The earthquake which hit Tehachapi, Calif., and most of the rest of California damaged nearly every building in this little mountain community...

Earthquake Damage Still Being Counted

TEHACHAPI, Calif. (AP)—With 11 persons dead and more than 25 injured, Southern California today began counting the cost of the second strongest earthquake in the state's recorded history.

Walls came tumbling down. The 11th was crushed in the collapse of a guest house roof at a nearby ranch. Twenty-five persons required hospitalization.

Virtually every large business building here was damaged. The main street, deep in rubble, looked like a scene from a bombed-out city.

CANDIDATES PLENTIFUL

Many Fires Of Hope Kindled When Congressman Steps Out

By TIM PARKER
Associated Press Staff

A fire of hope is kindled in many hearts when a congressman announces he doesn't want another term.

"Here's my chance," says many a man who would not otherwise aspire to a seat in Congress. The reasoning is good: It's hard to beat the man who is "in." And when he decides to get out, those who want to succeed him have a certain equality of advantage before the voters' eyes.

This accounts for the multitude of candidates in three Texas congressional races in Saturday's Democratic primary. Nine candidates want the job from which Rep. J. M. Combs is retiring in the Second District. Five are after the Third District seat which Lindley Beekworth is giving up in hopes of being promoted to the U. S. Senate. And six want to slip into the seat being vacated by Rep. Tom Pickett of the Seventh District.

(To Succeed J. M. Combs of Beaumont)
Walter M. Casey, 50, Beaumont. A hotelman making his first try for public office. He helped reorganize city government in San Diego, Calif., his home before moving to Texas 17 years ago. Says more business-like methods, and more businessmen, needed in government.

Joe H. Tonahill, 38, Jasper attorney, former district attorney, former district Legion commander. An anti-administration candidate, he pledges economy, return of States' Rights, only candidate from upper end of district.

G. M. Stephens, 47, Beaumont lumberman, unsuccessful in two tries to unseat Combs in previous elections.

M. T. Banks Sr., 37, Negro minister at Beaumont. Banks is running on a platform including opposition to racial segregation and claims labor union support.

Dewitt Kinard, 43, Port Arthur. A general contractor and anti-administration man, Kinard is a former state legislator. Wants taxes cut, federal power curtailed.

Julian P. Greer, 54, school superintendent at the town of Vidor near Orange and a veteran of several terms in the Texas House of Representatives and State Senate. Has campaigned for both labor and businessmen's votes.

Jack Nell, 49, Beaumont. Most spectacular campaigner. A radio station operator, he has toured the district with a three-Cadillac caravan and a hillbilly singing troupe. Making his first political race, he has campaigned on an anti-administration, conservative platform.

Jack B. Brooks, 29, Beaumont. A lawyer and a member of the Texas House of Representatives, he has appealed for the district's strong labor vote, favors price control if wages are controlled, wants Taft-Hartley law revised.

Benjamin M. Harrison, 36, Beaumont city corporation court judge. A practicing attorney, Harrison also has served as a trustee of the Beaumont School District. (To succeed Rep. Tom Pickett of Palestine)
Jim Norton, 33, Nacogdoches, member of the State Legislature, World War II veteran and member of Legion. Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled Veterans, sponsored Texas soil conservation law.

W. J. (Bill) Robison, Frankston farmer and Anderson County's only contestant.

Joe Griggs, 43, Huntsville, superintendent of Huntsville schools seven years, former director of instruction and curriculum in State Department of Education.

Roger Knight, Huntsville, a state legislator and anti-administration candidate who charges waste, inefficiency, dishonesty in federal government.

Jack Wisener, Wells (Cherokee County), 31, member of State House of Representatives and Air Force veteran. Anti-administration, accuses government of over-centralization, opposes civil rights laws, or repeal of Taft-Hartley law.

John Dowdy, Athens, 40-year-old district attorney for Anderson, Houston and Henderson Counties, wants taxes cut, more local self-government, promises crack-down on Communists in government.

(To succeed Lindley Beekworth)
J. O. Duncan Jr., 25, Gilmer, member of State Legislature and youngest candidate. Decorated veteran of Korean War, he was elected to legislature in 1950 without campaigning after father filed his name.

Grady Gentry, Tyler, former chairman of the Texas Highway Commission, former Smith County judge, former secretary-treasurer of City of Tyler, county attorney.

Alton D. Wood, Arp, 44, retail lumber dealer and only candidate who has never held public office. Openly anti-administration, says will fight federal encroachment on rights of business and individuals.

R. L. Whitehead, 43, Longview, district attorney for three terms, past president of Gregg County Bar Association, a World War II veteran. Says will fight graft and corruption in Washington.

Fred Whitaker, 42, Carthage lawyer and cattleman, former Panola County attorney. Anti-fair deal, he wants federal taxes cut, pro-Communists ousted from government.

Women Invited To Participate In Swim Class

Women now have a swimming class, and they are looking for additional recruits. Tolly Baker, YMCA program secretary, instructs the group of women who are learning to swim, or to swim better, each Tuesday and Thursday at the city pool. The class hour is 10 a.m. Baker said that all women interested in the instruction should report to the pool at that time.

Rhee Says Chinese Ready For A Truce

SEOUL (AP) — President Syngman Rhee said last night the Chinese Communists are tired of having their men killed and want to compromise for a Korean truce, but the North Koreans "appear unwilling." Rhee said in an interview he understands there is "more evidence now of a split at the Chinese appear ready to yield on points of the prisoner exchange question." "This is opposed by the North Korean Communists, as I understand," Rhee told Irving R. Levine of the National Broadcasting Company.

Polio Continues Its Cruel Sweep Through The State

By The Associated Press
Polio, still a grim mystery disease, continued its cruel sweep through Texas Tuesday with four new names added to its death list.

A Grand Prairie child and a Dallas pharmacist died in Dallas. They were James E. Robinson, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Robinson of Grand Prairie and William Roy Roberts, 26. A third death occurred at Beaumont—that of T. A. Speers, 29, production superintendent of Beaumont's municipal water department.

The fourth death reported occurred Wednesday in Harlingen. John Burke Fournier, 33, radio advertising salesman for a Harlingen radio station, died of bulbar polio.

Meanwhile, five new polio cases were reported by the Houston city health department. Four were from within the Houston city limits and another was from Harris County.

The Houston toll climbed to 245 cases and eight deaths, compared to 78 cases and four deaths for the same period last year. Harris County's total went to 170 with seven deaths against 20 cases and no deaths a year ago. Two new cases reported Monday in Dallas pushed the total treated there to 153 with 11 deaths, including two death victims who contracted the disease in 1951. There have been 96 cases within the Dallas city limits with three dead; 42 county cases with one dead; and 26 cases from outside Dallas County with five dead.

One new non-resident polio victim was reported at San Antonio, three-year-old Louis Baumel of Terrell Hills. The San Antonio city health department said that since Friday no new local cases had been diagnosed.

San Antonio has had 83 resident cases this year with four deaths while in 1951 at the same time it had had 27 cases and one death.

Man Is Charged In Traffic Death

WACO, July 22 (AP)—Charges of murder were filed here yesterday against William Creswell, Houston truck driver, in the traffic death last Friday of Louis R. Alperhart, 37, of Waco. Creswell is in the hospital with serious injuries received in the auto-truck crash near Lake Waco.

Big Task Force Is On Maneuvers

PEARL HARBOR (AP)—A major U. S. task force is exercising this week off the coast of Red China Adm. Arthur W. Radford, commander of the Pacific Fleet, said yesterday. Radford called the operation a "training and familiarization program," but it was regarded here as a show of the flag and a show of force on the sea approaches to Communist China.

The fleet commander said the force was operating in the 100-mile wide straits between Formosa, the

Circular Boosting Illinois Governor

CHICAGO (AP)—A newspaper size broadsheet proclaiming "a great governor — a great candidate — Adlai E. Stevenson" was headquartered in the Conrad Hilton Hotel last night.

The broadsheets bear a label at the bottom: "This advertisement written, prepared and paid for by friends and supporters of Gov. Stevenson."

After quoting a number of individual and editorial tributes to Stevenson, it winds up: "He is needed! He can win! Nominate Stevenson and win."

Nationalist Chinese headquarters island, and the Red Mainland, its carrier plane formations probably could be seen from the Red China ports of Foochow, Amoy and Swatow.

Oil Production Makes Increase

TULSA, July 22 (AP)—Domestic crude oil and condensate production showed a 1,100-barrel daily average increase to a total of 6,062,550 barrels during the week ended July 19, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

Oklahoma accounted for more than twice the net gain, adding 2,400 barrels to 521,000 barrels. Other substantial increases were recorded in Indiana, up 1,700 barrels to 33,500; Kansas, 1,300 barrels to 328,300; Kentucky, 1,100 to 34,300; and Michigan, 1,200 to 37,600.

Wyoming and Illinois were the biggest losers, the former dropping 2,000 barrels to 185,000 and the latter slumping 1,400 to 162,700.

These were the other declines: Mississippi, down 950 barrels to 96,300; California, off 600 to 887,100; Colorado 400 to 63,600; Utah 300 to 4,300; Arkansas and Louisiana, each 200 to 80,900 and 670,750 respectively; and Montana 100 to 27,000. Texas was unchanged.

Del Mar JC Plans To Admit Negroes

CORPUS CHRISTI, July 22 (AP)—The board of regents of Corpus Christi Junior College District last night voted to admit qualified Negro residents of the district to college level classes in Del Mar Junior College.

The decision, effective Sept. 1, was on a unanimous vote. Several Negroes were denied admission to the school this summer. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People threatened court action.

The Del Mar board agreed that Negro facilities were not equal to those at the white school. It said also that it would require a $300,000 expenditure to make the two schools equal.

Workshop Opens With Conferences

FORT WORTH, July 22 (AP)—The annual student secretaries summer workshop at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary opened today with conferences and a forum on counseling college youth.

About 75 directors of Baptist student work in colleges throughout the south registered yesterday for the five-day workshop.

M. H. (Mack) Tate
Candidate for the Office of COMMISSIONER PRECINCT 3

Better government starts right at home. Better government means better living. I believe in a government for the people and by the people with courtesy to all and special favors to none. I also believe in PROGRESS, but not in WASTE. And I will appreciate your vote and influence. Do you know your one vote will count?

It has done a lot of things that have changed the history of the United States of America.

Thomas Jefferson was elected president by one vote in the electoral college. So was John Quincy Adams.

Rutherford B. Hayes was elected president by one vote, and it was referred to an electoral commission. Again he won by a single vote. The man who cast the deciding vote for President Hayes was a congressman who was elected to Congress by one vote. And that one vote was cast by a client of his who though desperately ill insisted on being taken to the polls to vote.

Just one vote gave statehood to California, Idaho, Oregon, Texas, and Washington.

The Draft Act of World War II passed the house by just one vote.

Think it over. Your one vote does count!

I will appreciate your One Vote.

Hill Recaptured By Reds, But Big Losses Inflicted

By MILO FARNETI
 SEUL, Korea (AP)—Chinese infantrymen today recaptured the crest of Old Baldy in the fifth day of a seesaw battle that has cost the Reds more than 1,000 casualties.

United Nations infantrymen still held the Southeast slope of the bitterly contested hill west of Chorwon on the Korean Western Front. Baldy overlooks both the U. N. and Communist main lines of defense.

Associated Press Correspondent George McArthur at the front said about 200 Chinese pushed through heavy U. N. tank and artillery fire and retook the shell-scarred height.

U. N. troops reached the top at 2:30 a. m. but were forced to pull back down at 9:30 a. m. in the face of counter-attacking Chinese and heavy Red artillery fire.

Official Start Today

Groundbreaking exercises at 7 p. m. today on Eleventh Place between Nolan and Gollad will mark the official beginning of the new Baptist Temple Church (pictured in this sketch above by Puckett & French). The building, which will cost around $150,000, is slated for completion by the end of the year.

After a hymn, the Rev. Cecil Rhodes, West Side Baptist pastor, will read the Scriptures and give the invocation. The Rev. J. William Arnett, district Baptist missionary, will lead the responsive reading. The Rev. Jimmie Parks, minister, will introduce Dr. Aisie Carleton, First Methodist minister and Dr. P. D. O'Brien, First Baptist pastor, who will make brief remarks. M. F. Ray, associate chairman of the East Fourth Baptist Church, from which the Baptist Temple grew, will give the groundbreaking prayer. The first shovels will be turned by the Rev. Parks, J. W. Bennett, chairman of the Baptist Temple board of deacons, and Dr. H. M. Jarratt, chairman of the building committee.

the top of Old Baldy, McArthur reported, U. S. Fifth Air Force planes plastered the area with jamming gasoline. U. N. tanks and artillery shelled the area with a tremendous barrage.

