H. M. Smith Jr. Buried Here Sunday

H. M. Smith, Jr., only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Smith living on their farm east of town, died in the Providence Sanitarium at Waco early last Saturday morning, following an operation Monday night for gangrene appendix and general peritonitis.

His condition was doubtful from the time the operation was performed, notwithstanding at times his chances were hopeful.

His parents and other members of the family left here Friday night, and arrived at the sanitarium just before he died, but too late to be sure of recognition.

The remains were brought here for burial Sunday. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. J. R. McCorkle of Coleman. Rev. E. C. McHurin led the prayer, and Pastor Wingo made a short talk. Several nice class songs were sung, and his cousin, J. D. Center, Jr., sang "Death Is Only A Dream."

The following data was read at the funeral:

H. M. Smith Jr. was born January 3, 1909. He was converted and joined the Primitive Baptist church at the age of eleven years. He was a graduate of the Santa Anna High School with the class of 1926. He attended the Sam Houston State Teachers College at Huntsville, during the term of 1926-27. H. M. starred several times in football during the year he was in college. He was married April 3, 1929 to Miss Oleta Penny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Penny. H. M. rededicated his life to Christ and united with the Missionary Baptist church at Liberty during the summer of 1929, and lived an upright Christian life the remainder of his time.

H. M. and his young wife moved to Malone, in Hill county in May, 1931, where he took charge of a service station, which place he served until he died. He is survived by his companion, his parents and five sisters and many other relatives and good friends.

A large crowd attended the funeral and the floral offerings were immense. Several out of town relatives and friends attended the funeral.

ROCKWOOD CARRIER LOSES CAR

A Ford Coupe owned by Jack Bostick, Carrier on Rockwood route one, was stolen from the Ryan garage in Rockwood last Thursday night. The car was insured, and Mr. Bostick soon had the sheriff on the trail, but up to this time, if the car has been recovered we have not been advised of the fact.

Mr. Bostick was fortunate to have another car in which he could carry the mail without interruption.

Baptist Church

We had a good day in all departments of the church last Sunday. The pastor was able to preach at both hours. Two additions at night.

Our B. T. S. is doing splendidly, with renewed interest in each union. We will reorganize the adult union Sunday night, and we urge all adults interested in self-betterment religiously to come and be with us.

The pastor will preach at both hours Sunday. Night service begins at 7:45, with baptizing at close of the service.

BE WARY OF RATTLESNAKES EVEN WHEN FANGS REMOVED, ADVISE DR. SNYDER; EXPLAINS INTERESTING SNAKE FACTS

A story in the Bulletin recently telling about some rattlesnakes which had been captured and were being exhibited in Brownwood in which it was said the fangs of the snakes had been removed and the snakes were said to be harmless as far as biting was concerned, has caused some discussion among several people who have studied snakes.

Dr. Ned Snyder when asked about the removal of snakes' fangs making them non-poisonous, emphatically said this was not true and that a poisonous snake is poisonous always. When one set of fangs is removed the snake already has another set or will quickly grow other fangs, the doctor stated.

Going into the discussion, Dr. Snyder said further in part:

"Poisonous snakes are divided into two groups, elaphine and viperidae. The coral snake is the only one of the elaphine group in America, but in the old world the cobra and asp are of this group. The fangs of this group are rigid in the upper jaw and do not fold back like the fangs of the viperine snakes while the fangs are small compared to the viperine group.

"Fangs of the king cobra, most deadly of snakes, are not more than 5-16 inch long, while the fangs of a seven-foot rattlesnake may be an inch in length. Poison of the elaphine group attacks the nerves and does not have to be injected any depth before beginning its fatal work, while the viperine poison is injected deeply into the tissue.

