

Labor's Views Sought On How To Halt Strikes

House Seeks Way To Prevent Tieups In Defense Program

By RUSSELL BRINES WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee continues today a search for methods of halting strikes in critical defense industries by asking for organized labor's views. Two days of discussion have failed to produce any concrete suggestions from the administration, industry or labor. The committee is considering a bill to amend the draft act by requiring the government to obtain an 80-day injunction which would halt a threatening strike. If there is no settlement in that time, the measure would place both the plants and unions under receivership indefinitely, during which work stoppages would be illegal. Rep. Howard W. Smith (D-Va.), the author, testified he would accept any amendments to make the bill equitable and workable. Committee members yesterday asked Herbert S. Thatcher, general counsel for the AFL, to offer suggestions. Thatcher read a statement before the committee. It said that the AFL is in favor of the bill "shockingly." The attorney said the AFL believed no further legislation was necessary. Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union and vice president of the CIO, was scheduled to appear before the committee today. Curran opposed every detail of the bill as "viciously anti-labor" in a statement prepared for the committee. He will be asked for further views, however. Several committee members have expressed belief that the measure is not adequate. He stands. They said they wanted suggestions for improvement. The measure was spurred by the controversies in the steel and oil industries. Smith said it is designed to prevent strikes in both these fields as well as in any other critical industries. Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) offered two amendments in an apparent effort to make the measure more appealing to Congress. One would authorize the courts, after 30 days of receivership operations, to determine any necessary wage or price changes. The Smith measure has been criticized for specifying that wages should be frozen during the receivership period. The second amendment would require the courts regularly to publish detailed financial reports on both plants and unions under receivership. These would include profits and losses and the salaries of top labor and union officials. Committee officials said this would apply more pressure on industry to seek a settlement before being thrown into receivership. Industry representatives were invited to testify on the measure. John A. Stephens, chief negotiator for the steel companies, replied by letter that preoccupation with the seizure case prevented this. He said industry-wide opinion was not available and voiced the personal opinion that the bill would insure continued production but would not solve basic problems of such controversies.

NO DANGER IN CUT

Taft Takes Issue With Ike Over Aid

By JOE HALL WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign aid was a clear cut Republican presidential campaign issue today with the two leading contenders for the nomination on record as sharply split over the amount needed to finance the program successfully. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, agreeing with administration leaders, said congressional proposals to cut foreign aid by one billion dollars would be "seriously felt." A greater cut, he said, might endanger U.S. security. Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio promptly replied that a cut of even two billion dollars in the $7,000,000,000 asked for the next fiscal year starting July 1 "would in no way endanger the program or the security of the United States." Taft told a news conference in a message to Eisenhower's views, expressed in a message to Sen. Connally (D-Tex.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Eisenhower said in his cable to Connally that the nation's Mutual Security program is gradually stabilizing the international scene, and advised against a sharp cut. As the Senate Armed Services Committee today continued its own examination of the Foreign Aid Bill, Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) said administration leaders much prefer the proposed Senate method of cutting the bill to the one proposed by a House group. Flanders told a reporter that Defense Secretary Robert A. Lovett gave this opinion in closed-door testimony before the Armed Services Committee yesterday. The Senate Foreign Relations Committee voted last week to slash a billion dollars off the bill. It distributed this evenly over the various allotments for all parts of the world. The House Foreign Affairs Committee Tuesday knocked $1,010,000,000 off Truman's requested program, but made all of this reduction in Europe. At another executive session today Secretary of State Dean Acheson and three top-ranking military officers are to appear before the Senate armed services group. The three are Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Adm. William M. Fechteler, chief of naval operations, and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, acting chief of staff of the Air Force. Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) of this committee said it might finish work on the measure today or tomorrow and report it back to the Senate ready for debate Monday. Commenting in the Eisenhower cable Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) of the armed services group and a Democratic presidential nominee candidate, told a reporter he wanted something more definite from the man he called "the principal architect of the (Mutual Security) plan." Russell himself sent a cable to Eisenhower just before Connally released his exchange with the general yesterday, asking if Eisenhower believed the $6,900,000,000 voted by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee was "adequate to the job of building the defenses of the free world against aggression." Russell told newsmen his committee was principally worried as to whether direct foreign military help, which comprises about 70 per cent of the bill, might hamper the equipping of American armed forces.

East Reich Speeding Plans To Build Army Of 350,000 Soldiers

BERLIN, May 9 (AP)—East German government circles reported today their Communist regime is speeding plans to raise an army of more than 350,000 men. Already, informants said, it is calling back fully trained veterans of the People's Police—the army nucleus—to swell present 60,000-man ranks to 150,000. The tempo of Soviet zone armament quickened at once after high East German officials declared they would need to defend East Germany from a threat of civil war they saw in the Western plan to arm West German forces for the proposed European Army.

Tornadoes In Texas Seen Possible Today

By The Associated Press Tornadoes may knife across parts of Northeast Texas late Friday and early Saturday night, the U. S. Weather Bureau warned. In a special bulletin the bureau described the tornado threat area as a long path from the northeast portions of extreme East Texas through northwest Louisiana, Missouri, Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky. The Weather Bureau emphasized it forecast only tornado possibilities. A deep low pressure trough centered in Southern Oklahoma may spawn the destructive funnels, weathermen explained. Ahead of the trough was a weak cold front, expected to cause severe local thunderstorms with the possible scattered tornadoes along the wide arc. Early Friday the front had already edged into the Texas Panhandle, lowering temperatures about 10 degrees. It was expected to move across the state during the next 24 to 36 hours, bringing somewhat cooler temperatures, the Weather Bureau said. Scattered thunderstorms Friday night were forecast for the north portions of East and South Central Texas and in the Del Rio-Eagle Pass area of West Texas. Summer temperatures—which zoomed to the nation's high of 106 at Presidio Thursday—were expected to continue ahead of the front. Thursday Abilene, Big Spring, San Angelo and Cotulla had 100-degree highs. Laredo had 101. It was cooler along the coast. Galveston had 89, Brownsville 89, Beaumont 85, and Houston 85. There was no rainfall reported anywhere in the state Thursday. Skies over the state Friday were mostly clear and winds mostly southerly. The early morning temperatures showed Childress with 68 degrees and Amarillo 58 behind the front. Still untroubled by the cooling shift in winds were Abilene, with a sweltering 80 degrees, and San Angelo 78.

Train Hits School Bus, Injuring 17

ATLANTA, May 9 (AP)—A passenger train ploughed into a school bus loaded with 35 high school girls, today injuring 17, some perhaps critically. The accident, just inside the city limits of nearby East Point, occurred at a four track grade crossing. The bus was hurled 75 feet down the track. Motorcycle Patrolman L. V. Roberts, one of the first at the scene, said he found the high school girls stunned and sprawled in the aisles of the bus, across seats and slumped under them.

CONSUMPTION OF WATER DOWN

Total water pumped into city lines during the 24-hour period ending at 8 o'clock this morning was 2,953,000 gallons. Of this amount 1,450,000 gallons was taken from Moss Creek Lake and 1,101,000 gallons from the wells on the O'Hart Ranch in Glasscock County. The balance of 402,000 gallons came from smaller city wells. The co-operation of citizens in the water conservation program reduced the consumption by 732,000 gallons from the previous 24-hour period reading which was 3,685,000 gallons.

Europe Defense Community Is Near Completion

By JOSEPH DYNAN PARIS (AP)—The welding of Western Europe's military might into a single army against aggression moves a formal step nearer completion today, but with long strides still ahead before the projected six-nation force is ready for Gen. Matthew Ridgway's European command. Representatives of the six nations—France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg—meet at the French Foreign Ministry this afternoon to initial the almost-complete draft of a treaty uniting them in a European Defense Community (EDC). The action signifies their agreement, after 15 months of negotiations, on most clauses of the treaty. The next step will be a meeting of the six countries' foreign ministers later this month to settle the remaining points of disagreement and sign the treaty. High hurdles still will face the plan after that, before the projected one-uniform army of some 40 divisions can take the field under the military commander for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). These include: 1. Ratification by the parliaments of the six nations. Much trouble is expected in West Germany, which wants to get more concessions for its troops, and in France, where many oppose putting any German in uniform. 2. Signing and ratification of the peace contract between West Germany and the United States, Britain and France. Recent German demands for more concessions have indicated this may be a long way off. Until the peace contract is ratified, the army treaty under its own terms can not take effect. Military experts anticipate a year of training before German troops can make any effective contribution to Western defense. Since the EDC treaty provides these Germans cannot be recruited and armed until the Defense Community itself is in operation—even optimistic estimates do not see the international army as a going concern before mid-1954. That, coincidentally, is the period that Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chief of the U.S. joint chiefs of staff, has said will be the time of greatest danger of Soviet aggression against the United States. Still unsettled in the EDC treaty is the clause allocating West Germany's contribution to Western defense of some $2,600,000,000—what portion will be used by West Germany for her own troops, and what will go to the United States, Britain and France for their troops in Germany. This question is being fought out in the peace contract negotiations.

U.N. Will Use Force If Needed To Get General Held Hostage By POWs

SEUL, Korea, May 9 (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet said tonight he will use force if necessary to rescue Brig. Gen. Francis E. Dodd from the Communist prisoners who captured the general on Koje Island Prison Camp. Van Fleet said he would not give in to the Reds "unreasonable" demands for special privileges before they release the prison camp commander. The U. S. Eighth Army Commander made his statement after a flying trip to rebellious Koje, off the southern tip of Korea. Van Fleet was under orders from Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Supreme Allied Commander, "to use whatever force is necessary" to free Dodd without delay. The 52-year-old Dodd has been a prisoner since Wednesday, when North Korean POWs seized him at the gates of a compound. Ridgway said the Communists were demanding "phones, permission to organize, writing paper and some other things" before they would release Dodd. The Army released only meager details of the new rebellion at Koje and kept newsmen from going there. First announcement of the kidnapping came early today. An Eighth Army spokesman said Dodd and Lt. Col. Wilbur Robert Raven of Newton, Tex., were seized while standing at the gate of a prison compound talking to leaders of the 6,000 Communist prisoners. "The gate was a wide one," the spokesman said. "Dodd was standing in the center of the gate. When the prisoners grabbed him, it was an organized mob and he was swept inside. But Haven was standing beside a post of the gate. When the prisoners grabbed him, he seized the post, held on, and by fighting and kicking managed to free himself. The post saved him, but Gen. Dodd had nothing to cling to." The Army said Dodd has been treated well by the Reds. He communicated with guard posts outside the barbed wire stockade by Army field telephones and couriered messages. He received American food while the North Korean POWs ate their usual bowls of rice—both passed through from outside. Dodd relayed a Communist demand for 1,000 sheets of writing paper and a "hospital representative." The paper was stacked outside the gate. But Brig. Gen. Charles F. Colson, newly named prison camp commander succeeded See HOSTAGE, Pg. 8, Col. 4.

