Summary Of Proposed Constitutional Amendments

This November, Texans will have the opportunity to vote on 13 proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution. To help you make informed decisions on these propositions, we present the following summaries of the proposed amendments. Below you will find the proposition as it will appear on the ballot followed by a brief description of the effect the proposition will have if it is passed. Contributed by Joe Hannah, Jr., Secretary of State

Proposition 1:

"The constitutional amendment allowing home-rule cities with a population of 5,000 or less to amend their charters by popular vote."

Summary: A home-rule city is a city that is able to govern itself, generally through the actions of a city council or commission. To become a home-rule city, a city must have a population of at least 5,000, it must hold an election to become a home-rule city, and the measure must pass by a majority vote. Once a city becomes a home-rule city, it may adopt a charter, and this charter may be amended through an election every two years. However, under current law, if the population of a home-rule city falls below 5,000, the city is no longer allowed to amend its charter. If passed, this amendment would allow home-rule cities whose populations have fallen below 5,000 to continue to amend their charters through elections.

Proposition 2:

"The constitutional amendment mandating the repayment to the Department of Transportation of monies expended to assist the Texas Turnpike Authority in the construction, maintenance, and operation of turnpikes, toll roads, and toll bridges."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the legislature to authorize the Texas Department of Transportation to spend money on turnpikes, toll roads, or toll bridges of the Texas Turnpike Authority. The Department of Transportation may use any available money that it has for this purpose. However, if the Department of Transportation uses money from the state highway fund, this money must be replaced by money collected by the Texas Turnpike Authority from tolls and turnpike revenue. Currently, the state is not allowed to use any public money to build or maintain toll roads or turnpikes.

Proposition 3:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to further implement and enhance the administration of the veterans' housing assistance and land programs and to expand the investment authority of the Veterans' Land Board."

Summary: If passed, this amendment would ease the restrictions on how the Veterans' Land Board can invest money from the Veterans' Land Fund and the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund. The board may invest any money that is not to be used for the payment of principal and interest on bonds, the purchase of lands, or the payment of expenses. In addition, the board is no longer limited to investing this money in bonds or securities of the federal government.

Proposition 4:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new prisons or other punishment facilities to confine criminals, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions, for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of the institutions, and for the acquisition of, major repair to, or renovation of other facilities for use as state prisons or other punishment facilities."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the state to issue up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds. The money from selling these bonds will be used to acquire, construct, or equip new prisons, and substance abuse facilities, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions. This money will also be used to repair and renovate existing facilities. The bonds and interest on the bonds will be paid from the first money coming into the state treasury that is not set aside by the state constitution for other purposes.

Note: A general obligation bond is a bond that is repaid from the State's general revenue fund. Most of the money in this fund comes from state taxes and fees.

Proposition 5:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the exemption for ad valorem taxes of certain property in an enterprise zone."

Summary: This amendment deals with property owned by an individual or organization that does business in an enterprise zone. If passed, this amendment would allow a county, a junior college district, or a municipality to exempt certain personal property from ad valorem taxation. To be exempt from this tax, the following conditions must be met: (1) the property must be acquired or brought

Stenholm Talks More About Overdrafts, Restaurant Tabs And Parking Tickets

By Charles Stenholm

Three issues that have been heavily reported in the past few weeks are overdrafts at the House of Representatives Bank, unpaid bills at the Congressional dining rooms, and "fixed" parking tickets. I would like to discuss these issues in greater detail than I have previously.

The Government Accounting Office (GAO) recently reported that 134 members of Congress had overdrafts at the House of Representatives Bank in the first half of 1990. Unfortunately, and to my surprise, I was on that list.

When the report was first issued, I referred to my monthly House Bank statements which showed no overdrafts. I publicly commented on that fact and also publicly supported House Speaker Tom Foley's plans to start assessing a penalty for overdrafts.

In the following days, I decided to review the GAO report on my own. That's when I first learned my account had incurred overdrafts. The bank had not notified me, nor noted the overdrafts on my monthly statements. Even without receiving notification, my overdrafts were covered in less than three days. I regret failing to transfer funds from my bank accounts in Virginia and Stamford, Texas, in a timely fashion. Had I known of the overdrafts, there would have been no repeats. It is an understatement when I say I was shocked and embarrassed. Believing in accurate public disclosure, I immediately issued a public statement, naming myself as one of the Members with overdrafts and apologizing for any part I may have played in embarrassing the institution of the U.S. Congress.

