THIRTY-SEVENTH YEAR

"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

BOX FOR ORPHAN HOME

The News has been requested to announce that the ladies of the Baptist church will pack their annual Thanksgiving box for Buckner Orphan's Home at Dallas next Monday afternoon at the church at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. W. I. Mitchell authorizes us to state that she will properly care for anything brought in prior to the time by anyone who cannot be here Monday.

Anything in the way of clothing, bed furnishings, food of such kind as will keep, money if you have it and feel like giving it, and all things of value to the home. The box will be packed Monday and everything must be in the hands of the committee in time for them to properly prepare the box, and 2 o'clock is the hour set for all to be there. Be sure and have your donations at the church not later than this hour if you can.

The community eye is focused upon Christmas, now but a few weeks away. The reader's eye should be focused upon the advertisements in this paper, where Christmas gifts worth having are to be found. If the patronage of this community is worth having it is worth seeking, and the logical medium for that seeking is the advertising pages of the home paper. The merchant who fails to seek should not feel chagrined if he fails to find. Watch the ads and the stocks of the merchants who advertise. The fact that they risk their money in advertising their goods is evidence that those goods are easy to buy and worth buying.

Put your advertising copy early next week. Remember Thanks

CAMPBELL RAWLINS

Campbell Rawlins, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rawlins, died at the Rawlins home on Home Creek, 10 miles south of town, Thursday morning, and was buried here in the City cemetery Thursday afternoon. The News is just ready to go to press when we learn of this sad affair. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

BEAUTY OF GRATITUDE

(By Frank Herbert Sweet)
Thanksgiving Day should be the keynote of the year.

No one is really thankful who is not really happy.

Praise spoken by the lips is very faint and hollow unless the heart re-echoes it.

Thanksgiving is a home day. The young person who accepts the invitation of friends for some form of merrymaking which takes one from the family circle makes a mistake. There are enough days in the year for the ordinary good times. Save Thanksgiving for the homefolks.

The girl or boy who looks on thankfulness as a hard duty is not likely to make much of a success of it. The beauty of gratitude is that it should be spontaneous, bubbling up in the heart like a spring, not pumped up to the surface with an effort that leaves one out of breath.

SPECIAL TO ADVERTISING CUSTOMERS

Next week we will feature, briefly, Thanksgiving and let us insist upon getting all the ad copy in on Monday, as we expect to print and mail out the paper Wednesday. Most of the business houses will be closed and the News force would like to be among them.

RECITAL

A large crowd attended the recital given at the Methodist church Saturday evening. The program was given by the pupils of Mrs. Ford Barnes, Miss Sibyl Simpson and Miss Williamson.

The numbers were unusually good ones, and the pupils rendered them in a very delightful manner, showing that they had been carefully trained.

The crowd was very generous in its applause and it was altogether a very enjoyable evening for all who attended.

Those taking part in this program were: James Phillips, Mary Southern Garrett, Bessie Evans, Mary Alice Mitchell, Hattie Faye Todd, Bernice Turner, Mary Harriet Simpson, Queenie and Eris Gregg, Beth, Eileen and Billie Barnes, Evelyn Eck, Velma Sealy, Edith Lowe, Johnny Pearce, La Verne Dennis, Lula Harvey, Mrs. Stafford Baxter, Louis, Adele and Mary Adams, Odelle Brown, Dorislee Franklin, Elizabeth Greer, Mabel Banister, Cora Rothermel, William Ragsdale, Rebecca and John Franklin Turner, Olivia Land, Marion Polk, Burgess Sealy, Byron Joiner.

W. A. Brandon from out on Home Creek presented the News office with a fine Sweet Potato grown by him this year on the farm. Every farm in this country could have such if the proper effort was made to raise them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gardner from north of town were callers at the News office Tuesday.

G. E. Adams, proprietor of the Adams Mercantile company, had business in Dallas this week.

OBSERVANCE OF THANKSGIVING

The celebration of Thanksgiving day has a long and curious history, in which it is the province of a woman to play no inconspicuous part. The earliest aspect of the day takes us back to the chronicles of the Israelites, among whom there is mention throughout the Bible of days set apart for special thanksgiving unto the Lord. Later the custom was not uncommon in England before the Reformation, and was taken up and continued by the Protestants afterward.

