

State Capital NEWS

Austin — "Escheat" is a word you'll hear often during the next 30 days.

With the fourth session of the 57th Legislature under way the most important item on the agenda is "escheat." Governor Price Daniel called this third special session because he believes the more than 1,500 banks and savings and loan associations should be subject to escheat.

But just what is "escheat"? It's a process as ancient as Roman history; written in Old England's feudal law; described by Webster as, "Reversion of land to the crown, or to the state in the United States, by failure of persons legally entitled to hold the same."

Escheat provisions were incorporated in the constitution of the Republic of Texas, and enacted as a state statute in 1885.

Texas law always has stated that when anybody without heirs or disappears and can't be found, his property shall be turned over to the state, after seven years. But the law has lacked a provision by which persons or institutions holding property of missing persons were required to report it.

Governor Daniel started pushing for a provision three years ago, and last summer the Legislature finally passed a reporting provision. But the bankers have fought it long and successfully. They are still exempt from the reporting law, although all other businesses and public agencies must comply.

During the interim between legislative sessions, a special house committee has been investigating enforcement of escheat laws applicable to banking institutions. Committee discovered that much of the $4,000,000 escheatable accounts lying dormant in Texas banks is being dissipated through service charges and recommended that:

1. The Legislature add banking institutions to the escheat enforcement law without delay, and require banks to advertise for lost owners after seven years.

2. That this matter receive prompt attention in the January session, because the committee estimates a year's delay would mean the loss of $1,000,000 through the procedure of service charges no accounts that don't require service.

3. That the committee keep on working to see if there are any other considerations which should be brought to the attention of the 58th Legislature.

LOAN SHARK LEGISLATION

Although the Governor hasn't said he'll introduce loan legislation at the special session, it's considered a safe bet that the uproar over "loan shark" practices of sky-high interest rates will prompt him to place this issue on the January agenda.

The Legislative Council had a heated debate, and voted 9-2 to commend a loan bill backed by Representative Criss Cole of Houston.

Cole's bill sets a 10 percent ceiling on interest to be charged on loans.

A lender would be able to charge more than 10 percent on loans under $1,500 only if he got a state license, paying $200 for investigation and $200 a year license fee. To get the license he'd have to hold $15,000 in liquid assets for each loan office, and post a $20,000 surety bond, plus $5,000 for each branch, plus the $200 annual fee for each office.

Cole's bill calls for creation of a Consumer Finance Commission which would examine each lender's books annually, at the expense of the lender.

Interest charges would be limited to 10 percent per annum on the amount of cash advance; plus a "service and availability charge" of 3/4 of one percent per month for each $1 of the first $400 of the loan on loans over $100.

On loans under $100, the charge would be $1 for each $5 borrowed, with at least 15 days to be allowed to repay each $5 of the loan.

If excessive charges are made, the lender would have no right to collect principal or charges, and would be fined from $100 to $1,000, and confined to the county jail as long as six months.

The dissenting votes in the Legislative Council were from Senator Charles Herring of Austin, who calculates the minimum rate on loans of $1,500 to be 45 percent, and Rep. Don Kennard of Fort Worth, who figures a $3 loan for 15 days would cost the borrower 464.4 percent interest under the Cole bill.

TOURIST BOOSTERS REACH 1,000

The 600 who decided to organize a Texas Tourist Council at the November "Texans for Tourists" conference here, have swollen to an estimated 1,000. They will gather in Austin on January 10 for the first Council meeting.

After the group approves a constitution and elects officers for the "nonpartisan, nonprofit" tourist promotion organization, it will host a "dutch lunch" for all representatives and senators.

Luncheon will feature a presentation urging that money be made available from the General Fund to the Texas Highway Department for tourist advertising purposes.

W. Price Jr., chairman of the Tourist Council's executive committee, writes, "We have every reason to believe that the Governor will submit in his call appropriations for the tourist attraction program before our meeting on January 10."

Earlier, the committee estimated that $3,000,000 would be needed from General Revenue to get the advertising program underway. The Council hopes to augment this amount with $2,000,000 in private subscriptions.

PRESIDENTIAL TASK FORCE

National interest in Texas' program of work with the mentally retarded resulted in the appointment of Charles S. Eskridge, director of the Division of Special Education of the Texas Education Agency, to the President's Task Force Committee on Education and Rehabilitation.

Eskridge will serve with physicians, scientists, educators and rehabilitation specialists selected from other sections of the country.

Approximately 5,000,000 Americans are mentally retarded, of whom four percent reside in institutions at an annual cost of almost $300,000,000.

The Texas Education Agency has been notably successful in a cooperative school-work program of local school education of mentally retarded children between the ages of six and 17.