It is important to note that the House Bank was not a bank in the real sense of the word. It was more like a cooperative. It had no charter, no regulations, and no deposit insurance. It paid no interest on accounts and made no loans. It was a place where Members deposited their money for the purpose of writing checks. Any outstanding overdrafts could have been covered by garnishing a member's wages if matters became excessive.

On October 4, I was part of the majority of the House that voted 390-8 to close the bank by the end of this year. The Ethics Committee is also investigating all accounts to see if there were any members deliberately abusing the system. These actions should resolve this issue.

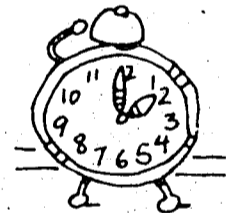

As for restaurant tabs, my account is paid in full. As the story CONTINUED BACK PAGE

Time Change This Weekend

Remember to set your clocks back one hour this Saturday night!

At 2 o'clock in the morning on Sunday, Oct. 27, most Americans will observe a ritual that began more than 200 years ago as a way to cut down on the cost of candles. It was Benjamin Franklin who, as minister to France, suggested in 1754 that an extra hour of daylight would save French shopkeepers 1 million francs per year.

It was not until 1918, however, that daylight-saving time was first implemented in the United States. Since then, it has been adopted by certain locales and dropped by others, modified during periods of war and hotly contested by many. Proponents have cited the need for increased daylight hours to allow more time for recreation, reduce energy demand, decrease crime and increase traffic safety. Opponents, meanwhile, have consisted mainly of farmers, whose hours are set by the sun instead of the clock.

The concept of daylight-saving time remains controversial. Even with the passage of the Uniform Time Act of 1966, states were allowed to exempt themselves from daylight-saving time.

Today, six states and American territories do not observe it: Arizona, Hawaii, the portion of Indiana in the Eastern time zone, American Samoa, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

But the rest of us will have to remember to "fall back" one hour on the last Sunday in October.

Dear Editor

Anyone who missed the Homecoming of 1991 really missed another exciting time.

The Entertainment Committee would like to express their thanks to Stan Hartman for serving as Golf Chairman and the ones that furnished any of the food for the Hospitality Room. To Ethel Jones Williams, Jim and Christine Jones, Frances Jones Strauss and Margaret Jones Reid for the Open House on Friday night.

And I, Mary Lee Ford Fields could never have made the week end without Monty and Billie Guthrie and Barbara Kingsbery working with me on the Entertainment Committee and what is more wonderful they have agreed to serve again next year.

Next year since the Hotel and Motel accommodations are so sparse and limited, Ms. Richard Horner and Ms. Rex Turney will be serving as a committee to establish a Bed and Breakfast Program for Homecoming.

For any of you that would like to participate in this program they would love to hear from you. Several of those attending were in hopes that the people who now own their previous home will volunteer to participate. This does not only apply to the ones that live in town remember there are lots of us that were raised in the country and truly would enjoy having the opportunity to go back to our roots.

This will be a new program and we hope that many of you will want to participate. There will be more announcement as to the nightly rates and other rules. If you have any suggestions the committee would love to hear from you.

I also would like to thank each of you for your generous contributions to the Entertainment committee that enabled us to cover all our expenses.

Thanks again to all of you that attended and we hope to see more of you next year.

—Mary Lee Ford Fields

Thoughts From Our Pastors

James Ford Assembly Of God

I Timothy 4:1-2. "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron."

I want us to look at the scriptures in the light of today. We see in Timothy's day the Spirit of God was showing the trials that were coming on the people. It looks very much like our day. Some are departing from the faith. Some are giving heed to seducing spirits. I remember when it was unheard of to even think about serving the devil or dabbling in the occult. We used to read about this happening in darkest Africa and think how foolish it was but now we know people in our own country are turning to it in many ways.

Speaking lies in hypocrisy, having the conscience seared with a hot iron — we have just witnessed a very sad thing in our Senate when people were drug through the dirt and still nothing was settled when all that was needed was the truth.

Today we need to turn the search light on our own lives and see what we find. We are quick to criticize but slow to change.

