

Every Citizen Called To The Attack Tonight In Buying War Bonds

Thrilled by the knowledge that the collapse of Italy will shorten the war, the Howard county Third War Loan army was on the move today to do its own part in hastening Victory and saving more American lives.

Its part is the subscribing of $1,791,400 in government securities during the Third War Loan which opens today to last through September.

So far in September, purchases have been only $15,392. There was a good demand at the issuing agencies today, however, including War Bond headquarters at the chamber of commerce, which will be staffed each day from 11 a. m. to 10 p. m. by volunteer workers from various women's clubs.

The attack really will be touched off this evening at 6 o'clock, when 15 bombers from the AAFBS roar over the city for brief maneuvers. Their approach will be signaled by the city fire siren.

Then, at 6:15, one of the city's most impressive patriotic parades will move through the downtown streets. In the review will be the band, a squadron of cadets, vehicles and WAC detachments from the Big Spring Bomber school; the high school band, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and other uniformed groups.

The procession will wind up at the east side of the courthouse square, where Howard countians will be given the opportunity to translate their patriotism into war bonds, in the first of a series of sales rallies that will be held during the campaign. Rev. P. D. O'Brien, master of ceremonies for the program, will handle the sales, assisted by women volunteers. The rally will follow an inspirational address by Judge Cecil C. Collings, numbers by the AAFBS band and by entertainers from the post.

"We're just getting under way," said Drive Chairman Ted O. Groehl Thursday morning. "We think every man, woman, boy and girl is ready to do his part. We face this drive with confidence. We know we will win. We summon every citizen for the parade and program this evening to launch our attack."

Sheriff's Bond Honors County War Casualties

An inspirational example in the "Bonds for Buddies" program was set today as the Third War Loan drive got under way.

A $1,000 bond was purchased by Howard county's sheriff and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Merrick—not in tribute to one service man, but in memory of all those Howard county lads who have made the supreme sacrifice. The bond honors all the dead and missing.

Sheriff Merrick planned the tribute some days ago, but waited until the start of the Third War Loan to make his purchase. In memory of the boys who gave all, he said, it is a privilege to make an investment in freedom and quick victory—the things for which the supreme sacrifice was made.

Two $500 bonds were purchased today to honor Capt. Frank Fisherman, who is in Sicily. They were bought by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fisherman, who occupy another bright place on the "Bonds for Buddies" Honor Roll.

Those who will buy a bond as a tribute to any boy in service are asked to clear their subscription through Bond headquarters at the chamber of commerce. There the name and address of the serviceman will be taken, so that he may be informed, in a special letter that the folks at home are "backing the attack."

Russians Capture Ukraine Center

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—The Russians in a special order of the day tonight announced the capture of the north Ukraine rail center of Bakhmach, 15 miles west of Konotop and 110 miles east of Kiev.

Bakhmach already had been partly bypassed by the swiftly advancing Russians who had captured several points to the northwest, cutting the railway to Gomel.

Marshal Stalin's order of the day was broadcast by the Moscow radio and recorded here by the Soviet monitor.

Italian Prisoners Told Of Surrender; Some Of Them Weep

HEREFORD, Sept. 9 (AP)—Some Italian prisoners of war wept, others took the news of Italy's capitulation without sign of emotion, Col. A. N. Risdon, commander of Hereford war prisoner camp here, disclosed today.

The Italians, numbering between 3,000 and 4,000, got the news of the surrender this morning for the first time. They include officers and enlisted men.

Reds Push For Dnieper River

MOSCOW, Sept. 9 (AP)—With the great steel center of Stalino and the rich Donets industrial basin safely in their grasp, two victorious Red armies swept forward today on the heels of the demoralized Germans fleeing to the Dnieper river, their last main line of defense on Russian territory.

Front dispatches placed the Russian troops less than 70 miles from the Dnieper at some points, but the Germans were exposed to a greater immediate danger in the region to the south of Stalino. Here their entire southern flank was exposed to the Russian armored offensive, from Mariupol on the Sea of Azov westward to the Isthmus of Perekop and the Gateway to the Crimea.

The entire 600-mile front stretching as far north as Smolensk was ablaze as the mighty Russian war machine plunged ahead to rid Russian soil of the invaders before the heavy autumn rains—already beginning—make mobile warfare impossible.

Americans In Italy Due To Win Freedom

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Italy's surrender is expected to mean freedom for approximately 2,000 Americans and 70,000 British and Canadian troops and civilians now held as Italian prisoners of war.

"It can be assumed that the unconditional surrender accepted by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower took into account the immediate release of all prisoners of war and that they will reach Allied hands as soon as conditions allow," the British war office said today.

INJURIES FATAL

HILLSBORO, Sept. 9 (AP)—Mrs. Fred Charles Moldor, 31, died here last night from injuries received in an interurban-panel truck collision in which her husband was killed and eight other persons injured.

Musso Dragged Out Of Office 'Brute Force' -- Berlin Version

By The Associated Press The Berlin radio broadcast today its version of Benito Mussolini's downfall—that Mussolini was "dragged by brute force" from the royal palace, strapped to a stretcher and spirited away in an ambulance.

His removal on July 25, the broadcast said, was the result of a secretly-planned coup d'etat between King Vittorio Emanuele and the present premier, Pietro Badoglio.

Americans Land Near Naples, Fight Fiercely With Germans

Carrier Force Lays Waste To Marcus Island

Not A Jap Plane Challenges US Navy In Its Bold Stroke

By TOM YARBROUGH

PEARL HARBOR, Sept. 9 (AP)—The biggest aircraft carrier force ever sent on a single mission in the Pacific, boldly appearing 900 miles past Japanese-held Wake and within 1,200 of Tokyo, sent bombing planes for eight hours over Marcus Island Sept. 1 until enemy defenses there had been laid waste.

Not a Japanese plane got off the ground. Not an enemy bomber showed up from other bases within range. Not a ship from Nippon's war fleet interfered at any time with the American task force, simply bruiser for a fight in so-called enemy controlled waters.

One-ton block buster bombs, dropped for the first time from carrier-based planes, blew up Japanese hangars, fuel, ammunition stores and living quarters and pock-marked two million runways—facilities which the enemy had improved 400 per cent since Marcus first was raided in March, 1942.

From an aircraft carrier near Marcus, I saw these planes take off before dawn Sept. 1 to begin the job of reducing Marcus to ruins. Hour on hour into mid-afternoon, dive bombers, torpedo bombers and fighters—Grumman Hellcats making their debut in combat only to be disappointed by the complete absence of enemy air opposition—kept up a methodical pounding.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, in a communique yesterday disclosing the first details of the raid, estimated that fully 90 per cent of the military installations on Marcus were destroyed.

The bombers made 300 individual runs. The fighters, which wiped out seven twin-engine bombers, parked in a line, made 350 strafing runs and fired 150,000 rounds of ammunition. Delayed action bombs churned areas of smoke and fire into a new fury.

The fire was so intense that they still were burning a day after the raid. All this occurred in an area covering only 740 acres.

Six More Jap Ships Sent To The Bottom

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Six more Japanese merchant ships have been sunk by American submarines and four have been damaged in attacks on enemy supply lines, the navy announced today.

The ten successful attacks raised to 319 the total of Japanese transport, cargo and warships which have been reported sunk or damaged by American submarines since the war started.

This total includes 223 ships definitely listed as sunk.

20 Million Tons Of Shipping Completed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—The Office of War Information reported today that American ship yards have delivered more than 20 million tons of merchant vessels since Pearl Harbor.

Exact figures on United Nations shipping losses in the third quarter were not given, but the OWI said "we are now delivering ships several times faster than the enemy is sinking them."

Heaviest Blows Yet Directed At Invasion Coast

By GLADWIN HILL

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—With Allied forces swarming into the heart of fallen Italy, the greatest formations of American and British bombers ever hurled across the channel by daylight pounded today at enemy ports and air fields in northern France, carrying into the eighth consecutive day a terrific aerial offensive which may form the final prelude to invasion from the west.

The unprecedented assault, launched in conjunction with the largest invasion exercises ever seen in the channel, climaxed 18 hours of steady pounding of Hitler's Atlantic fortifications during which not a single Allied plane was downed by German air units charged with defending Europe against the long-awaited push.

Enemy naval vessels and coast artillery were among the prime targets of the vast bombardment accompanying the invasion rehearsal which kept the French coastline alight all night with bomb bursts and anti-aircraft fire and rattled windows this morning six miles inland from the English shore.