Reds Demanding 'Special Rights'

SEUL, Korea, May 9 (AP)—The striking, grey-haired wife of Brig. Gen. Francis E. Dodd waited today like any other soldier's wife for word that her husband was safe. Mrs. Margaret Dodd received the news with seeming calm yesterday that the general had been captured and was being held hostage by Communist prisoners of war. But her face betrayed her emotions when she said: "We hope and pray for his safe return." Mrs. Dodd has been living in a new housing area with her daughter, Peggy, since Gen. Dodd, former chief of staff of the Fourth Army, left Feb. 1 to go overseas. Another daughter, Betty, a professional golfer, is away much of the time for tournaments. Red hot-headed prisoners of war seized the chief of the Koje Island prison camp Wednesday. The Army said Lt. Col. Wilbur Robert Raven of Newton, Tex., also was captured but escaped. In Tallahassee, Fla., Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Dodd, the general's parents, went into seclusion when they heard their son's fate. Both are 75 years old and have been in poor health. Betty, in Seattle for the Weather-vane Golf Tournament, heard the news of her father's capture over a car radio. She said she planned to go ahead with the tournament as scheduled. "I might as well," she said. "There isn't anything I can do for my father but wait for news and hope for the best." First aid Mrs. Dodd 107 ... Liquor Issue Up For Vote In JP No. 3

Voters in Justice Precinct No. 3 (Forsan) will ballot Saturday on a liquor issue. Polls at the Forsan School will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. Mrs. C. C. Stutley will be the election judge. The county commissioners court called the election several weeks ago in response to a petition submitted by voters of that area. Citizens there had taken steps to request an election soon after the county-wide wet-dry election last December. The election was delayed, however, until the commissioners court could determine the status of Justice Precinct No. 3, which had been inactive for several years. The election will affect only the Forsan-Chalk area of the county, and the Forsan box is the only polling place in the precinct. Based on poll tax payments and exemptions, the precinct has a potential voting strength of 277. The issue involves the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages. At the present time, Precinct No. 3 and Justice Precinct No. 1 (Big Spring) are the only "wet" precincts in the county. Wasted Water Is Reported To City

Don't ever think that Big Springers aren't willing, even eager to report any waste of water. Yesterday evening four calls were received by police in a 10-minute period on one leaking air conditioner at a downtown drug store, and then at midnight another call was turned in on the same conditioner, as well as a call on an air conditioner at a ground floor office in the business area. Other calls have been received on sprinklers and other leaky condi-

Well Water Withdrawal Can't Make Up Loss Of Lake Supply

Big Spring appears destined to lose another half a million gallons of water a day within a short period unless exceptionally heavy rains fall on the watersheds of Powell Lake's and Moss Creek Lake. No water has been received from Powell Lake for some time and the level at Moss Creek Lake is at about seven feet which means that in a few more days, without an unusually heavy rainfall, no more water can be drawn from it. The present withdrawal from Moss Creek Lake is approximately 1,500,000 gallons a day. Within the next few days, however it is anticipated that the city will start receiving water from the first of the three new wells being drilled on the Edmonson Ranch in Glasscock County to supplement the city supply. These three wells when completed and pumped at capacity will supply only a little less than one million gallons. It cannot be definitely said at this time that all three wells will be completed, fitted with pumps and tied into the city line before it becomes necessary to cut off the supply from Moss Creek Lake. This situation is the basis upon which the City Commission acted Tuesday night in declaring the water supply "critical" and in place-losing restrictions upon its use. One of the Edmonson wells has been completed and the pump is in place and ready to be started operating as soon as the line from this well to the line coming into Big Spring is completed. The second well has been drilled and cased, and will be put into operation as soon as the pump is installed and it is also tied into the main line already bringing a good portion of Big Spring's water into the city from other Glasscock County wells. The third well will probably be tested today. All three wells are fitted with eight-inch casings. City officials point out that they cannot go down to zero on the Moss Creek Lake water and that at the present rate of consumption plus the higher loss by evaporation during this hot weather, water from the lake will be available for only a very few more days. "The best we expect to be able to get from the three Glasscock County wells," officials repeat, "will only be about two-thirds of what we will soon lose when the supply from the lake is cut off." They also explain that it will be laid.

Named Air Attache

TAIPEH, Formosa, May 9 (AP)—Col. Shepler W. Fitzgerald of San Diego became air attache to the U. S. Embassy today. He took over from Lt. Col. Albert L. Betz. Cooler Weather In Sight After New High Is Set Yesterday was Big Spring's hottest day of the year and the 100 mark recorded at the Weather Bureau station brought the day up on the level of the hottest May 5 ever recorded here. The temperature reached 100 on May 5, 1927 for the record. In forecasting yesterday's maximum the Weather Bureau missed it by one degree. Cooler weather is predicted for tonight and tomorrow, however, with a low of 58 degrees and a high of 86 Saturday afternoon. On this date just 20 years ago 2.11 inches of rain fell. None is forecast for today, but there is a promise of light dust.

Aviation Fuel Pinch Is Reported Serious

DENVER (AP)—Scarcity of high-octane aviation gasoline today ranked as the most serious effect of the nine-day-old nationwide oil strike.

There seemed little chance for immediate settlement. A possibility the strike may be extended was voiced in Denver by O. A. Knight, president of the Oil Workers International Union (CIO).

The major hope seems to be a meeting May 13 between the Wage Stabilization Board and representatives of 22 striking AFL, CIO and independent unions and management of the struck refinery and pipelines.

The pinch on aviation fuel has been widely felt. Air France announced flights will be cut by 50 per cent unless the quota for trans-Atlantic carriers is increased. The line has 20 flights weekly. Trans-Canada Air Lines reduced schedules of about 40 daily flights between Canada and New York, Boston, Cleveland, Chicago and Seattle.

A 30 per cent slash in aviation gasoline has been ordered by the government. The Air Force has reduced training flight hours. Military and commercial lines report shortages are affecting operations overseas and in the territories.

Delivery of aviation gasoline to re-sellers or consumers with a three-day supply on hand was forbidden by the government. The order was effective at 3:01 a.m. EST, today.

On the bright side, the Petroleum Administration for Defense (PAD) suspended inventory limitations on stocks of home heating diesel and residual fuel oil today in all of 36 states and part of four others.

Inventory controls on automobile gasoline and kerosene remain in effect in 43 states and the District of Columbia.

President Truman announced yesterday he is working hard for settlement. He said the situation is not yet serious enough for him to invoke injunctive powers of the Taft-Hartley Law.

Nathaniel P. Feinstogler, chairman of the WSB, indicated the dispute will be returned to the White House if efforts of the board fail. The WSB took no action on the strike at a meeting yesterday.

Feinstogler's earlier appeal for an end to the walkout pending the May 13 concave was rejected by Knight.

National Petroleum News reported the strike has closed down about 25 per cent of the nation's crude oil refining capacity.

Automobile fuel is becoming scarce in some Midwestern areas. Voluntary rationing of gasoline is on in St. Louis. Chicago held off serious shortages by securing supplies last night from an undisclosed source.

The unions have asked a 25-cent hourly wage hike, but Knight said any company offer of 15 1/2 cents probably would be accepted. They also seek boosts in night shift differentials.

Claims Wardlaw Tried To Settle His Tax Account

DALLAS, May 9 (AP)—A defense witness in the tax evasion trial of A. L. Wardlaw testified the former Tarrant County assistant district attorney tried several times to settle his account with the government.

In Federal Court yesterday Mrs. Fannie Coffey, Fort Worth accountant, said Wardlaw "tried on several occasions to find out from the government how much they thought he owed and to pay them. The government refused to tell either him or me."

Mrs. Coffey, a former field deputy for the Internal Revenue Bureau, was hired by Wardlaw in 1951. She said that when she could not find out the amount of taxes due, she filed an amended return based on her own calculations of Wardlaw's gross income.

Wardlaw is the first of two Tarrant County men indicted by a special federal grand jury on charges of income tax evasion. The trial of Sheriff Sully Montgomery is set for Monday.

Houston Pastor Accepts Call To New Local Church

The Rev. James Parks, Houston, has accepted a call to be the first pastor of the new Baptist Temple Church in Big Spring.

The former East Fourth Baptist pastor had been tendered the call three weeks ago by the new church, which now is meeting in the high school auditorium pending a building project.

May 19 was set as the date for assuming the duties as pastor, and in the meantime, the Rev. C. O. Hitt, Veterans Administration Hospital chaplain, will supply the pulpit.

The Rev. Parks' family will not join him until sometime in June. His acceptance will be a homecoming in a great measure for the Rev. Parks. He served as pastor of the East Fourth Street Baptist Church here from June 22, 1947 to Nov. 10, 1950, when he was recalled to active service as an Army chaplain. After a refresher and base assignment in Big Spring, he was sent overseas for a tour of duty in Germany.

U. S. Said Backing Koreans In Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is reported siding with South Korea in a dispute which thus far has blocked completion of a Japanese-Korean peace treaty. The disagreement is over a claim by Japan to the vast properties she held before V-J Day in Korea, which for 35 years was Japanese governed. Included are the railroads, shipping, utilities and public buildings—almost everything of value in her former territory. Tokyo's insistence that the Korean government must agree to restore the property to its "original state" and pay indemnities for damage resulting from the current Korean conflict has stymied treaty negotiations. Diplomatic authorities said today that a Korean appeal to the State Department has produced a crisp opinion approved by Secretary Acheson that the Japanese claim is not valid. The American position is that Japan lost any rights she may have had in the peace treaty which last month restored her sovereignty. In Article IV of the treaty Japan accepted the disposition of former Japanese property which was made by the U.S. military government before American occupation troops were pulled out of Korea in 1948. Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, the occupation commander, who had confiscated it all in 1945, ordered it turned over to the South Korean government. Some of the property is now privately owned. Japan and South Korea for months have been trying to work out terms of a treaty of friendship and commerce—in effect a separate peace treaty—because the Koreans were not permitted to sign the 48-nation San Francisco pact. Technically Korea was never at war with Japan. The Japanese argument that its former property must be replaced is puzzling to American officials. The Tokyo Foreign Office in a "statement of basic principles" says that Japan "recognizes the validity of the disposition of the property of Japan and nationals" made by the U.S. military, but nevertheless "does not waive original rights and claims to such property." Officials here said the replacement value runs into hundreds of millions of dollars, possibly billions, and South Korea is largely being supported by American aid. The South Korea ambassador to the U.S., Dr. You Chan Yang, has said that recognition of the Japanese claims would amount to "turning Korea back to the Japanese."

Dewey Reasserts He Is Not A Candidate

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey declared anew yesterday that he is not a candidate for President. The 1944 and 1948 Republican nominee asked New York State's delegates to the GOP National Convention not to vote for him at any stage of the proceedings. Dewey told the delegates: "Everyone knows that I am for Gen. Eisenhower from the beginning to the end of this convention. But there has been a certain amount of scurrilous gossip in the newspaper columns that I was in truth a candidate for the nomination. All of you know that I am not a candidate, because I said I was not. I ask each of you in casting your vote to recognize that I am not a candidate and that you will not vote for me for any office." "With that understanding, I am willing to have you go ahead and elect me chairman of the delegation."

Dewey, an early supporter of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the nomination, then was unanimously elected delegation chairman. Dewey claims that all but one of the state's powerful 96-member delegation will back Eisenhower. One delegate has declared for Sen. Robert A. Taft. Supporters of Taft say he will get at least 17 of New York's votes. Under state law, the delegates are uncommitted. The meeting of the delegates and alternates was followed last night by the annual $100-a-plate dinner of the Republican state committee at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. More than 2,500 persons attended. Sen. Richard M. Nixon (R-Calif.)