HOUSING FOR THE AGED

In an effort to stimulate housing for those men and women among Texas' 745,000 old folks who need either specially-built small homes, apartments priced within their limited incomes or institutions that offer nursing care, the Governor's Committee on Aged has prepared a guide to federal building programs.

Guidebook outlines procedures and requirements for obtaining building loans from seven federal agencies, some of which are virtually unknown to the average citizen or organization.

Response has been so great that the original order of 3,000 copies is just about depleted. Committee Chairman Senator Crawford C. Martin has ordered a second printing.

SHORT SNORTS

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler has asked the Attorney General to take "all necessary steps" to stop dredging of a deep water channel in Calhoun County until that county's navigation district returns 20,639 acres of unused underwater land to the state.

About Your Health

It's only natural when people think of statistics to conjure up visions of charts, computing machines and stacks upon stacks of dusty records.

Indeed all of these things are present — except the dust — at the State Health Department's Records and Statistics Section. Everyone is too busy to let much dust collect.

Actually, there is considerable drama involved in the day-to-day routine of the Section's programs: Current Records, Record Services, Machine Tabulation, and Statistical Services.

The Current Records program is responsible for registering all births and deaths in the state, completing and correcting these records, filing new birth certificates based on adoption and legitimation, and filing amendments based on court orders of change of name.

Nearly all Texans, at one time or another, require the services of the Records Services program. These include requests for certifications and verifications from birth and death certificates which are filed in Austin, searching the files, filing delayed certificates of birth and processing more than a half million pieces of mail annually.

Busiest season for the year is middle and late summer, when tens of thousands of mothers request certified birth certificates to submit to schools as proof-of-age for entering first-graders.

Fees are charged to defray the cost of various services. These charges are $1.50 for a certified copy of a birth certificate; $3.00 for filing a new birth certificate based on adoption; $3.50 for filing a new birth certificate based on legitimation; $2.00 for filing an amendment based on a court order of change of name; and $3.00 for filing a delayed certificate of birth.

The Machine Tabulation program serves the entire Department and is responsible for the transfer of data from source records to punch cards and the tabulation of such data.

The Statistical Services program offers statistical services and consultation to all divisions and administrative analysis, interpretation, and presentation of data contained in records; geographic and cause-of-death coding of vital records; graphic arts and microfilming.

WTU HAS SAID...

"The Center of the Southwest faces Growth Unlimited"

We believe this to be a fact because the Southwest is growing 25% faster than the Nation, and our service area is the heart of the region.

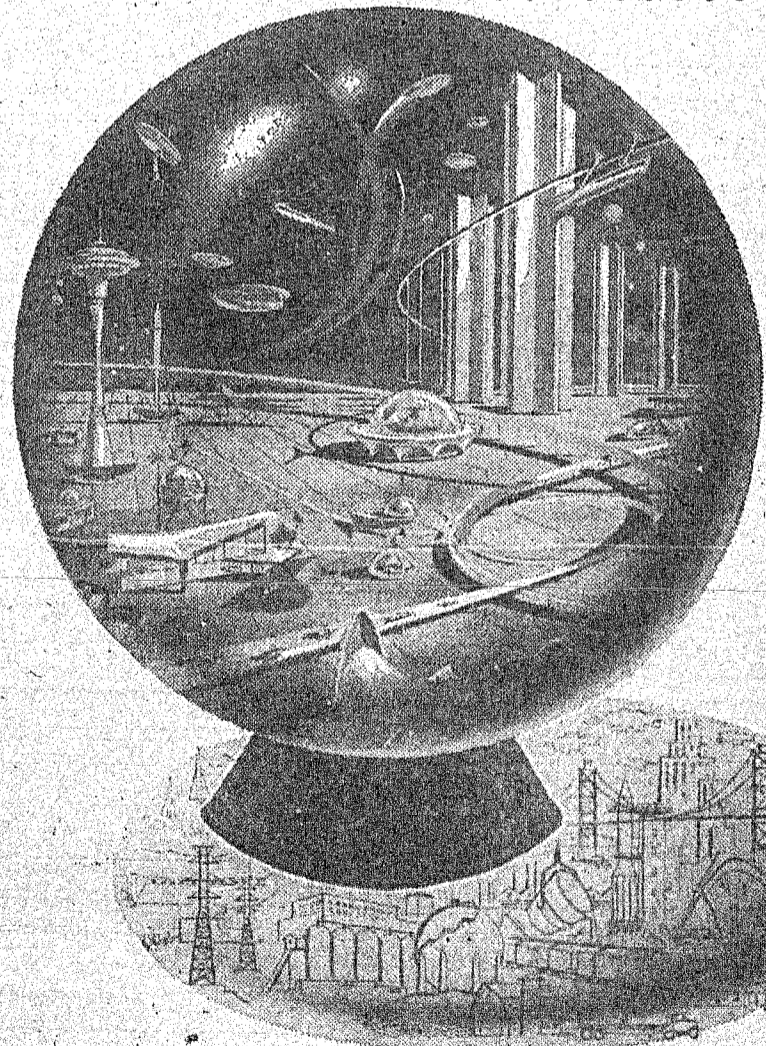

What's more, we are convinced this growth will continue, because expansion of commercial, industrial and agricultural activities all point that way.

