Committee Charges Reds Plan Wehrmacht

Says Germans Trained For Future Army

Collaboration Reported In Arms Making

LONDON, Nov. 8. (AP)—The international committee for the study of European questions reported tonight that Russia is using Soviet military schools to train captured German Army officers for the "formation of the ranks of a future Wehrmacht for Germany."

"Several dozens of divisions," it added, have been formed by the Russians from German prisoners of war.

A committee, a non-governmental group of men prominent in public and private affairs here and in Europe, declared its own continent-wide espionage system had also discovered that Germans and Russians were engaged in "active collaboration" in developing and manufacturing arms in Russia and the Soviet zone of Germany.

Farmer's Wife Denies Love For Abductor

ROCKFORD, Ill., Nov. 8 (AP)—A pretty dark-haired wife said today she guessed she "really didn't" love a married farmer-neighbor who abducted her last night, after slaying her husband and father when they tried to prevent him.

The young wife, Mrs. Katherine "Kit" Anderson, 26, mother of three children, managed to escape with her abductor's pistol after he forced her to accompany him on a wild 100-mile ride across northern Illinois in what she said was his plan to "get away and be together."

Police of four midwestern states were alerted to be on the lookout for Glenn Marsh, 28, who fled alone in his car when Mrs. Anderson escaped as he inquired about renting a tourist cabin near Morris, Ill.

Mrs. Anderson, who was returned to Rockford after eluding Marsh, told state's attorney Max Weston she had informed Marsh recently that she and her family were considering moving to Northport, Mich., and had expressed the hope Marsh would follow her there if he did.

Joe Pickle

Among other blessings which come with frost is relief to victims of hayfever. So for every farmer who is happy over leaves falling from cotton stalks so he can utilize a stripper for later hand operations, there will be an urban sufferer able to take off his smoked glasses.

Invitations have gone out to parents of high school students, appealing to them to participate in a Thursday evening program which will put them through the scheduled operations daily for their children. Bill Dawes, assistant principal, suggests that if they play "hooky," the parents will be reported to the children.

End Of Ginning Peak Is Near

Howard county's cotton ginning total is expected to pass 25,000 bales during the coming week, after which ginners are expecting the volume to subside.

Estimates Saturday placed the total at approximately 23,500 bales, as ginning equipment continued operation on both day and night schedules. Ginners believe the pace will lose momentum gradually during the next few weeks, although apparently a significant portion of the crop remains to be processed.

Ginning crews worked long hours for the most part last week, as the daily volume advanced after weather conditions had slowed proceedings temporarily. Big Spring gins handled approximately 1,500 bales during the week, running their total to 12,575 bales for the season.

Indians Capture Strategic Town

NEW DELHI, Nov. 8 (AP)—Indian troops trying to drive invading Moslem tribesmen out of Kashmir today captured the strategic town of Baramula, 25 miles west of Srinagar, and the Moslems are fleeing west toward the borders of northwest frontier province, an Indian communique said tonight.

The Moslems invaded the princely state of Kashmir from the northwest frontier province, which is in the Moslem dominion of Pakistan, late last month. Baramula, gateway to the famed vale of Kashmir, is 50 miles from the province's border. At the height of the invasion the Kashmir capital of Srinagar was reported in danger of capture.

Red Demands Rejected At London Meeting

Russians Ask Central German Government

LONDON, Nov. 8. (AP)—The United States, Britain and France today rejected a Russian demand for the creation of a central German government as a preliminary to writing a peace treaty and the second meeting of deputy foreign ministers broke up in disagreement.

Two and a half hours of discussion aimed at laying the ground work for a German peace treaty ended with the fundamental differences responsible for the breakdown of the Moscow conference of foreign ministers still unsettled.

The deputies will reconvene Monday. The foreign ministers are to sit down here Nov. 25 to resume efforts to conclude the treaty.

An American source, reporting results of today's conference, said there was "no progress; if anything, there was a setback."

The American delegation contended that acceptance of the Russian proposal would retard conclusion of a treaty. With French and British backing, U. S. Ambassador Robert Murphy, political advisor to the military governor of the American zone of Germany, proposed that "responsible representatives of Germany" be given an opportunity to state their views to a peace conference.