Schary Says T-V Won't Take Place Of Movies, Sex

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Television, says film executive Dore Schary, never will take the place of movies and sex. Addressing the Council of Motion Picture Organizations yesterday, Schary, who heads MGM studio, said: "I don't believe that singing commercials, quiz shows and 20-year-old potboilers will take the place of movies and other healthy diversions—including sex. I have a hunch people will ultimately accept television as something they can use when they choose to. I do not know what co-operations will exist in the future between our industry and television. Certainly there will be some, either in advertising, exploitation, production or by TV screens. But we certainly do not agree for a moment with any absurd predictions anticipating the end of theaters."

Mrs. Cook Gives Devotional At Last P-TA Meet Of Year

Mrs. Virgil Cook gave the devotional at the last meeting of the year of the East Ward P-TA Thursday afternoon at the school.

Mrs. Bill Giese and Mrs. Omar Pittman played a piano and organ duet.

Mrs. A. C. Kloven, incoming president, gave a round-up of the work done by the group this year and also presented Mrs. C. D. Herring Jr., retiring president, with a past president's pin.

Mrs. Herring reported on the spring conference held recently in Sweetwater and gave a farewell address.

Mrs. Kloven introduced the new officers and committee chairmen.

They include Mrs. Eldon Appleton, secretary; Mrs. Marvin Parkhill, treasurer; Mrs. Bill Gage, publications; Mrs. Ray Cantrell, publicity; Mrs. S. W. Suther, Mrs. H. M. Stroup, hospitality; Neal Cummings, historian; Mrs. V. L. Smedley, radio; Mrs. Neil, membership; Mrs. Nathan Staloup, safety; Mrs. Herring, budget and finance; Mrs. J. R. Bowerman, parliamentarian; Mrs. L. E. Burks, chairman of room mothers; Mrs. Cook, spiritual life.

Following the meeting, tea was served from a table laid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of snapdragons.

About 30 attended.

May Fete Tonight In Stadium

Folk songs and dances of many nations will be presented by pupils from all the elementary schools in the city tonight at the annual May Fete at 8 in the football stadium.

More than 2,000 children from the first through the seventh grades will participate in the festival, built around the theme, "A World of Fun."

Included will be the American "Put Your Little Foot," the Danish "Shoemaker's Dance," the Belgian "Chimes of Dunkirk," the Austrian "Seven Steps," several Mexican dances, "The Texas Schottische," the French "Lili Marlene," the "Virginia Reel," and "The Texas Star." Another will be the waltzing of the Maypole.

As the finale, all the children will return to the field and a Color Guard of Boy Scouts will present the colors. The Guard will be composed of Jay LeFever, Cub; Dennis Jones, Boy Scout; James Harris, Explorer; and Merle Dean Harter, Sea Explorer.

Mrs. J. W. King will sing "The Star-Spangled Banner" during the presentation of the flag.

REPORT TO PARENTS

Any Object May Be Lethal In The Hands Of A Child

By DR. MARTHA M. ELIOT
Chief, Children's Bureau,
Federal Security Agency

You probably read recently how a little baby was accidentally strangled while playing with a venetian blind cord.

On the heels of this tragedy, parents were advised that if venetian blind cords were cut at the loop, they would cease to be a danger to young babies.

It is hard for anyone to conceive of a venetian blind cord as a potential lethal weapon, yet so many accidents in the home—some of them fatal—are caused by apparently harmless household equipment.

It would only be natural for any parent to be highly concerned about the safety of his family when he reads of the high toll in injuries and death which home accidents take each year.

Yet so much of this toll could be eliminated by applying common sense accident prevention.

Babies who are just starting out their lives naturally develop a sense of curiosity about their outer world. They want to handle anything they can reach, they will put small objects in their mouths and may swallow them, they may scratch themselves on sharp objects, they will drink anything, even if it happens to be hot and therefore highly dangerous to them.

Children who are past the baby stage but eager for discoveries want to experiment with anything they can find. If it happens to be with a frayed electric cord, the experiment may be painful or fatal. If guns are within the reach of such children, the experiment may be fatal to others.

Another great temptation to children during their early years is to see "what's in" anything just within their reach. If they can reach the handle of a pot on the stove, and tip it over, they may discover too late that "what's in" the pot may scald them, disfigure them for life, or kill them.

A child of any age may break an arm of leg or otherwise injure himself if boxes, toys, brooms or other hazards are left on stairs to impede his path when he is scampering off for excitement. By the same token, if Jimmy, in the next yard, calls, "Come look what I've got," a child may forget about the nail-studded board in his own backyard and puncture his foot with it.

Statistics on home accidents, compiled weekly in many urban areas, give simple proof that all these things are happening with alarming frequency.

Yet most accidents of this type are preventable. For the young child, it is the parents' responsibility to keep dangerous objects out of reach.

After a child begins to crawl, and from then on, another part of the job to be done is one of educating him to the dangers to which he may expose himself by "playing with" objects whose function he does not understand.

It cannot be stressed too greatly that safety education in the home is immensely rewarding not only for the child but in lessening the pressure of parental anxiety.

DESIGNING WOMAN

Cornices And Draperies Can Decorate Entire Room

By ELIZABETH HILLIER

Cornices and draperies are not merely decoration for windows—they decorate the whole room. For this reason it is better to cover cornices to match draperies than to paint them or cover them with a contrasting fabric. Most letters on the subject do not ask whether or not cornices should contrast with draperies. As in the letter just received from Mrs. W. D. C., they tell what the drapery fabric is and ask what color cornices should be. One of the aims of today's decorating, Mrs. C., is to simplify room design, to create a smooth and uncluttered effect. You are making it harder for yourself when you add the problem of choosing a cornice color to the problem of choosing a drapery pattern, but the more important fact is that you're complicating the decorating.

Strips of contrasting color high on the wall serve no purpose, seem to be set apart and alone. The same strips, cornices, in the drapery fabric belong to—rather than separate from—the draperies. Matching cornices and draperies become a complete unit and thus are simpler and better decoration for the room.

Rangers Due When Duval Jury Meets

ALICE, May 9 (AP)—Texas Rangers will be on hand Monday when the grand jury is called back into session to investigate Duval County political activities, Dist. Judge Sam G. Reams said yesterday.

The jury will meet at 1:30 p. m. at San Diego, Duval County seat. Judge Reams said Texas Rangers assigned to Duval had been advised so they could be present.

The recall is another step in a developing program of opposition to the power of George Parr, reputed South Texas political boss. Judge Reams and Parr, who resigned as county judge recently to become sheriff, are political enemies.

The judge said the date for the jury meeting was requested by Assistant Attorneys General Edwin N. Bell and Bradley Bourland, assigned by Attorney General Price Daniel to the inquiry. Dist. Atty. Homer E. Dean said he two made preliminary investigations with him Wednesday.

Rangers Joe Bridge of Falfurrias and Charlie Miller of Carrizo Springs have recently moved into Duval.

Substantial Increases In Food Prices To Be Okayed Shortly

By WILLIAM C. VARN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Substantial increases in food prices, ranging from one to several cents a package on a long list of items, may be approved by the government within the next few days.

Price control officials said the increases probably will apply to such things as concentrated coffee, dry cereals, crackers, canned fruits, vegetables and soups, tuna and salmon and some canned meats.

An official told a reporter some items in 33 of the 36 classes of packaged groceries covered by the food price orders may be given higher ceilings. The method and amount of boost in percentage margins for grocers now is being studied at the highest Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) levels.

One official said the increases are necessary to keep grocers' earnings at a fair level. He said studies have shown that earnings before taxes, especially of chain food stores, are below levels that would entitle them to a price increase.

The margin increases under consideration would give the 12-billion-dollar-a-year grocery industry about a 1 per cent hike in dollar volume of sales.

Primarily the increase would benefit chain groups, but they also would apply to the smaller independent stores and to wholesalers. An official said no exact data is available on earnings of wholesalers but "there is some deficiency in this group of food dealers."

OPS also disclosed results of a nationwide survey of grocery margins and earnings will be completed about June 15. When the data is ready for review, an official said.

Jap Civil Police Have Jurisdiction Over UN Soldiers

TOKYO (AP)—Kyodo News Agency reported today Japanese civil police have tentative jurisdiction over all United Nations military personnel in Japan—except Americans—until an agreement is worked out. A Kyodo dispatch from Kure said policy of that city were so notified by the Japanese attorney general's office.

A Foreign Office source said provisions for a U.N. agreement covering all foreign troops in Japan, other than American garrison forces, now is being drafted. It would cover British, French, Filipino, or any other U.N. troops who may be in Japan for training or recreation. A separate agreement reached between Japan and the U.S. before the treaty, provides that U.S. troops remain under U.S. jurisdiction in criminal cases.

Taft Leaders Admit Ike Gains In W. Va.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Some Republican leaders friendly to the presidential nomination of Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) conceded today that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has been gaining strength in West Virginia the last few days.

Even the most optimistic among the general's backers, however, count no more than six or seven delegates in predicting the outcome of Tuesday's primary election balloting in this state.

Ike Backers In Nevada Tripped By Taft Forces

RENO (AP)—The surprise selection of one of Sen. Taft's national campaign chiefs to keynote the Nevada GOP convention today tripped backers of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. At stake are the state's 12 National Convention delegates.

Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, chairman of a National Citizens' for Taft committee, was to keynote the two-day meet in the semi-ghost town of Tonopah, in Southwest Nevada.

Announcement of Wedemeyer's appearance, issued from Taft headquarters in Washington, caught Eisenhower backers by surprise. A neutral keynote had been expected.

"It looks like they pulled a fast one," said Roger Teglia of Reno, chief assistant state chairman for Eisenhower. "Well, we still have the young people with us and we'll carry the convention."

He predicted Eisenhower would win eight of the 12 delegates. Taft supporters scoffed at that.

Harmony was expected to prevail at the Democratic state convention, starting at the same time at Wells, in the opposite corner of the state.

Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee both have representatives. But the 10-man national delegation was expected to go unopposed.

Russell has the backing of Nevada's politically powerful Sen. Pat McCarran. Many Nevada Democrats dislike Kefauver because of the harsh things his Crime Investigating Committee said about Nevada's legal gambling.

By The Associated Press
The Midwest and West got more rain and cool weather today but it was hot in the southern third of the country.

Showers and thunderstorms hit Southern Iowa, most of Missouri and Central Illinois early today. Showers also were reported from Wyoming eastward to Eastern South Dakota and were forecast for most of the north central region. Rain also fell in Maine and in Washington and the Northern Rockies. Generally fair weather was reported in other areas.

Temperatures climbed into the 90s in southern areas again yesterday. The day's top mark was 106 at Presidio, Tex.

adds up to 20 delegates. Virtually none of the Democrats has expressed any favoritism among the several candidates.

The Eisenhower boom jockeyed most of the Republican candidates into making a public commitment on their preference either for Taft or Eisenhower.

Of the 48 Republican candidates, 13 are self-proclaimed Eisenhower supporters, 34 are in the Taft camp and one has declined to take a stand.

The preference ballot lists only two candidates who paid the $1,000 filing fee for the privilege of having their names printed on the primary ballot. These are Taft and Harold Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania.

Write-in candidates will have no official recognition under West Virginia election laws.

Convention delegates are not bound by the outcome of the presidential primary voting.

The Eisenhower forces have been whipping up final week enthusiasm with a succession of speakers, including former national Republican Chairman Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania.

Scott spoke in Wheeling, the night before a major address in that city by Taft. The senator had made earlier speaking appearances in Charleston and Huntington.

