THE AMERICAN WAY

WHAT AND WHO IS A TRAITOR?

By Tom Anderson

(Editor's note: Thos. J. Anderson, Publisher of Farm and Ranch, and five other farm publications, is the most-quoted farm editor in America.)

What and who is a traitor? Most American patriots would agree that Dr. Klaus Fuchs and the Rosenbergs, who gave the A-Bomb secrets to the Communists were traitors. Some pacifists of course, believe these traitors accomplished a great stroke for peace by converting many nations from our side to "neutrality." For his monstrous crime which could yet enslave the whole world, Fuchs, a citizen of Great Britain, served 9½ years in prison and is now free and living in Russia.

Up to 1952 the Russians hadn't made an A-bomb. With the help of American traitors, they just walked out of our plants with the parts and put them together. Harry Dexter White, while serving in Henry Morgenthau's Treasury Department, slipped some of our money plates to the Russians. They printed hundreds of millions of dollars of our money—and may still be doing it. After he did this, White was promoted.

Harry Bridges, Labor Czar of our 50th State, announced that if Chiang Kai-shek were to send troops from Formosa to Red China, he, Bridges, would have his union boycott and tie up all West Coast and Hawaiian shipping to prevent U. S. troops and arms from reaching Formosa. Bridges, who should be tried for treason, is riding high. And Congress lacks the courage and morality to pass a labor bill which will free the enslaved American worker from traitors, gangsters and international Socialist leaders.

Some Administration officials have lied about the fact that we and our "allies" are funneling our war materials into the Russian Bloc. So some day our own weapons may help destroy us. Guess who used to be in charge of the committee which decided what could be shipped to the Communist Bloc? William Remington, who was convicted of perjury later for falsely denying membership in the Communist Party.

Why were the State Department men most responsible for replacing Batista with Castro promoted instead of fired? Who is responsible for our subsidization of the enemy regimes in Yugoslavia and Poland? Why not demand a Congressional investigation of our State Department and a full accounting of our official relations with the Soviets since 1933?

Many weak-kneed or lame-brained people in the State Department, Congress and Big Business want to recognize, give aid to, and do business with Red China. Anything for "peace." Anything for a dollar. Most of these same leaders recommend killing the Connally Amendment which has protected America from abiding by certain decisions of the World Court which is made up of 7 Communists, 7 "neutrals," and one American, whose alliance and loyalties, are fiercely debated. Our "liberal" leaders want to force America to abide by the decisions of that Court! At the present rate of "containment," in a few years Russia will have most of the world's souls and real estate. And Red China will have to Bomb. We are now being told that our only choice is to sacrifice our sovereignty and freedom by turning everything over to the UN. This is the choice of being clawed to death by a ferocious bear or hugged to death by a friendly boa constrictor.

Some believe that the only answer to nuclear destruction is to level ourselves off into a Socialist world brotherhood. Thousands of political, church, educational and business leaders in America today are doing all possible to deliver us into a One-World Socialist brotherhood. Few of them are Communists. And few Communists are as dangerous as an influential dupe who is following the Communist line. Dupes and do-gooders in high places, fatheads and fools in influential positions are far more dangerous to the safety of America than any American Communist except those at Cape Canaveral and other very vital defense spots.

"Treason," says the dictionary, "involves giving aid and comfort to the enemy." In determining what is treason, then, one must decide what is "aid and comfort" and who is "the en-

Beef Production School Postponed

The Beef Production School, scheduled for this week in the Vocational Agriculture Building, was postponed due to the serious illness of Mrs. William M. Oliver, wife of the man who was to teach the course.

A. D. Pettit, Vocational Agriculture teacher, said the school would be scheduled again as soon as possible, but no dates were available at this time.

Some Weather

At noon Wednesday it had been snowing for more than six hours and about 4 inches of snow was on the ground. The moisture content of the snow was a little more than ½ inch. It seemed there was a good possibility the snow would continue on through Wednesday night, but we are not one to predict the weather. Even those who are supposed to be experts at it have failed a lot this winter.

The moisture was one of the greatest blessings this part of the country has received in a long time. The entire country was extremely dry and most farming and ranching operations were almost at a standstill.

