Church, reports there were an estimated 90 young people at the church annex after the football game Friday night. All were local youths.

Rev. Jones said they all enjoyed refreshments of soft drinks and sandwiches, served by the church. This will be a regular feature following each home game through the fall. All the young people of the community are invited to attend. Young people from the visiting teams are also invited to attend the fellowship.

Some parents of the church will be at the annex after each game to sponsor the fellowship and refreshments.

Jackson Out: Mountaineers To Rising Star Friday

Dayton Jackson, left guard for the Mountaineers, suffered a shoulder injury in the Goldthwaite game Friday night. He will not be in the line up this week and there is a possibility he will be out for another game of two.

Coach R. C. Smith said the doctor had not indicated as yet just when he thought Jackson might return to the line up.

Coach Smith said his scouting report on the Rising Star Wildcats showed they had a real good Quarterback and that their team was about the same weight as the Mountaineers. He said we could look for a good game this week.

The Mountaineers will journey to the Twinkle City Friday night. Game time is set for 8:00 p. m. A good crowd of Mountaineer boosters is expected to follow the local club to Rising Star.

The Wildcats have a 1-1 record. They won their first game by trouncing Melvin 26-0, then last week lost to Bangs by a 0-6 score.

How About Letting Him Keep His Own Blood?

A West Texas House Wife Circles The Globe

By Mrs. Leola Christie Barnes
Copyrights Reserved

(Editor's note: Last week we began a series of articles describing the world tour by Mrs. Ford Barnes early this year. Mrs. Barnes is preparing these articles for us and we wish to express our appreciation to her for taking the time necessary to do this. She usually has a pretty busy schedule and we feel it an honor for her to do this for The News. The story continues this week with her arrival in their first Port of Entry — Hawaii, our 50th State.)

ARRIVAL IN HAWAII

Our first Port of Entry was Honolulu, capitol of our new state, Hawaii; and although I had been there before and knew what to expect, I don't think its enchanting picturesqueness can ever become commonplace. At 6 a. m. I climbed to the upper deck to watch our approach to this luscious island. The witchery of this gleaming city, Honolulu, against its background of fluted green mountains with their intermittent peaks thrust toward the sky like exclamation points of wonder and joy is a sight to remember. From Diamond Head to the shining whiteness of Aloha Tower, there were cheery greetings from colorful sampans and fishing boats. As we entered the pier and a white-uniformed band played welcoming music, graceful hulu girls in bright saris in blouses and ti-leave skirts, distributed leis of fragrant carnations, orchids, and ginger flowers among the jubilant passengers.

Sight-seeing buses took the boat passengers to view the pineapple and sugar cane fields; the coconut and banana groves and the enticing borders of fabulously fragrant flowers.

Our second Lord's Day on the boat, divine worship was conducted by Rev. Ray Chamberlain, a young Methodist minister.

The next day, which should have been Monday was Tuesday. We had crossed the International Dateline!

As day by day I sat on the glassed-in deck or did my three-mile walk around the promenade deck, and with inexpressible delight gazed on the unending blue of Balboa's great discovery, I tried to visualize just what awaited us in Japan, which was to be our next landing place. I looked forward eagerly to the sight of that Oriental nation with its quaint stone lanterns and dear little Ming trees; and its story-book houses of unpainted wood, Bamboo straw matting and rice paper.

As we sailed on and on toward the rising sun, I hoped I would be able to relish their Tempura and their Suki-yaki, which kimono-clad chefs would prepare bite by bite before our very eyes, and as I dreamed of the Oriental splendor awaiting us and as I absorbed the serenity of our marine environment, and thought of the lulling motion of the big liners that cause us to sleep so blissfully, a tremendous wave suddenly crashed against the boat with such terrific force it almost knocked me down and sent its churning water over the topmost mast. We had struck the Chinese Current and before we crossed it, our ship was buffeted with such colossal waves the deck hands were kept busy clearing all open areas, of standing water; and the motion of the boat became so rough it was impossible to sleep. — I spent that night reading: "My East Is Glamorous." The next morning the few passengers who cared for breakfast made our exits wobbling down the corridors holding frantically to both brass rails. When we emerged, we found ourselves in a veritable spider web of ropes strung all over the ship for passengers to hang onto. All I had to say at breakfast that morning, was: "Texas has nothing like this." After two days of this stormy gale our sudden plunge into the placid blue of the Pacific was almost as startling as was our entrance into the stormy velocity of the Chinese Current.

