September Quota ..... $1,791,000
Sales to Sept. 5 ..... 5,831
Still to go ..... 1,785,169

The figures above present the objective. The day of attack is next Thursday. The army is made up of every citizen in Howard county.

And the grand strategy of the Third War Loan offensive was taking shape Saturday, as Generalissimo Ted O. Groehl met with the commanders who will direct the campaign in the rural salients and prepared to meet his Big Spring leaders Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

Details for the first broad stroke also were revealed by R. R. McEwen, who is directing a War Bond parade which touches off the drive Thursday evening, at 6:15. The parade will be climaxed in a rally on the courthouse lawn.

Shortly before the parade, at 6 p. m., Big Spring will experience a "bombing raid," as 15 planes from the Bombardier school sweep in over the city in echelon and single formation, to signalize the aerial might which must have the financial backing if the war is to be hastened to victory. The plane demonstration will be timed by the city fire siren, and the city, to all intents and purposes, will be "under attack."

The review, one of the most impressive yet organized for Big Spring, will move through the downtown section from Fourth and Runnels, and will include a squadron of AAFBS cadets as well as numerous motorized units from the Bombardier school. In addition to the post band, there will be the high school band, plus Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other uniformed groups.

An unusual program is to be arranged for the rally, one that will be designed to stimulate immediate purchase of bonds so that the county will be quickly on its way to its goal.

War Bond headquarters, which will occupy all the front space in the chamber of commerce offices, will open Thursday, to be in full operation for the duration of the campaign, from 11 a. m. to 10 p. m. every day.

In the meeting Saturday, Groehl told rural leaders of the imminence of their task and urged them to appeal for investments that will reach to the point of sacrifice.

"Our people have been investing to a good degree," said the chairman. "This all is money saved, and nobody yet has done a bit more than he ought to have done. We have reached the point now that bond buying must be done to the elimination of other spending. We must buy the bonds we CANNOT afford."

Attending the parley at the chamber of commerce and agreeing to work for the quota were Binie White and Ed Carpenter of Vincent; Arthur Stallings, Lomax; Ross Hill, Elbow; Mrs. Fred Roman and Mrs. Grady Dorsey, Knott; Porter Hanks, Vealmoor; Mrs. W. I. Broadus, Heartwells; Clyde Denton and Mrs. Luise Hair, Center Point; George Boswell and Ralph White, Coahoma; Charles Lawrence, Luther; Mrs. C. W. Langley, Fairview; Walter Anderson, Morris; B. L. LeFever, West oil field. However, Lee's store, Forsan and the east field, Midway and Sand Springs, Moore, Morgan and Richland were not represented.

Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. the organizational set-up will be completed with a meeting of leaders from many of the city women's clubs, the presidents of the ABC, Lions, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs and the American Legion. At this parley in the Settles, Groehl will announce assignment of territories and prospect cards will be issued.

Buy Bonds For Buddies They'll Be Notified Of The Tribute Paid Them

The boys in uniform, those on the foreign fronts, on the seas and in the training camps, like to know that the folks at home are carrying on with their share of the war.

There is a way you can assure them that you are not just "behind them" but that you also are fighting wholeheartedly for quick victory and their return.

You can tell them you are buying bonds. And, to make it better, you can tell them you are buying bonds in tribute to THEM.

The Herald today offers special facilities for buying war bonds in honor of Howard county's own fighting men. It's a program called "Bonds For Buddies," and it is to be handled in conjunction with the Third War Loan which opens Thursday. Briefly, it works like this:

Every citizen of this county is urged to buy a bond—in the largest denomination you can afford, but of any amount—in tribute to one of Howard county's men in service.

The purchase is to be made at Third War Loan headquarters, chamber of commerce, at any time from Sept. 9 to 30. There, you will sign the bond application, leave your name, and the name and complete military address of the service man being especially honored.

Your name—together with that of the service man—will be published in a special "Bonds for Buddies Honor Roll" which will appear daily in The Herald.

Further, the newspaper will send a special letter to the service man, advising him of the bond purchase that has been made in recognition of the sacrifice he is making, and letting him know that the folks at home are ready and willing to sacrifice, too.

The bond belongs to you, of V-Mail to any men on the foreign fronts. They will go directly, too, to any men stationed in the United States.

The bond belongs to you of course; but it will take on extra value when it becomes a special sacrifice, too.

This week we tackle perhaps the biggest job Howard county has ever undertaken, namely the raising of a $1,791,400 war bond quota between now and the end of September. There can be no holding back anywhere if this is to be met, and it has been wisely suggested that those who have been favored with income increases in salary or in business, ought to be right out in front leading the way in this essential campaign.

City commissioners will have a busy session Tuesday. First they must ponder a replacement for T. J. A. Robinson, who has resigned as a member of the board. Then they must study sewer plant expansion plans. Finally, they have the water situation and tax rate to look over. As for the tax rate, taxpayers may expect it to remain right where it is.

Jumping back to the sewer plant enlargement, we hope that plans finally adopted are so designed that the unit not only will be adequate for a city much larger than Big Spring, but that it also will be so arranged that it can be added to with minimum expense if the occasion should arise.

Faster Bombers Used For New Type Of Concentrated Raid

LONDON, Sept. 4 (AP)—Hundreds of RAF heavy bombers—all speedy Lancasters engaging in a new type of attack—bombed Berlin with 1,120 tons of bombs last night in the most concentrated air raid ever made upon Germany.

The cascade of bombs fell at the rate of 50 tons a minute in this third saturation assault on the Nazi capital in 11 days.

The new tactics—dropping the slower Halifaxes and Stirlings out of the raiding formations and putting the whole fleet over the capital in a concentrated period of time—apparently were designed to cut down losses to night fighters, and seemed successful.

Twenty-two bombers were lost last night over Berlin and in raids on the Rhineland and French airfields and in mine-laying—compared with 47 bombers missing from the raid Tuesday and the 58 lost in the Berlin attack a week ago Monday night.

A great procession of Mitchells, Bostons, and Venturas followed the softening-up offensive today, battering important railway junctions at Rouen, Amiens and Abbeville, the air ministry announced, switching daylight targets in northern France from airfields to freight yards.

Escorting Spitfires met little enemy fighter opposition for the second straight day.

Even greater blows are to come, for Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of U. S. army air forces, declared today that the U. S. daylight bombing campaign of nazidom would be stepped up in "the near future" with far bigger bombers able to fly through worse weather than flying fortresses.

This campaign now has No. 1 priority on American heavy bomber production, Arnold said, and "we are progressing with development of planes, crews and the technique for a British-based tactical air force. When the time comes for continental invasion we will do what the tactical air force in northwest Africa did so brilliantly in Tunisia and Sicily and now is doing in Italy."

The general declared that "if the Germans don't stop our bombers, they won't have any airforce left, and without any airforce they won't be able to continue the war."

With the German airforce under almost continuous 24-hour strain, the Nazis appeared still to be groping for defenses against bomber forces making a shambles of Berlin.

Jap Losses Mounting Under Allied Fury

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sept. 5 (Sunday) (AP)—Japanese losses in planes and ships in the Southwest Pacific are skyrocketing under the increasing blows of the growing air power of the allies. In three days this month 73 enemy planes have been destroyed and others damaged or probably shot down.

More than 2,000-ton cargo ships and three two-ton barges have been sunk. Other cargo ships and a destroyer have been set afire.

The fury of the attack by American and Australian airmen is even greater than in August when 584 Japanese planes were destroyed and ten merchant ships and 500 barges sunk.

Tighter Manpower Controls Are To Be Established On West Coast

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—In a move to assure that vital shipbuilding and airplane plants on the west coast get sufficient workers, the government established tight controls tonight over all labor in the area and set up machinery for trimming other war and civilian production there if necessary.

Making the program public, War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes said it would be effective Sept. 15 and was based on a plan developed in Buffalo, N. Y. "If it is equally successful in the west coast area," he added, "it will be extended to other areas."

Byrnes said work already aimed to "restore and maintain the essential balance between production demand and manpower supply."

Fall Of Stalino, Major Steel City, Believed Near

By JAMES M. LONG

LONDON, Sunday, Sept. 5 (AP)—Russian troops pursuing a battered German army retreating toward the Dnieper and Desna rivers yesterday seized the rail heart of the axis supply network in the Donets Basin in a 15-mile smash that imperiled the steel city of Stalino, Moscow disclosed early today.

One Russian column was only 18 miles from Stalino after the converging Soviet forces killed more than 2,500 Germans. The Russians also held three railways leading into the city, and Stalino's fall was believed near.

A dispatch from Associated Press correspondent Henry C. Cassidy, who is with the Russian steppe army in the Ukraine, said the Germans were beaten on a 600-mile front, were unable to mount a general counter-offensive, and were falling back to the Dnieper and Desna rivers.

Cassidy's dispatch was based on a front line tour and talks with Red army officers directing the tremendous Russian summer offensive.

Ilovayskaya, only 18 miles southeast of Stalino, was seized, the Moscow daily communique announced today, as were Nikitovka and Gorlovka, 20 miles to the north, and Yenakievo and Debal'tsevo, 25 and 35 miles, respectively, to the northeast.