American flying fortresses and Thunderbolt fighters spearheaded the widespread daylight attacks. First announcements from U. S. headquarters and the British air ministry said American heavy bombers and RAF fighter-bombers struck at air fields and other targets in northern France while fighter squadrons patrolled the channel and swept over France—all with remarkably little opposition.

American and British medium and light bombers started off the intensified attack late yesterday, sowing devastation around Boulogne. An authoritative announcement said Marauders of the U. S. 8th air force hit the same targets in daylight today.

The Berlin radio quoted the German news agency DNB as saying that Paris was the target of at least a portion of the huge bomber fleet which headed for Europe early today. The broadcast said that attack was made on the northwestern part of Paris by both American and British planes.

Dispatches from Folkstone said the great burst of daylight activity started shortly before 7 a. m. and during the first hour alone hundreds of Marauders, Venturas, Mitchells and other bombers roared out across the coast in packed formations.

The paucity of enemy aircraft testified to the thoroughness of the Allies' seven-day preliminary campaign against German operational bases in France and indicated the enemy's wariness to match his declining air strength against the Allies' mounting superiority.

English coastal residents who went through the battle of Britain and subsequent Allied forays said they never saw such a big fleet over such a short time as the procession of hundreds of planes which strated over soon after dawn and still was being augmented two hours later.

Many Calling On Tax Officials For Help

According to H. W. Axe and W. H. Harrison, the internal revenue inspectors who are in room 17 of the post office to render assistance to all who must fill out income tax estimates, the people are coming to receive help in extremely large numbers and many more are expected before five o'clock Saturday when the two close their office.

Axe said that people who come to the office must have the amount of tax so far paid, the estimate of the total amount of income for the year of 1943, the estimate of the total amount of victory and withholding tax and the total credits for the entire year of 1943. Those people who want assistance are urged to visit the office as soon as possible in order to avoid the last minute rush.

Volunteers Assist In Ration Work

Five volunteers showed up Wednesday night to assist members of the local ration board with filing and doing other paper work. Working until 10 p. m. were Pic Richardson, Ira Shroyer, M. E. Ooley, Mike Smith, and Josephine Dabney.

The office plans to stay open one night a week in the future until it gets caught up with filing.

Germans Claim They Hold The Northern Area

Reports Say Hitler Has Determined To Fight To The End

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—A German military spokesman announced today that "north and central Italy have been occupied by German troops," a Berlin broadcast said today.

"In so far as the occupation had not been carried out already it has now been done. In most towns of Italy the armed forces allowed those forces to be disarmed (by Germans) without offering resistance," declared the broadcast, still quoting the Nazi military spokesman.

At the same time the spokesman declared Allied troops which landed Tuesday on the Gulf of Eufemia, north of Palmi, had been enveloped by German troops and "their annihilation was imminent Wednesday evening."

Reuters reported from Stockholm that Adolf Hitler had held a war council today at which it was decided to reinforce the German Po line and fight to the last man.

At the same time the German radio began issuing a stream of orders, apparently for the purpose of confusing the Italians and contradicting earlier steps taken by the surrendering Badoglio regime in Italy.

FIGHTING REPORTED

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—The Germans announced tonight that Italian troops "occupied Brenner Pass" on Tuesday—one day before the announcement of Premier Pietro Badoglio's unconditional surrender—and acknowledged that Italian troops have been fighting the Nazis in some parts of Italy.

In a broadcast—repeating and emphasizing the Nazi line that Italy's capitulation was "treacherous," the German international information bureau, a propaganda agency, made these disclosures while claiming that the internal situation in Italy still was generally in German control.

AIR BASES WANTED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Allied forces sweeping through fallen Italy are believed to have one prime military objective—the occupation of air bases from which to destroy Germany's oil sources in Rumania and Hungary.

Bases within easy bombing reach of the great oil center at Ploesti, Rumania, and the lesser fields in Hungary may prove to be the key to Hitler's whole European fortress.

Nine Named In Indictments

Grand jurors returned seven indictments involving nine men after being in session Tuesday and Wednesday and were ordered to report back to 70th District court on September 30 at 10 a. m.

Indicted were Jim Tim Forrest Henry, forgery; Paul Harris, rape by force; Lavern Smith, forgery; Robert Hillburn, theft; and E. A. Hart, passing forged instrument. Arrests involving four men in two other cases have not yet been made.

Bombers Wreck Headquarters Of Enemy At Rome

By EDWARD KENNEDY ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 9 (AP)—A powerful American and British force under U.S. Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark surged ashore in the vicinity of Naples, a third of the way up the Italian boot, at 4 a. m. today.

It was immediately engaged by German forces fighting fiercely in the midst of the chaos of Italy's unconditional surrender, but Allied headquarters announced that operations were going according to plan and that prisoners already had been taken.

At the same time it was announced that waves of Flying Fortresses, striking six hours before the armistice with Italy yesterday, had wiped out German military headquarters in Italy with a terrific half-hour bombing of Frascati, 12 miles outside Rome.

Official reports said the town, nearly every building of which was occupied by German officers, was leveled. The town, with a population of about 12,000, is famous for its wine.

The landing operations this morning (9 p. m., Wednesday, CWT) putting Americans into combat in Italy for the first time, initiated what was likely to prove the grimmest campaign yet fought in the Mediterranean theater.

British Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, who commanded Allied ground forces through the Tunisian and Sicilian campaigns, is directing the new operations of all troops in Italy, it was announced.

The make-up of Gen. Clark's force was not announced. He has been commanding the American Fifth army in North Africa, but Swiss and Swedish radio reports said it was the American Seventh army which was engaged in the Naples area.

The opening of the new Italian front in the Naples area promises the seizure of Naples, Italy's second greatest port, and also put the Germans in southern Italy under pressure from two directions as the British Eighth army under Sir Bernard L. Montgomery continued to drive up the tortuous Italian toe.

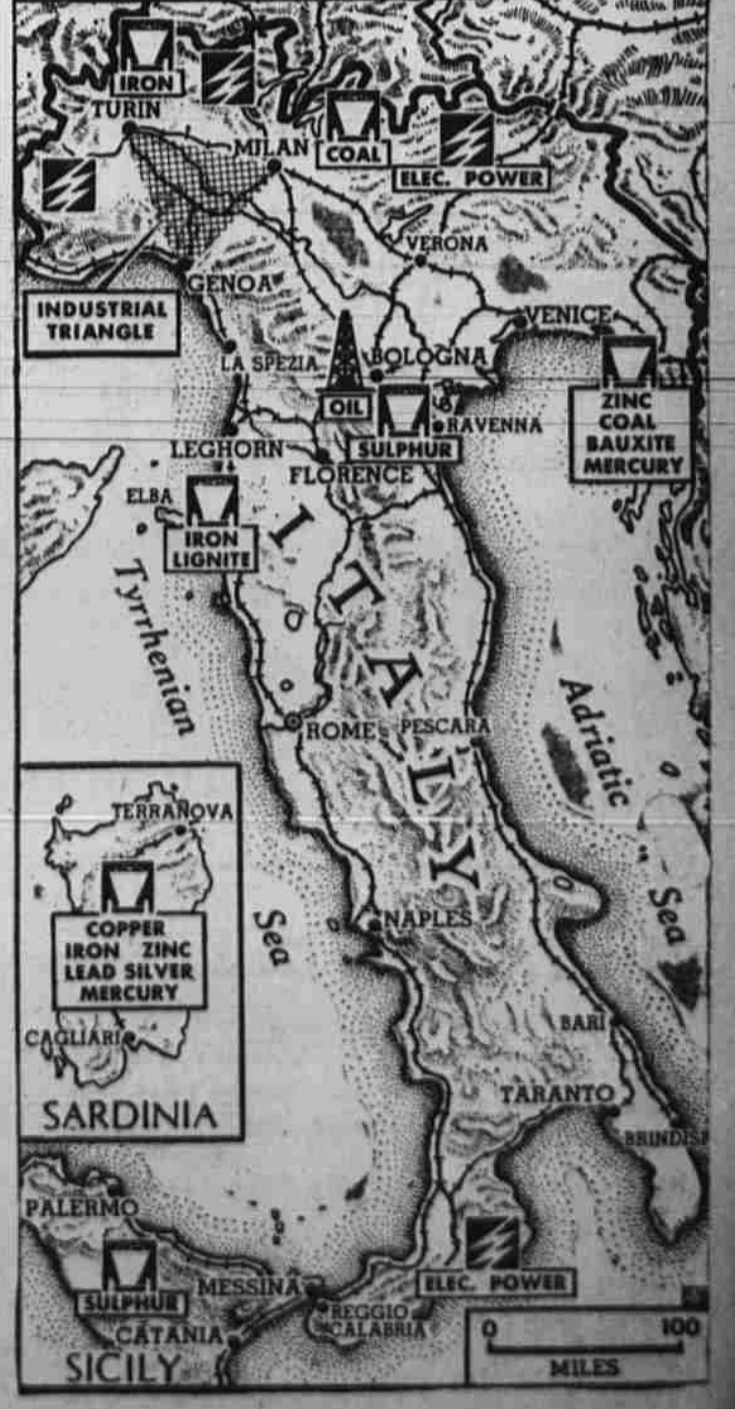

Northern Italy appeared to be under German domination. Although Italian armed forces were under orders not to fight the Allies, reports had not yet made clear whether all Italian units were abandoning the fight.

