SAME OLD STORY

We hope this issue of The News reaches you about the same time as usual, for, as usual, we are way short on help again. We do not have a Linotype operator or printer and it is left to your editor to attempt to take care of the duties of editor, then do all the mechanical work that two people usually do.

It takes many hours of hard work for one person to try to fill the shoes of three people. However, until we are able to do better, there seems nothing else we can do. So, if you will bear with us, we will do our best to get The News to you as near the same time each week as possible.

You can help us a great deal by reporting your news items to us as early as possible each week.

This week we received a very interesting bit of information from "Battle Line", published by the Republican National Committee. Just as information, we thought you would like to read more of this incident involving Texas History.

BOBBY DOESN'T REMEMBER THE ALAMO

In an effort to appease a left-wing student in Indonesia, Bobby Kennedy declared that the annexation of Texas and the subsequent U. S.-Mexican War was "not a very bright spot" in American history.

"Some Texans might disagree, but I think it was unjustified," Bobby said. "It was not a very bright spot in our history. Not one to be very proud of."

The news reports did not say whether the No. 2 man in the Kennedy Administration had cleared this statement with Vice President Lyndon Johnson before leaving on his "Build up Bobby" tour.

And Lyndon, so far, has not commented on it.

But it is another startling example of the Kennedy Administration's ominous obsession with catering to "neutralist" opinion.

Previously, the Kennedy Administration has not hesitated to take action which went against the interests of our major allies in NATO, in order to court so-called "neutralists."

Now apparently, the Kennedy Administration is even willing to becloud American history and its heroes to please individuals and nations who are basically out of sympathy with our policies and objectives.

Apprentice Statesman Bobby made a basic error in accepting the premise of the student's question — that Texas became part of the Union as the result of U. S. aggression.

The facts, in brief, are that Texans declared their own independence and won it at the Battle of San Jacinto. Then three times they applied for admission to the Union, succeeding the third time.

It was not a case of the Union taking over Texas by force, the premise Bobby accepted in downgrading the heroes of the Alamo.

As Sam Houston told President Jackson in 1844, before the annexation was finally approved by Congress:

"You will perceive that Texas is presented to the United States as a bride adorned for her espousals; but if, in the confident hope of the Union, she should be rejected, her mortification would be indescribable. She has been sought by the United States, and this is the third time she has consented."

After Texas joined the Union, disputes arose over its boundaries as agreed to by Gen. Santa Anna. The United States used arms to protect its new citizens — paying Mexico $15,000,000 for the territory in dispute, California and New Mexico at settlement. The United States also took over $2,250,000 worth of U. S. citizen claims against the government of Mexico.

If Bobby holds to his views when he gets home, perhaps he will recommend that the Alamo be torn down to make way for an urban renewal project so the "neutrals" will have absolutely no reason to get annoyed.

THE AMERICAN WAY

THE PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By Willis E. Stone

(Editor's note: Willis E. Stone is author of the "Proposed Liberty Amendment" and chairman National Committee for Economic Freedom, Los Angeles, Calif.)

Have you ever wondered how your tax dollars are spent? The multitude of wild spending schemes hatched in Washington tend to conceal them from view. We cannot keep up with all of them, so we frequently fail to understand any of them.

Public Law 480 carries this confusion to a high point. It is doubtful that even the people who administer it can understand it, but this seems important in our jungle of Washington bureaucracy. We must, however, attempt to comprehend such devices or they shall destroy us.

Public Law 480 (PL 480) gives the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) an outlet for its surpluses and problems and a sure fire source for endless billions of our tax dollars from the U. S. Treasury.

Under the terms of PL 480 the Secretary of Agriculture may declare Commodity Credit Corporation inventories "surplus." This solves the problem of the CCC, for it can then turn agricultural surpluses over to other federal agencies at no charge.

It is no way to run a business. But this is the "people's business," so the dissipation of the wealth created by the people actually becomes profitable for bureaucracy.

While various federal agencies receive "free" from CCC vast stores of agricultural produce, the CCC is immediately reimbursed in full by the Treasury Department, with your tax dollars, so that CCC can acquire more "surpluses" of farm products kept off the free market.

Appropriations (1960-62) by Congress to CCC for "operating expenses" and "impairment of capital" to keep PL 480 operative, amount to $9,219,833,000.

With fresh supplies of your tax dollars, the agency prospers. It has disposed of surpluses and stays solvent—at the expense of the American people.

When the products are turned over to other federal agencies under PL 480 a new chain of events takes place. The International Cooperation Administration (ICA) is one of the principal recipients of the "gifts" under PL 480. Having cost nothing, these agricultural products put the ICA in a unique position, to play international politics. It can sell or barter the commodities in foreign markets, which tend to destroy normal foreign trade. Then ICA keeps all the money. None of it goes back to the Treasury.

ICA and other agencies included in the activities under PL 480 can "sell" these "free" commodities to foreign governments with as much as 40 years to pay. The purchasing government makes payment in its own coin, which may or may not have value.

Do not get the idea that any of this recovery will help any American. None of it will be permitted to serve the American people, reduce taxes or pay for essential services. In the event we ever get payment from a foreign government, and the money has value, PL 480 provides that the money can ONLY be granted or loaned back to the country from which it came.

Furthermore, if any payments from foreign countries are used to buy things in that country, PL 480 provides that whatever is bought must STAY in that country for the USE of that country.

None of this makes much sense, but it is the way the bureaucrats like it. They cannot lose—and the people cannot win. This frantic dissipation of our well being is expanding at a frightening rate.

All Americans seem to agree that it must be stopped, but we appear to wait for the other fellow to do the stopping—and the practice continues to expand. To stop this dissipation of our production and our tax dollars, the LIBERTY AMENDMENT has been designed. It is pending in Congress as H. J. Res. 23 and has already been approved by the

Arkla Displays Twin Lines of Gas Air Conditioning Units

Los Angeles — Its expanding "twin" lines of gas air conditioning units were shown by Arkla Air Conditioning Co. at the 12th National Exposition of the Air Conditioning, Heating and Refrigeration Industry here recently.