On our part we are backing up this belief in coming growth with a multi-million-dollar expansion program. Our service facilities are being increased today, to serve more people, more businesses, more industries tomorrow.

Yes, for all of us, there's GROWTH UNLIMITED ahead.

THE AMERICAN WAY

WHY ALL THIS DENUNCIATION OF ANTI-COMMUNISM?

By Dr. Robert Morris

(Editor's Note: Dr. Robert Morris, President of the University of Dallas, was formerly chief counsel of the Senate's Subcommittee on Internal Security.)

A detached spectator on the American scene is today witnessing a remarkable political phenomenon. For, while Khrushchev is detonating powerful bombs and threatening the world with destruction if it does not surrender — and incidentally succeeding in taking over one country after another and enslaving millions of human beings — we are being told that this is not the real danger. The real danger is the Anti-Communist!

The Anti-Communist, posing as a patriot and joining with other similar minded people, forming study groups, today, according to the prevailing voices, constitutes the greatest danger to the country! The reason given for this extraordinary conclusion is that these people are expressing their dissent from what our planners are doing and therefore dividing us. This division, runs the sophism, helps the Communist.

There is little supporting evidence given for this conclusion. But is being ruthlessly applied with a broad brush. All shades and degrees of Anti-Communists are lumped together and denounced with pathological venom. The fires of hell are not good enough for these Anti-Communists. Obscure individuals can become names in the news by simply denouncing the new national villain — "the super patriot." It is taking on all the aspects of a national neurosis.

When one dispassionately realizes that one billion human beings are in bondage, many experiencing the tortures of the damned because of the Communist slave masters, one would think that some of the indignation being directed against the Anti-Communist would be directed against the enslavers. But it just doesn't work that way.

Recently the Communists literally butchered 13 Italian flyers in the Congo who were ironically flying supplies to Khrushchev's men. There was indignation for 24 hours — guarded — but real. The U.N. channeled this indignation, and it imposed, because of this, more strictures, not on the Communist butchers, but on that nasty Anti-Communist, Moise Tshombe, who wants to keep the cobalt, uranium, copper and nickel of Katanga from reaching the Soviets. And so it goes.

I raise the possibility that an explanation for this curious paradox stems from the draft program of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (Chapter 7). This was approved by the Twenty-Second Party Congress in Moscow in October, 1961. Therefore, it must be implemented by every Communist agency in the world. This is the highest directive that can be given to the millions of Communist agents around the world.

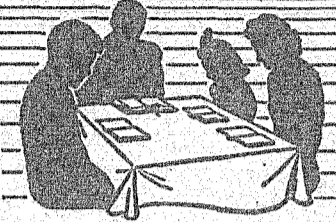

Here are the quotes from the highest Soviet directive today: "The chief ideological and political weapon of imperialism is anti-communism which consists mainly in slandering the Socialist system and distorting the policies and objectives of the Communist parties and Marxist-Leninist theory."

"... Anti-Communism is becoming the main instrument of reaction in its struggle against the democratic forces of Asia, Africa and Latin America. It is the meeting ground of imperialist ideology and the ideology of feudal, pro-imperialist elements and the reactionary groups of the bourgeoisie of the countries which have gained their freedom from colonial tyranny."

This is the official voice of Moscow. It is being generated by every Communist agent in the country. Could it be that they just are experiencing success beyond their greatest expectations?

Read Philippians 3:7-15.

Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it. (Proverbs 22:6.)

When one day I visited a family belonging to my church, the son 13 years of age came bursting into the house. He cried out, "Mother, what do you think the teacher gave us for homework? It reads like this: 'A visit to myself fifteen years from now!' How do I know how it will be then?"

As he suddenly became aware of my presence, he turned to me and said, "Preacher, please help me to make this 'fifteen years from now' good."

I looked into his eager eyes and asked, "Egil, you belong to Christ and love Him, don't you?" "Sure I do, I always will," was his reply.

"Well, then, do you think that Christ will change very much in fifteen years?"

In response; I got a rapid, "Oh, no!"