The Russians overran more than 90 villages, captured huge stores of axis guns, tanks and ammunition dumps in their semi-encirclement of Stalino, the communique disclosed. The swift gains probably will hasten a German withdrawal from the Donets to the Dnieper river 125 miles to the west.

In the northern Ukraine the Red army, spilling across the severed Bryansk-Kiev railway captured Korop, 17 miles west of that line, the communique said, in a drive so swift that 3,000 Russian civilians fled in a German concentration camp were freed before the Germans could evacuate them.

This plunge northwest of Konotop, axis base 25 miles to the southeast, apparently was an encircling move on Konotop which already is menaced by Soviet units attacking within 14 miles north of the city and 30 miles to the east. But the capture of Korop also placed the Russians near the Desna river, last main water hurdle before the Dnieper river.

Mounting signs of axis disaster in the Donets were evident in the communique, which said several Soviet formations alone destroyed 65 German tanks during the day, and captured scores of guns and hundreds of supply trucks.

German forces based at Stalino, axis southern headquarters, now risk encirclement if they have not already begun evacuating that industrial zone which they seized in October, 1941. Russian troops converging on the city from three sides already have penetrated far beyond the highwater mark of the Russian offensive of last winter.

The seizure of the metallurgical center of Nikitovka broke the backbone of the German rail network because the city lies on the vital Taranog-Slavyanak and Taranog-Dnieleperetrovsk lines serving the crumbling German salient. Stalino lies on a branch railway southwest of the two main lines, and already is cut off from Slavyanak and Artemovsk, which likewise are threatened with early capture.

"The Voroshilovograd region is now completely liberated from the German fascist invaders," said the bulletin, recorded by the Soviet monitor.

He said that regional OPA authorities would go to Washington within the next few days in an attempt to solve the problem.

Under the overall direction of the War Manpower Commission, the main points of the program include:

1—Adjustment of production programs by the War Production Board to meet the available labor supply as reported and developed by the WMC.

2—Establishment of an area production urgency committee to make recommendations for changes in schedules of war factories.

3—Establishment of an area production urgency committee to make recommendations for changes in schedules of war factories.

WILLIAM JEFFERS

Rubber Program Well Underway, Jeffers Quits

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—Rubber Director William Jeffers resigned tonight, telling President Roosevelt that "the big job" of the rubber program had been completed.

Jeffers told the president that with the rubber problem in hand, "the greatest contribution I can make in the present emergency is to return to an on-the-job handling of the operations of the Union Pacific railroad" of which he is president.

The president, praising Jeffers for performing a "real public service" as rubber director, wrote him that "much as I dislike to have you leave the public service at this time, I cannot ask you to make a further sacrifice."

While the exchange of letters, made public by the White House, did not refer to a successor, it was learned from reliable sources that Jeffers had recommended his deputy director, Colonel Bradley Dewey, president of the Dewey and Almy Chemical company of Boston, to succeed him. Dewey has virtually a free hand under Jeffers in guiding technical phases.

The White House announced verbally, however, that Dewey had been named acting director.

The copies of the letters made public by the White House were not dated, but Jeffers associates said he sent his note to the White House on Thursday, but would remain in Washington a week or so before returning to the Union Pacific headquarters in Omaha, Neb.

In his letter, Jeffers told Mr. Roosevelt:

"The problem of taking care of the requirements of the armed forces and keeping the country on rubber, meanwhile conserving the nation's stock pile of natural rubber, is well in hand, though there is a present and prospective shortage of the fabric, which is the responsibility of the War Production Board."

"All of the major synthetic rubber plants, the construction of which is under the jurisdiction of the office of rubber director, are either completed or substantially so, with the exception of three. Practically all of the material is available for the completion of these three plants."

To date the war against Japan has been in the preliminary stages of great offensive operations. From information now available it is clear that the conclusion of these stages is rapidly nearing. In Allied circles here there is a feeling of grim confidence that a real two-front fight by the United States and Great Britain is at hand.

This implies no change in the beat-Hitler-first strategy. It reflects rather official application of the immense outpouring of air, planes, ships, guns and other munitions, especially from the vast arsenals of the United States.

The nation appeared today to have begun one of its safest Labor Day weekends in modern years.

As against last year's three-day total of approximately 350 violent deaths, a nation-wide survey by the Associated Press showed that 10 p. m. (CWT) Friday to 10 p. m. (CWT) last night, 31 persons died in accidents.

Enemy Resistance Is Feeble; Major Ports Capitulatate

By EDWARD KENNEDY

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 4 (AP)—British and Canadian forces swiftly enlarged their bridgehead on the toe of Italy today in the face of feeble enemy resistance both on the ground and in the air, and there was yet no indication where the German high command would elect to make a determined stand.

Reggio Calabria and San Giovanni, the only ports of consequence on the mainland shores of the Messina Straits, capitulated quickly after Allied assault forces landed yesterday on a 10-mile front and rounded up a large number of Italian prisoners.

(The United Nations radio at Algiers, quoting a dispatch received at Allied headquarters, said tonight that the invasion forces were successfully extending their gains towards the north and east of Italy's toe. Powerful fleets of planes and tanks continued to support the British and Canadian forces, said the broadcast, heard in London.)

(Radio France in Algiers, in a broadcast also heard in London, said Saturday night that the Allied bridgehead had been extended up to a depth of three miles during the preceding 24 hours. Massive reinforcements were reaching Calabria without interruption, the broadcast said, and added that Italian soldiers were surrendering in groups.)

Axis broadcasts today told of "large scale" British landings at noon yesterday at Melito and Cape Spartivento at the extreme southern tip of Italy, and the broadcast Italian communique said Melito had been evacuated.

The Allied communique made no mention of landings at these points, or at Scilla, just north of San Giovanni, which the Germans said was occupied yesterday.

(These axis reports indicated that the Allies may have established a beachhead of 45 miles—assuming all the beach from Cape Spartivento to Scilla was held—but there was no confirmation from Allied headquarters.)

Doubt that the Germans would try to make a real stand on the Calabrian peninsula arose after Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's 8th army forces punched quickly through the enemy's light coastal defenses and Allied aircraft searched vainly for important targets in the area.

An Allied military spokesman said the enemy had not yet employed tanks in defense of the fortress of Europe and that only a few axis planes were even sighted by the huge fleets of Allied fighters and bombers ranging

Full-Scale War Against Japan?

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—American and British war production is growing so large that the allies are about ready to undertake full-scale war against Japan as well as Germany.

This was determined on the highest authority today. Presumably it was the central truth of much of the planning at the Anglo-American conference at Quebec and remains a dominant theme in the military phases of the talks between President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill here.

To date the war against Japan has been in the preliminary stages of great offensive operations. From information now available it is clear that the conclusion of these stages is rapidly nearing. In Allied circles here there is a feeling of grim confidence that a real two-front fight by the United States and Great Britain is at hand.

This implies no change in the beat-Hitler-first strategy. It reflects rather official application of the immense outpouring of air, planes, ships, guns and other munitions, especially from the vast arsenals of the United States.

Two Killed By Electric Wire

FORT WORTH, Sept. 4 (AP)—Adrian C. Broussard, 54, credit manager for Texas Electric Service company, and Miss Lucrictia Allen, 15, were killed today when they fell across a live wire after the automobile in which they were riding hit a utility pole.

Two other women were in the car at the time of the crash. Broussard and Miss Allen, police said, got out of the car to investigate and evidently stumbled and fell across the wire.

Miss Cora Emma Simmons, 20, an employe of the electric service company, one of the other occupants, was treated for cuts and shock received when the car hit the pole. Mrs. Peggy Jane Ware, 20, half-sister of Miss Allen, was not injured.

Lives of Miss Simmons and Mrs. Ware probably were saved by the quick action of A. A. Gritman, who saw the accident from his front porch and pulled them away from the live wire.

The attempts of a newspaper correspondent to expose the activities of foreign spies in this country give rise to the hilarious doings in Samuel Goldwyn's comedy production, "They Got Me Covered," showing today and Monday at the Queen theatre.

The RKO Radio release co-stars Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour as a pair of news syndicate employees. Miss Lamour as the manager of the syndicate's bureau in Washington, Hope as a foreign correspondent who is in bad with his

When a mysterious European offers to sell him a complete confidential report on the personnel and activities of the Axis agents in America, Hope leaps at the opportunity. Before he can get the story, the Axis spies learn of the threatened betrayal, pursue the mystery man, intercept the account he has just dictated, and kidnap the stenographer who wrote it.

Hot on the trail, Hope follows in an effort to rescue his informant and save the girl as well as his precious story, but he too is kidnaped by the gang. What happens thereafter leads to the many side-splitting and thrilling highlights of the climax.

In "Destroyer," showing today and Monday at the Ritz theatre, Columbia brings to the screen a story of a salty Navy man's faith, pride in his ship, and his supreme confidence she will weather all storms and fight her way to victory no matter what the odds.