German broadcasts announced that a new fascist government had been formed—apparently a sort of German-sponsored government-in-exile to hold Italians in the fight.

The landing on the Gulf of Eufemia, first mentioned yesterday in a Berlin broadcast, was completed "after light opposition," the communique said, and was carried out in Royal naval vessels supported by warships.

Eight Army Makes Progress In The South

Canadian and British troops of the Eighth army "have moved forward considerably," the bulletin announced, adding that the lateral (See AMERICANS, Pg. 3, Col. 1)

road from Locri, on the east coast, to Gioia, eight miles above Palmi on the west coast, "is now in our hands."

The Eighth army thus has blocked off the entire southern end of the Italian toe. Events in Italy were moving at a dizzy speed since the kingdom's capitulation was announced yesterday, as the Allies rushed men and guns to the peninsula in a race against German forces.

British and American warships added to the assaults by bombardments of the Germans along the coasts.

Hitler Rushes Men To Prevent Break-Through

Hitler apparently had reached a decision, as announced by the Berlin radio, to throw the German army into a full-scale defense of Italy. Thousands of German troops, including some of the best, had been pouring into Italy in recent weeks in anticipation of an Italian surrender.

Hard-pressed as was the reich on the Russian front, Hitler apparently was straining every resource to prevent a break-through on the south.

As a consequence the Allied forces in the Mediterranean under Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower were presented with a gargantuan task that may speed up a decision of the whole European war.

Critical as was the Italian situation, however, Marshal Badoglio's proclamation calling upon Italians to lay down their arms against the Allies, was broadcast at 8 a. m. (1 a. m. Central War Time) today, indicating that his government still was in control in Rome at that time.

Men Apprehended On Liquor Charges After Wild Chase

What was described by officers as one of the wildest chases on record for the liquor control board here ended with the apprehension Tuesday night of J. B. Fowler and Ray Brown of Lubbock, who were charged in Dawson county court Wednesday with transporting liquor in a dry area.

The men were apprehended on the Lamesa highway after a chase from Ackerly to the highway. Liquor Control Board Inspectors M. M. Hood and J. T. Morgan said the men threw their whiskey out of the car bottle by bottle along the highway, necessitating a return trip by the inspectors to pick up the evidence dropped along the way.

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Reuters said in a dispatch from Teheran tonight that Iran has declared war on Germany.

Sgt. Holcombe, Once 'Missing', Is Prisoner

As though by miracle, the family of S-Sgt. Horace Newton Holcombe, given up as lost on a bombing raid over Germany when his Flying Fortress crashed into the North Sea, learned Thursday that he was alive and a prisoner of war in Germany.

The word came from Gen. Uilo, the adjutant general, and was sent to Mrs. Janet Shirley Holcombe, his wife. However, she is taking mechanic training at Duncan Field, San Antonio, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Howard, said that efforts to notify her had not been successful yet. Moreover, S-Sgt. Holcombe's mother, Mrs. E. W. Holcombe, was visiting in Denver, Colo., with a daughter, Mrs. B. L. Brake, and could not be contacted immediately.

The adjutant wired that a "report had been received through International Red Cross . . . that your husband, S-Sgt. H. N. Holcombe is a prisoner of war of the German government. A letter of information follows from the provost marshal general."

The Associated Press had reported on Aug. 19 that Sgt. Holcombe had discovered a fire in the plane while about 25 miles off the coast of Germany. Three engines were out and when the sergeant asked the pilot, Lieut. Eugene Wilcox of Moravia, Iowa, what he planned to do, the officer said he was going to "ride her down." Holcombe replied that if Wilcox "had enough guts to ride her down, I'll stick along."

He stayed in the waist fighting fire until the ship crashed and broke in two. Lieut. Wilcox said he feared Holcombe and some others had perished.

Believing that Sgt. Holcombe was dead, friends and the family held memorial services for him on Aug. 21 at the Lee's Baptist church where he was a member.

Question—Today at 8:15

Bidding Stronger At Weekly L'stock Sale

A good sale with better bids than has been usual in the past few weeks was reported by the Big Spring Livestock Commission company for its weekly sale Wednesday at the auction grounds.

Around 550 head of cattle were sold for a total of $20,000. Bulls sold to 10.50 and fat cows to 9.50. Butcher sows were from 6.50 to 8.50 and butcher yearlings went to 11.00.

Fat cows sold to 12.00 and stocker—steer—calves to 12.00 while stocker heifer calves went to 11.00.

Around a hundred hogs were sold with hogs bringing up to 14.00 and stocker hogs to 11.50.

First Baptist Choir Names Officers

Other officers chosen were Mrs. P. D. O'Brien, vice-president; Mrs. Vernon Logan, second vice-president; and Mrs. Orville Bryant, secretary-treasurer.

Here 'n There

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Cauble and granddaughter, have returned from a two-weeks trip to Mineral Wells.

Stephen L. Brooks, U.S. Marine of Route 1, Big Spring, has been promoted from sergeant to platoon sergeant at the Marine Corps base at San Diego. Platoon Sergeant Brooks is attached to headquarters company, service battalion.

Lieut. Buford Humphries, formerly a Greyhound bus terminal employe here, is polishing off his training at March Field, Calif., as a navigator. Possibly his next step will be overseas duty as navigator for a B-24 and also as squadron navigator, a pretty good position for an officer only one month out of school.

Names of winners of the record breaking Boy Scout Court of Honor here were inadvertently omitted in an account of the event carried in Wednesday's Herald. Troop No. 4 won both the attendance and advancement award with No. 9, last month's winner, as runner-up in both events.

Cpl. T. E. Jordan, Jr., who is stationed at Liberal, Kas., is here for a short furlough with his wife and relatives. He will return to camp Tuesday.

Arlena Kennon of Long Beach, Calif., is here for a two week visit with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Kennon. She is employed by Douglas Aircraft corporation.

Chauncey B. Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Long of Coahoma, has recently been promoted to the rank of technical sergeant. He has been announced from his field at Wendover Airbase, Utah. He is at present an aerial gunner, having enlisted in the army December 7th, 1941 at El Paso. He was formerly employed here by Cosen Oil Corporation in the pipeline department.

Announcement of the promotion of Worth A. Peeler to rank of sergeant has been made by Col. Robert W. Warrent, commander of the Big Spring Bombardier School. Peeler is a former Westex Oil employe here and is past president of the American Business Club. He is assigned to the post intelligence office. Cpl. Horace C. Shaffer, 605 Main, has been promoted to rank of sergeant. An aircraft mechanic in civilian life, he is a technical inspector at the post. Pfc. P. Cleaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snelling of Otis Chalk and a Forsan high school graduate, has been made a corporal on the 812th training line. Cpl. William E. Ramsey, 506 Nolan, has been promoted to rank of Sergeant. He is a former Cosen Petroleum Corp. employe.

$17,980 Is Goal In County For The United War Chest

Back from a regional meeting at San Angelo Thursday, Pat Kenney was laying plans for organizing forces to carry Big Spring and Howard county through its next big campaign—United War Chest drive in October.

With R. R. McEwen, co-chairman, he is drafting workers for key posts in the campaign, but so far as active steps are concerned, these will be delayed until after completion of the all-important third war loan drive during September. Starting date is tentatively for Oct. 1.