Aided by a new animated display of its products, Arkla demonstrated the rising application versatility of absorption equipment through broadened capacity and design availability. Arkla's twin line consists of:

(1) Indoor-installed, self-contained "Sun Valleys" with built-in combination cooling-heating coils — now available in eight units of 3.5 to 6.4-ton capacities.

(2) Its new family of Sun Valley "remotes," first introduced in 1960, chiefly involve an outdoor cooling-heating (or cooling only) unit which supplies chilled or hot water to separate fan-coil units installed in almost any convenient indoor location. Now available in eight units from 3.5 to 5 tons and two units in a 25-ton capacity.

Stated for introduction this spring is Arkla equipment in the 2 to 3-ton range.

These units are available through the Coleman Gas Company, local distributor.

Mrs. Joe Driskill and children of Comanche and Mrs. Mae McDonald of Coleman were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crews over the weekend.

States of Wyoming, Texas, Nevada and Louisiana. Additional States are now having hearings on it. It provides that:

"Sec. 1. The Government of the United States shall not engage in any business, professional, commercial, financial or industrial enterprise except as specified in the Constitution.

"Sec. 4. ... Congress shall not levy taxes on personal incomes, estates and/or gifts."

Consumers Benefit From USDA Meat Grading Service

College Station — Retailers who falsely advertise meat as being federally graded, or who otherwise knowingly represent meat as having been federally graded when it has not been, are violating the Agricultural Marketing Act.

Ed Uvacek, extension livestock marketing specialist, points out that the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service, which conducts the meat grading service, has given informal warnings to many retailers recently.

Federally graded meat can be identified by the ribbon-like imprint of the USDA grade shield with which the grader rolls each carcass. The grade shield bears the letters "USDA" and the name of the grade, such as "Prime" or "Choice." One or more of these shield-shaped marks will appear on most retail cuts from a graded carcass, explains Uvacek.

Federal meat grading is a voluntary service supplied on a fee basis to wholesalers, packers and other qualified applicants who request it.

Uvacek advises retailers who wish to advertise or label their meat as federally graded for quality to ask their suppliers to furnish meat that has been graded.

$20.00 Added To March of Dimes

It appears there might be a possibility of the March of Dimes drive amounting to $600 yet. We would certainly like to see it increased to that amount.

During the past week $20.00 was added to the drive, bringing the total to $539.82. If you have not made your contribution yet, you may leave it at the Santa Anna National Bank, the Santa Anna Insurance Agency office or the Santa Anna News Office.

National Guard Practice Alert Held Sunday

Santa Anna National Guardsmen were on the job Sunday. They worked with the 9,000 other members of the 36th (Texas) Infantry Division in a statewide alert called "Operation Muster Day."

The vast military exercise was ordered by division headquarters in Austin at 6:00 a. m. Minutes later Santa Anna Guardsmen were pouring into their armory on Houston Street.

Lieutenant Billy Joe Harvey, commander of the Santa Anna unit, said that 90 percent of the unit had reported for duty in less than two hours. He was extremely proud of the spirit and morale exhibited in the exercise, he remarked.

The purpose of the alert was three-fold, according to Lieutenant Harvey. It tested the unit's alert capability, offered training in realistic circumstances, and showed the people of Santa Anna the readiness status of their National Guardsmen, he said.

Nerve center of the 9,000 man operation was 36th Division Headquarters in Austin. It received attendance reports from units in 67 Texas cities. The exercise involved 36th Division personnel only. Other National Guard elements were not affected.

Santa Anna Guardsmen form Mortar Platoon of Combat Support Company of the 36th Division's 2d Battle Group, 142d Infantry.

Savings Bonds Sales In January Reach $25,880

January Savings Bonds sales in Coleman County totaled $25,880, according to Robert I. Bowen, Jr., Chairman of the Coleman County Savings Bond Committee. This figure represents 5.8% of the 1962 sales goal of $450,000.

Total January sales in Texas were $15,310,631, which is 9.3% of the 1962 state goal of $165,100,000.

"The highlight of our 1962 sales activities will be the Freedom Bond Drive held in May and June, chairman Bowen reported.

"The Freedom Bond Drive will be the first nationwide Savings Bonds campaign held since the Korean War. This campaign was personally inaugurated by President Kenney at a meeting in Washington on January 19th. I feel confident that the citizens of this County will respond to the Freedom Bond Drive and our 1962 Savings Bond goals will be met", Bowen concluded.

Your Child — Taxpayer, Dependent

Even though your child earned $600 or more last year, you as a parent, may be able to claim him as a dependent on that 1961 federal income tax return.

This good news came today from Virgil W. Newman, Administrative Officer, Internal Revenue Service, Brownwood.

"If you have supplied more than half of his support, you may claim an exemption for him regardless of the amount he earned, providing he hasn't reached his 19th birthday by January 1, 1962.

"When the child is 19 or over, you still may claim an exemption for him if he was a full-time student during some part of each of five calendar months in 1961, and if you furnish his chief support. A full-time student is one who is enrolled for the number of hours which is considered to be full-time attendance.

Frequently, taxpayers can save time by telephoning Internal Revenue for answers to their tax problems.

Funeral services for Joseph Oscar Cochran, 77, were held at the First Methodist Church at 4:00 p. m. Sunday, with the pastor, Rev. H. H. Barnett, officiating. Burial was in the Santa Anna Cemetery under the direction of Hesch Funeral Home.

Mr. Cochran was found in a field on their farm about seven miles southeast of Santa Anna about dark Saturday evening. He had apparently been dead for several hours. Mrs. Cochran found him, after closing their grocery store and going home.

NO PROBLEM confronting America today is more serious than the imbalance of payments that result from the fact that in recent years we have been spending more American dollars overseas than we are getting back. Our gold reserves have dwindled steadily.

