"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

Volume 111 Number 16

Thursday, April 18, 1996

Kendall Craig has been busy the past few days constructing a jail in which to house "Funtier criminals" who will be put on display during the Funtier Day parade.

Jail Under Construction Here

A local jail is under construction here in Santa Anna after a longtime absence of such a facility here. Actually, the jail is being constructed to house Santa Anna's "Most Wanted" on Funtier Day.

FUN, FUN, FUN for everyone is on tap during Funtier Days in Santa Anna, Saturday and Sunday, April 4-5. And part of the fun slated is a jail in which local "celebrity criminals" will be incarcerated during the parade after being "arrested" by a posse shortly before the 10:00 a.m. parade starting time. The filled jail will sit on a trailer, which will be pulled in the parade so everyone can see the "criminals" on display.

The jail will end up at Funtier Square where it is hoped the good citizenry of Santa Anna will chip in and go the bail for these characters. (with all proceeds going to the Chamber of Commerce). It is expected that sometime this next week wanted posters for the "criminals", complete with pictures and a statement of their respective crimes, will begin appearing in store windows around town so you will be able to know what crime these fugitives are charged with and maybe can help spot them come arrest time on Funtier morning.

Other Funtier activities will include a carnival sure to please all ages which will set up on that

Thursday at Funtier Square; a train for the youngsters which will run through the square that Saturday and Sunday; and lots of foods of all kinds, crafts and other specialty vendor booths.

A community worship service to be held at the armory on Funtier Sunday morning will include lots of gospel singing. The Ministerial Alliance is in charge of arrangements for the service.

Meanwhile there is still booth space available and local people are encouraged to get into the spirit of Funtier and plan special activities, games, etc. Everyone is welcome!

Businesses, groups and individuals are urged to have parade entries. There are categories for floats, bicycles, cars, horses, wagons, "you name it", you will be welcome.

Contact Tex Wright at the Chamber of Commerce for more information, 348-3535.

Funtier Day Parade Entries Are Being Sought

The Santa Anna Chamber of Commerce is in the process finalizing plans for the Funtier Days parade to be held on Saturday, May 4.

Categories include Floats (Funtier Days oriented); Business (vehicles or whatever as long as it promotes the business); Roller Blades (best decorated); Old or New Cars (best decorated); Area Promotion (float telling about area events); and Early Day Transportation (buggies, wagons, surries, drays, etc).

Entries must be received in the Chamber office by April 19.

For more information call the Chamber at 915-348-3535.

City Saves Money By Cancelling Election

The Santa Anna City Council met for their regular meeting on Tuesday, April 9 the May 4 election was canceled.

A motion was approved to pass an ordinance that the May City Council election be cancelled since there is no contested race.

Incumbents Robert Noriega, Karen Morris and Bobby Morgan were declared winners of their uncontested races during the meeting.

The council was told informed that there were no challengers against any of the candidates.

With the upcoming election being uncontested, the City of Santa Anna will be among the first to take advantage of a recent revision of the state's election law and cancel the election.

The change allows unopposed candidates in school board, city council and water district elections to be declared elected without going through the balloting process.

According to City Secretary Alys Pelton this will save the City between $750.00 and $1,000.00 in election costs.

Present were Mayor Danny Kellar and councilpersons Jim Spillman, Robert Noriega, Bobby Morgan, Karen Morris and Mike Pritchard. Other present were City Attorney Sam Allen, Matt Davis, Interim Superintendent of Operations Rusty Wells and City Secretary Alys Pelton.

Following the approval of the March 12 meeting minutes, the monthly police report was reviewed.

Matt Davis, Lone Star Gas company representative, spoke regarding an intent to modify the cost of service adjustment and mainline extension rate and to propose a weather normalization adjustment for Lone Star Gas customers in the City of Santa Anna. This would include a $0.42 decrease on the cost of service adjustment beginning in May. The weather normalization would be effective for months October through May. Spillman made the motion to approve the ordinance on first reading with Morgan seconding the motion to pass.

Following executive session with the city attorney, the council tabled any action on water rates outside the city limits.

