John Fiveash, An Aged Pioneer Dies

Uncle John Fiveash, 78, one of the first settlers of Coleman county, died in the hospital early Thursday morning. Uncle John has been in feeble health for some time, hardened arteries, Brights disease and heart trouble, had weakened his physical condition until he was just hanging on to life by a very small thread, so to speak. He fell on Saturday and crushed a hip, which, connected with other complications, was more than his physical strength could resist, and he passed on.

The remains were carried to the family graveyard west of Trickham Thursday for burial.

Uncle John Fiveash, if our memory serves us right, was living in these parts when Coleman county was organized. He was a good man, a good neighbor, and a good citizen. We will try to have a more lengthy mention of him next week.

Friends of Sealy Hospital to Hold "Love Shower"

Cross Plains Citizens Plan To Honor Beloved Doctor And Institution

Cross Plains friends of the Sealy Hospital, at Santa Anna, will shower the institution with gifts of love and appreciation here Saturday. Groceries, poultry, fruits, towels, sheets, pillow cases and other beneficial items will be collected at the Piggly Wiggly Store here.

The pounding, or shower, is entirely without the knowledge of Dr. T. R. Sealy, head of the hospital, is the action of scores of friends, who were not notified of a similar event held in Santa Anna some time ago in time to contribute.

Those in charge of the "love shower" told the Review Wednesday that the event was to be dedicated to the skilled service that the Sealy Hospital has rendered to humanity.—(The Cross Plains Review).

DR. SEALY TERMED "ONE OF TEXAS' GREATEST BENEFACTORS"

We congratulate the citizens of Santa Anna and territory upon their expression of love and appreciation for Dr. Sealy and his hospital. He can appreciate the roses now, why wait? He is giving his life and means to suffering humanity, one of Texas' greatest benefactors. Our citizenship in the main, were deprived from contributing materially to this shower, due to illness and extreme cold weather at the time, but we hope to do more.—(Exchange).

AGRICULTURE CLASS OF SANTA ANNA HI VISITS TODD'S DAIRY

Members of the Vocational Agriculture Class of the high school visited Todd's Dairy last Tuesday. One class went in the morning and the other in the afternoon. Both placed a class of cows by comparison.

Members of the group were very favorably impressed with the cleanliness and arrangement of the dairy and the care with which it is managed. Another thing that brought words of admiration from the boys was the fine bunch of young dairy heifers that Mr. Todd has in his herd. It was pointed out to the F. F. A. boys that these heifers were made possible by the use of good sires.

The boys think that Mr. Todd is well on the way towards a high-producing herd of dairy cattle. He has recently met the state requirements for the production of grade A milk and that means that his cows are free from T. B. and that the milk is cared for and marketed under very sanitary conditions.

District 13 Meet In Brownwood April 22 and 23

Santa Anna High School To Enter Literary, Track And Field Events.

The District 13 Interscholastic League Meet will be held Friday and Saturday, April 22nd and 23rd, in Brownwood. Literary events will be held in various auditoriums and assembly rooms at Howard Payne College and in the churches of Brownwood. Track and field events will be held on the Howard Payne field and track.

The date has been set up one week due to conflicts, according to announcement made by the general director.

District 13 of the Interscholastic League is composed of Brown, Coleman, Menard, Hamilton, Comanche, McCulloch, Mason, Mills, Kimble and San Saba counties.

The District 13 meet this year is attracting the attention of almost every school in the several counties, and competition in the many events will likely be more evenly matched than in previous years due to the elimination of the strong Brownwood high school, which institution has been advanced to the ranks of a city district by the State Interscholastic League Director, and will, therefore, not compete with any other school in this district.

The general director for District 13 announces that a complete program will be ready for publication next week.

Good Turkeys Demand Good Care

Prime turkeys in the fall demand good care in the spring and summer during the growing season, according to County Agent C. V. Robinson, who spoke to farmers attending a vocational agriculture short course held at Whon last Saturday night.

Forty farmers and wives listened to the talk on care and feeding of turkeys for market and it is practically certain that they will market a better grade of turkeys next Thanksgiving and Christmas.

The subject for discussion next Saturday night will be the Control of Insect Pests of the Garden and Field. The time of the meeting will be 8 p. m. and the place is Whon.

