the Household Economy Month

Thrift is the need! It is the same old story year after year. But this January, we are concerned in a more concrete economy, that which knocks right at your closet door where sheets, pillow cases, mattress protectors, and other domestic cottons

For as far back, as many of us care to remember January has stood pre-eminent as the household months, the great replenishing month of the year.

At no other season of the year is the assortment of white goods so complete, and as January is the one month during the year when unusual parts. prevail, the advisability of buying for future well as present needs will appeal to the discrimi-nating woman who has learned the value of

Throughout the month of January unusually low prices will be effective on Domestic Cottons, including Wearwell Sheetings, Daisy Muslins, Linno Cloth, Longcloths, Canton Flannels, Towelings, and Sateens: Whether the purchases be large or small the savings will be material.

You Know What You Want to Eat

Do you khow where to buy it to the very best advantage?

Selecting the BEST place to buy is often a problem. There are so many grades of foodstuffs that it is very difficult for many people to know which contains the greatest amount of nutriment for the money invested.

It's the policy of this store not only to sell foodstuffs of known and recognized purity, but to also sell high quality eatables that contain the maximum of life-sustaining qualities.
