Freeze Plays Havoc With Fruit, Gardens and Early Field Crops

General frost and freezing temperatures prevailed throughout Texas Tuesday and Wednesday, which wrought havoc to the fruit crop and early gardens, and did considerable damage to feed crops where such had been planted.

Replanting of corn, maize and other feed crops is urged. With the fine season in the ground there is plenty of time yet to make splendid feed crops.

Temperature early Wednesday was the lowest we ever remember this late in the season.

School Trustee Election Saturday, April 3

Saturday of this week, four school trustees will be elected to serve for two years. It is a responsible position, as well as one of much worry, and the very best citizens should be elected to serve. Show an interest in your school by coming out and helping to elect a board of trustees.

PRESBYTERIAN MEETING IN PROGRESS THIS WEEK

Rev. Arthur N. Branham of Anderson, Mo., is holding a meeting at the Presbyterian church, and preaching some interesting sermons. The public and all church people are cordially invited to come out and hear him.

Robert Griffin of Fort Worth was a week-end visitor with friends here.

Mr. U. O. Andrews and Miss Esther Powell.

Mr. A. L. Gabbert and Miss Martie Furry.

Births Reported:

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Johnson, Rockwood, boy; Marion Hayne Brown, Coleman, girl; Arthur M. Yates, Santa Anna, girl.

A Tax On Bath Tubs

Before the Civil War, Boston made it a prison offense to take a bath except on advice of a physician. The Philadelphia Council tried to make it unlawful to bathe between November 1 to March 15 and failed by one vote. Virginia placed a luxury tax of $30 on each bathtub in the state.

Ideas regarding cleanliness have changed materially since that time. In fact, ideas on almost everything have undergone something of a metamorphosis. Today these changes are taking place more rapidly than ever before.

You may not realize it, but advertising is responsible for much of this improvement. Advertising has taken its place as a leading force in solving the wants of the people.

Stop and think how many of the appliances you use, the foods you eat, the clothes you wear and other articles entering into your daily living, were popularized through newspaper advertising. Then you will realize what a debt you owe to advertising.

Advertisements mean a lot to you. Don't fail to read them.

Clean-Up Work Starts Off Slowly

Due to the bad weather first of the week, the work necessary to be done in a general clean-up campaign could not be started in a general way. Because of the fact, the time for the campaign has been extended another week, and it is the wish of all who are interested in the campaign that every citizen living in Santa Anna would take upon themselves the much needed work and aid in this campaign.

The Santa Anna News is authorized by Mayor Baxter to amend his proclamation so as to include next week, and also, the Parent-Teachers Association request us to announce they will continue their support thru next week, and the work of grading will be postponed until some day immediately following the second week of the campaign.

Classification for Your Work

The following points will be used in judging your premises for the awarding of the cash prizes:

Front yard 25 per cent.
Back yard 25 per cent.
Lot and other premises 25 per cent.
Alleys 25 per cent.

In event no lot is on the premises, 75 per cent will count the 100 points. Cards will be furnished showing the classification of your premises upon request.

Let us urge you as citizens to join in the campaign and help to improve and beautify our city.

WOMAN MOTHER OF 20 CHILDREN; ALL ARE LIVING

Fitzburg, Mass., March 30.—Mrs. Louis M. Cross, 36 years old, today is the mother of twenty children. She gave birth to the twentieth child, a 12 pound girl here last night. Mrs. Cross was married when she was 15. All the children are living.

Rex Gather, manager of the Brownwood band, has signed a contract to furnish music for the Pioneer Round-up and Rodeo Friday and Saturday, April 16-17, and the management of the entertainment very kindly solicits the support of the entire citizenship in making each program a success.

Curry, Buffalo community; J. R. Pearce, Santa Anna; Bertha Williams, Mabel Williams, Leonard Williams, Ray Robbin, Shield community.

In giving the names of the communities, we do so for the purpose of designating the community only, and not the post office address.

25th Anniversary At Christian Church Was Great Success

The 25th anniversary celebration Sunday at the Christian Church was a great success in every way. On account of bad weather which continued up to the noon hour, Sunday, prevented a large outside attendance but there were representatives from Trickham, Whon, Coleman and Longview communities, Bradshaw and San Angelo. Numerous letters and messages were received. These were from M. Tyson, McFarland, California; Mrs. Amboline Tyson McHaffey, Sterling City, Texas; Paul Tyson, leader of Boys' Work, Waco; Miss Kathryn Baxter, teacher at Waco, who also sent flowers; Mrs. Carrie Collins Meador, prominent singer of Waco; Miss Dovie Polk, assistant Dean of Baylor, Waco; Mrs. Mattie Stephenson Dellinger, of Dallas, who also sent material offering; Mrs. Gertrude Austin Long of San Antonio; Mrs. R. Caradine and Mrs. Jack Brown, both of Childress. The preachers sending messages were E. M. Douthit of Austin, who had charge of the music at the dedication of the church; H. Ab Smith of Mount Vernon, Texas, former beloved minister of this church; Leon Williams of Donna, Texas, so well remembered in Santa Anna; J. W. Gates of Coleman who would have been present, but for the fact that he was called to Ft. Worth on important business, and Paul E. Wright of Ontario, Calif., who held a successful meeting here several years ago.

Bro. J. B. Holmes of Fort Worth, who is State Secretary of Missionary work, delivered a wonderful message at the morning hour. There was one confession, and one addition by statement.

Then came the great dinner. There was everything imaginable to eat and in great abundance.