Chinese artillery knocked out three tanks in the morning fighting. U. N. fighter-bombers again hit a railroad repair center and cement factory between Samdung and Pyongyang, the North Korean capital. The Fifth Air Force said about 50 Thunderjets destroyed three buildings, damaged a tunnel and made six direct hits on a locomotive repair shed.

The rest of the 155-mile front, which was relatively quiet.

Strange Sky Object Reported By Pilot

DALLAS, July 22 (AP)—A pilot who set his propellerless plane down at Dallas told of seeing a strange sky object over West Texas yesterday.

Robert H. Hamilton of Gilroy, Calif., at first thought the weird light he saw might have had something to do with his losing his propeller.

"It was a more brilliant white light than the sun," he said, and was playing near a bank of high-altitude white clouds. He sighted the object about 10 miles northwest of Kermit.

"I know it wasn't the sunlight glaring off the wing of another plane because it didn't behave like a plane. It would hover, then jump two miles south and hover again. I watched it travel 20 miles like that. It was gone when I reached the cloud bank."

Hamilton said the object was moving at about 10,000 feet. Fifteen miles from Dallas at about 7,000 feet, Hamilton heard a "zing."

"The motor wound up fast and I throttled down," he said. "I looked up and no propeller." Hamilton glided on to Dallas, got a green light at Love Field and set his light plane down for a perfect landing.

"I might have hit a bird," he said. "The prop just disintegrated... and all I could think of was that eerie light and if it could have caused it. I know, of course, it couldn't after thinking it over."

Hamilton is a navigator for California Eastern Airways hauling Korean War supplies to Tokyo. He was on a busman's holiday on his flight to Dallas.

Italy Makes Bid As Fashion Leader

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—Making another bid for world fashion leadership a week before their Paris competitors show their wares, nine of Italy's leading couturiers unveil their fall and winter styles today in Florence's famous Pitti Palace.

On hand are buyers from major American stores and fashion editors from U. S. newspapers and magazines, as well as their European counterparts.

Advance information has talked of major changes in the fashion line — of a trend away from the rigid flared skirt, of softness both of material and line, of femininity, not exaggerated but gentle.

New materials, too, have been promised, including a revolutionary soft satin that drapes like silk.

Man-Killing Schedules Mapped By Candidates For Last Days

By The Associated Press
Development piled on development in Texas politics Tuesday as the first Democratic Primary of the 1952 presidential election year neared.

With just three days left for a campaign wind-up, candidates mapped man-killer schedules for themselves and hoped they could recuperate Saturday night in the shining light of victory.

Many would be disappointed. In a day of fast-breaking events, there were these developments as the final week of the campaign roared on:

1. Early Tuesday, contested Texas and Mississippi delegates to the Democratic national convention in Chicago that they did not want to vote on any seating contests.

2. Despite a strong trend for Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, some Democratic leaders—notably Sen. Mike Monroney of Oklahoma and Rep. Walter Baring of Nevada—still spoke out for Texas' Sam Rayburn for the Democratic Presidential nomination.

3. The conservative Texas delegation led by Gov. Allan Shivers voted, 43-16, to accept rule changes at the convention which would require members of the delegation to see to it that names of the nominees are on the state ballot.

4. Republicans—fighting tooth and nail 10 days ago—kissed and made up at a Dallas harmony meeting which saw the resignation of Orville Bullington as state GOP chairman and unanimous appointment of Carlos Watson of Brownsville to succeed him. Watson was a Taft supporter; Bullington said he took no side in the Taft-Eisenhower fracas. Both are generally regarded as Old Guard Republicans.

5. Most of the political heat in Texas still comes from the hot U.S. Senate race which involves Rep. Lindley Beckworth, Atty. Gen. Price Daniel and E. W. Napier, a Wichita Falls attorney. But the three-way governor's race—the flames fed chiefly by Candidate Ralph Yarborough and friends of incumbent Allan Shivers—matched traditionally hot election-time weather.

Heavy Talking Ahead
Daniel campaigned in Dallas Monday, made a radio broadcast Monday night and was in Fort Worth and Tarrant County towns Tuesday. He planned another radio-TV appearance from Fort Worth Tuesday evening.

For the remainder of the week, Daniel's headquarters announced this schedule for the candidate:

Wednesday—Houston and vicinity, possibly another TV appearance; Thursday—Galveston area, including Texas City, with a rally Thursday night sponsored by the Texas League of Women Voters; Friday—Port Arthur, Orange and Beaumont and a "Home Folks Ra-ly" Friday night on the eve of the primary, at Liberty.

Saturday, Daniel will vote at Liberty, his home town and await the returns.

Beckworth, who during the campaign probably has made more speeches than any candidate on the Texas political scene in years, issued an amazing wind-up to his drive. After a tour of Dallas and surrounding towns Tuesday, plus a Tuesday night (6:30-7 p.m.) Texas State Network broadcast, Beckworth will have the following schedule:

Wednesday—Beckworth and Mrs. Beckworth campaigning in San Antonio; a radio broadcast from a San Antonio station; and appearances at Marlon, Seguin, New Braunfels, San Marcos, Kyle, Bastrop, Smithville, Manheim, Giddings, Brenham, Somerville, Sook, Weiborn, and Franklin. Thursday—Amarillo, 10 a.m.; Plainview, 11:30 a.m.; Lubbock, 2 p.m.; and El Paso, 4:30 p.m., plus night appearances at Midland and Odessa. Friday—Blossing Grove, Frost, Dawson, Personville, Farrar, Jewett, Marquez, Normangee, North Zulch, Singleton, Dodge, Livingston, Shepherd, Waverly, Concord, Cleveland, Splendora, Houston, Orange, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Port Neches, Clute, Lake Jackson, Velasco, Freeport.

Friday night he planned to be at Westfield, Spring, Conroe, Willis, Waverly, Coldspring, Shepherd, New Willard, Corrigan, Diboll, Lufkin, and Wells.

In Central Texas Tuesday at Cleburne, Hillsboro, Waco, Temple, Belton, Georgetown, Round Rock, and Austin, Napier planned to continue his speaking tour from atop his red, white and blue sound wagon Wednesday at Brenham, Hempstead, Waller, Hockley, Fairbanks, Houston, Genoa, Webster, League City, Dickinson, Texas City, and Galveston.

Early Tuesday, Napier had made no announcement of his plans for Thursday and Friday.

Beckworth's 26 scheduled appearances on the final day of the campaign probably sets a record of some kind in Texas politics. But the pace in the Senate campaign has been terrific with all three candidates shaking as many hands as possible.

In Monday speeches, Daniel said his opponents had failed to make state ownership of the tidelands "a major issue in their campaigns". Napier blasted what he called "the big oil companies that are enriching themselves through our foreign arms program"; and Yarborough denied that he had done any mud-slinging but accused Shivers of false accusations against him.

Daniel spoke over a statewide radio hookup originating at Dallas. Napier spoke at Ennis, and Yarborough spoke in a morning broadcast from Austin.

Yarborough carried his campaign to Dallas and Houston Tuesday, was to be at San Antonio Wednesday and in Corpus Christi Tuesday.

Herb Petry, 34-year-old candidate for congressman-at-large, predicted in Austin that he would lead the ticket Saturday and win the post in the August run-off primary. He said President Truman should invoke "every statute in the books" to end the steel strike.

Petry announced a statewide broadcast Thursday night and said he would be in Beaumont, Port Arthur, Houston, San Antonio and Orange before election day.

Meanwhile, Gov. Shivers' friends planned to plug away for his reelection while the Governor attended the Democratic convention in Chicago.

Sen. A. M. Alkin Jr. of Paris, Rancher Earl Rudder of Brady, Rep. Bill Wood of Tyler and Attorney Frank Barras of Terrell all planned speeches in a Tuesday night statewide broadcast, set for 7-7:15 p.m.

Shivers' state campaign manager, Jack Dillard of Waco, said, "These men have had a part in designing and initiating a Democratic middle-of-the-road program for Texas."

Barnes was quoted in a prepared statement as saying there has been "too much mud-slinging, too many wild, misleading and absolutely false utterances hurled in opposition to Allan Shivers."

Yarborough had said in his latest speech: "The only vilification and false statements in this campaign have come from the governor's own mouth because he has issued false accusations against me."

Expense C'ted
"His machine is conducting today one of the most expensive campaigns in the history of Texas and one of the most slanderous and vituperative."

Said Napier in his speech: "We have just concluded a treaty with Iran that will allow us to establish bases in that country to defend British and American oil companies in Persia against the people of Persia."

"We soon will be fighting for Standard Oil."

And said Price Daniel: "If the theory of 'paramount federal rights'—the theory under which our tidelands were taken—is allowed to stand on the lawbooks, it may become the cornerstone for a bureaucratic empire of nationalization and regimentation which will turn back the clocks of progress and undo gains we have made under two Democratic administrations."

Bracero Labor Contracts May Be Cancelled

ALBUQUERQUE, July 22 (AP)—Farmers hiring Mexican contract laborers scheduled a meeting in Las Cruces, N. M., today to discuss the cancellation of all bracero contracts in New Mexico.

The cancellation was announced last night by Maurice F. Miera, employment security director for New Mexico.

"We have received a wire from the regional office in Denver that Col. Haul Michel, Mexican consul in El Paso, Tex., has said his government requested the action," Miera said.

He said the Mexican government demands that Mexican contract workers in New Mexico be paid $2.50 per 100 pounds for cotton picked, while New Mexico growers have offered $2.00.

Michel asked that 4,000 nationals in the state be returned to Mexico. Miera said the real pinch in the New Mexico farm labor situation would come at harvest when normally New Mexico farmers employ about 25,000 braceros.

The Governor Turns Thumbs Down

Asking "How do you stop this?" but smiling in high good humor as several state delegations spurred on a six-minute ovation and demonstration for him, Illinois' Gov. Adlai Stevenson makes a gesture from the rostrum of the Democratic National Convention. The demonstration was considered unusual because the state executive was making a mere welcoming speech to the Chicago meeting. Many of his supporters are trying to get him to allow his name to be placed in the running for the party's presidential nomination, but so far he has turned thumbs down—just as he did at the speaker's stand here. Russells Of Georgia And Hollywood Meet

CHICAGO (AP)—Two widely known Russells got together here last night—Jane the movie actress and Richard the bachelor presidential aspirant.

Miss Russell, in the city for the opening of a new film, met the Georgia senator in his campaign headquarters.

Any relation? Well, the senator said they could be "kissin' cousins" from the South.

Miss Russell said she was born in California but had once lived for 15 months in Georgia—at Ft. Benning.

The senator said all Russells came from the same place.

Is she supporting the senator? "Well," she said, "We Russells must stick together." She wore two big Russell-for-President buttons.

Seek Prospector In Double Slaying

CRATER LAKE, Ore. (AP)—Officers intensified a search for a 67-year-old prospector today in connection with the slaying of two vacationing motor firm executives.

The bodies of A. M. Jones, 56, Concord, Calif., and C. P. Culhane, about the same age, Detroit, Mich., were found in this Southern Oregon national park yesterday. They were executives of United Motors Service Corp., Detroit.

Police speculated George Dunkin, a prospector sought in the killing of a state policeman last month, was in the area.

The wallets of both the dead men were empty when searchers found their bodies about a quarter mile back in the woods off the main road. They had been gagged with their own neckties and parts of a torn shirt and shot in the head.

Loyalists Say They Won Great Victory

By MARTHA COLE
CHICAGO, July 22 (AP)—The Democratic Loyalists of Texas declare they won a great liberal victory down by the Chicago stockyards in today's early hours.

But the conservative regulars said it didn't make any difference to them.

This is the day of counting for the conservatives.

The Democratic convention adopted a new rule in those after midnight hours. It requires all delegates to go back home and work to assure that the names of the Democratic nominees for President and vice president will be on the Democratic ballot.

The conservative delegation, led by Gov. Allan Shivers is temporarily seated on the convention floor. How long they'll sit there comes up before the credentials committee of the convention today (9 a.m. CST).

The Texas Loyalists want those seats. They say the Shivers people aren't entitled to them because they wouldn't take the party loyalty pledge.

Before that committee meeting begins, the Shivers people are causing to see how many will accept the ballot promise as individuals. Then they will tell the committee.

Last night, before midnight, the Shivers delegations took off their coats, closed the doors of a jammed caucus room in the convention hall and sweated through 30 minutes of talking it over.

Then they opened the doors and announced they had voted 43-16 by show of hands to accept that promise of getting the Democratic nominees on the ballot.

"We interpret this as requiring nothing more than Texas law now requires," Shivers told reporters, "and that is that the people of Texas who want to vote for the nominee of this convention will have an opportunity to do so."

The 43-16 vote also approved a rule that prevents the Texas delegation from voting on their own contest. The whole convention adopted that, too.

But the Texans did not have to vote on whether they would take a party pledge to vote for the party nominees. The conservatives considered that a victory. The state convention voted not to require the party pledge.

The seated Texans stood up and waved their big white hats when Gov. Shivers mounded the convention platform before debate began.