PRESBYTERIAN GROUP MAKING QUILT FOR MRS. CLEBERT WILLIS

The ladies of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church have been working on a quilt for Mrs. Clebert Willis, whose home burned several days ago. Mrs. Paul Van Dalsem, Mrs. Henry Campbell and Mrs. Cheaney met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Lowe to put the quilt in the frames, and Mrs. Mary Kirkpatrick, Mrs. P. D. Nesmith and Miss Jimmie Oakes joined them Wednesday afternoon to begin the quilting.

Lions Planning Celebration On 7th Anniversary

Julian C. Hyer, International President, to Speak at April 5th Banquet

Next Tuesday evening, April 5, the Lions Club will celebrate its seventh anniversary of the organization in Santa Anna.

The program will begin at 7 p. m. at the high school building, where a basket luncheon is to be served to the members of the local club and their wives and visiting Lions.

A program of entertainment will be given in the auditorium beginning at 8 o'clock, the principal feature of the evening being an address by the International president, Hon. Julian C. Hyer of Fort Worth.

President Hyer is a splendid talker, and the program at the auditorium will be open to the public and all are invited to attend. The Santa Anna News is requested to extend a general invitation to the public to come out and hear Mr. Hyer, and it will do you good to hear him.

Visiting Lions from over the district will be here for the celebration and it behooves Santa Anna citizens to live up to their motto by playing the part of a friendly city. If you meet some one on the streets and don't know them, introduce yourself and extend to them a friendly greeting and make them feel welcome.

Remember, the public is cordially invited to be in the auditorium at 8 o'clock!

4th ANNUAL CHURCH MUSIC MEET TO BE HELD GEORGETOWN

GEORGETOWN, March 29th—The Fourth Annual Church Music Conference, which will be held at Southwestern University, April 1st and 2nd, is expected to be the largest ever held, according to Dean Henry Meyer, head of the School of Music at Southwestern University, who is sponsoring the conference.

The conference is held for the purpose of promoting and stimulating church music throughout the State. Organists, choir leaders, orchestra leaders and others connected with church music attend the conferences.

Some of the most eminent musicians in the South will be present to perform in various ways and several eminent composers will also be present. Among the most interesting features will be an oratorio concert, a choir concert, and a vesper service on the night of Friday, April 1, which is attracting many musicians.

A large number have already registered with Dean Meyer, and he anticipates a large gathering of church musicians for these two days of church music stimulation.

W. H. Hawkins Is In Popular Race For Congress

Veteran Stephenville Editor Yields To Request Of Friends To Run

The Stephenville Empire-Tribune will carry the following announcement this week of the candidacy of W. H. Hawkins, a veteran newspaper editor and a successful business man of that city, for Congressman at Large.

W. H. Hawkins, who has spent the last forty-one years of his sixty-six years in Stephenville, is a candidate for Congressman at Large on the Democratic ticket. He was born in Ellis county, near Waxahatchie, and most of the schooling he received was prior to his sixteenth year in old Marvin College at Waxahatchie, while Dr. John R. Allen, now of Dallas, was president.

Mr. Hawkins claims that great school was so thorough in the work it did in every department that during the few years he was privileged to attend it, he became fairly well prepared for entry into the University of Experience, from which he has regarded himself as a full-fledged graduate since his fiftieth anniversary.

During his long editorial career as owner of the Stephenville Empire, Mr. Hawkins in almost every issue of the paper sought to impress upon the boys and girls of the land the importance of acquiring an education, and has had the joy of being assured by hundreds of young ladies and gentlemen that his editorials had been helpful to them in their schooldays. Many of the teachers have also, from time to time, expressed their gratitude to him for thus encouraging pupils in their studies, saying that such an attitude toward students was also helpful to teachers.

Due to the fact that he had been in ill health for a number of years and was not improving, Mr. Hawkins sold his printing plant two years ago and has since, to a considerable extent, regained his health.

Although he has never held or sought an office of political preferment, he has frequently been solicited to run for various offices but could never get his full consent to do it while actively engaged in business, though he came near making the race for Congress at one time, but soon decided he would not be able to find the necessary time to canvass the district.

Mr. Hawkins is regarded in his home town as a veteran member of a Baptist Church, Democratic Party and Knights of Pythias, as well as the Texas Press Association, and up to the time his health became impaired had rarely missed any of their annual state meetings for years. He cherishes the hope that many friends throughout the State will become interested in his welfare in this campaign in their respective communities.