Colorado City Play Begins

In Tourney 15 From Here

COLORADO CITY — Big Spring golfers figured prominently in the pro-amateur golf meet here Thursday, a prelude to the annual Colorado City Invitational Tournament.

A team captained by Tommy Hutto, Big Spring, and which had R. A. Smith, fellow townsman, as a member, tied for first place. Each quartet had a 60.

Other members of Hutto's team were Ben Lewis of Colorado City and Sully Barton of Roscoe.

H. R. Ramsey of Big Spring was a member of the other team, led by Nate Miller of San Angelo.

Ed Alton of Sweetwater and Max Baumgardner of San Angelo were other players in that particular foursome.

Bobby Maxwell of Big Spring, now attending North Texas State College, came up to try and defend the laurels he has won to play, however, because he arrived too late. He'll be exempt from qualifying.

Bill Craig, Colorado City, posted a regulation 70 to win medalist honors. High winds hindered the linkmen. Craig had two 35's on the nine-hole course.

Five tied at 71's. They were Art Corbin of Dallas, Bob Craig of No-trees, Johnny Grubbs of Colorado City, Ken Shields of Plainview and E. L. Vanzant of Wichita Falls.

Big Spring was dethroned as team champion by Colorado City's foursome of Craig, Grubbs, James Pritchett and Ross Dixon, who fired an 18-hole total of 255, 15 strokes over par.

Big Spring had 15 players on hand Thursday. A field of 90 paid entry fees. Nine Big Springers raised the title fight, one more than the host city.

There May Not Be A Dove Season In State In '52

AUSTIN.—There may not be a dove season this year, if a movement now on foot in the southeastern states is successful. Because of the ravages of disease and hunting pressure the dove crop of several of those states has decreased so materially.

In Texas for the last several years there has been a noticeable decrease in doves during the hunting season. In the split season for the north and south zones each area complained of improper timing for dove hunters.

Right now the traveler sees many doves. We've been doing a lot of driving in recent weeks in all parts of the state and have seen literally thousands of pairs of doves. It is possible there will be a good crop this year, but naturally it is too early yet to know definitely.

There has been considerable study given the dove problem in Texas. A staff member of A&M, supported mainly by a grant from the Wildlife Management Institute has been correlating information to provide data for management of the dove, according to the game department's annual report.

A study of the nesting was made on the A&M campus and it developed that doves nest on the campus every month except November and December, but the true nesting season is from March 1 to Sept. 10.

The report shows an average of 4.4 nesting attempts were made during the nesting season, with 65 per cent of them successful. New broods were brought off about every 30 days.

Another significant finding was based on return of hands from doves killed by hunters. These indicated that between 5 and 12 per cent of the dove population was killed by hunters.

What happens to the remaining 88 to 95 per cent? That is the job the department and others are still working on. Whether this information will help to provide an open season this year is not known as yet. It will not be known for some time. Meanwhile if you know where there is a dove nest, notify your local game warden. He may want to band the young. But stay away from them yourself and give them an opportunity to grow up.

Fishing over Texas during the past week has been good but spotted. In Lake Texoma they've been catching lots of crappie, some on plugs. Crappie also have been hitting good in Caddo and in the Colorado lakes.

Back bass fishing, however, hasn't been too hot. The weather has been fine in most parts of the state and perhaps black bass fishing will pick up.

Ed Condon, who makes the Dynamite lures in Dallas, is going to try an experiment next week end. He's taking eight teen age boys to Caddo Lake. They have agreed to use top water plugs entirely during the forenoon, and then whatever their fancy desires during the afternoon. They are to keep a log on the catches, to see what plug does the best. It should be an interesting study.

Quarterfinals are down for 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. and semifinals for 4 p.m.

Aggies Turn Back Rice Owls, 11-7

COLLEGE STATION, May 9 (U)—The Texas Aggies have an undisputed hold on fourth place in the Southwest Conference baseball race today after an 11-7 defeat of Rice yesterday.

The Aggies have a 5-7 conference record.

The Farmer, with two homers and a single, and David Britt, with a three-run homer, led the Cadets' attack against three Owl pitchers. The Cadets took a 5-0 lead in the first two innings, then added four runs in the fourth and single scores in the sixth and seventh. Rice got a single run in the fourth, two in the fifth, three in the sixth and one in the eighth.

Net Tournament Set Saturday

The YMCA Girls' Volley Ball Tournament gets underway at 9 a. m. Saturday and continues until 5 p. m.

Sixteen teams are entered, each headed by a member of last season's high school A team. All contests will be unrecruited in the new high school gymnasium. A trophy is to be given the winning team.

Two games will be played simultaneously, until the finals are reached.

First round pairings, with teams listed under the names of the respective captains:

Charlene Wilson vs Barbara Hill, 9 a. m.; Alma Crittenden vs Eve McElreath, 9 a. m.; Rosemary Rice vs Mary Ann White, 10 a. m.; Sue Robinson vs Sue Dennis, 10 a. m.; Nell Glover vs Ella Mae Newton, 11 a. m.; Narrell Dean Choate vs Eloise Carroll, 11 a. m.; Anna Mae Thorpe vs Anne Gray, 1 p. m.; Nell Harris vs Mona Lou Walker, 1 p. m.

Quarterfinals are down for 2 p. m. and 5 p. m. and semifinals for 4 p. m.

Rockets Bruise Big Springers By 19-5 Count

ROSWELL.—Roswell's Rockets were out two Big Spring hurlers here tonight and were working on a third, to win a 19-5 ball game.

The defeat dropped Big Spring back into the Longhorn League cellar. The Broncos now trail Roswell by half a game.

The Rockets jumped into the lead in the first inning as Bert Estrada walked seven men to keep the bases loaded and the runs flying across.

Estrada hurled one-third inning and was relieved by Frank Fernandez, who allowed the Rockets seven runs in the fourth inning. He was relieved in the fourth. Schaffer finished the ball game for the Broncos.

Two home runs, both by lead off men, were shared equally in the game. Pat Stacey put one over the center field fence for Big Spring in the sixth. It was his third of the year.

Ray Hilllobbered one for the Rockets in the third to chalk up Roswell's only run of the inning.

Big Spring attempted to even the 7-0 score up in the second inning, but succeeded only in pushing across four runs. Two singles and a double in that inning, plus a wild pitch, did the job. Stacey's homer added the final run for Big Spring.

In the fourth the Rockets hammered Fernandez, who walked four men during the inning. A double by Third Baseman Stubby Greer scored three of the Rocket's runs that inning. Bob Lemmel's long single added two more runs to the Rocket tally.

In the eighth a triple by Bob West pushed across a Roswell run. Tonight the Rockets meet Big Spring again here.

Ed (Porky) Oliver Pacing Greenbrier Open With 61

By GEORGE BOWEN WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.Va. —Ed (Porky) Oliver shot the best tournament round of his 14-year professional golf career yesterday and he'd better keep on doing it to win the 72-hole Greenbrier Open.

The jolly golfer—built like a barrel—rolled out a near-record 61 in the first 18 holes on the old White course.

But still stalking him is the great Sam Snead for whom this is home course. Snead is second by three strokes, and the way Sam's playing, Oliver can't afford to falter.

In two practice rounds before the tourney, Snead carded 63 and 64. The 72-hole record for the 6,368 yard old White course is 259 set by Ben Hogan in the Greenbrier two years ago. Snead set the 18-hole record of 60 the same year, although not in the tourney.

Oliver, playing out of Lemont, Ill., missed by a hair tying Snead's record 60 on the last hole, a putt for a birdie just falling to drop.

It would have been the 10th birdie for Oliver, who never did go over par. Snead, on the other hand, was over par on two holes, but shot eight birdies to wind up six under.

Oliver had no illusions about the pro to beat among the 37 vying for the first place $1,800.

Oilers Regain League Lead

Odessa took over the jinxed first place of the Longhorn League Thursday night, the fourth club to inherit the spot in as many nights.

Sweetwater, Odessa and San Angelo have held the top position in preceding nights only to topple the night following.

Thursday night Odessa regained first by outlasting Midland 9-8 when Oiler hurler Carlos Perez won his own ball game with a ninth inning single that produced the winning run.

San Angelo slipped down to second, a half game out, when Vernon ran his win streak to four straight with an 8-1 triumph over the Collis. Sweetwater joins San Angelo in second place after beating Artesia 11-9. Roswell jumped on Big Spring 19-5 in the other game.

Baldemar Carmona's grand slam home run and another round-tripper by Armando Traspuesto headed Sweetwater's 18 hit attack. For the losers, Rudy Briner included a homer among a five-for-five night at the plate.

Al Richardson accounted for five runs as he battered Vernon to his win, besides scattering nine San Angelo hits for the pitching decision.

Roswell enjoyed seven run spree in the first and fourth innings against Big Spring, mainly on the wildness of Big Spring pitchers.

East Wins, 13-6

East Ward lost to Airport, 13-6, in a Sixth Grade Ward School game played at East Ward Thursday afternoon.

Davidson hit a home run for the winners while Murphy had one for Airport.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

There are at least 13 Longhorn League graduates who opened the 1952 season in the Class B Big State League.

At least one of the Big State players must have been in the Army during the last great war. His name is Bob Akenhead. His last name was an old expression used by the doughfoot.

Dean Franks, the ex-Roswell hurler who had a whammy on Big Spring and most of the other Longhorn teams, apparently has made the grade with Austin of the Big State League.

Franks won two of his first three starts with Tom Jordan's team.

SQUILLANTE GOING GREAT GUNS WITH HARLINGEN There are 13 Longhorn exes doing business in the Gulf Coast League, another B affiliate, too. One of these, Ted Squillante (San Angelo) of Harlingen is hitting .370 after two weeks of play.

Ken Peacock (Odessa and Sweetwater) is now with Brownsville. Jorge Lopez, the one-time Big Spring second sacker, is playing third for Laredo. He was with Harlingen.

Something I didn't know until recently: Wayne Wallace, who graduated from San Angelo to Corpus Christi, attended the University of Arkansas for two years.

Sim Iness, the Southern California wright tosser who beat Darrow Hooper recently, was born in Keota, Okla.

This is Adolph Rupp, Kentucky University basketball coach, talking: "The (Chicago) Black Sox threw (baseball) games, my kids shaved points. There's a difference. Is there?"

AL MONCHAK FINALLY COMES ONTO OWN Al Monchak, the irascible manager of the Roswell Rockets, was a little slow in getting started on his "I hate umpires" campaign this season.

However, he was in good voice against Alton Sample here last Saturday night and liked it so well he continued to verbally bombard the men-in-blue on his trip to Vernon Sunday.

In the latter instance, he ran face to face with Umpire Steve Sadowski, who was in no humor to be jostled about. Steve pointed to the exits and Monchak departed, but not without first speaking his piece.

There's recurring rumors Denver will join the Pacific Coast League shortly. On the same day Hollywood drew 2,162 to one of its games, Denver was attracting 12,862 to its home attraction.

The Texas League might be considered quite a promotion by some Class C and D ball players in this area but Gil McDougald earned only $2,200 the year he was with Beaumont, before jumping to the Yankees.

Attendance Up In Longhorn

ABILENE, May 9 (U)—The Longhorn League is getting off to a faster start at the gate than last year.

League President Hal Sayles said the average attendance of games reported to date is 961 as compared with 837 in 1951.