In fifteen years this boy probably will have his own home. If he keeps this course, he will let the family altar and the Bible have an honored place, and his daily life will be guided by the Holy Spirit.

Looking ahead with Christ is a fine program for one year, for fifteen years, for the whole of life.

PRAYER
God and Father, help us this day, this year, and all our years to be in Christ's presence looking forward with Him to what is ahead. Grant us always to count on Him. In His name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Looking ahead with Christ gives true perspective to life.

Group Named To Continue Broiler Study

College Station — The National Broiler Advisory Committee, named at the request of the industry to review possible programs involving supply adjustments or marketing regulations, met in Washington, D. C. on December 4 and 5.

Horace L. Sample of Smiley represents Texas on the committee.

The committee on December 5 named a subcommittee to draft a possible self-help program for the industry and to study necessary legislation which would be required. The eight man group was directed to report back to the full committee their findings when it meets next in Washington on January 4 and 5.

New Sesame Variety Released By Texas Station

College Station — Foundation seed for Oro, a new shattering-type sesame variety, has been released to certified seed producers by the Texas Agriculture Experiment Station. It was developed in the cooperative plant breeding program of the Texas Station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Oro is a branching, white-seeding variety that has proved to be widely adapted. Its erect branching growth habits permits it to fill out skips in rows and also helps in controlling weeds. The plants usually are 3 to 5 feet high, and under good growing conditions produce 3 capsules per leaf axil.

Seed produced by Oro are white, high in oil and protein and possess a bland to nutty flavor acceptable to the bakery trade. In four years of tests, Oro consistently produced more pounds of seed per acre than either Margo or Dulce.

Oro is harvested in the same manner as other shattering-type varieties. It requires from 35 to more than 100 days from planting to maturity, depending on weather conditions, and is 3 to 5 days later than Margo. At maturity, the leaves and stem turn yellow.

The new variety is moderately resistant to bacterial leaf spot when this disease is not severe and has proved resistant to Rhizoctonia root rot under most conditions.

For more information on Oro, write the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas, and request a copy of Experiment Station publication L-547.

Fish-Hunting License Sales Show Increase

Austin — An increase in both hunting and fishing licenses issued for the 1960-61 season over the previous year was shown in tabulations just tabulated by the Game and Fish Commission, according to C. L. Friou, fiscal officer.

There were 599,851 hunting licenses issued for the 1960-61 season, as compared with 534,593 for the previous year. Sports fishing license sales were 572,236, as compared with 346,632 for the previous year.

Harris County again led in the number of licenses bought, both fishing and hunting. Harris County sales during the 1960-61 season were 76,418 hunting licenses, as compared with 61,693 for the previous year, and 112,336 fishing licenses as compared with 109,717 the previous year.

Dallas County bought 41,955 hunting licenses, against 39,886 for the previous year, and 56,937 fishing licenses against 57,235 for the previous year.

Bexar County bought 31,619 hunting licenses against 32,847 for the previous year, and 33,120 fishing licenses against 32,847.

Tarrant County bought 24,195 hunting licenses, against 21,726 for the previous year, and 54,951 fishing licenses against 55,859.

Nine Plentiful Foods Greet New Year Shoppers

College Station — American farmers have a nice way of saying "Happy New Year." They do it by providing extra-large supplies of tasty foods at low prices, for January markets.

Fresh grapefruit and honey are two samples. They head the January list of plentiful foods, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, College Station.

This year's grapefruit crop is estimated at 45.2 million boxes, 8 percent more than last year. Texas grapefruit are especially good buy in this area. And bees in all parts of the nation have produced 276 million pounds of honey, an all-time record.

Also on the list of plentiful foods for January are broiler-fryers, apples, Irish potatoes, peacans, frozen and canned cherries, rice and dry beans.

The Agricultural Marketing Service, in cooperation with growers and the food trade, selected these items as being in supply that exceeds normal needs. There's a different list each month.

Food stores usually find it possible to offer plentiful items as special weekend features, at attractive prices. Consumers can take advantage of the abundance by serving plentiful foods often.

Root Rot Control Demonstrated By Deep Plowing

College Station — Over 5,000 Texas cotton farmers are reducing cotton root rot by deep plowing. They deep plowed more than a quarter million acres during 1961 according to year-end reports by county agricultural agents.

Farmers in many counties have carried out result demonstrations which showed positively that deep plowing does reduce root rot, said Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist.

Best results were obtained, he explained, when deep plowed soil was allowed to dry for ten days to two weeks during summer or early fall when soil moisture was below normal. Shorter drying periods have given a degree of control but are somewhat unreliable, Smith said.