At the afternoon service came the reading of the messages. The early history of the church by M. Tyson was very interesting. To him belongs most of the credit of building this church. A paper "Childhood Recollections of the Santa Anna Church," by Mrs. McHaffey, daughter of M. Tyson. The other letters were read by different members present. Then followed some touching talks by some of the older members. Prof. Scarborough gave a splendid short message on "The Responsibility of the Church. Then came the memorial service for all former members and ministers who had passed away during the last twenty-five years. This was led by C. F. Freeman. Mrs. Basil Gilmore sang a solo at this service. Also a very touching song by a sextette entitled "Only Remembered."

At the close of the afternoon program a huge, beautifully decorated cake with its twenty-five candles, prepared by W. H. Ragsdale and decorated by Miss Josie Baxter, was cut and served first to the charter members and then to all others present.

The night service consisted of the reading of two original poems by one

Pioneer Round-Up And Rodeo in Santa Anna, April 16-17

H. A. Johnson of Brownwood, better known as "Hackberry Slim," spent the day here last Saturday, making arrangements to put on a two days Round-up and Rodeo, April 16-17. Mr. Johnson is known throughout the southwest, and is a promoter of some real amusing entertainments. See his announcement elsewhere in this paper.

Mr. Johnson requests us to explain the reason he failed to be here with his show last week was due to sickness, he being confined to his room for several days with an attack of flu. "Slim" says he is going to give Santa Anna a real show on April 16-17.

Texas Outdoor League Camp Organized Here

J. Frank Elder, state field manager for the Texas Outdoor League, and founder of the organization, of Fort Worth, was in the city this week in the interest of the work and organized a camp here with the following membership:

Lo Shield, I. Williamson, Herbert Hopper, J. C. Scarborough, R. D. Kelley, A. B. Loudermilk, Sidney F. Martin, E. Melton, H. Aldridge, Sam H. Collier, C. W. Woodruff, J. J. Gregg, E. J. Merritt, D. J. Johnson, A. U. Weaver.

The following officers were elected: C. W. Woodruff, Camp Commander; R. D. Kelley, First Assistant Camp Commander; I. Williamson, Secy-Treas. A board of directors will be appointed by the Camp Commander at some future date.

The purpose of the league is the conservation of the wild life of Texas, through legislative protection and through an awakened interest on the part of sportsmen.

The P. T. A. will meet Tuesday, April 13, instead of April 6th. Mrs. Scarborough will make a talk on "The Value of the Individual, or What are You Worth to Your Community?" Mrs. Oder will discuss "Some Civic Activities that a P. T. A. May Engage In." The nominating committee will be appointed at this meeting.

Several local cow boys will be on hand at the Rodeo here April 16-17 to try their skill at roping and riding. Among them will be Lester Cox of Doole, Press Morris of the Morris Ranch, Pete Taylor of Coleman, J. W. Pearce, sometimes called "Big Boy," will ride the Buffalo. Jeff Pouncy and others will take part in the entertainment.

of our Santa Anna women, entitled "I Am the Church" and "What the Church Says." Then followed a sermon by the minister on the "Future of the Church." Then came the baptismal service, which brought the congregation to the "end of a perfect day."

The Human Side of BANKING

Thousands of persons come to this bank every year for help on all sorts of financial questions.

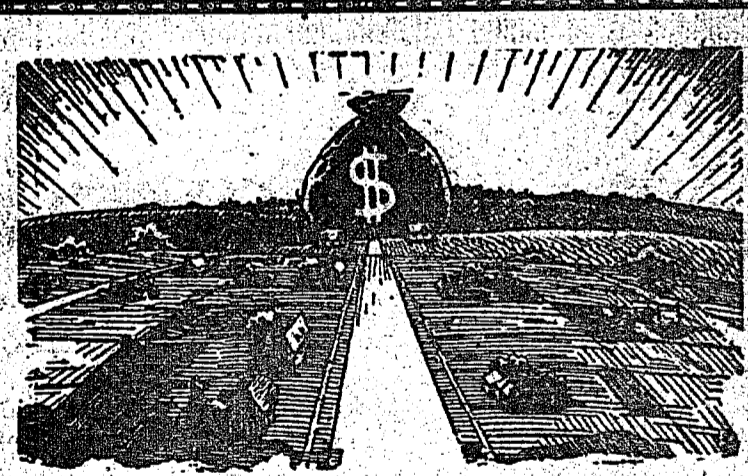

Some seek plans that will help them save money.

Some seek advice on investments, life insurance, home buying, financing the education of their children, budgeting their income, etc.

Some are depositors, others are not. That makes no difference to us. Our subject is to help them and to protect their hard earned money.

Don't forget to enlist in the Agricultural program being fostered by the Lions Club, which we heartily endorse.

Bridging the Gap

Intelligent Diversification often bridges the gap between success and failure.

In every state, farmers are finding that the difference between success and failure may now be bridged by Diversification—a program of LIVING AT HOME.

A garden, orchard, cows, hogs and chickens will supply many necessities, even when crops fail.

Make your plans for more intelligent diversification by entering the contest in the Agricultural program fostered by the Lions Club, endorsed by this bank.

MEMORIES LINGER STILL AFTER ABSENCE OF 20 YEARS

Houston, Texas, March 27, 1926.
Dear Mr. Gregg:

I must write and thank you for sending me the News. I read it with interest every week and now and then I find a name which brings back pleasant memories of the past.

I lived in Santa Anna just twenty years ago. That doesn't seem long but what changes those twenty years have brought about. There was one automobile there then belonging to Dr. Long, while now I suppose you have hundreds. The movies had not yet taken hold of the people and the radio was undreamed of. But I recollect happy visits in a number of the substantial homes and that institution, the greatest ever set up on this earth, perhaps had more influence upon the lives of the young at that time than it does now.

Whenever I find something about Leon Shield or one of the Weavers or old Charley Erwin or Will Mills, it is like opening the gate of an almost forgotten garden and wandering back among tangled vines and fading blooms.