I believe the Bible is our road map for our lives and it is a mirror for us to see ourselves. Sometimes we don't like what we see in the mirror but a little combing of the hair, washing of the face or changing of clothes makes a difference. So does reading the Bible, prayer and commitment to the Lord make a difference in our spiritual lives.

Library Notes
Check It Out

By Alice Anna Spillman

The library has been twice blessed the past week. Mrs. C.E. McCarrell gave a nice donation. The money is appreciated and will be used in the building fund.

Linda and Billie Bloydes from Coleman brought several sacks of books. There were paperbacks and hardbound, all in almost new condition. These came at a time of need. The Abilene library is so good to send books each month, but had not been able to recently. They are in the midst of putting all the books in the Abilene Library on a special intra computer system. For those of you who anxiously await the Abilene books - the Bloydes provided. I glanced at the books Friday and saw a variety of fiction, biography, western and romance.

Rumor has it that these ladies have given to several small libraries. How thoughtful and generous. The Santa Anna Library is certainly grateful.

My last article mentioned the book Orphan Train by James Magnuson and Dorothea Petric. The book is fiction, but based on research done by these two people. Mrs. Petric met a man, Ben Pippert of Dysart, Iowa. He, two brothers and two sisters were on one of the trains in 1894. The children's Aid Society began the trains in 1854 and ran them until 1904. It is estimated that 100,000 children were gathered from the streets and taken to the midwest. There were few formalities and little follow-up.

Children were to send letters twice a year. What a contrast to the complicated adoption procedures of today. You really should find a copy of the 1979 book and read it. I don't believe you will be able to forget this page from our history.

A current book that will be of interest to sports fans is Friday Night Lights, A Town, A Team, and A Dream, by H.G. Bessinger. I heard the author being interviewed and found his comments disturbing. The author lived in Odessa, Texas for a year. He became acquainted with all the football players, their coaches and families. His conclusions were that most young players were losers. He tells stories of injury, failures in college, disappointments in scholarships. This from one of the top ranking (always) teams in the state.

You can get either of these books by asking our librarian to request them.

The Abilene Reporter had this suggestion for Halloween. Wal-Mart has 12 books in a bag for $3.49. These could be divided and given to your favorite trick or treaters. Beats candy and will last much longer. Suitable for smaller children. Happy Halloween.

Early Voting Now Taking Place For General Election

Because you no longer have to have a reason to vote early in election in Texas, it is now called Early Voting rather than Absentee Voting as in the past.

Early voting for the General Election to be held November 5 is well underway at the Mrs. J.B. Miller Library building from 8: a.m. to 5:00 p.m. each weekday. The building is located on the northwest corner of the courthouse square in Coleman. Early voting runs thru Friday of next week.

The ballot includes 13 proposed Constitutional Amendments, plus a proposal on keeping the office of Assessor-Collector of Taxes separate from the Sheriff's office.

Capitol Comments

by BOB TURNER
State Representative - District 65

OCTOBER 22, 1991

A Frequently asked question is when will the state's legislative redistricting plan actually go into effect. The change instituting the new districts becomes effective in January, 1993, with the beginning of the 73rd legislative session. This means that all members will continue to serve the district in which they were last elected until January, 1993.

A fact that I have used in a number of talks recently concerns the November 5th Constitutional Amendment vote - I urge participation and voter turnout. I have predicted that less than 10% of the qualified voters will actually make the effort to vote on these important issues. This is a major reason the "state of the state is in its present uncare-for condition. It is a proven fact that those who do not produce, or pay their own way - or do not pay taxes or support government at all levels, vote in greater percentages than those of us who foot the bill. Until this is turned around, don't expect change in welfare programs or a reduction in free-loaders living off of governments - be it city, county, state or federal.

One subject that I have had the opportunity to address on several occasions is the topic of "special interests". Actually, whatever your vocation, or interest, be it teachers, agricultural producers, business people, retirees, or whatever, you help comprise a "special interest"

Porcelain Art Club Meets In Brownwood Saturday

The Heart of Texas Porcelain Art Club will meet Saturday, October 26, at 9:00 a.m. at the Adams Street Community Center in Brownwood.

Guest artist for the day will be Mrs. Perry Hare from Dallas Porcelain Art Guild.

