

State Oil Production Cut 117,000 Barrels

Flood Hits Imperial Valley

Tremors Felt During Heavy Storm Sunday

Three And One-Half Inches Precipitation Received In Day

BRAWLEY, Calif., (AP)—Thousands of the below-sea-level Imperial valley was under more than 3 feet of water Monday...

Sterling Not To Cast Vote For Nominee

Governor Will Support National Ticket In General Election

AUSTIN—Governor Sterling, who lost his court fight for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination...

Dancer To Wed

Ruth Tark, former Ziegfeld beauty and featured dancer in a New York musical revue...

New Tax Schemes And Measure For Regulation Of Business Numerous Among Bills For Next Legislature

22,700,000 Of Bales Set As World Output

NEW YORK, (AP)—The New York cotton exchange service Monday on basis of incomplete and preliminary estimate said it appeared probable world production of cotton this season would be around 22,700,000 bales...

By RAYMOND BROOKS AUSTIN—Scores of proposed new bills for the legislature in January, led by new tax schemes and measures to regulate business have been listed here recently...

Miss Cauble Dies Of Burns

Popular Daughter Of Well-Known Family To Be Buried Tuesday

Glady's Ailene Cauble, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Cauble of Elbow, died at a local hospital at 4 a. m. Monday from burns received late Saturday morning...

Legion Post Will Promote Child Work

Local Child Welfare Chairman Unusually Experienced In Work

Roy W. Whaley, recently appointed Child Welfare chairman of the American Legion post here, made a short talk at its last meeting...

Man Badly Injured In Accident At Gin

MOUNT VERNON, (AP)—Leslie Etter, 30, of Sherman, was fatally injured and six others less seriously hurt when frame work of a gin collapsed here Monday.

Lawson Spuds Offset To Tribal's First Well On M. M. Edwards Land

Noel T. Lawson has spudded No. 1 H. Edwards, an offset to Tribal Oil Co.'s No. 1 M. M. Edwards, Glascock county producer in which he has an interest...

Deaths Takes Mrs. Allen, 22

Funeral Arrangements Pending Arrival Of Mother-In-Law

Funeral services for Mrs. P. N. (Rex) Allen, 22, who died in a local hospital at 3 p. m. Sunday from complications following major surgery performed more than a week ago...

Deaths Takes Mrs. Allen, 22

Funeral Arrangements Pending Arrival Of Mother-In-Law

Funeral services for Mrs. P. N. (Rex) Allen, 22, who died in a local hospital at 3 p. m. Sunday from complications following major surgery performed more than a week ago...

TAMMANY'S CHOICE TO SUCCEED MAYOR WALKER

Surrogate John P. O'Brien, a Tammany man, was nominated by democrats to succeed Jimmy Walker as mayor of New York at a special convention in Madison Square Garden...

Howard And Glascock Cut 2500 Bbls.

747,898 Barrels Per Day Allowed; Order Effective October 15

AUSTIN (AP)—The railroad commission Monday issued orders reducing oil allowances for Texas fields by 117,000 barrels under average daily production for October.

The new orders are effective October 15. Production of the East Texas field will be cut to 335,000 barrels a day. The new per well allowance for East Texas, effective October 15 is 40 barrels.

Under the new schedule total allowable production of all Texas fields will be 747,898 barrels, not including marginal well production. The commission also cancelled all exemption to proration allowable in Panhandle fields.

Democratic Medallions On Sale Here

County Democratic Chairman And County Attorney Head Drive

Medallions have been received here by Gov. Cunningham, county democratic chairman and James Little, county attorney, ready to be used in a Roosevelt-Garner medallion day soon.

Teachers Of Oil Belt In Session Soon

Educational Association To Hold Fall Meeting In Abilene

County and city superintendents and principals will convene Oct. 17 in Abilene for the fall meeting of the Oil Belt Educational association.

Many Attend Free Program In Auditorium

Second Of Community Series Attracts Several Hundreds

Several hundred people attended the second of a series of free community programs given every other Sunday afternoon in the Municipal auditorium.

East Texas Town Stricken By Fire

NACOGDOCHES (AP)—A theatre, dance and garage warehouse, three carloads of cotton seed and a grain mill at Mount Enterprise, 23 miles north of here, burned during Sunday night.

Lone Star Gas Loses Move To Stop Condemnation Of Fort Worth Plant

FORT WORTH (AP)—Application of the Lone Star Gas company for application restraining the City of Fort Worth from condemning the company's local distributing system under a municipal gas ownership plan was dismissed by Judge Frank Culver, Jr. Monday.

The Weather

Big Spring and vicinity—Partly cloudy tonight. Probably frost Tuesday generally fair. West Texas—Partly cloudy. Probably frost in the north and extreme west portions.

Yard Contest Entry At Once Is Being Urged

Real Object Of Contest Is Civic Beautification

C. T. Watson, manager of the number of commercial Monday emphasized the importance of entering the yard and garden contest now instead of waiting until the spring months.

Backward Walker Continues Journey

Phlegm L. Wingo, Abilene man who set out from Fort Worth in April of last year to walk around the world backward and who arrived here Friday evening from the west, left from the Western Union office here at 11 a. m. Monday for Colorado.

Sam Insull Is Detained By Grecians

But Action Not On Request Of American Legation, Says Report

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Samuel Insull was detained Monday by Athens authorities because his papers for entry into the country were not in order.

Yard Contest Entry At Once Is Being Urged

C. T. Watson, manager of the number of commercial Monday emphasized the importance of entering the yard and garden contest now instead of waiting until the spring months.

Yard Contest Entry At Once Is Being Urged

Real Object Of Contest Is Civic Beautification

C. T. Watson, manager of the number of commercial Monday emphasized the importance of entering the yard and garden contest now instead of waiting until the spring months.

Backward Walker Continues Journey

Phlegm L. Wingo, Abilene man who set out from Fort Worth in April of last year to walk around the world backward and who arrived here Friday evening from the west, left from the Western Union office here at 11 a. m. Monday for Colorado.

Sam Insull Is Detained By Grecians

But Action Not On Request Of American Legation, Says Report

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Samuel Insull was detained Monday by Athens authorities because his papers for entry into the country were not in order.

Yard Contest Entry At Once Is Being Urged

C. T. Watson, manager of the number of commercial Monday emphasized the importance of entering the yard and garden contest now instead of waiting until the spring months.

Yard Contest Entry At Once Is Being Urged

Real Object Of Contest Is Civic Beautification

C. T. Watson, manager of the number of commercial Monday emphasized the importance of entering the yard and garden contest now instead of waiting until the spring months.

Backward Walker Continues Journey

Phlegm L. Wingo, Abilene man who set out from Fort Worth in April of last year to walk around the world backward and who arrived here Friday evening from the west, left from the Western Union office here at 11 a. m. Monday for Colorado.

Sam Insull Is Detained By Grecians

But Action Not On Request Of American Legation, Says Report

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Samuel Insull was detained Monday by Athens authorities because his papers for entry into the country were not in order.

Yard Contest Entry At Once Is Being Urged

C. T. Watson, manager of the number of commercial Monday emphasized the importance of entering the yard and garden contest now instead of waiting until the spring months.

Teachers Of Oil Belt In Session Soon

Educational Association To Hold Fall Meeting In Abilene

County and city superintendents and principals will convene Oct. 17 in Abilene for the fall meeting of the Oil Belt Educational association.