During the past four years our overseas spending and investing exceeded the inflow of our dollars at the average rate of nearly $3½ billion a year.

Today we have a little less than $17 billion in gold reserve, and our overseas obligations are equal to that. We would be in trouble if all those creditors suddenly demanded full payments in gold. That will not happen now, but the fact that it could happen is enough to shock us into drastic corrective actions.

Among possible remedies that have been suggested are these: having our western allies assume more of the foreign aid burden both military and economic; stepping up every facet of our trade in foreign markets; eliminating such spending as is used to finance such projects as the Peace Corps; discouraging Americans from so much foreign travel; and getting our own financial house in better order here at home.

BECAUSE OF EXTREMELY high wages being paid in some American industries, our foreign competitors have been able to under-sell us in many markets which we formerly dominated. That is true both at home and abroad. With many trading countries now enjoying high levels of production and efficiency, and with the development of the European Common Market, our competitive position is becoming increasingly difficult. The dismal results of the wage-price spiral is being felt more and more every day. We are now at the cross-roads where American industry and labor must do some adding and subtracting. The chickens are coming home to roost. And it is imperative that we face up to the gravity of the situation with which we are confronted.

Turman Begins Campaign For Lt. Governor

JAMES A. TURMAN

James A. (Jimmy) Turman of Fannin County, Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, has begun his active campaign for Lieutenant Governor.

Speaker Turman said his decision to run for Lieutenant Governor was "based on the sincere belief that my record as a legislator and as presiding officer of the House qualifies me for the duties required of the Lieutenant Governor — to preside over the State Senate in a fair, effective and democratic manner and to help preserve the God-given personal and political rights and liberties of all our citizens."

"I will announce my platform in the very near future. Let me say at this time, however, I believe that the only legitimate forces in State government are the wills and rights of all our citizens deciding the issues through their elected state officials, and not through the 'Big Lobbyists' in Austin."

Read Acts 10:34-44.

Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons. (Acts 10:34.)

To ask help for a person in need, Julia Ward Howe was talking with a distinguished senator. He said, "Julia, I've become so busy I can no longer concern myself with individuals." She replied, "That's remarkable. Even God hasn't reached that stage yet."

Today, as yesterday, God is interested in all individuals, regardless of race, nation, or class. He is not a respecter of persons. In His sight all men are equal, and those who believe in Christ His Son as their Redeemer are equal and brothers.

In his book "Victorious Living", E. Stanley Jones has said, "We will be 'builders together,' where the sufferings of one are the sufferings of all, and where the gifts of God are shared with all the other children. Into that holy tabernacle of humanity we can ask Him to come — and He will!" When He does come, all barriers to brotherhood will be transcended.

PRAYER:

O God, everlasting and impartial, may we always show Christian concern for our fellow men everywhere, as they are precious in Thy sight. In the name of Jesus, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who are in heaven... Amen."

Dependency errors, especially those involving working wives, are "all-too-common" on 1961 returns. Wives are never the dependents of their husbands. Some working wives earning less than $600 are filing separate returns to get a refund on their withholding tax. In Texas each spouse has one-half of total income earned by both husband and wife. These couples should file joint returns, and when joint returns are filed, income of both parties must be reported and both must sign the return.

HEALTH AND SAFETY TIPS FROM THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSN.

BACKACHE

Oh, my aching back!

Everyone is likely to have an occasional backache, which fortunately is transitory in most cases and will respond to gentle massage and heat application—plus rest.

A publication of the American Medical Association points out that, for the dull, ill defined type of pain that often is present when one gets up in the morning, a bed board is often of great help, especially if one has a mattress that is soft and tends to sag in the middle.

It is obvious that prevention is the most important approach to most back disabilities. This becomes more significant with advancing age, when there is gradual loss of suppleness in all parts of the body. At any age, however, avoid sudden twisting movements, double movements such as bending and twisting at the same time, and extremes such as toe-touching or falling back on the hands with the spine arched. This may be all right for a gymnast or trained athlete, but it can be dangerous for the average man or woman.

For acute cases of backache—sudden, excruciating pain—it's hardly necessary to urge that the victim see a physician. For less severe, but persistent, backaches, it is best to see medical help without waiting too long.

There can be many different causes of backache. The most common area of discomfort is the sacro-iliac region, or upper pelvis, where there is an especially wide range of movement. Tendons may be frayed or pulled loose, a muscle group may go into acute spasm, or one of the cushions between the vertebrae may get out of place, as in a slipped disc.

These mishaps can occur without much apparent cause—bending over to pick up something, or lifting a too-heavy weight without squatting properly. Minor discomfort that could become severe can result from slouching at a desk or typewriter. Posture chairs may save many aches and pains for those who work most of the day at desks.

Four Common Errors Being Made In Tax Returns

Taxpayers in this area are making four "all-too-common" errors in their tax returns, according to District Director Ellis Campbell, Jr., of Internal Revenue Service, Dallas. These are: "Failure to print or write legibly, forgetting to sign, not reporting all income, and mistakes in arithmetic."

The Director continues, "Three out of ten taxpayers who make major arithmetic errors pay too much tax, or select the wrong tax from the tax table."

"Unreported income often stems from bank-bearing interest; taxpayers with time deposits frequently overlook the bank credits to their account. Also, we find taxpayers forget-

Rev. Frank Haynes, Baptist pastor, preached both morning and evening worship services on Sunday. There were eleven members and the sponsor present at the regular M. Y. F. meeting Sunday night.

The supper, which was held at the Community Center Friday night and was sponsored by the M. Y. F. group, was well attended, with 49 present. Nineteen of those were teenagers. Dominoes, games and singing were enjoyed by all.