The Russian deputy, Andrei A. Smirnov, however, was unyielding in his demand for creation of a central German government "which will be deemed adequate for the purpose of accepting" a treaty.

Other points of disagreement at the session included the United States' demand that the German neighbor states and the 35 nations who declared war on Germany should participate equally in writing the peace.

Russia proposed, instead, that only the U. S. S. R., the United States, Britain, France and China, along with 18 other nations, including Albania, should have a hand.

Manhunt Is On For Escapees

TEXARKANA, Nov. 8 (AP)—Peace officers of three states—Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana—maintained a close watch of highways today for four prisoners who sawed their way to freedom from the U. S. prison reformatory here last night and escaped in a stolen fire truck.

A fifth prisoner was recaptured early today.

Texarkana, situated in the northeast tip of Texas, adjoins Arkansas and is near Louisiana.

The fifth prisoner who made the escape was captured as he struggled 20 miles from Texarkana at about 10 a. m.

He was Oliver Holleman, 36, of Houston, who, according to Warden Albert McDonald, was unable to continue his flight because of a sprained ankle.

Warden McDonald said the five men used a hacksaw to cut a "detention screen" on the window of their dormitory, then escaped over a wire fence after cutting barbed wire which bordered its top.

AVOIDS NOMINATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP)—Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich.), friends said today, has taken quiet steps to remove himself further from the race for the Republican presidential nomination.

OBSERVERS BELIEVE

Red 'Shock Troops' Lose Ground In Western Europe

PARIS, Nov. 8. (AP)—Communist "shock troops" in western anti-party groups in those regions not directly under the guns of the Red army—have lost ground since mid-year, in the judgement of competent observers.

United States foreign policy—as contrasted to the Kremlin's—is openly supported by overwhelming national majorities in the West.

But in eastern Europe, these observers agree, the will of the majority is paralyzed by communist police action and Russia's immediate military power.

In lands behind the so-called iron curtain the dictated process of Sovietization is ruthlessly being speeded up. Red minorities are tightening their governmental grip.

This, however, represents consolidation, not expansion, of the Kremlin's authority.

A survey by chiefs of Associated Press bureaus in Europe describes the Marshall plan as the big weapon in repulsing Soviet ambitions.

The very words, Marshall plan, have come to symbolize here the long-range determination of the United States to risk hard dollars against paper rubles in restoring this continent's economic health.

In Berlin Wes Gallagher quoted a German communist leader as bluntly saying: "If the Marshall plan results in full German belies, the people will not care a damn about the communist party."

Preston Grover in Paris was told by French sources: "The cold war has been largely won as far as France is concerned. The communists are on a downhill slide. The issue was only in doubt as long as we could not be sure of the continuity of America's interest and support."

In Rome, Charles Guptill reported a definite Russian setback in recent weeks. He said native communists were increasingly handicapped by United States aid to Italy, by operation of the "cominform"—the so-called communist information bureau with headquarters in adjacent Yugoslavia and the check on inflationary prices.

Advisors Give Aid Estimate To Truman

First-Year Cost Tops Five Billion

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. (AP)—"Marshall Plan" for bolstering Europe at a first-year cost of $5,750,000,000 to American taxpayers was urged tonight by President Truman's committee on foreign aid.

Upwards of $3,000,000,000 in 1948 should be outright, non-repayable grants, the committee held, and the total four-year outlay would range from $12,000,000,000 to $17,000,000,000.

It scaled down many of Europe's requests. "Any aid extended to Europe must be on a year-to-year basis," the committee said. "It must be subject to constant, vigilant review of the Congress."

But there must be American-European cooperation, it stressed, not only to repair war's economic ravages but to overcome "deliberate sabotage by the communists who see in the continuance of misery and chaos their best chance for an ultimate victory."

The long-awaited report is expected to become the major basis of Mr. Truman's recommendations to Paris on the Marshall plan, conceived in Paris by 16 friendly powers called together to discuss Secretary of State Marshall's plan of U. S. aid based on self-help by the recipients.

The report was written, adopted and rushed to the White House without dissent by Mr. Truman's "committee of 19 distinguished citizens." Its members ranged from bankers to labor union leaders, under the chairmanship of Secretary of Commerce Harriman.

In a statement thanking them, Mr. Truman said their report "should prove of great help" and added:

"I commend this report to the careful attention of members of Congress, officials of the executive branch and all citizens concerned for our country's welfare."