FARMERS FAVOR WHEAT QUOTAS

College Station — Texas wheat producers and those in the other 38 commercial wheat producing states voted in Aug. 24 to continue marketing quotas on their 1962 wheat crops. In the nation, 79.4 percent of those voting favored quotas and in Texas 78.9 percent voted yes, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist. A two-third majority was needed to keep marketing quotas in effect, and to make operative the new wheat stabilization program.

Wheat producers will have to cut their acreage allotments by at least 10 percent for 1962 and may, if they choose, take out another 30 percent of their allotment, Bates says. Those who comply with their acreage allotments and conservation requirements will be eligible for the $2.00 per bushel price support and for wheat payments.

For the 10 percent acreage cut, the producer will be paid at the local price support rate for 45 percent of his normal yield. If additional acreage is diverted, payment will be based on 60 percent of the adjusted yield per acre, Bates said.

The passengers relaxed once more and the women passengers began to talk of the fabulous pearls they wished to buy in Japan, all but me and I was still full of dreams of lustrous silk kimonos and men-drawn jinrikishas. What a shocking revelation awaited me!

About Your Health

AUSTIN — Several thousand Texans are proof that stroke victims need not lead an invalid life, according to State Health Commissioner J. E. Peavy.

These victims of "cerebral vascular accidents" have been totally or partially rehabilitated and have returned to their jobs or other worthwhile vocations, Dr. Peavy says.

The key to this dramatic advance is starting the rehabilitation process early, as soon as the patient is able to communicate, and consistent continuation of a prescribed series of exercises usually by a physio-therapist with a physician's supervision, Dr. Peavy pointed out.

Today, more progressive hospitals, nursing and convalescent homes no longer consider themselves custodians of stroke victims, but institutions of education and training for the patient and his family. As soon as the immediate task of saving the patient's life has been accomplished, the rehabilitation process begins.

First, the patient must be taught to eliminate fear. This is done by using as examples other patients who have made recoveries or noticeable progress.

The patient must then be motivated to lead a normal life. His accomplishments are noted and complimented. A system of communication is arranged for the patient whose speech is impaired or who cannot speak at all.

A series of simple exercises consisting of massage, movement of the limbs, hands, feet and head are begun under the direction of the attending physician.

As soon as the patient is able to move his limbs, hands or feet, the exercises are increased. He is encouraged to do the exercises without assistance, and to add others as prescribed by his doctor.

He is encouraged to assist in feeding and bathing himself — first with assistance and then on his own. Finally, he is encouraged to sit, stand and eventually to walk. He is taught to open doors and dial phones. The patient is now on his way to being rehabilitated.

While patients in many hospitals get this kind of care, some stroke victims are not taken to hospitals but are kept at home. In addition, many patients are taken home before rehabilitation is completed. Doctors know that even these patients need not become invalids, but with proper rehabilitation, started early, and continued with consistency, they can walk again and — in many cases — return to their jobs. AUSTIN — Radioactive fallout is under close scrutiny at Texas' two testing stations in Austin and El Paso.

Resumption of nuclear testing by the Soviet Union brought on the 24-hour-a-day shift atop the State Health Department building in Austin where sampling devices, working like vacuum cleaners, pull jet streams of air through a filter to measure fallout.

During the four year nuclear test ban, radioactivity got progressively lower. Before the tests were stopped, engineers said it was 50 to 100 times higher. They expect results of Russian shots to begin showing up here within the next few days.

Meanwhile, Gov. Price Daniel announced a survey is being launched in Texas to make fallout shelter space available over the state. He said Col. R. Paul West of the U. S. Army Engineers at Fort Worth, who has been assigned to survey, will work in coordination with the State Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Division and local civil defense officials.

Survey is part of a national program to locate possible fallout shelter space in existing buildings, tunnels and other protected areas.

POULTRY INDUSTRY IN TROUBLE

Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White organized a conference of southern Agriculture Commissioners in Atlanta, Ga., to "seek ways and means to help save the poultry industry."

White said they will attempt to find ways to relieve the current "disasterous poultry prices" which are at the lowest point in the history of commercial broiler production.

"This is not a local situation in Texas," White said. "The entire national broiler industry is suffering from a price depression."

He reported poultry prices dropped in the past week to as low as 10.5 cents per pound, or as much as five cents below cost for many producers.

Meanwhile, the Attorney General's Department is studying the record of a special court of inquiry to determine if anti-trust violations are involved in the price decline.