We have been reading in the papers of the rattlesnakes different ones are killing. We hope the population of these reptiles are decreasing, since some of the men in our community have been going on the hunt for them. The past week Jack and Tinker Dockery, E. E. Pinson, Fred and Jerry Haynes and H. B. Dockery have killed the sum of 53. They spray gasoline in the dens and evidently it makes the snakes sick. At any rate they come crawling out for fresh air. The men say it gets rather exciting sometimes when you can't kill them as fast as they come out. To some of you who like excitement, or are looking for a new hobby, you might try hunting rattlesnakes.

Mrs. Beula Kingston received a card of appreciation from Dr. and Mrs. Charles Henner of Dallas, after she had sent them a sympathy card on hearing of the death of Mrs. Henner's mother, Mrs. Lancaster, who was killed in a car wreck in California a couple of weeks ago. Mrs. Lancaster had many friends in Santa Anna.

Mr. and Mrs. Antone Boenicke of the Mt. View Community and Mrs. Vernon Holcomb of Brownwood were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Boenicke Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Stearns and Rev. Walter Allen of Santa Anna were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Boenicke on Sunday.

Mrs. Jack Dockery spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Mae Pinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles York and son, Steve, of Lake Brownwood, visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. York and boys Sunday.

Brief visitors with Mrs. Beula Kingston the past week were Mrs. Calvin Shields, Mrs. Kate Holmes and Mrs. Annie Knox of Santa Anna, Mrs. Roy Laughlin, Mrs. Minnie Wilson and Mrs. Carrie McClatchey. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stacy and Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Wilson of Brooksmith visited Mrs. Kingston. Mr. Wilson is able to be up and around some now, since his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stacy and Mrs. Zona Stacy attended a singing, held at the Northside Nazarene Church in Brownwood Sunday afternoon. After the singing the Stacy's visited with Buck Mitchell in the Medical Arts Hospital and found him somewhat improved from recent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Whitley and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Whitley and children of Goldthwaite visited Sunday in Clyde with Mr. and Mrs. Morton Whitley.

Fourteen from the Trickham Church attended the annual district sweetheart banquet, held in Brownwood on Monday night. All report a real nice time.

Mrs. Stella Johnson and grandson, Jimmy Johnson of Fort Worth, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harold James and family.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

Dorsey Hardeman Makes Statement In Senate Race

Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo has announced his candidacy for re-election as State Senator from the 25th District.

Senator Hardeman has been a member of the State Senate since 1947 and has served as Chairman or member of all major Standing Committees of the Senate, as well as on many important special and interim Committees. He is presently Chairman of the powerful Senate General Investigating Committee, a position he has previously occupied, and is a member of the Legislative Budget Board on which he has served for ten years. He was elected President Pro Tempore of the Senate and served as acting Governor of the State on December 3, 1954, during the absence of Governor Allan Shivers and Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey.

Senator Hardeman is recognized and respected by his colleagues as an authority on constitutional law and Texas and American history. He has been invited by his colleagues to address the Senate on constitutional questions and historical subjects on a number of occasions. He was made an honorary life member of the Texas State Historical Association for outstanding service rendered to Texas, which is the highest honor the Association bestows. Only five other persons currently hold this honor.

Mr. Hardeman is married to the former Geneva Moore, daughter of the late Lawrence Moore and Mrs. Moore, of Schleicher County, Texas. They have two sons, Mark and Bryan, attending public school in San Angelo. Mr. and Mrs. Hardeman are members of the Church of Christ.

Senator Hardeman, a lawyer, is a partner with Earl W. Smith and Joe H. Foy in the law firm of Hardeman, Smith & Foy, in San Angelo.

Mr. Hardeman is a former Mayor of San Angelo, and former State Representative, which latter office he resigned and volunteered as a private in the Air Force in November, 1942. He attended Officer Candidate School, and upon graduation, received a commission in the Judge Advocate General's Department and was assigned to the 2nd Air Force. He later was aide to Major U. G. Ent and was honorably discharged with the rank of Captain, February, 1946.

Senator Hardeman is a native of Tennessee, and came to San Angelo in 1932, where he has since resided. He holds membership in the Sons of the American Revolution, Sons of the Republic of Texas, Sons of Confederate Veterans, the American Legion and B.P.O.E.

In his announcement, Senator Hardeman said: "As a candidate for re-election to the office of State Senator I respectfully solicit the support and votes of all the people of the 20 counties comprising the 25th Senatorial District. I shall try to see as many of the voters personally as I am able during the remaining weeks of the campaign.

My record in the office has been made on the basis of my deep and abiding respect for the principles of our Constitution and for constructive and economical government. This is not a "single-issue" office. It involves numerous matters of vital importance to Texas and the 25th

District. Many controversial issues have arisen during my tenure, which have been met with courage and due deliberation and with the best interests of my State, and this District, ever in mind.

Legislation of local interest, to the various counties of the district, has been handled with dispatch, as is well known by the representatives and the people of those several counties.

On such record I submit my bid for re-election, with the pledge to continue my support of constructive, progressive and Constitutional measures." (Paid Pol. Announcement)

Vets Use Dividends To Guard Against Loss of Policies

More than a million veterans who hold GI life insurance policies are using their regular annual dividends to guard against loss of their insurance, according to P. J. Mims, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco.

The VA recently announced that more than $240 million in dividends would be paid during 1962 to over 4.7 million veterans and servicemen who hold participating GI insurance.

If they wish, Mims said, GI policyholders may have these annual dividends held—with interest—by the agency as a credit to meet monthly premiums should the policyholders fail to pay them before the end of the 31-day grace period.

These dividends are subject to withdrawal by the policyholder on request, he added.

A policyholder who wishes to join those veterans who leave their dividends on deposit with VA for this purpose should write to the VA office which serves his policy, making sure to include his insurance number.

VA contact representatives at one of the following locations will also be glad to assist: Austin, 5th Floor, Lowich Building, 11th & Guadalupe; Marlin, Veterans Administration Hospital; Temple, Veterans Administration Hospital; Waco, 121 South 6th Street.

Needlecraft Club Regular Meeting

The regular meeting of the Needlecraft Club met Thursday, Feb. 15, in the home of Mrs. T. H. Upton. Guest speaker for the occasion was a Miss Strange, a home economics advisor from Sudan, Africa.