In the first 45 games, including reports from all eight parks, attendance totaled 44,135 against a figure of 37,694 last year.

Biggest gains were reported at Midland and Big Spring.

Roughies Near Lead With Win Over Dallas

By CHARLEY ESKEW
Associated Press Sports Writer

Beaumont's rugged Roughies rode their supremacy over the Dallas Eagles Thursday night into another shot at the Texas League lead, now occupied by Fort Worth by an unstable half-game margin.

Throughout the league, none of the clubs seem willing to get strung out very far behind.

Beaumont Thursday night pounced on their Eagle cousins 5-3 for a fourth win in five tries. And in the meantime, Shreveport gave the Roughies a boost by claiming a second straight triumph over Fort Worth, this time by 9-8 in 10 innings.

Another marathon saw Oklahoma City squeeze out Houston 4-3 in 12 innings.

Tulsa trimmed the league's margin from top club to bottom to four and a half games by overwhelming San Antonio 9-1.

Although Rookie John Gray of Beaumont stifled Dallas with a four-hitter, it was another night in which batsmen hogged the honors.

Gray's teammates Bob Thompson and Ted Bell showered homers in giving him support. The pair's round-trippers came with none on. The Roughies touched two Eagle lefties for five other hits. Harry Scherting got a double and single as half of Dallas' bat attack.

Chico Garcia's blooper double drove in the winning Shreveport run, after Fort Worth had staged a six-run ninth inning spree to send the game into the extra inning. Wayne Belardi of the Cats hit a three-run home run in the ninth for the losers.

Joe Landrum, who pitched only the ninth, gave up Garcia's two-bagger and took the loss.

In the extra base bing at Oklahoma City, Joe Damato sent the game into overtime with a triple in the ninth inning, then provided the Indians' win with a 12th inning home run. It came with the bases empty off Houston's lone hurler, Al Papp.

Mel McGaha had provided Houston with a 3-1 lead in the third with a two-on homer. Oklahoma City's tallies in the second and fourth came on Frank Keller's circuit clouts and set the margin 3-2 before Damato's timely hitting in the ninth.

Tulsa had little trouble with San Antonio. Tommy Reis got 17-hit support to go along with his nine-hit pitching. Bob Weisenberger who ranks only above the pitcher in Tulsa's batting order, continued a .700 percentage spree over the last few nights with two for four. His triple and double accounted for two runs. Every Oiler collected at least one safety.

Midwestern May Not Make It

TEMPE, Ariz., May 9 (U.S.)—Policy makers of the Border Conference meet here today to discuss a proposed invitation to Midwestern University, Wichita Falls, to join the conference.

However, C. Laner Leaser, conference secretary, said last night that the chances of Midwestern being taken into the loop seem remote. He said he doubted if any action would be taken on the matter.

Conference golf, tennis and track and field meets are being held in conjunction with the discussions.

The University of Arizona is favored to repeat as conference tennis titlist while Hardin-Simmons is rated a strong favorite in golf. The Tempe Sun Devils are given a slight edge to retain the conference crown in track and field events.

TECH CHANGE IS GOOD Southwest Conference Body Discuss Expansion Today

DALLAS, May 9 (U.S.)—The faculty committee, governing body of the Southwest Conference, begins deliberations today on the question of whether or not to expand.

Outside looking in are University of Houston and Texas Tech, each eager to hit the big time.

The committee will decide by tomorrow morning on the applications of these two schools. Tech first tried for admittance as far back as 1927. University of Houston made its first attempt in 1948.

General opinion is that University of Houston doesn't have much chance of getting in this time but that Texas Tech stands a most excellent chance. Three conference members are committed to Tech and the University of Texas has announced that it will make the motion to admit the big West Texas school.

Texas A&M and Texas Christian are in the Tech camp and Baylor is also believed ready to cast an affirmative vote. Only one other will be needed and Arkansas is reported due to furnish that.

While the conference athletic directors, coaches and business managers of athletics hold meetings today to decide whether they will recommend equal distribution of bowl game receipts, if they favor placing a limit on athletic scholarships and what they want to do about television and radio, the faculty committee will hold an afternoon and night session.

And the athletic contests of the conference are going on.

Wesley Ellis of Texas leads the golf tournament going into its final 36 holes. Ellis shot a nine-over-par 148 yesterday in going out front over the first 36 holes. Don Adlington of Southern Methodist was second with 153.

Two of the four seeded players in the conference tennis tournament came through to the semi-finals. Julian Oates of Texas, seeded No. 1, and R. G. DeBerry of Texas A&M, rated No. 2, reached the penultimate round. Eugene Lettos of Texas A&M, seeded No. 3, and Walton Miller of Southern Methodist, ranked No. 4, were defeated. Lettos lost to David Telford of Baylor, 3-6, 10-8, 6-1, and Miller was beaten by Tommy West of Texas A&M, 6-3, 6-1.

Going into the semi-finals with Oates and DeBerry were Charles Bloodworth of Texas and Telford.

Double semi-finalists will be determined today. The Texas combination of Oates and Bill Harris, seeded No. 1 in doubles, did not play a match yesterday.

The conference track and field meet opens this afternoon with finals in the javelin throw and preliminaries in three field events and six running events. All other finals will be tomorrow afternoon. Texas A&M is a heavy favorite to repeat as team champion.

Babe Zaharias Leads Fem Golfers In Cash Return

SEATTLE, May 9 (U.S.)—Babe Zaharias has earned $5,052.25 so far in 1952 to lead America's feminine professional golfers, Fred Corcoran reported today.

Corcoran, tournament director for the Ladies Professional Golfers Association, said Louise Suggs ranked second with $4,069.25 and Betty Jameson third with $3,920.25.

The girls are here for the third stage of the Cross-Country Weather-ervane Open Tournament Saturday and Sunday. They will play 36 holes here, then continue to New York to wind up the 144-hole tourney.

Mrs. Zaharias is leading at the halfway mark with 288 for 72 holes, six strokes ahead of Miss Suggs. Should she pick up the $3,000 going to the winner of the Weather-ervane, the Babe would be in excellent position to win more than the record $15,200 she earned last year.

Betty Rawls ranks fourth in earnings with $3,610.08 and Patty Berg follows with $3,008.08.

Corcoran said other earnings to date for the touring women professionals were:

Marlene Bauer, $2,907.50; Marilyn Smith, $2,449.25; Peggy Kirk, $1,562.25; Alice Bauer, $1,110; Betty Bush, $1,098.33;

Beverly Hanson, $972.25; Betty Mackinnon, $740; Betty Dodd, $678.50, and Shirley Spork, $468.75.

Fort Bliss Wins Fourth Army Meet

FORT HOOD, May 9 (U.S.)—Fort Bliss took the Fourth Army Track and Field Championships here yesterday with 13 points. Brooke Army Medical Center was second with six.

Cpl. Leonard Grace of BAMC furnished the highlight of individual competition, taking both the 100 and 200 meter events. His time in the 100, 10.4, was only one-tenth of a second off the 1948 Olympics winning time.

WORD AWAITED

DALLAS, May 9 (U.S.)—District NCAA officials awaited word today from Arizona as to whether the unofficial Border Conference baseball champion wants to play the Southwest Conference champion.

Oilers Bombard Eagles, 20 To 10

The Oilers defeated the Eagles, 20-10, in a Little League baseball game Thursday evening in the City Memorial Park.

Today's contest pits the Gold Sox against the Indians, after which play will be suspended until Monday evening.

SEEK A COMEBACK

Local Baseballers Meet Angelo Here Saturday

Having been buffeted about more than somewhat on their current road trip, the Big Spring Bronces should be mighty pleased over the friendlier confines of their own park when they return here Saturday night.

This home stand will be an abbreviated one for the locals, however. They host San Angelo here Saturday night and again Sunday afternoon, then go to Angelo with the Colts Monday to begin a two-game set.

They go from there to Odessa for two games before putting in here again next Friday.

The Steeds have made their most disastrous start in Longhorn League history and need to right themselves in a hurry or face early elimination in the scrap for first place in the standings.

They have their work cut out for them Saturday, since Angelo has been fighting for the league lead since the season began and apparently have a stronger outfit than they had a year ago.

Pat Stacey, the local boss, thinks he has the help on the way that might put the Bronces back on the main line.

The Steeds end their road trip tonight in a single with Roswell in Roswell.

Thurman Defeats Don Lewis, AC

KINGSVILLE, May 9 (U.S.)—Billy Maca, Texas A&I, plays Pat Egan, Austin College, and Sam Thurman, McMurry, meets Charles Palmer, A&I, in the semi-finals of the Texas Conference golf tournament today.

Thurman hails from Big Spring. Maca beat Ken Beardon, Howard Payne, 7 and 6 yesterday in the quarter-finals. Egan won over Richard Buckley, McMurry, 2 and 1. Palmer defeated Johnny Williams, Austin College, 1 up, and Thurman beat Don Lewis, Austin College.

WIN THIRD IN ROW

Indians Shatter Jinx In Stadium

By JACK HAND
AP Sports Writer

It said here a month ago the Cleveland Indians couldn't win the American League pennant until they learned how to win at the Yankee Stadium. Well, bud, they seem to learn fast.

Not since 1947 had the Indians swept a series in the New York Yankee's home park until they humbled the world champs yesterday, 12-5, for the third straight.

The Yankee Stadium jinx, the Vic Raschi hex, the Eddie Lopat whammy all went out the window in this first New York-Cleveland series of the season.

Raschi got his humps Wednesday and Lopat his yesterday when the Tribe's new cleanup man, Ray Boone, went on the warpath. Boone struck the big blow of the game, a three-run homer in the fifth. It hardly mattered that Cleveland poured home six runs in the ninth. You remember '51. Cleveland won only one game in New York all season. Now they're sure of at least a 200 per cent improvement.

Bobby Feller was the official winning pitcher as the Tribe finished its first eastern trip with a fine 7-3 record. But Feller needed solid help from Bob Lemon. The Yanks nicked Feller for 12 hits in 5 2-3 innings. Lemon gave them only one the rest of the way—a ninth-inning homer by Gene Woodling.

Boone hit a homer, Harry Simpson legged his way around the bases on an inside-the-park blow and Al Rosen and Bob Kennedy tripled over the head of Irv Noren, new York centerfielder.

This crushing defeat that sunk the Yanks three games under .500 and 5 1/2 games off the lead, came at a particularly embarrassing moment. The latest averages show Archie Wilson, one of the men sent to Washington in the Noren deal, leading the league with a .481 batting average.

Winging home after this successful tour, the Indians were only 18 percentage points behind the leading Boston Red Sox. All even in the "games behind" they trailed in points because they have lost one more while winning one more.

The Chicago White Sox salvaged the finale at Boston, 4-2, on Saul Rogovin's five-hit pitching. Ed Stewart's two-run homer off loser Ray Scarborough in the seventh was the crusher, ending the White Sox's six-game losing streak.

Big Jim Rivera, the St. Louis Browns' slumping rookie flash, snapped out of it with a ninth-inning home run that beat Philadelphia, 9-8. Rivera, benched for weak hitting got into the game just in time to make a sensational catch in the sixth. Then, with old Satchel Paige flim-flamming the A's, Rivera reached Carl Scheib for the game winner.

Probe Warehousing Practices Of CCC

By CHARLES HASLET
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Agriculture Committee investigating government grain deals turned its attention again today to warehousing practices.