Early congressional reaction was favorable. Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), chairman of the Senate committee, "has done a fine job."

Vandenberg has invited Secretary Harriman and the committee's executive secretary, Richard Bissell, to testify before his committee when it opens hearings on Mr. Truman's stopgap aid proposals next week.

SATURDAY

Four Perish, 13 Are Hurt In Accidents

By The Associated Press

Two train wrecks, an apartment house fire, two traffic collisions and an oil field mishap brought Saturday's accident toll to four persons dead and 13 others injured in Texas.

The train wrecks were at Corsicana and Brownwood, the apartment house fire was in Dallas, the traffic accidents were near McGregor and at Amarillo and the oil field accident was near Woodson. A child smothered to death at Dallas.

A drilling company employe, Harold Burr Kelley, 21, of Pampa, was killed Friday when he fell 45 feet from an oil derrick elevator.

The elevator jammed as Kelley was riding to the ground to quit work. The jamming caused Kelley to fall to his death. Survivors include his wife, Evaline.

Seventy-five year old John H. Calvary was found dead in his upstairs apartment in Dallas after Truman's stopgap aid proposals next week.

HIGHWAY BLOCKED

Two Hurt Seriously In Auto Accident

Two persons were injured seriously and Highway 87 was blocked for more than an hour and a half when a large trailer truck and two other vehicles figured in a crash at 9 o'clock Saturday night two miles north of Big Spring.

Injured were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cunningham of San Angelo who were riding in a pickup, which highway patrolmen said apparently collided head-on with the larger truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham both suffered multiple cuts and bruises and possibly other injuries. They were carried to the Big Spring hospital for treatment, where attending physicians said their condition was considered serious.

The trailer truck, which was loaded with cottonseed, turned over squarely in the highway, coming to rest in a crosswise position on the pavement and spilling its uninjured, highway patrolmen said.

As the cottonseed truck turned over, it came in contact with a passenger automobile belonging to Archie R. Smith of Socorro, N. M., who had stopped his machine at the side of the road. Neither Smith nor two children who were in the car with him were injured, although the impact ripped a fender and banged the side of the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham were carried to the hospital in a Nalley ambulance, and three wreckers from Big Spring cleared the disabled vehicles.

Smith told state highway patrolmen that he had stopped his car on the shoulder of the road to repair his lights. He had been traveling north. The pickup, traveling in the same direction, met the truck just as it passed his car, he told officers.

Both county and state officers assisted in directing traffic around the cottonseed truck after detour lanes were cleared in the barrow pits on both sides of the highway.

An unidentified negro, drove his car into the debris, however, about an hour after the mishap occurred. He and his passengers emerged uninjured, as the machine landed on a soft cushion of cottonseed.

PARADES, SPEECHES

Texas Cities Lay Armistice Plans

By The Associated Press

Texas will observe Armistice day, commemorating the end of World War I, with more parades, speeches and celebrations than it gave to either V-E or V-J days, which marked the end of World War II.