Mrs. Perry has been teaching in seminars and at Concan, Texas for 12 years. She is a member of the China Painting Teachers of Texas and Louisiana and Museum Chairman for International P.A.T., Inc.

The program will be on raised paste, European flowers and a method of painting fish scales.

Hostesses for the meeting this month will be Mary Furry and Oma Dean Homer.

Cub Scouts Receive The Arrow Of Light

Jason Lewis and Justin Oakes both of Cub Scout Pack 230 received the Arrow of Light on October 19 during the Cub Scout Pack meeting.

The Arrow of Light is the highest award a boy can earn in Cub Scouting. It is also the only Cub Scout award he can wear when he becomes a Boy Scout. Jason and Justin have worked very hard to earn the Arrow of Light and all the leaders and Cubs of Pack 230 wish them all the best as they enter Boy Scouting and we hope to see them become Eagle Scouts some day.

Congratulations, guys, on a job well done.

Tax Assessor-Collector Issue Falls Under Proposition 14

When we go to the polls to cast our ballots on the Constitutional Amendments on November 5th, voters here in Coleman County voters will also be making the choice of whether or not our Tax Assessor-Collector will remain an elective office.

According to Proposition 14, which will appear on the local ballot, when the census in a county falls under 10,000 the Tax Assessor-Collector office reverts to the sheriff's office unless the voters in the county choose to keep it an elected office.

The Proposition is worded on the ballot: Keeping the office of Assessor-Collector of Taxes separate from the Sheriff's office.

The "appointment" it seems, comes when the sheriff, who would apparently be responsible for the job, appoints a deputy to do the work of assessor-collector.

Texas counties that currently "appoint" their Tax Assessor-Collector rather than elect them are Borden, Brooks, Concho, Foard, Glasscock, Hartley, Jeff Davis, Kent, Kimble, Live Oak, Loving, Mason, Mills, Motley, Presidio, Rains, San Saba, Shackelford, Sterling, Terrell, Throckmorton, and Upton.

group. The important thing to remember is that all "special interest" groups must keep up the high interest. This is why: I am convinced that if we "special interest" groups don't take care of ourselves, no one else will do it - or if they do - the group won't like what might be accomplished by persons not as concerned as the ones of the "special interest" group in their own affairs.

Kay Bailey Hutchison, Texas State Treasurer, has organized a non-partisan effort, which I have joined, to push for the passage of Constitutional Amendment #8 in the November 5th election. If approved, Amendment #8 will require future constitutional amendments that provide for creation of state debt, such as bond sales, to be presented to voters in clearly stated propositions. It would require each proposition to describe the amount of debt created, the purpose for which issued, and the source by which repayment will be made. I personally support this theory, and urge that you vote for the passage of Proposition #8.

Again, if my staff or I can be of assistance at any time, please feel free to call on us at (512) 463-0644 - collect, if so desired. I will be opening a district office in Coleman, around the first of November, and plan to be very accessible to my constituency there. More on this later. Please remember to vote on November 5th.

Report From Class of '30 Reunion

(Contributed)

As part of the activities of the 1991 Homecoming for graduates and former students of Santa Anna High School, the Class of 1930 met for a reunion dinner at the Family Life Center dining room of First Baptist Church at 4:30 p.m. on October 4, 1991. Since it had been 61 years since we graduated from Santa Anna High School, we all had plenty of interesting experiences to discuss with our old friends. The dinner, which consisted of roast barbecue brisket, sausage, potato salad, cobbler, and other delicious items, was catered by Crosby's 3 K's of Coleman. The dinner started at 5:00 p.m. and the party ended in time for the football game. Those attending the dinner were as follows: Mrs. Mary Lela (Woodward) Clifford of Santa Anna; Mrs. Olivia (Land) Carrell, home room teacher, of Fresno, Calif. and her sister-in-law, Mrs. H.L. Land of Dallas; Mr. Eugene Watkins of Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. Wendell Sparkman of Houston, with his son, Dr. John Sparkman of Pampa. We all look forward to seeing everyone at the Class of 1930 reunion in 1992.

Report Of MYF Activities

By Chanda Simmons

The month of October has been busy planning for our first fundraiser. On October 26 the youth will have a booth at the Lord's Acre. We will be serving homemade ice cream and soft drinks. Other things we have done is to clean up the basement of the church and play volleyball. On November 1, we are inviting the Coleman youth for a hayride and cookout. We are looking forward to a fun-filled November.