The division of viperine snakes known as pit vipers are found in this country. Snakes of this group have flat, triangular heads and include the rattlesnake, copperhead, moccasin and fir-de-lance. The fangs are two long hollow teeth like hyperdermic needles fastened to the bone of the upper jaw and connected with a gland behind the eyes and involving a good part of the head, it being impossible to remove the gland without killing the snake. When the snake's jaws are closed the fangs fold back against the roof of its mouth and as the jaws are opened, the fangs spring forward ready for action. These fangs are shed at intervals of about three months and by a neat provision of nature, the new fangs grow into place beside the ones about to be shed and are always connected with the poison gland before the old ones shed. Usually, if the snake is examined closely two perfectly developed sets of fangs are found, one set folded up in the tissue. This constant renewing of fangs explains the common supposition that a poisonous snake may be rendered harmless by removing its fangs. Though the main fangs may be removed the snake is not rendered even temporarily harmless for poison is discharged in the act of biting from the base of the extracted fangs and the small teeth of the upper jaw used by the snake in holding his prey will produce laceration through which the venom would come in contact with the blood. The snake can strike about one-half its length.

Considering the number of poisonous snakes inhabiting the United States, the number of casualties resulting from bites of the reptiles is very small. The moccasin is a very venomous serpent and considered by some as more deadly than the rattlesnake. The copperhead or highland moccasin also found in this region is very poisonous. The rattlesnake is the most important and next to none in deadliness. Another common opinion is that the rattler acquires a new joint on the rattle every year. In fact, the rattlesnake sometimes grows two and three joints a year, but the rattle seldom attains a length of more than 10 or 11 segments as other segments are broken off on rocks or ground. It is a common belief that a poisonous snake can bite itself causing death, but the snake is immune to its own poison and poison of other snakes." (Brownwood Banner Bulletin.)

If the tax eaters could only confine themselves to eating their own taxes!

Yes, life is short, especially to the fellow with a rope around his neck.

Home Demonstration Clubs Active

Several of the Home Demonstration Clubs in the County have planned fairs or achievement days for the near future. The first was held last Saturday at the Comal School, and was most successful. Others to be held are as follows:

Junction Club Show - September 29, at the Junction School; Loss Creek - Achievement day, September 30, at the home of Mrs. George Sparkman; Rockwood - Club Show, October 1, probably will be held at the tabernacle; Rae-Echo Achievement Day, October 7, at the George Younglove home; Brown Ranch - Achievement Day, October 8, at the home of Mrs. F. Everyone is invited to attend these exhibits, and see the progress that is being made in the county Club work.

LIVE OAK HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The Live Oak Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. John Brown as hostess Tuesday afternoon. Miss Brent gave a demonstration on chrysalizing citron and other fruit rinds.

After the demonstration the president, Mrs. John Johnson called the house to order for the business session. Miss Brent gave a brief discussion of the possibilities of achievement by the club. After some deliberation, it was decided to have a demonstration of some kind in the near future. Committee chairmen were appointed as follows: Time and place—Mrs. Jack Woodward; Publicity—Mrs. R. Lovelady; Arrangement—Mrs. Sam Collier. Mrs. Virgil Newman was appointed wardrobe demonstrator.

After the business session the hostess served delicious cake and grape juice, and the rind chrysalts that were prepared in the demonstration.

All present reported a very delightful afternoon. Club members present were Mesdames Jack Woodward, R. Lovelady, Stafford Baxter, Sam Collier, Ed Wallace, J. C. Morris, Ollie Floyd, John Johnson, John Brown and Miss Gertrude Brent. Visitors were Mrs. J. W. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. N. D. Wylie and Miss Josie Baxter.

COMAL COMMUNITY FAIR

The first community fair to be held in Coleman county this fall was Saturday, September 17 at Comal school. The Comal Home Demonstration Club was organized in April with Mrs. E. R. Rich, president and Mrs. O. J. Knight, secretary. This club is doing splendid work and their influence is spreading. The exhibits were outstanding and the club feels that their first venture was well worth the effort. More than one hundred people saw the exhibits. Miss Myrtle Younglove and Mrs. Carter Dible of Rae-Echo Club judged the exhibits. The Rae-Echo Club brought an exhibit for which they were given honorable mention. Williams Hardware exhibit, Cross Plains honorable mention. Cream separator, J. E. Hinkle, honorable mention. The Comal Club had a total of 154 exhibits in sewing, quilts, art, child's sewing, antiques, flowers, farm products, canning, chrysalized products, and cookery.