Edward G. Robinson portrays Steve Boleslavski, old Navy man who returns to sea when he finds his old shipmate, Regis Toomey, is to command the new John Paul Jones.

Robinson's handling of the role is as salty as a seaman could wish and Toomey as the skipper is so Navy it's hard to believe he hasn't sailed and fought on destroyers. Glenn Ford, as chief bo'sun's mate, who succeeds Robinson when he makes a serious mistake on the shakedown cruise, does a fine job as a cocky new Navy man, finally working arm and arm with his shipmate to save the destroyer and help her defeat a Jap submarine after she has driven off a Jap aerial attack. He also wins the girl, Marguerite Chapman, who, as Boleslavski's daughter, tries to smooth things out between her father and boy friend.

Edgar Buchanan, Leo Gorcey and Ed Brophy supply good comedy as shipmates whose spirit is awakened by Boleslavski at the crucial moment. Photography by Franz Planer is tip-top. Screenplay is by Frank Wead, Lewis Meltzer and Borden Chase.

Laurel & Hardy Stage Antics At The Lyric

The antics of Laurel and Hardy embellish the business of Civilian Defense in "Air Raid Wardens," now playing at the Lyric Theatre. But the comedians only poke fun at themselves, and amid the laughs succeed in teaching an impressive lesson in patriotism.

The comical partners, as bicycle dealers, are turned down by the armed forces, and become local air raid wardens. All goes well until they try to enforce a blackout, run afoul of the uncooperative Edgar Kennedy, and are "fired" as a result. Eventually they uncover a nest of saboteurs and emerge as public heroes.

They have a series of side-splitting routines, skillfully directed by Edward Sedgwick, who was once a comedian himself. There is a touching moment when Stan Laurel says farewell to his warden's whistle, with the remark, "I want to do anything Uncle Sam wants me to, and if he wants me to stop being an air raid warden it's all right."

Beautiful Jacqueline White and Horace McNally, as the editor and his secretary. All goes well until they try to enforce a blackout, run afoul of the uncooperative Edgar Kennedy, and are "fired" as a result. Eventually they uncover a nest of saboteurs and emerge as public heroes.

Dual Role—Dashing and handsome Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., plays a dual starring role as the daredevil hero of Edward Small's production of "The Corsican Brothers," which is showing at the State Theatre today and Monday.

Fairbanks Plays Dual Role In Dumas Classic Today At The State

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., one of the screen's most popular personalities, returns to the screen as the swashbuckling hero of Edward Small's lavish production of the Alexandre Dumas classic, "The Corsican Brothers," at the State theatre today and Monday.

Directed by Gregory Ratoff and based on the screen adaptation by Howard Estabrook, "The Corsican Brothers" not only brings Doug, Jr., back to the screen after a fourteen-month absence but stars him in a dual role. His leading lady in the film is Ruth Warrick, and others who are featured in the supporting cast include Henry Wilcoxon, Akim Tamiroff, J. Carroll Naish, John Emery, H. B. Warner and Gloria Holden.

Briefly, the story of "The Corsican Brothers" involves a vendetta between two powerful Corsican families. The feud is carried on to the following generation, when the twin brothers of the destroyed Franchi family decide to avenge the murder of their parents by Baron Colonna. Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., portrays the twin brothers of Corsica of the 1850's—brothers who are emotionally and temperamentally so close in spirit that when they are separated, each experiences the same thoughts and reactions as the other.

Among the most spectacular and lavish sets constructed for the production were the castle and courtyard of the wealthy Franchi family. During one sequence, there is a gay party celebrating the birth of the twins. A large crowd of extras are in the courtyard, making merry on roast ox and strong drink, which consists of cold tea. There are a score of dancers, doing a farandole, in which they were coached by a former member of the Imperial Russian Ballet. Musicians scrape fiddle strings and cooks carve huge joints.

Outdoor scenes were shot on location in Sherwood Forest, once chosen by Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., as the spot for filming one of his greatest successes, "Robin Hood."

Time Turns Backward

RALEIGH, N. C.—North Carolina motorists who purchase automobile license plates after September 15 may well reminisce of the pre-war days, for the registration division of the department of motor vehicles says they will get 1941 plates.

To save metal, the state issued 1943 tabs to be attached to 1942 plates. No, department officials say, there is a shortage of the 1942 plates and within the next two weeks they will begin issuing the 1941 plates to new purchasers until the 1944 plates go on sale in November.

Deputy Clerk William Shad proclaimed the opening of court, with Lydic watching from the sidelines.

Female Figures Play A Major Role In Solving The Manpower Problem

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE
WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—Female figures make a big difference from now on. You'll have to put on your glasses to look at them because—

The War Manpower Commission has just uncorked figures which need explaining. Take a look:
Between now and this time next summer 1,100,000 more women must go into jobs, including the armed services and non-farm jobs. WMC says 100,000 women are in the armed forces now. The number must climb to 300,000 by next summer, an increase of 200,000.

There are 14,800,000 now in non-farm. This must rise to 15,700,000 by next summer, an increase of 900,000. Actually that increase must be reached by January, must remain steady right through next summer.

Where will they come from?
1. Of the 600,000 women now unemployed, WMC figures 200,000 will get jobs, leaving an "irreducible" minimum of 400,000 unemployed who are women shirking jobs, quitting jobs, looking for jobs, finding them, being replaced in the unemployed ranks by women quitting jobs, looking for jobs.

2. Some students may not return to school this fall and some women working on farms—the kind called seasonal workers—may decide to go into war industries at harvest's end.

3. WMC points to what it calls its most available womanpower pool—non-farm wives between the ages of 20 and 55 without children under 16.

Only last April, WMC says, there were 5,600,000 such women. Suppose 25,000 such women lived in New York where there might be no jobs for them. Suppose at the same time there were 25,000 job openings in Kansas City.

If those New York women had family obligations there they couldn't go to Kansas City to ease the shortage.

So much of the problem—in spite of the national figures given by WMC—must be handled locally, where the needs arise in a certain community or city.

For that reason, recruitment drives will be undertaken in areas where the womanpower shortage is acute.

The first art colony in the Rocky Mountain west was founded in 1871 at Colorado Springs by Eliza Greatorex, first woman member of the National Academy. Since that time the town has become a leading cultural center of the west.

Passenger traffic in the 10 trunk line railroads serving New York totaled 221,000,000 persons in 1942.

The first practical seeding machine was patented in the United States in 1840.

It's School Time Again, With Classes Starting Tuesday

Rural Enrollment Around 700; Some Schools Needing Teachers

An enrollment of around 700 is expected in county schools this fall, Walker Bailey, superintendent, estimated Saturday as plans were completed for start of school Monday.

Each rural school is following its own plan of having pupils attend school either Monday or Tuesday, but the majority of pupils will probably enroll Monday, receive books, and be dismissed.

The teacher picture for the fall is in fairly good shape for the rural schools although at last reports Coahoma, Knott, Forsan, and Morgan schools still lacked some of their faculty.

No new courses have been added or dropped in the schools although all courses have been made uniform so that a pupil may now transfer in the middle of the year and not lose out on any work.

Teachers were in the superintendent's office throughout the week to receive books and supplies. Several new text books have been received for many of the courses.

Changes this year include Fairview pupils attending Moore, Knott and Big Spring schools; Richland pupils attending Centerpoint, Big Spring and Knott, and R-Bar and Vincent schools transferred to Coahoma.

Green Valley pupils will attend the Coahoma school and Morris pupils will be divided between Coahoma, Big Spring and Gay Hill. Chalk school has transferred to Forsan for the year.

Faculty for the rural schools for the year is as follows:

Gay Hill—Mrs. Hattie Bryson Lacy, principal; Wanda Warren, primary; Centerpoint, Mrs. Louise R. Hair, principal, Mrs. Muri Bailey, intermediate, and Elizabeth Edwards, primary; Midway, H. F. Malone, principal, Arsh Phillips, assistant principal, Gretchen Smith, Louise Holden.

Forsan, Don McRae, superintendent, Joe T. Holliday, principal, Edith Richardson, Lela Goin, Iris Dunlap, Mary Green, Mrs. W. B. Dunn, Mrs. Margaret Clark, Mrs. Blesse Cathcart, Mrs. Joe T. Holliday, Kathleen Hubbard, Bessie Jones, Camilla Holsager.

Elbow, Mrs. Edna Weed, principal, Mrs. Miller Harris, Mrs. Mary Swanson; Couble, Mrs. T. M. Dunagan, principal, Mrs. Anna Bell Pruitt York; Moore, Anna Smith, principal, Twila Lomax, Cecil Nalley; Hartwells, Mrs. M. J. Allen; Lomax, Fae Anderson, principal; Bonnie Dale Anderson, Vealmoor, Mayme Clanton, principal, Mrs. Porter Motley.

11 New Teachers On Coahoma Staff

COAHOMA, Sept. 4—New faces held a two-to-one advantage over the old as Coahoma teachers assembled here Friday for their conference with Superintendent George Boswell in advance of the school opening at 9 a. m. Monday.

Only five of last year's faculty are on hand while there are 11 new teachers. Boswell said that he was still in need of a Spanish teacher, and even if he filled the place the faculty would be two under last year.