The editor of the News has known W. H. Hawkins for about a quarter of a century, and a cleaner man, purer of purpose and higher in ideals, would, in our opinion, be hard to find. Mr. Hawkins, possessing the sterling qualities that he does, leading the life that he has led, wielding the influence for good that he has, if he was known over the State at large as well as he is known in his home district, he would undoubtedly lead the ticket.

W. H. Hawkins has been urged many times to enter politics, especially for congressman from his home district, but he felt that his services were needed in his home community and that others were fully qualified to look after the needs of the State in Washington. We welcome W. H. Hawkins into the ring and feel justified in commending him to our friends for this important office.

Old Man Grouch says he read a piece in the society columns where it said it is improper to move the soup spoon towards one while eating soup. The Old Man says he was glad to read that, for he never moves the spoon towards himself, in fact he never uses a spoon. He just blows on the soup to get it the proper temperature and drinks it out of the dish. In fact, says the Old Man, he didn't know folks were supposed to eat soup, he thought soup is a beverage. — Sherman Daily Sun.

Whereas in the Civil and military branches of the Government there are 32 employees drawing $15,000 and over per annum, 41 drawing $12,000, 6 drawing $11,000, 134 drawing $10,000, 138 drawing $9,000, 40 drawing $8,500, 216 drawing $8,000, 150 drawing $7,500, 244 drawing $7,000, 309 drawing $6,500, 1,943 drawing $6,000, 442 drawing $5,800, 1,324 drawing $5,000, 314 drawing $5,400, 510 drawing $5,200, 1,602 drawing $5,000, 2,034 drawing $4,800, 2,605 drawing $4,600, 1,714 drawing $4,400, 1,535 drawing $4,200, 151 drawing $4,100, 2,371 drawing $4,000, 1,489 drawing $3,900, 2,954 drawing $3,800, 1,602 drawing $3,700, 3,196 drawing $3,600, 2,105 drawing $3,500, 2,019 drawing $3,400, 2,749 drawing $3,300, 4,613 drawing $3,200, 2,011 drawing $3,100, 4,191 drawing $3,000, 4,263 drawing $2,900, 9,425 drawing $2,800, 8,177 drawing $2,700, 15,567 drawing $2,600, 49,291 drawing $2,400, 26,268 drawing $2,300, 16,384 drawing $2,200, 118,759 drawing $2,100, 25,267 drawing $2,000, and 681,892 other employees drawing annual salaries below $2,000; and who have zealously worked for the Government for years, who have not had a raise in salary for ten years, the appropriations designed to relieve them having been used in giving preferential classification and ratings to pet heads of units, and for Congress to regain its necessary control over the continual raising of salaries it is necessary to repeal the Classification Act, stop making lump-sum appropriations, and return to specific appropriations for all branches and departments of government:

Therefore be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the rates of compensation for positions to which, prior to the effective date of this Act, the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended (U. S. C., title 5, ch. 13), applied, shall be the rates in force, on the day preceding the effective date of the Classification Act of 1923, for positions involving the same or substantially similar duties.

Sec. 2. The rates of compensation for civilian or military positions, including Senators, Representatives, and all other employees in the legislative branch of the service, in the United States Government, or in the municipal government of the District of Columbia to which, prior to the effective date of this Act, the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, did not apply, shall be the rates in force, on the day preceding the effective date of the Classification Act of 1923, for positions involving the same or substantially similar duties.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not be construed to reduce the rates of compensation for positions for which the rates of compensation on the day preceding the effective date of this Act, do not exceed an annual rate of compensation of $2,200, so that all existing salaries of not more than $2,200 per annum shall not be affected by this Act.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not apply to—(a) The compensation of any officer of the United States whose compensation may not, under the Constitution, be diminished during the term for which he was elected or during his continuance in office; or (b) Compensation paid under the terms of any contract to which the United States is a party.

Sec. 5. As used in this Act, the term "compensation" means any salary, wage, fee, allowance, or other emolument paid for service in a position.

Sec. 6. The Classification Act of 1923, as amended, is repealed. Sec. 7. That Public Law, numbered 506, Seventieth Congress, known as the "Disabled Emergency Officers' Retirement Act" be, and the same likewise is, hereby in all things repealed.