Affected areas should be plowed and large amounts of organic matter turned under during the hot, dry season. Plow depths of from 6 to 18 inches are recommended, depending upon the soil type and equipment available. Mold-board or disc breaking plows are satisfactory for doing the job, the specialist said. Drying the soil for a reasonable period kills the root rot fungus by drying and killing cotton roots and those of susceptible weeds, Smith explained.

The reports from the counties showed that losses ranging up to 75 percent had been reduced to less than 5 percent by deep plowing. Eradication is not usually complete because the fungus may penetrate the soil to a depth of 3 feet, Smith added.

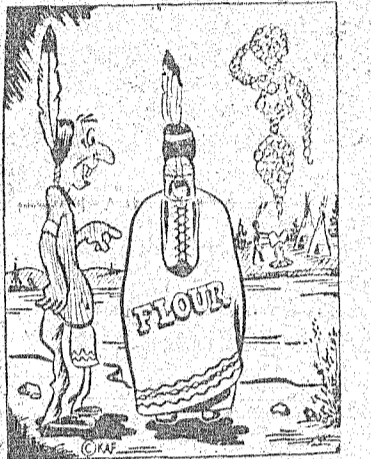

Local county agents can supply additional information on root rot control practices, and Smith suggests a visit:

All the children and grandchildren of Mrs. R. B. Archer visited with her on Christmas Day. The group included: Mr. and Mrs. Billy Archer of Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Williams of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Dick of San Angelo and their son, Duwayne, a student at A&M, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Brown and son, Peyton David of Somersville. Other callers were four nieces, Mrs. Lena Mae Brymer of Gollad, Mrs. Pete Curry of Sweetwater, Mrs. Otis Curry and Susan of Denton and Mrs. Leroy Curry of Santa Anna.

LONGHORN VAIN?

At Gonzales, Texas, they have the most unique weather vane in the state. It is perched atop the firehouse where all can see it.

Residents of this Central South Texas town are ready, willing and able to tell you about the vane and the impressive history behind it and the T41 brand.

What makes this weather vane so different from others?

In the first place it's made of gold-plated copper. Second, it's the same size, shape and weight of a real Texas longhorn steer.

For further realisms, this 2,000 pound longhorn vane always faces into the wind, just as did the real longhorns in their trips from Gonzales up the Chisholm Trail.

NACOGDOCHES WAS

BATTLEGROUND

You could write a book about the battles that were fought for Nacogdoches. Also one about the armies and expeditions that captured this East Texas town.

Two expeditions bent on freeing this land from the Spanish were those of Magee-Gutierrez and Dr. James Long. Both were ill-fated excursions.

As a reminder of this stormy history, one of the oldest of the many historic homes still in Nacogdoches today is that of Adolphus Sterne, the Alcalde at the city when it was under Spanish rule.

Sam Houston once lived in this same house.

Good Crow Decoys

Stuffed owls, fox skins, leashed tame cats and dead crows tied in trees, all make good crow decoys.

Don't wear light colored clothes when fishing. It's the mark of a novice, for it enables the fish to see you at a greater distance.

March of Dimes Helps Dry Youngster's Tears of Pain

Anthony Ryan wasn't normally a crybaby. But at 10 months he began crying almost incessantly, and at times even screamed.

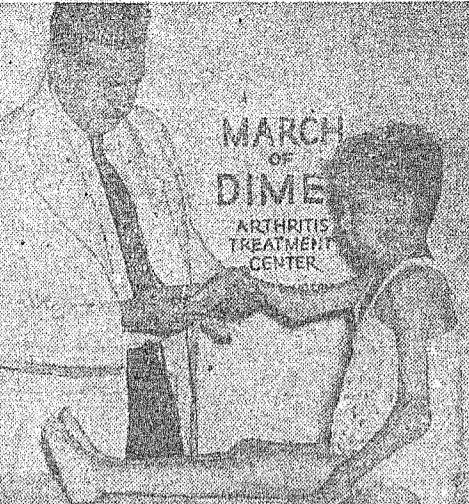

His loving parents in Philadelphia were nearly out of their minds. With four other small children, the household was pandemonium. No one appeared to know precisely what was causing the infant's dreadful paroxysms of pain.

Eight months and countless tears later, the cause of Anthony's agony was at last diagnosed as rheumatoid arthritis, seemingly afflicting every area of his tiny body.

It's 11 years now since Anthony was stricken. He will limp the rest of his life; he cannot play baseball today with the other boys in the block, and he is still in a great deal of pain. As a matter of fact, until just a short time ago he couldn't even turn his head.

