Some 1,600 prisoners who were moved to Koje following the May 20 riot in a hospital camp at Pusan were removed from compound 91 and distributed among other enclosures. An official said the prisoners were separated into groups of Chinese, North Koreans, officers, enlisted men and civilians. The transfer was completed without incident.

GOP Confused On Precinct Meetings

By MARTHA COLE
Associated Press Staff-Writer

Texas Republicans have put their lawyers to work on a mighty important question—when can they hold their July precinct conventions?

Some say July 19—that's a week before the July 26 Democratic primary. Some say they must be July 26, same day as the primary. It's a problem of interpreting Texas' new election laws.

They're the ones Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls, state GOP executive chairman, says "only God in his infinite wisdom can understand."

If the Republican precinct meetings are held on July 26, the day of the Democratic primary, that means that a poll tax holder can't vote in the primary and then go to a Republican precinct convention on the same day. For the law says flatly here that that's illegal.

The Republican precinct conventions in July serve the same purpose as the Democratic primary—they both lead to nomination of the party candidates for elective offices in Texas.

But the national picture is mixed up in them this year.

Supporters of Sen. Robert Taft for President figure that Republican precinct conventions and the Democratic primary on the same day will see many of what they call the overnight Republicans fall by the wayside.

They have charged that the supporters of Gen. Eisenhower are really Democrats and figure that they'll choose a Democratic primary over a Republican party precinct meeting.

The Eisenhower people retort that they're just as good Republicans as anybody else. And their leaders are drumming up business to get the people out to precinct meetings to prove it.

If the GOP precinct conventions are held a week before the Democratic primary, there's nothing in the state law to prevent a voter from participating in both. The law merely says it's illegal to do both on the same day. But, there's the matter of party loyalty and party pledge that would keep a voter from doing it.

The Taft supporters generally have aligned themselves with Henry Zweifel of Fort Worth, national GOP committeeman from Texas.

The Eisenhower backers generally have aligned themselves with Jack Porter of Houston, a candidate for Zweifel's post. They charge that Zweifel and his followers are the old guard Republicans in Texas and strive to keep the party small in order to hoard patronage. They figure that the only way to oust Zweifel is to get control of the state party machinery.

Some of the Dallas County Eisenhower fans still ringing telephones on a hot July day will admit anonymously that it's only to "get Zweifel."

Arrest Two Men In Surplus Rope Deals

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—The FBI today arrested two men—one a federal official—and charged them with diversion of surplus government rope.

The two men were named as: Capt. Manuel Gonzales, 42, assistant chief of the division of ship repair and maintenance for the U. S. Maritime Administration, arrested in the Commerce Department Building in Washington.

Emile Schmidt, 65, used rope buyer, was taken into custody by FBI agents in New Orleans.

FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover said Gonzales was charged with embezzling and selling without authority some 170,000 pounds of rope valued at about $8,500.

Schmidt, he said, was charged with receiving a portion of the goods, which had been in storage aboard the reserve fleet of the Maritime Administration at Beaumont, Tex.

mont's Neches River Basin.

Hoover said Schmidt previously arranged for what he called the legitimate purchase of more than one million pounds of used rope stored aboard fleet vessels in Beaumont.

An FBI spokesman said the four-stripe rank of captain—equivalent to colonel in the Army—goes with the job of assistant chief of ship repair.

AWAIT OFFICIAL COUNT

Taft Clings To 511 Vote Lead In S. D.

By HAROLD S. MILNER
SIOUX FALLS, S.D. (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio today held D. Eisenhower in South Dakota's bitterly contested Republican primary, with only 16 precincts missing.

Although Taft supporters claimed victory, former Governor George T. Mickelson, who headed the Eisenhower slate of delegates, refused to concede pending the official count of ballots Saturday by the county canvassing boards.

Fourteen delegates are at stake. The returns with only 16 precincts missing gave:

Taft 64,700.

Eisenhower 64,109.

Results in at least five of the missing precincts will not be known until the official county canvass Saturday. The election judges sealed the duplicate polling books of four precincts in Perkins County. There the two candidates were running neck-and-neck. Another poll book was sealed with the ballots in a Brookings County precinct—a county which registered heavily for Taft.

Taft supporters early Wednesday claimed a victory after their candidate had doggedly maintained a shake lead since 10:45 p.m. Tuesday night.