The other day I was talking with a man who belonged to the Belton band the time it played at Santa Anna for the opening of the Walker hotel. That must have been about forty years ago. But I remember the pretty costumes of the band boys and can close my eyes and see them playing on the front upper gallery of the hotel. I was a very small kid then but I didn't relish the fact that the girls all got stuck on those boys with their flashy costumes and paid no attention to the rest of us.

Santa Anna mountain was ever a pretty place to me. I have stood upon its brow at sunrise and watched the curling smoke from chimneys winding heavenward. I have listened to the mockingbirds sing there on moon light nights, as a crowd of us would gather above the city in the simpler pleasures of the old day. Sometimes we would take our lunches up there with us and some of the girls would sing and some of the boys play "Sweet Adeline" on French harps. We had good times then with much less expense than is the case now.

Some time I would like to pay a little visit to the old place. I would like to stand on the back side of the mountain and look at that beautiful valley stretching away towards the Jim Ned. I would like, too, to crawl into an old hack along in the early morning and go with a picnic party down to Home Creek. There was always a thrill for me in driving beneath a spreading pecan tree, where the limbs droop the hack-top and the smell of the bruised leaves was as sweet as the perfume of Araby.

Since I was in Santa Anna last I have seen a lot of the world. From the golden west to the slopes beyond the Alleghenies which lead down to the Atlantic, my eyes have feasted upon beauty and magnificence. Out at San Francisco there was inspiration in watching the great war ships of my country sail out through the Golden Gate. At Washington the art and glory of the greatest nation on earth appealed to me and along the shores of the East I was interested in many spots where our forefathers performed deeds of heroism.

At Monterrey, Mexico, I beheld the Bishop's palace where Jefferson Davis and other great Southerners won glory on a foreign battlefield. All of this is attractive to one who loves his country and finds interest in every landscape which the Almighty has hung in Nature's great art gallery for us. But after all, my heart wanders back to the more modest pictures in old Coleman county, where I spent my happy boyhood.

I hope that you have built a model little city and that all the modern conveniences may be had by your people. I hope that Santa Anna has kept abreast of the times and in the language of recent years that all her people know their beans. But I could have no better wish for you than that the simple virtues of the precious homes I once knew there are still the possessions of your people.

That is what is to eventually bless and save the nation after all the panaceas of the reformers fail.

Your friend,

AUSTIN CALLAN.

Percilla Circle of Baptist W. M. U.

Mrs. Jim Robin was hostess to the Percilla Circle of the Baptist W. M. U. Monday afternoon in their weekly study meeting. The rooms were made fragrant with the lovely spring time blossoms, and the hostess made the afternoon one of much pleasure to the circle members and guests present. After a devotional was read by Mrs. Melvin Lamb, a short business meeting was held, then a most interesting lesson on prayer for missions was conducted by Mrs. Sid Martin. At the conclusion of the lesson, a delicious refreshment course consisting of brick cream and angel food cake was served.

The straw that broke the camel's back may be in your mattress. It may tickle you to lie on it, but may also be the means of losing your chance for success by sleeping overtime.

THE PASSING OF LINDEL JAMES

Charles Lindel James, son of V. T. and Lizzie James, was born at Chalesco, Delta County, Texas, September 2, 1902, and moved to Coleman county in 1906, with his parents. Lindel had many friends who administered to him all the help possible during his short illness. On March 14th he contracted pneumonia and grew worse continually until Saturday morning, March 20, 1926, at about 5 o'clock, his physical form could endure no longer.

We are made to wonder sometimes, why young people with so much of life before them are called away from us. We must confess that we do not understand. We can only bow in humble submission to the Ruler of the universe, who evidently ruleth all things well.

Certainly he will be greatly missed in the home. The voice that once cheered the family will be silent, a place that was once occupied around the family circle will be vacant, but this should be another reminder to us who remain living, that ere long we, too, must take our flight into the vast eternity; and we too, shall be missed. May the Holy Spirit comfort the father and mother, brothers and sisters, during their bereavement, and may this sorrow be used to draw us all into a nearness to our Heavenly father.

Lindel will also be missed by his friends with whom he has been closely associated during his childhood, and young manhood days. May I ask are we satisfied with the influence we have had upon the lives of our friends? If not, let's change that influence until we shall be satisfied to meet that record in the great beyond. May the God of all the earth, so overshadow us with his love and may the Holy Spirit so direct our lives, and may we so conform our actions to His will, that when our pilgrimage on earth is over, and when we lay our armor down, and cast our wishful eye to the other shore, God help us to be able to say as one of old, "I have fought a good fight; I have kept the faith."

The funeral services were held at Tricham by the writer, and the remains placed in the local cemetery.

We extend to the family our heart felt sympathy and prayers. May the comforting influence of the Holy Spirit be your guide.

A. M. PLEASANT.

AN EDITORIAL FOR EASTER

During the 19th Century there were only two Easter Days on April 4th, the years being 1847 and 1858. In the 20th Century Easter falls on April 4 in the years 1915, 1926 and 1939.

It is interesting to know these facts, but does the knowledge of them contribute anything to the spiritual values of this Holy Day? Unfortunately there are some people who do not lend themselves either to the consecration or the celebration of the days set apart for increased spiritual devotion or patriotic fervor as the case may be. Does April 4 this year mean Easter, in all its symbolic purity, or just "another Sunday"?

We may even lay aside all questions that have been raised as to the accuracy of calculation of the exact date of the anniversary of the Resurrection, and still find consolation in the recognized commemoration of an event actioned and sanctified through all Christendom.

We may admit the innocence of the reasonable custom of hedging ourselves in gaudy wrappings at Easter-time, and yet keep in mind the plain and simple raiment of Him, who admonished to "take no thought to what ye shall put on."