Miss Strange gave a very interesting and informative talk, and showed pictures of the country and people where she is working. She told many interesting things of the living habits, religion and food of the people in that area. After her talk she answered questions concerning the people in that area.

The Valentine theme was carried out in the refreshments, which consisted of heart-shaped cakes and sandwiches. Candy hearts were plate favors. The refreshments were served the following: Mrs. Hallie Williams, Mrs. Dick Todd, Mrs. Will Haynes, Mrs. Cecil Curry, Mrs. Dove Chapman, Mrs. M. L. Guthrie, Sr., Mrs. John Brown, Miss Jettie Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Virgil Newman, Mrs. Tom Upton and the following visitors, Mrs. C. D. Bruce, Mrs. Chap Eeds, Mrs. Fred Rollins, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Olen Strange of Bangs and the guest speaker, Miss Strange.

Washington Theme Used At Meeting of Eastern Star

Mrs. Viona West, Worthy Matron, and Montie Guthrie, Worthy Patron-protem, presided in the east when the Santa Anna Chapter No. 247, order of Eastern Star, met in the Masonic Hall Monday evening.

Minutes of the January meeting were read and approved. Montie Guthrie led the chapter in giving the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Mrs. Billie Guthrie gave a report on the School of Instruction held recently in Brown-

After the regular order of business, the chapter closed and the group met in the Fellowship Hall for the social and fellowship hour.

Mrs. Carmen Donham and Mrs. Lora Rollins served cherry pie, coffee and mints. Plate favors were small U. S. Flags.

The refreshment plates were served from a table covered with red cotton cloth and net. The center piece was large white mums and blue berries. Blue candles, red, white and blue ribbon, large red cherries and a black hatchet carried out their theme.

Arrangements of red carnations and red berries were also used in their decorations.

Texan Named to Head Natl. Livestock and Meat Board

Port Worth — Norman Moser of DeKalb, Texas, has been named chairman of the board of the National Livestock and Meat Board.

Moser was elected to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of John M. Marble of California who resigned for reasons of health.

Moser is a farmer, rancher and cattle feeder and is the immediate past president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

He is chairman of the TSCRA cattle feeder committee, vice-chairman of the A&M College of Texas committee, and also serves on the executive, inspectors, membership, border states, brand and The Cattleman magazine committees.

Moser represents the Association on the National Livestock and Meat Board, and recently was appointed by Governor Price Daniel to serve on the Texas Animal Health Commission.

Purpose of the National Livestock and Meat Board is to promote the use of meat in the diet through research and education.

Tom Reavley Seeks Office of Attorney General

Austin — Former Texas Secretary of State Tom Reavley, making his first statewide campaign address, described himself this week as "a Democrat — an old-fashioned, independent progressive" and a candidate for Attorney General determined "to fill this office — not just use it for political advantage."

A native of Quitman in Wood County and a former resident of Lufkin and Jasper before coming to Austin to serve as Secretary of State, Reavley's fresh approach in Texas politics and his insistence on serving "all the people of Texas — not just those few absorbed with partisan intrigue" — have tagged him as one of the most stimulating personalities in state affairs in years.

A 40-year-old Austin lawyer, Reavley is making his first race for statewide office. He was appointed Texas Secretary of State in 1955, served in that capacity for 15 months before resuming private practice. He was an Assistant District Attorney in Dallas, County Attorney in Nacogdoches, President of the State Junior Bar, professor of criminal law at the University of Texas, and a leader in the twelve-year struggle to eliminate loan shark abuses in Texas.

His principal appeal to voters is three-fold: (1) he believes he is the most competent lawyer in the race for the top lawyer's job in Texas public life; (2) he believes the Attorney General's office ought to be staffed by the most accomplished lawyers available — not the best-known politicians; and (3) his primary interest is "in the job of Attorney General — I will not turn from my oath-taking to reach for still another political office."

Game Arrests For December Takes Upswing

Austin — Violations of game and fish laws took a big upturn in December, according to Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

Game wardens arrested 517 persons, and courts assessed fines amounting to $21,077.36 in fines and costs.

Reports of the wardens for December showed 262 hunters hunted illegally, took, or possessed deer in violation. Head-lighting was the principal offense, with 138 persons charged. There were 40 charges filed against persons who had failed to properly tag a deer as prescribed by law. Others were fined for exceeding bag limits, hunting on game preserves, hunting with dogs, killing does, and possession of deer with evidence of sex removed.

Fines assessed in courts throughout the state ranged from $25 to $200. The courts revoked the licenses of more than 30 hunters who were charged during December. It is the privilege of the court to suspend the license of a hunter.

Various fines were assessed in areas noted for an abundance of wildlife.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Ray Aldridge and son, Vaden, visited with her parents in Killeen over the weekend. They came here Sunday and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Aldridge and Van. The family returned to their home in Kermit on Tuesday.

Sale of Personal Residence

If you sold a personal residence during 1961, then you'll want to hear what Internal Revenue Service has to say about its tax angles. Virgil W. Newman, Administrative Officer, IRS, Brownwood, Texas, is doing the talking.

The general rule, he explained, is that any profit from the sale of your home, or any other personally owned item of property such as an automobile, furniture, securities or real estate, is subject to tax.

On the other hand, the IRS representative said, federal tax law does not permit a deduction for the loss from the sale of a home or other personal asset which was not held for the purpose of producing income.

He added: "There is a special rule which allows you to defer paying a tax if you sell your personal residence at a gain and, within either one year before or one year after the sale, you buy and occupy another residence costing as much or more than the adjusted sales price of your old residence.

"The same rule applies, if instead of buying, you begin construction of a new home within one year before or within one year after the sale of the old residence and occupy it within 18 months after the sale.