Mickelson contended the narrow

Taft margin still left the Taft win in doubt, and because of the closeness of the race that it was an Eisenhower victory in a Taft stronghold, even if the Ohian did poll four to five hundred more votes.

Mickelson refused to say whether he would ask for a recount or contest the bitterly fought primary. He has 10 days in which to demand a recount by petitioning the secretary of state.

The race was the tightest in South Dakota since 1936 when former Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas won the presidential primary over Sen. William E. Borah of Idaho by 257 votes.

Taft supporters said the showing Taft made proved his strength among farmers. His best showing was made in farm districts where there were no large cities or towns. He spent five days campaigning in the state. In his talks he plunked for parity for farm products and favored farm price supports.

Eisenhower's vote getting power in the sparsely settled ranch areas in the "short-grass" country west of the Missouri River surprised those predicting the election returns. He also made big gains in the cities, especially in Aberdeen and Sioux Falls, where he had daily newspaper endorsement.

Korean War Action Light Along Front

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Allied and Communist patrols skirmished Wednesday through one of the highest action days of the stalemate, 23-month-old Korean War.

The biggest Communist units met by United Nations patrols, on the Central Front, numbered about 30 or 40 men. The infantrymen traded brief volleys.

Allied divisions on the Western Front, usually the most active, reported no significant contact.

Artillery inflicted about 58 casualties on about 155 Reds located in the Mundang and Satae valleys and near the Punchbowl on the Eastern Front.

An Eighth Army staff officer said the Reds fired their lowest number of artillery shells in nearly a month, fewer than 2,000.

An air strike northeast of the Panmunjom truce talk site killed an estimated eight Chinese. Artillery also fired on Red vehicles in the same Western Front area early Thursday.

Fighter-bomber and Sabre jet pilots flew north today on their usual rail cutting and bombing runs. During the night, B-26 attack bombers destroyed 68 vehicles carrying supplies to the front. Wednesday's rail cuts totaled 100.

Jack Smith Named To District 2-T-2 Lions Club Post

Jack Y. Smith, long time member of the Big Spring Lions Club and active in district 2-T-2 affairs, has been named a district deputy governor.

George Spence, Ysleta, governor elect, announced the appointment and Smith's acceptance at the club meeting here Wednesday. Among the clubs with which Smith will work directly in region No. 3 (which includes zones No. 5 and No. 6) are Odessa, Midland, Terminal, Seminole, Andrews, Sea-graves, Stanton, Big Spring, Colorado City, Lorraine and Snyder.

Smith's official connection with the district dates back to the tenure of Schley Riley, Big Spring, as district governor. He was secretary in Riley's cabinet. Spence said that his cabinet would hold the first of four meetings slated for the year early in July. He said he was impressed by Smith when he changed the Ysleta club slogan "Let George Do It" to "Let's Help George Do It."

Les Kornfeld accepted appointment as the Lions Club representative on the U.S.O. council.

Lloyd Wooten, assistant manager of the Chamber of Commerce, appealed to Lions to assist in the placing of tickets for Big Spring's party for servicemen and their families on June 20.

39 Local Postal Employees Facing Money-Less Pay Day

Thirty-nine employees of the Big Spring post office are concerned to the tune of $7,000 by the "stop the pay" order that was received last Saturday, according to Assistant Postmaster Elmer C. Boaler. They are a part of the 400,000 postal workers throughout the United States who faced a money-less pay day when the Department discovered it had run out of money and ordered checks held up for all work done after May 15. The difficulty stems from the fact that Congress not so long ago gave postal workers a cost-of-living wage increase, but didn't appropriate any money to pay it. This increase has been paid, however, from funds budgeted for the regular payroll, which would otherwise have been sufficient to cover salaries through June 30. The House has tried emergency legislation to provide sufficient funds from one angle, and the Senate has tried from another angle.

Gen. Grow Due To Be Tried By Court Martial

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Maj. Gen. Robert W. Grow, whose diary was stolen by Russian agents while he was visiting in Germany, will be tried by court martial, the Army announced today. Grow was a military attaché at the American embassy in Moscow. The announcement said that the Army had completed the investigation of the charges preferred against Grow and that trial by court martial is warranted. The Russians made propaganda use of the diary, publishing excerpts in which Grow was depicted as advocating war now against Russia. The trial will be held at Fort Meade, Md., with the sessions closed to the public. The date for the trial was not announced. On April 28 the Army announced that it was investigating charges against Grow which included: 1. Improperly reporting classified military information in private records. 2. Failing properly to safeguard classified military information. In March of 1951 Grow was in Frankfurt, Germany, for a medical checkup. The Army has said that someone slipped into his room there and photographed portions of the diary. The published excerpts attributed such quotations to Grow as: "War! As soon as possible now!" "Our attack should be directed at enemy weakness. Although the military services are primarily concerned with military weapons and methods, we must understand that this war is total war and is fought with all weapons." "We must learn that in this war it is fair to hit below the belt." Since the Grow incident, the Army has forbidden all of its personnel overseas to keep diaries or personal records involving military matters.