We may find satisfaction in sumptuous dinners, coddling of children and gaiety of decoration, and still give thought to the "newness of life" that arose from the tomb of greatest sacrifice since the world began.

Easter, in its freshness and glory, is the great companion-day to Christmas. Its expression is purity, symbolized by the lily. It is the world's ushering in of spring, of newness of hope for higher Christian idealism. Anti-Christian sentiment can not but soften in its favor. Without Easter Day the world would have to count off one great mark in the moral and religious scale of human betterment.

DEATH HARD TO FACE. GOOD? OPEN PRISONS. CRIMINAL COWARDS. A MISSING COMET.

Five thousand canaries, forty pet monkeys, 150 parrots, two bobcats and two dogs were burned alive in an animal store last week. The animals all died in their cages, screaming with strange voices. All of them, from bob constrictors to tabernacles, had this great advantage over man, they did not know that they were going to die.

La Roche found says: "Neither the sun nor death can be looked at with a steady eye." That applies to men, not animals. The eagle and others look at the sun steadily, and all look calmly at death, not knowing he is there. Men find comfort in the belief that there is something for them beyond death. Animals do not need that comfort.

Here is old-fashioned news. A brilliant Spanish airman flew from Spain to Buenos Aires. National excitement was intense in Spain, and the King has decreed an amnesty, freeing more than one thousand male and female convicts.

It would have seemed strange in this country, if, after the American flight around the world, the United States President had ordered Federal prisoners set free. Once that was the custom everywhere. Good news? Open the prisons.

F. F. Lucas, of the Bell Telephone laboratory, exhibits an ultra-violet light microscope magnifying 9,000 times. It makes the end of a needle look like a log of wood and the edge of a razor blade like a huge snow-capped saw. The microscope is used to study the physical structure of iron, steel and other metals. COTTON CHAMPION

Merrel Henderson, 14, of Center Point community, near Brownwood, has been proclaimed Brown County's juvenile cotton grower. From 3 1-10 acres he cleared $288.11 in cash and won a free trip to the National Corn Show at Chicago, given by the Santa Fe. Merrel spent 23 hours in hoeing, the other cultivation being done by team. His total cost of labor up to the picking time was $21.50, figuring his own labor at 10 cents per hour, and labor of each horse at the same figure. Counting the rent of land and seed, Merrel figured he was out $40.50 up to picking time. Labor required to harvest the cotton was $52.15, making the total outlay $93.65. Merrel made 1,415 pounds of lint worth $332. His seed netted $44.80, making a total revenue of $376.80. Merrel computed his gross return at $181.55 per acre, and net return $91.32 per acre.

they can do. Some day we may look into the atom and see the electrons moving around the nucleus. It must be a very "slow movie" for the electron planets revolve around their nuclear sun several billion times in a second.

The use of the whipping post in Delaware works well for the insurance companies. They have reduced by one-third their charges for insurance against burglary and other criminal acts. Burglars do not like a State where being arrested means being lashed.

If some of the older institutions of torture—the boot, rack and thumbscrews—were added to the whipping post, insurance might fall even lower.

The professional criminal is usually timid and dreads pain. It is fear of a beating, often, that leads him to kill.

Ensenore's comet was expected within easy range of the Yerkes Observatory at the University of Chicago on Monday, but astronomers that sat up all night waited for it in vain. Astronomers are puzzled by its disappearance. Discovered in South Africa last December, it was thirty million miles from the sun, sixty million miles from the earth, when last seen in January.

The comet wandering too near the sun may have been absorbed by that light of our system. Our sun, traveling through space, may take in fresh sources of light, heat and radiation, gobbling up comets, meteorites, etc., as a whale rushing through the ocean swallows smaller fish.

Astronomers will know more about it in 2026, when that comet is due on a return trip.

What people want they can get, if they pay. The national Government suspects an international ring organized to give Americans quick divorces. In Mexico a divorce while you wait costs $800, and there is a cheap divorce factory in Yucatan.

It would pay some promoter to rent some little island in a nice climate beyond the prohibition boundary, set up a government, and confine the island business to a first class bar and a divorce court.

Wandering deer in great herds actually stop a railroad train in Colorado, as lions did in early days. That catches men's eyes of killing things.

WHAT'S DOING IN WEST TEXAS

(By West Texas C. of C.)

Stanton—Martin County will have a county farm demonstration agent. The Commissioners' Court voted an appropriation for the work. The Stanton Chamber of Commerce plans to work out an arrangement whereby the county agent and the secretary of the Stanton Chamber of Commerce will be a combination man and will aid in paying the salary. The directors are now seeking the proper man.

Cisco—The State championship tournament in high school girls basketball was conducted here March 18-19-20 with sixteen teams from every section of Texas participating.

Amarillo—O. C. Goodwin new secretary of the Amarillo Board of City Development took up his new duties March 17. As a special favor to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the Breckinridge Chamber of Commerce directors released Mr. Goodwin at this time in order that he might get to work at once on plans for the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to be held here in June.

Littlefield—Arthur Duggan of Littlefield has been formally announced as a candidate for the presidency of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and his friends are waging an aggressive campaign to put him over. Mr. Duggan is at present a vice president and enthusiastic worker for the organization.

Midland—Midland and Martin counties have united in pooling a car load of hogs in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and Fort Worth Stock Yards Company campaign for hog importation.

Mineral Wells—All preliminary steps have been completed for the erection of a million dollar hotel here and work is expected to begin at once. Announcement has just been made that a second million dollar hotel will be erected here. These two big hotels will add to the fame of Mineral Wells as a resort city.

Eastland—The Bankhead Poultry Raisers Association has shipped its fifth car load of eggs co-operatively. The Association recently closed a contract to supply the T-P dining car service with eggs and is finding a steady demand for its product at a premium above the market.