Many Attend Free Program In Auditorium

Several hundred people attended the second of a series of free community programs given every other Sunday afternoon in the Municipal auditorium.

Big Spring Daily Herald Published Spring morning and each afternoon except Saturday and Sunday. BOUND BY THE HERALD, INC. J. W. Galtbreth, Business Manager...

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS: Subscribers desiring their address changed will please state in their communication both the old and new addresses.

Subscription Rates: Daily Herald. One Year, $12.00; Six Months, $7.00; Three Months, $4.00; One Month, $1.50.

National Representative: Texas Daily Press Building, Mercantile Bank Bldg., Dallas, Texas. Interstate Bldg., Kansas City, Mo. 130 N. Michigan, Chicago, Ill. Lexington Ave., New York City.

This paper's first duty is to print all the news that fits to print honestly and fairly to all unbiased by any consideration, including its own editorial opinion.

MEMBER THE ASSOCIATED PRESS: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news and information carried in this paper...

A Worthy Amendment: ONE BIT of good news that almost passed unnoticed in the crush of more spectacular news...

Will Rogers Adds To Midland Man's Brand Collection: MIDLAND — Will Rogers adds another page to the collection of Marion F. Peters...

Doctors Give Creosote For Dangerous Coughs: For many years our best doctors prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, colds and bronchitis...

slaughtered to determine if tuberculosis did exist among range animals. Ranchmen in Good Shape: Mr. Johnson said the Marfa fair, although not so pretentious this year as usual...

These having bulls at the sale included: Smith Brothers, F. C. Mellard, James Thompson, Frank Jones, W. F. Jordan, Jr., all of Marfa, J. A. Queen and C. C. Sanders of Big Lake.

Farm Board Men Heard: In a talk on live stock loans, A. C. Williams, member of the Federal Farm Loan Board of Washington, told the ranchmen that the Federal Intermediate Credit Banks have been able to handle all agricultural and live stock loans offered...

Some Closures Made: Bank has made the largest volume of business and has handled the largest proportion of live stock loans. When some mention was made of foreclosed loans on farm and ranch loans, Williams said the loans outstanding in Texas land banks were $156,738,000, and in joint stock banks in Texas $68,225,000.

Will Rogers Adds To Midland Man's Brand Collection: MIDLAND — Will Rogers adds another page to the collection of Marion F. Peters...

Doctors Give Creosote For Dangerous Coughs: For many years our best doctors prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, colds and bronchitis...

15 Uniform Laws Of State Will Be Studied This Year

AUSTIN — The Texas commission on uniform laws this year will consider draft, already completed, of 15 proposed uniform state laws, also before similar agencies of many other states.

The new proposed uniform codes are upon these subjects: Acknowledgment of instruments act. Civil depositions act. Mechanic's lien act. Wills before death of testator act.

Proclamation On Fire Prevention Observance Issued: Mayor J. B. Pickle last night issued the following proclamation...

12 Railroads Receive Cash Loans From R. F. C.

WASHINGTON (UP) — Twelve railroads or their receivers were granted Reconstruction Finance Corporation loans in August, totaling $12,798,883, the report made public showed.

Seagraves Reduces School Tax Values: SEAGRAVES — The Blythe County Line Independent School District (Seagraves) taxable values were reduced by the board of equalization from $1,550,000 to $952,000 or 38.5 per cent.

Mentone Refining Plant In Operation At Arno, Reeves Co.

PECOS — Gasoline is now being turned out of the stills of the Mentone Oil and Refining Company, which is located at Arno in northern Reeves county.

East Texas Pipe Line Facilities Studied

AUSTIN (UP) — Pipe line facilities in the East Texas oil field are the subject of a conference to be held by the East Texas Pipe Line committee of which Jack Bush of Dallas is chairman.

State Of Oklahoma Is Victor In First Fight Against Mine Strikers

McAllister, Okla. (UP) — The state of Oklahoma held the first victory in its campaign against striking union coal miners.

STERLING

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) 1920 Ferguson spoke of Wilson as a memory and the Democratic nominee, Cox, as a joke and denounced the Democratic party in bitter terms than any Republican, again in 1922, he belittled the party.

Colorado First To Win District Game But Principal Honors Go To Mustangs, Bobcats, Steers Pick Up: Colorado's stunning 31 to 6 victory over McCamey enabled the Wolves to take first place in the district standings as the only club to have won a conference game...

NEW TAX: (Continued from Page One) The T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church will hold its monthly social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. L. L. Gully...

TON OF SILK HOSIERY FLOWN TO ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY RECENTLY: More than a ton of silk hosiery was flying to all parts of the nation recently on American Airways planes as a result of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills of Indianapolis...

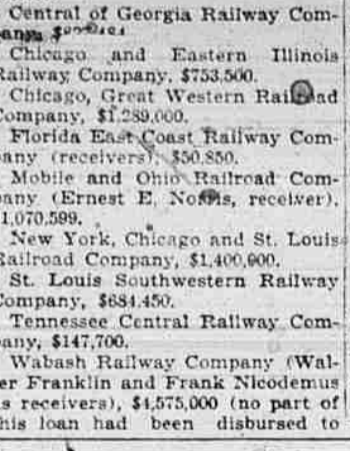

HE-MEN LIKE 'EM MILD: You might think that a two-fisted fellow like the steel jack in the picture would like his tobacco strong. Not at all.

HE WANTS HIS CIGARETTES MILD AND THAT'S WHY HE PICKS CHESTERFIELDS: Mildness doesn't mean a smoke that's weak or flat or insipid or anything like that. In fact it's just the reverse.

WE BELIEVE THAT EVERY SMOKER IS LOOKING FOR A CIGARETTE WITHOUT ANY "BITE" OR BITTERTASTE, AND A CIGARETTE THAT HAS A PLEASANT TASTE — AND THAT'S CHESTERFIELD.

CHESTERFIELD RADIO PROGRAM: Every night except Sunday, Columbia Coast-to-Coast Network.

THEY'RE MILDER THEY TASTE BETTER: Chesterfield Cigarettes.

© 1932, LIGGETT & SMYTH TOBACCO CO.

Colorado First To Win District Game But Principal Honors Go To Mustangs, Bobcats, Steers Pick Up: Colorado's stunning 31 to 6 victory over McCamey enabled the Wolves to take first place in the district standings as the only club to have won a conference game...

NEW TAX: (Continued from Page One) The T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church will hold its monthly social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. L. L. Gully...

TON OF SILK HOSIERY FLOWN TO ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY RECENTLY: More than a ton of silk hosiery was flying to all parts of the nation recently on American Airways planes as a result of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills of Indianapolis...

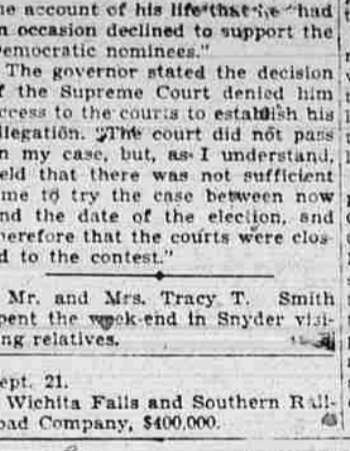

HE-MEN LIKE 'EM MILD: You might think that a two-fisted fellow like the steel jack in the picture would like his tobacco strong. Not at all.