RHEE TELLS TRUMAN Korean Politics Is Exaggerated

By STAN CARTER
PUSAN, Korea (AP)—President Syngman Rhee today told President Truman the South Korean political situation had been exaggerated and that he would dissolve the National Assembly only as a last resort, a reliable source said. Mr. Rhee had written Rhee that he was "shocked" at the turn of political events in this provisional South Korean capital. He cautioned Rhee not to take any "irrevocable steps," such as dissolving the Assembly. Britain and Australia also sent similar messages to the aging Korean political leader. The source said Rhee told Truman the situation here was not as serious as the U.S. Chief Executive thought. Truman gets his reports from the State Department, which gets them from the U.S. Embassy in Pusan. The head of the Embassy, U.S. Ambassador John J. Muccio, reached Tokyo today enroute back to Pusan from a shortened vacation in the U.S. He told newsmen he believed opposing factions in the South Korean government "will get together and straighten this thing out." These recent developments, in a flareup of the long feud involving Rhee and his supporters on one hand and a majority of Assembly members on the other, have aroused the concern of South Korea's Allies: 1. Rhee's declaration of martial law in three southern provinces, including Pusan. 2. His refusal to lift army rule even though requested by United Nations representatives in Korea and the Assembly. 3. Arrest of 12 Assemblymen.

Five Still At Large After Escapes From State Boys School

GATESVILLE, June 5 (AP)—Officials at the State School for Boys kept a sharp lookout today and hoped a seige of escapes from the school was at an end. Within the past week there have been a total of 17 runaways from the school. Late last night five of the youths were still at large. Four school vehicles have been stolen in recent escape attempts. In the latest escape two boys—Prentice Benton, 17, Dallas, and Willie Upshaw, 16, Houston Negro—got away yesterday in a school pickup truck.

Ike Too Busy Shaking Hands To Take Drink

By LARRY HALL
ABILENE, Kan. (AP)—A retired general, transformed into a candidate for presidential nomination, turned on his charm at a typical Midwestern social affair last night—a crowded cocktail party. The only strange thing about it was that Dwight D. Eisenhower, greeting old and new friends, neglected to have a cocktail. He got busy shaking hands and talking and even forgot to finish his cup of coffee. He was the number one attraction at an informal party given at the home of Otis B. Landes, Abilene farm implement man, and Diane Hansen, Logan, Kan., contractor. Hansen said everyone who liked Ike was welcome. He couldn't estimate the crowd. It must have been in the neighborhood of 300 or 400. Eisenhower, relaxed and smiling in a seersucker suit, met them all in a reception line where he was introduced by Sen. Frank Carlson (R-Kan.), one of the general's chief backers for the Republican Presidential nomination. A little girl came along the line. "Hi," she said bashfully as she asked for an autograph. She got the autograph and a big grin, too. Political complications popped up. Along came Harry Craig, introduced as the Arkansas national convention delegate who has been chosen for a place on the important credentials committee. "A V.I.P." (very important person) someone suggested. "Not only that, he's a V.I.P.I." (very important person indeed)." Eisenhower quipped. "Very important person indeed." And so it went. Eisenhower had something special to say to almost all of the visitors. They loved it. He was there for a busy, smiling hour. He was home attending a neighborhood party.