Stanford—Organization of the Dallas-Fort Worth-Lubbock Highway Association has been completed and funds have been raised to boost this artery of traffic from North Texas to the Plains section.

Burgess Weaver has been out of his place of business in the First National Bank several days this week being confined in the hospital where he underwent a surgical operation.

Jefferson's Influence By Proxy

Altho he was in France at the time of the Constitutional Convention of 1787, Thomas Jefferson's influence was felt in the deliberations of that body and in the making of the Constitution of the United States as probably no other character in all history at physical distance from any given scene of action. Is it any wonder, then, that April 13 calls to mind the birthday of this truly great American?

Constitutional encroachments of these later days call vividly to mind the painstaking efforts put forth by Jefferson and his contemporary statesmen in the arming and shaping of a government that would embody both the principles of Federal unity and preservation of the rights of States and individuals. Lovers of true freedom owe a mark of respect if not a debt of profound gratitude to Thomas Jefferson and his life work. Political differences of today merge into full accord with respect to such fundamentals as "that men are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." And while the protection of life, the guarantee of liberty and the search for contentment was not wholly settled by such pronouncements, they serve as guide posts to

About Your Health

INVISIBLE POISON

We have no antidote for carbon monoxide intoxication—no advice to give except keep away from it, and this is obviously impossible in our crowded thoroughfares.

The danger-point is the end of the exhaust-pipe of the engine producing it.

Within every physician's clientele may be found dozens of people who suffer from indescribable weakness and inefficiency, many of them with poisoned hearts, the cause of which has not yet been determined. Many of them work around garages, and places where monoxide gas is in the air. They suffer from typical effects of gas poisoning, more emphatically true, if their eliminative channels are in good working order, and if there are no evidences of bacterial invasion. It is very difficult to restore these patients; we advise pure air, when that essential to life is becoming harder to find.

Most gases are lighter than air. I do not know the weight of carbon monoxide gas, but I believe that the human level may become heavily saturated with it, enough to produce slow poisoning, before it rises to higher strata, while in damp weather in low temperatures, it may become positively dangerous to health if not to life. Clearly it is the duty of our research laboratories to find a means of protecting our people from unsuspected dangers. Let's have a "transformer" at the end of the exhaust pipe of the family car.

Night Coughing Relieved At Once

Why suffer continually from a persistent, weakening night cough when you can get almost instant relief, and usually break the cough completely in 24 hours by a new method based on the famous Dr. King's New Discovery?

Here is the method: You simply take one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. It has a double action. It not only soothes and heals irritation, but also removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of the coughing. As a result even the worst cough usually disappears quickly.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children, too—no harmful drugs. Very economical, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

TERRELL PREDICTS

12 CENT COTTON

Edinburg, March 27.—Twelve-cent cotton was predicted for this year by George B. Terrell, State Commissioner of Agriculture, who is here on a valley inspection trip. He said he believed the price would not go above 12 cents.

Although he will not make his report on cotton acreage until June, he predicted a planting of more than 18,000,000 acres in Texas alone and said that the indications are that a tremendous crop would be made despite the campaign for reduced acreage.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McCulloch and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Greer were here from Coleman Sunday afternoon.

J. C. FULLER

J. C. Fuller, 84, died at the home of his son, Cal, in the south part of town last Saturday, after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Mr. Fuller came to Coleman county with his family in the year of 1900, and settled on a farm about 4 miles southeast of Santa Anna, where he lived until about one year ago, when he and his aged companion moved to O'Donald, out on the plains. Mrs. Fuller died and was buried at O'Donald about six weeks ago, and Mr. Fuller came back to visit and look after business affairs. His remains were carried to O'Donnell and buried beside his deceased wife. Surviving them are four sons, Cal, living here in Santa Anna, Nealy and Milt, O'Donnell, and Bill of Wichita Falls, and two daughters, Mrs. G. W. Gambell of Wichita Falls and Mrs. L. O. Lanham living in Oklahoma. All the children were present except the one living in Oklahoma, and accompanied the remains to O'Donnell for burial. Deceased was a good citizen and leaves many good friends who will join the Santa Anna News in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

Methodist Church

Next Sunday is Easter Sunday. The eleven o'clock service will be given over largely to an Easter Cantata. The choir has spent much time on this and it will be worth your while to come and hear.

Easter is the great day of the year and we should honor it by our presence at church services. Come in honor of your own dead. Come in the remembrance of your own passing from this world. "If a man die shall he live again?" Jesus answered this great question.

On account of revival at Presbyterian church there there will be no night service.

Lesson for April 4

JESUS APPEARS TO HIS DISCIPLES

LESSON TEXT—John 20:24-29; 21:1-22.
GOLDEN TEXT—Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.—John 20:29.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Thomas Happy to See Jesus Alive Again.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Appears to His Disciples.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Appears to His Disciples.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Loving and Serving the Risen Lord.

1. Jesus Manifests Himself to the Disciples—Thomas Present (20:24-29).
Thomas was absent at the first appearance of Jesus—just why we may never know. His absence deprived him of a vision of the Lord. The other disciples went to Thomas with the glad news of the Lord's resurrection but he would not believe. His stubborn disbelief was such that he doggedly declared that unless he saw the prints of the nails and put his finger in the print of the nails and thrust his hand into His side, he would not believe. Note:

1. The Lord's kindness to those who have difficulties (vv. 26, 27).
Thomas "deserved rebuke, but the Lord kindly supplied the evidence which he demanded."

2. The Lord revealed Himself to Thomas (vv. 27, 28).
When He thus revealed Himself, Thomas was transformed from a doubter into a confessor. He cried out, "My Lord and my God."