The Fair was under the supervision of Miss Gertrude Brent, County Home Demonstration Agent.

HOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE

The home of D. W. Keefer on the D. R. Hill farm in the Concho Peak Community was destroyed by fire last Friday morning about eleven o'clock. Most of the family effects were saved but the household goods were nearly all destroyed. The fire originated from an oil stove explosion.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our good friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness and many deeds of kindness in our distress over the loss of our home destroyed by fire last week.

We certainly appreciate every gift, word of sympathy and other favors. May God reward each of you.
D. W. Keefer and family.

SCHOOL AND CHURCH LEADERS LAUNCH MOVE TO "STOP FERGUSONS"

Organization Session to be Convened in Dallas at 10 A. M. September 24

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 17.—(AP) A call for a statewide mass meeting here Sept. 24 "to organize to prevent the return of Fergusonism to control of the state government" was made public today over the signature of 30 persons prominent in Texas educational and political affairs.

Signers of the call included C. M. Caldwell of Abilene, business man and rancher; Dr. J. W. Hunt of Abilene, president of McMurry College; Mrs. Claude de Van Watts of Austin, president of Texas Women's Christian Temperance Union; Alvin S. Moody of Houston; Dr. C. C. Seaman of Dallas, president of Southern Methodist University; Dr. L. R. Scarborough of Fort Worth, president of the Southwestern Baptist Seminary; Carr P. Collins of Dallas; W. W. Woodson of Waco; Cato Sells of Fort Worth, commissioner of Indian affairs in the administration of Woodrow Wilson; V. A. Collins of Dallas; and Dr. J. D. Sandefer of Abilene, president of Simmons University.

The statement follows: "We, the undersigned citizens of Texas, hereby call upon all citizens of Texas to come or send representatives to Dallas to attend a statewide mass meeting that will be held in the city auditorium of Dallas at 10 A. M. September 24.

"The purpose of this meeting is to organize to prevent the return of Fergusonism to control of the state government. The meeting will be for the sole purpose of opposing Fergusonism, and will not consider any other state or national issues."

El Paso, Sept. 17.—Dr. J. D. Sandefer, president of Simmons university, Abilene, and one of the state's outstanding dry leaders, tonight said here he was not ready to announce whom he will support in the national presidential election. In 1928 he helped carry Texas for Herbert Hoover.

"The principal question involved is the protection of the 18th amendment," he said. "I expect to take part in the campaign later."

He did not announce he would not support Mrs. Miram A. Ferguson for governor in the event the courts declared her the democratic nominee.

I will vote for the republican nominee if Mrs. Ferguson is placed on the ticket," he said. "It is hard on a democrat to have to do that, but the election of Orville Bullington, republican candidate, as governor would raise the level of Texas politics and win the respect of the rest of the nation."

Gosh, the depression has even hit the price of votes.

And still, there are some wives who do not blame their husbands for the depression.

A successful politician is one who can belong to one side and work the other.

Most every business firm in Santa Anna has expressed itself favorably for a Trades Day in Santa Anna, and several of them have advertisements in this issue of the Santa Anna News, inviting you to come to Santa Anna next Tuesday, September 27th, to our first Trades Day this season.

Great preparations have been made for your benefit and pleasure here next Tuesday, and the Santa Anna News especially request our readers to look up the advertisers in the paper when you come to town that day.

Some very special bargains are offered you for that day, and if you don't get your share of them you and the advertisers all lose.

We purpose to arrange these special days twice each month, and hope to make them a real success. The only way in which we can make them a success is for the people living in this trade territory to join with us and help put it over. Come to town Tuesday, bring your family, if you cannot stay all day, spend what portion of it you can, watch the fellows swap what they have for something else. Bring something with you to trade, you may find just what you are looking for. And remember, a little money will purchase lots of merchandise in Santa Anna next Tuesday, our first Trades Day.