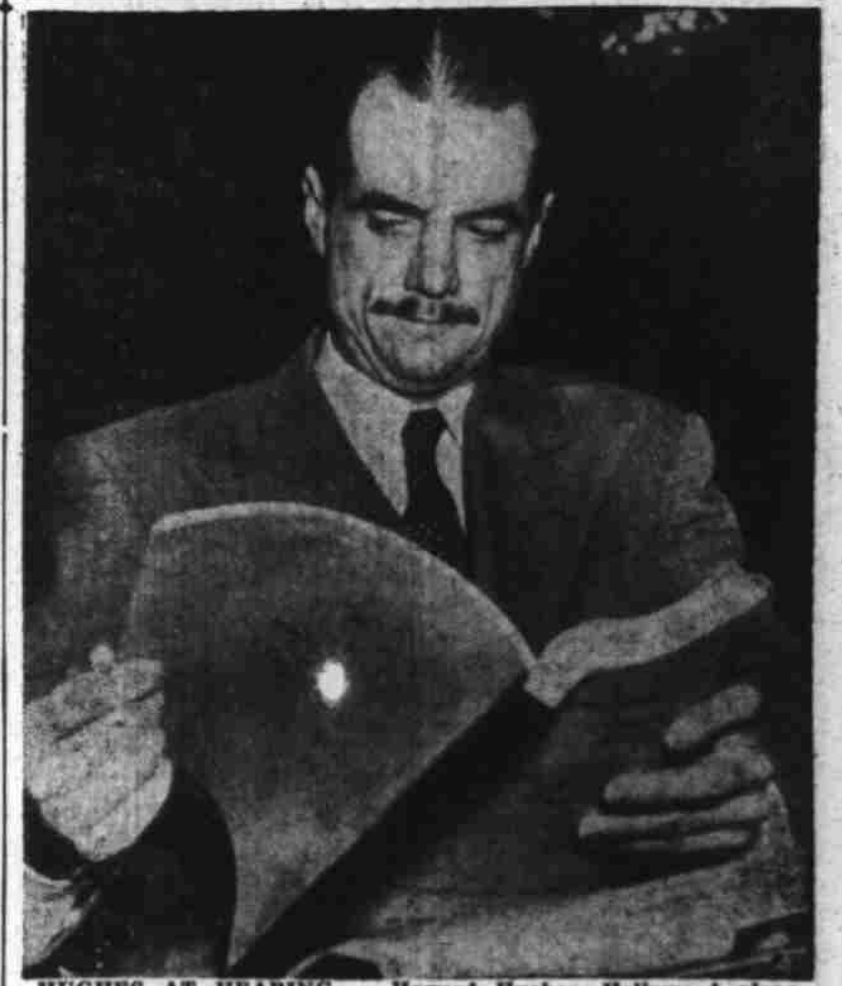

A survey of Texas cities by the Associated Press yesterday (Saturday) indicates that almost all will hold a celebration or observance of some kind Tuesday, Nov. 11. The majority are sponsored by American Legion posts.

Both victory days of the last war were virtually ignored in Texas this year.

But Armistice Day will be a holiday in many cities, with closing of public offices and in some cases, stores and businesses. Schools will close in Houston and Fort Worth.

A few of the Texas towns and cities to observe the day include Abilene, Corpus Christi, Rule, Runnels, Hillsboro, Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Laredo, Austin, Gainesville, Galveston, Lubbock and Marshall.

Parades will be featured at Aus-

HUGHES AT HEARING — Howard Hughes, Hollywood plane builder checks over the records in the Senate War Investigating Subcommittee hearings room at Washington as he waits for the start of proceedings in the inquiry into his wartime government contracts. (AP Wirephoto).

IN PROBE

Ex-AAF Officer Takes Hughes' Side

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. (AP)—The Army and other government agencies should share in any blame for delay in getting Howard Hughes' war-ordered photo reconnaissance planes into production, a former Air Force officer testified today.

The witness was Richard V. Fabian, who was assigned by the AAF to the Hughes aircraft plant during the war as Army representative with the rank of major. He told the Senate war investigating committee that it is "being unfair" to Hughes in its investigation of his $40,000,000 in wartime airplane contracts.

The committee, in Fabian's opinion, is "trying to put the finger on somebody," he said.

Part of the blame for the long delay, he said, should be laid to failure of the Army and other agencies to supply high priorities, engines and other materials when needed.

"I do not think the blame should be placed solely upon Mr. Hughes," he added.

Fabian also testified that committee investigators, when they examined his personal files, copied only reports that were unfavorable to Hughes.

"Is it your opinion," asked Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), chairman of the investigating subcommittee, "that all of the evidence is not being admitted?"

"Yes, sir," Fabian replied.

CLAIM OFFENSIVE STOPPED
NANKING, Nov. 8 (AP)—The Chinese government's central news agency reported today that the communists' sixth offensive in Manchuria had "definitely ended."

'Red Feather' Drive Will Start Nov. 20

The "Red Feather" drive in Big Spring will get under way Nov. 20, and it will be expected to bring in $38,000 for general social welfare activities in the community for another year.

The "Red Feathers" are those emblems of good citizenship, to be worn by solicitors and donors to the Howard County Community Fund, a newly incorporated agency of business interests which is taking on the annual raising and distributing of funds to welfare groups.

The $38,000 goal was fixed by the Fund's board of directors Friday night, when general plans also were laid for the start of the general solicitation on Nov. 20. Prior to that, special committees will be out rounding up special gifts to start the fund to rolling in high gear.