Sec. 8. This Act shall be known as the "Back to Normalcy Act," and after its passage the maximum of any statutory salary paid by the Government shall not exceed $7,500 per annum, and hereafter no quasi-governmental institution supervised by and receiving benefits from the Government shall pay any of its officers or employees a salary exceeding $7,500 per annum.

Sec. 9. This Act shall take effect on the first day of the month succeeding thirty days after its final passage.

SECOND STORM SWEEPS EASTERN STATES IN ONE WEEK

The writer very reluctantly read an account of the second storm to ply its destruction thru the states just east of Texas the past week. On Monday night, March 21, a very destructive storm swept thru the states of Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia and the Carolinas, leaving the worst of its destruction in the little state of Alabama, and playing havoc with several families right in the community where the writer was born and reared.

The Sunday papers report a second storm swept through the same states Saturday, creating much damage in pretty much the same territory as the one that visited them Monday. Several lives were lost—said to be about 300 in the two tragedies—in the state of Alabama alone, and the property damage reaching into the millions.

We feel for those who are distressed, as we were treated among them and have a very tender feeling for them. We also remember what a destructive storm leaves in its wake in that country, for it was our sad privilege to view the paths of several tornadoes while living in that country.

After writing the above, Monday, we received a copy of the Lineville Headlight, a weekly paper published at Lineville, our former home, and we note about forty homes of our relatives and friends were completely destroyed, and many of the occupants injured. Among them was a brother, whose home is reported completely destroyed.

The correspondent at Whom, and any others who have news to be published, is invited to use the columns of the News. Sign all news items, stories or letters! Your name will not be published, but will be kept on our records.

The Santa Anna News is under obligation to Superintendent J. E. Beard of Coleman for a tabulated report of the track meet in Coleman last week-end, in which Santa Anna made a very creditable showing in literary, athletic and other carrying-ons, such as they usually have at such gatherings. The report is so lengthy that it may have to be carried over until next week.

Often the editor is requested to write articles about people going to other towns to trade or attend amusement attractions. It seems some of the merchants want to hold the editor responsible, from the way they talk, for people going to other places to purchase a portion of their needs.

The editor can't help it; people are privileged to go where they choose to trade, but all things being equal, we believe most of the people in this country are loyal and patriotic to the home merchants in so far as they feel justified in being. The buying public is not as dumb as some people think. They read and do lots of planning in their buying, and that accounts for some people going to other places to purchase a portion of their needs.

We are not urging merchants to buy and use large space in our medium, but we do believe there are several merchants in Santa Anna who could increase their sales by the use of advertising.

The Marshall Mercantile Company closed their doors Tuesday, and Mr. Marshall has retired from the mercantile business. From all indications, this is final with the Marshall store, so far as Mr. Marshall is concerned.

The Mickle Hardware stock is being packed up this week, preparatory to moving to Eastland the home of Mr. Mickle. We regret very much to lose a business enterprise from our town, but such is in life and we have no way of stopping it.

A DUAL-PURPOSE LAW

The State Livestock Sanitary Commission requests dissemination of its notification to all concerned of the requirement of owners' permits for the transportation on the highways of livestock and poultry. The law making this requirement was enacted by the Forty-second Legislature, and state officials have begun its enforcement.

The law is designed to serve two purposes. One is the prevention of the spread of cattle diseases from quarantined areas, this being the purpose in which the Livestock Sanitary Commission is interested. The other is protection of owners of livestock and poultry against theft.

The law prohibits the hauling on state highways of meat animals or slaughtered portions thereof, and poultry. Peace officers may, without a search warrant, require the driver of any vehicle moving livestock or poultry to produce a permit for the transportation signed by the owner.

The Texas Cattle Raisers' Association and the West Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, which originally sponsored the law, are active in its enforcement. Certificates may be obtained from the commission.—(Ft. Worth Star-Telegram)

Liberty 4-H Club

County Agent Robinson and Vocational Agriculture Teacher Dixon are working in cooperation with Mrs. Frank Turner in conducting a part-time Class and 4-H Club in the Liberty School.

A meeting is held each Wednesday afternoon from 1 until 2 o'clock and the discussions center around livestock farming, with special emphasis being put on feeding home grown feeds to home grown livestock. The members of the group are boys and they seem to be very much interested in the work and anxious to learn more about the proper care and management of farm stock.