"In the spirit of justice and fair play I come here," the governor said, "to say the regular delegation does not desire to vote on any matter that affects its contest."

Shivers did not tell the convention that a majority of his delegation had approved the ballot promise.

A parade of speakers from Southern states followed to oppose the ballot promise. Some said it was against their state laws and the resolutions of their Democratic organization at home.

Shivers got up again to urge the convention to make careful study before passing something that would be against a state's statutes.

"These states are going to be needed," he said, "and you'll make one of the biggest mistakes of your life if you run any of them out tonight."

That's all he said—he didn't speak against the promise as such.

But Maury Maverick of San Antonio, leader of the Texas Liberals, interpreted that speech another way.

"He spoke against it, didn't he?" he told reporters. "It's a great liberal victory for us."

Told that a majority of the conservative delegation had okayed it, Maverick declared "It's a trick."

Maverick was up in the balcony during the night's proceedings. Scattered around him were his seafaring delegates, wearing big white badges printed with "Seat Texas Mavericks."

gation from voting on their own contest. The whole convention adopted that, too.

Magazine Racks Are Among Smartest Home Accessories

By ELIZABETH HILLYER

It's a well planned household that has the problem of magazine storage in hand. All too often a choice must be made between tossing magazines out before everybody has read them; or scattering them anywhere to clutter the room. Why not save the copies you want and use them to decorate the room? It can be done by tucking them into a smart little magazine rack. Racks are among the most eye-catching of new room accessories, and they couldn't be handier. They organize monthly reading matter, set it under hand beside a reading chair and are strikingly decorative at the same time. The favorite material for them is black metal, although these four new ones designed by Seymour Robbins may also be had in chrome or brass. Any one of the three metals is lightweight and strong and the racks hold great stacks of magazines without looking overcrowded. One especially shows its sturdiness by adding a generous-sized shelf for books.

Bonds Set In Cattle Case

EL PASO, July 22 (AP)—Four West Texas cattlemen were freed today, awaiting grand jury action in October on a federal charge of smuggling Mexican cattle into the United States.

They are: Wilson Irvin Babb, his brother, Walter, and Tom C. Grubb all of Sierra Blanca; and Joseph T. Merchant, Midland cattle buyer.

They appeared yesterday before U. S. Commissioner Henry Clifton, who set the bond.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Holvey Williams said two other defendants, Big Spring truck drivers, would surrender before the U. S. Commissioner in Pecos and make bond.

The men are charged with smuggling 313 head of cattle across the border 38 miles south of Sierra Blanca. The animals passed through Midland and San Angelo sales rings and were scattered over three states. The Bureau of Animal Industry seized and destroyed more than 200 head of the cattle.

Importing Mexican cattle is prohibited because of foot-and-mouth disease in Mexico.

Big Gasser Logged In East Texas Field

KILGORE, July 22 (AP)—Stanford and Continental's No. A-1 Hodern in the Woodland Field became what is believed today to be the biggest gasser in East Texas when a Railroad Commission test raised it as good for 310,000,000 cubic feet daily.

The big gasser is in the S. F. Sparks survey, 10 miles north of Marshall in Harrison County.

Pay was from perforations in two lower Pettit lime zones at 6,412-36 and 6,459-6,500 feet.

Distillate was figured at 41.8 barrels to the million cubic feet of gas, or a potential of 12,958 barrels daily.

"Let me pull this dirty apron off," said A. (Lecie) Knappe, the West Texas barbecue king, when we asked for his picture at the Settlers Reunion, and he started tugging at the strings.

We wouldn't want your picture without that apron. You wouldn't look natural," we replied.

"Then go ahead and shoot," he said in about such tones as Barbara Fritchie, the heroine of Whittier's poem, must have used when Stonewall Jackson's troops marched into Fredericktown.

After gathering up some background of Nath J. Allen (left), another man who knows the best ways to blend mesquite smoke, sauce and beef; Charles Robinson, who lives near Midway and who has been in this country a long, long time, and Sam Childress of Glasscock County, the vice president of the Reunion, we shot the picture. Adding together the number of years these men have been in West Texas would produce a string of figures that might possibly be confused with something like the national debt. They've seen things change faster than the men of any other generation in the history of the human race.

May we see them, and all the others, at many, many more of the reunions that are to come, and may we all, always remember that it was men such as these who made this country liveable for those who have followed them into it. When they arrived here this country wasn't any fit place for people who are afraid of drouths and who don't like the inconvenience of dust storms.

The reorganization of the Soil Conservation Service is making at least two changes in the Big Spring office.

Albert Jordan, who came here from Midland as work unit conservationist more than five years ago is being transferred to Stamford, Jones County, on a promotion, and Jake Hodges, who received his initial SCS training here, after combat service in World War II, and who has been serving as Jordan's assistant, is being promoted to the post of work unit conservationist at Snyder. Jordan's home is at Paris, and Hodges hails from Comanche.

We hate to lose these two fellows, wish them good luck and hope they'll be back and see us often. They have done a wonderful job here, according to all the ranchers and farmers with whom they've worked in a co-operative conservation program.

Farmers and ranchers who want a look at the Bufflegross which is proving so popular in West Texas may look at the clump of it we have growing in front of the Herald office. This grass hasn't had hardly any rain on it but has gotten wet a couple of times while the shrubs were being watered. We got the teaspoonful of seed through the courtesy of the supervisors of the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District who happened to leave a sack where we could get into it. The seed were in the ground between six weeks and two months before there was enough moisture to sprout them. Literally, there was hardly more than a teaspoonful.

As to its taste appeal to cattle—if you doubt it bring one of your bulls along and let him get a bite. But if you bring the bull please be careful of the plate glass window when he sees his reflection, because just inside the window are Joe Pickle and Tommy Hart. While not just exactly show pieces, they do happen to be the ones we display in that window. As soon as we can catch a Dog-Patcher we'll move these boys farther back in the sanctum.

There is no reason on earth to fear to use the average piece of electrical equipment designed for agricultural purposes but every rule of safety should be observed, and regular inspections of such equipment by qualified electricians is to be recommended.

A few days ago a Corpus Christi woman, Mrs. Gertrude Reed, 45, was killed by electrocution while trimming grass with an electric edge cutting machine. Mrs. Reed was barefooted and walked through wet grass while using the cutter. She died instantly.

Virginia Paris and chorus: "God Bless America."

Appointment of committee to escort the permanent chairman to the rostrum.

Address: Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, permanent chairman of the convention.

Movie Is Banned By Ohio Censor

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Ohio's movie censors have rejected the controversial movie, "The Miracle," for showing in Ohio on grounds it is "harmful."

The U. S. Supreme Court recently ruled against an action by the New York State censors in rejecting "The Miracle" on the ground it was sacrilegious.

Dr. Clyde M. Haseong, Chief Ohio movie censor, said sacrilegious grounds did not enter into the decision of Ohio's censors.

He said objectionable sections of the film "exploit immoral conduct, if not directly, certainly indirectly and by inference."

FDR Jr. Could Be Candidate For Veep

By RELMAN MORIN

CHICAGO (AP)—A few days ago, the political writers covering the Democratic convention here asked Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. whether he himself might turn out to be a candidate for the vice presidency.

"That's an iffy question," he snapped (quoting his famous father), "and a silly one."

It may have sounded iffy-silly last week, but it doesn't today.

Roosevelt hit the convention like a ton of bricks in a five-minute appearance. What he said was of less importance than the obvious impression it made on the Democrats. He looks like a man who is going places in politics—and in the not-distant future.

Early this morning, in the midst of a typical Democratic hassle, Roosevelt was announced as a speaker.

He came to the platform wearing a blue summer suit, a television blue-and-white tie, and a Harriman button. (He is Harriman's campaign manager.) A cowl of hair, curving down past his right eyebrow gave him an engagingly boyish look.

The delegates, at just that moment, were in no very amiable mood. It was getting on toward 2 a. m. and they were hot and tired.

They were in the midst of an argument over a proposal to exact from the delegates a "loyalty pledge" to the party's nominees, when finally they are chosen. Some Southern delegates were bucking and kicking, and hollering "foul!"

because the resolution had been brought in so late, and with little time for deliberation.

Roosevelt bounced into view, flashed a Grade-A Roosevelt smile, and waved a big paw like a happy young bear.

The atmosphere changed in a wink. It was as though a breath of fresh air swept through the blue haze of tobacco smoke and the hot, silvery light. Delegates by the thousands came to their feet, clapping and cheering.

The magic of the name, alone, probably accounted for part of the reception. The rest belonged to him in his own right.

Roosevelt spoke fluently, and off the cuff, without ever reaching for a word. He has more emphasis, more volume, but less resonance of voice, than his father had. And less of the practiced timing.

His audience, suddenly still, was like a giant canvas, a painter's study in faces.

Some seasoned politicians watched Roosevelt with expert, appraising eyes. They looked like handicappers, sizing up a promising colt in the early morning.

The roar for Roosevelt, when he finished, was far greater than when he began. It was genuinely spontaneous. And it was the second of its kind during the day.

Adlai Stevenson, the man so many of them want as a presidential candidate, stirred the other one.

These two have set many a Democrat a-wondering.

Dallas Libel Suit To Resume Today

DALLAS, July 22 (AP)—The million-dollar libel suit of Harry M. Hoxey resumes today in 44th District Court where Federal Judge William H. Atwell sent it yesterday.

Dist. Court Judge W. L. Thornton had asked that Judge Atwell rule on where the case should be charged. Selection of jurors began after the suit was returned to district court.

Hoxey, Dallas cancer clinic operator, sued Dr. Morris Fishbein of Chicago, former director of publications for the American Medical Association, because of an article written by the doctor in February, 1948.

Alcoholism Rate Is Average In Texas

DALLAS, July 22 (AP)—A U. N. consultant on alcoholism says Texas ranks about midway on the list of states in the percentage of alcoholics per 100,000 population.

Dr. Elvin M. Jellinek, author of the internationally used "Jellinek Estimation Formula" for determining the number of drunks in a locality, stopped here briefly last night.

"Rural Texans are mostly very sober folks," he said, "on the average, that is."

"City Texans drink about like city people in any other state."

He added that "Houston had more chronic alcoholics than any other city in the state."

"Jura" is the name of a department of France, a European range of mountains and an island near Scotland.

MEETING THURSDAY

Mass Chest X-Ray Survey To Be Set

Plans for the annual mass chest X-ray survey will be mapped Thursday at a meeting of Howard County officials and other interested persons with Charles H. Hoover, State Health Department representative.

Dates for the anti-tuberculosis survey haven't been set. Hoover probably will advise local officials Thursday of the times x-ray equipment may be booked for the local program.

Surveys are held annually for the purposes of locating tuberculosis infections in persons not conscious that they have the disease. Scores of local residents thus have learned that they had tuberculosis and were able to start treatment in time to assure a cure.

Oscar Glickman is chairman of the X-ray survey, a post he held last year when several thousand

Howard County residents received the free examinations. All members of the tuberculosis association and other interested persons have been invited to the Thursday meeting at 2 p. m. in the Big Spring-Howard County Health Unit.

Although the diamond is the hardest cutting object, second is tungen carbide, a synthetic material developed in Germany.

Possibility Of New Shallow Zone For NE Howard Is Seen

Possibility of a new shallow productive zone in Howard County was seen Tuesday on the basis of a showing made by Coronet No. 1 Brookhage, 2 1/2 miles east of Vincent.

This test flowed 12 1/2 barrels of 20.5 gravity oil in an hour as part of a drillstem test. The zone tentatively was identified as the San Angelo.

In northwestern Howard a drillstem test on Stanolind No. 1 Simpson returned only drilling mud and deepening was in order.

A wildcat test has been staged five miles south of Colorado City by Scourlock Oil Co. and will be its No. 1 W. R. Powell.

One Weddell (Spraberry) well completed in southwest Sterling, while another just across the line in Reagan County abandoned.

Tex Harvey Employees No. 1 Chappell got only light returns in the Effenbarger top and was plugged back to test shows in a Mississippi detrital. A failure in the Ellenburger, Humble No. 1 Dayvaut was to plug back and sample light shows in the lower Strawn.

Plymouth No. 1 Morris, a mile and a half northeast of Stanton, had installed pump and will make production tests as soon as storage can be provided. Just south of Lomax, Sinclair No. 1 Hall was taking a drillstem test in the lower Spraberry Tuesday.

Borden

V. A. Brill No. 1 Good, a mile and a half east of the Vealmoor pool and 14-53-3n, T&P, drilled to 3,465 in lime.

Ashman & Hilliard No. 1 C Long, C NE NE 7-30-4n, T&P, drilled to 7,200 in lime and chert.

Herring No. 1 Mack, C SW SW 13-25, H&TC, 15 miles southeast of Gall, drilled below 4,731 in shale.

Sinclair No. 1 Williams, C NE

NE 45-32-6n, T&P, was installing pump and will make a production test to complete from the Mississippi, which has been tested through perforations from 9,815-68 with 3,000 gallons of acid.