Mamie Stays Close, But Ike Spotlited

By ED L. CAMPBELL
ABILENE, Kan. (AP)—Mamie watched her Ike come home and got a wonderful kick out of it—in a quiet sort of way. Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, wife of the man a lot of Republicans want to make their party's candidate for President against the Democrats next fall, kept close to her famous husband every step of the way. From the time he arrived in this rain-drenched Central Kansas town yesterday until they retired last night to their hotel suite she was with him. If she had a single word to say, no one heard it except the person to whom it was addressed. Mamie, with her cute inward curled bangs, stayed just a half-space or more behind Gen. Eisenhower all the way. After all, it isn't her hometown. Like only an understanding wife would, she let the spotlight bear down on husband Ike. The big homecoming schedule took no account of women's needs. It was strict, a man-made thing and Mamie hardly had time to powder her nose between public appearances. Because of that, she wore the same costume all the way: a steel blue grey silk shantung dress, semi-full skirted, with a wide-softly draped collar. Atop those world-famous bangs perched a chic white pillbox straw with a soft veil. She stepped gracefully over the mud puddles in a pair of white linen shoes. Her only adornments were pearl drop earrings and a corsage of two white orchids. During Ike's appearance at Eisenhower Park where he delivered the speech that launched him full tilt into the political war, Mamie wore a red gabardine rain-resistant top coat.

Congress Finds Itself On Hook In The Place Of Harry S. Truman

The Supreme Court decision took Harry Truman off the hook and firmly implanted in his place the Congress of the United States. Some congressmen, with a re-election campaign on their hands, woke up to that fact as soon as the decision was announced. They had been denouncing the steel plant seizure as illegal and dictatorial, and they should be happy that the Supreme Court has upheld their views; but their happiness is now dampened by the thought that the monkey is squarely on Congress' back.

There are some public functions that no government can permit to shut down for a long period of time. One of them is steel production. A stoppage of steel production for longer than ten or twenty days would set up a partial or complete paralysis in many other lines—auto production, public construction, oil search and development, warplant operations. Millions of people would be thrown out of employment, and our defense projects thrown into reverse. We would even have difficulty keeping the men in Korea supplied with the things they need for holding off the Communists.

Some help, principally financial, is still needed to round out the party preparation. Truman And Governor Dever Map Plans For Demo Keynote Speech

WASHINGTON.—The extent to which President Truman is directing back-stage operations for the Democratic National Convention can be gathered from a recent Sunday-morning conference with Gov. Paul Dever of Massachusetts and Frank McKinney, chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

The Democrats because he's been too close to them. On the other hand, many GOP leaders forget that the Democratic party has the predominant registration in the nation today, and in order to win, the Republicans must woo large blocs of Democratic voters.

There was agreement that the speech must include a strong position on civil rights, and should review Democratic achievements during the last 20 years with a warm tribute to the Truman-Acheson foreign policy.

After the elder Taft refused to seat Teddy Roosevelt's delegates at the 1912 convention, Roosevelt bolted, formed the Bull Moose party. Today the same fight over Texas, Louisiana and South Carolina delegates is certain to take place in Chicago, with President Taft's son and Eisenhower lined up in bitterly opposing camps.

His political enemies will probably make something of the fact that the first political speech Dwight Eisenhower ever made in his life was at Abilene, Kans., in 1909 as a Democrat, and the second political speech of his life was also at Abilene in 1952 as a Republican.

As shown by the following remarks young politician Eisenhower was trying to win the progressive wing of the Republican party over to the Democrats, just as Eisenhower the candidate will now have to win Democrats over to the Republican party.

No. 1—Young Ike made this profound observation at the age of 19: "As the twig is inclined so the tree is bent." A man after voting the straight ticket for several elections suddenly changes from one side to the other."

"There is an inborn desire in all normal and healthy boys to help the smaller contestants in an even fight," Eisenhower continued. "A young man, in speaking of the political situation the other day, said: 'My father is a Republican and so was his father, but I am going to vote for the Democrats at the next election because I think they need me and the Republicans do not.'"

Ike Was Kind Of Mild In His Cracks About The Long Years Of Dem Rule

WASHINGTON.—Gen. Eisenhower in his first political speech did exactly what a Republican candidate for President could be expected to do: he took some cracks at the Democrats.

But what he said at Abilene, Kan., last night was milder and much more general than Sen. Taft might have said on the subject of Democrats. Taft, of course, has had a lot more practice.

In the only other speech he has scheduled—June 14 at Detroit—before the Republican convention in Chicago in July, Eisenhower may get tougher and more specific than he was last night.

Bartender Doesn't Want Dog To Be A Child Star

NEW YORK, June 5.—How much real democracy is there among dog lovers? Quite a bit, according to bartender Bill O'Brien, who forked over $50 to a customer for a puppy that looked like a four-legged gray mop and has turned out to be a blue ribbon show dog.