Vocational agriculture has been dropped for the duration due to instructor difficulties, but other courses remain intact.

Enrollment will be about the same, predicted Boswell. About 15 high school students from Midway will go to Big Spring instead this year, but then Coahoma is taking on more elementary students from outlying common school districts.

Following opening exercises Monday, registration will be held and teachers will make assignments. It promises to be a short day for students.

New teachers include Mrs. Rogers, Laura Mae Evans, Nell Brophy, Mrs. Arner, Miss Smith, Mrs. B. A. Cramer, Mrs. I. H. Severance, Miss Kelsay, Georgia Griffin, Mrs. Floyd Hull, and John Hume. Miss Kelsay, incidentally, is the band director.

All Teachers To Have Busy Day Monday

Reading, writing and arithmetic will begin Tuesday at 8:30 a. m. for pupils of the city schools, Superintendent W. S. Blankenship announced Saturday, but teachers will have to be on hand for a full day Monday Labor Day.

A general faculty meeting will be held at 10 a. m. at the high school and each teacher will check over supplies and equipment in order to be ready for the rush of pupils Tuesday morning.

Enrollment figures for the year will not be known definitely until the end of the week but the superintendent estimated that it would be around the same as last year. Last year there were 2,222 enrolled in the city schools, a drop of 54 pupils as compared with 1941.

There will probably be a heavier enrollment in the grade schools but a slightly lower number in the high school, Blankenship said.

No new courses have been added in the system although most science and mathematics courses have been revised as pre-induction courses for pupils destined for the armed services. The only course to be dropped is pre-flight aerobatics since only eight pupils have asked for it. However, if more request the course this week, it will not be dropped from the curriculum.

The faculty situation is in fairly good shape with only two vacancies apparent. One is a mathematics teacher in the eighth grade and the other is an elementary school teacher. Blankenship said that these could be filled with supply teachers.

Six transfers of teachers from the Kate Morrison Americanization school, which will close Friday for the cotton picking season, helped prevent vacancies, according to the superintendent.

John A. Coffey, high school principal, announced that eighth grade students would meet in the high school gymnasium at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday. Former eighth grade students who are entering high school will be shifted from the following rooms to these: Those who were in 103 last year to 218; 113 to 311; 118 to 314; 108 to 209; 109 to 301; 110 to 304. Those who were in 115 and 121 will be distributed among several rooms and may find their assignment on the bulletin board or from most of the teachers.

No student entering high school for the first time, other than those coming up from the eighth grade, will be registered before Wednesday. This applies to those coming from out of town schools.

Coffey said that Tuesday would be a full day with issuance of books, fixing schedules and making of assignments.

The Kate Morrison school closes Friday and will not open again until the first of the year. The Lakeview negro school will close September 17 and will reopen around the first of January.

Classes To Start At Colorado Tuesday

COLORADO CITY, Sept. 4—A faculty meeting will mark the opening of the new school term here Monday but first classes will not be held until Tuesday morning.

The faculty of 40 teachers, including two negro teachers, is complete. Ed E. Williams, superintendent, said two local ministers and a number of former teachers had been induced to return to the classroom to help bridge an instructional crisis, and these were exceptionally well qualified, he added.

The scholastic census is down by about 200 and Williams predicted a decline in enrollment "due to

Lamesa Faculty About Complete

LAMESA, Sept. 4—Virtually all teacher needs have been met here prior to the opening of school here Monday at 9 a. m., V. Z. Rogers, superintendent, announced today.

Only one elementary teacher is yet to be hired and the hiring of a teacher for the negro school has been delayed to ascertain needs on basis of enrollment.

First of a series of faculty conferences was held Friday in preparation for what promises to be a record enrollment this term. The scholastic census is up by 180 and since then meter connections have indicated that there has been no population decline. Gross enrollment last season was 2,277 whites and 112 negroes.

Supt. Rogers anticipated a small drop in junior and senior enrollments due to young men entering military service or holding down defense jobs.

Curriculum will remain about the same as last year, but a class in speech will be added at the high school. Preflight aviation will be offered again and the courses in secondary school mathematics and natural sciences have been geared to wartime needs. Demands for chemistry and physics appear to be increasing and Latin and Spanish classes will have more students.

Securing of a faculty has been much of a problem, for there was fully a 50 per cent turnover among teachers, Rogers reported.

The bullet proof tanks of a flying fortress need more than half a ton of rubber.

He said two less teachers would be required to handle an estimated 1,000 enrollment.

Odessa Pupils Are Registering

ODESSA, Sept. 4—Enrollment started Friday for Odessa schools, but first classes will not be held until Tuesday.

Murry H. Fly, superintendent, anticipated enrollment on a par with last year inasmuch as all houses in the city are occupied.

Faculty requirements have been met and Fly reported 108 teachers engaged, 15 of them holders of MA degrees. W. A. Miller, formerly deputy state superintendent and principal of the French Independent school district high school, is new principal of the high school. Fred Gage is principal of the south and east ward schools and G. C. LeCroy, who like Miller holds an M.A. degree, is new junior high principal. Margaret Logsdon, M.A., is north elementary head and Lucille Lucas is Goldsmith principal.

Odessa has 68½ units of affiliation. There are only seven other cities in the state who have more affiliated credits than Odessa. Only one school in Dallas outranks her.

Three-Power Parley Reported Arranged

Tank Production Sharply Reduced

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—The army's tank production program has been cut back approximately 40 per cent in the last six or seven months, principally because of cancellations of British and Russian orders for medium tanks.

Maj. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, director of material for the army service forces, said today in an interview that the cut-back represents the year's program of slightly more than one-third.

For 1944, the reduction will be about 50 per cent, he said, but production will be still slightly ahead of 1943. Original schedules were fixed nearly two years ago.

Few if any plant shutdowns have resulted. The result among the many thousands of sub-contractors is more difficult to determine, Clay added, but even among these the major part at least had shifted to other war production.

The cutback began early this spring, when the Russians suddenly canceled orders for between 5,000 and 6,000 medium tanks, said Clay. This was followed shortly by wholesale reduction of British orders. Subsequently, the Russians renewed some of their tank orders. But their overall requirements for American tanks still are only about one-third the original 1943-44 schedule.

The Red army needs other things—particularly trucks and locomotives—more than additional tanks. Shipping space and port facilities were limited, so the tank orders first were reduced.

Contrasted with these heavy cutbacks in British and Russian requirements for American tanks, said Clay, is the reduction of estimated requirements for our own army by only 10 per cent. All American armored divisions are now completely equipped with medium tanks, he added.

Mediterranean Commission To Include Soviet

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—A tri-partite meeting of Russian, British and American representatives has been arranged for the near future, it was learned today. In another move signaling closer cooperation of the three nations a Mediterranean commission is being established on which Russia will be represented.

This commission presumably will handle problems arising out of the progress of the war in that theater and what is to be done with Italy when she is knocked out of the war.

All United Nations—or at least those with Mediterranean interests—are expected to be represented on the commission.

There was no word as to where and when the tri-partite conference will be held. It will be attended by representatives of the state department and the Russian and British foreign offices.

While President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill have repeatedly made known their desire for a meeting with Premier Stalin, it is understood that the Soviet leader continues to reply that he cannot at this time leave the battle fronts. Thus there is no certainty that the tri-partite conference will be followed later by a meeting of the "big three."

The president and Prime Minister are reported, however, to feel that relations with Russia offered no problems which could not be surmounted.

Specifically, they are understood to be undisturbed by formation, with Soviet approval, of a free Germany committee in Moscow.

The Roosevelt-Churchill view is said to be that the committee represents chiefly an effort to divide the German people from their present Nazi government.

Likewise, it is reported that the Kremlin does not attach as great importance as did some people in this country to such Anglo-American moves as the negotiations which were carried out in Africa with the late Admiral Darlan.

While some in America called this dealing with fascists, the Soviets are said to feel that in military diplomacy it is all right to deal with the devil or his grandsons.

Bombardiers Compete At Victorville

The deadly precision of the American bombardier is to be demonstrated again today for the sixth time at the all-American Bombing Olympics which will take place at Victorville, California.

Eight bombing colleges including Big Spring, Midland, Childress and San Angelo in Texas; Deming, Roswell and Albuquerque in New Mexico; and Victorville in California have each entered a team of three of their best bombardiers. Each contestant will have assigned to him his own pilot and photographer.

The meet will begin promptly at 8:00 a. m., and continue for about four hours during which time each bombardier will drop six bombs of the 100 pound sand-filled practice type. Bombing will be done from an altitude of 8,000 feet at a target which consists of a 200 foot circle centered by a shack. This shack is affectionately referred to as "Berchtesgaden," and the team which scores the most hits on or around "Hitler's Hideout" will win the prized pickle barrel trophy. The bombardier cadet with the highest individual score will be acclaimed as the all-American Bombardier.

The three crack bombardiers representing the Big Spring school at the Olympics are Eugene A. Mensinger of St. Louis, Mo., James O. Morris of Youngstown, Ohio, and John W. Miller of Ocean City, Md.