Howard county's quota for the war chest, Kenney announced, has been pegged at $17,980 as a part of the $4,885,781 Texas quota and the $123,000,000 national goal.

Italy Needs Food, Clothing And Medicine; U. S. Must Supply It

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9, (AP)—The Allies will have to put an economic hotwater bottle on the Italian boot to get it back on the ground and into shape again.

That is going to mean some food, clothing and perhaps medical care as a starter. And in return?

One government specialist in Italian economics, pointing out that the Allied military gains far outweigh any other benefits, says this country and Great Britain can expect very little in the way of goods or produce from Italy for some time.

He adds: perhaps the only thing Italy can spare now is briar for pipes.

But getting Italy started back toward normal will be necessary for the Allied armies moving north. The job will take time and will be the harder the harder the Germans resist expulsion from Italy.

The Allies—if for no other reason—would not want a hungry or rioting populace behind their armies facing the Germans.

Besides food, these appear to be the Italian needs:

Clothing, since Italy has been shut off from cotton and wool supplies from the war's start; shoes, perhaps; petroleum, which it has been obtaining from Rumania; fertilizer; and oil seeds, the seeds for human purposes and the residue of the seeds to make cattle feed. Italy's agriculture will have to be restored and therefore needs farm machinery but this will not be easy to supply since the Allies have no abundance of it.

Italian food supplies have been drained in feeding its armies at home, in the Balkans in North Africa; by food ship sinkings; and by fruits, nuts, vegetables, cheese, rice and potatoes sent to Germany.

Those last were the food items in which Italian production normally exceeds Italian demands but the country is deficient in production of grains—like wheat—and oils, meat, fish, eggs.

Arthur Stallings said Thursday that only the lack of pickers was holding back an intensive cotton harvest in the Lomax area. "We have enough open now to turn out 25 or 30 bales a day if only we could get the hands," he said. A few early pickers are being utilized for maize heading to give cotton a few more days to open well.

Task Big, Says FD In Opening War Bond Drive

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (AP)—Axis Italy has fallen, Berlin and Tokyo are surely next, but the task ahead is "bigger and tougher" and Americans should fend off any rocking chair philosophy that the war is won.

In this vein, President Roosevelt touched off the third war bond drive for $15,000,000,000 last night. Anticipating a wave of optimism, the president warned in a radio speech that the "time for celebration" hadn't yet arrived. Moreover, he asserted, he has an idea that the day of final victory will find this nation "in a mood of grim determination that this shall not happen again," rather than in a celebrating frame of mind.

After referring to the hard job yet to be done, Mr. Roosevelt perhaps tipped off his listeners to big things happening even as he spoke. At two points in his speech he interpolated the phrase "at this moment" when speaking of Allied troops landing on strange enemy coasts and bombers roaring in at roof top level. He may, or may not have had in mind the new Allied landings at Naples, announced a few hours later.

The president called the Italian armistice a victory for both the Allies and the Italian people, released after years of "war and suffering and degradation."

The Mediterranean war is far from finished, however, he declared for "we must drive the Germans out of Italy x x x we must drive them out of France and all other captive countries; and we must strike them on their own soil from all directions."

The Italian denouement consummated plans made at Casablanca last January, said Mr. Roosevelt, and he and Prime Minister Churchill have made "new, well-considered plans for the future."

"But throughout these conferences we have never lost sight of the fact that this war will become bigger and tougher," he said, "rather than easier during the long months to come."

"Mr. Secretary, can we military leaders plan to fight this war in an orderly way—in the surest and most effective manner—or must we take extraordinary risks for fear the money will not hold out?"

Soil Conservation Supervisors To Be Named On October 5

By O. P. GRIFFIN
County Agent

There is an important election coming up, and one that is likely to be overlooked. There will be no hot campaign for this or that candidate; and, because of the fact that there is no pork barrel, and no pie counter in connection, we may overlook it to the extent that the elections at some places may fail for the lack of voters.

I refer to the election of supervisors for the various soil conservation districts of the state of Texas. Elections will be held in all of the districts of the state on the same day, October 5, which is the first Tuesday in October. There has been a change in the method of selecting supervisors of the soil conservation districts, both as to the method of voting, and as to the term of office. Each district has been divided into five subdivisions, and the qualified voters of each subdivision elect a supervisor on the first Tuesday of October of this year.

The election will take place at a meeting held for that purpose at some convenient place in each subdivision. Voters at this meeting will select from their number, a chairman, a secretary and tally clerks. Nominations will be made from the floor, and the nominees voted on by ballot. If there are more than two candidates, and the vote is so divided among them that no one receives a majority of the votes cast, then the two who receive the highest number of votes are to be voted on again. Thus the election will be completed at a meeting, and the chairman will declare the results.

There is also a change in the term of office of supervisors. The subdivisions of a district are numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. In subdivision No. 1, the supervisor elected on the 5th of October this year will serve one year. In No. 2 he will serve two years and so forth. Next year when election day comes there will be but one vacancy to fill, that in subdivision No. 1, and that will be filled for a term of five years. In like manner subdivision No. 2 will have an election the next year and so on. That is, the term supervisors will serve will be five years, with the exception of those elected this year in subdivision Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Howard county is a part of Martin-Howard Soil Conservation district. This district has recently been enlarged by the addition of Midland county. It also embraces a part of Glasscock county, that part that the drainage of which is not part of North Concho watershed. There is also a small corner of Howard county that drains into the North Concho and therefore is in North Concho district.

There is no more important function of our government than the soil conservation districts. They have an immediate and special meaning in West Texas where the rainfall is all needed to grow crops and pasture. The future progress of West Texas and the welfare of all our people is dependent on whether we shall use the light rainfall afforded by our climate, or allow it to run off. Most of Howard county people are familiar with the progress that has been made in this direction during the past 10 years. But we have only started. Under the district plan, 4 or 5 times as much can be done in the next 10 years. And this will be brought about by democratic processes. The people will elect their district supervisors who will govern the conservation processes to be applied in the district. Agencies of the federal and state governments will furnish technical skill as servants of the supervisors and the people.

We are fighting a great war to perpetuate government by the people. Can we set aside enough time to see to it that there is a good turn out at the election meetings in each of the subdivisions of Martin-Howard district on October 5th? Place and time of election meetings will be announced in the newspapers.

Rationing Has Created New Luncheon Dishes!

We can thank our red, white and blue ration stamps for creating new foods and new combinations of foods for luncheon and supper. Not long ago, New York's famous Waldorf-Astoria began featuring familiar, everyday breakfast cereals in a wonderful new way . . . on the luncheon and supper menus of their glamorous Starlight Roof. Feature star among the cereal-and-fruit luncheons was "Toasties Waldorf." A delicious new combination of familiar foods. Best of all, it's the kind of dish that every woman can make in her own home . . . quickly, conveniently and with no cooking required. "Toasties Waldorf" is just as good as it sounds. On a heaping bed of crisp Post "Toasties"—in your gayest individual bowl—center a shimmering fruit gelatin, made with assorted fresh fruits. Then serve with milk, light cream or sugar. Try it as the main dish in this menu: A hot soup with wafers, "Toasties Waldorf" and your favorite dessert. Then, too, it is satisfying to know that when you give your family one of these cereal dishes, it will contain three foods from the "Basic Seven" food groups recommended by our National Nutrition program.

Labor Supply May Be Larger Within Next Few Weeks

By O. P. GRIFFIN

At the beginning of this week the state as a whole had only about half enough cotton pickers to meet the calls that are being made for them. This does not mean that cotton pickers are that much short of the supply in former years. But the drought and hot weather during the last few weeks has caused cotton to open prematurely, and farmers have been calling for pickers over a much larger area—all at the same time. Very good progress has been made in harvesting the crop during the past weeks. Some of the big cotton counties like Nueces and San Patricio are about through. In Howard county the calls for pickers the past week far exceeded the supply of pickers. Some pickers are coming in, but there is not much hope for enough pickers for two weeks yet.

However, this shortage will not continue for more than two or three weeks. The drought has been more severe in the counties southeast of here. The short crop in these dry counties will soon be gathered and pickers may be expected from South Texas. In other words we can expect our shortage to be largely supplied by October 1.