3. The superior blessing of belief without sight (v. 29).
Jesus patiently furnished Thomas with tangible evidence of His resurrection, but assured him that belief on Him without the tangible evidence was to be in a frame of mind to receive the blessings of the Lord.

II. Jesus Manifests Himself to Seven Disciples at the Sea of Tiberias (21:1-14).

1. The occasion (vv. 1-3).
At Peter's suggestion the disciples go fishing. They do not go back to their old calling without hope in Christ. They should not be accused of forsaking their Lord—they were poor men, therefore obliged to work. Furthermore, honest toil should not be considered incompatible with witnessing for Christ. Sensible men and women will be busy at so-called secular occupations until called from them by the Lord. Indeed, when the Lord wants men to work for Him, He goes to those who are busy. The disciples toiled all night and got nothing.

2. The risen Lord the supplier of the disciples' needs (vv. 4-14).
At daybreak the Lord appeared on the shore and inquired as to their success. The Lord appears at the point of their extremity. When the disciples confessed their failure, He directed them, and success followed.

III. The Charge of the Risen Lord to Peter (21:15-17).
Christ put to Peter the thrice repeated question, "Lovest thou me?" before He gave to him a commission. This shows that supreme love to Christ is the one essential qualification for serving Him. "Lovest thou me more than these?" means, no doubt, "Do you love me more than you do these disciples and all things besides?" Three classes in the church need special care and food adapted to their several estates.

1. Feed My lambs (v. 15). This first charge relates to those who are beginning the Christian life, the babes in Christ. The word "feed" means more than instruction. It means in addition to instruction, surroundings, influences, examples, etc.

2. Tend My sheep (v. 16).
This charge shows a different class. It means to shepherd the sheep. The duty here enjoined is to deal with the mature class. He must feed them, give them the proper instruction, guide them, lead them and correct them.

3. Feed My sheep (v. 17).
This third charge means the caring of aged Christians. The word "feed" is much the same as in the first case. It means that for the aged Christians the instructions ought to be such as will be suited to their needs.

IV. Follow Me (vv. 18-23).
Christ here gives a prophecy concerning Peter's death. It was to be by crucifixion (v. 18). Peter once strunk from the cross, but now the Lord holds it up before him. It is not the Lord's death on the cross, but Peter's own. Whatever may be before, even the cruel cross, the disciples are directed to follow Him.

Worldly Joy

Worldly joy is like the songs the peasants sing, full of melodies and sweet airs. Christian joy has its sweet airs, too; but they are augmented to harmonies, so that he who has it goes to heaven, not to the voice of a single Aeolian harp, but to that of a whole band of instruments, discoursing wondrous music.—H. W. Beecher.

Our Lives

Our lives are like a garden, they grow either weeds or flowers.

IF YOU ASK ME

You can't measure a man's success until you know his goal.

Bill and Tom were twin brothers, equal in stature, equal in ability. Bill set out from home with a determination to accumulate a million dollars. Tom was quite as determined to marry the girl who lived across the street and became an efficient plumber. Both succeeded. Bill got his million before he died, and Tom got the girl, and supported her by wiping joints and fitting pipes.

When the two men were dead, the people who had known them said to one another: "Bill was uncommonly successful; but his brother never amounted to much. Ah well, there's usually one failure in a family."

Yet Tom wasn't a failure. He was a complete success. He did precisely what he set out to do, and he was content. If he had devoted himself to the business of making money he might have matched Bill's million.

There isn't any hard and fast definition of success. To be sure, it consists in arriving; but unless a man elects to take you into his confidence, you can't tell where his goal lies, and if you are ignorant of his goal you are not qualified to judge of his success.

A banker isn't called a failure because he can't drive an engine, nor is a surgeon called a failure because he can't play a violin.

There is a diversity of gifts; and it is a far better thing to develop one talent and become useful to society in one small particular than it is to possess many talents and fail of the achievement they promise.

If a man's ambition is to become a justice of the peace, and he achieves it and administers the law without bias or offense to justice, he is a success. If he is a king, and his reign brings ill-fortune, misery, and want to the people, he is a failure.

In the common definition, success consists in getting money. If this definition is correct, how shall we qualify the astronomer who maps the heavens and discovers a star, the man of medicine who spends his life among germ cultures, and finds a cure for some dreadful disease, the explorer who discovers a continent, the missionary who lifts a savage people out of mental and spiritual darkness. These, and their kind, seldom get great reward in money. Are they failures?

Which is a greater success, the poet or the surgeon? The bridge builder or the preacher? The violinist or the financier? How do you know?

And if you cannot tell whether this man's work or another's will have greater worth at the final accounting, how do you qualify as a judge of any man's success, when you don't even know what his ambitions are?—Robert Quillen, in American Magazine.

THE HIGH COST OF FIRE

It has been estimated that the fire waste of the United States is $1,044 a minute. Staggering as it may be, it is not all of the story.

At the last meeting of the National Fire Waste Council, which is co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce of the United States to cut down the fire toll, Ira H. Woolson, New York engineer, made the following estimate:

"The best census figures available indicate a total urban population in the United States for cities having a population in excess of 8,000 as approximately 50,000,000. Assessing the average cost per capita of $2.70, as calculated in twenty-three cities, upon this population would indicate a cost for fire department service of $135,000,000, or a total annual fire loss to the country of $670,000,000, exclusive of water supply. Such figures are staggering and they are believed to be conservative. The end is not reached. How long can we stand such terrific waste? The burden is needlessly heavy, because much of it can be eliminated by judicious legislation."

Upon this basis of calculation the cost of fire would be approximately $1.275 a minute.
The reason for this condition Mr. Woolson attributes largely to our habits of frail combustible construction. "Coupled with this," he concludes, "is our excessive carelessness and wastefulness. These two national characteristics have reciprocal relations, each stimulating the other and both creative of fire hazard."