These famous aerial war games are held every three weeks, and the parent school of the winning team retains the trophy until it has been won in competition at future bombing Olympics.

Russians Told Of Allied Offensive

MOSCOW, Sept. 4 (AP)—The first news of the British-Canadian landings in southern Italy was broadcast to the Russian people near the end of the regular 10:30 news report last night.

Short London dispatches were quoted announcing the Eighth army's pre-dawn crossing of the Messina Strait under the cover of artillery fire.

Beau Jack To Fight This Time, Against Bob Montgomery

NEW YORK, Sept. 4. (AP)—Little Beau Jack intends to swarm all over Bob Montgomery in an effort to win back the lightweight boxing title (New York and Pennsylvania version) at Madison Square Garden Friday night. The information that the Beau plans to fight differently than he did on May 21, when he lost the title to the Philadelphia Bobcat, came today from Chick Wergeles, manager of the former Georgia shoeshine boy. "It isn't that the Beau is changing his style, but rather that he didn't fight his usual way against Montgomery in their first bout," explained Chick.

Steers Due To Have Scrimmage This Week

The Big Spring Steers have been working hard the last week in order to have a well trained team to represent them in '43 when the squad meets Colorado City on the home field Sept. 17. Dewey Stevenson, fullback, and Barclay Woods center, were elected co-captains of the 1943 Steer football team Saturday as the team rounded out its initial week of practice still nursing sore muscles. It was the first practice for Wood.

About 40 boys have been on hand for two workouts each day the last week but will drop to one practice per day tomorrow because of the start of school. Coach John Dibreil has had the assistance of Jack Odle, former T. C. U. passing star, who has been working with the ends and backfield on passing and the handling of the ball. The first part of the week was spent mostly in getting the boys limbered up and in shape for the harder sessions scheduled next week. Friday was devoted to dummy practice and the gridgers were getting accustomed to the pads that were issued Thursday by Dibreil. All were hitting the dummy straight and hard and some of the non-seasoned players show signs of making good line men, although not much time has yet been given to blocking or defensive play. Dibreil has announced that the first scrimmage session will be either Tuesday or Wednesday and this will be the first real chance to see what the squad has in store for competition that promises to be tough and heavy, according to the sports writers of other 3-AA towns. The only comments that Dibreil had to make were that the Steers would use the T formation this season and that he was glad to say that there were no standouts on the team because they were working as a unit instead of as individuals.

Medalist was Lieut. Al Escalante, of the Big Spring Bombarrier school who has been haunting the country club course of late. He fired a neat par 72. Close on his heels with a 73 was Sgt. Lloyd Wadkins of the Midland Bombarrier school. The field of entries numbered 105, more than had been anticipated, and scores on the whole were good. There are six flights to take the field beginning at 7:30 a. m. today.

Chandler Adds 18th Win For The Yankees

NEW YORK, Sept. 4. (AP)—Spud Chandler, star right hander for the Yankees, personally accounted for his 18th victory of the season today, his seventh inning single scoring Joe Gordon from second base for a 2 to 1 victory over Washington.

Chandler's blow backed up his effective six-hit pitching that dropped his earned run average from 1.86 to 1.78, the lowest by an American pitcher in 24 years. He would have had a shutout, but for Roy Weatherly's error in the second inning. Weatherly dropped Sherrard Robertson's fly. Robertson reached second on the muff, went to third on an infield out and scored on Angelo Giuliani's single. Johnny Niggeling gave the Yanks only four hits, hurling hitless ball for the first five innings. But in the sixth Frankie Crosetti singled, went to second on Chandler's sacrifice, to third on a passed ball and scored the tying run on Bill Johnson's single. In the seventh after Nick Etten and Bill Dickey were easy outs, Joe Gordon walked and stopped at second on Crosetti's second single. Chandler then smashed a sharp single down the third base line to score Gordon.

BROWNS TAKE ONE
DETROIT, Sept. 4. (AP)—The St. Louis Browns snapped a string of five straight defeats from the Detroit Tigers today by walloping the Bengals, 12 to 5, in a game abbreviated to six innings by the weather. The game was called in the St. Louis half of the seventh.

FOURTH STRAIGHT
BOSTON, Sept. 4. (AP)—Dick Newsome won his fourth straight game today when he pitched the Boston Red Sox to a 2 to 1 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics. The Athletics' only run scored in the ninth when Bob Estalella hit his tenth home run of the season—a long drive high into the left field screen.

Occupy Is Winner At Washington Park
CHICAGO, Sept. 4. (AP)—Occupy charged to a length and a half victory in the $55,025 Washington park futurity today. Nelson Dunstan, at odds of 23 to 1, was second and Pressure was third.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Sept. 4. Kiefer beat Ford by more than four yards as he finished in 1:07, nearly three seconds off his world's record pace. Kiefer led all the way. The victory was sweet revenge to him for the close defeat he suffered yesterday when Ford nosed him out in the 220-yard free style. The lads are battling for top scoring honors and will continue their fight tomorrow when Kiefer is favored to win the 330-yard individual medley and Ford the 110-yard free style.

All In Readiness For Champion Calf Ropers At Midland Monday

MIDLAND, Sept. 4.—Roping calves and rodeo stock are in the pens, ropers and bronc busters are on hand, and everything is in readiness for the world's championship calf roping and rodeo card—to be presented Monday, Labor Day, at the rodeo grounds of Midland Fair Inc. here. The holiday program will start at 3 p. m., rain or shine.

A full program of roping, riding and bulldogging events will be given, assuring spectators of plenty of thrills and spills.

In the main roping contest of the afternoon, Clyde Burk of Comanche, Okla., will compete against Toots Mansfield of Big Spring for a purse of $2,500, winner take all. Both are three-time champions of the world in calf roping, Mansfield being the only man to win the coveted title three years in succession. He held the crown in 1939, 1940, and 1941. Burk was champion in 1936, 1938 and 1942.

The match this year is a return bout, Burk challenging Mansfield to a return engagement, using lighter calves, after Mansfield had nosed him out in a championship match here last September 13. Calves this year will weigh under 210 pounds. The men will rope 12 calves each.

Homer Pettigrew of Grady, N. M., world's champion all-round cowboy in 1941 and runner-up for the calf roping title that year, will meet Troy Fort of Lovington, N. M., in another special roping match as an extra added attraction. They will lasso six calves each.

Music for the western show will be furnished by the AAF band of the Midland Army Air Field. Hundreds of soldiers from Air Fields in this area are expected to attend. Enlisted men will be admitted at half price.

Congressman R. E. Thomason of El Paso, State Senator H. L. Winfield of Fort Stockton, and several high ranking military officers are among the dignitaries who have indicated they will be present for the celebration. Reservations have been made by rodeo enthusiasts from four states—Oklahoma, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

AAFBS Baseball Team Winds Up A Good Season

The Bombers—baseball team representing the Big Spring Bomber School—have called it a season, and a successful one at that.

Saturday it was announced that no more games would be booked this season, leaving the team with a record of eight games won against three lost, an enviable percentage of .727.

Only teams to defeat the Bombers were Carlsbad Army Air Field by a 5-4 count at Carlsbad; Lubbock Army Air Field by a 18-7 score; and Roswell (N. M.) Army Air Field here, 6-4.

The Bombers handed South Plains Army Air School at Lubbock, 8-3, then turned on the 90th Division Artillery from Camp Berkeley, 6-3. Then they tore into Lubbock AAF, winning 3-0, 4-3, 12-8 before losing. After dropping the tilt to Roswell, the Bombers came back to win 2-1 here and then took a pair of games at Roswell, 11-9 and 4-3, both extra inning affairs.

The team was managed by Lieut. Laymon, physical training director for the field.

Outsider Nabs Spotlight At Forest Hills

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 4. (AP)—The rank outsider in the men's division, Lieut. Joe Hunt of the navy, and the top-ranked favorite in the women's tournament, Pauline Betz and Louise Brough, proved that strength counts more than finesse in tennis today as they moved into the finals of the national singles championships.

Hunt, who was "drafted" to play half back on the Naval Academy football team a few years ago, pounded Bill Talbert of Indianapolis into submission, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4. Miss Betz, the defending champion from Los Angeles, and Miss Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., runner-up last year, used the same method in qualifying to meet again.

Miss Betz used her power to the utmost in the third set as she defeated Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., national girls' champion, 6-7, 1-6, 6-1. Miss Brough smashed her way to a 6-4, 7-5 victory over Dorothy May Bundy, former third-ranking woman player from Santa Monica, Calif., after Miss Bundy had reached set point three times in the second set.

Hunt's opponent in the men's finals will not be decided until tomorrow, as the match between Ecuador's Francisco Segura and third seeded Jack Kramer was put over to provide a Sunday attraction. Both finals will be played Monday.

AAA Payments Made On Land Fireguards

Although Howard county farmers and ranchers have been fortunate so far with few grass fires, continued drought has made ranges dry as tinder, M. Weaver, AAA administrative officer, pointed out Saturday in reminding of a little used AAA plan.