TAXPAYERS—AND WHITE RATS

Where is all the money of the taxpayers going to, anyway?

Well, a great deal of it is going into printed matter that isn't worth the white paper which it's printed on.

The bulletins recently issued by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station makes up a case in point.

The largest, made up of 205 pages, is titled "Commercial Feeding Stuffs"—being analyses of various commercial feed mixtures on sale in Texas.

Next in size is called "Tomato Varieties and Fertilizers for the Lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas"—something of no apparent value to any taxpayer living outside the valley.

The last and smallest—18 pages—is called (believe it or not) "The Relation of Lime and Phosphoric Acid to the Growth and Bone Development of White Rats."

More to the point would be a brochure of about 1,000 pages under the title, "The Relation of Bureaucratic Thimblejigery to the Partial Paralysis of the Taxpayers' Bank Account."—(Abilene Morning News-Reporter)

(The News is pleased to publish a poem read by Mrs. Barnes at the recent celebration in honor of the Sealy Hospital. M. S. Barnes explained the use of Santana instead of Santa Anna, saying that the name Santana was the one originally meant for our little city, and that she thought it much more beautiful than the one given it through a mistake of the Post Office Department at Washington.)

My Village

By Leola Christie Barnes

Santana, when your blazing sun Leaps heavenward in the west, Spreading a riot of glory done In flame with purple crest;

I think of all you mean to me, And all that you have meant In dreams and friends and ecstasy, With tears and laughter bent.

I have heard you silver-throated Village of my dreams, Sing life's tune pearly-noted Timed to lifting themes.

I have seen you violet-misted Village of my tears; I have seen your beauty twisted By depression's ugly tears.

I have felt your heart beats plainly, Village of my friends, And my soul shall call you vainly When my life, sweet village, ends.

THE LIVEST SUBJECT

Half a century ago, women's clubs devoted themselves exclusively to Shakespeare, Browning and classical topics. The idea was to take the housewife out of her narrow, monotonous, humdrum arena into a new field of interests, to broaden her horizon and give her recreation by a change of mental outlook.

Today the pendulum has swung back. We have the family bus, the radio, the movie, and oodles of clubs and distractions to take us far afield. These have but served to make us realize how precious is the home and how little we really want to forget it.

We are craving now, not a wider out-look, but a deeper inlook into all the interests of the home and family. We have reverted to type and are more than ever the Housewife, not from necessity, but from love of it.

One can get a standing-room only audience more certainly by advertising a lecture or demonstration on home-keeping than by any other attraction. "Home shows," being held of late in many places, have required the presence of the police to regulate the crowds, not only of women but also of men and youths, who prefer these spectacles to the circus. Who says that interest in the home is vanishing?—(Exchange)

PRINTING THE NEWS

When to print a disagreeable story and when to leave one out of the paper is one of the most troublesome problems of a small-town editor. In the case of a person who is unfaithful to a public trust, or one who is guilty of serious crime, it is not difficult to decide, because the public interest, as well as the public's right, to have the news, demands that it be printed.

There are some cases, however, in which the offense is entirely of a personal nature, and in which publishing the story would bring sorrow and embarrassment to innocent persons without serving any beneficial purpose. In these the making of a proper decision is often not easy. If the story is printed, relatives and friends of the person concerned will feel that it is unnecessary; if it is suppressed the scandal-mongers will be disappointed, and many will insist that the editor was "bought off."

These same scandal-mongers would howl the loudest, however, if their own shady actions were held up to public gaze.

So it's hard to please everybody, and no editor of sense tries to please everybody. He must let his own judgment and his own conscience be his guide.

If he errs on the side of kindness and sympathy for the unfortunate, his error will be forgotten by the more enlightened readers of his newspaper. (The Huntsville Item).

McAdoo Speaks Behalf Garner

San Antonio, Texas, March 19 (UP)—The boom to make John N. Garner the democratic presidential nominee was given new impetus in Texas today with the claim of William Gibbs McAdoo that the Texan is the only one who can unite the democratic party.

McAdoo, war-time secretary of the treasury and son-in-law of Woodrow Wilson, declared it is impossible for a New Yorker to be elected. He did not mention the names of any other presidential candidates than that of Garner, but declared there is much resentment and suspicion against any New York candidate.