Where does internationalism end and treason begin? Joe McCarthy, a Republican, charged the Democrats with "twenty years of treason." That statement should now be up-dated and made bi-partisan. McCarthy exposed treason while it was still treason. As the public becomes more brainwashed, the sovereignty of the U. S. and of the people thereof becomes old-fashioned — and what used to be treason is being exactly reversed. The "Right-Wing Extremists" are now being maneuvered into the role of conspirators.

The enemy plays chess while we play poker. Their moves are coldly calculated far ahead. We lose not after pot because our cards are marked, the deck is stacked, and the dealer is crooked. But we stay in the game hoping for a stalemate.

Mountaineers Get 24 Points At Winters Sat.

The Santa Anna Track Team was 10th in the scoring at the first annual Winters Relays Saturday. The local boys took 24 points in the relays which had 20 teams entered. Winters took first place with 32 points.

Gaining points for Santa Anna were: Cullins and Stewardson in the high hurdles; Brown in the 100-yard dash; Stewardson and Cullins in the low hurdles; Brown in the 220-yard dash; and Walker in the mile run.

The track and field teams will enter the Brady Relays this weekend.

"Measure The Candidate" Rally Set For March 22

Farmers and ranchers in Coleman County will be given an opportunity soon to meet the candidates running for the Texas Legislature, according to Emory Brown of Santa Anna, president of the county Farm Bureau.

The "Measure the Candidates" meeting, which is open to the public, will be held March 22 at the Recreation Building at the Rodeo Grounds, the Farm Leader said. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m. He urged all Farm Bureau members to be present.

Each candidate will be given an opportunity to state his position, or opinion, on a number of legislative issues on which Farm Bureau has adopted policies. Information on how each candidate stands on each issue will be released to the press.

All of the area candidates will be asked to state their positions on: Taxes (general sales and income), Welfare Programs, State Budgets, School Problems, Right-to-Work Laws, Farm Labor and other issues.

Mr. Brown emphasized that Farm Bureau does not endorse any candidate for any political office. The meeting is being held only for the purpose of permitting the voters to learn more about all the candidates, he said.

"This is one of the activities in Farm Bureau's 'Power in the People' program which is designed to help voters select the best possible candidates for each office, thereby strengthening our form of Representative Government," Mr. Brown explained.

The County Farm Bureau President said that strict ground rules would govern the conduct of the meeting to avoid discriminating against any candidate. A State Farm Bureau Field Representative will act as moderator for the meeting. Tally clerks or secretaries will be appointed by the county organization to record the candidates' answers which will be later made public.

The candidates will be given five minutes each to state any personal qualifications, such as age, experience, etc. The moderator will then direct questions to each candidate for a negative or affirmative answer, with one minute to qualify the answer given. Candidates will then be given two minutes each for a closing statement.

Rev. Raymond Jones, pastor of the First Baptist Church, announces the establishment of a Latin-American Mission in Santa Anna. The local church is being assisted in the Mission by the East Coleman Baptist Church.

First services were held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday in the Colored School Building in the southwest part of town. Regular services will be held each Sunday afternoon and all Latin-Americans of this area are invited to attend. Twenty-five persons were present for the first service. A recent census count indicates there are at least 123 Latin-Americans in the City Limits of Santa Anna.

Rev. Moses Padillo, pastor of the East Coleman Church is to be the pastor of the local mission. Beginning on Thursday evening of next week, March 22, mid-week services will be held at 7:30 p. m.

Lt. Governor Candidate Visits Here On Friday

PRESTON SMITH

State Senator Preston Smith of Lubbock visited in Santa Anna on Friday to meet with supporters and friends in his campaign for Lieutenant Governor.

The veteran West Texas lawmaker campaigned for the office in 1950, placing third in a field of 12 candidates and leading the ticket in 68 counties.

Since then he has served six years in the Senate, representing the 11-county 28th Senatorial District. He served as President Pro-Tem of the Senate during the First Special Session of the 57th Legislature, and was "Governor for a Day" on Aug. 4, 1961.

Beginning in 1944, Smith served six years in the House of Representatives.