HE WANTS HIS CIGARETTES MILD AND THAT'S WHY HE PICKS CHESTERFIELDS: Mildness doesn't mean a smoke that's weak or flat or insipid or anything like that. In fact it's just the reverse.

WE BELIEVE THAT EVERY SMOKER IS LOOKING FOR A CIGARETTE WITHOUT ANY "BITE" OR BITTERTASTE, AND A CIGARETTE THAT HAS A PLEASANT TASTE — AND THAT'S CHESTERFIELD.

CHESTERFIELD RADIO PROGRAM: Every night except Sunday, Columbia Coast-to-Coast Network.

THEY'RE MILDER THEY TASTE BETTER: Chesterfield Cigarettes.

© 1932, LIGGETT & SMYTH TOBACCO CO.

Colorado First To Win District Game But Principal Honors Go To Mustangs, Bobcats, Steers Pick Up: Colorado's stunning 31 to 6 victory over McCamey enabled the Wolves to take first place in the district standings as the only club to have won a conference game...

NEW TAX: (Continued from Page One) The T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church will hold its monthly social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. L. L. Gully...

TON OF SILK HOSIERY FLOWN TO ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY RECENTLY: More than a ton of silk hosiery was flying to all parts of the nation recently on American Airways planes as a result of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills of Indianapolis...

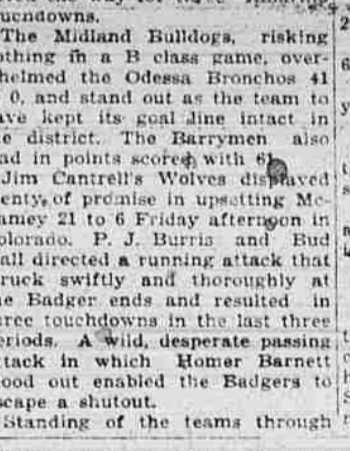

HE-MEN LIKE 'EM MILD: You might think that a two-fisted fellow like the steel jack in the picture would like his tobacco strong. Not at all.

HE WANTS HIS CIGARETTES MILD AND THAT'S WHY HE PICKS CHESTERFIELDS: Mildness doesn't mean a smoke that's weak or flat or insipid or anything like that. In fact it's just the reverse.

WE BELIEVE THAT EVERY SMOKER IS LOOKING FOR A CIGARETTE WITHOUT ANY "BITE" OR BITTERTASTE, AND A CIGARETTE THAT HAS A PLEASANT TASTE — AND THAT'S CHESTERFIELD.

CHESTERFIELD RADIO PROGRAM: Every night except Sunday, Columbia Coast-to-Coast Network.

THEY'RE MILDER THEY TASTE BETTER: Chesterfield Cigarettes.

© 1932, LIGGETT & SMYTH TOBACCO CO.

Table with columns: W, L, Pts, Op, Pct. Rows: Midland, Sweetwater, Colorado, Big Spring, San Angelo, McCamey.

LEGION: (Continued from Page One) glad to co-operate at all times with any other welfare organization. He is now working out a plan whereby every underprivileged child in the city can have a week of fun in the City Park next summer.

NEW TAX: (Continued from Page One) The T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church will hold its monthly social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. L. L. Gully...

TON OF SILK HOSIERY FLOWN TO ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY RECENTLY: More than a ton of silk hosiery was flying to all parts of the nation recently on American Airways planes as a result of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills of Indianapolis...

HE-MEN LIKE 'EM MILD: You might think that a two-fisted fellow like the steel jack in the picture would like his tobacco strong. Not at all.

HE WANTS HIS CIGARETTES MILD AND THAT'S WHY HE PICKS CHESTERFIELDS: Mildness doesn't mean a smoke that's weak or flat or insipid or anything like that. In fact it's just the reverse.

WE BELIEVE THAT EVERY SMOKER IS LOOKING FOR A CIGARETTE WITHOUT ANY "BITE" OR BITTERTASTE, AND A CIGARETTE THAT HAS A PLEASANT TASTE — AND THAT'S CHESTERFIELD.

CHESTERFIELD RADIO PROGRAM: Every night except Sunday, Columbia Coast-to-Coast Network.

THEY'RE MILDER THEY TASTE BETTER: Chesterfield Cigarettes.

© 1932, LIGGETT & SMYTH TOBACCO CO.

RITZ Perfect Talking Pictures Today, Last Times

Blondie of the Follies Starting Tomorrow

Expert BATTERY Charging - Repairing Guaranteed U. S. L. Batteries Phillips Super Service Ph. 37 3rd & Gold

CALL OF THE WEST

By R. G. MONTGOMERY

CHAPTER XVII

Stanley Ball laughed shortly. Here was a fitting finish indeed for the whole mad undertaking. Ball was determined that the big timber boss would have to shoot him down to hold him. There was to be no capture and no show to be staged after the moon came up.

Swergin leaned forward and jerked Stan's gun from his holster. He went over the little form of the cowboy with a heavy hand, satisfying himself that there was no other weapon concealed on him, then he snarled, "Walk straight ahead and keep out of the light from the buildings!"

Stan realized that he was going to be made a prisoner and left to sweat while Swergin got his mob together. He decided to test the big fellow behind him.

"You are an officer of the law, Swergin. I demand a safe place and a guarantee that there will be no mob action." Stan bit off the words shortly.

Stan understood what that meant. Swergin would be in the back ground and his men would do the actual lynching. It would save a lot of trouble and expense.

They crossed to a dark cabin without windows and Swergin relaxed his vigilance enough to kick open a door. "Get in there!" he snapped.

Stan stepped into the inkiness and he entered the sild to see a man with a thick head of hair, pushed in after him. Like a flash Stan struck out and, as he did so, raised one booted foot in a desperate kick. His aim was as true as it could have been in daylight. Swergin's gun went clattering to the floor. Stan leaped across the doorway and flattened himself. He heard a muttered curse as the big boss tried to get his other gun clear.

With eager fingers Stan sought on the floor for Swergin's gun. He found it and leaped up to shove the heavy revolver into his captor's face. So rapidly did it all happen that Swergin was covered before he could get Stan's gun from the blazer pocket where he had shoved it. As he felt the cold steel of his own weapon shoved into his throat he cursed loudly.

"Shut up or I'll drill you!" Stan snapped. Swergin was instantly silent.

"I'll kill you, Swergin, but the report of your gun would wake the camp." Stan had recovered his own gun by this time. As he felt for it his fingers closed upon a square of cardboard in the boss's pocket. He took this, too, and backed out through the door. "Stay in there!" he hissed.

Swergin stayed while Stan barred the door with a heavy plank. Hastily then he cut across the clearing to where he had cached the supplies. He must have food to live upon and now he was sure Swergin would tighten the pack around his little area of safety.

The moon was just showing over the shoulder of Folly Mountain. The buildings of the timber camp were still in darkness but the clearing was crossed by a band of silver light. Stan hurried because he knew that in half an hour riding would be almost as dangerous as in daylight.

He caught up the burlap sack of supplies and headed toward the black mare. The night was still, with a chill silence that comes to the high country from its crowns of snow above the valleys.

The black mare nickered softly as Stan approached. He slid through the thick brush and patted her sleek neck. Not 10 feet down the slope a white patch of moonlight was creeping upward. Fastening the sack securely behind the saddle, Stan prepared to mount. His hand rested a second on one pocket of his jumper and he felt the carbide he had taken from Swergin. Pulling it out he stepped into the moonlight and looked at it curiously.