Science has not yet licked the problem of Anthony and of thousands of children like him. There is still no simple, accurate test for the early diagnosis of rheumatoid arthritis, although the outlook is hopeful. But many rheumatologists would agree today that had modern diagnostic tools been available to him, and had Anthony been examined immediately by a "team" of specialists in the medical and allied professions—the group of orthopedists, pediatricians, laboratory research scientists, physical therapists and others now available in March of Dimes-financed treatment centers in many parts of the nation—Anthony today might be skating with the other kids on the frozen pond at the bottom of Prince Circle where he lives.

Although much of the injury done to Anthony in past years is irreparable, doctors at a new arthritis treatment center at Philadelphia Children's Hospital, sponsored by five March of Dimes chapters in the area, check him regularly to ease his pain and avoid further damage.

ON EAST COAST, Dr. John D. Bridgers, director of March of Dimes Arthritis Treatment Center at Children's Hospital, Philadelphia, examines Anthony Ryan, 12 years.

ON WEST COAST, identical twins Cathy and Carol Gile, 7 years, are greeted at March of Dimes Congenital Defects Clinic in University of Washington Hospital, Seattle.

This same "team approach" is also employed by the ever-growing number of National Foundation-March of Dimes chapter-sponsored clinics for treatment of birth defects, another area in which the health organization is concentrating. Infants with any of hundreds of major birth defects are now examined by as many as 12 specialists at each clinic, working together as a team that might include a pediatrician, neurosurgeon, urologist, orthopedist and internist as well as others.

For instance, consider the perils from one birth defect that surrounded Cathy and Carol Gile, identical 8-year-old twins of Vancouver, Wash. From birth, the children have been seriously ill with a succession of maladies—pneumonia (each six times), ear infections (again, each six times) and other disorders which have meant prolonged hospitalization. Both were found to be afflicted with an inherited lack of antibodies, the substances in the blood which combat bacteria.

At the University of Washington Hospital, Seattle, where 86 March of Dimes chapters in Washington, Idaho and Alaska have financed a birth defects clinic, the attractive little girls twice monthly are given injections which literally keep them alive.

The Seattle "team" at the March of Dimes clinic watches over the twins devotedly.

FREE VACATION IN TEXAS

Texas is praised throughout the nation as one of the most ideal vacationlands.

Most vacationers, in praising Texas, have in mind the good highways, healthy climate, modern accommodations, friendly people and inexpensive cost of living — rather, cost of playing.

Many of the vacationing tourists also praise Texas laws that allow them to fish for just $2.15 per year, at the same rate as native Texans. Texas is unique in this respect as most states penalize tourists with excessive fishing license charges.

Some ingenious tourists have learned how to make Texas' "ideal vacationland" into a "free vacationland." They simply pay an extra 85c for a commercial fishing license and then sell their catches to pay for their stay in Texas.

All this time they get to do exactly what they want — fish in some of the most productive fishing waters in the nation.

NEWS WORTHY

One of Texas' finest and most popular press rooms is in itself news worthy and truly a sight well worth seeing.

This press room accommodates 142 reporters and 20 photographers. As if that weren't enough, there are also facilities for six broadcast teams and 40 Morse and teletype operators. Nothing like getting the news out fast and with broad coverage.

Photos need to go out fast, too, so two darkrooms are available for the use of the cameramen. There also are wire photo facilities for sending the photos direct from the press room.

Where is this great press room? In the Texas Capitol? Wrong.

This is the press box that hovers 130 feet above the playing field at the Cotton Bowl in the State Fair grounds at Dallas.

It's the Law in TEXAS

Your Legal Name

Most probably you are never quite sure whether your wife should use your first name, or her own, when signing an important paper.

Perhaps you also wonder whether to put a "Mr." or a "Mrs." in front of a signature; and you can get all mixed up about a "Jr." or a "Sr." after it. Then, what about your middle name or initial?

It seems that for centuries under common law a legal name has consisted of one Christian or given name and one surname or family name. The law presumes that every person has a given name and a surname which must be stated in full on any legal document.

The law pays little attention to a middle name or initial, but it is wise to use either one or the other for exact identification. You must be consistent, too. For example, one real estate buyer was advised to sign all papers by his full name "William Alton Smith, Jr." to make it clear which of the Bill Smiths was buying the property.

If you are a "Jr." or a "Sr." such a description should be used to help distinguish you from namesakes.

As for "Mr." in front of your name, that's not important at all. The same is true for "Mrs.," because it's your wife's own given name that counts.

When a woman marries, she takes her husband's family name. Her maiden surname is absolutely lost. Many women incorrectly use their husband's full name, and sign "Mrs. William A. Smith," for example. The correct way is for her to sign her own given name and her husband's surname such as "Joan Marie Smith."