Committee officials said there is a possibility top government warehousing officials called as witnesses will be asked about a storage transaction in Baton Rouge, La., sharply criticized by Sen. Williams (R-De) as a waste of taxpayers' money, and involving Jack Cowart, former Agriculture Department official convicted of accepting a bribe in another government transaction.

Williams told the Senate earlier this week he was informed the Baton Rouge Engineers Depot in Louisiana which originally cost the government $2,007,257 had been sold by the War Assets Administration to the Baton Rouge Warehouse Company, Inc., for $205,000, with $41,000 down payment.

Less than two months after the sale, he said, the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) leased a part of the facilities for storage purposes and paid $122,753 in storage fees during the following two-year period.

The senator added that a proposal was pending to repurchase the property for more than one million dollars.

He told the Senate only part of the down payment, $12,050, was paid at the time of sale, the remainder not being collected until nearly a year after possession had been given.

During the intervening months, more than $86,000 was collected in storage fees, he said.

Williams said Cowart, special assistant to the Production and Marketing Administration chief, participated in the transaction.

The senator asserted that on Dec. 2, 1949, nine days after the CCC began using the storage facilities, the warehouse corporation issued 153 shares of capital stock with par value of $25 to Mrs. Z. Van Winkle, who he said was the mother-in-law of Cowart, and she signed a $4,075 promissory note.

He said issuance of the stock to the mother-in-law was made at Cowart's request on the grounds that, since he was a government employee, stocks should not be issued in his name.

The stock was bought back by the corporation in January, 1951, for $22,500 and the note, for no payment had been made was canceled, Williams declared.

McGranery Is Approved By Senate Group

WASHINGTON, May 9 (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today approved the nomination of Federal Judge James P. McGranery of Philadelphia to be attorney general. The vote was 8 to 4.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) said opponents of the nomination had obtained permission to file a minority report. He said he would carry the fight to the Senate floor.

McGranery was nominated by President Truman early last month to succeed J. Howard McGrath in the Cabinet post.

Chairman McCarran (D-Nev) announced the committee vote following a brief closed session.

He declined to give the votes of individual committee members, but it was unofficially reported that the four votes against confirmation were cast by Ferguson and Senators Watkins (R-Utah), Jenner (R-Ind) and Hendrickson (R-N.J.).

McCarran said Sen. Wiley (R-Wis) was absent and did not vote.

Police, Students In Fight; 84 Injured

TOKYO (AP)—Eighty-four persons were injured today when 500 police and 1,000 students clashed at a sede University.

The incident began yesterday two detectives went to the private school to arrest two students in connection with May Day riots. Students seized the policemen. One officer escaped.

TO USE IN CLOSE SUPPORT

Reveal U.S. Has Atomic Gun For Ground Troops

NEW YORK (AP)—An atomic gun developed by the U.S. Army was described last night as an accurate and devastating weapon, providing field commanders with tremendous "finger-tip" fire power—and heralding a new era in the waging of war.

The description of this country's first atomic artillery weapon—a gun that can "hit its target under any weather conditions and give ground troops the kind of devastating close support never before available in warfare"—came from Army Secretary Frank Pace.

Pace said the new weapon "is essentially an artillery piece—but with immeasurably greater power than any artillery hitherto known."

Such atomic weapons, he added, eventually will bring "significant changes" in the Army's traditional mission of closing with and destroying an enemy.

Pace's claims for the weapon came in a speech before a meeting of the National Wool Manufacturers Association.

The weapon has been tested by the Army with non-atomic ammunition but official specifications of the gun remained a secret until last night.

Pace, in disclosing for the first time some of the weapon's specifications, gave this picture of the gun:

It weighs about 75 tons but is highly mobile and is carried on a platform suspended between two engine cabs at its front and rear.

It can travel at a speed of about 35 miles per hour on highways—and it can cross bridges "which Army Engineers are already trained to build for present heavy divisional equipment."

It can travel cross-country. It can fit into a landing ship designed for amphibious operations.

And it can fire with accuracy "comparable to conventional artillery, and tests indicate it is much more accurate at long ranges."

Pace also said that in addition to "tactical" atomic bombs being developed for use by aircraft, this country also is developing atomic artillery which can outrange the gun-type weapon.

This development, he explained, involves "guided missiles and rockets to receive atomic warheads."

Pace likewise disclosed that courses in atomic warfare are being introduced in Army schools.

Currently, he said, Army officers and some Army civilian specialists are attending a school at Sandia Base, New Mexico, in a study of the use and characteristics of atomic armaments.

Despite the building of new weapons of destruction, the Army secretary foresaw a continuing need for "many of our current conventional weapons."

"So-called 'fantastic weapons' there may be," he said, "but to rely on them alone for our protection is not only fantastic, but foolhardy to an extreme."

Meanwhile, Pace said, the Army is seeking to "stock our arsenal with weapons rather than blueprints."

Okay Purchase Of Burlington Lines

FORT WORTH, May 9 (AP)—Stockholders of the Fort Worth and Denver Railway have approved a plan to buy the Burlington Lines in Texas from the Colorado and Southern Railway.

At a meeting yesterday the stockholders authorized an invitation for bids on a 17 million-dollar bond issue. The plan would retire all obligations of the Fort Worth and Denver and the seven affiliated companies in Texas of the Colorado and Southern.

The bond issue also must be approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Texas Railroad Commission.

He was one of 49 candidates accepted into the organization at the spring ceremonial held by Abba Temple here.

Sheep Industry Asks Better US Treatment

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Writer
WASHINGTON, May 9 (AP)—The sheep is one of nature's most versatile animals—but you wouldn't know it, say sheep men, from the way it is treated by Uncle Sam.

It provides lamb for food. It provides the most necessary fiber for clothing. Its byproducts are vitally important as pelts and hides. Its carcass wastes are necessary to modern medicine. Lanolin, a derivative of wool, is a basic ingredient in pharmaceutical preparations.

And, says the National Wool Growers Association, the sheep provides the most expert method of converting grasslands and otherwise useless forage into profit-making products.

The association is campaigning for more favorable treatment for the American sheep industry. It's out to increase stock sheep from the present level of 28 million head to 50 million by 1960. It contends that such an increase is essential to protect the nation against a tragic shortage in event of war.

It says the Agriculture Department is encouraging such an expansion but that other agencies of the government are following policies which discourage an increase.

It cites price controls on lamb, tariff policies of the State Department and immigration restrictions which discourage importation of trained sheep herders from Mexico and Europe. Not many Americans want to be herders.

"History proves," the association says, "that no nation in the temperate and northern zones can maintain a successful peacetime economy or wage a successful war if it does not have available an adequate supply of wool."

During the 1930's this country imported 25 per cent of its wool requirements. Today 75 per cent is imported. It is too risky and dangerous, growers say, for a nation to depend upon foreign supplies for such a large portion of its needs.

The association contends that the State Department, through tariff regulations, is pursuing policies which "indicate it believes a foreign wool and lamb producing industry is more important than a domestic one."

The State Department, on the other hand, argues that high tariffs interfere with expanding world trade—which it says is essential for a prosperous and peaceful world.

The Office of Price Stabilization says price controls are essential to combat inflation.

What the association wants is a chance to get together with various government agencies and develop national policies which will "restore the confidence of the sheep industry in the continued future of the business."

Fight Shaping Up Over Fla. Dem Delegates

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia won a majority of votes in Florida's presidential preference primary Tuesday but it appeared today that a fight over the state's 24 delegates to the Democratic National Convention was in the making.

Jerry W. Carter, Democratic national committeeman from Florida, endorsed Russell with the statement that "he has never been a Dixiecrat but has always been a loyal Democrat."

Former Sen. Claude Pepper said he is still supporting Sen. Estes Kefauver because "he's for state's rights" and "he's the only southerner who can carry the nation."

Russell led Kefauver in Tuesday's primary with 346,339 votes to 274,929 and announced in Washington he would ask Pepper to urge withdrawal of certain Pepper-backed candidates for delegates to the July convention.

Carter declared flatly that "I'm for Russell" and moved to insure selection of Russell delegates in the primary May 27.

He wrote state Atty. Gen. Richard Ervin asking if any law prohibited circulating a list of preferred candidates to the convention. Ervin said he expects to advise Carter that he knows of no such law.

There are 58 candidates for the delegation who will run as Russell supporters in the May 27 primary. Among the other candidates are 23 committed to support Kefauver.

Russell campaign leaders want some of his supporters to withdraw so the Russell vote won't be spread over too wide a field.

Kefauver said he is interested only in delegates who have pledged support to him.

Mistake Sends Him To U.S. Jail Before Appeal Is Settled

HOUSTON, May 9 (AP)—William M. Partridge, Galveston longshoreman sentenced to two years in prison for a narcotic conviction, got a quick look at the Federal prison in Leavenworth, Kan.

By mistake Partridge was transferred to the big prison while his appeal from the conviction was pending.

The mistake was discovered yesterday when Attorney Leon Lusk posted a $3,000 appeals bond. Partridge is due back in Houston in a day or two to await action on the appeal.

Routine Business At School Board

Trustees of the Big Spring Independent School District dispatched a fairly heavy schedule of generally routine business Thursday evening.

Action on a proposal from the St. Mary's Episcopal Church for purchase of a 200x300 tract at 18th and Gollad was postponed pending attendance of all board members.

A committee representing the Baptist Temple Church was told that the new congregation could make use of the senior high auditorium during June, July and August. Then the matter will be up for review. In the group were Walter Grice, Dr. H. M. Jarratt, F. D. Rogers and Monroe Gafford.

Programs for the annual commencement, drafted by Roy Worley, high school principal, were presented for board approval by Supt. W. C. Blankenship. The senior sermon on May 25 is to be by the Rev. Maple Avery and the commencement address by Dr. Blake Van Leer, a graduate of Big Spring High School and president of Georgia Tech, on May 27. The junior high promotion is on May 26.

In presenting the St. Mary's proposal, Charles Long, senior warden, and the Rev. Bill Boyd, rector, showed the board sketches of a proposed structure which would be 132x148 at the widest points of the basic L pattern. It would cost around $160,000, it was estimated. The board was offered $4,000 plus $1,000 to cover paving cost. The committee also proposed lease of a small tract immediately to the east for public park purposes.

An offer for a tract held by the board on W. 4th was declined by the board on the grounds it did not wish to sell at this time.

Junior High Principal Truett Johnson was told that the board approved the publication of a yearbook by the junior high next year if students and faculty wanted to undertake it.

Problems connected with extension of cafeteria service to Park VIII next autumn were discussed. Although no figures were set, it was a board consensus that operation of services at this point would be from the high school centralized kitchen and would depend upon the continuance of a minimum number of children. Dr. J. E. Hogan, board vice president and who presided over the meeting, thought that rates should be adjusted to prevent operational losses.

"We're obligated to educate children," he said, "but feeding them is not one of our prime responsibilities."

The board, on a 3-2 vote with the chairman breaking the tie, voted to obtain new furniture for the conference room.

No more senior high auditorium rentals will be accepted pending the recommendation of policies as well as a permanent rate scale by a special committee, the board decided.

TEXAS BRANDS

By JOHN M. HENDRIX
KC was the road brand used by Jerry Ellis when he was driving so many trail herds in the late '70s. He had range on the Nueces River and made headquarters for his trail driving operation from Old Dog Town on the same river. Old Dog Town has been vividly described by J. Frank Doble in his excellent book "A Vaquero of the Brush County."