Agencies which will share in the Fund this year include the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, YMCA and the local Alcoholics Anonymous club. Budgetary requirements of these organizations were put before the Fund's budget committee earlier in the week. Distribution to them will be made, at the conclusion of the campaign, on the basis of funds collected and budgetary needs.

Members of the Fund directorate Friday night voiced confidence that Big Spring, operating under See "RED FEATHER" Pg. 4, Col. 4.

Local Food Board Expects Material

Material for use by his local food committee in connection with the campaign to save grain will be received shortly by Mayor G. W. Dabney, he was advised Saturday by Charles Luckman, chairman of the national Citizens Food Committee.

Luckman advised Dabney that poultry restrictions on Thursdays had been removed, but that each Thursday will continue to be an egg-less day. He stressed the need of a continuing campaign to conserve grain for shipment to distressed European countries.

Teachers Vote For Association Heads

Some 20 votes cast for the two top offices in the Texas State Teachers' association were cast by Howard county teachers in the county school superintendent's office Saturday.

Miss Emma Mae Brotsa, Marshall, was the lone nominee for the presidency while Joe B. Humphrey, Abilene, and E. A. Sahn, New Braunfels, were candidates for the vice-president's chair.

The votes will be forwarded to B. E. Cobb, Fort Worth, TSTA secretary, for counting.

Only those teachers holding membership in the organization were eligible to vote.

Final Tributes Are Paid To Wilmer Jones

STANTON, Nov. 8 (Sp1)—Final tributes were paid Thursday afternoon to Wilmer Jones, a resident of Stanton for 41 years who succumbed in a local hospital Wednesday.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist church by the pastor, the Rev. T. R. Hawkins, assisted by the Rev. I. A. Smith pastor of the First Methodist church and the Rev. C. B. Stovall, pastor of the Five-Mile Baptist church.

Born in Alabama in 1871, Mr. Jones moved with his family to Lockhart, where, in 1897, he was married to Miss Pinkie Parr. They lived in Lockhart, Altus, Okla., and in Williamson county before coming to Stanton Dec. 7, 1904. Mrs. Jones survives, along with one son, James W. Jones, two grandchildren, Jo Ann and Jarrell Jones, all of Stanton; and a sister, Mrs. Ida Mae Chesser of Lockhart.

Mr. Jones had been a member of the Baptist church since 1909, and was an active worker in the Stanton church.

TO HELP PILOTS Air Identification Urged For Towns

AUSTIN, Nov. 9. (Sp1)—Texas cities and towns were urged today to make sure they can be identified from the air by proper markings.

Ausbury W. Meadows, director of the Texas Aeronautics commission, asked all communities to cooperate in observance of Air Markings Week as proclaimed by Gov. Beauford H. Jester for Nov. 15-22.

He sent letters to chambers of commerce and others interested in aviation development, asking that every Texas town immediately identify itself at least with its name painted on the roof of some prominent building.

"Many leaders have the idea that only the recommended CAA marker can be installed and anything less than this standard marker is some sort of violation," Meadows said, noting that no regulations exist requiring a certain type of air marker.

Local Educators To Have Official Standing At Meet

Three Howard county educators will have official standing at the 60th annual convention of the Texas State Teachers' association, which will be held in San Antonio Nov. 27-29. Attendance at the convention is expected to number 15,000.

W. C. Blankenship, local superintendent is a member of the association's executive committee, while High School Principal Walter Reed and County Superintendent Walker Bailey are members of the house of delegates.

Teachers at San Antonio will hear addresses by Rep. Walter H. Judd of Minnesota, Mrs. Agnes E. Meyer of the Washington Post, Dr. A. J. Stoddard of Philadelphia, Dr. L. D. Haske of the University of Texas and Dr. Glenn E. Snow, president of the National Education association.

Three Completions Are Reported In Sharon Ridge Pool

Three completions were reported for the week in the Sharon Ridge pool of Curry and Mitchell counties. These included the No. 1 Weiner-Davis, in the southwest corner of section 119, the Weiner-Hull-McWilliams' sub-section 1, Mitchell county. Each of the wells tested 150 barrels.

Oil string was cemented on the Weiner 2C Murphy, at 1,700 feet. Weiner-Davis was moving for the No. 2 Runnels in section 119, the No. 1 Willburn in section 102 and the Weiner No. 1-D Murphy in section 115.