"HEAP BIG RAIN"

Just about the time the editor was rounding up advertising to put out a creditable paper this week the weather man turned wet and drenched this country with rain something like the Indians used to call "A Heap Big Rain." Anyway Coleman county is as wet as Arkansas ever was from overhanging clouds and dripping moisture, cotton picking is over for a few days and feed out in the fields is damaging fast.

The rain may result in some good to the future prospects, but apparently the farmers in this section were not in a very receptive mood. We imagine about 4 inches of rain has fallen Wednesday and Thursday.

CARD OF THANKS

In sincere and heart felt appreciation we wish to thank every relative and friend who by thoughtful service, flowers, lunch or your presence helped and comforted us during the death and burial of our husband, son and brother. May God bless you every one.

Mrs. H. M. Smith, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Smith Sr. and Family.

Honey for sale. None better. 6c per pound if containers are furnished. Mrs. E. F. Rendleman.

Thursday the juniors elected class officers for the year. John David Harper was elected president. He has served as class president for five years. Annie Louise Watkins, formerly class reporter, was elected vice-president. Armenta Ragsdale, who was vice-president last year, secretary and treasurer; and Irene Rountree, formerly secretary and treasurer, class reporter.

Rose and silver were chosen as class colors; carnation as the class flower; and "Climb, even though the rocks be rough," the former motto, was retained.

Juniors this year have two new pupils, Richard Dillingham and W. R. McMinn.

WILBURN DUBOIS RECEIVES HONOR

Wilburn DuBois, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. DuBois, was on the list of distinguished students at Texas A. and M. where he attended the second term of 1931-1932. In order to receive this honor, one must make forty-five grade points during a term. Wilburn more than completed this requirement by making fifty-two grade points. While in Santa Anna High School, Wilburn was prominent in debating, in tennis, and in track as well as in his classes.

PEP LEADERS ARE ELECTED

Friday the pep squad met in the auditorium to elect pep leaders. Lillian Bible, a senior from the Rockwood district, was elected pep leader and Mary Oakes, a junior, was elected assistant. The former assistant was eliminated, as leaders are not allowed to serve two years.

With these two able leaders and with the cooperation of the members, the squad is expected to be the strongest Santa Anna has ever had.

LEON BARTLETT TO MAKE TOUR

Leon Bartlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Bartlett, left Tuesday morning for an extensive tour with the Cowboy Band of Simmons University. This tour, which will last two of three months, will include such places as New York and Chicago. Leon's selection to become a member of this group speaks highly of his interest and ability.

MRS. SCARBOROUGH TEACHING ONLY HALF-TIME

Mrs. J. C. Scarborough is teaching now on a half-time schedule. In order to effect a further economy in the school maintenance, she volunteered this generous cut. At present is teaching the entire afternoon, with no time reserved for student consultation. Miss Agnes Hays has taken her place as sponsor of the sophomore class.

Santa Anna High School is proud of the splendid teaching record of Mrs. Scarborough during the time that she has been here. The fact that she was able to secure the fourth unit of affiliation in English on her first application speaks for the high standard of her work. She was also able to secure affiliation in the second half of American history her first year in Santa Anna High School. Attempts to get this additional half credit in American history had proved ineffectual prior to Mrs. Scarborough's successful attempt. Her excellent achievements as a teacher have been due to a great extent to her ability as a student.

At home room period Friday morning the Sophomore class, sponsored by Miss Hays elected their new officers. They are as follows:

President— Leon DuBois, Vice-president— Dexter Walthall, Secretary and Treasurer— Faye Routh and Reporter— Frances Gregg.

A committee consisting of Billy Baxter, Beth Barnes and Bess Inez Shields was appointed to select a motto. The colors are pink and white and the flower is the sweet pea.

Out of a membership of fifty, the class has six from outside districts and several who have moved here recently and have not been with us before. The class is well organized and we intend to take a large part in the school activities this year. Reporter.