The agricultural office offers a payment for ranchers and farmers making fire guards around their pastures. The plowed fire guards must be in accordance with AAA specifications but to those who comply, the AAA can make a payment.

Weaver asked that any interested in securing such payments contact him at the office.

October Draft Calls Likely To Include Texas Fathers

Sterling City Schools Already In Session

STERLING CITY, Sept. 4.—Schools here Friday rounded out their first week of the 1943-44 term with enrollment steady and virtually a complete faculty of experienced teachers.

Only need now, reported J. R. Hale, superintendent, was a coach, and failure to secure one might be blamed on the housing situation as much as anything. Meantime, Hale and H. M. Carter, vocational agriculture teacher, are handling physical training. A PE teacher for grade schools has been added this year.

Due to the community's needs, the school operates a complete vocational agriculture and home making department.

The school started out right on its traditional bond and stamp sale with the postoffice last week selling over $500 of the issues. Doors were opened Monday and there were as many patrons on hand as students.

GOVERNORS TO MEET
DENVER, Sept. 4 (AP)—Twenty-one western and southern governors will meet in Denver September 17 and 18, Governor John C. Vivian said today, to discuss states' rights, freight rates and other matters.

Swallows always stop at the same roosts during seasonal migrations.

Some Counties Will Be Able To Grant Delays

Prospects are that no Pearl Harbor fathers will be called by the Howard county Selective Service board before October, but if that month's call has any size, it is almost certain that it will require some pre-war pappies to fill it.

This was the estimate by George White, chairman of the Howard county draft board Saturday, and fell pretty much in line with a general trend over the state.

However, some Texas fathers may expect to be drafted by October 1, a state wide survey by the Associated Press indicated.

A Sherman draft board expects the supply of eligible men to be exhausted with the September quota. Navarro county draft board No. 1 said it had enough single selectees for the ordinary October call, but the county's board No. 2 declared it would be necessary to call fathers in the October quota.

Of 11 San Antonio draft boards, six expressed the intention of taking fathers in October, one said such a step would not be required, and four declined to be quoted.

Austin boards were preparing for a manpower inventory Sept. 16-30 during which classifications were to be suspended, but members indicated fathers would not be called up before the last week of October.

At Beaumont draft boards were supplying lists of deferrable jobs to fathers who inquired, but most fathers of military age appeared willing to take their chances with the draft rather than move to other communities where essential jobs were available.

Lubbock county's two draft boards said it was unlikely they would summon pre-Pearl Harbor fathers, or at least not many, before November.

Mrs. M. Pearson, chief clerk of the Laredo draft board, announced that no fathers would be drafted from Laredo in October and probably not until after the first of the year.

Hidalgo county draft board officials disclosed they would begin calling fathers for induction to meet October quotas, although there were sufficient men in other categories for September demands.

At Houston draft board Chairman R. R. Lewis said that pre-Pearl Harbor fathers in Harris county who enter essential work would be given 30-day deferments. Draft boards, he added, were arranging personal conferences with fathers to determine whether their work was essential or non-essential. He said Harris county fathers not in essential work would be drafted starting Oct. 1.

Only one of eight Tarrant county draft boards expected to call fathers in October. The others indicated fathers might be drafted beginning in November or December.

No Change Expected In Garden City's Enrollment

GARDEN CITY, Sept. 4.—School will open here Monday and prospects are that there will be little or no change in enrollment figures.

C. G. Parsons, superintendent, said that his faculty was incomplete. J. L. Carroll will be high school principal and Gracia Ross grade school principal. High school teachers will be Mrs. J. L. Carroll, Mrs. R. R. Ricker, Jessie Lightfoot, Dorothy Gene McCown, Wilma Tripp. Grade school teachers are Mrs. Mildred Ramsel, Blanche Killingsworth, Eulela Barber and Mrs. Jessie Henson. T. A. Alsop is school engineer. The district also employs seven bus drivers, one of whom, J. W. Hardy, Jr., is also the mechanic.

Student Decline Is Foreseen In Borden

GAIL, Sept. 4.—Enrollment is due to be down in Borden county schools, L. A. Pierce, county judge and county superintendent, said today.

Gail school will open Monday as will other schools in the county. Only one school is due to recess for cotton picking and all schools will have nine-month terms.

Scholastic census shows about a 10 per cent decline over last year. All teacher places have been filled.

Pilot—Second Lt. B. L. Scudday, son of Mrs. John C. Scudday of Foran was graduated Saturday as a D-24 bomber pilot from the AAF Pilot school at Fort Worth Army Air Field. Lieut. Scudday won his wings and commission at Altus, Okla., after completing preliminary flight training at Pine Bluff, Ark., and Winfield, Kas.

Sergeant—Ollie Claude McDaniel, above, after five months in the army has been promoted to the rank of sergeant, he has notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie McDaniel of Big Spring. Sgt. McDaniel is stationed as machine gunner at Camp McCain, Miss., and has just returned from vigorous eight day maneuvers in the area.

One Of Twin Babies Claimed By Death

Terry Glenn Dunlap, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Foy Dunlap, was buried Saturday in the local cemetery after succumbing at birth Wednesday at 1:23 p. m. in a local hospital. The baby was one of twins, and the other twin, named Jerry Lynn, survived and is doing nicely.

Services were held Saturday at 5 p. m. from the Eberley chapel with J. D. Harvey, Church of Christ minister in charge. Last rites were delayed pending arrival of the father, Foy Dunlap, from Seattle, Wash.

Survivors include the parents and brother, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pike of Foran and Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Dunlap of Elbow.

Old Magazines Are Wanted At The USO

Special services of the Big Spring Bombardier school issued a request Saturday that townspeople leave old magazines at the USO for them beginning Monday for a week.

The magazines are to be compiled into files for the soldiers including one for the theatre on shows, one for the library on reviews of recent books, and one of army personnel and warfare to be used in ground school classes.

City Suspending Business Monday

Monday will generally be observed here as a holiday with most stores and offices closing their doors. Offices in the courthouse with the exception of the sheriff and constable's departments will be closed.

Judge James T. Brooks said that county commissioners would meet Monday morning in a regular session to handle routine matters but would probably adjourn unless there were pressing problems needing attention.

The ration office announced that it would be closed but the draft board and rent control office will remain open for the day.

There will be no district court in session as grand jurors were not ordered to report until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock when they will be impaneled.

Service In Midland For Mrs. Waller

Services will be held at 5 p. m. Sunday in Midland at the Ellis Funeral home for Mrs. Lillian Louise Waller, who died Friday at 10:05 p. m. at a local hospital.

Mrs. Waller, who was 63 years old, had been ill for the past four days. The Baptist minister will be in charge of the services.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson Rogers of Baton Rouge, La.; two brothers, E. Guy King of Odessa, and Forrest King of Midland; three sisters, Mrs. Margaret Plumer of San Antonio, Mrs. Alma Thornton of Stanton and Mrs. Eunice Keahey of Sturgis, Mich.; and two nieces, Mrs. Tom Watson of Odessa and Mrs. Roy Cornelson of Big Spring.

Eberley Funeral home took the body overland Saturday to Midland.

New Rental Forms Are To Be Used

New type change of tenancy forms have been received here by the Rent Control office. Charlie Sullivan, area director, said Saturday and old type forms held by landlords will have to be exchanged for the new ones.

Each landlord must file a change of tenancy form with the ration board within five days after acquiring new renters, Sullivan reminded.

A visitor in the office Friday was D. K. Bondurant of Lubbock, district rent director, who spent the day before going on to Midland to visit its office.

Mrs. Hogue Dies; Rites Pending

Mrs. Alice Amanda Hogue, 82, succumbed Saturday morning at 9:50 o'clock at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Floyd Ashley of Luther.

Services are pending arrival of relatives but will be held from the First Baptist church of which she was a member. The Rev. F. D. O'Brien, pastor, will be in charge.

Mrs. Hogue was the widow of the late Thomas Jefferson Hogue, who died here in October, 1934. Burial will be beside the grave of her husband in the Mt. Olive cemetery. She had resided in the county for the past 37 years.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Ashley of Luther, Mrs. S. A. Callihan of Big Spring and Mrs. Bill Everett of Sonoma, Calif.; six sons, Walter M. of Dallas, George of Calallen, Tex., Ben of Big Spring, Amos of Vincent, Emmett of Stanton and Tommy of Big Spring.

Twenty grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Annie Lawlis, Vernon, also survive.

Eberley Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

"STALIN'S SENSATIONAL WITHDRAWAL OF HIS AMBASSADORS FROM BOTH LONDON AND WASHINGTON"

Or

THE COMING RUSSO-GERMAN ALLIANCE AS DESCRIBED IN THE BIBLE

Text: "Thus saith the Lord God: Behold I am against thee, O Gog (Emperor) the chief prince of Meshech (Moscow) and Tubal (Tobolsk) . . . I will bring thee forth and all thine army . . . even a great company . . . Persia, Ethiopia, Libya . . . Gomer (Germany) and all his bands, the house of Togarmah (Turkey) of the north quarters, and all his bands and many people with thee."