GET OUT OF KOREA

Napier Favors U. S. Leaving Far East

AUSTIN, May 9 (U.S. Senate Candidate E. W. Napier of Wichita Falls says he favors pulling out of Korea and all of Asia "lock, stock and barrel."

He debunked the Russian danger as "imagined or pretended."

"We have already squandered billions in an effort to arm Europe," the 65-year-old attorney, whose last-minute filing came as a surprise in the Senate race, said in a prepared statement.

"With the exception of the old Nazi crowd and those who are profiting by the scheme, no one in Europe wants our arms. They see no Russian threat, and they wish to be left in peace," he said.

Napier called the nation's foreign policy "one of sheer madness that can only lead to war and bankruptcy." He advocated a return "to God and reason," and the strength-which had not been touched in other revisions, was authorized in the amount of $25 per month.

The board discussed briefly and took under advisement the possibility of applying for a high school R.O.T.C. unit. Bill French, member of the firm of Puckett & French, reported on touch up work on a few construction items that needed corrective action. C. J. Harris, Fort Worth, reported that art work was in on a 50th anniversary brochure for the district, and that copy would soon be in hand.

TEXAS JUDGE RULES

Taft Forces Can't File Delegate List

By The Associated Press
A Travis County judge Thursday granted a temporary order forbidding the head of a GOP rump convention from filing a list of pro-Taft delegates with the secretary of state.

Judge Charles O. Betts issued the injunction against James W. Harmon of Austin at the request of William H. Purdy, chairman of the Eisenhower-dominated Travis County convention.

Harmon is head of the pro-Taft faction which walked out of the regular county convention and held its own meeting.

Judge Betts set May 17 for a hearing on a permanent injunction. Meanwhile, National Republican Committee Chairman Guy Gabrielson wired from Washington he would have to remain neutral regarding the rump meetings held by Texas backers of Sen. Taft.

Alvin Lane of Dallas, co-chairman of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower's Texas campaign, had asked Gabrielson to condemn the Taft supporters who bolted regular county conventions.

Taft forces walked out of Republican County conventions in large numbers Tuesday and held rump meetings in many Texas cities.

State GOP Chairman Orville Bullington refused to take sides in the matter specifically but said the younger people who attended the county conventions should be congratulated.

"The Eisenhower people won in our Wichita County convention and I didn't bolt," he said. "I congratulated those young folks. We need more, the more the merrier. We can't raise Republicans fast enough, we have to get them from the Democrats."

"As a general rule if you get 300 to 400 people at a convention and 10 to 15 walk out, the 10 or 15 are more likely to be wrong. That's assuming the majority are there in good faith."

"We should encourage new members of the party. I've been trying for 30 years myself to get them. These youngsters are waking up and finding out that the whole burden of mismanagement for the last 20 years is falling on their shoulders. I say admit them to full fellowship."

Gabrielson wired Lane that the rules of the Republican national convention of 1948 and the laws of the respective states govern the selection of the delegates.

"As chairman it is essential that I remain neutral in such controversies until the time comes for me to vote as a member of the national committee under the procedure specified by the rules," he said.

Lane said the telegram "is not a reply to the question asked. We are wiring Mr. Gabrielson tomorrow."

House To Vote Soon On Tides' Return To Ownership By States
AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, May 9 (U.S. House leaders have agreed to bring legislation giving the state clear title to oil-rich tidelands beneath the marginal seas to a vote next Thursday.

The bill is expected to be approved promptly. Conferees of both the House and the Senate already have agreed upon the bill and ironed out the differences in the measure.

Favorable Senate action is predicted shortly thereafter.

Iowa Youth Is Freed By Texas; On Way Home

SUGAR LAND, May 9 (U.S. boy convict presumably was en route to his Iowa farm home with his mother who gained his release from a Texas prison farm.

Herbert Fletcher, 15, sent to prison as an adult, walked into the arms of tearful Mrs. Edna Fletcher last night.

The mother won her son's freedom after a 12-day tussle with Texas laws. The conditional release was signed by Acting Gov. Ben Ramsey on the recommendation of the State Pardons Board at Austin.

Herbert just said "Mama" after walking through the prison farm gates wearing new clothes his mother had bought him. She hugged him briefly.

"I came to Texas to get Herbert and I did," she said.

She said they would leave for home as soon as possible.

The conditional pardon provided for the boy to be returned by his mother to Iowa officials who offered to take jurisdiction. He never is to return voluntarily to Texas during his 10-year sentence.

Young Fletcher was sentenced last March for robbing two filling stations in Freestone and Williamson Counties. He told officials he was 17 and was convicted as an adult. At his true age, he could have been tried only as a juvenile and sent to a training school.

Mrs. Fletcher made restitution of all property her son was charged with taking. She promised to write Texas pardon officials how he gets along back home on the farm.

The Right Use of Sunday

JEHOVAH BLESSED THE DAY AND HALLOWED IT

Scripture—Exodus 20:8-11; Mark 2:27-28; Luke 4:16; 13:10-17.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL.
THE FOURTH commandment given by Jehovah to Moses and by him interpreted to the children of Israel, was "Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy." "Six days thou shalt labor, and do all thy work: "But the seventh is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor the stranger that is within thy gates." Having created the world in six days, and rested on the seventh, "wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it." Now the rulers of the temple were most particular that the people (and they themselves, presumably) observed this law punctiliously. They watched Jesus eagerly in this matter, as in others, to see if they could catch Him violating it or any other Hebrew law, so that they would have an excuse to take Him into custody. Their jealous hatred of the man whom multitudes loved and revered, and whose words were listened to with such pleasure and profit, knew no bounds. They would go to any lengths to trap days, or to do evil to save life, or to kill? His enemies held their peace. Looking about Him with anger and grief at their hardness of heart, He told the man to stretch forth his hand, and he did and "his hand was restored whole as the other." The Pharisees had nothing to say in the synagogue, but they went and took counsel with more of Christ's opponents, how they might destroy this Man. Again Jesus was preaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath, and there He saw a badly crippled woman who had been ill for 12 years. She "was bowed together, and so could in no wise lift up herself." Filled with pity, Christ called her to Him, and said unto her, "Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity." "And He laid His hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God." Now the ruler of the synagogue, instead of being filled with joy and thanksgiving at the poor woman's recovery, was indignant because again it was on the sabbath that the healing took place. He addressed himself to the people rather than to Jesus, say-

MEMORY VERSE

"Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy."—Exodus 20:8.

Him in word or deed so they might have an excuse to destroy Him.

So, one day—a sabbath—when Jesus and His disciples were walking through a "corn" field, wheat field (corn as we know it was not known in that country), being hungry, they picked kernels of corn from the stalks and ate them. Ah, picking the grain was work, the Pharisees evidently reasoned, and that was against the law.

So they said to Jesus, "Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?"

Jesus knew the scriptures better than these men of the temple. Said He, "Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungry, he, and they that were with him? How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave them also to them which were with him?"

"And He said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath." "Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath."

St. Mark does not tell us what the Pharisees said to that.

Now Jesus went into the synagogue and the Pharisees watched Him for they saw a man who had a poor withered hand. Would He heal the man on the sabbath?

Christ told the man with the withered hand to stand forth; then He said to the Pharisees, "Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath?"

ing, "There are six days in which men ought to work; in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day."

Imagine having a chance to cure a hopelessly sick person, and not doing it but waiting until another day, when the person would be suffering, possibly dying, in the meantime!

Surely the sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath when it comes to the matter of saving someone from suffering or death. Surely God, our loving Father, never meant us to go that far in hallowing the day.

Jesus was obeying His Father's command when He ministered to those who were afflicted, whatever the day. Do no unnecessary work on that day. Go to church, reflect on spiritual things, but do God's work if called for.

The Lord answered the ruler of the synagogue by saying, "Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on his sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?"

"And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these 18 years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?"

"And when He had said these things, all His adversaries were ashamed; and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him."

The common people always heard Christ gladly; and in this instance it is said that even his enemies were ashamed of their hypocrisy and evil intentions.

AT BIG SPRING CHURCHES

Churches To Honor Mothers Sunday With Special Programs, Flowers

Mothers will have their day Sunday when churches in the area pay homage to the ladies with special programs, flowers and honors.

BAPTIST
Using as his text I Kings 22:52, Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will speak Sunday morning on "Walking in the Way of Our Mothers." From Luke 18:26 comes his evening subject, "Who Then, Can Be Saved?" Following the evening worship a baptismal service will be held.

CATHOLIC
The Rev. William J. Moore, OMI, will conduct masses at 7 and 9:30 a.m. at St. Thomas Catholic Church. Rosary will be recited at 5 p.m.

Masses will be said by the Rev. Paul Halley, OMI, at 8 and 9:30 a.m. at the Sacred Heart (Latin-American) Catholic Church.

FIRST CHRISTIAN
"The Fine Art of Motherhood" will be discussed by Lloyd Thompson, minister of the First Christian Church, at the morning hour Sunday. The oldest and youngest mothers and the mother attending church with largest number of her children present, will be given bouquets. Mrs. Bill Bonner will be soloist with the choir. "Christians Are God's Workmanship" will be the evening sermon topic.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
Mankind's great need is to gain the correct concept of God and His perfect image, man. As this view is obtained, the problems of everyday living are overcome and new vistas of usefulness unfold, according to the Lesson-Sermon to be read in the Christian Science Church Sunday. Selections from I Corinthians in the Bible and from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy will also be read.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST
Lloyd Connel, minister of the Church of Christ, 14th and Main, will tell "What Is Rightfully Expected of Me by the World" at the morning services of the church. His evening subject will be "The Church of Your Choice."

T. H. Tarbet, minister of the Church of Christ, East 4th and Benton, will tell the morning congregation of the church of "Worship That Is Rational and Practical." In the evening, he will speak on "Man Can Know for Sure What Is Right Religiously."

"Come Unto Me" will be the morning subject of Jimmy Record, minister of the Ellis Homes Church of Christ. He has chosen for the evening topic, "How We Learn from the Bible."

CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER DAY SAINTS
Members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will meet in the Girl Scout Little House Sunday at 10 a.m. for Sunday School.

CHURCH OF GOD
The Rev. and Mrs. Roy W. Potter of Centralia, Ill., will begin a three day revival at the Main St. Church of God Sunday. At the 10:50 a.m. service, the Rev. Mr. Potter will discuss "Your Mother and You." His evening topic will be "Life's Experiences Explained." At the service Monday at 8 p.m. he will tell of "Death's Mysteries Revealed" and Tuesday evening his topic will be "Eternity's Realities Foretold."

ST. MARY'S EPISCOPAL
There will be an observance of Holy Communion at 8 a.m. Sunday at St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Church School services will follow at 9:45 and the morning worship and sermon will be at 11 a.m. At 6 p.m. the YPF will meet and at 7 the instruction class will be held in the study of the rector, the Rev. William Boyd.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN
The Rev. A. H. Hoyer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, will preach Sunday morning on the subject, "We Honor Our God-Fearing Mothers." At 2 p.m. there will be a voters meeting at the church.

METHODIST
The Rev. Albie H. Carleton, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will tell the morning congregation of "There's No Place Like Home." William B. Hilgers will sing, "The Problem of Change" will be the evening topic.