Methodist Lord's Acre Sat.

Cathy Ellis and Margaret Mobley are showing off one of the beautiful quilts to be auctioned off at the Methodist Church Lord's Acre Harvest Festival to take place this Saturday, October 26, at the Armory.

The auction will begin at 6:00 p.m. with the lovely quilts crafted by ladies of the church, a variety of gift items, crafts and much more, too much to list. You must see for yourself.

Booths will be open beginning at 9:00 a.m. and will include Arts and Crafts, Grandma's attic (great used treasures), Kid's Clothes (used), Baked Goods, Country Store (farmers market items such as fresh vegetables, home canned goods and green house plants). A silent auction will begin at 9:00 a.m.

A Children's Fair will include a toy walk, building blocks and other fun and games for youngsters including Wheel of Fortune.

The youth of the church will have a booth featuring homemade ice cream and soft drinks.

There will be booth selling the ever popular pork skins.

A barbecue meal with a choice of brisket or chicken and all the trimmings will be served from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. Tickets are available from members of the church or at the door at the cost of $5 for adults and $3 for children. Musical entertainment will be provided during the dinner hour.

Outside booth space is available to anyone wishing to rent space with the exception of those selling food.

Hot vinegar can be used to remove decals and freshly dried paint from windows and cupboards.

into the state in an enterprise zone to be forwarded outside the state; (2) the property must be assembled, stored, repaired, maintained, manufactured, processed, or fabricated in the enterprise zone; (3) the property must be transported outside the state within 175 days after being acquired or brought into an enterprise zone; and (4) the person who acquired or brought the property into an enterprise zone is in a qualified business.

The purpose of this amendment is to encourage economic development in enterprise zones. Because some personal property will not be taxed, it will be less costly to operate a business in an enterprise zone.

Notes: An ad valorem tax is a tax imposed on the value of property. An enterprise zone is an area that has substantial poverty, unemployment, and economic distress. A qualified business is a business that is actively engaged in a new business in the enterprise zone or is expanding a business that is already active in the enterprise zone. "Enterprise zones" and "qualified businesses" are designated by the Texas Department of Commerce.

Proposition 6:

"The constitutional amendment creating the Texas Ethics Commission and authorizing the commission to recommend the salary for members of the legislature and the lieutenant governor, subject to voter approval, and to set the per diem for those officials, subject to a limit."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will create a Texas Ethics Commission that is established by the Texas Constitution. The commission will consist of eight appointed members. These members will be selected by the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker of the House from lists of names submitted by legislators from each major political party. This commission can recommend the salary of the members of the legislature. It can also recommend that the salary of the Speaker of the House and the Lieutenant Governor be higher than the salary of the other members. If the commission recommends a change in salary, the voters of the state will be able to accept or reject the salary change at the next general election for state and county officers. If the voters approve the recommended salary, the salary will take effect on January 1st of the next odd-numbered year. If the voters reject the salary, the salaries would remain the same. In addition, the commission can set the per diem of the members of the legislature and of the Lieutenant Governor. This per diem could be raised or lowered every two years, as necessary. The commission will also have other powers and duties as provided by Senate Bill 1, 72nd Legislature, Regular Session (the ethics bill). Finally, this amendment provides that an increase in the Lieutenant Governor's salary will not disqualify a legislator from becoming Lieutenant Governor.

If this amendment does not pass, there will still be a Texas Ethics Commission that is established by statute. This commission could not set the per diem of the members of the legislature.

Note: A commission that is established by the Texas Constitution can only be repealed by the voters. A commission that is created by statute can be repealed by the legislature.

Proposition 7:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the board of trustees of a statewide public retirement system to invest the funds of the system in a manner that the board considers prudent."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will change the way in which the board of trustees of each statewide public retirement system can invest the system's funds. Currently, a board can only invest its retirement funds in securities (stocks, bonds, etc.). However, if this amendment passes, a board may invest its retirement funds in any way that it thinks is prudent.

Proposition 8:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the voters of this state to consider state debt questions in the form of ballot propositions that must clearly describe the amounts, purposes, and sources of payment of the debt only after approval of the propositions by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature."