Witnesses testified the trouble is overproduction. Actually the overproduction is not in Texas but in the 21 other broiler producing states.

Phil Grieb, manager of the Western Hatcheries in Gonzales, said 50 percent of Texas' broiler producers will be out of business if something doesn't happen.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson wants to determine if "there is any effort to price the Texas poultry producer out of business."

PADRE ISLAND STUDY ORDERED

Governor Daniel has taken up Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler's recommendation that a feasibility study be made to determine whether Padre Island beaches should be turned into a state park area.

Sadler said the Governor agreed to appoint a statewide committee with instructions to report quickly. The long, slender island, a potential playground paradise, has been the center of controversy since it was proposed that a large portion of it be turned over to the federal government for a national park area.

LOAN COMPANIES CLEARED OF ANTI-TRUST CHARGE

A civil anti-trust suit alleging 31 loan companies conspired to push punitive small loan laws through the Texas Legislature has been dismissed by Federal Judge Ben Rice Jr. in Austin.

Suit, filed by J. L. House Jr., who operates a small loan business in Waco and other cities, charged that large Texas and out-of-state loan companies conspire to secure enactment of laws that would "destroy the small loan business of the plaintiff and all others similarly situated."

Judge Rice held the allegations did not show sufficient cause against the defendant companies to warrant a court trial.

OIL PRICES HIT

Governor Daniel joined independent producers in pleas for action to stem the tide of falling Texas crude oil prices.

"In view of rising equipment and operating costs, crude purchasers should be thinking of some price increases," he said.

"Domestic crude oil is long overdue for more realistic prices if needed exploration is to be stimulated. Lower prices, combined with a stringent law allowable pattern in Texas, will continue to aggravate the problem of the domestic oil producing industry. This, together with excessive foreign oil imports, some of them by the price-cutting companies, will hamstring the domestic industry and the producing states."

"I hope these and other purchasers will consider the plight of the domestic industry in their future actions," he concluded.

The president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, James F. West, said a personal appeal is being made to the heads of purchasing companies "in hope that common sense will assert itself."

PAPER BACKS IN SCHOOL

State Board of Education has launched a study into the question of how much could be saved by using paper-back books in schools, and whether it would be worth it.

"We can't say what the savings will be until the study is made," State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar said, "but it appears the initial saving will be considerable." He pointed out the principal cost of some books is what's inside, rather than the materials used.

Board authorized the Texas Education Agency to start by asking bids on both soft cover and hard cover editions of one textbook — Vocal Music for seventh and eighth grades. It also authorized the agency to have a qualified laboratory test the wearability of paper backs against hard covers and submit findings.

DEMOCRAT TURNS REPUBLICAN

Jack Cox of Breckenridge, former member of the Texas House of Representatives who ran as a democrat for Governor in 1960, announced he is enlisting in the Republican Party "as a buck private."

"I can not longer support nor be a part of the Democratic Party under its present leadership and political platforms," he said. "And I shall immediately exercise my constitutional privilege of pledging my efforts and dedicating whatever abilities I may have to assist the Republican Party in its fight to restore constitutional government."

He said he will gladly serve the party of his new choice "in any capacity, no matter how small."

But he left the door open to run for Governor again. He polled some 620,000 votes in a two-man race that Governor Daniel won with 909,000 votes in 1960.

ROAD MAINTENANCE FUNDS NEEDED

State Highway Commission is asking more flexibility in use of funds for maintenance of Farm-to-Market roads.

Problem today is adequate maintenance, improvement and reconstruction of roads already built. Therefore, a portion of the total F-M earmarked funds must be spent for maintenance.

Governor Daniel vetoed the earmarked construction funds for the second year of the new biennium as a step in this direction. The Highway Department expects legislation to be introduced at the coming special session to finish the job.

State Treasurer Jesse James reports a slump of $57,746 in August sales of cigarette tax stamps.

H. S. (Hank) Brown, president of the Texas AFL-CIO, predicts the Texas sales tax "will retire more legislators than ever before in history." He predicted "Texas will not take this tax."

Lots of Activities Planned For State Fair This Year

Dallas — There'll be something exciting and different going on every one of the sixteen days of the 1961 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7-22. Literally scores of special events have been planned to carry out the 1961 Fair theme of "Exposition of Music."

To help Texans plan their visit to the State Fair, a sampling of some of the major special events is listed as follows:

An old fiddlers contest in the bandshell and a gospel song festival in the Cotton Bowl will be presented Monday, Oct. 9. The annual Texas Music Festival on Tuesday, Oct. 10, will bring some 4,000 of the most outstanding high school musicians to the Fair for concerts during the day and a massed spectacle of bands that night in the stadium.