This morning he left for Houston where he will speak tonight on "how to save our wheat and cotton farmers and revive general prosperity."

Before an enthusiastic audience here last night at a banquet of the San Antonio Garner-for-president club, McAdoo reiterated his support of Garner and scolded those opposing the Speaker because he comes from the South.

"I believe it is time we got a man from south of the Mason and Dixon line. It's foolish to use as an argument that a candidate from New York or Ohio can carry those states for the electoral college."

He presented election figures to show that Woodrow Wilson was the only democrat in the last 40 years to carry New York. He scored the idea of nominating a New Yorker as was done in 1924 and 1928.

"I am not condemning any New York candidate. There is resentment in some sections against any New York candidate that is difficult to overcome," he said.

Mr. Garner has ably handled his position as speaker of the House. We can win without New York and with Mr. Garner. California is going to send a delegation for Mr. Garner to the Chicago convention. Let's nominate a man like John Garner who can unite all factions and carry the election."

Our friends, the sage of the flint lands, who has more money than he will need before the end of the depression and more food than he can eat before another crop, ham and bacon and lard and honey and beans and peas and cattle and sheep and goats and hogs running lazily about the place in good condition and he doesn't have to sell them until the price is right, dropped in on us Saturday afternoon. In the course of the conversation the Sage reminded us of the happiness we should feel at the privilege of having lived in this age when society thinks that it is wrong for one man to have three hundred wives and two or three hundred concubines, when our statute books contain but few death penalties as against the time when almost two hundred alleged crimes were punishable by death, and when the bodies and the sinews of men are no longer subject to slavery. We were getting quite ready to congratulate ourselves when the Sage suddenly changed from this line of congratulatory conditions

Turkey Talk On Special Train

For the past three weeks the Santa Fe-A&M. College special has been in the territory east of Temple, where chickens are the principal poultry product. Monday of the fourth week, however, the train entered the territory west of Temple, where turkey raising is the main poultry activity, and the exhibits on the special train were accordingly changed to represent better turkey raising methods. Mr. E. N. Holmgren, poultry specialist in charge, made the following very apt suggestions to turkey raisers:

Economic Slant:

1. Turkey crop worth ten million dollars to Texas growers annually.
2. More than seven million dollars of this money comes from other states for turkeys shipped out of Texas.
3. This means $80 for each turkey raiser.
4. There are very few commercial turkey raising plants in the State of Texas, the crop being grown by 125,000 different producers, mainly farmers.
5. Texas produces half the turkeys in the United States.

Quality:

1. The type of bird is determined by the market demand which at present is for medium-sized, well fatted, compact birds with long breast bones. Long legs should be avoided. These type specifications are associated with quick maturity.
2. Early poults pay. This means early mating and early eggs. Twenty-five to thirty pounds of feed for each bird can be saved by following these suggestions.

Feeding:

1. Lack of mineral causes the crooked breasts and other weaknesses. Use home-grown feeds and provide a mask with plenty of milk during the growing period. The grain should be increased during the fattening period.

Management:

1. Mostly sanitation. Keep turkeys away from chickens. Move the coops and feed vessels each week. Run birds on clean range that is free from stagnant water. Build roosts and keep them sprayed with carbolineum.

and with a serious, painful expression concluded: "But we are living in a serious time, men's bodies are no longer subject to slavery, but the mind is enslaved, which is worse. Men are no longer permitted to think for themselves, or they haven't the courage to think; hadly an opinion is expressed without consideration of its effect upon the business, social or political fortunes of the speaker—these are serious times, with the minds of men in chains." Think it over for yourself.—(Hamilton Herald-Record).

Mother of Tom Connally Dies

Mrs. Mary E. Connally, 87, the mother of Senator Tom Connally, died at her home in Eddy, Texas, early last Saturday morning while the Senator, her only son, was rushing from Washington, D. C. to be with her.

Mrs. Connally had been in bad health for two years and her death was not unexpected. Many people here have met Mrs. Connally, and remember her quite well. Mrs. Connally owned fine farms in the Rockwood community, this county. The funeral was held in Eddy, Texas, Sunday afternoon.

FROM POVERTY TO POWER

That American boys have no monopoly of the opportunity to rise from humble origins to places of power is pointed out by a recent writer, who names several world figures who began life in poverty.