A divorced woman who wants to resume the use of her maiden name may, under some circumstances, have it returned to her by court order.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Visitors with Mrs. Nora Goen during the Christmas holidays were her son, Jesse Goen of Austin, a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Lafferty and daughter, Sharon, of Twenty-Nine Palms, Calif., a sister, Mrs. Beulah Austin and a niece, Judy Lee Richards, both of Azusa, Calif. The group spent Christmas Day in Richland Springs with two brothers and a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Doster and son of Miami, Fla., spent the Christmas holidays with Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Lovelady in Coleman.

JOURNEY INTO THE UNKNOWN

Space ships have captured the excited interest of millions. Advances in the physical sciences are turning man's everyday world into a wonderland.

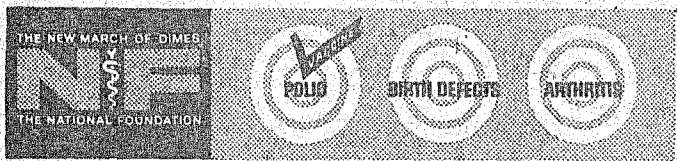

But the drama of medical science is just as exciting—with fully as many mysteries to solve.

And in medical research the stakes are high—man's health.

The wide-ranging National Foundation research program supported by the New March of Dimes gave the world two antipolio vaccines. Now it pursues two other crippling diseases, arthritis and birth defects... confident that YOUR DIMES WILL DO IT AGAIN.

Like the biochemist above, March of Dimes-supported researchers plunge deeply into that tiny world of the body cells, viruses, chromosomes, molecules, nucleic acid. This is a world where the drama is played on so small a stage only an electron microscope can see the actors and the action.

Each step leads to another, each clue to another; each door unlocked opens onto a new mystery. But gradually the unknown yields to new knowledge. The benefits are yours—and your children's. Your support is needed. SAY "YES" TO THE NEW MARCH OF DIMES.

Mrs. Dorothy Watson
Hostess to Circle

The Nitia Daniel Circle of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Watson Tuesday night, January 2.

The meeting began with prayer by Mrs. Mildred Galloway. The devotional, by Mrs. Cliff Herndon, was taken from Psalm 104 and Romans 14:10-21.

Mrs. Margaret Crews introduced the program, "Alcohol and Christians Responsibility." Those taking part on the program were Meses. Dorothy Watson, Mildred Galloway, Margaret Crews, Wilma Welch, Modora Gilmore, Hettie Scarborough, Lucille Dean and Lolette Curry.

The program was ended with the Lord's Prayer.

After the business meeting Mrs. Watson served hors d'oeuvres, coffee, fruit cake, roasted pecans, coffee and cold drinks to the above and Mrs. Doris Harvey and Mrs. Anna Mae Powell.

Complete Records
Help Taxpayer File
Accurate Return

Taxpayers who kept good financial records last year should have no trouble preparing their 1961 federal income tax return, Virgil W. Newman, Administrative Officer, of the Brownwood, Texas office of Internal Revenue Service, stressed today.

Complete records are especially important, the IRS representative said, to taxpayers who elect to itemize deductions in filing.

Accurate expense records are especially essential if a taxpayer's return is selected for audit.

All records should be retained for as long as they may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law.

Another advantage, he declared, is that taxpayers with good records can complete and mail their federal tax returns as soon as they receive their W-2 withholding tax certificates, thus eliminating last-minute searches for such papers as the April 16 filing deadline draws near.

HEALTH AND SAFETY
TIPS FROM THE
AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSN.

COLDS

The weather is cold and raw in most of the nation at this season of the year, and most of us sometime or other this winter will have a cold in the head.

And a lot of us will spend money for pills and other nostrums to "cure" our colds. This money, almost every bit of it, will be wasted. We'll still have a cold until the body's protective mechanisms take over and the cold bugs simmer down to manageable numbers.

As kids we used to hear an adage: Treat a cold and you can cure it in two weeks; let it alone and it will go away in a fortnight. The time element isn't quite that exact, but the theory is the same.

Today's Health, the magazine of the American Medical Association offers a few common-sense suggestions about colds. The remedy is the same as in Grandma's day. Stay home, in bed if you can, take aspirin for the discomfort, keep warm, gargle to ease a sore throat. Various vitamins, ultraviolet light and bacterial vaccines have been offered as cold cures. Carefully controlled experiments have discredited all of them.

Mothers who have colds should wear masks when attending small infants. Colds in young babies should be treated with respect. If the baby has a severe cold, call a physician. Babies suffer much discomfort with a cold, and there's always the chance that it isn't a cold but something more serious.