I have written about Bill before. He's a big ex-Army sergeant who blew the alarm bugle at Pearl Harbor. O'Brien is night maestro at Moriarty's Midtown Bar and Grill, an establishment two doors from Toot Shor's that has become a rendezvous for newspapermen, dancers, singers, actors, and musicians.

Overwhelmed by this victory, Bill entered Mike soon after in another top-flight metropolitan canine show. "But Mike, still growing fast, had become underweight for his size. He placed fourth."

This Day In Texas

By CURTIS BISHOP

Hundreds of Texans and out-of-staters gathered at Galveston on this day in 1948 to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad.

At a banquet marking the occasion Dr. Chauncey Leake, dean of the University of Texas Medical Branch, made the statement that the railroad was born "with Galveston as the mother and yellow fever as the father."

The accident occurred off the Dutch naval base of Den Helder, between the mainland and the West Frisian island of Texel.

U. S. Losses Lower In Farm Support

WASHINGTON.—Government losses from farm price support operations are running only about a fifth of what they were a year ago, the Agriculture Department reported today.

Losses for the first ten months of the current fiscal year, which ends June 30, were $54,075,000. This compared with 276 million dollars for the corresponding period last year.

Vice-Presidency Is Vital Post; We Ought To Pick Him With Care

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald—Editor's Note.

If it hadn't been for the somewhat jolly and often playboy-like antics of Vice President Alben Barkley, I doubt very much whether many Americans would know the name of their second in command in the nation's executive hierarchy.

Therefore, the only alternative we have is to be doubly certain we select our vice-presidential candidate with care. In these times, when Presidents are overworked, chances are greater that he might not be around at the finish of his term and, since the "Veep" must then take over, we ought to have a good man as our next President by inheritance.

In other words, we should now pay some attention to assure that when we do elect our President, his partner on the party ticket is just as good as the President. Primarily, the "Veep's" job is presiding officer of the U.S. Senate. This is a post that requires little strain and because it restricts the Veep's activities in debate and voting, it tends to push the vice president into the role of a non-descript.

It is a shame, you know, that Presidential candidates, and vice-presidential candidates as well, are selected largely on a geographical basis—from states where vital electoral votes are needed.

Brookings Secret Out Soon—How Many U. S. Share Owners

Lewis H. Kimmel, research economist at Brookings Institution, has a secret. He has just completed a study of stockholders—how many people have a direct investment stake in American business. It's to be released in a book toward the end of the month.

Not only are the National City statistics misleading, but the implications of the statistics are unrealistic. A man who works for U.S. Steel depends for his livelihood on his pay. But a man who owns stock in U.S. Steel may not depend on his dividends for his livelihood at all.

There's no water shortage at Clark Motor Company, corner of Third and Johnson Streets. Ray Clark, owner, pointed out that the company had its own water well. Toby's Service Is Tops During Summer Time

You can't beat the unique service offered by Toby's Fast Chick for a real summer vacation from the drudgery of preparing meals during hot weather.

And you can't find a better service for picnics, which are due to gain popularity steadily in the coming weeks.

Toby's, which is located at 1801 Gregg Street, specializes in complete chicken dinners which can be carried to the home or to the picnic site without a trace of either or confusion.

Simply stop by Toby's, place your order, and the complete meal, packed neatly in a box for carrying, will be in your hands promptly.

The feature of the meal, of course, is fried chicken, which is prepared expertly in the best Southern tradition. Along with the main dish, Toby's furnishes such items as hot rolls, gravy, French fries, etc., to make a complete meal.

A delivery service is available for those who wish to place their orders by telephone. The telephone number at Toby's is 9673.

Service Is Grady Harland's Business

The automobile dealer, garage attendant and filling station operator are important men in the lives of all motorists.

The dealer, of course, delivers the car to him. The mechanic sees that it is kept in proper working order and the filling station operator is commissioned to see that the vehicle is given the proper fuels to keep it running.

A favorite station for local motorists is the Harland Magnolia Service Station at 1000 Lamesa Highway, owned and operated by Grady Harland, long-time Big Spring resident.

Harland's concern stocks the finest Magnolia products, including gasoline and motor oils, tires and tubes.

At any time, the station attendant is the one to see about the proper grade and weight of oil to use in a vehicle. In the winter time, he is consulted about the anti-freeze for the family vehicle. And he is always the one on which the motorist calls when there is a flat tire to repair or the gasoline tank to refill.