Union of California No. 1 Loggie, C SE SW 9-32-6n, T&P, drilled to 3,345 in lime and shale.

Cities Service No. 14 Dupree, C NW SE 67-M, EL&RR, was at 12,099 in lime and chert and was trying to regain lost circulation.

El Tee No. 1-95 Classen, C SE SW 95-M, EL&RR, drilled to 8,354 in lime and shale.

Sinclair No. 1 Scott, C SE SE 161-M, EL&RR, drilled to 11,118 in lime and shale.

American Republics No. 1 Buckner Orphans Home, C SW SW 17-35-5e, T&P, fractured from 7,350-7,380 and from 7,416-7,436 with a total of 6,900 gallons of acid.

The zone is the lower Spraberry. Operator shut the well in to give the hydraulic time to work. Then it will be opened and swabbed to test.

Sinclair No. 1 G. T. Hall, C SW NW 6-34-2n, T&P, in Northern Glasscock and just south of the Lomax community, was taking a drillstem test from 6,990-7,065. It had cut two 50-foot cores and some of the section had fractures and bleeding oil in the lower Spraberry.

Sinclair No. 1 Clark, a northeast outpost to the Driver Spraberry area in Southwest Glasscock, was still shut down awaiting rotary.

Howard

Coronet No. 1 Brookhage, C SW SW 4-25 H&TC, 2 1/2 miles east of Vincent, a failure in the Strawn at 7,755-7,769 when watery gas-cut mud was recovered, plugged back somewhere around 3,100 in a Permian formation. A straddle test with top packer set at 2,821 and the bottom one at 2,911 was taken with the tool open four hours and 12 minutes. Oil surfaced after one hour and 12 minutes and flowed to pits for two hours. There was some water but it was load water, and there was no gauge or estimate on the flow in this period. By the time it had flowed to the pits for two hours, the test was making all oil. Then it was cut to the tanks for an hour and made 12 1/2 barrels of 20.5 gravity oil. Shalecut was one per cent basic sediment and drilling water. The section was said to be the San Angelo lime. Operator will plug back to 2,900 and cement 5 1/2-in. casing, perforate and make production tests for a shallow discovery.

Stanolind No. 1 Simpson, C SW NW 21-33-3n, T&P, Northwest Howard exploration, took a drillstem test from 7,955-8,046 with the tool open one hour. There was a slight flow of air for 50 minutes. Recovery was 20 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, gas or water. Open flow pressure was zero, the 15-minute shutin pressure 80 pounds. It is deepening.

Stanolind No. 1 A Snyder, C NW NW 20-30-1s, T&P, four miles southeast of Coahoms, drilled below 9,070 in lime and chert.

Martin

Gulf No. 1-P-A Glass, C SE NW 12-35-1n, T&P, drilled past 5,850 in lime and shale.

Plymouth No. 1 Morris, C NW SW 7-35-1s, T&P, a mile and a half northeast of Stanton, had installed pump and as soon as oil can be moved from tanks and storage made available, testing will be started.

Stanolind No. 1 Cowden, C SE SW 30-40-1n, T&P, drilled below 12,810 in lime.

Stanolind No. 1 Flynn, C SW SW 12-34-8, Hartley CSL, was past 11,114 in lime.

Midland

Magnolia No. 4-L TXL, 1,980 from the south and 600 from the west lines section 17-37-4s, T&P, Driver Spraberry pool, flowed 24 hours through 24-64 choke after 10,000 gallons acid. It made no water and 264.8 barrels of 37 gravity oil. Gas-oil ratio was 680-1, elevation

2,764; top pay 7,215, total depth 7,215; the 5 1/2-in. at 7,185.

Mitchell

Hunt No. 1 Hodnett, C SE NE 89-97, H&TC, drilled to 7,864 in lime and shale.

Scourlock Oil No. 1 W. R. Powell, 600 from the north and 1,580 from the east lines of section 83-27, T&P, six miles south of Colorado City, will be a wildcat projected to 7,800 feet.

Sterling

Tex Harvey Employees No. 1 Chappell, C SE SE 43-18, SPRR, drilled plug and tested the Ellenburger in open hole from 7,754-60, the section having been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid and treated with 2,000 gallons of regular acid. Operator swabbed 100 feet of oil and 250 feet of sulphur water in an unreported length of time. Then the test was plugged back and perforated from 7,672-7,677 in a Mississippi detrital formation for another test. This had shown oil in drilling to total depth.

Humble No. 1 Dayvaut, C NE NE 13-15, H&TC, took a drillstem test in the Ellenburger from 8,133-77 with the tool open 3 1/2 hours. Recovery was 300 feet of water-cut mud and 1,000 feet of salty sulphur water. There were no shows of oil or gas. Operator will plug back around 8,000, set casing and test the lower Strawn. Delta Guy Drilling Co. and Delta Guy Drilling No. 1 Calfin H. Sugg was announced as a location in the Weddell (Spraberry) field of Southwest Sterling. It will be 17 1/2 from the south and 600 from the west lines of a 41-acre lease in the Calfin H. Sugg Scrap Field A-1.327. This is about half a mile east of a producer.

A mile west in Reagan County, Atlantic No. 1-56 Sugg, bottomed at 5,276 in Spraberry shale, plugged and abandoned. It is located 660 from the south and east lines of section 56-2, T&P.

Such assurance shall be given by the chairman of such delegation, and shall not be binding upon those delegates who shall so signify, to the Credentials Committee prior to its report to this convention.

Damage Is Light In Traffic Mishap

A truck and pickup were involved in a minor traffic mishap at Third and Lancaster about 7 p.m. Monday.

Joe Reed Hamlin was driver of the truck and John William Carter, operator of the pickup, police reported. Damage was slight and no injuries reported.

Development Plans For New Area Due

Plans for development of an area north of Howard County Junior College and east of Birdwell Lane will be outlined for the benefit of city commissioners at their weekly meeting today.

John Little, engineer for H. S. Moss, owner of the land, is to discuss development plans. Commissioners last week were advised that Moss will ask annexation of a tract of some 50 acres in the area.

Plat of the proposed development probably will be discussed, as well as the possibility of annexation.

The commission is to meet at 5 p.m. at City Hall.

Animal Poisoning Reports Revived

First report of animal poisoning efforts in several months reached police Monday.

Mrs. L. E. Lisbene, 1411 Main, reported that her dog had been poisoned.

Both police and health authorities warn against the indiscriminate use of poison for any purpose, pointing out that children as well as pets may be poisoned.

Harmony Between Georgia And Texas

Senator Richard Russell (left) of Georgia and Gov. Allan Shivers, leader of an anti-Truman "Regular" delegation which favors Russell, are a picture of harmony as they pose with a small Texas state flag during Russell's visit to the group in Chicago on the eve of the Democratic National Convention. He told the Texans he believed the Democratic National Convention will stick by the national committee in seating the Shivers' group. (AP Wirephoto).

GOP Only Talked Civil Rights, Negroes Assert

CHICAGO (AP)—A Negro congressman told the Democratic convention today that President Truman "swept the cobwebs" of equality laws while Republicans did nothing but talk.

"The people know what Truman has done and is still doing about civil rights," said Rep. William L. Dawson of Illinois, vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

"They know that President Truman swept the cobwebs off of constitutional equality under the law and made it a revitalizing principle in the heart of every black American."

"High sounding phrases by Republican speech-makers have not unfrankly done it," said Rep. Frank D. Roosevelt, Truman and the Democratic party have done...

Dawson's speech was one of five prepared for today's early session. It came as delegates were threatening out in committee the civil rights plank of their platform—the issue which split the party in 1948.

Sharing the speakers' program with Dawson were Georgia Nease Clark, treasurer of the United States; Perle Mesta, U. S. minister to Luxembourg; Eugene Anderson, U. S. ambassador to Denmark; and Richard J. Nelson, president of the Young Democratic Clubs of America.

Of five speeches, only Mrs. Mesta's did not touch on the Republican-Democrat tussle in the November presidential election.

Mrs. Mesta said she would like to see more women in politics, as well as in industry, the professions, the government and the military.

Mrs. Anderson said American foreign policy, under Democratic administrations, is forging unity throughout the world to stem Communist aggression.

"Our purpose is peace—human welfare—and human freedom," she said. "This is what all free men want and will work for. It is what we Americans... will choose again in November."

Mrs. Clark said Republicans "can't take a hint." Every four years since 1932, she said, they "point with alarm, but when pinned down they say 'me too'."

"What a tragedy it would be... if they should actually break through in an unguarded moment," she said, "and seize the power to reverse the march of progress in this country."

Nelson said the Republican platform is full of "confused contradictions." He said it actually states the principles of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

Mossadegh Is Renominated

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Iran's Parliament overwhelmingly renominated Mohammed Mossadegh Premier today after two days of bloody Nationalist rioting and disorder had forced the more moderate Ahmed Qavam from the office.

Qavam's announced determination to seek a settlement of Iran's dispute with Britain set off Communist-strengthened Nationalist mobs who screamed through the streets for his death and battled with police and troops.

Twenty persons reportedly were killed in the fighting which raged through the capital yesterday. Disorders erupted in other parts of the country. Qavam resigned yesterday afternoon.

Mossadegh, the aged Nationalist hero who pushed nationalization of Iran's British-operated oil industry to completion last year, quit the premiership last week after Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi refused to let him be war minister as well as Premier.

Dever Rallies Party As Delegates Cheer

By WARREN ROGERS JR. CHICAGO (AP)—Convention keynote Paul A. Dever rallied Democrats last night to what he predicted would be their sixth straight election victory over Republican "malice" and "fossils."

The Massachusetts governor, amid roars and rebel yells, threw up his arms and shouted: "We have vanquished them before—we shall vanquish them again."

Swinging steadily through his 4,500-word speech, Dever heaped party and praise upon the Democratic administrations—particularly those of Presidents Woodrow Wilson, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman.

He made no mention of the Democrats' wide-open race for the presidential nomination this year. But he blasted the Republican nominee Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, as a complete novice unqualified for the presidency.

The Republican convention two weeks ago, Dever said, raised "only the voice of the fossil." The platform adopted by the GOP then, he said, is: "A showman declaration, conceived in malice, and dedicated to the proposition that all the great achievements of the last 20 years should be swept away."

In choosing Eisenhower as standard bearer over Ohio's Sen. Robert A. Taft, he said, the Republicans "threw overboard the faithful pilot who had guided them for years and placed at their helm one whose whose knowledge of navigation was confined to other waters."

The 1952 election issue, he said, is "to keep the peace." Neither the GOP nor Eisenhower can do this, he contended, but the Democratic party's record against Communist aggression has proved it can.

Dever made only passing reference to civil rights, the issue which split the 1948 Democratic convention and has imperiled North-South unity at this one.

"On this issue, as in all others," he said, "the Democratic party must forever move forward."

Dever said his personal belief upholds laws guaranteeing "full economic opportunity for all Americans, regardless of color, creed, age or racial origin."

In a prelude earlier in the day to Dever's keynote talk, National

Man Is Jailed On Checking Out

J. R. Price has been lodged in the county jail on a charge of passing worthless checks.

Price was rounded up by peace officers after an extended chase Monday. He was taken in Martin County after he had twice eluded local authorities on "quick get-aways."

Once taken into custody, Texas Highway Patrolman also charged him with operating a motor vehicle with fictitious license plates.

Two Divorces Are Granted By Court

Two divorces were granted by Judge Charlie Sullivan in 118th District Court Monday afternoon.

The marriage of Polly Sue and James W. Whately was dissolved by official decree, as was that of Ina Mesta and William P. Davis.

In another case, clear from the docket, agreed judgment for the amount of $200 was awarded L. W. Martin, who was suing the U.S. Fidelity and Guaranty Company for compensation.

No Injuries In Area Collisions

Automobiles driven by Jenny Jean Miller, 24, and Louis Waters Butler, 66, were in a collision on the Gall road some four miles east of town at about 10:30 o'clock last night but no injuries were reported.

The 1951 convertible driven by Miss Miller was damaged when, after being sideswiped by Butler's machine, it continued on and ran into a pole.

Butler, who was approaching Big Spring, said the lights of the other vehicle blinded him when he came up over a rise.

Highway patrolmen made the investigation.

Roy Lane, Odessa, was driver of a car which collided with a tree just west of the city on Highway 80 at 1 p.m. Monday.

She was slightly injured but continued on to Abilene for treatment. She was on her way to see a relative in the hospital there at the time of the mishap.

Quarterly Dividend Is Voted By Cosden

Cosden Petroleum Corp. directors closed out their meeting here Monday by declaring another quarterly dividend of 25 cents per share.

This maintained the annual rate of 100 cents per share on common stock, and it was the third quarterly dividend of the year. It will be payable Sept. 12 to stockholders of record as of Sept. 2.

whoever winds up, with the grand prize, goes out to scrap with GOP nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Southern delegations were holding caucuses this morning.