A businessman for more than 25 years, Smith's expressed purpose in public office is "to work as hard as I can to help provide sound, practical, business-like government that will faithfully serve all the people of Texas, without waste, corruption or duplication."

"There's more than one way to put a business in the black, and there's more than one way Texas can overcome its financial problems without raising taxes."

"I believe the office of Lt. Governor is most important to the future of Texans. It affects the prosperity of all our families, all kinds of organizations, every business and the office has a tremendous influence on the economic development of Texas."

"Our declining tourist business is not the only serious threat to Texas economy. Texas must face the facts in other areas of business. It must take action if it is to continue to grow and prosper."

"Other states are consistently grabbing off new industry and new business that mean losses to Texas. Our state, with all its natural resources, should attract many new industries that would provide us with more income, which in turn provides more money for State Government, without raising taxes."

"Texas must adopt a policy of selling itself as a good location with a good future for new industry, new people and new organizations that will provide new payrolls and better jobs for thousands of Texans."

"In this kind of a program we will gain new tax revenue, from new sources of income, without increasing the present tax load on Texas families. This kind of program is a positive step toward growth in an orderly and business-like manner."

"Texas cannot outlaw all its taxes and continue to provide Texans with good highways, good hospitals, colleges, schools and responsible law enforcement. Nobody can expect something from government without paying for it."

"But Texas can keep its taxes down by eliminating waste in government and by pursuing a serious program of growth and progress that will bring our state new business activity, new jobs and new hope for all Texans."

Senator Smith and his wife, Ina, have two children, Mickey 21 and Jan 16.

GRADE SCHOOL TRACK MEET HERE FRIDAY

The Second Annual Jaycee Grade School Track Meet will be held at the Santa Anna track Friday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. About 12 teams from the surrounding area are entered in the meet.

Frank Gray will be in charge of the competition.

Case of Small Pox Diagnosed Near Here Wed.

Dr. L. W. Jennings, County Health Officer, and Dr. John D. Murrell, City Health Officer, diagnosed a case of small pox near the north City Limits of Santa Anna Wednesday afternoon. Dr. Jennings said the disease was very contagious and both doctors urged every precaution be taken to prevent the spread of this disease.

Dr. Jennings said every person should have a small pox vaccination about every five to seven years. He advised that if you have not had one in that period of time, now would be a good time to get vaccinated again.

Although local supplies of the vaccine are rather low, immediate efforts are being made to get an ample supply here within the next day or two.

Citizens Urged To Beware Of Unknown Salesmen

The season of the year is approaching when out of town sales people swarm to every part of the country, going from door to door and offering everything you can think of for sale. Local citizens are urged to beware of this type of sales people.

As a general rule their products are of little or no value. Some who offer merchandise of standard quality sell it at prices far above what you can go to local stores and buy the same item for. Some take cash or checks for delivery of items later, then you never hear of them or the items again. At least one local resident has already been beat out of some money he put up as a down payment on a vacuum cleaner that could have been bought locally for about half of what he was going to pay for it.

The Sheriff's Department urges residents to be particularly careful of this type people, especially vacuum cleaner salesmen, people offering to spray your trees and shrubs, to kill termites and snakes, etc. There are reputable dealers in the county who do all these things, and their work is guaranteed.

The City of Santa Anna has an ordinance that requires door to door salesmen to get authorization from the City before they make house to house canvasses. When they come to your door you are urged to ask them to produce evidence that they have permission to be making a door to door canvass. If they have permission from the City, you can be sure they have been checked out and found to be reliable in their dealings, if they do not have a letter from the City of Santa Anna on their printed stationery, you can be practically certain they are not as reliable as they should be.

It is always better to be safe than sorry. Check closely before you make purchases from anyone you do not know. And if you suspect a person of making unreliable offers, call the City Hall and ask that a law enforcement officer be sent to check on the salesman.

State Capital NEWS

Austin — State campaign headquarters for candidates for Congressman-at-Large report that considerable confusion exists about this particular race.

Many voters seem to think that the various candidates for Congressman-at-Large are running against present office holders. Namely the Congressmen now representing the various Congressional districts in the State.