SANTA ANNA HIGH FOOTBALL TEAM IS BIG, FAST AND SMART

Looks Like the Team That Beat Coleman 6 to 0 Last Year

Under the direction of Coach Lock the Santa Anna High football team is fast rounding into shape for their first game which will be with Coleman High at Coleman on Sept. 30. Thirty-two boys have gotten suits and are working out daily. Among those thirty-two there are eight lettermen two of whom have played two years already. The other members of the starting lineup will probably be chosen from last year's squadmen who are experienced. There are six new boys from the country who are making a bid for a place on the team and some of them are big and fast and are going to make some of the regulars work hard to hold their places. All the boys are working hard and have their hearts set on repeating their win of last fall when they got to Coleman one week from next Friday.

The starting team will average about 160 pounds per man. The two ends who will likely start, Scott Wallace and Clifford Wheeler, each weigh 163 pounds. Both are long and rangy and will be hard to circle. Degree Traylor will be one tackle and weighs 165. His mate will be chosen from one of the squadmen or new men. The two guards, Noel Campbell and Lenon Oakes weigh about 160 each. The center, Nowlin Myers, weighs 165 and woe betide the opponent who gets in his way either on offense or defense. Clovis Fletcher will fill his regular place at full back, weighs 167, and specializes in "bustin' 'em."

Two of the other backs are Leon Ward, 154, and Dexter Walthall, 157. Both are fast, shifty and are good passers. The other players who are likely to break into the lineup are Hiram Glen, 153, Arley Roberts, 161, Alton Brandon, 153, Odie Tatum, 154, J. D. Pieratte, 153, Jack Johnson, 156, Richard Dillingham, 165, Edwin Niell, 148, John D. Harper, 145, Howard Pittard, 149, J. W. Zachary, 152, W.R. McMinn, 156.

The coach and the boys think that when the team goes on the field against Coleman they will be almost as good as the team that won last year. We have back twice as many lettermen as they do and our reserve and new materials are just as good, if not better. Since our team was better last year, it ought to be still better this year.

RAH! RAH! PEP SQUAD

Monday afternoon the Pep Squad was called to a meeting by Lillian Bible and Mary Oakes, the leaders. There are fifty-five loyal girls in this year's club who are willing to do their part.

Louise Wilsford and Mildred Boardman will be managers and get ways for all the girls to attend Ball games played away from here.

Our first game will be with Coleman on September 30. With the co-operation of the fifty-five girls and the loyal leaders our boys will have plenty of backing. Just watch Santa Anna!

A RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

In as much as it has pleased Almighty God in His all wise wisdom to call from us our friend and member of the Malone-Salem Singing Class, H. M. Smith, that we hereby humbly submit to God's will and way, and praying that His richest blessings and tenderest mercies rest upon the bereaved ones, it being our loss but His gain.

Done by order of the class in regular session.

T. E. Kornegay, President.
Olin Kornegay, Secretary.

LIONS CLUB HAPPENINGS

At the regular weekly luncheon Tuesday the Lions discussed the Trades Day activities and gave the club's indorsement for a general Trades Day in Santa Anna. Any member of the Club will be glad to give information concerning the plans for the day.

J. H. Duke, former president of the Ennis Lions Club was a visitor, and made some splendid remarks concerning the Lions Club and their work.

With Modern Electric Refrigeration You Know Your Foods Are Safe

Proper food preservation, doctors say, is a vital prerequisite to health. Defined by these authorities, the proper preservation of foods means keeping perishables at a constant temperature of less than fifty degrees.

Modern Electric Refrigeration will give you this necessary low temperature... automatically. It has been tried and tested over a period of years, in actual, everyday use... its assurance of food safety for your family is a proven fact. Isn't this security against the dire effects of food-spoilage worth the small cost of a dependable Electric Refrigerator?

—But Electric Refrigeration is not an expense at all! Actually, Electric Refrigeration pays for itself! In food savings... in time savings... in labor savings... in permitting you to purchase in quantities at bargain prices—safely... and in exceptionally low operating cost!