Summary: This amendment deals with the way that voters will vote on legislative action that would create a debt for the State. Currently, all propositions that create state debt must be approved by two-thirds of each house of the legislature and by a majority of voters during a constitutional amendment election. When these propositions are passed, they actually become part of the state constitution.

If passed, this proposition would still require propositions that create debt to be approved by a two-thirds vote of the legislature and a majority of the voters. However, when these propositions are passed, they will not become part of the state constitution. Instead, they will be enacted by statute. In addition, when the proposition is placed on the ballot, it must clearly describe the purpose of the debt, the cost of the debt, and how the debt will be repaid. The amount of the debt in the proposition can not be exceeded or renewed unless the proposition says that the debt can be exceeded or renewed.

Note: Creating a debt for the State means spending money that the State does not currently have. Selling bonds is one way that State debt is created.

Mountaineers Come Back Strong Against Water Valley

Travel To Irion County This Week

Santa Anna came back strong against Water Valley last Friday night after losing a big one to Eden the week before. This one was the Mountaineers' game from the very beginning and they enjoyed the view over Water Valley.

Billy Wayne Thomas took the game's opening kick 75 yards for a score to highlight the Mountaineers' 22-8 victory Friday night.

Vicente Frausto later caught a 7-yard pass from Dan Benton and Phillip Hernandez ran 7 yards for a score, as all the game's scoring was done before halftime.

The Wildcats got on the board on Ashley Wilder's 16-yard pass to Vance Millican.

The Mountaineer defense held Water Valley to just 35 yards rushing on 31 carries.

Santa Anna is now 1-1 in District 11-A and 4-2-1 overall, while the Wildcats fell to 0-2 and 3-4.

Mountaineer Coach Mike Per-

menter commented that his Mountaineers "played real well early but got sloppy the second half", which was scoreless. "We played a lot of people after halftime and killed our drives with penalties", he said. "Still, it's a big win for us. We have three to go and we're gonna take them one at a time. Irion County is 2-0 and will be tough at home". The Mounties play there Friday.

Phillip Hernandez led SAM rushers with 92 yards on 18 carries. Tommy Williford netted 70 yards on 11 rushes; Vicente Frausto had 62 yards on just three rushing attempts and Paul Morris gained 28 yards on seven carries. Frausto added two catches for 16 yards and defensivley, he intercepted two Water Valley passes. Williford had an interception and Ray Jones recovered a fumble as the Mountaineers defense was tough throughout. Linebacker Phillip Hernandez sacked the QB six times for a minus-39 yards.

Helen Young has been named employee of the month at Ranger Park Inn.

When she walks down the halls, she has a smile and a kind word for the residents. She also has a word to say to all the Staff, with a smile that just makes you feel good. If you ask her what she likes to do when she is not working she will quickly say fishing first, and then hand work.

Congratulations, Helen, we all enjoy working with you.

All the residents and Staff at Ranger Park Inn are looking forward to October 25th and the Senior Olympics taking place that day. We again invite all family members and the community to come and join in the fun. We will have a full day of competition for our residents and those Residents visiting from other nursing Homes.

was generally reported, the public was given the idea that 250 Representatives were going to the House dining rooms, eating fancy meals, signing for them, and not paying. The true story is that Service America (the firm that had a contract with the House until early August is owed over $255,000, but the majority of the overdue bills are owed by outside groups who asked Representatives to reserve rooms in Congressional buildings and hired Service America to cater their events.

Members are required to reserve rooms used by outside groups, and are responsible for the catering bills after normal efforts to collect from the groups themselves have failed. Invoices are still being issued and efforts are underway to balance all accounts.

The third issue is parking tickets. District of Columbia law allows lawmakers who have the proper license plates and are on official business to park as long as necessary at any curb space except in loading zones, handicapped spaces, or those that would block fire-houses or hydrants. The practice was that when a Member received a ticket while on official business, he or she was entitled to turn that ticket over to the House Sergeant-at-Arms who would verify with local officials any tickets which incorrectly had been issued during official business.

On Tuesday, October 8, Speaker Foley eliminated this practice, so Members will now have to follow the appeal route on their own. I support the new rules. As with any institution, Congress needs to continually evaluate and improve its operating systems. As shortcomings with our procedures have become apparent, we have moved promptly and decisively to improve our operations. In searching for a silver lining in this cloud, I have become even more committed to