A beautiful face smiled up at him, the face of Dona Asper. Her hair framed her face softly and she wore a filmy evening gown that clung against the soft whiteness of her throat. She was looking at the picture of Swergin's face.

"That was how he had come to take Stan. How he had taken her place beside Dudley who had not pursued the hunt. She had removed all traces of her tears of a few minutes before and was now eagerly watching the scene below.

"I'd like to go with them but I'm not going to," Dudley whispered as he slipped an arm around her. Dona did not reply but she moved closer to him as though to shield herself from something that might come from the chill night.

The last horseman galloped out of sounds of shouting came from up the mountain. Shots rang out from the direction of Pass Creek. A fusillade followed from far above. Then all was still. The moon had cleared the highest crag on Folly Mountain and the entire slope lay in shimmering silver beauty. Dona sang to the porch and propped her chin in her hands. So much of beauty yet such terrible things taking place. She strove to understand it all, but more to understand herself.

"Let's stay here. It's so beautiful," she murmured. "Not for long, dear," Dudley pulled his coat over her shoulders. Dona did not answer. She was deep in wonder at the queer tightness in her heart. She was in a panic now that she was committed to marrying Dudley and she could not find a single valid reason why she should feel this way.

"Better be going in now," Dudley said, and got to his feet. Still Dona hesitated. She looked up, trying to smile. "Just a minute more!" she begged. "The moon hasn't reached that patch of timber under Folly Peak."

Nevertheless he put the black mare to a gallop and headed up the mountain. He had to get down on the Pass Creek side in order to cross a rock formation that would hide his tracks. Then there was a stream to follow as a further blind. To be caught at any one of these open places would mean instant death from a rifle. Already Stan could hear the pounding of boots below and above him. Swergin had sent his fastest riders deep into the hills to head off the cowboy. A swarm of lesser hunters would bring up the rear. Touching the mare's flank with a spur, Stan gave her her head. There was little at stake, yet he had suddenly taken new interest in living.

The scene at the corrals was a mad scramble. Dudley who had taken her place beside Swergin was not pursued the hunt. She had removed all traces of her tears of a few minutes before and was now eagerly watching the scene below.

"I'd like to go with them but I'm not going to," Dudley whispered as he slipped an arm around her. Dona did not reply but she moved closer to him as though to shield herself from something that might come from the chill night.

The last horseman galloped out of sounds of shouting came from up the mountain. Shots rang out from the direction of Pass Creek. A fusillade followed from far above. Then all was still. The moon had cleared the highest crag on Folly Mountain and the entire slope lay in shimmering silver beauty. Dona sang to the porch and propped her chin in her hands. So much of beauty yet such terrible things taking place. She strove to understand it all, but more to understand herself.

"Let's stay here. It's so beautiful," she murmured. "Not for long, dear," Dudley pulled his coat over her shoulders. Dona did not answer. She was deep in wonder at the queer tightness in her heart. She was in a panic now that she was committed to marrying Dudley and she could not find a single valid reason why she should feel this way.

"Better be going in now," Dudley said, and got to his feet. Still Dona hesitated. She looked up, trying to smile. "Just a minute more!" she begged. "The moon hasn't reached that patch of timber under Folly Peak."

Nevertheless he put the black mare to a gallop and headed up the mountain. He had to get down on the Pass Creek side in order to cross a rock formation that would hide his tracks. Then there was a stream to follow as a further blind. To be caught at any one of these open places would mean instant death from a rifle. Already Stan could hear the pounding of boots below and above him. Swergin had sent his fastest riders deep into the hills to head off the cowboy. A swarm of lesser hunters would bring up the rear. Touching the mare's flank with a spur, Stan gave her her head. There was little at stake, yet he had suddenly taken new interest in living.

The scene at the corrals was a mad scramble. Dudley who had taken her place beside Swergin was not pursued the hunt. She had removed all traces of her tears of a few minutes before and was now eagerly watching the scene below.

"I'd like to go with them but I'm not going to," Dudley whispered as he slipped an arm around her. Dona did not reply but she moved closer to him as though to shield herself from something that might come from the chill night.

The last horseman galloped out of sounds of shouting came from up the mountain. Shots rang out from the direction of Pass Creek. A fusillade followed from far above. Then all was still. The moon had cleared the highest crag on Folly Mountain and the entire slope lay in shimmering silver beauty. Dona sang to the porch and propped her chin in her hands. So much of beauty yet such terrible things taking place. She strove to understand it all, but more to understand herself.

"Let's stay here. It's so beautiful," she murmured. "Not for long, dear," Dudley pulled his coat over her shoulders. Dona did not answer. She was deep in wonder at the queer tightness in her heart. She was in a panic now that she was committed to marrying Dudley and she could not find a single valid reason why she should feel this way.

"Better be going in now," Dudley said, and got to his feet. Still Dona hesitated. She looked up, trying to smile. "Just a minute more!" she begged. "The moon hasn't reached that patch of timber under Folly Peak."

Nevertheless he put the black mare to a gallop and headed up the mountain. He had to get down on the Pass Creek side in order to cross a rock formation that would hide his tracks. Then there was a stream to follow as a further blind. To be caught at any one of these open places would mean instant death from a rifle. Already Stan could hear the pounding of boots below and above him. Swergin had sent his fastest riders deep into the hills to head off the cowboy. A swarm of lesser hunters would bring up the rear. Touching the mare's flank with a spur, Stan gave her her head. There was little at stake, yet he had suddenly taken new interest in living.

The scene at the corrals was a mad scramble. Dudley who had taken her place beside Swergin was not pursued the hunt. She had removed all traces of her tears of a few minutes before and was now eagerly watching the scene below.

"I'd like to go with them but I'm not going to," Dudley whispered as he slipped an arm around her. Dona did not reply but she moved closer to him as though to shield herself from something that might come from the chill night.

The last horseman galloped out of sounds of shouting came from up the mountain. Shots rang out from the direction of Pass Creek. A fusillade followed from far above. Then all was still. The moon had cleared the highest crag on Folly Mountain and the entire slope lay in shimmering silver beauty. Dona sang to the porch and propped her chin in her hands. So much of beauty yet such terrible things taking place. She strove to understand it all, but more to understand herself.

"Let's stay here. It's so beautiful," she murmured. "Not for long, dear," Dudley pulled his coat over her shoulders. Dona did not answer. She was deep in wonder at the queer tightness in her heart. She was in a panic now that she was committed to marrying Dudley and she could not find a single valid reason why she should feel this way.

"Better be going in now," Dudley said, and got to his feet. Still Dona hesitated. She looked up, trying to smile. "Just a minute more!" she begged. "The moon hasn't reached that patch of timber under Folly Peak."

Nevertheless he put the black mare to a gallop and headed up the mountain. He had to get down on the Pass Creek side in order to cross a rock formation that would hide his tracks. Then there was a stream to follow as a further blind. To be caught at any one of these open places would mean instant death from a rifle. Already Stan could hear the pounding of boots below and above him. Swergin had sent his fastest riders deep into the hills to head off the cowboy. A swarm of lesser hunters would bring up the rear. Touching the mare's flank with a spur, Stan gave her her head. There was little at stake, yet he had suddenly taken new interest in living.

to turn and run to his mount when he saw a slender figure pass Asper Delo's lighted window. The girl vanished instantly in the direction of the front porch but in the fleeting glance Stan was sure it was Dona who was returning from the little group of spruce trees shading the north wall.