Ask a Trained Representative to tell you the interesting story of Electric Refrigeration. There's no obligation, of course... and you are sure to enjoy the demonstration. Call in at our Merchandise Showroom, or see your Electrical Dealer... TODAY!

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprising low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Well, we're off now for the fall season, the rattle of the cotton wagon, the hum of the cotton gin and the smiles of the business men remind us of the fact that: The Fall Season is Here Again.

The price of cotton is still embarrassing, and those who hold crop mortgages realize that payment in full is next to impossible, and the producers realize just as fully that their part of the embarrassment has not yet ended.

Producers can sell the 1932 crop for less money than they have sold a crop for in several years and come out better for the present tense, due to the fact that they have made the cheapest crop in years. Just how they are going to reckon with old debts, interest and taxes is a matter yet to be fathomed.

Most people are honest and have good intentions, but are laboring under handicaps over which they have no control. This is the first time since many people can remember that short crops, short prices and depressing conditions have lasted over a period of more than a few months, and four years of it is just too much.

The writer remembers forty years ago, during the "Nineties" when there was no money in circulation, and the people were sorely distressed, but they had never been accustomed to such methods of living as the people drifted into in the past decade, just prior to the present crisis.

It had begun to look like business was staple and conditions rather settled, and people knew how to adjust their affairs, but four years of drouth, low prices, high taxes and "Hoover prosperity" have just about put the cabosh to most of us and the end is not yet in sight. Stay in there and pitch, the end is coming.

Consolidating Counties

The movement to consolidate counties and to cut down the costs of county government and make the operation of county affairs more efficient and economical is under way in thirty-two different states. In Tennessee and Georgia, mergers of adjoining counties have already been effected.

We think this is a sound move and one that ought to be encouraged. The principal items of county expenditures almost everywhere are for roads and schools. To provide for these usually requires the issuing of county bonds. County bond issues are getting harder and harder to float, and the smaller the county the more difficult the floatation. In North Carolina and Virginia the states have had to take over the entire highway systems in order to raise the necessary funds for highway construction, using the credit of the state instead of the credit of the individual counties. In schools the tendency is the other way, the counties paying a higher proportion, than was the case ten years ago.

We do not think there are too many schools, we think there are too many separate systems and units. And that is true of almost all of the other county functions in these days of easy and speedy communication. Counties no longer have to be small, when a farmer can drive to a county seat forty miles away easier than he could get to a county seat only ten miles away before the automobile and the good road came in.

We think this is a subject that every taxpayer ought to give careful study. Dublin Progress.

SOURCES OF FARM INCOME INCREASE

(By J. M. Binton)

Sources of individual farm income on farms in the Santa Anna trade territory increased 18 per cent during the past year. This information was gained by a survey made by boys of third year vocational agriculture in Santa Anna High School. The finding shows that farmers have been adding new enterprises to supplement their incomes and that they are gradually growing away from the one crop idea which was adhered to four, five and six years ago.

Other important findings of the class show that this year home preservation of food increased 72 per cent over last year. Brood sows increased 100 per cent; horses and mules 13.5 per cent; turkeys 65 per cent; dairy cows 30 per cent; dairy heifers 1.1 per cent; pigs 35.2 per cent; chickens 41 per cent; and acres in gardens 20.4 per cent.

Cotton acreage showed a decrease of 6.3 per cent and of the total cultivated area, 2900 acres, considered in the survey 29 per cent was planted to cotton, 47 per cent to small grain, and 14 per cent to grain sorghum and corn.

A careful study of these figures will portray important tendencies on the part of farmers in southeast Coleman County.

A WOLFLESS COUNTY

The claim that there is not a wolf in the county is made by McCulloch county, where an active wolf club has been in operation for the past several years. The club, formed ten years ago, offered a bounty of $50 for each wolf scalp, and since that time about 700 scalps have been paid for. It is estimated that a single wolf can do $1,000 of damage to flocks in a year, and the McCulloch county stockmen estimate that they have saved upwards of $700,000 by spending $20,000 in wolf eradication work. Not a scalp has been brought to the club during the past twelve months.