The Illinois State Medical Journal offers the following definition of a cold:

"Present information leads us to believe that the common cold is a group of infections caused by a number of different but closely related viruses. These diseases have in common the fact that the incubation period is short — from one to four days — and the symptoms are scratchy throat and cough, headache, occasional fever. The cold itself lasts from three to six days, longer only if complications develop."

A vaccine to protect against colds would have to include each of the different viruses responsible. Scientists aren't yet certain how many different viruses are involved. Until all of the viruses are tracked down and cataloged, no cold vaccine could be more than partially successful.

In the season of colds, use your head. Dress warmly, eat properly, get plenty of rest and sleep. Forget about the fad cures. If your cold persists, call your physician.

BUFFALO CLOVER FESTIVAL

Jacinto.

Buffalo Clover is what the old settlers called it. Now it's known as the state flower of Texas.

Most likely you prefer the modern name of this beautiful lupine plant for it does look more like what it is now called—the bluebonnet.

You haven't seen much of Texas either if you haven't seen the fields of sky-blue bluebonnets.

Every April the town of Marlin in Central Texas (Falls County) holds a "Bluebonnet Festival." Beautiful models are provided to pose for the amateur photographers who travel from all over the nation to see the festival and to compete in the annual photo contest.

He was well known for his service both as President and Vice-President of the Republic of Texas and was instrumental in securing a public endowment for Texas schools.

Mrs. R. F. Watson and granddaughter, Cathy, returned to their home in Irving Monday, after a weekend visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vanderford. The group had a New Year's Dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mayo in Coleman Sunday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Aldridge and Van. The Bill Pritchards were unable to be with them; due to so much cotton (over 700 bales) being on the gin yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Banister of Houston spent the New Year's weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bruce and other relatives. They also visited former neighbors at Trickham and with friends, returning to Houston Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Henderson and Orabeth of Snyder were weekend visitors with her mother, Mrs. Hardy Blue.

Whon News

By Mrs. TOM RUTHERFORD

As every one in this portion of our county knows we had a beautiful day. A very quiet Holiday here, and we wish each of you a Happy New Year.

Randell Lovelady spent some time in the Coleman Hospital during the holidays, but is feeling fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Matassa and boys of Dallas spent the weekend and New Year's with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Turney.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Lovelady and Randell were Mr. and Mrs. Lon Bearren and children of Snyder, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Baker and daughter, Kim, of Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris and boys, Jamie Lee and Joe Floyd spent a few days last week at Buchanan Dam, and spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lyon and children at Liberty Hill.

Neil Fitzpatrick spent Saturday afternoon with Randell Lovelady.

Mrs. Walter Yancy and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Bert Turney one afternoon the past week.

Mr. Orval Bible came for his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zack Bible, before Christmas, and took them to Houston for Christmas. He brought them home Friday. The Bibles were with each of their children and grandchildren. Also they visited a sister of Zack's, Mrs. Ellen Rawlins. They reported a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lov Vaughn Snowden and children and Mr. and Mrs. Wright were New Year's guests with Mr. and Mrs. Graham Fitzpatrick and children.

Mrs. Virgil Lancaster, her mother, Mrs. Lucy Daniels and Mrs. Lige Lancaster visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Turney Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris and boys visited a cousin, Mrs. Elsie Bryan, in Mason Sunday, who is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wooten and children, Kay and Ray Lynn, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, were Thursday guests with his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Babe Gardainer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Will Fowler

Cheryl Fitzpatrick entertained in her home Friday night with a party. Sandra Davis of Santa Anna spent the night with her.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins of Melvin visited her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Babe Gardainer Tuesday.

Mr. George Rutherford of Rockwood visited in the Tom Rutherford home Sunday morning. Tom has been quite ill with an infected eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Lovelady and Randell and Mr. Oscar Lovelady had New Year's dinner with Guy and Alta Lovelady in Santa Anna.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Degal and children visited in the Floyd Morris home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. D. T. Perkins visited his son, Mr. and Mrs. Richey Perkins and family, near Coleman during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Durden and boys of the Liberty Community visited in the Floyd Morris home Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. John David Morris had New Year's dinner with his parents, the Floyd Morris.

Mrs. Zack Bible reminded me the community news travels around some time. She stated she had tried for quite a time to get in touch with a friend, the former Mary Thurman, who lives in Houston. Lucky for her when she returned from Christmas in Houston, she had a long letter awaiting her from Mary, who stated some friend who takes the county papers sent her a clipping of the Whon News. And in the news, Mrs. Bible's name was mentioned. Just a reminder we never know who reads our news.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Avants and children of Brady visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Avants, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Rutherford and Rocky went home Saturday. Hilary had a week's vacation and spent most of it here helping with the work.

Visitors in the John Gregg home New Year's Day were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cole and children, Gary and Pat, of Coleman.