Lloyd George, former British premier, was an orphan brought up by a cobbler.

Ramsay McDonald, the present premier, rose from abject poverty.

Aristide Briand, several times premier of France, began life as a waif.

Pierre Laval, the present French premier, was once a butcher's boy.

President Masaryk of Czechoslovakia was the son of an ignorant peasant blacksmith.

Benito Mussolini, Italian premier and dictator, was also a blacksmith's son, and himself worked as a common laborer.

And as an American parallel to the two last named it may be mentioned that President Hoover, too, was a blacksmith's son.—(Kerrville Mountain SunM).

It's open to debate whether it is more dangerous to allow your wife to drive your car or to refuse to let her.—(San Benito Light).

Santa Anna Victor in Interscholastic League Meet in Coleman Past Week

Santa Anna, for the second consecutive year, emerged victor Friday and Saturday in the Coleman County Interscholastic League Meet.

In literary events our boys and girls scored seventy points. Tennis scores climbed to thirty-five points while track and field events totaled ninety and one-half points. The winning school was given twenty extra points, making the grand total for S. A. H. S. two hundred and fifteen and one-half points.

Irene Rountree, niece of Miss Bertha Rountree, brought home a beautiful cup for winning the senior essay. Irene is a born journalist. Her editorials have won favorable comments from many. She is a leading English student, while yet a sophomore. Her obedient, gentle, magnetic personality makes her a favorite among the students.

Kathryn Creamer, daughter of Mrs. B. A. Creamer, and Ruby Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Williams, brought back the senior spelling cup. These girls are tireless workers whose unselfish devotion to S. A. H. S. has been shown before, for each spelled last year having 100 per cent papers then, as well as now. Their nearest runner-up in the contest was Valera. The girls are leading juniors.

Frances Louise Adams, daughter of Mrs. Frances Adams, won senior girls' declamation by her interpretation of Robert Ingersoll's "Vision of War." She is a public speaker of great ability, having won numerous school and state contests. She is a senior and active in class affairs.

Leon Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ward, continued his victories by winning senior boys' declamation. He gave L. A. Ostrander's "Opinions Stronger Than Armies." He has won three decisive victories during this meet and he is a junior.

Jesse Lee Sparkman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Sparkman, won the extemporaneous speaking cup again. He has a polished delivery and an abundant supply of information—no wonder he won! His speech was "Progress in Television."

JUNIORS

The Juniors showed class and school loyalty by having seventeen entries in the recent Interscholastic League Meet. This number surpassed all other classes combined.

The following first places were won by Juniors: Leon Ward, tennis singles, boys' declamation, javelin throw, and with Clifford Wheeler, the boys' doubles in tennis. Clifford Wheeler won first place in shot put, discus, and javelin. He placed second in the number of individual points. Degges Traylor won the mile run and was a member of the winning relay team. Helen Turner, Lillian Bible and Lois Crump took part in debate. Clovis Fletcher won third in shot put, both Ford, second in high hurdles, and Nowlin Myers third in discus.

Of the ninety points won in track, the Juniors won thirty. Yes, Juniors!

There's no harm in believing only half you hear, provided you believe the right half.—(Grapevine Sun).

PREPAREDNESS

There is a tide in the affairs of men, which taken at the flood leads on to fortune; omitted, all their life is spent in shallows and in miseries!

That tide came to our contestants in the Interscholastic Meet and found them ready. All who participated were helped. Their efforts proved their ability to cope with adversaries larger than they—the difference lay in the preparedness.

No citizen has done his whole duty until he has done all within his power. We have students who are capable of doing more than the daily assignments, yet they feel that the "other fellow" can enter a contest.

Thomas Henry Huxley said: "That man has had a liberal education whose mind has been so trained in his youth that his body is the ready servant of his will; ready like a steam engine, to be turned to any kind of work."

If responsibilities gravitate to those who can bear them, our brave boys and girls who forged ahead in their diligent preparation for our school's character and reputation have gained unselfish glory for dear old S. A. H. S.

To you, contestants—winners and losers—we express our thanks and sincerest appreciation. You have nobly won the overwhelming championship of the Interscholastic League in Coleman county!!

On to the district meet!