TO END CRITICISM Training School Commission Tackling Problem Of Code

AUSTIN, Nov. 8. (Sp1)—The state training school code commission today tackled the difficult job of working out laws to govern administration of the state institutions for delinquent boys and girls.

Appointment of the commission was authorized by the 50th Legislature, after affairs of the state training school for boys at Gatesville, and the training school for girls at Gainesville, had been the target of much criticism and had been warmly defended.

Leslie Jackson, dean of the Baylor University law school, was named chairman, the Rev. Walter K. Kerr of Austin was made vice-chairman, S. L. Belamy of Austin, secretary, and Holford Russell of Denton, treasurer.

Other members sworn in at a ceremony in Gov. Beauford H. Jester's office were Mrs. Raymond Fonville of Houston and Mrs. Rebecca Townsend of Lufkin. Dr. W. H. Elkins of San Angelo was unable to attend.

The oath of office was administered by Associate Justice James P. Hart of the State Supreme Court, and Gov. Jester impressed on the commission the importance of its work.

The commission began a preliminary discussion of its work. It is empowered to report to the next session of the legislature.

Texas Oil Well Completions Hit 132 For Week

AUSTIN, Nov. 8. (Sp1)—Oil well completions in Texas during the past week numbered 132, boosting the year's total to 4,800, well ahead of last year's 3,951 completions through the comparable date, the railroad commission reported today.

There were nine gas well completions during the week, bringing the year's total to 532, trailing last year's 581.

The commission reported six oil wildcats and two gas wildcats drilled, bringing the year's total to 191 and 70, respectively. Last year for the comparable period there were 133 oil wildcats and 61 gas wildcats drilled.

Total average calendar day crude oil allowable as of today was reported at 2,550,290 barrels, 7,882 barrels more than a week ago.

Improvements To Be Sought In School Curricula

AUSTIN, Nov. 8. (Sp1)—Fifty educational leaders are expected here Monday to seek a means of getting statewide action to improve public school curricula.

The meeting was called by the college of education of the University of Texas and by the National Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development.

College of education Dean L. D. Haske said the meeting "brings to a head the growing agitation to provide better school programs with the increased funds now being made available in Texas."

"The sponsors," he said, "hope to crystallize an organization which will foster the development of expert supervisory leadership in every school system, and which will strengthen the efforts of the state department of education and colleges of the state to furnish improved service education for all teachers."

EDUCATION WEEK

Patrons Will Have Chance To Inspect School System

National Education Week in Big Spring will afford patrons an opportunity of a close look at their educational system at secondary and college levels.

An open house at Howard County Junior College Monday at 8 p. m. and special emphasis on visitation of the local schools on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will highlight the observance.

Teachers in the Big Spring system will hear Miss Elizabeth Koch, National Educational Association representative and former president of the Texas State Teachers college association, at their regular monthly institute program at 4 p. m. Monday.

Tuesday is a holiday for the schools, but on Wednesday all classrooms will be open to visitation by the general public and W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, said he hoped people would avail themselves of this invitation.

Invitations went out Friday from high school, urging parents to attend a special function at 8 p. m. Thursday when parents will go through schedules followed by their children. At the conclusion of this program, designed to give patrons a glimpse of school programs and activities, refreshments will be served in the high school cafeteria.

Although not a part of the week's observances, Thursday evening also will be the occasion of a pep rally by the student body in preparation for the Midland game. A big bonfire is scheduled to be touched off at 6 p. m.

Possibility of forming a central organization and establishing facilities for holding livestock exhibits and sales, agricultural and other types of exhibits, rodeos and other related activities was discussed Saturday afternoon at a meeting of the Howard County Fair Association in the Settles hotel.

J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce manager, advanced a suggestion for a plan which, if put into effect, would provide a fair association composed of members of various organizations now functioning as well as an unlimited number of other individuals, and also a suggestion for financing installation of suitable facilities for such a venture.

Although details of the proposal will not be made public until expressions are obtained from other interested parties, those attending the Saturday meeting endorsed Greene's suggestion unanimously. They were completely agreed that a definite need exists for such facilities.