In the meantime there are a shall have to make the best use we can of these, and local people who are willing to pick cotton. The Howard county labor board has been called to meet Saturday to make plans to tide over the period when we shall be short of pickers. Farmers have been very cooperative in listing their needs. We now have orders for nearly 2,000 pickers. It is hoped that this cooperation will be continued by mailing the cards when they secure pickers. If very many neglect to notify us when they get pickers, our records will soon become worthless, because we cannot tell what orders have been filled, and which have not. When you hire any hands at all you should fill out and mail the card. Now we had expected to get Mexican cotton pickers from across the border. Present indications are that no help will be available from this source.

Likewise the prospects of getting prisoners of war are very poor. However, application has been made for them by a number of counties. If these counties, that have made application, should secure a war prisoner camp, that would release some pickers and help us indirectly in that way.

Stanton Scout Group Here For A Picnic

Ten Stanton Boy Scouts and five of their leaders participated in an outdoor "feed" at the city park here Tuesday evening. The boys prepared the menu cornbread, barbecue hamburger, macaroni, tomatoes, pickles, potatoes and chocolate pudding, a meal that H. D. Norris, field executive for the district, said was one of the best he had ever seen scouts prepare.

Attending were Scouts Buck Allison, Herbert Jones, Sanders Dyson, Billy Vaker, Billy Howard, Jimmy Everett, Roland Blackburn, Leroy Gregg, Jay White and Ickle Peters. Leaders on hand were O. B. Bryan, Glenn Jamison, L. G. Peters, E. T. Williamson, and Ira Williams, scoutmaster.

Howard Wells May Expand Water District In Martin

STANTON, Sept. 9. — Steps are being taken toward annexation of six additional sections to the Martin county fresh water supply district No. 1, and a meeting has been called for Sept. 24 at the Valley View school for the purpose.

If plans for the annexation, growing out of petitions from families in the six section block, materialize, then it is probable an election on a bond issue of $8,000 will be called. This would be to furnish funds for drilling more wells and to centralize the pumping system rather than maintain three smaller, separate units. The new system would provide for a 50,000-gallon storage for four wells with 100-gallon a minute capacities. The service would provide water for 100 families aside from supplying several thousand head of livestock. Currently the district comprises 42-1-2 sections and the supply is located on the Earl Powell Box-X ranch 11 miles north of Stanton. P. G. Yates is president. W. D. Howell, secretary; S. F. Weathers, M. McKaskle and W. P. Reid, directors.

Information Given On Tenant Eviction

Numerous inquiries are made at the Area Rent office from both landlords and tenants, according to Charlie Sullivan, area rent director, relative to the removal or eviction of tenants when a rental unit has been purchased for a home by the buyer. Sullivan advised that under the rent regulations, it is necessary for a purchaser of a rental unit to file a petition with the office for a certificate of eviction. If the purchaser has paid as much as one-third cash for the property, not borrowed money, and desires to move into the unit with his family, the certificate of eviction is granted allowing the tenant three months to vacate the property. Some tenants have reported that purchasers demand they vacate the rental unit without filing with the office and Sullivan pointed out that this is a violation of the regulation.

Glamour In Herbs

VEGETABLES WITH OOMPH: Herbs make the difference.

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE
AP Food Editor

Herbs, used with care, will work wonders with your cooking. Herbs have plenty of appetite appeal. They give extra zip to soups and stuffings for meats, fish, fowl and vegetables. New herbs and herb-flavored salads, dressings and vinegars are giving those two old seasoners, salt and pepper, a real run for popularity. If you didn't put some of grandmother's herbs in a corner of your Victory garden, go herb shopping at a food store. You will be entranced by the variety of these flavor-builders. Most of them are within reach of household budgets. Remember, however, to use them in moderation for subtle flavor.

Here are some herb seasoning tips:

1. Put basil and minced chives in stewed or stuffed tomatoes.
2. Add sage to string beans, tomato soup, cheese sauce for cauliflower, bread or rice stuffing for fish, meat or chicken and in tomato soup.
3. Thyme steps up clam or lobster chowder, sauces for pork, veal and tongue and is very good blended with frizzled dried beef and browned eggplant slices.
4. Marjoram increases flavor in vegetable or fish salads, pork pie, or browned pork chops, creamed or fried potatoes and escalloped leftover vegetables.
5. Rosemary does a lot for broiled or fried chicken, browned fish steaks, buttered spinach, lima beans or beets and meat pot

Editorial - - Talk With Yourself About Bonds

The goal is high, 15 billion dollars. The campaign opens tomorrow and this is a taxpaying month. Commercial banks have been eliminated as a source of funds; the entire quota falls on non-banking sources.

But in spite of all this, Secretary Henry Morgenthau says the third war loan drive will be a success, that the quota will be reached, that "the biggest undertaking of the war on the home front" will end in victory.

The second war loan campaign produced 16 billion dollars, but commercial banks were in on that. This time, it's up to private investors—big and little people who put their earnings and their savings into the national kitty to make the wild Nazis and Tojos wilder still.

This is "back the attack" business.

The money is sorely needed to send warplanes and bombs and jeeps and food and rifles to our fighting men. It is needed now more than before, for the pace becomes hotter, the pressure on the enemy stronger, the need for weapons in the hands of our men greater than ever. The faster that pace is maintained, the quicker the war ends, the completer the victory.

Probably you have been putting ten per cent or more of your earnings into war bonds right along. Probably you have bought a little extra now and then. Perhaps you don't see how you possibly can rake and scrape any more for this new bond issue.

But before you say no, suppose you call an executive session with yourself. Get tough. Lay the cards on the table.

"Here am I," you say to yourself, "eating hearty, sleeping undisturbed, shaving and bathing regularly, taking myself a little joy ride now and then—enjoying all the comforts and conveniences of civilized existence."

"The kid across the street has been in uniform a couple of years. He has rubbed all the skin off his nose diving into foxholes. He has lived for three weeks on one skimpy meal per day. Maybe what with malaria and one thing and another his health has been permanently impaired."

"The boy in the next block, once full of hope and ambition and the joy of living, is now remembered as a gold star on a service flag."

"I've been taking it easy. I haven't really deprived myself of anything to buy war bonds. I haven't bought until it hurts. And I'm the very guy all these appeals to buy more war bonds are directed to. They've got my address. Okay, I'm not going to let the boys down; I want to be able to look them in the face when they get back—if they get back. I'll find a way. I'll show 'em. They can count on me—and count me in."

(And put some zest into it, fellow. Like those airmen in the early days in the South Pacific who were ordered out to dive-bomb some approaching Jap warships in the Coral Sea.)

"There isn't much chance of coming back," their commanding officer warned them.

"Who said anything about coming back?" the airmen inquired.

Danish Revolt Followed Closely By Mrs. White

One person who is following the stories of the Danish people's revolt with more than casual interest is Mrs. Charles White of Big Spring, who resided in Elsinore, Denmark until 1926 and whose father was interned by the nazis as a prisoner of war in the spring of 1940.

Mrs. White has heard from her father only once since his internment and that was through the Red Cross. Since he was a member of the council of the city of Elsinore, he along with other men of any political or educational standing was immediately made prisoner.

For almost three years the Danes have lived under Nazi rule and except for underground sabotage Denmark was halted by the Nazis as the perfect pattern for other occupied countries to follow.

When the country was over run by its next door neighbors, no effort was made by King Christian or his people to resist since that would have been national suicide with its small army.

However, with the Allied successes, Mrs. White believes that the Danes believed the time must be near to start their revolt or else the fires of wrath and hate that had been burning under cover for so many months finally broke out into open rebellion.

The Danish people are slow to wrath, Mrs. White says, but once their temper flares "then its time to watch out," she says.

Mrs. White was a nurse in Copenhagen and supervisor of the University Hospital there. She recalls King Christian, who is now interned in a castle with his queen, as a "lovely person" whom she met several times.

She was nursing the queen's lady-in-waiting once and the king and queen came to call on the lady. Later after her recovery, the lady-in-waiting entertained with a small party to which Mrs. White was invited.

Again she met the king and queen and among other guests were two pretty young girls who afterwards became the future queens of Belgium and Norway.

Denmark, which has a population of four million people and is about the size of the state of Connecticut, has little chance to defend itself against Germany, Mrs. White says, and is wondering now what future plan is being formulated by Sweden.

From Mrs. White's home town of Elsinore, you can see the trolley cars in Sweden and it takes a ferry boat only about 20 minutes to get to Sweden from Elsinore.