Thus it was that at its inception there was no regularly appointed time for this celebration. Sometimes it would be observed once a year, sometimes twice, and then perhaps a year or two would be skipped—according as reasons for thanksgiving presented themselves or not.

Among the colonists it was customary for the president to issue a proclamation recommending that the people cease from ordinary occupations and observe a day of thanksgiving with proper ceremony, at some specified time, but it was usually left to the governors of the various states to determine whether there should be such a day, and when.

This irregular course and unofficial like treatment of the observance might have continued in vogue indefinitely but for the well-directed and strenuous efforts of Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, editor of Godley's Lady Book. She realized, perhaps more forcibly than others at the time, that the celebration of Thanksgiving as then observed lacked character and impressiveness, which could be remedied only by the adoption of measures bringing the people to concerted participation on this occasion. Therefore she assumed and devoted herself to the task of writing to all the governors of the different states and territories urging upon them the propriety of a national thanksgiving and suggesting the last Thursday in November as the day for such celebration. She continued to write these letters year after year, and was finally rewarded for her efforts by all the governors, excepting two, granting her request.

However, the peoples response was not enthusiastic, and during the Civil war, especially in the South, the custom lagged.

Immediately after the battle of Gettysburg Mrs. Hale wrote President Lincoln, inclosing a copy of Washington's Thanksgiving proclamation, and suggesting that he also proclaim a day of national thanksgiving. The president acted upon her suggestion and issued a proclamation "for the observance of Thursday, August 16, as a day of national thanksgiving, praise and prayer."

From that time on the celebration of the day lost its local and variable character and took on the fitting dignity of a national and stable ceremony. Lincoln's successor appointed the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving day, and the date has continued unchanged ever since.

Thanksgiving day is a legal holiday in every state, territory and possession except Utah, where it is observed, though not on the statute books.

Lo Shield and family and Sam Collier and family returned Saturday from an outing and hunting trip in South Texas. The ladies and children stayed in the city of San Antonio, while the gentlemen enjoyed a several days hunt.

Says Will Oppose "Handpicking" Of Delegates to National Convention

Washington, Nov. 19.—A "popular choice" by Republican voters of their candidate for President in 1924 was demanded Monday by Hiram Johnson. Over a desk piled with telegrams and letters offering support for his candidacy Senator Johnson told callers he would make fight in every State possible against the "handpicking" of delegates to the national convention.

"My plans are crystallizing," he said, "but are not at present entirely definite. For that reason I will not discuss details now. But I believe the rank and file of the Republican party has the right to express their preference for the presidential candidate."

"I am seeking to have that preference expressed," Senator Johnson said. "I'll accept the result with equanimity, but I insist that the rank and file shall determine the candidate of that party, rather than a few politicians."

After conferences here and elsewhere during the next fortnight, Senator Johnson said he hoped to announce details of his campaign, including establishment of headquarters and managers.

The Californian believes that international issues will play about as prominent a part in the 1924 campaign as they did in 1920, although he does not expect them to be regarded as "paramount." So far, he has formed no opinion on the tax reduction recommendations of Secretary Mellon, but Monday he sent for data on the subject and will study it carefully. Asked about a soldiers' bonus, he said he had voted twice in its support, and would vote for it again.

Desdemona Votes $10,000 Bonds to Improve Streets

(Desdemona Gusher)
The recent bond election carried by vote of two to one and the city council expects to get the bonds approved and sold in a short time. The ten thousand dollars from the bonds will be spent in grading and graveling the full length of Main street and out Stephenville avenue as far as the Twin Oaks Hotel and when this work is done the people will realize that it has been money well spent.

The city council is planning to open up two streets paralleling Main street and with cross streets forming blocks. It is expected that the property owners will co-operate in this movement to make Desdemona a town that any one would be proud to live in.

The fall season is here, and the leaves are taking on their regular fall hue. Now if we were poetically inclined, or even had a pretty flow of prose language, we would write a whole column on the glories of the autumn season. Handicapped as we are, we can truthfully say, "they shore are purty and red," and a trip through the mountains will drive away a severe attack of the mulligrubs.

General Lawrence of Abilene was here this week attending to business and visiting relatives.

DON'T DELAY CHRISTMAS PREPARATION

The Philadelphia Retail Ledger calls attention to the fact that the Christmas rush invariably throws a spotlight upon weaknesses in the store structure—but that's no reason why one should wait for the spotlight to be turned on.