"If the adjusted sales price of your old residence exceeds the cost of your new residence, the gain on the sale is taxable to the extent of the excess. For example, if you paid $10,000 for your old residence, sold it for $15,000, and invested only $13,000 in a new one, you would pay tax on a gain of $2,000 ($15,000 minus $13,000).

"The adjusted sales price is computed by deducting any sales expenses or commissions and any expense of redecorating and fixing-up the property for sale. The work of redecorating and fixing-up must be done within the 90-day period before the house is sold, and must be paid for within 30 days after the date of the sale," he advised.

Taxpayers with questions on this tax subject, or any other, may telephone the IRS office.

WHAT TO MAKE

By Allan Carpenter, Director, Service Bureau Popular Mechanics Magazine

THREE HOMES YOU CAN BUILD

Each of the three homes shown can be built by amateurs with the aid of What-To-Make instructions and blueprints, saving up to one-half the cost of a contractor-built home. At top is a 1 1/2-story frame house with two bedrooms, basement, garage, and breezeway. Middle, a ranch-type house which can be built in two stages, as time and money allow; the basic design has three bedrooms or two bedrooms and a carport. Bottom, a five-room concrete-block house that will accommodate a family of four. All three homes are described in more detail in booklet D12, 25¢, available from this newspaper c/o Service Bureau, 200 E. Ontario, Chicago 11, Ill. Complete inexpensive working blueprints for each house are available from the same source.

Straight Talk

by Tom Anderson

COMICS may come and comics may go, but the Bobsy Twins—Bob Hope and Bob Kennedy—keep getting the real belly laughs. Little Bobsy (Kennedy) was quoted as making these hilarious remarks while playing the recent White House Regional Conference in Chicago:

"Let me assure you that I did not come here to make any promises—all that is behind us now." This got a big laugh from the assembled Democrat politicians. And then little Bobsy told a story about a dream he'd had about all the promises he and brother Jack had made during the campaign. Bobsy dreamed he ascended into Heaven and St. Peter handed him a piece of chalk and told him he could enter Heaven only if he wrote down every broken promise on each rung. At that instant somebody passed Bobsy on the ladder, coming down. It was President Kennedy.

"What are you doing up here?" Bobsy asked Jack, naturally.

"I'm going down for more chalk," the President replied. "HA, ha, ha, ha. Ain't that a real rib-buster?"

Some months ago I wrote that the greatest threat to this country is not fallout; it's sell-out. I shouldn't have said that. I apologize. The greatest danger to this country is not fallout—it's Bobby Kennedy.

President Kennedy promised to get this country moving again and to find jobs for everybody. The country was already moving downhill. Now it's on a socialist toboggan, rushing into a one-world, unionist, welfare dictatorship. (There will never be jobs for everybody—unless we have dictatorship. Then, those who won't or can't work can be shot.)

The promising New Frontiersmen promised a broad "Civil Rights" program as the first order of business in 1961. This broken promise is not funny to the NAACP, which has not yet attained forced equality for Negroes are nevertheless safely in the Democrat bag and the expedient thing for the Administration to do was to soft-peddle further forced mixing until other New Frontier projects could be traded out with our Southern statesmen for federal aid projects for us. President Kennedy promised that his farm program would cost up to $2 billion less per year than the Benson program. It cost $1 billion more. Ain't that funny? President Kennedy promised a balanced budget if possible. Of course, for him, it's not possible. A balanced budget goes with New Frontiersism like oil goes with water. So, we turned up $3.9 billion short for fiscal year 1961 and the hilarious prospect is for a $6 billion deficit in fiscal 1962. Ha. Ha.

President Kennedy criticized Eisenhower's extensive travels outside the country and promised to stay here and work. Kennedy is our most-traveled first-year President. Kennedy promised to restore U. S. prestige abroad. So he approved an attack on Cuba which must have been planned and executed either by Boy Scouts or by traitors. That was real funny. President Kennedy promised not to meet with Khrushchev until full preparations had preceded. He dashed off to Vienna like he was going to a touch football game, and there he fumbled the Berlin ultimatum. President Kennedy promised to set a time limit on negotiations for a nuclear test ban. He broke this promise and was outwitted by the Russians at Geneva.

This uproarious new comedy has now been playing to standing-room-only crowds for more than a year. Broadway has never seen anything like it. Nor has Hyannis Port, Nor Palm Beach, Berlin, Havana, Katanga. Nor Walter Reuther, who owns the theater and has been unable to collect his rent.

Let any humorless people who may be taking this criticism of the New Frontier seriously be reminded that I, although a registered Democrat, dislike both parties equally. Actually, I must confess I'm glad Socialist Party A out-promised, out-TV'd and out-cheated Socialist Party B in the Presidential election. Much good can come out of this. It may be better to "Go Socialist" at 100 miles an hour instead of at our accustomed 50.

Socialism nibbles away our freedoms. Galloping Socialism is to be preferred over creeping Socialism because at a gallop the people are jarred into an awakening. The inevitable way to lose all our freedoms is to let them be nibbled away one at a time. The inevitable way to lose the big all-out battle is to continually give ground and forfeit every skirmish.

What many Americans call "welfare," the British more honestly call "Socialism." The personal income of Americans is in the vicinity of $335 billion. The Federal Government spends about $80 billion a year. That's one-fifth of our total personal income, before the tax grab. For defense? No, the vast spending increases have not been to buy bombs, they've been to buy elections. Spending for national security for the past six years has risen 15%. Spending for domestic-civilian "needs"—mostly for "welfare"—has jumped 48%.

The last two administrations differ in ideological concept: The Eisenhower Administration's idea of saving money was to reduce the guard at Ft. Knox. The Kennedy Administration believes in increasing the guard at Ft. Knox. Means more jobs. The Federal Government has four times the civilian employees and twelve times the payroll it had 30 years ago. Kennedy has added 100,000 more. For 25 of the last 31 years the Federal Government has spent more than it took in. Since 1940, inflation has taken away more than half of the purchasing power of the dollar. And the administrations, Republican and Democrat, cynically lied to and callously robbed, widows and everybody on a fixed income—while piously calling on them to be patriotic and buy government bonds which will conceivably be paid off in 20-cent dollars.