Down at the corrals there was commotion. Sleepy voices shouted and saddles scraped along the ground. One rider dashed into the moonlight not 100 feet above Stan. With an easy swing the tall cowboy was in the saddle and heading the black mare back into the timber. He was thinking about the danger ahead of him in the moon-drenched patches of timber or along red walls of stone, lighted almost brilliantly; he was wondering about the broken sobs he had heard from among the spruce.

Nevertheless he put the black mare to a gallop and headed up the mountain. He had to get down on the Pass Creek side in order to cross a rock formation that would hide his tracks. Then there was a stream to follow as a further blind. To be caught at any one of these open places would mean instant death from a rifle. Already Stan could hear the pounding of boots below and above him. Swergin had sent his fastest riders deep into the hills to head off the cowboy. A swarm of lesser hunters would bring up the rear. Touching the mare's flank with a spur, Stan gave her her head. There was little at stake, yet he had suddenly taken new interest in living.

The scene at the corrals was a mad scramble. Dudley who had taken her place beside Swergin was not pursued the hunt. She had removed all traces of her tears of a few minutes before and was now eagerly watching the scene below.

"I'd like to go with them but I'm not going to," Dudley whispered as he slipped an arm around her. Dona did not reply but she moved closer to him as though to shield herself from something that might come from the chill night.

The last horseman galloped out of sounds of shouting came from up the mountain. Shots rang out from the direction of Pass Creek. A fusillade followed from far above. Then all was still. The moon had cleared the highest crag on Folly Mountain and the entire slope lay in shimmering silver beauty. Dona sang to the porch and propped her chin in her hands. So much of beauty yet such terrible things taking place. She strove to understand it all, but more to understand herself.

"Let's stay here. It's so beautiful," she murmured. "Not for long, dear," Dudley pulled his coat over her shoulders. Dona did not answer. She was deep in wonder at the queer tightness in her heart. She was in a panic now that she was committed to marrying Dudley and she could not find a single valid reason why she should feel this way.

"Better be going in now," Dudley said, and got to his feet. Still Dona hesitated. She looked up, trying to smile. "Just a minute more!" she begged. "The moon hasn't reached that patch of timber under Folly Peak."

Nevertheless he put the black mare to a gallop and headed up the mountain. He had to get down on the Pass Creek side in order to cross a rock formation that would hide his tracks. Then there was a stream to follow as a further blind. To be caught at any one of these open places would mean instant death from a rifle. Already Stan could hear the pounding of boots below and above him. Swergin had sent his fastest riders deep into the hills to head off the cowboy. A swarm of lesser hunters would bring up the rear. Touching the mare's flank with a spur, Stan gave her her head. There was little at stake, yet he had suddenly taken new interest in living.

The scene at the corrals was a mad scramble. Dudley who had taken her place beside Swergin was not pursued the hunt. She had removed all traces of her tears of a few minutes before and was now eagerly watching the scene below.

"I'd like to go with them but I'm not going to," Dudley whispered as he slipped an arm around her. Dona did not reply but she moved closer to him as though to shield herself from something that might come from the chill night.

The last horseman galloped out of sounds of shouting came from up the mountain. Shots rang out from the direction of Pass Creek. A fusillade followed from far above. Then all was still. The moon had cleared the highest crag on Folly Mountain and the entire slope lay in shimmering silver beauty. Dona sang to the porch and propped her chin in her hands. So much of beauty yet such terrible things taking place. She strove to understand it all, but more to understand herself.

"Let's stay here. It's so beautiful," she murmured. "Not for long, dear," Dudley pulled his coat over her shoulders. Dona did not answer. She was deep in wonder at the queer tightness in her heart. She was in a panic now that she was committed to marrying Dudley and she could not find a single valid reason why she should feel this way.

"Better be going in now," Dudley said, and got to his feet. Still Dona hesitated. She looked up, trying to smile. "Just a minute more!" she begged. "The moon hasn't reached that patch of timber under Folly Peak."

Nevertheless he put the black mare to a gallop and headed up the mountain. He had to get down on the Pass Creek side in order to cross a rock formation that would hide his tracks. Then there was a stream to follow as a further blind. To be caught at any one of these open places would mean instant death from a rifle. Already Stan could hear the pounding of boots below and above him. Swergin had sent his fastest riders deep into the hills to head off the cowboy. A swarm of lesser hunters would bring up the rear. Touching the mare's flank with a spur, Stan gave her her head. There was little at stake, yet he had suddenly taken new interest in living.

The scene at the corrals was a mad scramble. Dudley who had taken her place beside Swergin was not pursued the hunt. She had removed all traces of her tears of a few minutes before and was now eagerly watching the scene below.

"I'd like to go with them but I'm not going to," Dudley whispered as he slipped an arm around her. Dona did not reply but she moved closer to him as though to shield herself from something that might come from the chill night.

The last horseman galloped out of sounds of shouting came from up the mountain. Shots rang out from the direction of Pass Creek. A fusillade followed from far above. Then all was still. The moon had cleared the highest crag on Folly Mountain and the entire slope lay in shimmering silver beauty. Dona sang to the porch and propped her chin in her hands. So much of beauty yet such terrible things taking place. She strove to understand it all, but more to understand herself.

"Let's stay here. It's so beautiful," she murmured. "Not for long, dear," Dudley pulled his coat over her shoulders. Dona did not answer. She was deep in wonder at the queer tightness in her heart. She was in a panic now that she was committed to marrying Dudley and she could not find a single valid reason why she should feel this way.

"Better be going in now," Dudley said, and got to his feet. Still Dona hesitated. She looked up, trying to smile. "Just a minute more!" she begged. "The moon hasn't reached that patch of timber under Folly Peak."

Nevertheless he put the black mare to a gallop and headed up the mountain. He had to get down on the Pass Creek side in order to cross a rock formation that would hide his tracks. Then there was a stream to follow as a further blind. To be caught at any one of these open places would mean instant death from a rifle. Already Stan could hear the pounding of boots below and above him. Swergin had sent his fastest riders deep into the hills to head off the cowboy. A swarm of lesser hunters would bring up the rear. Touching the mare's flank with a spur, Stan gave her her head. There was little at stake, yet he had suddenly taken new interest in living.

The scene at the corrals was a mad scramble. Dudley who had taken her place beside Swergin was not pursued the hunt. She had removed all traces of her tears of a few minutes before and was now eagerly watching the scene below.

"I'd like to go with them but I'm not going to," Dudley whispered as he slipped an arm around her. Dona did not reply but she moved closer to him as though to shield herself from something that might come from the chill night.

The last horseman galloped out of sounds of shouting came from up the mountain. Shots rang out from the direction of Pass Creek. A fusillade followed from far above. Then all was still. The moon had cleared the highest crag on Folly Mountain and the entire slope lay in shimmering silver beauty. Dona sang to the porch and propped her chin in her hands. So much of beauty yet such terrible things taking place. She strove to understand it all, but more to understand herself.

"Let's stay here. It's so beautiful," she murmured. "Not for long, dear," Dudley pulled his coat over her shoulders. Dona did not answer. She was deep in wonder at the queer tightness in her heart. She was in a panic now that she was committed to marrying Dudley and she could not find a single valid reason why she should feel this way.

"Better be going in now," Dudley said, and got to his feet. Still Dona hesitated. She looked up, trying to smile. "Just a minute more!" she begged. "The moon hasn't reached that patch of timber under Folly Peak."