They are not!

This is a statewide race where in Texas gets an extra Congressman — representing all the people of Texas, not just a district.

This office is being created because the population of Texas has increased sufficient to entitle it to an additional representative in Washington.

The Texas Legislature has the right to re-district the state to provide for an extra Congressman. But the Legislature has not yet done so. Alternative therefore is to create a statewide position.

Therefore, the following candidates are competing against each other for this high post and not against any present office holder:

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY: Judge Woodrow Wilson Bean of El Paso; Manley Head of Austin; Warren G. Moore of Tyler; Joe R. Pool of Dallas; Charles H. Stephenson Jr., of Corpus Christi; Russell T. Van Keuren of Houston; and Phil Willis of Scurry.

REPUBLICAN PARTY: DesBarry of Houston; Giles E. Miller of Dallas; and Joe B. Phillips of Lubbock.

is not without precedent in Texas. The same thing happened in 1952. Martin Dies was elected and served from 1952 to 1958.

THUNDER FROM THE TOP

When GOP's from all over the state gathered in Austin for the State Republican Executive meeting Monday, democratic pressure to hold primaries in every precinct was a topic of conversation.

Jim Leonard, GOP executive director, criticized the SDEC for urging county clerks to refuse to place Republican candidates on the November ballot unless the Republicans held a primary in every precinct. Leonard charged that it was the same as asking them to break the election laws.

He likened the democratic announcement to "thunder from the top," and called the issue a tempest in a teapot and a commitment to the growth of his party in Texas.

TEXTBOOK CHOICES POSTPONED

The State Board of Education voted to postpone the decision of whether to reorder high school solid geometry, economics and shop tests, as well as one on driver education, until the matter of revising these courses is decided.

Several board members also asked a committee to read the economics textbook, because they objected to its content. Objectors all were attorneys.

Penrose Medcalfe of San Angelo asked to hold up on the drivers' course text because he questions a recent decision to change this class from eighth to ninth grade.

He said some West Texas superintendents want it kept in the eighth grade, since most of their students drive by that time, anyway. He will ask for a vote at the April meeting, to put the course back in the eighth grade.

WATER WORK DIVIDED

After 10 years, Vice President Lyndon Johnson finally got an answer as to who will do what toward implementing the $4,000,000,000 plan to provide for Texas water and soil conservation, flood control, navigation, water supply and irrigation projects.

Federal agencies now have agreed that the Army Corps of Engineers and the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation each will take on about $1,000,000,000 worth of dam and convelance construction; local and state agencies will assume $1,000,000,000 worth of work; and the U. S. Soil Conservation Service will handle $2,000,000,000 worth of small dam and soil conservation work.

Balance of the project is navigation, irrigation, recreation and local flood protection.

Agreement still needs approval at the Washington level, but for the first time in its history, Texas has a water plan and water agencies and engineers have come to an understanding on Texas' future water needs.

The Texas Water Commission endorsed the work division agreement.

REHABILITATION CENTER HOLDS ON

Gov. Price Daniel reports that directors of the Texas Rehabilitation Center at Gonzales have recinded their order to close the center. They will keep it open at least until May 5, to wait the outcome of a campaign to raise $100,000 through private donations.

Gov. Daniel called for public support of the drive, and said he will recommend action by the Legislature to continue the services the center offers to vic-diseases.

Fifty-four patients now are under treatment at "Gonzales Warm Springs." If operation funds were available, the foundation could care for 120 patients.

SHORT SHORT SNORTS

U. S. Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges has told Gov. Daniel he will speak at the "Visit USA" Tourist Conference in Dallas, April 9. Governors and representatives from several Southwestern states will attend.

District and county attorneys, judges, police chiefs, sheriffs and other law enforcers are being asked to attend the Citizens Law Enforcement committee's March 23 meeting in the State Capitol.

The State Highway Department has just issued a handsome four-color 1962 highway travel map of Texas. It features an illustrated guide to vacation and historical spots. In addition, it presents color photographs of tourist attractions.

Germination Test Advised For Cotton Planting Seed

College Station — There is one sure way to know whether cotton planting seed will germinate when planted. Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist, says it is through the use of germination tests.