Included in the proposal are plans for utilizing warehouse buildings at the Army Airfield by moving them to a more suitable location and making repairs and alterations. The fair association members who heard the proposal also were unanimous in their endorsement of plans to locate the exhibit and show facilities on a permanent site.

A further study of the suggestions will be made after which another meeting will be held to continue the discussion.

Meeting Is Slated
For 20-30 Club

A second meeting will be held Monday night, Nov. 17, in the interest of a 20-30 club.

The initial rally was staged at the Settles hotel Friday night, at which time Bill Frank, district representative, Dr. R. D. Mack of Texas Tech college and Lubbock, and Charles Nelson, also of Lubbock, gave talks on methods of organization.

Eleven local residents attended the session. A minimum of 20 members are required before a 20-30 charter is given.

6,801 Cotton Bales

ACKERLY, Nov. 8. — A total of 6,801 bales of cotton had been ginned at Ackerly through Saturday and one authority estimated that a good 35 per cent of the crop was still in the fields.

Four local gins—Planters', Farmers' Co-op, Paymaster and King's—are handling the crop, which is running considerably ahead of last year's.

Cotton seed is currently bringing $90 a ton here.

Austin College Board Meeting

The Rev. Gage Lloyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church attended a called board meeting of Austin College in Sherman Friday.

The board accepted oil paintings of four members who have served more than a century in combined years. They are Pat E. Hooks, Itasca, Hoxie H. Thompson, Houston, T. E. Craig, McKinney and Stanley Roberts of Sherman.

A committee was authorized to enter into a contract with the Farnsworth Construction company of Houston to erect two girls dormitories. The college received a gift of $600,000 in oil royalties from the late H. B. Hughey.

The Centennial Forward movement committee of the college of which the Rev. Lloyd is a member laid some plans for celebrating the centennial of the college which is in 1949.

The 1946 crop of commercial apples, more than 121 million bushels, was slightly more than the 1935-1944 average.

STAR IN ANYONE'S EYES

MAYBE you're a beauty lover with an eye for standout style and the long, sleek, flowing line.

Know anything on the road today that's more the picture of perfect grace — more certainly the forerunner of the coming things in cars?

Or maybe you are strong for action — like the exciting feel of a really able performer, thrilling in its abundance of power, instant and sure in its responses.

Ever sample the wallop in this big Fireball straight-eight — or Buick's swift answer to your wheel hand and your treadle foot?

It could be you like comfort.

Broad seats, plenty of room, a soft and gentle ride that asks no favors from the road.

Come see what happens when you get a stout and rugged chassis, easy coil springs on all four wheels, room for three on front seat and back, and low-pressure tires that are like pillows on each wheel.

Or possibly, as a family man, you give more than a thought to the safety of those who ride with you.

You'll find this one starring on that score too — in controls that are firm and sure, bodies that are stout and rugged, even wheel-rims that are extra wide for control in emergencies, stability on curves and a firm, sure grip-on-the-road against sudden stops or skiddy going.

In truth, whatever you put first in an automobile — style, size, room, handling, comfort, controllability — you'll find this one putting stars in your eyes.

A joy to see, a thrill to handle, a dream to drive and ride in, it's America's most wanted car not on one count but on all of them.

Why wait vainly for others to catch up, when an order placed now, with or without a car to trade, makes you certain of getting the latest and choicest thing on the highway?

YOUTH, INTENT ON PRE-CHRISTMAS GIFTS, CERTAIN SANTA IS MYTH

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 8. (AP)—A 16-year-old youth, intent on some pre-Christmas gifts for himself, says he's certain now that Santa Claus is an impossibility. The youth was spotted dashing across a roof of a Newark jewelry store shortly after the burglar alarm sounded. A policeman gave chase but suddenly lost the boy in the darkness. The policeman pointed his flashlight down a chimney. There he encountered a pair of arms thrust upward and a tightly wedged youth beneath them.

SPEAKING TO SOLONS

Texan Says Synthetic Rubber Shutdown Would Be A Folly

HOUSTON, Nov. 8.—It would be "a national folly and a disgrace" to close down the nation's synthetic rubber industry, visiting congressmen were told today by a Texas oil man.

George P. Bunn of the Phillips Petroleum co., declared before a House armed services subcommittee:

"Saturday is a very poor second line of defense. These plants cannot be stopped and started again on a moment's notice."