Former Teacher Here Killed In Accident In North Africa

Capt. Jonathan N. Routh, Jr., 26, and a veteran of nearly a year in aerial warfare against the Axis, was killed in an accident in North Africa on August 5th, his mother, Mrs. J. N. Routh of Abilene was informed Saturday, by the war department. Details of the accident were not given.

Capt. Routh, who taught at the Big Spring high school for two years, went to Corpus Christi to teach before entering the service. The former resident, a fighter-bomber pilot, is survived by his wife, the former Rena Buchanan, now living in San Antonio and a daughter, Ann, born last November 27th, whom he never saw.

Capt. Routh was commissioned two years ago this month at Brooks Field. He was sent to England and later to French Morocco, North Africa, early this year, and participated in the campaign in Sicily.

Scout Funds Are Climbing

Boy Scout workers came to the end of their first "bombing mission" with their objective within reach and further forays the forefront of this week are expected to put the district in a fair way of realizing its financial program for the year.

The general solicitation campaign, together with the work of the special contributions committee, had netted $2,535 by Saturday evening, and the district still had $1,200 in sustaining memberships to fall back upon.

Reports were still forthcoming from two major industries—Cosden and the T. & P. railroad. Two concerns, Montgomery Ward & Co. and Albert M. Fisher Co. were 100 per cent, it was announced.

Some crew members still had reports to make, and when these come in, Elmo Wasson, district finance chairman, A. V. Karcher and J. L. LeBlou, probably will map some concerted clean-up on remaining contacts.

Leaders said that if persons who have not been contacted make it a point to be included in financing the vital youth program, there will be little doubt that the objective will be met for the year. This is especially true if organized drives at Coshoma, Stanton and Knott reap proportionate results with that in Big Spring. All of this is problematical, however, and the goal as yet has not been met.

Capital Comment - Patman Sees Post-War Problems For Texas

By GEORGE STIMPSON
Herald Washington Correspondent

The dope in Washington is that the Quebec conference was held to decide whether to invite Josef Stalin to the next one.

"Sorry. We do not accept personal checks," says new sign in railroad ticket office. If I had adopted that policy around the Press Club years ago I would now be a richer man.

The new pay-as-you-go tax plan isn't satisfactory as I expected and I didn't expect it would be.

A Capitol employee told me this one: During the last session of congress an elderly and nettlesome U. S. senator, while in his seat on the floor, felt the need of a little nourishment. Not wishing to leave the chamber at the time, because of his interest in that particular question under consideration, he decided to send down to the senate restaurant for an apple to appease temporarily his hunger. The restaurant had on hand some particularly big red and luscious apples of which the senator was fond. So he wrote a note to the proprietor of the restaurant, describing the kind of apple he wanted, clapped his hands for a senate page boy, who came running in a twinkling, gave him the note and asked him to take it downstairs to the proprietor of the restaurant. Fifteen or 20 minutes went by without the page boy returning with the apple. The senator was getting pretty impatient. Finally, he saw the same page boy over in the corner of the senate chamber eating a big red apple. Investigation revealed that the page boy thought that the restaurant proprietor had given him the apple for carrying the senator's note!

A friend of mine, who is quite a "nut" on history and geography, had read the surveys indicating that American youth, particularly college sophomores and high school students are deficient in their knowledge of such subjects. So he thought he would test it out. Standing in line waiting to be served at a Washington cafeteria, my friend accidentally scraped up an acquaintance with a boy, who appeared to be about 14 years old and looked smart. "Son," asked my friend, "what's the capital of Texas?" "Darned if I know," replied the boy, "I'm from Pennsylvania."

Advertisement in Washington newspaper: "Do you have an old sewing machine you no longer use? Sell it through a low cost Daily Bladder wand. Call District 7000 and ask for Miss Sergeant."

There must still be many non-cafeteria areas in the United States. Many visitors in Washington don't seem to be familiar with cafeterias; every day dozens of people come into these places, sit down at a table, wait for some time, get impatient because they are not waited on, only to wake up to the fact it is a self-service

Hollywood Sights And Sounds— Winninger Dances, But Not Just Like Astaire

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD—The piano in the rehearsal hall tinkled out "Pretty Baby" and a line of chorines in slacks or shorts, carrying parasols, cavorted in time to the tinkling.

But for once that wasn't what I'd come to see. I was there to witness the return to rhythm of that old master, Charlie Winninger.

"I haven't done this," said Charlie, "since 1924—when I danced to 'No, No, Nanette.' Am I going to show up Astaire? Heh, all I'm hoping is that I can get through it."

In "Broadway Rhythm" Winninger plays an old-time actor who helps a bunch of youngsters put on a show in a barn. While he's directing them, he does off and dreams that he himself is on the stage once more. That's how it was that Charlie—59, white-haired, a bit pudgy in the waistline—was sitting there, in old white trousers and shirt, an old straw hat cocked back on his head, gamely waiting his call from Jack Donohue, the dance director.

It came. Charlie got up, took his place beside pretty little Gloria DeHaven, his partner, and danced. He looked serious about it, studious, as if he were counting—"one-two-three, bounce, one-two-three, shuffle." He didn't give Astaire anything to worry about, but he got through it.

He came back and sat down, perspiring a little but not puffing. "I keep in pretty good shape," he said. "Swim every morning, work in my garden—this isn't anything."

It wasn't anything, after all, compared to what the movies made him do when he first tried them, back in 1914. By that time he had done everything in show business, working with the "Winninger Family Novelty Show." His father, who had been a violinist with Strauss back in Vienna, had settled 40 acres of Wisconsin timber land and built the log cabin where Charlie was born. But the needs of a growing family had sent them all back to show business. "I guess I learned everything except wire-walking," said Charlie.

In 1914 he was in Los Angeles in vaudeville, doing a comedy and acrobatic act, when the slapstick movie tribe saw him as prime material. Mack Sennett wanted him, but he signed with another outfit directed by a man who believed actors were made to get laughs—at any cost to the actors.

"Once," Charlie reminisced, "I had to lead a couple of bears down the street. I was swabbed all over with honey and for a while I didn't know whether I'd given my arm chewed off. I was always having trouble with bears. One day I had one on a leash tied to my wrist, doing a scene. Suddenly he lit out, pulling me with him, and I landed on my face three blocks away."

"Finally they threw so many pies in my face and shot so many Roman candles at me I just quit and went back to vaudeville."

It was several years after his hit as Captain Andy in "Show-bow" that Winninger finally returned to Hollywood (which was mostly over its former bear complex) and became a leading character star and, as of today, dancer.

Washington Daybook— Civil Service Rating A Bit Complicated

Second Of Two Articles On Civil Service Methods.
By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON—The first time we ever got a job, the boss said: "If you're no good, you're fired; if you are, you get a raise."

Uncle Sam, these days, is taking so many words to say the same thing; so many hours of employees' time to find out how good or bad they are; and so many millions of the taxpayers' money on checkers and checker-checkers to classify workers, that the House Civil Service Committee, bossed by Robert Ramspeck (D-Ga.), has decided to make a major issue of it.

The road to success with Uncle Sam is paved with nine "efficiency ratings," ranging all the way from 1-E (for excellent) to 9-U (for unsatisfactory) and in between are such things as 4, 5 or 6-G (for good).

The way you get to be a 5-G, for example, is to have your teacher (immediate boss) mark your 32-question report card with at least a check (which means "adequate") on all important queries about the job you do and "minus marks (meaning weak) fully compensated by plus marks (meaning outstanding) or a majority of underlined elements (important factors in your particular job) marked at least with a check, and minus marks on underlined elements overcompensated by plus marks on underlined elements."

Don't ask me what that means. It takes the Civil Service Commission 32 pages in the "Efficiency Rating Manual" to explain this rating business and what to do if it doesn't work.

It's the What-to-do-if-it-doesn't-work part of it that I like best. If the employe kicks, his rating official is supposed to give him a hearing. Then Civil Service goes completely Dale Carnegie.

In ten little snappy paragraphs, they tell the "boss" how to prepare for the interview. It includes such suggestions as: "Select a time when both you and the employe are not under undue strain or pressure of work; provide for privacy."

In 12 more paragraphs, the boss is advised how to conduct the interview. This section leads off with the hint that it would be a good idea to "Put the employe at ease by some friendly remarks not necessarily about the matter to be discussed."

How to conclude the interview takes only nine paragraphs, and it's as simple as X, Y, Z, except for one section near the end which says: "Do not try to force the employe to agree with your evaluation of his performance."