On Thursday, Oct. 12, it'll be Circus Night in the Cotton Bowl, when Gil Gray's famous three-ring circus will be presented as a free attraction. The Dallas Symphony Orchestra will be featured in a free Cotton Bowl spectacular Friday evening, Oct. 13, the program including a sensational rendition of Tchaikovsky's "1812 Overture," punctuated by thunderous blasts from a battery of cannon and climaxed with a stupendous fireworks display.

"East Texas on Parade" will hold the spotlight as a free Cotton Bowl Show Tuesday, Oct. 17. The pageantry will revolve around a bevy of East Texas beauty queens, top bands from the area and the famous Apache Belles, precision marching group. "Teen Night USA," featuring 100 beautiful "teen queens" from over the nation will be presented in the bowl Wednesday, Oct. 18, as a prelude to the Miss Teen-Age America Contest finals.

Most of the Cotton Bowl shows will also include fireworks displays.

In the Livestock Coliseum Thursday, Oct. 19, there will be a free Western Music Jamboree.

There will be a fabulous "Torchtlight Parade of Music" each and every night, with marching bands, illuminated floats and beautiful girls — all the ingredients that makes everybody love a parade.

"The Sound of Music," the great new Rodgers and Hammerstein Broadway musical, and "Ice Capades of 1961" in an all-new edition of the popular ice extravaganza, will have performances every day of the Fair.

Base in Cuba; criticized Portugal's role in Angola; picked on France for her actions in Algeria and Tunisia; rebuked alleged western colonialism, etc. But not a word of criticism was voiced of the Soviet breach of the voluntary ban on thermonuclear testing; not a word of fault was found with harsh treatment of East Berliners, Hungarians and other Eastern Europeans — all at the hands of the worst imperialists of modern time! Most of the unaligned nations who participated have emissaries in Washington seeking more foreign aid — and many threatening to go Communist if we don't give them more money.

MISS PATSY CUPPS, BROWNE BROOKS WED IN SANTA ANNA AUGUST 26th

Miss Patsy Darlene Cupps became the bride of Browne V. Brooke Saturday night, Aug. 26, in the First Christian Church in Santa Anna, with the Rev. E. L. Covey of Las Cruces, N. M., performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cupps of Trickham. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Coy Brooke of Santa Anna.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of white re-embroidered Chantilly lace. The bodice came to a deep point in the front and featured tiny buttons down the back.

The chapel length train flowed from white chiffon roses at the waist. The fingertip veil of illusion was caught with a full crown of white velvet with orange blossoms centered with pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of feathered carnations and lily of the valley.

Miss Arlene Welch provided pre-nuptial music and accompanied Miss Carole Campbell, who sang, "The Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. E. A. Covey, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor, wearing white silk organza with a white lace picture hat.

Bridesmaids were Margie Fleming, Mary Ford and Frankie Ruth Walker of Spur. They wore dresses of pink silk organza over taffeta, with half hats of pink velvet and circular veils. They carried crescent shaped bouquets of pink carnations and English ivy.

Tammy Riley was ring bearer and flower girls were Janie Banta of Coleman and Pam Herring.

Mr. and Mrs. Browne Brook

Best man was Maynard Brown, uncle of the bridegroom.

Groomsmen were Freddie Walker of Spur, Jerry Don Mitchell of Coleman and Dennie Densman.

Mrs. Cupps wore a beige linen dress with turquoise accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Brooke was attired in beige lace with coffee accessories and an orchid corsage.

The reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the church annex. The bride's table was covered with pink net over satin and centered with a four-tiered wedding cake. Appointments were of crystal and silver. Serving were Misses Alice Anna Loveady, Gayla McIver and Elaine White.

The bride wore a going away suit of burnished gold tweed with maple accessories. After a short wedding trip the couple are at home in Denton, where the groom is attending North Texas University.

The bride is a graduate of Santa Anna High School. The bridegroom is also a Santa Anna High School graduate and attended Howard Payne College in Brownwood two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rucker and Laura recently returned from a trip to Detroit, Mich., where they visited his parents. This was Laura's first time to see her grandparents.

Dove Hunters In North Zone Find Few Birds

AUSTIN — Dove hunters in the North Zone have found slim picking so far since opening of the season Sept. 1, according to reports to J. B. Phillips, law enforcement coordinator of the Game and Fish Commission.

