Students, Teachers, Public Meet At The Pole To Pray

Santa Anna Students ioined in a nationwide observance of "See You at the Pole" last Wednesday. A large group of students, parents, teachers and members of the general public gathered around the flag pole at the high school for student-led prayer for their school, community and country. That evening students gathered in the SAHS student center for an extension of the activities which were sponsored locally by the First Baptist. Northside Baptist and Methodist churches.

Bob Turner Announces Bid For Re-Election

State Representative Bob Turner (D-Voss) made a visit Monday morning to the Santa Anna News office to announce his intent to seek re-election to the Texas House of Representatives, District 73.

"After a great deal of thought and consideration, I have decided that I can best represent my constituents in rural Texas while serving in the House of Representatives. While I am deeply honored by requests from my friends that I seek election to the Texas Senate in the event of an open seat. I believe that I can maximize my effectiveness representing the Hill Country.

Turner said that since Senator Bill Sims has not announced his plans for his political future, he would not seek the Senate post but is not ruling out a possible race for the Senate in the future.

Bob Turner is currently serving his second term as State Representative for the 73rd District. He is retired from the U.S. Army and currently serves as Executive coffee and other treats. Director of the Coleman raises sheep in Coleman County. the former Ann Holt, and they have Central and West Texas by staying three grown sons, Gary, Sam and in the Texas House," Turner said.

This week the Mountaineers will be at home against the Bronte Longhorns on Friday evening beginning at 8 p.m. in Mountaineer coming off'a 25-14 loss to Roby and are rated 3rd in District 11A. Santa Anna is rated 2nd in 15A after last weeks district results.

Paithful Mountaineer Football they both picked Denver to defeat San Diego in the tie-breaker and the scored in the game. With a score of points. So, on that basis Rob was declared the Frenzy winner for week three. The tie-breaker was not the only place the two chose alike. They had identical guesses on each of the 16 games they picked right.

When trying to identify our Stadium. The Longhorns are former Mountaineer, Cheaney and Harvey were again of like minds.

Mountaineers Keep Fans On Edge Of Seats At Miles, Plan Upset For Bronte Here Friday

Mountaineers traveled to Miles for a non-district game. The last game the Bulldogs had won was in 1993 against the Mountaineers.

The Bulldogs were deceived into thinking they were going to come out victorious at halftime of the game when the score stood in their favor 19-6, but the Mountaineers rallied in the second half to keep the Bulldogs scoreless and to score 14 points for themselves putting the final score at 21-19 in the Mountaineer's favor.

Miles jumped ahead 6-0 shortly after the game began as Rusty Swain returned a punt 50 yards for a touchdown. Swain passed to Brian Fedor twice for TD's before the half.

In the second quarter Chris Lewis ran in from the two yard line and it was followed by a kick from Josh Lewis to make the score 19-6.

Win Reserve Seats For Homecoming Game; Dinner; Free Video Rental

You can be a big winner by purchasing tickets from the Chamber of Commerce for an opportunity to win two reserved seats (complete with cushions) for the Homecoming football game, Friday night, October 6. The lucky ticket holder will also be given two Friday evening fish dinners at Tammy's Steakhouse and a free video rental from Home Video.

The tickets are available through the weekend from the Chamber of Commerce office or from any of several businesses at the price of $1 each or 6 for $5.00. A drawing will be held Monday to determine the winner. Proceeds go to the Santa Anna Chamber of Commerce.

An Open Letter To SAHS Graduates

Fellow Ex-Students of Santa Anna High School:

It's time for Homecoming 1995! At this moment plans are underway to make this a fun and memorable time for all of us. We of the ex-student organization and the Santa Anna Foundation hope you are making plans to be here the weekend of October 6-7. As many of you know, we are in the process of establishing an Ex-Student Scholarship Fund. We have all the elements in place and are ready to begin in earnest to achieve this goal. This type fund is urgently needed. Almost 60% of our graduates go on to some form of post-secondary training or college. Many need all the financial help

If you as an alumnus could help a graduate; if you as a former resident would like to return something to your home town; if you would like to see your work in life continued, please join us in making your tax-deductible contributions to the Santa Anna Foundation. Memorable contributions are also deductible when made to the Santa Anna Foundation. However you choose to participate, you will know that your contribution will directly benefit your home community.

Together we can make a difference. Let us all share the dream of making Santa Anna and its schools the bright stars we remember. See you at Homecoming '95, October 6-7.

Some weeks ago we told you about a visit from Kathleen Rosebloom, the librarian of the Bangs ISD. expressed the desire to know her better. This week she visited again. She brought eight boxes of books! All of the schools had evaluated their shelves. Books that were duplicates, had not been checked out in a certain time, those with slight damage or some that have been replaced by the latest information were culled. Our library received these wonderful almost new books. Most of these we did not have on the shelves. The books for high school will appeal to most all adults. Konjana Weaver was in the library and helped unpack the books ,she was impressed too. We all found books we would enjoy. I truly believe there's a book to appeal to every child in Santa Anna. Oh! and our invitation extends to all of you in Bangs who would like to use the books. Several of you already do. The same day the books arrived Angle D. and her daughter came in for a book. This library wants everyone to come in and

Dear Editor

After many years of not reading your paper, my mother sent me a huge stack of The News. I am impressed that the paper is still being published on a weekly basis. I'm just glad that you are able to publish,

I grew up in Santa Anna and later Coleman. I have now lived in Berkeley, CA for 17 years. I left Coleman Co. as soon as I turned 18 learing the place would merely fade from the map. My fear has not been realized and if anything it seems the place is more alive now than ever before.