Not many wolves, or coyotes, are left anywhere in West Texas, although there were thousands of them a few years ago. The development of the sheep and goat industry in this territory has made it necessary to do away with predatory animals and with characteristic vigor the stockmen have gone about the task of eradication. McCulloch is not the only wolfless county in West Texas. There are many of them, and in every county the stockmen believe the eradication of this prowling destroyer was the beginning of a new era for them.

Orville Bullington—Democrat

(This Week's Opinion)

A Republican ticket will adorn the November ballot. It will include the name of Orville Bullington, by the republicans nominated for the governorship of Texas.

Back in January, Mr. Bullington almost decided to become a democrat. Maybe he did become a democrat. Witness this extract from a release to Texas newspapers over the signature of Tom Hunter:

"Orville Bullington, Wichita Falls attorney and state republican leader, related to the audience the activities of Mr. Hunter in Washington and ended up by stating that he would probably bolt his party and vote for Tom Hunter on the democratic ticket.

It would be interesting to know whether or not Mr. Bullington made good his promise to his Wichita Falls neighbors. It would be interesting to know whether or not Mr. Bullington did go into the democratic primary and pledge himself to support the democratic nominee. It would be interesting to know if, in compliance with that pledge, Mr. Bullington is obligated to vote against himself in the general election.

In any event, Mr. Bullington certainly proved the soundness of his judgement if, even for a moment, he seriously considered bolting the republican party and embracing the hallowed principles of Texas democracy.

Much has been written about that three-foot fish Hoover caught, but not a word as to whether he ate it, handed it over to the politicians, or gave it to the poor.

The bigger the spendthrift in congress the less he spends with the newspapers in his campaign for election.

To Be Educated Is—

By W. F. McCollum.

To be educated is to have a systematic manner of thinking and acting, a desire for knowledge, and a curiosity for new things.

It is to have a moral and spiritual sense to understand God and nature, to know ourselves, to select our environment, to fulfill our duties, to love beauty and truth, peace and friendship, to respect the past, to live in the present and to hope in the future.

It is to be childish enough to be honest, clean, and happy. It is to be man enough to affront adversity, to resist sin, to know our faults and respect opinions. It is to love our home, our family, and our country. To be friendly with the rich and poor, with women and children, to be brave and courageous in battles of life. To be serene and peaceful in the battles of men. (Scurry County Times.)

We agree that there is not enough money in this country—at least not in this section, certainly not in this town, and by all means not in this print shop, and the Lord knows there's not enough in the editorial pocket. Who's for paying his subscription?

The Prince of Wales says the way to avoid depression is to keep busy at something. Another way is to choose a king for a father.

On Texa Farms

By W. H. Barrow, Extension Service Editor

You can tell when a committee contains a few men with brains. They bring in a minority report.

C. L. Beason, county agent of Brazos county tells a good one. A 4-H club boy attending the annual short course at College Station found that his one and only shirt was too dirty to stay longer, so he walked home 10 miles, had the shirt washed, and walked back again to take in the program. The boy won the right to represent his club by the excellence of his corn demonstration.

Of the 30 Wichita county farmers cooperating with the county agent in raising alfalfa by demonstration methods, Fenton Dale of Iowa Park reported the highest July yield with 3100 pounds of hay per acre on 5 acres.

Soy beans continue to spread throughout the State, especially in East Texas, in the wake of demonstrations conducted by county agents for several years. The experience of J. H. Haugse of San Augustine county is typical of many. He harvested 1 1-4 tons of soy bean hay per acre from a 2-acre demonstration and finds his dairy cows relish this high protein feed.

For three weeks a canning laboratory equipped by a civic organization in Munday has been in use 24 hours daily by women who do not have canning equipment in their homes. The work is supervised by home demonstration club women.

The burner from an oil burning chicken brooder was brought into the house by J. J. New of Wharton county to furnish an additional stove for the use of his wife during the busy canning season. The idea proved good.