In some areas where the grain sorghum harvest has been underway, doves seem to be fairly plentiful. Waterhole shooting, however, has been very skimpy.

According to reports from Oklahoma, dove shooting there has been very good. It is expected that with a change in weather conditions, many of these doves will be moving on south.

Feed then is the problem. If dove weed seeds are ripe and there is plenty of feed to hold doves, they will remain scattered through the northern zone, according to game wardens who have been watching the whole dove situation.

Outlook for a good quail season this year still is good, according to many of the wardens.

Feed Costs Largest Item in Egg Production

College Station — Feed costs represent between one-half and two-thirds of the total cost of producing a dozen eggs. This makes it just plain good business to try to get the best feed conversion possible from the laying flock, points out Ben Wormell, extension poultry husbandman. A good feed conversion is the result of a combination of a bird with the breeding to do the job, a feed with the nutrients to do the job, and a poultryman with the persistence and know-how to do his job.

Wormell says the poultryman who uses a good breed of layers and practices correct poultry husbandry can reasonably expect to realize greater profits from his operation.

Read Luke 18:1-8.

I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Luke 11:9.)

The man who is satisfied with his life and the world about him rarely prays. But when adversity overtakes him, in his extremity he turns to the Lord, who is standing at the door of every heart. He will hear the cry of this penitent sinner. When the door is open the life of the penitent man will be flooded with light.

Prayer takes man's fear and replaces it with confidence. Fuller life thus comes, for by prayer we can re-establish a lost communion with God.

From a missionary, threatened by death in China, prayer removed a terrible fear and helplessness. Despair was replaced by a calm peacefulness. He said afterwards: "My own will had failed in the most critical moment of my life. But knowledge that I could depend on a power greater than my own sustained me in a wonderful way."

He rapidly outdistanced his fears and gained his former sense of hope.

PRAYER
O God, we are conscious of our own inadequacy, especially in the face of trouble. We pray that at such times Thy presence may be very real in our lives. Shine the light of truth into our darkened lives so that we may have complete assurance; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

view of the new year books, the course of study being the departments of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Bruce let the panel discussion, which was chiefly on teaching of phonics and on the causes of the growth of enlightenment in the United States in the past two centuries.

Mrs. C. L. Eeds, an associate member, was transferred to active membership, and resignations from Mrs. Cullen Perry and Mrs. J. A. Taylor were read. Roll call was answered with a mention of summer travel by the members.

A picnic supper was spread following the business session. Mrs. Norval Wylie was chairman of the picnic committee and others were Mrs. Tom Kingsberg and Mrs. Charles Evans.

MOUNTAINEERS OPEN SEASON WITH 12-8 WIN OVER GOLDTHWAITE

The Mountaineers opened the 1961 football season Friday night with a 12-8 win over the Goldthwaite Eagles on the local field. There was a good crowd of people out for the game.

Round Up of District Games

The Albany Lions proved again Friday night they are going to be one of the top Class A teams in the state when they lashed the Merkel eleven to the tune of 60 to 6. This makes an even 100 points scored for the Lions in the first two games of the season. Naturally, they take first place in the district standings, and they will likely remain there through the season.

The Clyde Bulldogs also continued their winning ways by overpowering the Roscoe club 15-6 in a game that could have been an upset for the Bulldogs.

Cross Plains and Eastland both fell to more powerful Class AA teams. Cisco handed the Eastland Mavericks a 41-0 defeat and the Cross Plains Buffaloes suffered a 0-32 defeat at the hands of the DeLeon club. DeLeon had been defeated the week before 6-0 by the Class B Gorman Panthers.

Saturday night the Early Longhorns suffered their second defeat of the season at the hands of Class B Jim Ned Indians, before a capacity homecoming crowd at the Indian home field.

Three of the remaining four teams the Mountaineers will meet in non-conference play won their games during the week end. The Bangs Dragons took a 6-0 win over the Rising Star Wildcats, leaving the Wildcats with a 1-1 record and giving the Dragons a 1-0 record. The Mountaineers will visit the Wildcats on their home field this weekend.

Hamilton piled up another big score in downing the Glen Rose Club 34-8, giving them a 2-0 record thus far this season.

Bronte opened their season Friday night with a 34-0 trouncing of the May Tigers. A scout that was here Friday night from Bronte, told this reporter the Bronte club had just about all seniors this year and were expecting another good year, about like last year when they won their district championship.