In recent visits with ginners and farmers, Elliott reports that many are finding the seed which was saved to plant this year's crop isn't measuring up to expectations. And, points out Elliott, getting a good stand on the first planting may have a lot to do with yields next fall.

Elliott reports the lowest germinating seed apparently are from fields which were harvested when the moisture content was too high. Research, he explains, has shown that seed should not be saved from cotton which is harvested when moisture content is above 8-10 percent. When moisture is above this level and the seed cotton is held for even a comparatively short time on the trailer, the cotton goes through a heating process which not only lowers the grade but also the quality of the seed.

The specialist strongly recommends to all growers who plan to plant cottonseed saved from last year's crop that they have a germination test run or use the familiar "rag doll" test at home. The small fee for a germination test, he adds, could save replanting.

He also suggests that after the germination ability of the seed has been established that they be treated with an approved fungicide. Seed treatment will aid in the reduction of stand losses from seedling diseases and also helps to prevent seed decay and damping off from soil and seed borne organisms.

Elliott suggests a visit with the local county agent for more information on germination testing and seed treatment.

Navy Plans To Enlist "Lone Star" Company

The local Navy Recruiter has announced plans of the Navy's intent to enlist a special company, called the "Lone Star" Company. The young men who will be in the company will be from 81 counties from Northeast Texas. Companies such as this one are formed periodically to advertise the home state and to create general interest about the home state, of which the companies are from.

For instance, this Lone Star Company will be training during the months of April, May, June and part of July. These months are festive months so to speak, and the Navy, especially the local Navy elements, hope the company will be outstanding in every thing they do, and will bear the Lone Star title with pride of the great State of Texas.

These young men will be processed and enlisted from now until the 27th of March, and then on the 28th of March they will be sworn into the Navy, as a Company, at the U. S. Naval Air Station in Dallas. Then they will leave for San Diego, Calif. to commence their recruit training. All parents, relatives and friends are invited and are sure to be welcome to attend the ceremony.

For more detailed information contact the local Navy Recruiter.

STEPPED UP INTEREST in governmental affairs in the 21st Congressional District is indicated by the Opinionaires now pouring in from our district. The results, now being tabulated as the returns are received, should give a fairly accurate barometer of the composite thinking of the people of our area on many issues now pending. At least 15,000 returns are anticipated.

A Kerrville store owner points to a weakness in our unemployment compensation system, with this comment: "I sincerely believe that Unemployment payments are creating or continuing the number of enemployed by at least 75%; that is, the number that refuse to work as long as they have any income. This is the State's problem; however, if the Federal Government would ask for a check-up on all people receiving this aid, I feel sure the number of unemployed would drop 25%."

EASY-TO-MAKE TRUNDLE BEDS SAVE SPACE

Ideal for children's bedrooms or guest rooms, trundle beds are safer than bunk beds since there is no ladder to climb. The lower bed is on casters so it can be moved out into the room at night. Both beds use standard size mattresses and have storage headboards. The lower is 23-in. high, the upper is 40-in. high. To order full-size pattern B102 for making both beds, send $1.50 to Service Bureau, c/o this newspaper, 200 E. Ontario St., Chicago 11, Ill. House last week. Interest on that debt jumped from $8.9 billion last year to $9.3 billion this year — an increase of $400 million in one year. Yet, many liberals insist the size of the debt is of no concern because "we owe it to ourselves".

A COMPROMISE has been agreed upon by Senate-House conferees on the job re-training bill. The House version called for $263 million to be spent over two years to help for training jobless workers and give them subsistence payments while being trained. The Senate version called for a four-year, $655 million program. The compromise splits the difference and calls for an outlay of $455 million. Thus, another welfare program is to be which, unhappily for the taxpayers, involves many duplications of other existing welfare training and re-training programs for the unemployed.

RUBBISH ON THE RUN

Beauty is only skin deep, the old saying goes.

Sometimes clean-up around the house is only skin deep, too. Out where the family does most of its living, everything is neat and orderly.

But how about the attic or storage closet, the basement and that garage corner? These are apt to be the forgotten spots, where clutter accumulates.