Although some Southern states supported the "loyalty pledge," delegates from others were steamed up over it.

"They didn't like the pledge in the first place and were hot under the collar besides over the way it was brought up after midnight and slammed through at two o'clock in the morning without a roll call vote."

During the heated debate, Sen. A. Willis Robertson of Virginia suggested to the convention that Stevenson might refuse a nomination if the party was split asunder. He said he didn't believe Stevenson would take it "on a gold-plated, much less a silver one."

NEW TRY

was more than two to one to continue the program.

It was following this statement of Jones and the vote that the motion was made authorizing Temporary Chairman Greene to appoint a committee to form a steering committee looking to the matter of setting up a permanent county organization.

The meeting was opened by showing a color film illustrating the theory and practice of seeding clouds with silver iodide nuclei from ground generators to increase precipitation. This theory and practice, as well as the operational procedures of the WT-WID and the WRDC were also discussed by Allen and Sullivan and a few questions were asked from the floor.

It was not indicated how many members will be named to the steering committee this afternoon or when the first meeting of that committee will be called.

As initially set up it was planned to raise Howard County's quota by enrolling cultivated land at three cents an acre, grass land at one cent an acre, and by contributions from business and professional people. It was indicated last night this is the plan that will be followed by the newly-formed organization.

The meeting was stimulated with a description given by Ed Simpson of a three-inch rain recently received on his farm. Simpson attributed this rain to cloud seeding and said it was the most unusual he had ever seen, very small drops falling slowly, and giving excellent penetration with no runoff.

Allen and Sullivan explained this is the characteristic of seeded precipitation.

Simpson told the meeting that although he had enrolled his land and paid the required fee at the time the program was initiated, he was willing to enroll it two or three times more and pay another fee every time to help the project along. "I believe in it," he said.

Not all those attending were so enthusiastic, however. Two men expressed themselves as being definitely against the project and a few more indicated a similar attitude on a vote. Others said they were strictly neutral.

"That we, the members of the Aeronautics Committee of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, do hereby request that the Board of Directors of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, give this resolution immediate attention; and we further request that the planning and eventual securing of a permanent facility for air line, commercial and private flying, for Big Spring and Howard County, Texas be the No. 1 project of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce until realization of same."

RETIREMENT GEAR

E. L. Killingsworth, left, retiring city engineer, receives a casting rod and other tackle from city employees who gathered in City Park Monday evening at a surprise "farewell party" for Killingsworth.

City Manager M. W. Whitney presented the fishing gear. "Killy" will leave Big Spring late this month, having retired as city engineer after nearly seven years of service. He hopes to regain use of a failing voice by "doing a little fishing" and resting at his home on the shores of Lake Waco. On handing Killingsworth the fishing tackle, Whitney said he understands that time spent fishing isn't counted in man's allotted three score and 10 years.

Arencibia Records 12th Win Behind Steeds, 6-2

Blue-ribbon hurling by Aramis Arencibia gave the Big Spring Broncs a 6-2 win over the Midland Indians here Monday night in the first of a two-game set.

Arencibia, in piecing together his 12th mound success of the year, spaced out five hits. He had his worst moments in the last two heats, when his control temporarily deserted him.

Just when it appeared Manager Pat Stasey was going to have to rush in Gil Guerra as a replacement, however, Arencibia righted himself and waded out of the hot water.

A four-run uprising in the fifth, spaced by Stasey's tenth home run of the season, helped put the decision on ice.

The Warriors went out in front in the initial canto when Earl Bossenberry tripled, waited around at third base until two men had been retired and then trotted home on a one-baser by Pat O'Keefe.

Big Spring tied it up immediately. Oasie Alvarez singled with one out, stole second, went to third on a single by Whity Quintana and churned home on an infield out.

The Broncs issued passes to Pinch Hitter Gablen Dinkal and Bossenberry in the eighth but got out of the jam when he forced Pat Waters to pop to third, struck out Manny Temes and had O'Keefe skying to center.

In the ninth, Julio Delatorre and Bill Brown walked to begin the frame but Scooter Hughes bounced into a double play. Ed Menapace brought in the second Midland tally with a single but Pinch Hitter Woody Pennington flew out to Stasey in right to end the game.

TOUCHING ALL SACKS — Al Costa hit a sixth inning double for Big Spring that stayed just inside the left field foul line down in the corner. Al Valdes, the Broncs catcher, tried to move Buddy Grimes along on a sacrifice in the second but popped up to Geraci to start a double play.

Stasey's three RBIs brought to 83 his total for the season. Arencibia struck out eight batters, which is above average for him. He usually prefers to make the batters hit the ball on the ground or pop up.

Schmidt Donning Odessa Uniform
ODESSA — The Odessa Oilers have added another player in their campaign to retain first place in Longhorn League standings.

He is Burt Schmidt, 195-pounder, who came here from Amarillo of the WT-NM League.

He is a veteran outfielder who lives in Sacramento, Calif.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The Longhorn League record of 262 strikeouts, set by Big Spring's Julio Ramos back in 1949, is a little far removed but the Broncs' Gil Guerra does have a fine chance to become the wheel's fifth hurler in history to fan as many as 200 batters in a single campaign.

Big Gil, who is enjoying a better season than he did here in 1950, now has 155 strikeouts to his credit. At that, he's got a fight on his hands to win the league title in that respect, because Midland has two hurlers in Keith Nicolis and Israel Ten who are also blowing them by the batter.

Big Spring's Jose Cendan threw third strikes past no less than 231 hitters back in 1947 but had to take a back seat to the workhorse of the Sweetwater's mound corps, LeRoy (Stumpy) Jones. The Sweetwater leftie fanned 249 that year.

The following year, Sweetwater's Bill Gann paced the circuit in K's (as they are distinguished on a scoring pad) with 207 to his credit. Frank Hill of Roswell paced the circuit in that department in 1950 but lacked five of attaining the 200 mark. Last year, the Longhorn League hurlers were not so adept at chunking the spheroid by the batters. Marshall Epperson, Vernon, was top hand in that respect and he got only 167.

The season Ramos paced the circuit in strikeouts, incidentally, he was the only 20 game winner. No one else won more than 18 in 1949 and Ralph Blair of Midland was the only other hurler to notch that many wins. Ramos won 22 and lost 4 that year. His 346 won-lost percentage has been bettered but not by any hurler who has taken his turn on the mound regularly.

QUINTANA HAS EQUALED JUNCO'S OUTPUT
Pepper Martin's club record for home runs (he hit 29 here back in '47) appeared out of reach but Whity Quintana is a sure bet to approach the 29-mark if he can stay healthy.

Quintana's mound tripper against Artesia the other night was his 15th of the year, which equaled Manny Junco's total for all of 1951. Junco led the club in that respect, getting one more than did Pat Stasey.

Potato Pascual hit 25 four-masters to set the team pace in 1949 while Jorge Lopez came up with 20 the following year. Ace Mendez's 16 four-basers proved tops back in 1948, at which time the entire team clouted only 64 round-trippers.

Incidentally, did you know that Al Costa hit not a four-master in 1951? He has two of them this year and each has come at very critical times.

SMU has picked up a grid prize in Dick Gravett, a stellar center on Corpus Christi Ray's state semi-final team last fall.

Though he weighs 190 pounds, he's one of the state's better hurlers. He'll play in the all-star game at Fort Worth next month.

Marriage is still frowned upon by a lot of football coaches. Red Drew, the Alabama mentor, recently suspended the grant-in-aid of three of his regulars because they made the trips to the altar.

They were Halfback Larry Chiodetti; Guard Fred Mims and Fullback Tommy Lewis.

OVER BROOKLYN
Yanks Head West After Victory

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Editor
The 48,283 spectators who watched the New York Yankees defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5-3, in an exhibition at Yankee Stadium last night may have been seeing a preview of the 1952 World Series.

Certainly it was a preview, since the Yankees and Dodgers are the two other contenders to knock either the Yankees or Dodgers off the top perch. The Yanks headed west today with a comfortable 4 1/2-game margin over their nearest competitor. The Dodgers arrived home today with a commanding 7 1/2-game lead over the defending National League Champion New York Giants.

Of the two, the Yankees appear to have the rougher task ahead. Starting with a two-night doubleheader in Cleveland this evening, the world champions will pack 21 games into the next 17 days. There isn't an off day anywhere on the trip.

To Pilot East

Mark Christman (above), manager of the San Angelo Colts, has been named to mastermind the East in the Longhorn League's East-West All-Star game at San Angelo Friday night. League Prexy Hal Savley said the West's boss probably would be announced tonight.

West Boasts Batting Edge

SAN ANGELO, July 22 (AP)—With three of the league's top four hitters in the starting lineup, the West All-Stars appear to have the batting edge over the East in Friday's Longhorn League All-Star game here.

Heading the West's big stickmen is Artesia first baseman Joe Bauman, the circuit's batting leader with a mark of .300 and home run king with 20 circuit clouts.

Others in the top four with the West are outfielder Pat O'Keefe of Midland and outfielder Leo Eastman of Odessa.

Everyone in the West lineup is hitting above .300, while the East lineup will include two under that mark.

The East's leading slugger is San Angelo second baseman Johnny Toyson, who had hit .380 through the last official averages.

The West will be going after its sixth straight win over the East with only four holdovers from last year's All-Star lineup. They are Eastman, Roswell shortstop, Hayden (Stubby) Greer, Odessa pitcher Evelio Ortega and Midland Pitcher Eddie Jacome.

Repeaters on the East team are Toyson, Sweetwater first baseman Warren Siller and Big Spring right fielder Pat Stasey.

This will be Stasey's sixth appearance in the game.

LITTLE SPORT

GORDIEN MAKES IT

Field Events Assume Center Ring Attention At Helsinki

HELSINKI (AP)—Three American discus throwers pitched their way into the final of the Olympic championship test today, but America's finest oarsman failed in his second bid for a place in the single sculls final.

Fortune Gordien of Minneapolis, world record holder in the discus, threw three times to achieve the required distance in this morning's qualifying round, but he finally made it with a heave of 165 feet, 1.94 inches.

That left him some five feet behind Adolfo Consolini, Italy's defending champion, but it topped the best efforts of the other two Americans, both of whom qualified with their first throws and didn't try any more.

Slim Iness of the University of Southern California did 180 feet, 5.23 inches and Jim Dillon of Alabama Polytechnic Institute and Upper Sandusky, O., pitched 157 feet, 2.65 inches. These marks were comfortably beyond the minimum distance of 150 feet, 11.06 inches required to qualify for this afternoon's final.

Jack Kelly of Philadelphia and the U. S. Navy gave rowing fans one of their most thrilling spectacles in his "repechage" or second-trial heat in the single sculls, but the finish photos showed he was beaten by Theodor Kocera of Poland. This eliminated him.

The United States gained one spot in the rowing trials when Chuck Legg Jr., son of the Rutgers University coach, and Tom Price, another Rutgers student from Easton, N. J., won their repechage heat in the event for pairs without coxswain. The American pair with coxswain, James Fifer and Duval Hech, both members of the Stanford crew, was eliminated in a close race by Germany.

The Russian track and field team, second to the United States in the unofficial point tabulations, qualified two men in the first half of the field for the discus final. They were Otto Grigalka, who placed in the shot put yesterday, and Boris Butenko.

In the overall point scoring, including all Olympic events, Russia is ahead of the United States. By virtue of winning five firsts four seconds and a flock of lesser places in gymnastics finals last night, Russia retained its overall lead with 123 1/2 points against 72 for the United States, all scored in track and field, central sport of the games.

In combined totals, Switzerland was third with 47, followed by Japan, 24 1/2, and Czechoslovakia, 16 1/2.

The United States' five first-place gold medals out of the first eight events is the best the American forces have done since the 1904 Olympic games held in St. Louis.

The Americans are expected to narrow Russia's edge in this afternoon's track and field finals.

In addition to the discus, America has three of the top performers in the pole vault — Bob Richards, Don Laz and George Mattos. And two stars, including Defending Champion Mal Whitfield of Columbus, O., in the 800-meters final.

The Finnish Army band, which had been having trouble solving the rhythm of the "Star Spangled Banner," got plenty of practice yesterday.

They played the anthem four times as Parry O'Brien, Lindy Remigino, Charlie Moore and Jerry Biffle paraded to the winner's rostrum in the center of the infield of Helsinki's ultra modern Olympic stadium.

O'Brien set an Olympic record of 57 feet, 1.43 inches in the shot put. Remigino got the judges' nod out of a four-man blanket finish in the 100-meter hurdles which he set in Sunday's trials. And Biffle looked the broad jump after U. S. Champion George Brown fouled three times.

Giuseppe Dordoni of Italy won the 50-kilometer walk, setting a world and Olympic record of four hours, 28 minutes and 7.8 seconds. It may be the only world record of these games. Dordoni went out for a pleasure stroll again last night.