DR. HUNT SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

"I'm doing something I vowed I'd never do," said Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry College of Abilene, when he spoke to the student body in chapel Thursday morning. It seems that he and a group of boys had been disgusted with long talks in chapel by preachers and had agreed on this.

Dr. Hunt says the best speech he ever heard was one on "Justice" by a person who had to sit down because he had forgotten half of his speech.

The student body was well entertained by Dr. Hunt's mirthful anecdotes, and a feeling of cheer and good-will remained with the students the entire day.

SENIORS

The Seniors are very proud and appreciative of their classmates who entered the contests of the Interscholastic Meet. Several cups and many points were won by Seniors.

Frances Louise Adams won the senior girls' declamation cup. Jesse Lee Sparkman won the extemporaneous speaking cup. Donald Williams won first place in pole vault, second in broad jump, first in low hurdles, third in 220-yard dash, and fourth in the 100-yard dash, thereby tying for high-point man in the meet. Ernest Harrod won first place in high jump, first in broad jump and tied for fourth place in pole vault. Edwin Rollins won second place in shot put. Weldon Clark won third place in high hurdles. Rankin McIver won first place in the half-mile and ran in the relay.

JUNIOR SPELLING SATURDAY

Through some misunderstanding, the junior spelling contest will be given over next Saturday morning at ten o'clock. Our high school juniors are Sylva Ann Everett and Eddie Vaughn Mills. Our ward school entrants are Marilyn Baxter and Doris Spencer.

WORK STARTED ON SENIOR PLAY

A committee has been elected from the senior class to select the characters of the next senior play, "A College Hobo". After reading the play, this committee will make other plans and preparations. Those on the committee are: Edwin Rollins, Carl Flores, Woodrow Neill, Curtis Richardson, Marion Eads, Elizabeth Richardson, Frances Jones and Kathryn Rose Pinney.

OUR DEBATERS

Two boys and two girls gave of their time and their talent, working with their faithful coach, Miss Olivia Land, and held their ideals to the last. Even though they did not win in the meet, we feel that their efforts were comparable with their opponents' and we know that they have gained experience which will pave the way for next year.

Robert Hunter, a sophomore, Lois Crump, Helen Turner and Lillian Bible, juniors, met Miss Land at 7:30 each morning and stayed until 6:00 daily for weeks preceding the finals.

We must say that our entries certainly stayed on the subject, thereby remaining true to their good training.

TRACK BOYS ARE HONORED

Miss Mary Alice Mitchell entertained a group of champions last Saturday night with a party celebrating Santa Anna's decided victory over the entire county in both literary and athletic events.

Punch was served to the great number present, and games of various kinds were enjoyed.

PERSONALS

Jim Bob Gregg, popular sophomore, had the misfortune to break his arm while cranking a car last Monday. This is doubly unfortunate for Jim Bob in that it is his right arm. We sincerely hope that he can regain the use of this arm at an early date.

Misses Mary Harriett Simpson and Queenie Gregg were pleasing visitors at school Monday afternoon.

Myrton L. McDonald visited homefolks and school friends during the Easter holidays.

Margaret Gray of McMurry College spent Easter at home.

ENGLISH III.

Fable! Description! Short Story! Tragedy! and Comedy! These are the words that may be heard in the junior English classes and in the halls. The juniors will be story-writers in a few more days—that is what they think, but the English teacher is not so sure about it.

PUNCTUALITY

This subject was discussed by freshman and junior sponsors with their groups last Monday. With many examples of promptness and the results of doing the right thing at the right time—in the right place. We should strike the word "procrastination" from our vocabularies, for it is certainly a "thief of time."

JOKES

Bess Inez: "Why it's six o'clock and I told you to come in for supper."

Ernest Van (modestly): "That is exactly what I did come after."

Book agent (to Mr. Howard): "You ought to buy an encyclopedia now that Emmett is going to school."

Mr. Howard: "Not on your life. Let him walk the same as I did."

J. D.: "Dad, you are a lucky man."

Mr. Pieratt: "How is that?"
J. D.: "You won't have to buy me any work books next year. I'm going to have to take all of my this year's work over again."

Carl F.: "But, officer, I'm a student, a Senior."

Officer: "Ignorance is no excuse."

Marion E. (driving in car): "Look! I wonder why that dog is tagging after us?"

Besse: "Perfectly natural. It's a police dog."