- Will there be any negotiated peace between Russia and Germany? This is the question that English and American diplomats have been wrestling with for months. It is the gravest question of the hour!
- The discussion of this very serious angle, was heightened during the past few days, when Stalin suddenly withdrew his ambassadors, from both London and Washington, and this was timed to take place at exactly the day the Quebec Roosevelt-Churchill Conference started.
- No explanation has been given for this sudden termination of Diplomatic representation at our capitals. What is its real significance?
- What is going on, behind the mask in the Kremlin? Is Stalin well pleased with Allied control and command of the Mediterranean?
- Here is a statement perhaps you have forgotten: "The Soviet Union, as everybody knows that has the courage to face the fact, is a dictatorship as absolute as any other dictatorship in the world." President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Feb. 11, 1940.
- The Bible speaks of Russia and Germany and predicts an Alliance between them. Are we approaching that hour? Sunday evening, I will discuss the present situation, and also these Scripture prophecies.

Attendance Small At Local Museum

According to Mrs. Mary Bumpass, who is in charge of the West Texas museum here, attendance is steadily falling off. This is probably largely due to the gasoline shortage, and to the ban on the swimming pool, which at one time brought so many people to the park.

Mrs. Bumpass states that while on Sundays they sometimes have as many as 100 visitors, weekdays bring only two or three. For this reason there has been much discussion on possibility of opening the museum on Sunday only, although nothing definite has been arranged as yet.

Visiting hours at the museum at present are from 8 to 8 p. m. on weekdays, and from 1 to 6 p. m. on Sundays.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Green are visiting in Colorado City with Mrs. Roxie Witten and J. M. Green.

Notes

MARY WHALEY

Just like Chicken Little, a few drops of rain fell on our head Friday and scared us half to death. It looked like rain, it felt like rain, and it smelled like rain. But like Chicken Little, we figured it must be the end of the world.

Fascinated we watched the drops, the like of which haven't been seen in these parts for many months. Choosing a comfortable spot, we sat down to watch the queer things that were coming down out of the sky.

We tried to recall just what rain looked like but, couldn't quite remember. The small black cloud over our head looked like pictures we have seen of rain clouds, but our common sense told us that it couldn't be.

Rain is something that went out of style along about in May and hasn't been back in fashion since then. We noticed a few people looking dazed and muttering to themselves as they put out their hands to catch a few drops of the stuff.

But before anybody could get too excited or lose their sense of balance, the wet drops stopped and in a matter of seconds the sidewalks were dry again. The drops vanished as if by magic. People shook their heads and walked on.

Undoubtedly it was merely the strain of a long summer. Mirages appear to overheat brains, and people fancy they see all sorts of things. It could have been rain but we went home and took a nap. We felt better when we woke up and determined to take it easy—we've just been working too hard. And yet—it could have been rain.

Making Draft Law Complete

According to a recent Gallup poll about 79 per cent of the American people believe a man should be drafted for a war job the same as he is drafted for military service.

any difference between drafting, which it was never intended that is, as a club to compel draft-age men to get a war job by threatening them with a uniform if they don't.

Perhaps it has been necessary to mislead the draft law in this manner because congress, lacking the political guts to draft men for war work, left the whole issue up in the air.

We never have been able to see a man as a soldier and drafting him to do necessary work in some factory. If there is any choice in the matter, it is all on the side of the industrial worker. He doesn't get shot at. He gets high wages. He can keep his family with him.

But with one eye on the ballot box, congress gave us a halfway measure with respect to manpower. To one fellow it said, put on a uniform and make it snappy; to another, it said please find a war job. No compulsion about this latter, except when the draft law is used as a club.

It hasn't worked well, and surely nobody expected it to in the first place for it makes an unnecessary and untenable distinction between the types of service to be rendered the nation in time of peril.

In Britain, even women and girls have been drafted for war work right along; no excuses except motherhood accepted. The same in Russia. The same in all axis countries.

But in this country the best we have been able to do is make a lot of threats, most of them empty, about getting a war job or else. If we ever have another life-and-death crisis on our hands, which God forbid, let us hope congress goes the whole way and creates a draft law that is a draft law. If it says to one man, get a uniform, it should say to all other able-bodied men, get a war job or else. And it should also say to people with a lot of idle money on their hands—buy bonds or else.

THE LONG NIGHT By Eleanor Atterbury

Chapter 11 Four hours after Bette and Sue tossed sleepless, restless in their narrow beds, Bette considered taking Sue into her confidence. Even of asking her to join in the hunt for Paul Porter. It would help having someone along.

But on second thought, Bette abandoned the idea. In case anything happened, it needn't cost the hospital two of its much-needed staff. And, she thought grimly, plenty might happen! No one had found any trace of Jap snipers near the Post. But no one had explained, satisfactorily, the sabotage of the bombers either.

Then, buttoning her warm topcoat high about her throat, and glad that she'd had the good sense to wear two pair of heavy wool socks under her thick hiking boots, she struck off toward the stream bank.

She pushed on, scrambling over log jams and windfalls, going faster along the narrow graveled beaches and bars. But it was hard walking and for all her physical stamina, Bette was beginning to feel her leg muscles pull. But each bend in the river beckoned her farther. She found herself hurrying to round each most curve, feeling sure it would bring her some sign, some indication that she was near the Porter camp.

There were plenty of signs of animal life. A kingfisher started up out of a bit of brush. Once two does stood watching as she rounded a turn, came toward them up the river. As she drew nearer, they turned, bounded off into the woods. But no sign of the half-breed Porter.

Then as the stream uncurred around another sharp bend, Bette stopped short, her heart in her throat. There, not one hundred yards from her, was a grizzly bear. For an instant she was too terrified to move. And in the next moment, good judgment caught up with her and she stood motionless as a carved image. The great beast made a sudden dash and pounced into the shallow water.

Hollywood—The Black Sheep Of The Famous Tufts Family

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD — When Sonny Tufts goes to see his mother back in Winchester, Mass., he'll be pretty sure that no brass bands will meet him at the station, nor will banners of welcome span the main streets.

The home towns of Ginger Rogers, Claudette Colbert, Robert Taylor and Clark Gable all may be right proud of their youngsters, but Sonny isn't counting on Winchester. He figures he has no leg to stand on, there. Winchester's Mr. Tufts went to Yale instead of Harvard. He became a night club entertainer. And finally he took up with those rowdies in Hollywood and went to work in the cinema. Imagine a member of the Tufts family, which founded Tufts college, doing things like that!

Sonny (who is content to be Sonny instead of Bowen Charleston Tufts III) seems to be bearing up under it. Maybe his heart is breaking but he doesn't show it. So Winchester isn't proud of him? Well, Paramount is after his first acting job in "So Proudly We Hail." And RKO is for his work in "Government Girl."

Washington Daybook—More Fights Looming On Drafting Of Fathers

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON — Capital observers are giving odds that the first big congressional scrap after the legislators get back will be over the draft of fathers.

The reason is quite simple: War Manpower and Selective Service are making a last ditch stand to avoid a universal draft of labor. By the reclassification of essential, if you want to put it that way, jobs and threat to pre-empt Pearl Harbor fathers to pull them into the armed services, they hope to drive enough men and women into war industries to take up the growing slack in the vital trades.

Some members of congress are up in arms against this kind of double-dealing.

They can make out a whale of a case. By ignoring the seriousness of the essential labor situation altogether, they can concentrate their argument on the contention that the armed forces are already larger than will ever be needed and leave WMC and SS very little ground to stand on.

Rep. Andrew J. May, (D-Ky.) chairman of the house military affairs committee, has promised that his committee will give a thorough airing to the whole draft-father picture. There already is more proposed legislation in the congressional hopper than will ever see the light of day, but one bill is almost sure to come in for much discussion. That is the one by Rep. James W. Wadsworth (R-N. Y.). It's a "universal draft" measure which would provide for registration of both men and women for assignment to the armed forces, essential industry and agriculture—as needed.

Even some extremists in the military are admitting privately that we can't use more than a portion of the 10,000,000 or 11,000,000 men now in the armed forces or soon to be. Unless expediency forces the use of vast numbers on the prospective western and southern fronts (something less than half a million men of all Allied Nations were used in North Africa and Sicily) there is hardly a possibility that half of our present planned force will be needed. The war in the Pacific is certain to be, it is said, one principally of sea and air power—not manpower.

That, at least, will be the arguments that opponents of the draft-father movement will put up. Considering the appeal to the politicians of getting on the "save-the-home" bandwagon, it's almost positive the draft-father movement, even if it should be a military necessity, will find little sympathy "on the Hill."

What It Means Level-Off In War Production

By ROBERT M. FARRINGTON The summer level-off in war production is over and the torrent of guns, planes and other munitions is expected to increase steadily through the rest of the year.

This is not due to the elimination of some one single defect in the production picture; it is a general improvement of a number of things which caused a plateau in May and June production and set leaders worrying publicly about complacency and absenteeism.