Canning more than 500 containers of vegetables on halves for other people has supplied Mrs. C. E. Marsh, Menard county home demonstration club member, with enough money to buy paper and lumber to finish a bedroom for her boys.

A fifty gallon barral of pickles for the market and 20 gallons for her family's use is the disposition Mrs. C. E. Taylor, Wichita county home demonstration club member, has made of the cucumber crop in her garden.

Making their own wash dresses for 68 cents is one way farm women in Washington county are meeting the farm problem. In a recent contest between home demonstration club members dresses made by 19 women were appraised at $1.98 each.

Feeding 13 people in her own and her brother's family all the vegetables they could eat this season from her 53x177 foot garden is the record of Myrtle Maynard, 4-H club girl in the Murphy Club in Smith county. The value of the garden products she estimates at $362.20, and her garden cost $1.90, she says.

Living at home has been extended by Potter county home demonstration club women to the cleaning business. They have found that 70 cents worth of naphtha will clean 10 dresses and 10 hats.

A community kitchen for the benefit of his tenants and neighbors has been established by John Barton of McDuff, Bastrop county. It is equipped with nace, two large pressure cookers and two sealers.

The best turkey investment of the year, according to Marcus Schindler of Colorado county, was an early season worming which he says has kept his losses to less than 5 per cent. He is handling his flock by demonstration methods with the help of the county agent and plans to worm a second time using a combination capsule. The average losses in the county this year are said to run from 20 per cent to 75 per cent of the poults.

NATION SAVERS

Naturally, we read both sides of this political campaign and get a kick out of it.

One day we read that economic recovery depends entirely upon Mr. Hoover, that the country will go to the ding-dong how-rows if he is not re-elected.

The next day we are regaled with the marvels of Mr. Roosevelt and are assured that he alone can save the country from complete collapse.

Occasionally some admirer slips in the name of Curtis or Garner, and they come in for stereotyped praise.

It really makes a fellow wonder that the greatness of these men should have remained so long undiscovered, and we wonder if there are any other great ones left in the country.

Then we drop down to earth and begin to think in terms of horse sense, and we are convinced that the future of this country does not depend upon Mr. Hoover, or Mr. Roosevelt, or upon Curtis or Garner, or upon any one or two men.

It depends upon the sanity of the people, and upon such congress enacts the law under constructive legislation as the congress has enacted and may enact in the future.

The country is more vitally interested in the membership of the next congress than in who is to be the next president. Congress enacts the laws under which we must function, and a president at variance with congress is a pitifully helpless individual.

Neither candidate for the presidency is going to wreck the country, and neither one can save it by his own efforts alone. He must have the cooperation of congress and the people.

We are going to keep right on climbing, regardless of who is elected.

Mussolini says he is a firm advocate of economy in government. Just to prove his point, cabinet dinners in Italy now consist of a table set for one.

The wings of slander are borrowed from demons.

Anger is the welding of all the baser passions. Unrequited love—the fang that tears deepest in the human heart.

It's up to Governor Roosevelt now. If he doesn't hook a fish more than three feet in length, or fire Jimmy Walker, Mr. Hoover will have the edge on him.

NOTICE
I have arranged with the United States Civil Service Commission to hold for me a competitive examination at Abilene, Sweetwater, Brownwood, Coleman, Eastland, Lampasas, Stamford, Mineral Wells, San Saba and Breckenridge on Saturday, October 22, 1932. I will permit all boys in my district desiring to enter the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis to compete in this examination, and the four boys making the highest grades will be appointed by me as the Principal, First, Second and Third Alternates for admission to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis on July 1, 1933. If boys living in my district who are too far away from home attending schools will notify me immediately their post office addresses at such schools I will arrange for the examination to be held in the city contiguous to such school so as to save them the time and expense of being away from their work.

Some candidates are like a firecracker. After the noise there is nothing left.

All things have an end—even depressions.

Boss picked candidates are all so boss controlled.