This can make them hazardous trouble spots, too.

These four areas are where 18 percent of all destructive home fires start, National Fire Protection Association research shows.

Put rubbish on the run everywhere in your home. Clear out those stacks of newspapers and magazines, discarded clothing and mattresses, old draperies, rags, paint cans — every bit of combustible clutter.

It's one of the smartest things you can do to keep your home and family safe from fire.

DON'T SEND CASH

Don't send cash in the mail to pay your 1961 federal income tax because it may be lost or misdelivered enroute and you would have to pay again. Ellis Campbell Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue Service, advised taxpayers today.

Use a check or a completely filled in money order, the IRS representative advises. He said this type of payment affords protection in that taxpayers may order stop-payment in event of loss, or misdelivery.

To make doubly sure that your check or money order is delivered properly, make it payable to Internal Revenue Service and mail it to Internal Revenue Service, 2101 Pacific Avenue, Dallas, Texas, he said.

Mrs. Julia McGonagill underwent emergency surgery in a Brownwood hospital about 2:00 a. m. Monday. She is reported to be convalescing nicely at this time.

Air Force Makes Change In Enlistment Policy March 1

T/Sgt. Hollis C. Yates, Air Force Recruiter in Abilene, announces a change in the requirement for enlistment in the Air Force.

In the past, the requirement was that the applicant had to be a high school graduate. Effective 1 March 1962, this requirement has been removed and the aptitude scores have been raised for enlistment.

Anyone desiring more information can call Abilene Collect, Orchard 2-8949.

PEOPLE ON EARTH

How many people, all told, have lived on this earth? About 77 billion, estimates the Population Reference Bureau. Today's population of about three billion is approximately four percent of the total.

The Hardin-Simmons University Cowboys of Abilene, Texas, the most famous of all college bands, have played all over the nation and have toured Europe.

EDUCATIONAL EXPENSE

Under one of two conditions, direct costs of education and necessary expenses for travel, meals and lodging while taking educational courses away from home overnight are deductible on that 1961 federal income tax return.

Virgil W. Newman, Administrative Officer, Internal Revenue Service, Brownwood, revealed the two conditions:

(1) If the education was undertaken primarily to maintain or improve the skills of a taxpayer required in the performance of his employment duties when the education expense was incurred; or

(2) If the education was undertaken primarily to meet the express requirements of a taxpayer's employer, or the requirements of applicable law or regulation imposed as a condition for retaining the taxpayer's present employment, salary or position.

The IRS Representative added "You may not deduct expenses for education if the primary purpose for which the education was undertaken was any of the following:

- (1) To obtain a new position or a substantial advancement in your position,
- (2) To fulfill your general educational aspirations or any other personal purpose,
- (3) To meet the minimum requirements for qualification or establishment of your intended trade, business or specialty.

"Direct costs of education such as books, tuition, laboratory fees, etc., are deductible only when you itemize your deductions on your return Form 1040. You may not deduct these if you take the standard deduction, use the tax table, or use the simple card Form 1040A.

"Travel expense and the cost of meals and lodging while away from home overnight pursuing qualifying educational activities are also deductible on Form 1040."

Taxpayers with other questions about this subject may telephone the local IRS office.

Member churches participating in the program were: Methodist, Christian, Seventh-day Adventists, New Hope Baptist and United Presbyterian.

Decorations included a globe on which ribbons were attached that led to dolls from various countries, used as a center piece on the altar table. Spring flowers surrounded the globe.

An offering of $25.44 was accepted and will be sent to the World Day of Prayer Mission.

One prayer offered was to pray for "those who breed division and strife... who spread corruption and sin... who oppress... who enslave... who separate people from people and people from God."

NEW TEXAS TRAVEL MAP READY FOR USE

Austin — The pioneering Texas Highway Department — originator of a proposal to standardize symbols on state maps for easier understanding by motorists — features some of the new symbols on its 1962 Official Highway Travel Map.

A four-color beauty with "See Texas" as its theme, the new map is now available free to the public.