That, rating officials tell me, is something of a stunner, since that's about all the interviews are ever held for.

"Bob" Ramspeck and his committee say they are going to change that "efficiency" business. Uncle Sam is the greatest employer in the world today. After listening to h' employe gripe, I think I can say positively that all they want is a few stepping stones and a little less red tape. A change in the "efficiency rating system" would be a help, to say the least.

Lieut. Simpson Safe After A Time At Sea

The cup of joy was overflowing Wednesday for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Simpson of the Gall route. Last Friday night they had received notice from the war department that their son, Lieut. Charles E. Simpson, a fighter pilot based in North Africa, was missing in action since Aug. 17.

Tuesday they received a V-Mail letter from Charles telling them to disregard any word of his possible loss, for he was safe and hoped soon to rejoin his unit. The letter was dated Aug. 22 and in it he expressed the hope that it would beat the news of his disappearance, which had to travel through channels.

"I got into some trouble," he wrote, "and had to bail out into the sea and stayed in my little rubber boat for 48 hours before a rescue plane picked me up. I didn't have anything to eat and about a cup full of water, and I got plenty hungry and thirsty."

Outside of losing a lot of weight and getting "pretty sunburned," he was little worse for the wear. After two days in a hospital, he was dispatched to a rest camp for about a week. After that, he said, he hoped to get back with his unit, the 1st Fighter Group, 71st Fighter Squadron.

His parents believe he was forced to abandon his ship, probably a P-38, during operations of strafing Axis troops being evacuated from Sicily to the Italian mainland.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson Rogers of Baton Rouge, La.; two brothers, E. Guy King of Odessa, and Forest King of Midland; three sisters, Mrs. Margaret Plumer of San Antonio, Mrs. Alma Thornton of Stanton and Mrs. Eunice Keahy of Sturgis, Mich.; and two nieces, Mrs. Tom Watson of Odessa and Mrs. Roy Cornelison of Big Spring.

Eberley Funeral home took the body overland Saturday to Midland.

West Third Street Repairs Completed. Traffic was flowing over West Third street again Wednesday after a fortnight of detouring while road repairs were underway.

Highway department officials said that the 1,300-foot project involving installation of a new base to the depth of 18 inches together with a double shot asphalt topping the length of the street through the city had put it in good shape.

East Third street, however, was closed to traffic Wednesday as highway asphalt crews began giving that street a double shot to the eastern city limits. It was estimated that this would require only two or three days.

West Third involved extensive repairs where saturated base material had rolled under impact of heavy traffic and made the road unusually rough.

County Agents Hold Conference In City. County agents from Midland, Martin, Howard and Mitchell counties were getting expert advice from state extension service specialists Tuesday on a fall program of control of grubs and lice, and at the same time developing a plan of action for 4-H club boys.

Many Inquiries On New WMC Ruling

The government's latest ultimatum to fathers to get into essential work or else expect to get caught in the draft has stimulated another influx of inquiries at the United States Employment Service office Tuesday.

Under the latest announcement from the war manpower commission, fathers have until Sept. 15 to register with the USES as being available for essential work if they are not engaged in same now. WMC said flatly that when the selective service is obliged to dip into the reserve of fathers to fill quota calls, it will take those who are not in essential work or who have not registered as being available.

O. R. Rodden, USES manager in the Big Spring district, said he had talked with 10 men who called to list their names Tuesday. He expected that many more would register their availability at the office by Sept. 15.

Selective service could feel no effect from the order Tuesday, but as Rodden explained, most will probably come to USES since USES records will be available if and when selective service asks for it.

Court Term's Docket Fixed

The grand jury was still in session Wednesday morning hearing witnesses and evidence presented by District Attorney Martelle McDonald and County Attorney George Thomas, on some ten or twelve cases to be considered for trial during the September term of 70th district court.

Judge Cecil Collins called the docket Tuesday and set for trial during the first week of the month the suit of Sybil Webb versus R. H. Webb, divorce, and O. J. Allred versus Cornell Allred, divorce.

Criminal cases will be heard the second week and other cases set for Monday, September 13, were Mrs. Bertha Rix versus Peter Strange and Bradshaw, suit to remove cloud from title; Raymond Thomason versus Marvin Hill, suit for property or value; David Wade versus Jane Wade, suit for divorce; M. M. Brown versus Jossie Lee Brown, suit for divorce.

Set for Friday of the second week was the suit of Walter Cundiff versus Amy Mae Cundiff, divorce. The third week, Marcell Tindol versus Libery Loyds, suit to set aside award, will be heard. Set for the fourth week were cases of Hattie Morgan versus Texas Employers Insurance Association, suit to set aside award; Margaret Pederson versus M. O. Pederson, divorce; George Sale versus W. E. Sale, divorce, and C. D. Wickson versus Cities Service Oil Company, suit for damages.

Reeder said that it was significant that the program, which includes an evening program as well as an all-day session on safety matters, was being held during national fire prevention week.

Capt. J. O. Musick of the safety division of the Texas highway patrol will be among those who have prominent roles on the clinic, said the council president. Other safety authorities of governmental units and industrial concerns are being sought for the occasion, he said.

No Pickers For Fast-Opening Cotton Crop

Scripturally and literally speaking, the fields are white unto the harvest . . . but the laborers are few.

County Agent O. P. Griffin estimated Wednesday that perhaps upwards of 10,000 bales of cotton would be open in the fields in another week.

Against this abnormally early maturity for the crop was the shortest labor supply on record. Griffin's reports showed Wednesday that only 75 persons had been placed on farms the previous week and prior to that only 47 had been placed during the first 28 days of August.

The problem was brought into sharp focus by orders for 1,206 pickers, and of this number, orders were placed during the past week for 843. There was every prospect that orders would continue to flood into the office while the supply of picker labor, for the time being at least, would amount to little more than a trickle.

A few crews are beginning to migrate into the territory, said Griffin, but of these a large number are following the traditional policy of going on north for a look at the Lamesa and Lubbock areas before returning here to pick. A few are stopping.

The number of non-farm family workers who are in the fields now was pegged at only 170. Possibly 100 more are available immediately, the agent reported.

Prarie land would be a welcome sight for F/Sgt. John A. Lauterback, son of Mrs. Bessie James, stationed somewhere in the South Pacific. He has just written that "I would sure like to see West Texas prairie after seeing all the mud and rain."

Although it appeared the full holiday toll would fall below last year's total, it was expected that the present figure would be boosted—late today when home-coming vacationists take to the highways.

A breakdown of the figures so far available showed 78 traffic deaths, 15 drownings and 54 miscellaneous fatalities since 6 p. m. last Friday.

California led all the states with 21 traffic deaths, one drowning and eight deaths from other causes. Ohio had 11 traffic fatalities and three miscellaneous deaths while New York had five traffic, two drownings and six miscellaneous.

In Texas traffic deaths totalled three and there were three miscellaneous fatalities.

Young Man Looking For His Parents. Lloyd Autrie Rice, 19, adopted here in 1924 as a babe-in-arms, is seeking his real parents.

He said here Friday that he knew only that his father was named Bud Rice and his mother Ella Mae Rice, names shown on adoption papers filed by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jackson, his foster parents. He became the legal ward of the Jacksons here Feb. 15, 1924 and proceedings showed that his mother resided here then, but his father's whereabouts was unknown.

The Jacksons lived in various places before they both died, and Lloyd has been living in San Angelo for the past decade. One party told him his real parents had been here within the past three months, he said, and he appealed to others who might know to contact him at 1311 S. Charbourne, San Angelo.

Liberators In Use At Flying School. Consolidated Liberators, the massive four-engine B-24 bombers which have been used in pounding the Axis on all fronts of the global war, have been assigned to the Big Spring Bomber School.

Only a few are at the field however, and their use in the training program was not clear. The bombers have been assigned to the third advanced training group. They are the first four-motored ships to be permanently assigned to the Big Spring field, and bring to four the number of bomber-types of planes in use in training bombardiers here.

Assigned here with the planes from Fort Worth were 1st Lieut. Murel W. Hardgrave, Anglers, Okla., and Roy L. Graham, Lake Crystal, Minn.; and 2nd Lieut. Robert E. Klemme, Quincy, Ill. John W. Labertow, Cheyenne, Wyo., Alfred P. Wheelock, Jr., Regina Saskatchewan, Canada, and Herbert C. Woodard, Hinsdale, Ill.