Salemanship, advertising, display, the arrangement of stocks and the employment of emergency salespeople, systems of handling cash and charge purchases—all these should be inspected and perfected in advance—because, once the rush is on, there is little time for making changes.

The retail executive who waits until the last minute to make his preparations for handling the Christmas rush is in a position analogous to the man who waits until he reaches the middle of the stream before he puts his rubber boots on. He may get to the other side without serious injury, but he'll have a most uncomfortable trip.

$5.00 REWARD OFFERED

It has been interesting to me this year, in showing visitors over my cotton fields, to observe their reactions as they noted the very close spacing practiced. I have limited areas that are making a bale per acre, and on these there are fully 50,000 plants per acre, three-foot rows, with two to seven and eight stalks in a place. The stalks are small and switchy, but the bolting is heavy.

In going through this cotton, I ask visitors to count bolls on some of these bunches of five to eight stalks, and then to find, if they can, any single stalk, with any amount of distance on either side, with as many bolls as are on the bunch of stalks. I tell them I have a standing offer of $5 for any one who will, on the best single stalk they can find, count as many bolls as they can on the best bunch of stalks they can find. They try it, but nobody has claimed the reward, nor will they. However, they do find one thing, namely, that the thick, bunched cotton is making far more than where it is thinned to one stalk in a place, in the old way.—B. L. Moss, in The Progressive Farmer.

CORRECTION

Last week the News announced there would be a Box Supper at Liveoak, Saturday night of last week, the proceeds of which would go towards purchasing an organ for the Liveoak singing class, and the date should have been Saturday night of this week, the same being November 24. All interested parties will take notice and be governed accordingly.

CLOSING NOTICE

The First National Bank and the First State Bank of this city request the News to announce they will be closed Thursday, November 29th, for Thanksgiving.

Governor Pinchot seems to be a very dry man, but that is probably because he has talked so much.

MAN OR MUMMY

The man who sits back and waits for the city to become a bigger and better city is as wise as the fabled weasel that ate until he could not pass by the crack through which he came and was caught by the fox. He will advance about as fast in making his city a better city as the rustic who sat and waited for the river to get by. A better city means a better business for every man in the city without regard to his business or profession. There is a class of men who are satisfied with the business they are getting and see no reason for a united effort for a better city that will produce a better city. They have no place in the community. There is another class of men who are never satisfied with their business or their city and who do not sit down and howl about it, but get into the fight for a better city. They are needed in every town, city and hamlet in our nation.—Forth Worth Broadcaster.

TURKEY DAYS BROUGHT GOOD MONEY FOR PRICES

(From Cross Plains Review) Monday and Tuesday were turkey days here. B. L. Boydston and Neeb Produce Co. paid out total sum of $11,481.80 to the turkey raisers of this section. There is good money in the turkey business the record show, and it should be further developed, as they thrive and do well here. $11,481.80 is a big sum, and there are turkeys yet to be marketed. Raise more turkeys and count your profits.

MRS. SARAH ANN DANIELS

Death Tuesday came to Mrs. Sarah Ann Daniels at the home of her son, Mr. J. Y. Daniels, near Zephyr. The funeral will be held at Santa Anna Wednesday. Mrs. Daniels, a true mother in Israel, and a loyal daughter of the old South, was born in Georgia in 1840. Following the war, the family sought their home in Texas, where they reared a family of boys and girls, and where, in every home they possessed, they were honored and respected by friends and neighbors. Six children survive this beloved mother. They are D. E. Daniels of Santa Anna, Z. E. Daniels of Dallas, H. T. Daniels of Cameron, J. Y. Daniels of Zephyr, and Mrs. Hattie Sparks of Brownwood.—Brownwood Semi-Weekly News.

4300 Bales Ginned at Bangs

Owing to the continued rains cotton picking has been delayed, very little being ginned for several days. The gins of Bangs have turned out over 4300 bales to date and there are several hundred bales in the fields of this community yet to pick. Owing to so much bad weather, cotton pickers have drifted out of the territory and farmers are having trouble getting hands to finish up their crops.—Brownwood Semi-Weekly News.