Fullback, was the workhorse of the evening. Walker is a hard driving 170-pound senior and he keeps himself in top physical condition. He made an estimated 75 percent or more of the Santa Anna yardage on the ground.

Walker powered his way through the middle of the Goldthwaite line for the first touchdown in the first period. This TD was set up when Randy Brown recovered a Goldthwaite-fumbled punt on the Eagle 4-yard line. Walker made the remaining yards in one plunge.

Both the Mountaineers and Eagles scored in the third period. The Mountaineer score came on a very nicely conceived and executed 14-yard pass and run play. Walker recovered an Eagle fumble on the Eagle 46-yard line soon after the third period got underway. After one play the Eagles were penalized 15 yards, which put the ball on their 38-yard line. Power plays by Walker, Brown and Dockery put the ball on the Eagle 14. One pass attempt failed to connect, then QB Pete Simmons drifted to his left and hit Brown with a flat zone pass back to his right, and Brown went the remaining distance, making the score 12-0. Both Mountaineer attempts at the two extra points after TD failed.

After an exchange of the ball by punts, the Mountaineers were in possession of the ball on their 36-yard line. Simmons attempted to pass, but Robert McKinzie, Eagle Fullback, had the play figured and as the pass left Simmons' hand McKinzie moved in to position, took the ball on the run with a clear field in front of him. He went the 41 yards to pay dirt untouched. L. V. Benningfield, L.H., went through the Mountaineer line on a quick-opening play for the two extra points.

Midway in the fourth period Simmons discovered a hole was being left open on the left side of the Eagle line and called a play, sending Brown through the opening. Behind good blocking Brown went the 20 yards to pay dirt, but the TD was called back for a holding penalty. Simmons called the same play again, but it did not work and the Mountaineers lost the ball on downs on the Eagle 18-yard line.

The Eagles went to the air during the second and fourth periods, in a desperate attempt to score. During the game they completed 10 of 25 passes for 139 yards, but never could get inside the 20-yard line. Right end Tommy Stewardson was the man responsible for breaking up most of their pass patterns, but he had help from other linemen and backfield men in this department on several occasions.

The Eagles had a game experience on the Mountaineers this year. However, the Mountaineers seemed prepared for the game, with the exception of during the first few minutes. During that time it appeared the Mountaineers were under the impression they had the game won before it started. They came to life though after realizing what they were up against and really made an exciting game for the fans.

STOCKMEN TO BE ON ALERT FOR PINKEYE

College Station — Pinkeye has been reported from many areas of the state and Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian, says stockmen should keep a careful watch for symptoms among their cattle.

Symptoms include watery eyes and swollen and reddened eyelids, Dr. Patterson said. Later the eyeball may become clouded, vision impaired and sick cattle will show discomfort in sunlight, he said. Pinkeye can cause damage ranging from simple irritation to permanent blindness, the veterinarian added.

Dr. Patterson said there are many causes for eye troubles which resembles pinkeye, including several infections, growths, vitamin A deficiency and wind-blow forage and chaff which irritate the eyes. It is best, he said, to consult a veterinarian if pinkeye is suspected so that proper treatment can be started at once and also the cause determined. The treatment varies with the cause, he said.

THREATENS TO MOVE

It's an old story, but one well worth repeating. It carries a moral and is a deadly parallel as to what the "Welfare-Staters" are doing to an awful lot of the American people.

The story: An indigent citizen found an old dilapidated, deserted shack. He moved his family into it — no permission from the owner — in fact the squatter didn't even know who owned the property.

No human disturbed him—but the elements did. Came the first rain and water poured into the hovel due to a leaky roof. This happened several times and so the non-paying tenant took steps.

Did he try to repair the roof? No! Having heard that Washington was taking care of people, he wrote a letter to the Great White Father. It read: "The roof of my house leaks. If you don't send someone soon to repair it, I'm going to move."

This story would really be humorous, except that it is so tragically true. The "Do-Gooders" along the banks of the Potomac have brain-washed the American people with their philosophy that government has an obligation to do for people what people can and should do for themselves.

So, who can blame this poor, ignorant and lazy squatter for calling on his government to repair that roof? Much smarter men than he have their hands outstretched to Washington. Shame on both them and Washington!

If only one survivor is receiving social security checks in an amount under $40 per month, the check due early in September will be for $40.

In 1944, the number of fatal accidents to farm residents reached 17,200. Currently, the trend is downward, 11,700 in 1959, the last year for which figures are available.