Harland's station also stocks a fairly complete line of automobile accessories, including batteries.

If your car needs polishing or an oil change, the place to go is the Harland Magnolia Service Station at 1000 Lamesa Highway.

J. H. McKinley Operates Grain Company Under His Own Name

J. H. McKinley has acquired the interest of E. T. Tucker in the city's leading grain and feed concern, and henceforth it will be known as the McKinley Grain Company.

The same complete line of services and quality of products will be maintained under the new ownership, McKinley pointed out. Certainly he is familiar with it, for he has been a partner in the business for the past four years. Tucker disposed of his interest to set up a trucking business.

McKinley Grain Company, which boasts a big storage capacity in its all steel elevators on the T&P track just west of the Gregg Street overpass, has been the major purchaser of grains in this area for many years. Many observers give it credit for stabilizing the grain market here. The elevators are of most modern design which permit overhead feed and bottom withdrawal mechanically. Grain can be switched from one column to another or withdrawn from storage or loaded on cars, whatever is desired. Unloading facilities permit almost instant dumping of grain trucks.

The company provides one of the most complete feed services in Central-West Texas. In addition to the Paymaster line of prepared feeds, McKinley also compounds top quality feeds under the concern's own rigid formula. Besides this, it has mill facilities for doing custom crushing or grinding and either dry or sweet mixing of feeds for any of its patrons.

During the past winter, the company has gone far and wide to maintain an adequate supply of cottonseed meal, cake and pellets as well as hay and cottonseed hulls. Always, customers have been able to get these items although in short supply elsewhere.

Truckers in this area also make extensive use of the public scales at McKinley Grain Company. These scales were designed to handle the massive, modern rigs automatically.

McKinley Grain Company is located conveniently at the north end of S. Lancaster Street.

House Postpones Vote On GI Bill

WASHINGTON — The House has put off until Thursday a vote on a GI bill of rights for those in military service since the start of the Korean War.

Rep. Springer (R-III) objected to consideration of the measure yesterday under a rule which limited debate to 40 minutes and required the bill be accepted or rejected as presented.

He said he wanted to propose knocking out a provision that the government pay directly to veterans lump sums covering all tuition fees, books and other education expenses in addition to subsistence allowances. This is the major difference from the World War II GI bill, under which all payments except those for subsistence are made to the schools attended by the veterans.

Factory Here Makes Paint Especially For This Area

A Big Spring industry with a product prepared exclusively and especially for the Southwest is the Cactus Paint Manufacturing Company with offices and factory on west Highway 80, just west of the old airport terminal building.

The firm produces and distributes both industrial and architectural paints. Both products are compounded for use in the West Texas-East New Mexico area where climatic and atmospheric conditions are particularly hard on painted surfaces.

Cactus house paints dry dust free in two hours with a hard non-chalky finish to resist the erosive effect of blowing sand. Industrial paints possess the same qualities and both products are fume and gas proof, an important factor in any oil and gas producing and refining area where sulfurous gases permeate the atmosphere, attacking and dulling paints which contain lead.

Cactus paints consequently have two advantages over products produced in other areas where chalky pigments are desirable and lead is incorporated because of its low cost as a paint body and drying element. Cactus Paint Manufacturing Company spend three times as much for the dryer in its paints in order to avoid use of the lead product.

As a result, Cactus paints stay brighter and last longer in West Texas than the chalky, lead-bearing pigments.

The Big Spring firm offers a special delivery service to customers within 300 miles of the factory. Any order of 50 gallons or more will be freshly mixed and delivered within 24 hours.

A two-fold advantage is afforded industrial users among them the El Paso Natural Gas Company, through the delivery service.

In the first place, the fast delivery enables customers to reduce their paint inventories. Delivered as needed, Cactus paints provide users with an always-fresh supply that hasn't dulled or thickened through months or years of storage on shelves or in warehouses.

Sales manager for Cactus Paint Manufacturing Company is Don Campbell. Manager of the plant, which employs four skilled workmen, is Gene Campbell.

No Prime Aluminum Paint New Product

A new product of Cactus Paint Manufacturing Company, a Big Spring firm, is its No-Prime Aluminum paint.

The compound has both primer and aluminum in one paint and may be applied to metal surfaces without a preliminary priming coat. It is especially good for painting storage tanks and other equipment. Gene Campbell, Cactus plant manager, says: Use of the product also affords a saving in labor since only one coat is required.