Once upon a time three turtles went on a picnic—mama turtle, papa turtle and baby turtle. They arrived at the beautiful picnic grounds five years later. And then papa turtle discovered that he had forgot to bring the can opener to open their cans of turtle soup. So papa sent baby turtle back home to fetch the can opener.

Two years passed and baby turtle had not had time to get back. Papa turtle turned to mama turtle, stuck his head out and said: "I am very hungry. Let's eat just one sandwich each before baby turtle gets back."

"OK," said mama turtle. "Oh, no you don't!" screamed baby turtle as he stepped from behind a nearby tree.

"Just for that, I ain't goin'!" I'd like to add one small voice to the voice of the turtle: When it comes to goin' along with Socialism, creeping or galloping, Democrat or Republican—lots of us ain't goin'.

RED BOMB UNLEASHED TORRENT OF ENERGY

SHOCK WAVES from the massive nuclear bomb set off by the Russians in the Arctic last October caused the needle to jump off a recording instrument at Columbia University's Lamont Geological Observatory in Palisades, N. Y. The waves were so strong they circled the earth for several days, frequently crossing each other, the scientists report. The initial shock waves reached the instrument, called a microbarograph, at the rate of one every six minutes.

WATER BOILS at 212 degrees F. at sea level where the pressure of the atmosphere is 14.7 pounds per square inch. If the pressure is reduced, it will boil at a lower temperature. So in Denver, Colo., which has an elevation of about one mile, water boils at 203 degrees F.

A RAINDROP COUNTER has been developed at New York University. Not only does it count the drops in drizzle or down-pour, but also measures each one as it falls. It separates them into 13 sizes, from less than a hundredth of an inch in diameter to more than an eighth of an inch. It can count as many as 130,000 drops a minute. The counter is used by weather researchers, soil scientists, safety engineers and aircraft engineers. By the way, most raindrops are round, not tear-shaped.

"PILFER-PROOF" bottle caps are turned out at a rate of almost a half-million a day on new automatic machinery made in San Francisco by Votator. The thin aluminum caps are crimped around bottles in such a way that a telltale ring of metal remains if the cap is tampered with. They're particularly useful for high-purity foods, beverages and pharmaceuticals that must be sold with assurance that they haven't been opened. . . . OPERATING IN COLD BLOOD is a new surgical technique demonstrated at Stanford University. Cold blood is circulated through the patient's head, lowering brain temperature about 30 degrees. The Stanford surgeons say the method greatly increases time available for delicate operations in or near the brain which necessitate stopping the circulation. AS FEW AS 100, perhaps only 75 supersonic transport airliners now in the planning stage could serve all the world's travelers. The planes, which may be in operation by 1970, will fly at 2,000 m. p. h. and carry 150 or more passengers. . . . CATS need affection. It was said at Cornell University veterinarians' conference. A cat gets frustrated trying to adjust to man-made living conditions, the doctors said. To guard your cat's mental health, they added, pet while you feed. The cat will have a better appetite, too.

Santa Fe

Ship and travel Santa Fe . . . always on the move toward a better way.

Austin — Texas newsmen quizzed seven candidates for governor at a session of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism society, and fanned early-season campaign sparks.

Gov. Price Daniel took the center position, weathering attacks from nearly all the other candidates, both democratic and republican. All candidates took part except John Connally and Edwin Walker.

A little fire even developed between the three republican candidates. Harry Diehl of Houston said Jack Cox of Breckenridge was "not a Republican — just a conservative candidate."

But two days later, Diehl withdrew from the race, leaving Roy Whittenburg as the only republican primary opponent for Cox.

Don Yorborough and Marshall Formby attacked the Daniel administration as "tired" and "lacking vigor". Daniel came back with a recital of his five-year accomplishments in education, industrialization and other fields.

Will Wilson's approach was that Daniel's entry collapsed the Connally bandwagon by splitting Vice Pres. Lyndon Johnson's organization, and that the only way to get an uncontrolled candidate was to elect Wilson.

Candidates got in more punches in answering tough questions posed by nine newsmen. All of Daniel's opponents made the Governor's unprecedented four-term try a central issue. In the course of questions, Daniel came out for a two-term limit, but with four-year terms for governor instead of the present two.

FRIENDLESS INSECT
A big-hatted crowd of ranchers gathered at an Austin hotel to get more facts on the stockman's dearm — the elimination of the screwworm.

There was no one there to defend the insect. Ranchers learned from Floridians how that state was swept free of this costly scourge by a dramatic program. Florida ranchers covered the state with sterile male screwworm flies this wasting the female flies' single mating period. First airplane distribution of flies in South Texas started the day of the Austin meeting.

Texas stockmen are raising $3,000,000 by voluntary contributions to match an equal amount of Federal money put up by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The screwworms cost Southwestern ranchers an estimated $40,000,000 a year in losses.

LIVESTOCK RAISERS GET HELPERS

A committee of five legislators held its first meeting after hearing plans for the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation.

Speaker James A. Turman appointed Representatives R. Y. Bartram of New Braunfels, Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches, Stanley Boyesen of Yoakum, Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio and Gus Mutscher of Brenham to assist the SWAHRF in planning its attack on the screwworm fly.

HORSE OF ANOTHER COLOR
Stamford oil man Keith Wheatley seemed to get off the track in his campaign for Railroad Commissioner when he told Austin pressmen that Texans should be able to cast a vote on the return of horse racing to the state.

Wheatley said he is neither for nor against racing, but believes "tax profits from horse racing could do much to aid the old people and the children of Texas."

Gubernatorial candidates are interested in regulating another kind of race. They think limitations should be set on the number of times a governor can run for reelection.

Marshall Formby based his objections to the present lack of limits on the fact that most state projects are operated by commissions whose members are appointed by the governor on a rotating basis. Formby figures that by the end of a second term, a two-time governor has made every state commission appointment and it's time for him to take a rest.