At the Wesley Memorial Methodist Church Sunday morning, the pastor, the Rev. Marvin Fisher, will speak on "Mother—Man's Greatest Standby." That evening a film dealing with National Family

Week will be shown. FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

There will be two identical services at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. One will be held at 9 a.m. the other at 11. Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, pastor, will speak, at both services, on "The God-Fearing Mother." Elizabeth Cope will sing "The Earth Is the Lord's." "Isaac Grows Up", another in the series of fathers of the Bible will be discussed by Dr. Lloyd at the evening hour.

TEMPLE ISRAEL
Sam Bloom will speak at services this evening at Temple Israel at the Eberley Funeral home Chapel.

BUILDER'S BIBLE CLASS
The non-denominational Builders Bible Class will meet in Carpenter's Hall at 8:30 a.m. Sunday morning. Coffee and doughnuts will be served prior to the lesson.

MOTHER'S Day and Mother's DAY

Our artist is not experimenting with his brush! There is a profound difference between these two days... MOTHER'S Day—with the accent on Mother—is the second Sunday in May, when we honor Motherhood, and express our deep affection for Mother. Mother's DAY—with the accent on Day—is every day of the year. It is Mother's unending labor of love. It is Monday's wash and Tuesday's ironing, the meals to be cooked and the beds to be made, the bruises to be healed and the prayers to be heard. And at the close of her DAY, Mother has prayers of her own—for her little-ones, her husband and herself. God is answering many of those prayers through the Church. With its effective program of religious education and worship the Church can supply the spiritual needs in Mother's DAY... and in your DAY also!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his children and nation. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Now That Water Restrictions Are Here, Let's Make Most Of Them

For months, city officials and others had hoped that spring rains would come and replenish the lake supplies and thus relieve some of the growing pressure on the water supply. This has proven, until now, a vain hope. The inevitable, therefore, has come. Sharp restrictions have been imposed on the use of water.

A major fire. Everything else should fit in to place behind these two. Obviously, sparkling cars do not fit in to the picture if they are washed with water taken from now limited supplies. Even green lawns and pretty shrubs and lovely flowers do not measure up to priority, despite their beauty and their investment. Most homeowners will be able to sustain the basic shrubs through carrying or siphoning of bathwater to them if they show signs of falling badly.

Fair Trade Act, On House Floor, Is Anti-Consumer In Objectives

A straight-out test of congressional sentiment as between seller and buyer is now before the House in the form of so-called "fair trade" bills. As was the case with the original Miller-Tydings Act of 1937, these bills reached the House floor by an unusual legislative maneuver, the nature of which is too long to explain here.

Other than the old law, it would forbid a Texas retailer (Texas has no fair trade law) to advertise a cut price in an Arkansas newspaper (Arkansas does have a fair trade law).

U.N. HELPS THE PEOPLE TO HELP THEMSELVES

IN MANY lands people improve their education and learn more about their fellowmen through the efforts of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (Unesco).

WITH the advent of DDT malaria has ceased to be one of death's special agents, yet the toll is still high. Here, a WHO expert shows Turkish doctors how to analyze the insecticide which they prepare.

EXPERTS of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) show Haitian farmers how to produce fish in their ponds, to increase the food supply of that Caribbean country.

SINCE the partition of Palestine thousands of Arabs have taken refuge in neighboring countries. The U.N. Relief and Works Agency for Palestine tries to provide opportunities for a better future. Here is a group of them working on an UNRWA road building project.

DESPITE THE RAPID advance of technology during the past two or three centuries, much less than half of the world's population are enjoying the material and social benefits created by the application of modern scientific techniques in industry, agriculture, public administration, health and related fields. The rest of the world's inhabitants—more than one and a half billion people—continue to live as they did centuries ago, many of them in need of the bare necessities of life.

Well aware of this situation, the United Nations has launched a program of technical assistance to aid in the economic development of underdeveloped countries. In cooperation with its related agencies U.N. today has aided a total of 70 countries and territories providing them with experts on matters ranging from tax administration to cottage industries, from how to take a census to tapping underground water in the desert. In addition, a total of about 1000 international fellowships and scholarships have been approved in the fields of economic development, public administration and social welfare.

U.N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie has said that, apart from the urgent political questions, there is perhaps no area of the work of the United Nations that should attract more support than its technical assistance program. "The fundamental thesis of this program is to help people to help themselves, by introducing them to skills and organizational techniques necessary for the most effective economic use of their own resources, personnel and traditions." This is the purpose of technical assistance, the job of making scientific knowledge, technological skill and operational "know how" available to countries needing them. This is not by any means all the help that is needed for backward countries to develop their economies, but it is a vital factor, a factor that is needed at all stages of economic development from a survey of the possibilities to the actual building of a power plant.

Through its many organs and specialized agencies, U.N. works in many directions to make the world a better place to live. The illustrations on this page offer only a few examples of what the world organization is doing. The results may well be the beginning of a new memorable phase in the social and economic history of mankind.

SEED from the most commonly grown types of hybrid corn has been supplied to Italy by the United States through the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO). This seed is now being tested in various parts of Italy for adaptability to that country's soil.

THIS LADY and her daughter, members of a Liberian tribe, will have a better life as a result of U.N.-sponsored health programs.

IN GAZA, the U.N. Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees teaches boys to plant tree seedlings in a reforestation program.

DR. HUGH L. KEENLEYSIDE of Canada (at the left), Director-General of the United Nations Technical Assistance Administration, is congratulated by U.N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie, upon his appointment to direct one of the organization's most far-reaching programs. Looking on is Mr. A. David Owen, U.N. Assistant Secretary-General in charge of the Department of Economic Affairs.

PROBLEMS of water supply and flood control have plagued the world since the beginning of time. These Greek villagers have learned how to protect their crops and control their rivers by using idle manpower for community development, another phase of U.N. technical aid program.

IN MANY countries a productive agriculture sometimes spells the difference between life and death. This Indian expert explains to villagers of Bombay how to make the most of their crops and to convert waste land into profitable vegetable gardens. The picture is from a movie produced by U.N.

A COLOMBIAN expert conducts a class in mechanics for farmers who are using agricultural machinery financed by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development. The World Bank is a Specialized Agency affiliated with U.N.

AS A RESULT of the International Bank's Loans to Chile, that country has acquired modern agricultural machinery to increase its food production. The tractor in the picture hauls logs in a sawmill located at Concepcion near the Chilean coast.

NEAR LIEGE, Belgium, stands a brand new power station which will increase the electricity output of both Belgium and Luxembourg. The power plant was partially financed through a loan of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development.

Bulgarian People Know Who Is Boss -- It's Stalin

Editor's Note: In Bulgaria, the Communists are in the saddle as they are in all the satellite countries of Europe, but here, too, the Communist does not know whether to trust Stalin, Moscow can only influence the scores of little lights. Here is the fifth and last of a series of the Bulletin, written by William L. Ryan after scores of interviews in 12 countries.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst
Chervenkov?... Chankov?... Panchevsky?

There's a lot of guessing about who is the real boss of the Communists in Bulgaria. But the Bulgarian people don't guess. They know there is only one boss, and his name is Stalin.

In Bulgaria, most Sovietized of all the captive countries of Europe, the Premier acts like a vest pocket edition of the dictator in Moscow.

But Premier Vuko Chervenkov must be uneasy.

As in other captive countries, there is a struggle going on at the top in Bulgaria. Many European sources express belief that Chervenkov, 50-year-old professional Communist with Moscow training, is simply a figurehead. The power behind the scenes, they say, is Georgi Chankov, a deputy prime minister — and behind him, the Russians.

Chervenkov, rough and tumble Communist veteran of many jails since he joined the party in 1919 as a youngster, is related by marriage to the late Georgi Dimitrov, the old Bolshevik Bulgarian Premier who went to Moscow for a "euro" and never returned.

Today, Dimitrov's followers are dropping by the wayside, one by one. Another show trial may not be far off. Recently there has been a severe purge of Cabinet functionaries and high officials.

Chankov may be behind this or possibly the man behind it all is Peter Panchevsky, Moscow's viceroys who, as defense minister, runs the Bulgarian Army. He is a Soviet general.

All the old intelligentsia of the party is being weeded out. This means the Dimitrov people. They are disappearing in favor of the Soviet fanatics. All the moderates are gone.

While Moscow tightens the screws, the Bulgarian people find themselves worse off every day. Their economy is completely ruled by the Soviet Union.

Farmers' wheat in that agricultural country is seized by the government at low prices. Bread is a government monopoly, retailed at high prices and tremendous profit.

Wherever there is resistance to collective farming, the militia is busy. In some instances the militia surrounds a village, arrests the citizens, loads them into cattle cars and transports them to the provinces for forced labor.

The split between the people and the party widens daily.

Deportations of large numbers of people are reported beginning anew, particularly from areas near the western and southern frontiers. Many non-Communists are being expelled from big cities to make room for industrial workers.

The former peasant Premier of Bulgaria, Georgi M. Dimitrov — no relation to the Communist Dimitrov — predicts that many Communists, fearing the peasants, will "try to adapt themselves to the peasant resistance because of their fears of tomorrow."

Banner Of South On Grave Of Belle Boyd

WISCONSIN DELLS, Wis. (AP) — Belle Boyd, glamorous Confederate spy of the War Between the States whose grave for more than 50 years has received tender care in the heartland of her one-time enemies, rests again today beneath the stars and bars.

On the 107th anniversary of her birth, the banner of the South was placed on her grave by Edward Stuka, Milwaukee, at the behest of Elliott Gray Chapter 177 of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Richmond, Va.

Official ceremonies will be held on the federal Memorial Day when a UDC delegation headed by Mrs. J. W. Phillips of Richmond will lay a wreath on the grave and officiate at formal flag raising ceremonies—the first time the flag of the Confederacy ever was so raised over Wisconsin territory.

Belle died in 1901 while on a lecture appearance here, where three regiments of the famed Iron Brigade were raised. She was given a military funeral by the local GAR post.

Belle was captured by the federals several times, but escaped, and ended up in England where she fled to wed a Union naval officer. Later she returned and traveled about the country giving patriotic lectures.

Her body went unclaimed following her death and the GAR took over care of its resting place. Earlier this year, Stuka called the South's attention to the grave in a letter to Virginia's Gov. John S. Battle, who asked the UDC to take a part in caring for it.

GI Prefers To Die Here, Not In Korea

SEATTLE (AP) — A 21-year-old soldier who said he would "rather die here than in Korea" was prevented from doing so late last night when he was dragged from a precarious 10th-floor perch on the outside of a hotel Olympic fire escape.

The soldier, who identified himself as Pvt. Jack Madsen, 21, of Illinois had stood outside the railing holding by one hand while police detective Don Sprinkle pleaded with him not to let go.

Sprinkle kept talking, edging closer all the while. Madsen flexed his fingers as if he were preparing to let go.

"He was wearing a gold wedding band," Sprinkle said. "I asked him if he was having trouble with his wife."

"Stay away," the soldier said. "I'm going to jump." Sprinkle kept talking—and edging up. Clarence Owens, a bellhop, was closing in from the other side.

"I'd rather die here than in Korea," Sprinkle said Madsen told him nervously.

"Come in and talk it over, Jack," Sprinkle said. "It isn't as bad as that." Then he grabbed the young soldier by his arm. Owen pinioned his shoulders. The soldier broke down in a fit of tears.

Madsen was turned over to military authorities. He was not registered at the hotel.