FEEL YOUR OWN PILL

A boy was flying a kite. Another boy was watching him. Both saw the kite, but only one was enjoying its flying. The boy that held the string got the real thrill. It's no fun fishing unless you can hold the pole. It's no lasting satisfaction seeing the other fellow's shoulder galled against the wheel. You may chuckle in the end, but the real benefit is not in inherited wealth; it's in the dollar that you helped to earn and the town you helped to build.

Ford

When You Trade Your Car—

Ford owners are continually being approached by automobile salesmen who wish to "accept" Fords as part payment on more expensive cars.

It is logical that automobile dealers should be eager to trade with Ford owners. No other used car is so easy to sell as a used Ford—because everyone has confidence in Ford quality. And it is not expensive to recondition, since Ford replacement parts are lowest in price.

Most automobiles carry greater discounts to dealers than the Ford—another reason why other dealers may offer the Ford owner a larger trade-in allowance.

But, bear these facts in mind:

The amount of the trade-in allowance you can get is not the most important thing for you to consider. The big thing is the difference you have to pay. And remember, that the higher priced car will not be so easy to dispose of when you come to trade it in.

If you wish to trade your Ford for a new automobile, stick to the car that you know to be dependable, useful and economical. Go to your Ford dealer!

He will give you a fair and liberal allowance for your present Ford and will gladly arrange payment of the balance to suit your convenience.

Announces for County
Judge Coleman County

Since it has already become an established custom for the County Judge of Coleman County to serve only one term, so as to give everybody a chance to be judge; since my competitors are showing their faith in that custom by doing their best to make each other observe that custom; since both my friends and I feel that if I am ever to serve my term, I must take it now; and since I should like very much to serve my term, I have decided, after most careful consideration, to do my very best to help each one of my competitors in his efforts to make the other observe that admirable and well established custom of just one term for County Judge in Coleman County.

For reasons already suggested, I can well wish good success to the efforts of both my worthy competitors, and vote for both, and expect them and their friends to vote for me: that ought to make us all happy.

Since I cannot run on the merits of my worthy competitors; and since even they do not want to run on their own demerits (and we all have enough of demerits); I have decided to run strictly on my own merits.

One merit is that I have not spent long years of life on the impossible task of learning all about the whys and wherefores of all the laws that have ever been passed in America, nor all about the court decisions concerning all these laws: so I am not likely to spend much time trying to find a way to clear the guilty, or to punish the innocent.

I have given my life to the study

(and as far as possible, to the practice) of the great fundamental things of life, the things that are best for all mankind. Two lawyers are subscribers to my paper; I can depend on their friendship. Some of the best legal lights of Texas are easily accessible. The best law books in the world can be borrowed or bought; and I can read them. I have all my life been burdened with a judicial mind; my college president said that I was specially fitted for that kind of work. I have always tried to see the merits of the other side: everybody could expect from me, as County Judge, even handed justice, tempered with mercy.

Most of the cases that come before a County Judge are not old hardened criminals; they are youthful offenders, at some great crisis, in the very bloom of life. A judge must know something about law; but he needs to know far more about life and its privileges and perils, its duties and dangers; he needs to know far more about integrity and honor and justice and mercy. What is needed most is not a man to measure out big doses of strict justice to all alike; nor a milk-sop Nanny to turn all loose without any conception of the terrible dangers into which they are rushing; but one who can carry into the courtroom the spirit and wisdom of the Christ, and who knows how to apply that to the trying and perplexing problems which we must all face; a man who can easily realize not only that his office is a sacred trust, but that it involves an inescapable duty and presents a supreme opportunity of helping to save the youth from a life of crime and shame and expense and loss and suffering, to himself, to his friends and to all mankind. A life of sacrificial service for my fellows, and of suffering for the sake of others and at the hands of others, fits me specially for that task at this time; the unfortunate offender, whether young or old, will know that his judge is as deeply interested in helping him as in helping society in general.

And in the civil differences of neighbors, we need a judge who can right the wrongs of the past; but we need one also who can help restore peace and good-will and so prevent wrongs for the future: the man who can live most peaceably with his own neighbors, with his own comrades and competitors in business and professional life, can help other neighbors most along the same line.

We need a judge who does not already know everything; one who is always ready to learn from others.

And if we are to have peace and prosperity in Coleman County, we must have a judge who can go into office feeling that the country is not hopelessly divided over him; feeling that he is ready to be the friend of everybody in the county; that though there may be a few who are not friendly toward him, there is not one whom he would not be glad to help.

I was born and brought up in the county; since my coming to Texas this last time, more than sixteen years ago, my home has been in the county; everybody knows that my interests are primarily with country people.

But I am deeply interested in all that concerns the highest welfare of our people, in town as well as in country. As a student I spent a good share of three years in the second largest city of America, as well as a good share of seven years in Springfield, Mo. For eight years I was pastor in towns of Oklahoma, ranging in population from 1,000 to 5,000. From personal experience, I know the problems of people in both places.

Some of the best friends I have on earth are business men in Coleman county towns. You will find their names connected with institutions that send out their welcomes and good wishes to New Era Builder readers. They have made this paper, with its slogan of Peace and Good Will and co-operation, possible, and they have helped to make life's burdens bearable to me and mine.

If either city or country is to be as prosperous or as happy as it can be, and ought to be, each must help the other: a vote for me helps to create a better feeling between city and country; helps to bring about a better spirit of co-operation; helps to bring in a period of greater prosperity for us all. It is the opportunity of a life-time for my Coleman county friends to help me and themselves and Coleman county.