John Connally seconded the charge of commission domination, and said that by the end of a third term, every one of the more than 800 commissioners have been appointed by a three-time governor. He promised that he would ask the legislature to limit a governor's tenure to two terms if he's elected.

MIGRANT STUDY SET UP
State Board of Education appointed R. P. Ward of Edinburg to head a study on the education of children of migrant parents, after Commissioner J. W. Edgar called this "one of the critical problems facing the Texas public school system."

Ward, former president of Pan American College, will develop a guide for teaching these children, who form a large percentage of the enrollment of Rio Grande Valley schools.

TEACHERS' TIME TABULATED
State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education and the Texas Education Agency sent out about 80,000 questionnaires, asking how Texas educators spend their time on curricular, co-curricular and extracurricular activities.

So far, more than 20,000 answers are in. Agency researchers are anxious for the other replies. They want to feed them to computing machines. Purpose is to get an analysis to help the Texas Legislative Council prepare a full report on teacher certification and the status of education in Texas.

Other facets of a report to be presented to the 58th Legislature in January will include the public view of education; a history of teacher education and certification in Texas; personal characteristics and social and economic data of teachers; a look at the current class of education majors and an analysis of their college course work.

When the "portrait of a

Texas teacher" is completed, educators think it will represent the most comprehensive study of public education ever undertaken in this state.

A teachers' pay survey revealed that the West Texas towns of Crane and Kermit pay the highest salaries to new teachers — $4,900 a year, and that practically all districts with 2,500 or more students pay more than the $4,014 legal minimum.

GOP PRIMARIES UNDER FIRE

State democratic committee-man Walter Sterling opened another argument in the inter-party battle when he accused republicans of dodging their responsibility by not holding a primary in every precinct in the state.

Sterling and the State Democratic Executive Committee question the legality of a republican primary nominee who has not been voted on by every republican. Executive Director Clyde Johnson said, "The republicans should not be able to avoid legal and financial responsibility in these primary elections."

Republicans counter-charged that democrats failed to hold primaries in 24 counties during the 1960 special election. But Johnson promised the party will "follow the law as usual" and hold primaries in all 254 counties this May.

SHORT SHORTS

Governor Daniel has appointed Thomas H. Stilwell of Palestine as judge of the 3rd District Court, to succeed Judge V. M. Johnston.

A report from State Auditor C. H. Cavness showed the Board of Registration for Professional Engineers made a transfer of $225,000 to help pay for the new State Office Building No. 2, where it will office.

Board of Corrections and Highway Department have purchased more than $350,000 worth of steel, which state prison inmates will use to fashion auto license plates for 1963.

Republicans have appointed Mrs. Robert McCord of Dallas to handle publicity for the 10th Annual Republican Women's conference in Washington, D. C., on April 15.

1700 Young Women To Attend House Party In Abilene

Abilene — More than 1,700 young women are expected to attend the Texas Baptist Young Woman's Auxiliary House Party at Hardin-Simmons University here March 2-4.

The young women, 16 to 25 years of age, will hear inspirational talks by Southern Baptist missionaries and leaders and will observe presentations of YWA work and methods.

The meeting is one of three across Texas this winter expected to draw up to 3,500 young women, said Miss Mary Jane Nethery, state YWA director. Theme of the meetings is "Chosen and Committed."

Speakers will include Dr. Wana Ann Fort, Baptist missionary to Southern Rhodesia; Mrs. Woodson Armes, poet and wife of the pastor of Polytechnic Baptist Church, Fort Worth; and Mrs. Don M. Kim, missionary to Koreans in California. Mrs. Kim was imprisoned by the Japanese during World War II because she witnessed for Christ to Japanese military and government leaders.

The Rev. Bill Pinson, of Dallas, associate in the Texas Baptist Christian Life Commission, will bring the House Party's closing message at a Sunday morning service. He will speak on "God's Answer for This Hour."

A special Saturday morning feature will be a skit, "The Case of the Wayward Window," written by Mrs. Paul Hillsman, Texas W.M.U. worker, and presented by the Hardin-Simmons YWA. YWA organizations unite Baptist girls in advancing world missions through study, prayer, service, stewardship and Christian living, said Miss Nethery. House Parties are designed to further these goals by making young women more aware of opportunities for Christian service and to teach better methods of accomplishing purposes of YWA in local churches.

Nominees For Texas Rural Heroism Award Due Soon

College Station — There is still time to get in a nomination for the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council's Rural Heroism Award. Deadline is March 1.

The award, an engraved plaque, will be presented to the winner during the annual meeting of the Texas Safety Association scheduled for late March in Dallas.

The Council points out that acts of bravery occur in many Texas communities each year which are eligible for the award. Nominations are limited to persons who live in rural areas or in communities of 2,500 population or less. The act of bravery performed might have been the removal of a person from a burning building, rescuing someone in danger of drowning or rescue work carried out in connection with storms or floods.

A brief written report covering the deed and a short statement about the nominee along with news clippings, if possible, should be mailed before the deadline date to Texas Rural Heroism Award, 546 Rio Grande Building, Dallas 2, Texas.

By recognizing heroic rural service in this manner, the Safety Council believes the award will help rural residents see the need for improved safety conditions in their home as well as where they work and play.

George Washington Might Have Lived In England

George Washington might have lived and died on the wrong side of the Atlantic if an English ship had not gone aground in the Potomac River in the 1650's.

Serving as mate on the ship, reports World Book Encyclopedia, was John Washington, great-grandfather of George. By the time the ship was repaired, he had decided to marry and settle in Virginia.

Washington had little money when he arrived in America. But within 20 years he owned more than 5,000 acres of land, including the land that later became Mount Vernon.

The ancestral home of the Washingtons in England was Sulgrave Manor, in Northamptonshire. In 1914 the British government bought the house to celebrate 100 years of peace between Britain and the United States.