Nevertheless he put the black mare to a gallop and headed up the mountain. He had to get down on the Pass Creek side in order to cross a rock formation that would hide his tracks. Then there was a stream to follow as a further blind. To be caught at any one of these open places would mean instant death from a rifle. Already Stan could hear the pounding of boots below and above him. Swergin had sent his fastest riders deep into the hills to head off the cowboy. A swarm of lesser hunters would bring up the rear. Touching the mare's flank with a spur, Stan gave her her head. There was little at stake, yet he had suddenly taken new interest in living.

The scene at the corrals was a mad scramble. Dudley who had taken her place beside Swergin was not pursued the hunt. She had removed all traces of her tears of a few minutes before and was now eagerly watching the scene below.

"I'd like to go with them but I'm not going to," Dudley whispered as he slipped an arm around her. Dona did not reply but she moved closer to him as though to shield herself from something that might come from the chill night.

The last horseman galloped out of sounds of shouting came from up the mountain. Shots rang out from the direction of Pass Creek. A fusillade followed from far above. Then all was still. The moon had cleared the highest crag on Folly Mountain and the entire slope lay in shimmering silver beauty. Dona sang to the porch and propped her chin in her hands. So much of beauty yet such terrible things taking place. She strove to understand it all, but more to understand herself.

"Let's stay here. It's so beautiful," she murmured. "Not for long, dear," Dudley pulled his coat over her shoulders. Dona did not answer. She was deep in wonder at the queer tightness in her heart. She was in a panic now that she was committed to marrying Dudley and she could not find a single valid reason why she should feel this way.

ties at the end of July included: Mitchell 419,109 barrels; Andrews 66,868 barrels; Crans 2,185,886 barrels; Crockett 1,119 barrels; Ector 88,037 barrels; Loving 9,897 barrels; Jones 6,878 barrels; Pecos 381,575 barrels; Reagan 1,933,471 barrels; Reeves 47,665 barrels; Upton 1,856,791 barrels; Val Verde 205,123 barrels; Winkler and Ward 9,410,000 barrels.

In Howard county oil was stored as follows by various firms: Big Spring Pipe Line company, 20,000 barrels, 20,000 capacity; Condon Oil company Roberts farm, 75,000 capacity, all empty, and 43,853 barrels stored on Arnett farm of 190,000 barrels capacity; Great West, 95,000 barrels, all empty; Magnolia Pipe Line company, Bell farm capacity 1,185,000, 510,936 stored; Shell Pipe Line company, Roberts farm of 169,966 capacity, 100,637 barrels stored.

Chandu, the magician, entertained the Mice Saturday with a bag of tricks, some of which almost caused a riot. The disappearing coin and the old shell trick were among the most popular. The fact that Chandu was none other than that versatile young man, Jimmie Myers, realistically costumed as the Chinese magic maker, did not detract from his form of entertainment.

The Mice will observe Fire Prevention week this week. The program will appear later.

The Rhythm Band will meet Tuesday afternoon as usual in the Club house at 5 o'clock.

673,196 Barrels Of Crude Stored In County July 31

Crude oil storage facilities in Howard county, totaling 1,832,966 barrels capacity, contained only 673,196 barrels of oil at the end of July, according to a reliable survey. This left 1,159,770 room, or empty storage.

Of these all storage was less than 50 per cent filled on July 31, there having been 22,239,024 barrels in storage, with total storage room of 51,833,716 barrels. Amount stored in various counties:

BARBER PRICES REDUCED!
Hair Cuts ..... 35c
SERVICE BARBER SHOP
Lois Madison, Prop.
First National Bank Bldg.

NEEL'S Bath House
108 Nolan St.
Modern in Every Respect
Turkish, Sweat, Steam, Tub and Shower Baths.
Accommodations for men and women.
Expert Masseurs and Attendants.
Phone 79

DRS. ELLINGTON & ROGERS
DENTISTS
General Practice and Orthodontia
Petroleum Bldg. Ph. 281

BIG SPRING LAUNDRY CO.
PHONE 17

PA'S SON-IN-LAW

DIANA DANE
Trademark Reg. Applied For
U. S. Patent Office

SCORCHY'S
Registered
Patent Office

HOMER HOOPEE
Trademark Reg. Applied For
U. S. Patent Office

The Timid Soul

HE FINDS A MUTIGATED SIGN IN A HALLWAY AND IS AT A LOSS TO KNOW WHICH RULE HE IS VIOLATING

by Wellington

The Ghost Room

by Don Flowers

No Consolation

by John C. Terry

Calm Down?

by Fred Leezer

Jungle Madness

by Fred Leezer

WOODWARD and COFFEE
Attorneys-at-Law
General Practice In All Courts
FISHER BUILDING
Phone 501

THERON HICKS
T-P Watch Inspector
Watchmaker - Jeweler
Now Located in Cunningham-Phillips No. 1
217 Main

DR. W. B. HARDY
DENTIST
402
Petroleum Bldg.
PHONE 366

Scottish Fishing Boat

HORIZONTAL
4 To dabble.
6 Ocean.
8 Tree of touch wood.
10 Mandate.
12 One of the quantities which, when multiplied together, form a product.
14 Habitual drunkard.
16 Disciple of Christ.
18 Witticism.
19 To twist out of shape.
21 Country pumpkin.
23 Game played on horseback.
24 A revolution.
26 Estimated perfect score in golf.
27 Pod of cotton.
28 Shred of waste silk.
29 Padder ptl.
30 The poet Hob-

Answer to Previous Puzzle
11 Emissary.
13 Ever.
14 Biscuit.
15 Southwest.
17 Scottish fishing boat.
19 Toward.
21 Trial impression in printing.
23 Pertaining to the poles.
25 Inset's egr.
27 Twice.
30 Acid.
31 To change.
32 Combining form signifying four.
34 Above.
35 Pound (abbr.).
36 Writing implement.
37 To perish.
39 Half an em.
41 Sound of a flying bullet.
42 Low vulgar fellow.
45 Obese.
47 Stream obstruction.
50 Within.

Vertical
1 Hurrah!
2 Masculine pronoun.
3 Hoop's kila.
4 Shortest by cutting.
5 Small green vegetable.
6 Outdoor flight of stairs with a platform.
7 Behind in place.
8 One of the birds.
9 Confined.
10 Vessel.

Scorchy's
Recent happenings
Scorchy discovers that Rosa Alvarez's cold attitude had really a friendly motive behind it. Rosa pledges Scorchy not to investigate nor reveal this discovery. Rodriguez, a Pisen, attempts to wreck Scorchy's plane in the air but winds up badly injured himself. Scorchy, finding himself the center of public interest puts up at another hotel for the night in order to escape being bothered.

Scotch Fishing Boat
A crossword puzzle grid with numbers 1 through 50 indicating the starting positions for the words listed in the adjacent text.

HERALD WANT-ADS PAY

One insertion: 8c line, 5 line minimum. Each successive insertion! 4c line. Weekly rate: $1 for 5 line minimum; 3c per line per issue, over 5 lines. Monthly rate: $1 per line, change in copy allowed weekly.

Ten point light face type as double rate.

CLOSING HOURS

Week days . . . . . 12 noon Saturdays . . . . . 5:30 p. m.

No advertisement accepted on an "until forbid" order. A specified number of insertions must be given.

Telephone 728 or 729

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Public Notices

BEN'S APPLE HOUSE Porto Rico Yams Good Cooking Apples Wholesale and Retail 212 East 2nd St.