While these contributed to the unsatisfactory figures, they were not an important factor. Actually, there was no drop in production. We made less than the schedules called for (which were a five per cent increase over the previous month), but May's production was equal to April's, and June's two per cent more. July shows a considerable improvement and this upward trend is expected to continue. Aircraft manufacture was less than the Army and Navy asked for but still a tremendous production figure. Some of the reasons that we did not reach our goal for planes were design changes, faulty parts, manpower shortages, poor distribution of raw materials and failure of engine manufacture to keep up with demand.

At the time that President Roosevelt spoke of our making 125,000 planes in a year, we had not tested our theories of plane design in battle. As we pitted our best against the Messerschmitt and the Zero, we found advantages and weaknesses in every American plane. Simple improvements were made quickly without interrupting the fast pace of construction. But when a radical alteration in design, or a new plane, became necessary, production had to suffer while the changes were made.

Naturally, the specific nature of the changes in our planes which slowed production this summer is a strict secret, although it is known that a number of improved models are in the works. Because it is unfair to chart production of planes on numbers alone (a trainer can be turned out in a fraction of the time it takes to build a four-engine bomber) the War Production Board now figures volume on a weight basis—and is not too satisfied with that method.

For instance, in the time it takes to build 10 of the big, super-bombers perhaps 100 fighters could be made. But 10 of those monster ships in the right spot might be worth several hundred fighters, so neither man-hours nor weight alone tell the whole story of plane production. If we had been foolish enough to freeze all designs when war broke out, we could have easily reached to the original goal of 125,000 planes a year. The Germans fell into this trap when they were trying to get vast numbers of planes quickly. The RAF had fewer planes, but more up-to-date in design, and consequently blasted the Luftwaffe out of the sky in the Battle of Britain. Airplane engines, too, have had to be changed constantly to keep ahead of the enemy. We may find later that the improvements made this summer in our engines

(which slowed mass-production manufacture) were a deciding factor in utterly smashing the air forces of Hitler and Hirohito. After struggling for months with the new heart-breakingly complicated Rolls-Royce engine, Packard has just announced the company is in production with it. This engine and our P-51 fighter, some airmen believe, will be the super-champ of the air, absolutely unstoppable in any language.

Cut-backs in requirements of such weapons as tanks, certain anti-tank guns, machine tools, etc., beat down the true production figures because none of these cut-backs were taken into account when weighing the actual production against schedules. If the goal for tanks was say, 5,000, but the Army reduced this to 2,000, a production rate of 2,500, 25 percent more than the Army actually wanted, would figure as a 50 percent "drop," because actual production was only half the original schedule.

Now that some of the major cut-backs are out of the way and design changes fairly well jelled for the present, production can pick up again and the succeeding months of the year will show encouraging increases, it is believed.

OK, He Gives Up OAKLAND, Calif.—E. B. Rutledge paid for a hotel room with a $1,000 bill that he thought was only $10.

Police Lieut. L. M. Carroll said the hotel manager discovered the error. Next day, Rutledge again registered at the hotel, and was brought to police headquarters to be given his $990 change. "It's not mine," he insisted. "Sure, I had a $1,000 bill but it's in my trunk." "It wasn't." "All right," Rutledge acknowledged. "I guess it's mine."

Malta, strategic British island no larger than Martha's Vineyard, has resisted Axis attack for over two years with the enemy 58 miles away and the nearest British base 1,000 miles across the sea. Malta has had over 2,500-air raid alerts, and has destroyed or damaged at least 550 Axis aircraft.

How To Terminate War Contracts Is New Problem For Post-War Planners

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4. (AP) — Whether war contracts should be ended abruptly or tapered off gradually when peace comes has developed into a major controversy among postwar planners.

The issue was brought into the open by Dr. Stanley F. Teele, deputy director of the War Production Board's procurement policy division, in a speech at Chicago yesterday.

Dr. Teele plumped for prompt termination of contracts, "quick cash" from the government to reimburse contractors and aid their reconversion, and the use of federal funds to pay dismissal wages to workers.

The WPB official gave this as a "personal hope," stressing that opinion in Washington had not congealed. Other officials here disclosed that industry itself is divided on the question.

Those industries to which the war has brought unparalleled expansion and to which peace would bring a swift and probably lasting deflation, advocate a gradual shut-down of war production to minimize immediate postwar dislocations. Typical of this group are shipbuilders, mining operators and machine tool makers.

In the other camp are those makers of tanks, ordnance, aircraft parts and the like who would welcome the chance for a quick farewell to war goods and a speedy return to production of automobiles, locomotives, refrigerators and radio sets.

To help make the quickest possible conversion to peacetime products, Dr. Teele said he favored the general principles of the Murray bill. This would require the government to pay, within 30 days after receipt, 75 per cent of a contractor's claim for reimbursement on expenditures made in connection with his cancelled contract.

The rest would be paid after review and adjustment. Provision is made to protect the government from grossly inflated claims.

England did not produce more than 45 per cent of her foodstuffs before the war.

When the country was over run by its next door neighbors, no effort was made by King Christian or his people to resist since that would have been national suicide with its small army.

However, with the Allied successes, Mrs. White believes that the Danes believed the time must be near to start their revolt or else the fires of wrath and hate that had been burning under cover for so many months finally broke out into open rebellion.

The Danish people are slow to wrath, Mrs. White says, but once their temper flares "then its time to watch out," she says.

Mrs. White was a nurse in Copenhagen and supervisor of the University Hospital there. She recalls King Christian, who is now interned in his castle with his queen, as a "lovely person" whom she met several times.

She was nursing the queen's lady-in-waiting once and the king and queen came to call on the lady. Later after her recovery, the lady-in-waiting entertained with a small party to which Mrs. White was invited.

Again she met the king and queen and among other guests were two pretty young girls who afterwards became the future queens of Belgium and Norway.

1944 Synthetic Tires Will Give Good Service, Jeffers Asserts

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4. (AP) — Rubber Director William M. Jeffers said today that the all-synthetic tires on which millions of motorists will be rolling next year will come close to pre-war wearability.

Should it become possible to lift the 35-mile-an-hour speed limit, Jeffers told reporters, drivers could run "at normal speeds" on synthetic casings without fear of tire failure. He didn't define normal speeds.

Increased familiarity of tire-makers with the new material and constant research improvements, Jeffers said, will put synthetic about on a par with crude rubber for mileage.

Reports that the war-born tires would have to be trundled along at covered-wagon speeds were dismissed as "plain hooey."

"They'll be able to stand up under ordinary care and treatment," Jeffers said.

Early synthetic tires showed a life of about 15,000 miles under testing, but the rubber chief pointed out that manufacturers were working with a strange material then. But now, he added, they have "learned a lot."

After a convulse of company and rubber union workers, Jeffers said agreement had been reached for "substantial reduction" of the proposed $95,000,000 tire factory expansion program.

The unionists had objected to the building of new plants where their locals would not be established, and contended that next year's production goal of 30,000,000 synthetic tires could be met by installation of machinery in existing plants.

The management spokesmen agreed to review their expansion plans and eliminate any new plants not absolutely necessary.

the hairs in his ruff, see his sleepy little eyes. Still, he had no awareness of her existence.

As he drew abreast of where she stood, he stopped. Bette's muscles tensed for one last hopeless sprint—hopeless because she could never out-run him. Swinging his head lazily he looked down at the next pool. For seconds he stood there. Only by supreme effort did Bette hold back a scream. Then he plunged. So rapidly it seemed incredible for so large a body. Water in the pool splashed high. A moment later he stood up, a huge salmon in his mouth. When he'd eaten that, he moved on down the stream.

For minutes after he was out of sight, Bette didn't move. Then it was to sink down on a flat rock at her feet, pant weakly. Never in her twenty-three years had she felt death brush by quite so close.

And now—she glanced up at the bank behind her—how to get back? It was foolish to risk going on, meeting the grizzly's mate, for example. Nor did she want to follow him down the stream. Her only way would be—

Her glance caught, froze. There on the bank above her, his gun slung carelessly from the crook of his arm, stood a man. So immobile he might have been part of the wild underbrush. This time Bette couldn't hold back a sharp scream.

To Be Continued.

Danish Revolt Followed Closely By Mrs. White

One person who is following the stories of the Danish people's revolt with more than casual interest is Mrs. Charles White of Big Spring, who resided in Elsinore, Denmark until 1926 and whose father was interned by the nazis as a prisoner of war in the spring of 1940.

Mrs. White has heard from her father only once since his internment and that was through the Red Cross. Since he was a member of the council of the city of Elsinore, he along with other men of any political or educational standing was immediately made prisoner.

For almost three years the Danes have lived under Nazi rule and except for underground sabotage Denmark was hailed by the Nazis as the perfect pattern for other occupied countries to follow.

When the country was over run by its next door neighbors, no effort was made by King Christian or his people to resist since that would have been national suicide with its small army.

However, with the Allied successes, Mrs. White believes that the Danes believed the time must be near to start their revolt or else the fires of wrath and hate that had been burning under cover for so many months finally broke out into open rebellion.

The Danish people are slow to wrath, Mrs. White says, but once their temper flares "then its time to watch out," she says.