Parent's Hope Is in the Future Of Their Children

He would be an unnatural parent who did not wish to give his boy or girl the best educational advantages in his power; a very thoughtless parent who would send him to the first school that mailed you a catalogue and an unparadonable parent who entered him into a school without first investigating its location, equipment, character of student body, faculty, system of discipline, and above all, the moral surroundings. Yours is the duty of investigation, comparison and ultimate decision. By comparison, you will find the Tyler Commercial College the best as well as the most economical school to be found. Board, room and living expenses are from one-half to two-thirds cheaper in Tyler than in other places. The time required to complete the courses is less than half the time required in other schools. Therefore the savings in time and the cost of board should cause you to investigate thoroughly before deciding to send your boy or girl elsewhere.

Your boy or girl is the hope of your life. In him or her is centered your most cherished ambitions. His or her worth to you cannot be measured by dollars and cents but must be measured by the training received in the home and in the school.

The 208 page catalogue of Tyler Commercial College will tell you of America's largest business training school, which has over 40,000 students from 29 different states and 7 foreign countries. It gives the endorsements of the best business men, ministers, lawyers and bankers. It gives the experience of many young people who came to them with limited means and who achieved success after a short time spent in their school.

THE CALM DRIVER

A few years ago, it was commonly said that almost anyone could drive an automobile. But as conditions are now in and near populous towns, with a flock of cars hurrying hither and thither, and in many places extreme congestion, the time has come when successful driving calls for a certain temperament.

The impatient man or woman, who has little self control and acts on ill considered impulses, has no place on the motor roads or streets of today. The right kind of driver has a calm and philosophical temperament. He takes the incidents of the roads good naturedly. He does not feel that it is a serious matter to lose a few seconds, and he is not worried or upset by delays. If people who drive cars were all that type, there would not be many accidents.

MOTHER'S LITTLE MAN

Mothers make a mistake if they do not insist upon good manners in the family. There is no reason why a boy should be boorish when his sister is polite, that a boy should be grumpy and awkward, ill at ease before strangers and unacquainted with table etiquette: when his sister possesses the evidences of good breeding.

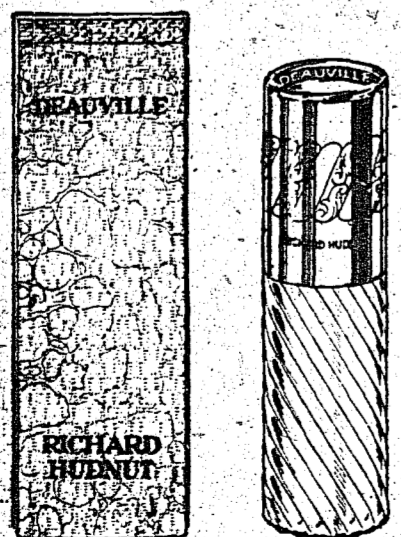

We are talking about the growing boy. While he is still under your daily care, teach him to take off his hat when he meets you on the street, to rise when you enter the room, to place a footstool for his grandmother, and to carry any bundle or parcel not too heavy for small hands. A little fellow who is permitted to wear his hat in the house when only his mother and sisters are present, cannot be expected to take it off because visitors have arrived.

Let your boy wait on you. Do not rush wildly to wait on him. Let him get your rubbers and slip them on for you and let him perform many little services at home. If you are wise you will send him on errands to your friends, give him notes and messages to carry, and otherwise make him at ease when obliged to address someone he knows slightly.

"Mother's little man" will have a better chance later in life than some other "little rough neck" who was never taught good manners.

BLUE MONDAY

Never approach a business man with a big proposition on Monday morning, because Monday morning is the morning after Sunday.

We can't explain why it is, but every man goes to his office on Monday morning with a grouch. We suppose it is because he's been resting up all day Sunday and sort of hates to tear himself away from it. Anyway, we know it is so.

Take your case. We've known you many years, and whenever you meet us Monday morning, we notice that you are yawning, taciturn and unsmiling. You had a good Sunday, no doubt. Either you rested to beat the band or played golf or did something. Anyway, that took your mind off your business cares. Then you went to bed rather early, all prepared to get up early Monday. When the clock went off you were miserable about rising, and when you did get up you were ugly to everybody.

It's the same way with all of us. We rest too hard on Sundays. Some of us smoke too much and most of us eat too much. Instead of just relaxing a little we let everything of the week go and fall all to pieces in doing what we call recouping.

That's the reason we have "Blue Mondays".

Some day we'll learn how to rest up over Sunday without completely disorganizing our work for Monday. If we don't, it would be a good thing to cut Monday out of the business week and begin on Tuesday.—Ex.