Woman's Column 7 CINDERELLA BEAUTY NOOK Graduate Operators Satisfaction Guaranteed Super-Curline Permanent Waving Nell Estes Cupeland Mrs. G. H. Driggers, Owners 1306 Johnson St. Phone 1192

LADIES HATS Remodeling—Steaming—Cleaning Guaranteed Work Prices Reasonable Phone 1017

Help Wanted—Male 9 WILL give 13 good maize crop for labor of gathering and storing. Apply to W. B. Speed, Route One, 10 miles northeast Big Spring.

WANT 3 families cotton pickers that can pick a bale a day each. House furnished. Call F. Morgan, 700 Ayford.

MEN: Physically fit, wishing to enter Government work. This district—Washington, D. C. Age 18-45. Qualification interview by writing Mr. T. H. Box 2828, Care of Herald.

Emply' W'td—F—male 12 NICE, refined, experienced girl serves housekeeping job with or without board. Call at 1013 Johnson. Miss Susa May Palmer.

FINANCIAL

Money to Loan 14

PROMPT AUTO LOANS We pay off immediately—Your payments are made at this office. COLLINS & GARRETT, LOANS AND INSURANCE 122 E. Second Phone 302

RENTALS

Rental Agents of the City Cowden Ins. Agcy. Phone 311.

Apartments 26

ALTA VISTA apartment—lower floor, comfortable, easily heated, electric refrigerator; all bills paid. East 8th & Nolan. Phone 1056.

NICELY furnished clean 3-room apartment; also a 3-room unfurnished apartment. Call 42.

FURNISHED 3-room apartment—all built-in conveniences, also one-room apartment, adjoining bath; near High School and South Ward; private entrance; garage. 1205 Main.

UNFURNISHED apartment—3 large rooms, bath, garage, would consider furnishing; also a delightful upstairs bedroom; bills paid; close in 507 Runder. Phone 1100W.

Rooms & Board 29

ROOM board and $1 worth person. 2-29 Ford Sedan. Home-cooked meals, milk and hot biscuits served every meal. Mrs. Howard Peters. Gregg, phone 1234.

Houses 30

FIVE-room nicely furnished house at 20 Lincoln Street. See Stanley Wheeler or call R. L. C. 204 Petroleum Bldg.

UNFURNISHED house—3 rooms and bath; 207 West 13th St. Call 592.

Wanted to Rent 34

DOUBLE garage for 2 cars, 2 real sheeps or 2 single ones, close together. Write Box 64, care of Herald, stating price and if on payment.

AUTOMOTIVE

USED CAR BARGAINS

31 Dual Wheel Truck 2-29 Ford Sedan 31 Ford Sport Coupe 2-29 Ford Std. Coupe 29 Oldsmobile Sedan 29 Plymouth 4-door Sedan 30 Chevrolet Sedan 29 Chevrolet 4-door Sedan

WOLCOTT MOTOR CO. Phone 639, 411 St. Vincent

Missionary Baptists

Erecting New Home

Services at the Missionary Baptist Church Sunday were held at 11:15 with 184 in the Bible School and large crowds at both preaching services, reports the pastor, the Rev. Horace Gosman. There were two additions and the pastor baptized one man 72 years of age.

The work on the tabernacle is being reported, going on with the walls to be erected this week. The building will seat 1500 people and is well equipped for all purposes of worship. It is located at Benton and 4th streets and is to be called the Fundamental Baptist church.

CLEANING AND PRESSING

Prompt and Courteous Service HARRY LEES Master Dyer and Cleaner Phone 420

SPORTS ON PARADE

By CURTIS BISHOP

"The gamest club we've ever seen," said an Amarillo football expert Saturday afternoon as he flashed the final score of 25 to 6 in favor of the Sandies over the wires.

He was not speaking of his own fielden Sandies, but of a group of inexperienced boys who had battled the potential state champions off their feet in the first half, and then had picked fought on after an epidemic of penalties in the third quarter had paved the way for three touchdowns by the Cheyren.

Bristow cannot explain these penalties. "It's difficult to believe that the boys really committed that many violations. It was terrible. In the second half we covered a fumble on the 39 yard line on the first play after the kickoff, and Richbourg carried the ball through center to about the Amarillo 10 or 15 yard line. The play was called back and we were penalized 5 yards. A pass was incomplete and Enoch brought Harris' punt back to midfield. The Sandies scored a touchdown then, and the six points can be credited entirely to offside penalties. Three or four Times Dyer or some of the other boys broke through and dropped them for loss only to see the Amarillo team given five yards.

Amarillo's cheering section was razzing the officials. "In the last quarter Harris sent long pass to Coats and it was completed with one of the prettiest catches I have ever seen. The total gain was thirty-nine yards, but the play was called back and Big Spring was penalized 15 yards. Morgan was charged with kneeing. The last Amarillo touchdown was due entirely to carelessness by one of the halfbacks in not covering his man.

"The Sandies might have had a six point better team than we did, but no more."

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

S.M.U. Goes To Syracuse N. Y. For Week's Game

SYRACUSE — Southern Methodist, southwest conference champion last year, will arrive in Syracuse Thursday to engage the Orange eleven in the chief inter-sectional battle of next Saturday, Oct. 15.

The Mustangs, coached by Roy Morrison, have 24 seniors on the squad and 18 of them are letter-men. Advance reports from Dallas, Tex., that Coach Morrison will probably start a veteran team of senior lettermen, with one exception. The "aerial-circus" put on by the Mustangs in San Francisco last December will probably be repeated at Syracuse. At any rate the Syracuse University coaches are planning on continual barrages through the air and for the past two weeks have held daily drills on forward pass defense. It is entirely probable that the Orange will also resort to the air route inasmuch as both lines are apparently too strong to permit much in the way of any consistent running attack.

Coach Vic Hanson of Syracuse will have several sophomores in his starting lineup. His entire reserve squad is composed of soph, with two exceptions. There are 23 sophomores in the squad of 40 players. Capt. Howard Sprague, 204 pound halfback, will be the Mustangs' chief backfield threat. The husky lad is a first class triple threat and has several equally husky great neocent wide receivers.

Lou Stahl, 202 pound Orange

Sweetwater Wins 27 To 7 Victory Over Lubbock-HJ

LUBBOCK (HJ)—Led by a brilliant set of interference runners which preceded Red Sheridan, the Sweetwater high school Mustangs galloped over Matador Field here Saturday night and defeated Lubbock high schools' Westerners 24 to 7.

Lubbock scored in the final quarter Joe Nelson plunging over from the two yard line after helping Bill Davidson carry the ball from the 30 yard line.

Sheridan's long runs behind all most perfect interference netted two touchdowns in the first period one in the third and another in the fourth.

Captain Louis Spear of Lubbock was an outstanding defensive man.