The Americans cleaned up the first three shot put places yesterday with Darrow Hooper and Jim Fuchs finishing back of O'Brien.

Along with facing the toughest team in the loop tonight, Dallas has to try and shake a slump that saw the Eagles lose eight of 12 road games recently. A yearly jinx that leaves the Eagles is that the team that is ahead of the loop by July 4 also is another burden they face now.

Since this July Fourth, Dallas has won seven, lost ten. The Sports have dropped only seven in the last 30 outings.

Other games find Houston trying to win its 50th decision in a game at Tulsa, Beaumont at Fort Worth and San Antonio at Oklahoma City.

When Willis left, the South led, 3-1, and ran it to 9-1 through five and a half frames. The North rallied.

Oilers Defeat Indians, 6-4

The Oilers made the most of four hits to defeat the Indians, 6-4, in a Little League baseball game played here Monday afternoon.

The Oilers counted four runs in the fourth round and then added the clinchers in the fifth, when Duncan and Robinson crossed the plate.

The Indians collected seven hits off J. White and played well enough to win nine out of ten games. Jimmy Marin fashioned the four-hitter for the Warriors and did not walk a batter.

Of the Indians' seven hits, five went for extra bases. One was a triple by Graham, who also had a two-baser.

The Eagles tangled with the Gold Sox this evening.

East Favored In Gulf Coast

HARLINGEN, July 22 (AP)—Its batters and pitchers holding a slight edge in the season statistics, the East team is slightly favored to win the second annual Gulf Coast League All-Star game tonight at Harlingen.

The East, managed by Carl Carter of Port Arthur, is dominated by Port Arthur and Galveston players, both of which landed six choices on the club.

A crowd of over 5,000 fans, attracted by this year's pennant race that currently has Port Arthur and Harlingen tied for first and four others within four games, is expected to be on hand.

Bill Radulovich, Port Arthur first baseman, heads the sluggers from the East. His .378 average tops the league, while teammate Les Kash, with a 7-1 pitching record, gives the East another top figure.

Demos Say Dewey Is Man They Opposing

By ED CREAUGH
CONVENTION HALL, Chicago. — These Democrats aren't sure yet who their own candidate for President is going to be, but at least they know the name of the man he'll run against. They say it's Thomas E. Dewey.

To hear the Republicans tell it, of course, the GOP nominee is Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. But the Democrats, in high glee, are picking up the argument of Eisenhower's pre-nomination foes—that Dewey is the power behind the scenes.

Gov. Paul A. Dever of Massachusetts pointed this up in his keynote speech last night. Delegates roared, nudged each other and applauded when the plump and per-spring governor said of Eisenhower: "He remains a complete novice in the field of civil affairs, for whom the Republicans present as a 'new face.' Rather they should admit that 'the voice is the general's voice, but the hands are the hands of Thomas.'"

Just in case anybody missed his meaning, Dever referred at one point to Dewey as "the new Mr. Republican."

The Democrats, who booed Dewey in 1944 and 1948, responded by boing him again.

"Dewey is bipartisan," a newspaperman commented. "The Republicans booed him two weeks ago, too."

So they did—but they also nominated the man Dewey was for, Eisenhower.

Live-Saving Class To Be Organized

Red Cross life-saving courses will be organized Thursday at 5:30 p.m. at the city swimming pool.

Olen Puckett, chairman of life saving and water safety for the Howard-Glasscock chapter of the American Red Cross, urged all candidates for the instruction to report at that time. Information of advance registration may be had by calling him, or the Red Cross office.

Instruction is for Juniors (12 to 17 years) and adults (17 years and above). Puckett said he was anxious to meet a large number of Boy Scouts who want to take the course to satisfy merit badge requirements on life saving.

Labor Leaders Apologetic On Sideline Of Barkley

CHICAGO (U) — Labor union leaders helped shove 74-year-old Vice President Alben Barkley out of the running for the Democratic presidential nomination but they weren't too proud about it today.

Barkley, the reliable party wheelhorse acclaimed by union leaders as a friend of organized labor, nevertheless lost the support of many of them for the top job at the party's convention.

It can be said that the union leaders were genuinely sorry to see Barkley lose a promising chance for the nomination.

Yet, a number of top union leaders had virtually kicked Barkley out of the running. They said he was too old for the task. They were afraid, they said, that the "Veep" might team with party conservatives to give anti-"Fair Deal" forces control of the party.

Barkley, in his dramatic statement pulling himself out of contention for the nomination, blamed his troubles on "certain self-anointed political labor leaders." This narrowed things to a few individuals.

But there were other reasons why Barkley pulled out.

It was reliably reported he felt he had been led to believe he was President Truman's choice for the nomination. He felt Truman's support was going elsewhere — to Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois — and so Barkley decided to bow out.

Thus, Barkley was peeved at his pal Harry Truman, too.

But it was the labor chiefs who started Barkley on the skids.

"Well, he always accepted the support of labor," one prominent union leader said apologetically.

Woman Is Charged In Amarillo Murder

AMARILLO, July 22 (U)—Bonnie Ruth Robison, 25-year-old former elevator operator, was charged with murder yesterday after Oran Reddoch, 38, service station operator, was shot to death.

Reddoch, a married man with two children, was shot six times with a .32-caliber pistol at his place of business.

Miss Robison said in a signed statement to officers that the shooting followed a violent argument which began when Reddoch questioned her by telephone about going with another man. She said she later went to the service station and the argument resumed.

Miss Robison was ordered held without bond.

This Is Big Week For Miss Letitia

CHICAGO (U) — This is a big week for Miss Letitia — called "Auntie" by Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois.

Miss Letitia Stevenson of St. Louis, daughter of Vice President Adlai Stevenson in the Cleveland administration and aunt of his namesake, is attending her first national political convention. Women didn't go in for such things when she was a girl.

With her is her cousin, Mrs. Carl Vrooman of Bloomington, Ill., whose father was secretary of agriculture in Woodrow Wilson's cabinet.

This convention is especially important to Miss Letitia, quite a number of folks think her nephew would be an excellent choice for President. She is one of them.

Coat Renting Plan Help To Merchants

NAPLES, Italy (U) — Enterprising sidewalk merchants with supplies of coats are cashing in on the current heat wave in this port city.

State and municipal officials, upset by the number of employees arriving at work in their shirtsleeves, have decreed men without coats will be barred from their offices.

But the sidewalk merchants came to the rescue, establishing themselves outside principal buildings with a stock of jackets of various sizes. Now employees still can travel to work in shirtsleeved comfort, rent jackets outside the office and step in, properly attired.

Negotiators Meet For Only Five Minutes

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Korean armistice negotiators met for only five minutes today in the shortest session at Panmunjom since secret talks on the prisoner exchange deadlock began July 4.

Another executive session was scheduled for 11 a. m. tomorrow (9 p. m. Monday EST).

Brevity of the session underscored speculation that no progress had been made.

Before leaving today for Tokyo, Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, former chief spokesman for the U. N. Command negotiators, told newsmen:

"The enemy's techniques are the same either at the conference table or elsewhere. . . .

"Their basic stock in trade is deceit, deception and distortion. All Communists are Marx, intentionally and flagrantly when it suits their purpose.

Nuckols is returning to his old job as Far East Air Forces public relations officer. The new spokesman for the U. N. delegation is Lt. Col. Joseph J. Borchert.

In Seoul, South Korean President Syngman Rhee said in an interview he understands the Chinese Communists are ready to compromise for a truce but that their North Korean allies are unwilling.

Ike, Nixon To Discuss Their Campaign Plans Next Sunday

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH DENVER (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and his GOP vice presidential running mate, Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California, will discuss campaign plans Sunday at the general's vacation haven in the Colorado Rockies.

It will be their first get-together since they conferred briefly in Chicago after the Republican National Convention.

Sen. Fred A. Seaton, an adviser to Eisenhower at the general's headquarters here, announced today that Nixon will fly from Washington Saturday to Denver.

On Sunday Nixon will motor 12 miles to the secluded cattle ranch near Fraser, Colo., where Eisenhower has been vacationing since last Thursday. Nixon will fly Monday afternoon from Denver to Los Angeles for a brief rest in his home state before traveling to Columbus, O., to address the Ohio Republican Convention July 31.

In Los Angeles, the adjutant general of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Julian Dickenson, announced Eisenhower will make his first major campaign address there before the VFW National Convention opening Aug. 3.

Eisenhower also will receive the VFW's Bernard Baruch Award given the American citizen a panel of judges says has contributed the most toward fostering unity and good will among peoples of the world.

Eisenhower aides said the general and Nixon will talk over various aspects of the fall campaign, including the role, the 39-year-old California senator will play.

Eisenhower will confer at the ranch tomorrow with three key supporters. They are Sen. James H. Duff of Pennsylvania, Ralph C. Cake, GOP national committeeman from Oregon, and Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado.

Duff arrived in Denver late yesterday and told a news conference that "Ike will lick anyone" the Democrats nominate for President.

"The Democrats have been so long in power they have abused their power," Duff declared.

"The public is tired of them and wants a change. We've got the kind of a ticket that will assure that change."

Duff specifically predicted Eisenhower will carry Pennsylvania. He said he has received assurances of enthusiastic support for the general from state Republicans who backed Sen. Robert A. Taft for the nomination.

Just before Duff's news conference, Eisenhower headquarters labeled as propaganda a suggestion at the opening session of the Democratic convention yesterday that the general must accept part of any blame for U. S. Korean policy—a policy sharply criticized by the Republicans.

The suggestion was made by Sen. Paul H. Douglas of Illinois in a speech lighting into the Republicans for criticism of the Korean program.

Douglas said the Joint Chiefs of Staff reported in September, 1947, that this country had little strategic interest in keeping American troops in Korea. They were removed later and the U. S. had no troops on hand there when the Communists attacked South Korea in June, 1950.

Alluding to the 1947 report, Douglas said:

"Now, who do you suppose was chief of staff of the Army when this military advice was given? It was Dwight D. Eisenhower, the standard bearer of those who now charge us with withdrawing our troops and bringing on the Korean War."

Newsmen at Eisenhower headquarters asked for comment from the general on Douglas' remarks. In reply, Sen. Seaton put out this statement:

"There will be no comment from the Eisenhower headquarters on any propaganda statements issued from the Democratic convention in Chicago. Once the opposition nominees are chosen, we will bring every issue to the attention of the American people."

Bears Refuse To Leave Zoo Cage

BEDFORD, Ind. (AP)—Once upon a time there were three bears named Brownie, Maggie and Mollie and they lived in a den in Wilson Park Zoo.

They still live there today, too. Leaverton Park Zoo of Palestine, Ill., bought the bears and sent a crew of workmen and a truck after them yesterday.

The men tore out a section of the wall, built a ramp into the truck, and set several quarts of honey in the vehicle. One bear sniffed at the honey and dashed back into the cage.

Spanking with boards and waving a blowtorch only caused the bears to retreat into their winter den behind and below the cage. They ventured a step or two beyond the opening occasionally but refused to approach the truck.

The workmen decided to wait for further efforts.

Pointing out that the truck now is a temporary section of the cage wall, Mayor Ivan H. Brinegar said, "They can't quit now. They've got to get the bears in the truck." He didn't say when.

What Would Husband Do If Wife Is Named Veep?

By RUTH COWAN CHICAGO (AP)—What about the husband of a woman in the race for vice president?

The question was raised at a news conference held by Mrs. Indira Edwards, Democratic National Committee vice chairman, yesterday.

Mrs. Edwards is one of two women being promoted for the party's vice presidential nomination, and she has said: "If nominated, I will run."

"When you get to be vice president, what are your husband's plans?" asked a reporter.

"Oh, we haven't gone that far," said Mrs. Edwards, who is married to Herbert T. Edwards, a State Department executive.

Mrs. Edwards is not taking her own candidacy too seriously. What she is taking seriously is the idea that women should run for office.

"And so when it was suggested I run," she said, "what could I do but take my own medicine?"

A reporter wanted to know if Edwards approved of his wife's entry in the race. Mrs. Edwards replied, "Yes, if he had not, I would not have said I would."

Mrs. Edwards conceded she had sort of got herself into an embarrassing position last week when she saw a press dispatch quoting Mrs. Richard Nixon, wife of the Republican vice presidential nominee. Mrs. Nixon said, according to the dispatch, that even though she and her husband campaigned as a team—he has served in the House and Senate—she didn't discuss politics at women's meetings.

"Politics is the science of government. Why shouldn't women be informed about it—discuss it?" Mrs. Edwards asked.

Here's Woman Who Thinks Stevenson Is Only Democrat Who Can Beat Ike

(Editor's Note: Trellis Mae Peeble, the average wife of Wilbur Peeble, America's most average citizen has been betrayed by her initial enthusiasm to come out for Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois for the Democratic presidential nomination. She tells about it in the following letter home:)

Nigger Charlie Occupied His Own Special Niche In B'Spring

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald—Editor's Note.