I have wondered many a time what keeps small towns like Santa Anna and Coleman alive when to an outsider it seems as if there is nothing there. Today I figured it out--it's great local papers like yours that are the glue that keep the community united and informed. Your emphasis on the local schools and the activities of the students is commendable. I'm glad to see that you still keep the columns, devoted to the smaller communities like Whon. I would also like to compliment you on your coverage of local and state politics providing the addresses and phone numbers for the president and members of Congress.

In brief, keep up the good work! Sincerely, Jim Avants Berkeley, CA 94703-1735

Thusly we ponder on this life: All those myths we bear from yore Tell so well our recall of strife, And all the metaphors of lore.

Most of science began with Greece, While Romanic rule refined the ways We make our laws and hold the peace, And, gave the names of several days.

But this and other days of our week Came from a European kind of tale. Tradition found another path to seek, Where Nordic and a colder clime prevail.

We chose their god of war, old Tyr, To name the day we speak of here.

"Help Your 6-Year-Old Succeed In School"

By Carol Katzer County Extension Agent

Family & Consumer Sciences SIX wants to be first in everything. Therefore, younger siblings who require care and attention often threaten SIX's feeling of "firstness". SIX may appear at times to be consumed by "Me first!" For example, her whole day may be spoiled if a younger sibling gets to the breaklast table before she does. And she can also be most lealous of the very sibling of whom she is most proud.

present given a younger sibling by a guest, but is reassured of her position with some simple attention--an "I love you" smile or an arm around the shoulder. The lecture approach ("You mustn't be jealous, that's not nice!") only aggravates the situation. At this stage when her intense awareness exceeds her ability to manage self and events, she is terribly vulnerable. If her needs are met now, she can more easily discard her egocentric demands later. Take heart. At least SIX gets along fairly well with older siblings-as long as they don't treat her 'like a little kid!' Now is a good time to remind SIX again about not talking to strangers or accepting rides or candy from them. Six-year-olds have to be reminded often because of their vacillating, impetuous nature. Besides, She is also jealous of any attention or even if she rides the school-bus, her range in neighborhood play has probably increased from next door to this block or perhaps even further. The greater the range, the greater the likelihood she will encounter strangers.

Rockwood Women's Club Has Quilt Binding Demonstration

Contributed

The Rockwood Women's Club met Tuesday, Sept. 19, 1995 at the Community Center.

La Nell Brusenhan opened the meeting and led the pledges to the U.S. and Texas flags. La Nell resigned as president. Skeeta Cooper was elected president and Faye Wise was elected vice-president. Bettie Duus kept her job as secretary-treasurer. Bettie read the minutes from the last treasurer's report.

Bessie Parker then have a very informative demonstration on making a continuous quilt binding.

Dorothea Whisenant directed the craft. She had crocheted little doll dresses and hats, and furnished the dolls' head, artificial flowers and Renuzit bottles. They are really cute and can be put in any room. We really appreciate these two ladies for doing this.

Everyone pitched in and brought cookies and Minnie Bray brought tuna fish sandwiches, chips and crackers.

Refreshments were served to Minnie Bray, Rose Cooper, Skeeta Cooper, Bettie Duus, Faye Wise, Dorothea Whisenant, La Nell Brusenhan and three guests, Bessie Parker and Rita Mae Gaines of Coleman and Hettie Scarborough of Santa Anna.

We are always glad to have guests and invited anyone to join us anytime.

Opportunities, Inc. has discussed with the civic center board the possibility of a Head Start Program in proposed location with remodeling to be with grant funds. Payne would also like to open an adult and child daycare. Payne was given temporary permission to begin work on the programs started with all the legal work being completed first.

The second reading of the city ordinance declaring North 1st Street between Mountain Street and Williamson (Mountain Oaks) Street as a public street was passed.

An ordinance closing a portion of Williamson Street was tabled from last month due to maps showing the road to be outside the city limits. Research showed the road is inside the city limits. The council deny this ordinance closing a portion of Williamson Street.

Councilman Tex Wright submitted his resignation and Robert Noreiga was appointed to fill the vacancy on the council.

Fall bird migration is becoming more interesting with the first day of autumn. Joan Hoyumpa still have pretty little humming birds coming to her morning glory blossoms and sage bushes. A belted Kinglisher is seen more often on the power lines near her water tank. Wintering hawks seem more numerous. Joan is also enjoying a pair of brown towhees (or canyon towhee) which seem more visible than they were during the summer. Last Monday Joan attended the West Texas first ever "quail management tour" on the Funk Rank in Arden, Texas west of San Angelo. Tash and Joan attended a friend's wedding in San Antonio Saturday and bid farewell to Dr. Raquel Dureza, the daughter of friends from Baltimore, Maryland who we have known since our days in the Philippines. Joan is enjoying her new part-time job nursing at Coleman County Medical

Fishing Lake Ivie

By Durwood Strickland

The weather is just beautiful at the lake but fishing conditions have remained pretty. much unchanged.

The best we can say for bass fishing is its fair. You can find 'em, just have to be patient and enjoy the lake while you're looking. They are in the weed beds, flats, main lake. Try spinner and crank baits over the weed beds 4-10 ft. of water. Worms are producing some catches during mid-day.

Crappie fishing is fair using minnows in depths of 2-30 and 3-40 ft in the main lake and river channels. Use minnows in tree tops at 30 ft. along the river channel.

Catfishing is fair to good. especially for channel and blues. Some nice fish being caught on points, flats and main lake areas. Yellow catfishing is fair with trotliners using live bait having the most