In 1956, Texas recommended that a standard set of symbols be adopted for use on all state maps — to make the maps easier to read for motorists crossing from one state into another. This proposal was eventually adopted by the American Association of State Highway Officials and within the next few years all official state highway maps will be using these accepted standard symbols. When this standardization is effected, none of the road symbols should be "foreign" to a motorist traveling anywhere in the United States — provided the map he consults utilizes the AASHO symbols.

Such uniform symbols will make the nation's travel maps easier to read and understand — whether in New York or New Mexico, South Dakota or South Carolina. A quick look at the standard symbols, and the motorist immediately knows what type of highways are available in a given area, as well as many types of other special travel information required by the modern motorist.

Texas Highway Department officials said they plan to adopt all the AASHO highway symbols probably will be completely redesigned. They said the basic map probably will be completely redrawn within the next two years.

Changes are the Lone Star State will be the first of The Forty and Ten whose highway departments turns out a travel map incorporating all the AASHO symbols.

Use of the AASHO color symbols indicating the network of Interstate, U. S. and State highways, and Farm to Market roads in Texas keynotes the major changes in the latest edition of the popular travel map.

On the new map, U. S. highways and Farm to Market roads — both formerly indicated in black — are now shown in a red band and a blue band respectively. Shields for U. S. highways remain red; but Farm to Market road shields, which were black, now are "boxes" in blue, too.

Officials of the Texas Highway Department said that markings for the State highways will remain in a black band. Also, Interstate Highways will retain their two narrow black bands with a red center. This is the standard symbol for showing the Interstate Highway System.

Multilane-divided highways

now completed and shown on the new map total 2,131 miles. They include the finished sections of the seven National System of Interstate and Defense Highways throughout Texas.

This year's map has more than 698 Farm to Market and Ranch to Market road miles added. Approximately 20,848 miles of the state's more than 33,000-mile Farm to Market road system now under maintenance are shown on the map. So are the 26,921 miles of Interstate, U. S. and State highways.

The 1962 map has a map-on-a-map feature on its colorful reverse side. This is a caricature map that plays up "Things to Do, Places to Go, Things to See — in Texas!"

A section underneath the caricature map tells about the vacation activities in Texas that are "as varied as the landscape of the Lone Star State itself." In another section, entitled "Good Highways: A Texas Tradition," the map reader is told about the state's "vast 62,000-mile highway network which offers the maximum in safety, comfort and convenience for all type of motor travel."

Texas — in all its panoramic grandeur — is illustrated in eleven full-color photographs of scenes the motorist may view from his car window as he travels on the more than 62,000 miles of the Texas Highway System "engineered for safety, comfort and pleasure." These pictures were selected to get a geographical cross section of the Lone Star State, and they depict the different types of highways and special traffic facilities offered motorist by the Texas Highway Department.

The 1962 map plots 1,828 cities and towns. It also features twelve insets, which are not city maps but maps showing major routes in the state's dozen largest cities. They are Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Lubbock, San Antonio, Waco, and Wichita Falls.

Free copies of the new Texas motoring map may be obtained by writing the Texas Highway Department, P. O. Box 5064, Austin. The map also is available at the 25 highway district offices and eight Tourist Bureaus throughout the state. County tax offices have map cards for requesting copies of the map.

Distribution of the 1962 Official Highway Travel Map is estimated at 750,000 copies, but demand for this motorist's must might push the estimate near the million mark.

San Francisco EXAMINER

CASUALTY AND THEFT LOSSES

Casualty and theft losses may be deducted on federal income tax returns under certain conditions, Virgil W. Newman, Administrative Officer, Internal Revenue Service, Brownwood, said today.

Deductible casualty losses, he said, include losses of property resulting from storm, flood, hurricane, auto accident, fire, or similar event.

Deductible theft losses include money or other personal property due to theft in the year of discovery, but not those resulting from losing or mislaying articles.

He continued: "A deductible casualty loss can result from complete or partial destruction of the taxpayer's property; generally speaking, it must result from an identifiable event of a sudden, unexpected or unusual nature, such as a hurricane, flood or fire."

"Damage to your own car resulting from a collision or accident can be deducted if not due to your willful negligence or willful act. You cannot deduct amounts you pay for damage to another car with which you collided."