A relic that brought forth the most comment at the Glasscock-Howard County Old Settlers Reunion at the City Park Friday was a newly-discovered picture of Nigger Charlie that was being shown by Shins Phillips.

was stabbed by a dull-witted colored boy, but not Charlie, for Charlie wasn't around the game anywhere and had nothing to do with it.

For a number of years Nigger Charlie, a pet of the town, was the only colored person in Big Spring. "And during those years," comments Shins, "was the whole of this county's Republican Party."

The Negroes took the hint and within a couple of hours the shameful exodus was on the way down the railroad tracks toward Abilene. To keep him from getting killed by the mob of drunken cowards, the other colored people took Nigger Charlie along.

When Charlie was quite a little fellow, maybe just a baby, even, he was sort of adopted by two of the finest people who ever lived in West Texas, Mr. and Mrs. John Birdwell, who were operating the Birdwell Hotel where the T&P passenger station (they used to be depots) now stands.

In a matter of a few hours he had located Nigger Charlie in Abilene, climbed aboard the first train, went there and brought Charlie back home. He then promptly hunted up the leaders of the mob that had driven the Negroes from town.

Proposal To Change Taxation Plan Gets A Mixed Reaction

Suggestion that city taxes be shifted from property to people draws a mixed reaction here.

Local officials express a wide range of views on the subject. Some favor a heavier "tax" on the general public and lower assessments against property owners. At least one person—Mayor G. W. Dabney—says he thinks Big Spring already is getting about all the revenue possible from the non-property-owning group.

Exceptions pointed up by the mayor are the charges for sewage disposal and garbage collection. He believes both those fees could and should be hiked—at least to the point where the two services would be self-supporting.

The proposal that there be a shift in local taxes from properties to persons comes from City Manager C. A. Harrell of San Antonio. He bases the idea on the proposition that most of the rising costs of city government is due to increased public services and not more property protection or improvement.

Harrell didn't say how he would go about shifting the burden of financing local governmental operations. A list of possible ways of doing so probably would include a local income tax, poll tax, higher charges for such services as water supply, sewer and garbage disposal, etc., or a local sales tax.

The San Antonio manager's suggestion finds strong support in Commissioner Willard Sullivan of Big Spring.

"That's been my idea all along," says the local official. Sullivan thinks the city water rate should have been set at a higher figure two years ago when the commission fixed the charge in order to finance a revenue bond issue for water system extensions and improvements.

He also is of the opinion that the garbage collection fee should be raised, at least high enough that garbage disposal wouldn't be a deficit operation.

Mayor Dabney says he is convinced that the water rate is about as high as it will bear. If it were any higher, many people won't water their lawns (when water is available), he suggests.

The mayor also points out that the city tax rate ($1.70 per $100 valuation) hasn't been changed in a decade while cost of city governments still are based on two-thirds of 1941 valuations. He believes this is an indication that a larger portion of local revenue already is coming from sources other than the ad valorem tax.

Much of the increase in the cost of municipal operations is due to higher expenses in the fire and police departments, Dabney states. He emphasizes that the fire department is maintained primarily for protection of property and is a service property owners should pay for. Police protection, too, is provided as much for the protection of property as for the individual, he thinks.

Commissioner Jack Y. Smith agrees with the mayor that Big Spring already is working along the lines of Harrell's theory as far as the water service charge is concerned. The water department is expected to return a "profit" which helps pay for other costs, he points out.

The city could go so far as to charge for extinguishing fires, according to Smith. However, he doesn't think such a policy would be practical.

Smith expresses the idea that persons who don't own property participate in the payment of ad valorem taxes. The rent they pay for houses, apartments or business places is set by the property owner with the tax in mind, and the rental rate usually is fixed high enough to include the tax and a "fair return" for the person who has invested in the property, in Smith's opinion.

"The property tax is the backbone of the city's revenue system; although it probably should be eased, it would be impractical to do away with the tax," says the commissioner.

"Harrell has a good idea—part of the way," according to Commissioner Frank Hardesty. He sees number of hurdles in the way of a lowered property tax.

Primary obstacle Hardesty mentions is the fact that certain non-revenue bearing services of the city must be maintained and that property taxation must bear a good portion of the bill. Sanitation service, which he believes must be continued, is one of the deficit operations Commissioner Hardesty lists.

Big Spring's city manager, H. W. Whitney, is a little hesitant to go along with Harrell's suggestion. In the first place, he wonders how the San Antonio city manager would shift the tax burden.

A local income tax or poll tax would be impractical because of administrative difficulties, thinks Whitney. The city manager says it would be difficult to draw the line along which city services fail to benefit property; hence it would be impossible to determine just what portion of the cost should come from property.

Animal Lending Agency Set Up In California

By WAYNE HARBERT
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP)—Want to borrow a skunk? Fox? Owl? Mink? Rabbit?

You may, for a week, if you're a youngster with the proper answers.

Sacramento has a free lending library of animals, operated by Dalton Merkel, who checks out the pets in take-home cages.

A few of the animals are "in reserve" temporarily. . . . Small Merkel is certain they're wholly safe.

There are about 300 in the library, including a pair of red foxes, a baby grey fox, a porcupine and a mink, an owl, squirrels, rabbits, snakes, turtles and raccoons. The library has been in operation four months; withdrawals run from 10 to 20 a week. It is financed from a private foundation and by donations from the Junior League, service clubs, city schools and state fair.

The library, located on the state fairground, has not lost any loaned animals.

Only rabbits and white rats go to children under 7.

Snakes go only to "boys who are very interested in snakes," says Merkel.

The little grey fox can be cuddled like a kitten but he's not circulating yet.

Blossom, a striped skunk, is about the most popular library item (Blossom's de-skunked).

The meanest animal, says Merkel, is one of the smallest — an albino ground squirrel.

The porcupine? "He's never yet raised his tail at anyone," says Merkel, but he's not going out either.

Before a youngster can withdraw an animal, he must fill in a two-page questionnaire with answers to such questions as:

"How do you pick up the animal — under the stomach, by the ears, by the skin on the back of the neck or by the tail?"

"How long should you handle it?"

"What do you feed it and do you feed it in the morning, at noon or in the evening?"

Which animal can be picked up by the tail?

"Only the raccoons," says Merkel.

Coldest Place In World Has Reading Of 88

By EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW (UP)—This must be a hot summer all right for Verkhoyansk — the coldest place in the world — showed a reading of 88 the other day.

In Moscow the mercury got up near 90, which is unusual, but not so rare as the 88 at Verkhoyansk in Northern Siberia.

The cold-pole of the world is located up around Verkhoyansk and Oymyakon, in Northeastern Siberia, yet it nearly always has a relatively warm summer.

The mercury up here in dead winter has gone as low as 90 degrees below zero. The January average in that region is 59 below.

Russians have all sorts of ways of beating the heat when it does come and one of these is sensible dress, particularly as it applies to men.

When it gets real hot you don't see many ties.

Dark dresses disappear and in their places every color of the rainbow adorns frocks you see about the streets and the countryside.

Some men, particularly older ones, go in for white or tan linen or cotton suits and some even wear straw hats.

There's a lot of swimming in the numerous creeks and rivers that cut through the country, and sometimes it's just too hot to bother with bathing suits. The Moskva River that twines through the heart of the capital is filled with swimmers from early morning to late night.

The city provides a number of swimming places along the river bank with bathhouses and enclosures to prevent swimmers from getting too far out into the river which is broad and deep in some parts.

If there's air-conditioning here I don't know about it, but there are electric fans which are called "ventilators," and come in for a lot of summer use.

Shakespeare Would Be Upset Over New Motel

STRATFORD-ON-AVON, England (UP)—William Shakespeare might have been horrified by the word—but now there's a "motel" down the road a bit from Anne Hathaway's cottage.

A motel, the British are being told, is an American version of the medieval road house, at which both a man and his horse were bedded down, genially and comfortably, for the night.

At this motel in the Shakespeare country, the motorist's car is greased while he reposes in one of a hundred chalets spread out over a picturesque English estate.

The Shakespeare-land motel, says its owner, millionaire showman John Collins, is grander than any he has seen on his many visits to the United States. The heart of it is Roundell Towers, a modern mansion about eight miles from Stratford-on-Avon. In Roundell Towers are restaurant and recreation rooms for travelers wanting a conventional hotel atmosphere. But Collins' special pride is the cluster of chalets, each costing about 1,000 pounds ($2,000).

The visitor has his choice of chalets finished in light or dark oak, walnut or mahogany. There are two built-in beds, parquet flooring, step-down bath and shower, electric cooker, electrically heated towel rods and ice water on tap.

Communists Cut Interest Rates

HONG KONG (UP)—Communist banks in China cut interest rates to private industry as much as 50 per cent last month, the Peiping radio says.

This appears to be another Communist effort to speed up industry, which was crippled by the Reds' recent so-called "anti-corruption" campaign against private industry in Red China.

Some of the industries which were fined so heavily they had to shut down have been granted both loans and big government orders to get them operating again. Peiping said the new interest rates to private industry ranged from 1.05 to 1.85 per cent.

Family Finishes Boat In Two Years

PASADENA, Calif. (UP)—When the William J. Williams family build a boat they do it first class—even if it takes 2½ years.

The family recently finished their 40-foot schooner, The Enif, in their backyard and now have visions of entering the beautiful vessel in the 1953 Honolulu race.

Williams, a former sea captain, hand-sewed the sails for the yacht, working over 500 square feet of canvas in the family's living room.

Moose Bests Cars

AMHERST, Canada (UP)—A moose had the best of it when two cars collided with the animal near here. Two men were taken to hospital and both cars were badly damaged.

The moose ambled away into the woods, apparently not seriously hurt.

Filipino Defense Leader Is Making Headway Against Huks

By SPENCER DAVIS
SAN FRANCISCO July 22 (AP)—A man who outwitted the Japanese as a World War II guerrilla leader is outsmarting the Communist Huks in the Philippines.

Military men close to Ramon Magsaysay, Philippines secretary of national defense, credit him with keeping the Huks on the run, broken in small bands, because "he thinks like they do."

On a brief trip to Washington last month the husky 45-year-old Huk-buster was presented the U. S. Legion of Merit with rank of commander by Army Secretary Frank Pace Jr. in recognition of outstanding service in furthering U. S.-Philippine relations. A former congressman, he disavows political ambitions, but some say he may be headed for the presidency of the Philippines.

The Reds didn't learn their military tactics out of a field manual and neither did Magsaysay, a non-professional, unconventional soldier. As the leader of Philippine guerrilla forces in the Zambales Mountains northwest of Manila in World War II, Magsaysay learned the answers to many of the problems he meets in his 18-hour day fighting an unconventional war.

For one thing, he remembers that he had a harder time keeping his men together when the Japanese offered them tea, rice and peace than when they killed every Filipino they could find.

So he cast out the former Army policy that "the only good Huk is a dead Huk."

Magsaysay treats his prisoners well. He tries to see every one personally. Relatives of the captured man are brought to him, but care is taken that villagers are informed where the family has gone. This helps destroy the Huks' trust in the captured man.

Prisoners are asked to help the government defeat its enemies and to lead the way to hideouts. Many raids on Huk hideouts have been directed by former Huks.

After co-operating with authorities, a captured Huk is sent back to his own village on parole and staked with $100 and a sack of rice for a new start.

Less than 10 per cent of the 9,000 Huks who have surrendered since Magsaysay took over 21 months ago have backslid. For one reason, the paroled Huk is suspect by the Reds.

A peace fund of $500,000 contributed by businessmen and land owners have helped finance an

Convention Scene About Same As Two Weeks Ago

By ED CREAGH
CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, July 22 (AP)—Well, here we go again.

Same hall — all 255,000 square feet floor space. Same occasional whiffs from the surrounding stockyards. Same mighty organ that roars until it rattles the fillings in your teeth.

Just like the Republicans two weeks ago, the Democrats are backstage practicing... speech-makers clearing their throats, polishing the fine phrases... Lady delegates, and some of the men, mugging and smirking in front of mirrors, seeing how they'll look best on television.

This is where we came in two weeks ago today — with one big difference.

They've taken down Abraham Lincoln's picture and hung Harry Truman's in its place.

Souvenirs, anyone? They're all over the place, but not selling very briskly.

Not many delegates want to shell out a dollar or more for an ashtray bearing the picture of a candidate who may be only a dim memory before the week is over.

About the most popular gadget on sale is a big but light wooden sledge-hammer. It bears the slogan of Sen. Estes Kefauver: "Beat crime down."

Kefauver has his cousin cap too, but it's Sen. Robert Kerr of Oklahoma who has the log cabin — a full-size model of the one in which Kerr was born.

You can see it in a corner of the senator's big, bustling headquarters on the mezzanine of the Conrad Hilton Hotel. Added attraction: free coffee and doughnuts.