I. C. ATCHLEY.

Baptist Church Notes

Our Sunday School will begin promptly at 9:45. If you are a Baptist you should be in Sunday School every Sunday. If you are not a Baptist and not a member of any other Sunday School then we extend you an invitation to come and join us. Make our Sunday school yours.

A special service at 11 o'clock. Miss Minnie Alexander of Lometa will speak. Miss Alexander is a returned Missionary from China. It was our joy to give the farewell service for her before she sailed for China. She is a pleasing speaker, and you will want to hear her. I hope that every one who can will come and hear her at the morning hour.

The B. Y. P. U's will have their meetings at 6:45. Let all of the young people be in their places next Sunday evening.

Remember the Workers Meeting will be at Rockwood Monday. We are anxious for a good number of the people to attend that meeting. Rev. H. H. Stephens of the Baptist church of Winters will speak. Miss Alexander will also speak. There has been arranged a good program for the meeting.

The R. A's will have their meeting Tuesday at 8:30.

The Baker G. A's will meet Tuesday at the same hour.

Prayer service Wednesday evening at 7:30. Followed by the Teachers and Officers meeting.

Make the Baptist church your church.

Sidney F. Martin, Pastor.

CRIME CANT WIN

"Crime doesn't pay," says Ray Majors, reviewing his career for the public benefit in Kansas. "And he ought to know. He's a bright, courageous crook, and has 'pulled off' more big things than most of them. But at what price? He sums up the whole matter thus, in his prison quarters:

"I am 30 years old. I began my career of crime 10 years ago. Eight of those 10 years I have spent in jails and penitentiaries. I have been shot 17 times—13 times with pistols, once with a rifle and three times with a shotgun. My left shoulder is shot away. My left arm is paralyzed from the elbow to the shoulder. One lung is gone. My body is scarred from head to foot with bullet wounds. And I say: You can't win."

That should meet the eyes of a lot of young fellows looking for loot and glory.

No one ever knew that Col. House won the war until he told it himself in his papers that are being widely published.

Bad Color (liver trouble)

"OCCASIONALLY I am troubled with spells of constipation and inactive liver," says Mrs. John L. Pence, Broadway, Va. "I always use Theford's Black-Draught when I feel a spell of this kind coming on, for it saves me a bad headache. My color gets sallow at times. I get real yellow, showing that the trouble comes from the liver."

"I have found Black-Draught to be the finest kind of a remedy for this. I take Black-Draught and make a tea out of it, and take it, along in small doses for several days. I have never found anything that served me so well. "Since I have known about Black-Draught, I have not suffered nearly so much with headache, caused from indigestion. If I find my tongue is coated, and I wake up with a bad taste in my mouth, I know I have been eating indiscreetly, and I immediately resort to Black-Draught to straighten me out."

Tom Green County Files Suit to Get Its Bonds Approved

Austin, Texas, March 30.—Test of the road bond law in Texas was inaugurated today when petition for mandamus was filed in the supreme court by Tom Green county to compel Attorney General Dan Moody to approve an issue of $500,000 county road bonds, issued under the act held invalid and unconstitutional by the United States supreme court in the Archer county road bond case.

W. P. Dumas of Dallas, attorney for Tom Green county, filed the petition, which contends that the act held unconstitutional by the supreme court of the United States in the Archer county case is separable and that the entire act was not held invalid. The petition states that only portions of the act applicable to the issuance of the road district bonds were held unconstitutional. The Tom Green county bonds were not issued under the portion held invalid, but under the provision which authorizes counties to issue bonds, the petition states.

In event the Texas supreme court grants the mandamus, the $5,000,000 Harris county road bonds voted March 11, may be approved. The ruling may affect certain issues of the approximately $82,000,000 in bonds affected by the United States supreme court's ruling.

"Pretty Ladies" Play and Movie Combined Into One

If you can't decide whether you want to see a motion picture or a stage play go see Monta Bell's "Pretty Ladies," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production which will be shown at the Queen Theatre, Monday and Tuesday. "Pretty Ladies" is both in one. It's a picture on the screen of stage life before the footlights and back stage, too. It shows you how stage folk live and it proves they are just as human as people who never have set foot in a theatre except as member of an audience. The story is a colorful tale of a stage star who had everything she wanted—but a man. How she got one and then kept him in the face of a lot of opposition, is told by Bell in a dramatic way. Zasu Pitts is featured and Tom Moore plays the leading role. Several other important casts are featured.

Two Great Reasons For Rejoicing at Easter

While the earth remaineth,
Seedtime and harvest,
Cold and heat,
Summer and winter,
Day and night
Shall not cease.

The happy coincidence which brings the spring of the year and Easter day so close together makes for a very joyous occasion. In fact the word Easter is derived from Eostre, who was the Goddess of Light, of Spring, which makes the association between the two even closer.

But even Christmas does not carry the glad promise of Easter. Socially, the season has come to mean the resumption of more formal and larger gatherings after the comparative quiet of Lent. And the children find in the legends of the Easter hare and the enthusiastic pursuit of his colored eggs, the same mystery that has made Santa Claus live through the ages.—Exchange.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for your help in ministering to our dear wife and mother in her last sickness and for your kind words and other tokens of sympathy that have been a balm to our hearts in this, our great bereavement. May God's richest blessings be showered upon you.

S. J. Glasscock and children.

MRS. J. A. GLASSCOCK

Mrs. J. A. Glasscock, 65, passed away at her home in the Liberty community Saturday, and her remains were brought here for burial Sunday morning. Deceased, according to the limited data available, leaves a husband and 9 children, all of whom were present when the end came. She was a good Christian woman and was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Revs. White and Graham of Brownwood conducted the funeral. It is our information, that Mrs. Glasscock was a long time sufferer of tuberculosis. The Santa Anna News joins other friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved.