Mrs. Alice Amanda Hogue, 83, succumbed Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Floyd Ashley of Luther.

Mrs. Hogue was the widow of the late Thomas Jefferson Hogue, who died here in October, 1934. Burial will be beside the grave of her husband in the Mt. Olive cemetery. She had resided in the county for the past 37 years.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Ashley of Luther, Mrs. S. A. Callahan of Big Spring and Mrs. Bill Everett of Sonoma, Calif.; six sons, Walter M. of Dallas, George of Calallen, Tex., Ben of Big Spring, Amos of Vincent, Emmett of Stanton and Tommy of Big Spring.

Twenty grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Annie Lawlis, Vernon, also survive.

Holiday Death Toll Is Lower

As America's second war-time Labor Day weekend neared its end today the nation counted only 147 violent deaths as contrasted to 350 for the three-day period last year and peace-time totals of 614 in 1941 and 514 in 1940.

Although it appeared the full holiday toll would fall below last year's total, it was expected that the present figure would be boosted—late today when home-coming vacationists take to the highways.

A breakdown of the figures so far available showed 78 traffic deaths, 15 drownings and 54 miscellaneous fatalities since 6 p. m. last Friday.

California led all the states with 21 traffic deaths, one drowning and eight deaths from other causes. Ohio had 11 traffic fatalities and three miscellaneous deaths while New York had five traffic, two drownings and six miscellaneous.

In Texas traffic deaths totalled three and there were three miscellaneous fatalities.

Highway Dept. Hauls Water For Shrubs

Continued drought need mean the death of plants and grass at the Texas highway department warehouses here, for a unique, portable water system is taking care of that.

Passersby who noticed sprays putting water on the greenery also notice that it is being drawn from two tanks on a truck and trailer. The water comes from a well on the state highway department roadside park between here and Coahoma. Each trip to the park means 1,100 gallons for warehouse vegetation here since local highway department officials have stopped using city water, in interest of conserving supply, except for drinking purposes.

Man Sought After Another Is Wounded. In spite of a holiday weekend the sheriff's department and constable's department reported a small number of law violations.

The constable's department handled four cases of drunkenness and disturbance and one cutting escape Saturday night at a local fish market. A Stanton man, slightly wounded in the stomach, was treated at a local hospital and released. Constable Jim Crenshaw said that a Lamesa man is being sought in connection with the cutting.

The sheriff's department reported only two drunkenness cases and two transients picked up for investigation but later released.

Mansfield Is Still Champ Among Ropers

Toots Mansfield, only person ever to hold the world's calf roping championship three years in succession, proved again Tuesday at Midland that he is without peer when it comes to roping and tying rawboned calves.

Toots repeated his last year's victory over Clyde Burke of Comanche, Okla., in Midland's "world's championship" contest, but unlike last year, it took a mighty show of skill and steady nerve to stave off a home stretch rally by Burke.

Mansfield had a total time for 12 calves of 197.1 seconds, while Burke's time was 209.1 on a dozen white-faced calves. The champion's time figured to the remarkable average of 16.4—a figure that would be good enough to finish in top money in any ordinary rodeo.

Through the 11th calf, Mansfield nursed only one-tenth of a second lead over the Oklahoma roper. But cool and steady, he threw unerringly and wrapped his calf securely in 12.8 seconds, only 3 of a second more than his best time all day.

Burke, who also was world's champion for three years, kept up his record of not missing a loop all day when he caught his 12th calf near the chute. He whipped the tie rope around quickly—but in his haste to beat out Toots, he failed to make his tie secure, and the calf kicked loose. He had him back down in a flash and tied again—but it took 25 seconds.

Old time cowhands accounted the match as one of the best in history and agreed that there was no longer room for argument—Mansfield is the best matched roper in the world.

One Of Twin Babies Claimed By Death

Stevenson Calls On Mexican Governors

JUAREZ, Chihuahua, Mexico, Sept. 7. (AP)—The governor of Texas set forth today to say howdy to the governors of the neighboring Mexican states of Chihuahua, Nuevo Leon, Coahuila and Tamaulipas.

Before Coke Stevenson returns to Texas, he also will have called upon President Manuel Avila Camacho at Mexico City. Yesterday he announced the extension of his tour to the national capital, at the invitation of Ezequiel Padilla, Mexican secretary of foreign affairs.

Stevenson's party in three automobiles rolled across the international bridge over the Rio Grande at 7 a. m., and was escorted to the American consulate by a battalion of Mexican soldiers.

From that point, the tour which culminates more than a month of effort by Stevenson to implement the good neighbor policy in Texas formally started. At the consulate his party was taken in tow by American Consul General William P. Blocker.

Letters, Photos Favored As Gifts By Service Men

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—Letters or family photographs are No. 1 items on the Christmas lists of men and women serving overseas.

The Office of War Information, after quizzing recently returned officers, overseas "Yank" correspondents and the army exchange service, said today that: "More than the most elaborate gift, soldiers will welcome newsy, cheerful letters from home and recent photographs or snapshots of family and friends."

Other gifts rated highly are: cigarette lighters "that will light in a strong wind," shockproof and waterproof wrist watches, hunting or boy scout knives and small inexpensive cameras with film.

Items not wanted, according to OWI, includes, cigarettes, assorted commercial packages of goodies, elaborate shaving kits, or food, except for a well-packed fruit cake.

A tip passed on by the army exchange service is that leather rote quickly in hot, damp climates, so if your gift is going to the South Pacific canvas or cloth goods are better bets.

OWI stressed that gifts should be mailed between Sept. 15 and Oct. 15.

Hiring will be done for the Portland, Ore., Vancouver, Wash., and Richmond, Calif., company. Housing facilities are available at the first two places. # Bombardiers Compete At Victorville

The deadly precision of the American bombardier is to be demonstrated again today for the sixth time at the all-American Bombing Olympics which will take place at Victorville, California.

Eight bombing colleges including Big Spring, Midland, Childers and San Angelo in Texas; Deming, Roswell and Albuquerque in New Mexico; and Victorville in California have each entered a team of three of their best bombardiers. Each contestant will have assigned to him his own pilot and photographer.

The meet will begin promptly at 8:00 a. m., and continue for about four hours during which time each bombardier will drop six bombs of the 100 pound sand-filled practice type. Bombing will be done from an altitude of 8,000 feet at a target which consists of a 200 foot circle centered by a shack. This shack is affectionately referred to as "Berchtesgaden," and the team which scores the most hits on or around "Hitler's Hideout" will win the prized pickle barrel trophy.

The bombardier cadet with the highest individual score will be acclaimed as the all-American Bombardier.

The three crack bombardiers representing the Big Spring school at the Olympics are Eugene A. Mensinger of St. Louis, Mo., James O. Morris of Youngstown, Ohio, and John W. Miller of Ocean City, Md.

These famous aerial war games are held every three weeks, and the parent school of the winning team retains the trophy until it has been won in competition at future bombing Olympics.

Allocation Plan On Protein Feeds Is Being Prepared

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Sept. 7. (AP)—The government preparing an order regulating and allocating supplies of protein feeds which will "prevent hoarding," a federal spokesman told the American soybean association's war conference yesterday.

O. D. Klein of Washington, representing the agriculture adjustment administration and the war food administration, said steps were being taken to assure all areas a proportionate share of protein supplies.

"An order is being prepared which limits forward selling of processors' production to 60 days on 90 per cent of their output," Klein said.

He explained the other 10 per cent would be held in reserve, subject to allocation by the war food administration, until the 23rd of the month in which it is produced. The WAF would use the 10 per cent to cover emergencies and adjust supplies to demand from various areas.

From where I sit
By Joe Marsh

We were sittin' on Bill Webster's back porch Saturday complainin' of the heat.
"Reckon this is the hottest day on record," Homer Bentley observed. "And the thirdest," says Bill, taking a long draught of buttermilk.
That got us on the subject of thirst-quenchers—and Bill allowed as how nothing was as cooling as a tall, cold glass of buttermilk. Thad Phibbs and I both voted for a glass of cool refreshing beer. Dan Miles said he'd take iced tea, "with a sprig o' mint in it."
"Anyway," says Bill, "we all got a right to our own tastes . . . and that ought to leave every body happy."
And from where I sit, Bill's right. It's a small point of courage—but tolerance of what the other fellow likes—and his right to enjoy it—whether it's buttermilk or beer—is the important thing in any argument.