Kerr and Averell Harriman

Dear John: Take me to the American Drive Inn for a piece of that delicious Home-made pie and all is forgiven.

spend a lot of their time trying to live down their wealth.

Both regard money as a distinct handicap when it comes to getting the Democratic presidential nomination.

It may be different next week, but today either one probably would give a million dollars not to be pointed to as a millionaire.

Harriman was one of the last candidates to come down with presidential fever but it hit him hard. He's even sporting a campaign hat — a broad-brimmed straw given to him by Joe Judge Arizona Democratic state chairman. Not quite the sort of headgear he'd have worn to garden parties when he was ambassador to the court of St. James.

Trend-spotters take note, for any significance it may have: Illinois Gov. Adlai Stevenson — still not a candidate but still the subject of much draft talk — attended the same church, and sat in the same pew, Sunday as Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower did on the Sunday before the Republicans nominated him for President.

Mike DiSalle, who used to be price administrator and now wants to be senator from Ohio, is here with his state's delegation.

DiSalle was laughing about a reminder of his meeting several years ago with a namesake, ex-King Michael of Romania. Michael, who'd been relieved of his throne, commented on DiSalle's constant use of the nickname "Mike."

"If your people had called you Mike," the Ohioan replied, "you might still be King."

Forgotten Generals Living On Charity

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP)—Twenty-six "forgotten generals" tenant a large and gloomy castle near here, waiting for the day they can return home.

The 26 were once commanders of forces under young King Peter of Yugoslavia. In 1941, they took part in the fight against the Nazi invasion. As Hitler's hordes swept ahead, they were imprisoned. When the Allies occupied Germany, they were housed in the 50-room Varlar castle near Duesseldorf.

Marshal Tito regards the 26 as monarchists and if they tried to return, it probably would mean prison. So the 26 generals, the youngest of whom is 32, are living on German charity. Each of them is given his lodging, a simple board, and six cents a day for pocket money.

Work is under direction of Sean T. O'Riordan, professor of archaeology at the National University of Ireland. It is expected to take about 25 years. In pre-Christian days Tara was the capital of Ireland and the center for art and politics.

The capital of Uruguay is Montevideo.

Body Refrigeration May Be Tried Soon

By GUSTAV SVENSSON

STOCKHOLM (U)—Total refrigeration of the body to slow down or stop the heart completely may be tried on human patients to facilitate heart surgery.

A Swedish-French medical research team believes it has managed in animal experiments to develop a technique by which such operations could be performed on humans at very low body temperatures. Dr. Andre Juvenelle of the University of Paris said in an interview here.

"Most probably a temperature below 20 degrees Centigrade (68 degrees Fahrenheit) would be necessary," said the French chest surgeon, adding that the time had "not come as yet when it is possible to foresee the actual date of the first such operation except in an emergency."

Some 50 scientists in the world are exploring the problems of "artificial hibernation." What they hope to find is a method to reduce oxygen requirements of the body sufficiently to allow the exclusion of various organs, including the heart, from the blood circulation.

Dr. W. G. Bigelow of Toronto University pointed out three years ago that once a satisfactory method is developed, refrigeration of patients would permit heart surgery under full vision.

Dr. Juvenelle said that the technique devised by himself and his Swedish co-workers, Dr. John Lind, cardiologist, and Dr. Carl Wegelius, X-ray expert, involved the use of cold in combination with an artificial heart-lung system.

Using this method, the team has been able for the first time to stop the hearts of dogs for three hours by freezing their bodies to a temperature of 12 degrees C. (53.6 degrees F) and obtain subsequent survival.

"One of the objects of such treatment for humans," Dr. Juvenelle said, "would be to facilitate delicate heart surgery in otherwise hopeless cases."

He emphasized that the method would entail "very considerable risks at present."

"The cooling down process," he said, "is no problem. Nor is the surgery. The problem starts with re-warming. We know very little of what happens then, except the stress may be tremendous."

"This thing is far too big to be handled by just a few teams with rather limited resources."

Limited research into possible medical uses of total refrigeration has been conducted for more than a decade in several countries. The most notorious contribution in this field so far being the experiments carried out in Germany during the war, using prisoners as guinea pigs.

Gold research was started by Dr. Juvenelle's team last July at the Pathological Institute of the Stockholm Sabbatsberg Hospital.

"Nothing in the method we developed is really a novelty," he said, "if you consider each item separately, but the combination is, and so are the results.

"I think we would apply our technique on humans in an emergency," he said.

"After all, we are not collecting butterflies."

This reporter attended one of the experiments of the team at the Pathological Institute. Because of the time required for cooling and re-warming, they are lengthy affairs of 15 to 20 hours. The dogs are given small doses of heparin to prevent blood clotting and a light anesthetic.

The heart continued to beat until 17 degrees C. The lowest temperature at which heart beat has been recorded by the team is 11.5 C. There was no bleeding at all during the hour it took the surgeon to open the chest.

"Until now we could take it easy," doctors said when the chest was closed again. "From now on we will have to fight for his life."

"It is just like a cold motor in the morning," Dr. Juvenelle said. "Sometimes it won't work."

TV Systems Wage Hot Competition

CHICAGO (U)—The American, Columbia and National Broadcasting Systems are pooling their television eyes and ears again for the Democratic convention, just as they did for the Republican sessions.

But:

"It's still a rat race," said one executive.

"Everyone is trying to outdo the other guy," said another.

Thus, all agree, competition will be as stiff as ever during non-pool times. And even when the pool deal is on, the networks can pull out any time for a special show.

Just as week before last, the convention opening today will be followed by TV at the hall, in the hotels and on the streets.

Suit Called Off

HOLLYWOOD (U)—Marion Davies and Capt. Horace Brown have become reconciled. The former actress sued the Merchant Marine officer for divorce last Wednesday, charging mental cruelty.

Russians Plan Official Opening Of New Canal

MOSCOW (U)—At 1:55 p. m. on May 31, two mighty Russian rivers merged and the Volga-Don Navigation Canal was born. The next day at 5 p. m., Tow-Ship 306 set forth from Stalingrad on a historic voyage to the Sea of Azov—the first ship to use the new canal.

Next Sunday comes the gala official opening of the canal, which will give Moscow the title of "port of five seas." By this canal, the Soviet press reminds the public, Moscow becomes linked with the White, Baltic, Caspian, Black and Azov Seas. In effect, it makes an island of Europe, circling Western Russia with a continuous waterway.

The Soviet press has pulled out all the stops for this event. New Times hailed it this way:

"The Volga-Don Waterway is ready! The intense labor of the participants in the great building of communism is crowned with glorious victory!"

Pravda and Izvestia trumpeted: "With this day, the whole world is given remarkable testimony to the strength and power of Soviet building of socialism."

Full pages, along with huge maps and pictures, are being devoted to the official opening of the canal, the result of three years of labor.

Linking the two great rivers has been a Russian dream since the days of Peter the Great. Moscow was once a land-locked capital in the middle of a huge plain and miles from any sea. Now one account put it this way:

"Theoretically, one can soon start out in a boat from Moscow, sail north in the Baltic and the Atlantic, go around the world, and return to Moscow by the South."

The press gives these details: The Volga-Don Canal is 161 kilometers (almost 65 miles) long, with 13 navigation locks, three pumping stations, 13 dams and dikes, seven floodgates, eight bridges and two maintenance and repair stations. Ships coming from the Volga side will climb westward through nine locks to the crest of the divide, and then descend through four more locks to the Don.

The Volga-Don project includes a large irrigation system and hydro-electric installations, some of them still in the planning stage.

Grenade Blows Up As Visitors Watch

MEXICO CITY (U)—An exploding hand grenade in a barracks yesterday had injured 10 enlisted men and non-commissioned officers.

Families of the soldiers had come to visit them in the barracks and witnesses said the grenade exploded while a sergeant was showing it to his children. Two of the injured were reported in a serious condition.

India Gets Grains In Exchange Deal

NEW DELHI (U)—India in 1951 bought 100,000 metric tons of foodgrains from Russia in exchange for tea, shellac, tobacco and jute, Food Minister B. A. Kidwai told questioners in parliament.

There is no proposal to buy any Soviet foodgrains in 1952, he added.

Red China, however, has offered to sell 100,000 tons of rice on a cash basis and the offer has been accepted, Kidwai said.

Atlantic City Sniffs At New Beauty Pageant In California

By JOHN BAUSMAN
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 22. (AP)—Ever since 1921 this resort city has been picking Miss Americas—and confident officials of that annual contest from the New rival "Miss Universe" contest in California.

Miss America Pageant bosses continue to insist their winner must have brains and talent as well as beauty. They turn deaf ears to critics who claim the contest should stress more bathing suit appeal and forget about this talent business.

Even jibes from sponsors of the Miss Universe show at Long Beach are without effect on plans for the 1952 Miss America Pageant in September. Miss Universe sponsors launched their project with a blast at Miss America and its "amateur night talent stunts."

In answer, Miss America officials say more people prefer their contest as it has been run in recent years—with points going for talent and personality as well as for a beautiful face and figure. Talent in this case means singing, dancing, or other entertainment or skill, even sports.

Lenora Slaughter, director of the Miss America Pageant, claims the Miss Universe contest is years behind Atlantic City's production.

"They've got the same kind of contest we used to run, with movie contract prizes and everything," she said.

She denied the two contests are rivals. "We can't be competitors. We are very different contests."

By trial and error the Miss America Pageant arrived at its present talent and beauty formula. The changeover came in 1945 when instead of the movie contract such as now goes to Miss Universe winners. The scholarship policy, Miss Slaughter says, has brought "a wonderful type of girl" into the pageant.

Miss America now wins a $5,000 scholarship in addition to $4,000 in cash, an automobile and a chance to earn thousands more in personal appearance fees. The present Miss America, Colleen Kay Hutchins, of Salt Lake City, Utah, is expected to clear at least $40,000 above all her expenses.

Women Don't Rate Very High — In Moslem Law

By L. S. CHAKALES
CAIRO, July 22. (AP)—Women are swayed by their feelings and affections in their judgments and are given to "straying from the path of wisdom."

Also, they are biased and incompetent — in contrast with men, who are balanced, impartial and self-controlled.

That's what the "Supreme Court" of Moslem law says, ruling that for these reasons and others, women among the 275,000,000 Moslems all over the world are not entitled either to vote or hold public office.

This decision was made by the 1,000-year-old Al Azhar University Fetwa Committee. Al Azhar is the greatest religious education institution in the Islamic world. The rector of Al Azhar is Islam's highest ranking religious figure. The Fetwa Committee is the supreme authority on the interpretation of Moslem law.

The announcement followed recent agitation throughout the Moslem world, particularly here in Egypt, for women's right to vote and hold public office.

There are two kinds of authority—private and public—the decision says. Private authority, which includes the guardianship of minors, administration of property and phases of charity, is properly in a woman's domain. In this she has the same rights as men. But office-holding and voting, which are a public authority, are confined by Islamic law to men.

Post-Attack Staff Established By DPA

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Production Administration has set up a "post-attack production staff" to plan the rebuilding and operation of bombed-out plants in case of enemy attacks.

The DPA, announcing this yesterday, said William J. Hoff has been named head of the new unit. Hoff was former director of the technical assistance program under the Marshall Plan.

Hoff was ordered to put into operation any part of the preparedness plans which can be carried out in advance. This includes dispersion of factories.

It has been estimated that people with grade school educations, know from 25,000 to 35,000 words, with many college students knowing almost 60,000.

Treatment For Aching Back: Exercises

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK, July 22 (AP)—Your aching back may be due mainly to our easy, mechanized life, a study of low-back pain finds.

Muscles grow weak from lack of use with soft living. When you bend down to pick up a pencil or a suitcase, or tend to the garden, you get a muscle strain. Repeated strains bring chronic misery.

But there's a cure for most cases of this kind of backache, through proper exercises, Dr. Hans Kraus of New York University College of Medicine, writes in GP magazine of the American Academy of General Practice.

He reports a study of 4,000 cases of low-back pain made by scientists at Columbia Medical Center and New York University-Bellevue Medical Center's Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

Your back is subject to various kinds of ailments and troubles. But often, he says, the doctor cannot find any apparent trouble. He blames our easy life as a basic cause of the pain.

Many of us don't get enough exercise to keep muscles fit. Sedentary living shortens our back and thigh muscles, muscles of the trunk become weak.

Anything that calls for more work than the muscles can do brings acute strain. Muscles get still less efficient, leading to another strain and chronic trouble.

The long suffering frequently ties in with some emotional difficulties and the backache gets to be a continuing misery affecting both the body and mind, Dr. Kraus says, adding low-back pain costs countless lost working hours and much money for hospital and medical care.

A series of exercise tests can show when the pain is due to muscular or postural faults, and how much is due to other causes.

Exercises to strengthen the lazy or weakened muscles build back strength and result in freedom from pain for most sufferers, he writes. Some need massage, heat treatments, injections of pain-killing drugs at the start of exercises, or other aids.