Slight Decline Shown In Associated System Earnings Of Past Year

WASHINGTON (UP)—From the presidency of one of the world's mightiest corporations to the comparative seclusion of a professor's chair comes James A. Farrell of

WASHINGTON (UP)—From the presidency of one of the world's mightiest corporations to the comparative seclusion of a professor's chair comes James A. Farrell of

WASHINGTON (UP)—From the presidency of one of the world's mightiest corporations to the comparative seclusion of a professor's chair comes James A. Farrell of

WASHINGTON (UP)—From the presidency of one of the world's mightiest corporations to the comparative seclusion of a professor's chair comes James A. Farrell of

Ex-Head Of U. S. Steel To Lecture Students

WASHINGTON (UP)—From the presidency of one of the world's mightiest corporations to the comparative seclusion of a professor's chair comes James A. Farrell of

WASHINGTON (UP)—From the presidency of one of the world's mightiest corporations to the comparative seclusion of a professor's chair comes James A. Farrell of

WASHINGTON (UP)—From the presidency of one of the world's mightiest corporations to the comparative seclusion of a professor's chair comes James A. Farrell of

WASHINGTON (UP)—From the presidency of one of the world's mightiest corporations to the comparative seclusion of a professor's chair comes James A. Farrell of

Fewer School Days Lost Due to Colds

Two-thirds of the time lost from school because of colds can be saved. This was proved last winter with Vicks Plan for better Control-of-Colds. Mothers and teachers alike welcome this practical Plan—fully explained in each package of Vicks VapoRub and the new Vicks Nose & Throat Drops—adv.

Two-thirds of the time lost from school because of colds can be saved. This was proved last winter with Vicks Plan for better Control-of-Colds. Mothers and teachers alike welcome this practical Plan—fully explained in each package of Vicks VapoRub and the new Vicks Nose & Throat Drops—adv.

Two-thirds of the time lost from school because of colds can be saved. This was proved last winter with Vicks Plan for better Control-of-Colds. Mothers and teachers alike welcome this practical Plan—fully explained in each package of Vicks VapoRub and the new Vicks Nose & Throat Drops—adv.

Two-thirds of the time lost from school because of colds can be saved. This was proved last winter with Vicks Plan for better Control-of-Colds. Mothers and teachers alike welcome this practical Plan—fully explained in each package of Vicks VapoRub and the new Vicks Nose & Throat Drops—adv.

Bristow cannot explain these penalties. "It's difficult to believe that the boys really committed that many violations. It was terrible. In the second half we covered a fumble on the 39 yard line on the first play after the kickoff, and Richbourg carried the ball through center to about the Amarillo 10 or 15 yard line. The play was called back and we were penalized 5 yards. A pass was incomplete and Enoch brought Harris' punt back to midfield. The Sandies scored a touchdown then, and the six points can be credited entirely to offside penalties. Three or four Times Dyer or some of the other boys broke through and dropped them for loss only to see the Amarillo team given five yards.

Amarillo's cheering section was razzing the officials. "In the last quarter Harris sent long pass to Coats and it was completed with one of the prettiest catches I have ever seen. The total gain was thirty-nine yards, but the play was called back and Big Spring was penalized 15 yards. Morgan was charged with kneeing. The last Amarillo touchdown was due entirely to carelessness by one of the halfbacks in not covering his man.

"The Sandies might have had a six point better team than we did, but no more."

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

Bristow cannot explain these penalties. "It's difficult to believe that the boys really committed that many violations. It was terrible. In the second half we covered a fumble on the 39 yard line on the first play after the kickoff, and Richbourg carried the ball through center to about the Amarillo 10 or 15 yard line. The play was called back and we were penalized 5 yards. A pass was incomplete and Enoch brought Harris' punt back to midfield. The Sandies scored a touchdown then, and the six points can be credited entirely to offside penalties. Three or four Times Dyer or some of the other boys broke through and dropped them for loss only to see the Amarillo team given five yards.

Amarillo's cheering section was razzing the officials. "In the last quarter Harris sent long pass to Coats and it was completed with one of the prettiest catches I have ever seen. The total gain was thirty-nine yards, but the play was called back and Big Spring was penalized 15 yards. Morgan was charged with kneeing. The last Amarillo touchdown was due entirely to carelessness by one of the halfbacks in not covering his man.

"The Sandies might have had a six point better team than we did, but no more."

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

The locals reeled off eight first downs in that first half, and scored as you knew, when Cordell intercepted a pass and found Bovines to the right, left, in front and behind him. He discovered that by putting one foot in front of the other he could run for a touchdown, and this he did with gusto.

Let Us Revere The Memory of Texas' Immortal Heroes

"If this call is neglected, I am determined to sustain myself as long as possible and die like a soldier who never forgets what is due to his own honor and that of his country."

Thus wrote Travis, and he carried out that determination in a manner so heroic as to command the admiration of all men of all time.

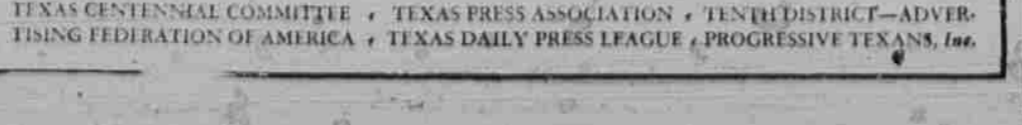

One hundred years after Travis died that his country might live—shall not Texans show to the world that they revere the memory of his magnificent sacrifice?

Let us revere the memory of all the immortal heroes of Texas by observing the Centennial in a manner worthy of it.

Such a patriotic event must have the official sanction of the present-day government of Texas.

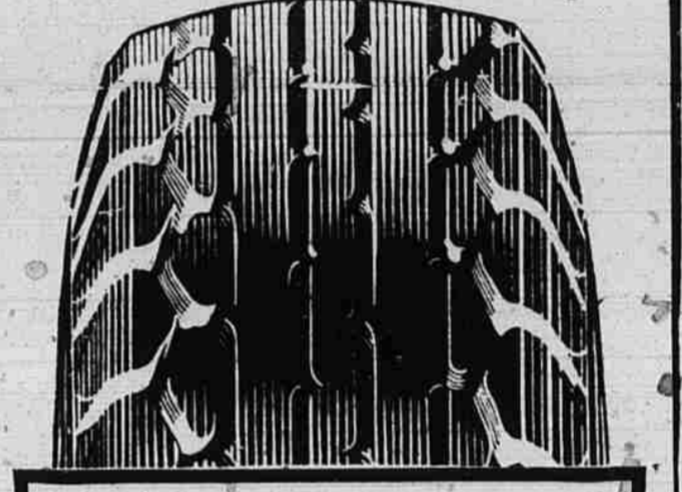

This sanction must spring from the people themselves. At general election on November 8th, Texans will be given an opportunity to make possible the celebration of a centennial through the passage of the Texas Centennial Constitutional Amendment authorizing it.

VOTE for the Texas Centennial Constitutional Amendment Nov. 8 Authorizing

This is the fourth of eight patriotic messages prepared and sponsored by TEXAS CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE • TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION • TENTH DISTRICT-ADVERTISING FEDERATION OF AMERICA • TEXAS DAILY PRESS LEAGUE • PROGRESSIVE TEXANS, Inc.

SAVE with SAFETY

When Ford and Chevrolet Owners can buy Goodrich Silvertowns... the Safest Tires Ever Built... for as little as

$7.85 for 4.40-4.50 21 less old tire allowance

It is no longer necessary to risk life and limb on unsafe tires.

Table listing tire models and prices: 4.75-19 Ford 1930-31 Chevrolet 1930-31 $8.55; DeSoto 1929-31 Dodge 1928 & 1931 Pontiac 1929-31 Willys-Knight 1928-31 $9.15; Buick 1931 Chevrolet 1932 Oldsmobile 1928-31 $10.30; 5.50-19 Studebaker 1929-30 Oakland 1928-29 $12.00

Less Allowance for Old Tires