TIRED FEELING SURE SIGN OF TORNED LIVER

Touch Up Liver Tonight With Pepsinated Calomel—Tired Feeling and Bilioussness Will Be Gone By Morning.

Nothing kicks back so quickly as a disordered liver. Pepsinated Calomel will give quick relief by thoroughly stimulating both the liver and kidneys, thus eliminating the poisons that are doing so much damage.

Calomel is recognized as practically the only medicine that will reach the liver. Others may relieve constipation, but they fail to touch the real cause of the trouble. However, ordinary calomel is so drastic in its action that many have deprived themselves of its liver cleansing power until they became acquainted with Pepsinated Calomel, which is not ordinary calomel. Because of its fine English Calomel it cleanses the liver thoroughly with no discomfort. It cannot nauseate or gripe.

S. H. Phillips and all reliable druggists recommend and guarantee Pepsinated Calomel to bring relief between sundown and sunrise or your money refunded. Try it—we guarantee you'll feel better tomorrow. (Adv.)

TELL IT TO THE EDITOR Newspapers are up against it in this day and time trying to maintain a personal column.
Newspapers would like to chronicle the going and coming of everybody, but they just naturally cannot do so with any degree of accuracy. Not half the people now go and come on trains, but travel by auto, and their goings and comings are at all times of the day and night and on a dozen different roads. Consequently it is an impossibility to mention all, of even half of them.
People who go and come ought to make it a business to notify their local newspaper, either personally or by phone. The newspapers would be glad to have this information.—Jacksonville Progress.

PEOPLE VS. LEADERS
It will not be long before another election comes along, and now is a good time for the people to begin discussion of possible candidates for public office.
When the people crack the whip the "leaders" trot along like docile lambs. They dare not go against the powerful will of the voters determinedly expressed. But when the people are apathetic the self-created leaders are quick to seize the reins, flourish the lash, and drive the voters like sheep to a slaughter-pen.
In isolated cases where the people have selected their own candidates they have invariably elected good men who were true to their trust. When the designation of candidates is left to the leaders the fortunate candidate must do the bidding of his boss, knowing full well that a failure to do so will put an end to his political career.
Do a lot of thinking, and then do as much talking.

A SNAKE QUESTION
What would you do if you lived out in the country where there is lots of woods, and you brought in a great big back log and put it on the fire, and your wife was seated in a chair with the twin babies in her lap reading, and the other children were playing about the room, and you were talking over the telephone, and a great big coach whip snake crawled out of the backlog, and your wife turned over her chair and ran screaming out of the room with the twins and the other children climbed up on the furniture? You would probably do just what John Clayton of Rose Hill did when all these things happened. You would take the poker and kill the big snake.—Terrell Transcript.

OVERCOAT SALE

Commencing Thursday, Nov. 22, there will be a marvelous reduction on made-to-measure clothes at the Model Tailor Shop.

This Sale is on International Made-To-Measure Overcoats. To those who know International Tailoring values, style, workmanship and fabrics, this will mean a great deal to you.

Some of the very best fabrics obtainable for Overcoating will be on Sale at the Model.

- $55.00 Overcoats on Sale at $44.00
- $48.00 Overcoats on Sale at $37.50
- $44.00 Overcoats on Sale at $35.00
- $41.50 Overcoats on Sale at $33.00

These few listed prices will give you an idea of the money to be saved at present in buying an International Overcoat. Time will prove that the amount saved on the purchase price was small compared to that saved by the selection of an International Made-to-Measure Coat.

Until January 1st, I will continue giving an extra pair of trousers with each suit sold for an additional charge of 10 per cent to price of suit. This also means a greater saving than simply obtaining a pair of trousers for less than half cost price. It means that you will get practically twice the wear from your suit. Come in and look these values over; they speak for themselves.

THE THREE DUDES

Three dudes were walking along the street one morning and met an aged, decrepit minister, with long white hair and beard. Desiring to poke fun at the old man, the first called out: "Hello, Father Abraham." The second "Good morning, Father Isaac, and the third greeted him as "Father Jacob." The minister seeing the situation and likewise using scripture, quietly replied, "I am neither Abraham, Isaac nor Jacob, but Saul, the son of Kish, who went forth to hunt father's asses, and lo, I have found them."—Exchange.