"On personal or nonbusiness property, the amount of the loss is computed by comparing the decrease in the fair market value with the adjusted basis. The loss you have sustained for tax purposes is the lesser of these amounts. From this amount you must subtract the insurance or other compensation which you received or expect to receive. The amount which is left is the amount you may deduct as a nonbusiness casualty loss."

"Some of the loss items for which you cannot claim a deduction are personal injury to yourself or another person; accidental loss of cash or other personal property; damage due to rust or gradual erosion; and property lost in storage, or in transit."

Taxpayers with additional questions on this subject may get free Publication No. 5174, "Casualties, Thefts, Condemnations," by contacting the Internal Revenue Service.

FREEDOM BOND DRIVE TO BEGIN IN MAY, JUNE

United States Savings Bonds have two purposes: one to provide financing for the government, the other to help people save money. The first purpose brought the bond program into being in the first place. But as a practical matter, it is the latter function that sells the bonds.

It becomes an extremely personal thing, when the bond buyer realizes he is putting a solid financial foundation under his home, his family and especially the prospects of his children. That is what Savings Bond buying does for millions.

This leads into something currently important. For two months, next May and June, the impact of Savings Bond buying will be left in the lives of most of our people. That will be the period of the 1962 Freedom Bond Drive. The 1962 goal will be the sale of $4.75 billion in E and H Savings Bonds.

There will be other objectives. One is to have as many people as possibly — actually every American, if that is possible — be Saving Bond buyers during the period. Another is to increase the number of payroll savers; they now number 8 million. A third is to build up over-the-counter bond sales in banks.

If past experience means anything, the public will respond. There have been no exceptions to this record since the first World War, when all the Liberty Loans and the wind-up Victory Loan were oversubscribed. In the present sequence, there have been three periods, the Defense Bonds of pre-World War II, the War Bonds during the war, and since then the Savings Bonds. All have accomplished the basic purpose, to give the government working capital. But the greater profit has been in the millions of people made conscious for the first time in their lives of the road to personal solvency and security to be found in systematic saving.

Ysleta, near El Paso, Texas, was in Mexico when it was founded, but the Rio Grande changed its course, placing the town on the American side.

Convenient Way To Change Term Policy To Permanent Type

More than two-and-a-half million World War II veterans who have not converted their term insurance to permanent plan policies may use an easy-stage method of making the change, P. J. Mims, manager of the VA regional office in Waco pointed out today.

Both the law and VA regulations permit these term policyholders to convert as little as $1,000 to a plan with fixed premium amounts, in order to avoid the periodic increases in the cost of term insurance.

By converting $1,000 a year for the next ten years, the full amount of a $10,000 policy will be in permanent insurance within a decade.

Mims pointed out that annual dividends may be used in the process to reduce the cash outlay.

Permanent plan policies available to World War II term policyholders are ordinary life, 20-payment life, 20-year endowment, endowment at age 60 and endowment at age 65.

Permanent plans have certain values which term policies do not have, including loan value, cash surrender value, and an extended insurance value.

Information about individual cases may be obtained from VA contact representatives at any VA office.

Bluestone Suggested For Removing Green Scum From Tanks

College Station — When water in stock troughs, reservoirs or ponds is exposed to sunlight, it may become covered with algae, commonly called green scum or slime. One way to remove the algae is to treat the water with copper sulfate (bluestone), says Ed Cooper, extension wildlife specialist.

Care must be taken when using bluestone, because too much is injurious to livestock, humans and fish, explains the specialist. Safe dosage is 8 pounds of bluestone per million gallons of water, 1 ounce per 8,000 gallons, or 1 level teaspoon per 1,500 gallons of water. Livestock or humans should not drink water receiving more than the above dosage.

If a pond containing fish is treated, only one-fourth to one-third of the pond should be treated per application. Then wait several days before treating the next section, advises Cooper. This procedure enables fish to move away from the treated area.

For more information on treatment methods and dosage calculations, ask your local county agent for a copy of L-55 "Removing Green Scum from Tanks and Reservoirs with Bluestone."