Also no action was taken on the complaint against the Chief of Police Carlos Torres since both parties have been heard from.

The council also agreed to table discussion on the employee policy handbook.

Accounts payable were reviewed and approved for payment.

An emergency addition to the agenda was the approval of the resolution renewing the note with the Santa Anna National Bank.

Pie Contest, Ice Cream Freeze-off Slated Funtier Day

A tasty feature of the annual Funtier Day activities is the pie baking contest slated for Saturday, May 4. Last year's event drew about 20 entries and provided delicious desserts after the cash awards and ribbons were presented.

The contest is open to everyone in the community, with all entries to be on hand at the Civic Center building (Armory) at 10 a.m. Judging will begin at 10:30 a.m.

Categories include cream, fruit and pecan, and others. Winner of the overall championship last year was Faye Wise of Rockwood.

Those who have entries not only make the event more interesting, but the sale of the pies benefits the Funtier Days fund of the Chamber of Commerce.

It will be helpful for those planning to enter the contest to contact the committee chairman, Barbara Kingsbery, prior to the Saturday, May 4 date.

Entries are also being accepted for the Funtier Day Ice Cream Freeze-off to be held in the Armory on Funtier Saturday.

Mary Ann Hartman is chairman of the event for which there will be three prizes: $50; $25 and $10.

The ice cream must be made on site "from scratch". Electricity and tables will be furnished.

Time of judging will be announced later.

FFA Banquet Tonight

The Santa Anna FFA Chapter will be holding their annual banquet on Thursday, April 18 at 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

The community news is a little different this week as most everyone knows the annual picnic to be the first Saturday in April was rained out. No one complained due to the nice rain that came our way. A blessing to everyone. The past Saturday the Whon Picnic was attended by a nice crowd who seemed to be enjoyed by all who attended. We were very thankful for the attendance and a big special thanks from everyone to the men who took care of making our picnic our success. We had a nice large crowd and the men who prepared the barbecue did a wonderful job and seemingly all enjoyed a nice few hours to gather and a beautiful day. Seemingly no one was annoyed by the nice rain we received on the Saturday before. We are still giving thanks for the good rain and also for the nice picnic attendance. We tried to register the attendance this time. Place where people live who were with us are Abilene, Bangs, Beaumont, Brownwood, Coleman, Denton, Grand Prairie, Killeen, Lohn, Lubbock, May, Nederland, Rising Star, Rockwood, Round Rock, San Angelo, Santa Anna, Silsbee, Snyder, Stephenville, Temple, Trickham and Whon.

We also had two exchange students, one from Sweden and one from England. Kate White, of England, is living with John and Peggy Hensley. Johanna Swensson, of Sweden, is living with Mr. and Mrs. Gary Absher. Both students are with families in Santa Anna or the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Lovelady and family of Brownwood visited following the picnic Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Don and Julie Fitzpatrick and family.

My daughter Mr. and Mrs. Bob and Patsy Smith of Abilene were with me Friday night. Her husband returned home Saturday afternoon. She will go home Sunday.

Thanks to Mr. Joe Grant of Coleman for the donation to the Whon Cemetery Fund.

Thanks to the Mrs. Maurine Davidson of Talpa for calling me Sunday afternoon. Was so nice talking with her. She has recently moved to Talpa from Rochester, New Hampshire. She also talked with my daughter-in-law Trudi Rutherford, who is also from that part of the world. I hope to get acquainted with her personally before too long. She seemed to like the part of the world where she was living but also thankful to be back at Talpa. Thanks so much for your telephone call.

Myself and my daughter Patsy visited briefly Sunday afternoon late with Mr. and Mrs. Loyd and Linda Rutherford.

I am deeply saddened to report memorial services will be conducted this Monday, the 15th, at 2 p.m. in Sheffield Funeral Home in Temple for my sister-in-law Mrs. Alpha (Jack) Haney. Burial will be in Temple Cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Trudi Rutherford, Mrs. Patsy Smith, Loyd Rutherford, Hilary Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. Rick and Lynda Wheeler of La Grange are those from my family who will attend the memorial.

Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, the U. S. Military Academy at West Post, the Naval Academy at Annapolis, or the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point.