Rep. Shafer (R-Mich.), committee chairman, assured Bunn and other oil company officials at the hearing that Congress will keep the industry operating, and if necessary will hold an umbrella of subsidies and other aids over it.

Shafer's committee concluded a tour of synthetic plants in the Houston area, and will leave tomorrow for Louisville, Ky. After a one-day stop there Monday, it will go on to Akron for hearings in Barberton and Akron late next week.

Bunn and representatives of the Humble Oil and Refining co., told the committee long-range legislation should be passed as soon as possible to keep the synthetic rubber industry at a level of production that will permit planning and private research.

They advocated a minimum production of 250,000 tons, with government controls requiring the use of at least that much synthetic in all new tires. Bunn said synthetic should be required in all tires so that rubber companies would be encouraged to improve their processes.

Bunn predicted that this country will use from 1,000,000 to 1,250,000 tons of new rubber annually for all purposes during the next five years, and that tires will account for approximately 600,000 tons of this every year. Under present government regulations, he added, the industry can use between 254,000 and 300,000 tons of synthetic for tires alone.

He advocated that all synthetic plants be made available to private operators, either by lease or sale, and said he believes private companies could hold synthetic rubber prices at their present level of 18½ cents a pound. The price is set by government order.

Bunn suggested that Congress limit its controlling legislation to five years. The industry may change so much in that time that new controls will be needed or all may be abandoned, he said. Shafer told the witnesses that his committee will have its legislative recommendations ready for the regular session of Congress in January. The temporary legislation under which the industry now operates will expire March 31.

the newly organized basis of fund solicitation, will meet the Fund request promptly. G. H. Hayward and Dr. R. B. G. Cowper are to direct a big-gift solicitation; Lewis Price and K. H. McGibbon are handling a special-gift campaign, and the general drive personnel is yet to be worked out.

Already working groups are being lined up.

Scout organizations, the Salvation Army and the YMCA joined efforts in last year's drive. The year, the local club of Alcoholics Anonymous was added by the Community Fund board in recognition of the unit's outstanding work in providing club quarters for persons who are making progress toward defeating the disease of alcoholism. While AA as an international organization does not accept outside assistance, the local fund contribution will be for maintenance of the clubhouse, which is a regular meeting place for AA members and regarded as a vital factor in the AA rehabilitation work.

Letters have been mailed to all schools in Howard county inviting them to join the procession. Spokesmen for the sponsoring organizations said they were particularly anxious for each school in the area to be represented. Letters of invitation are to be mailed next week to schools in Dawson, Martin, Mitchell, Borden, Glasscock, Sterling and Midland counties.

Local merchants also will be encouraged to sponsor floats in the event.

The Week

cooperating in the rodent control program. Aside from the fact that this, plus the residential program, trouble from typhus, economical benefits probably outweighed the costs. Estimates are that a rat will destroy $50 of merchandise and ruin $100 more in a year's time.

Discussions of telephone matters by the board of directors last week brought out the possibility of an early announcement by Southwestern Bell concerning building plans here. The company has had extensive enlargement of the local plant under consideration for some time.

A horse sale here Tuesday attracted considerable attention, and drew buyers from several states. We mention this because such special events occur at wide intervals and are apt to be forgotten, but add them all together and they make a pretty imposing picture for the year. Central location and plant and hotel facilities make it possible.

Sixty per cent of the city's water supply now comes from the two lakes. As a result, both section 33 and the City park syncline are getting an almost total rest during the winter. Normally, this puts them in good shape for heavy summer pumping. Aside from supply, this is one of the real blessings of the lake set-up.

The annual community campaign for funds to support welfare and service organizations is about ready to fire its first shot. Considerable planning has gone into the organization, but much work and much giving remains to be done.

Accidents

flames swept the two-story frame structure early Saturday.

Six other occupants of the house, warned by a downstairs tenant who found his kitchen in flames, fled to safety.

The fire prevented firemen from reaching the window of the aged man's room. After the flames were brought under control the firemen found his body huddled under a bed.

Alton C. Reeves, 18, a sailor home on leave, was killed by a car Friday night near McGregor, where he was visiting his folks. The sailor was repairing the engine of a car in which he and his father were riding when the accident occurred. State police said the car, which struck the sailor failed to stop.

Four train crewmen were injured Saturday at Brownwood when a freight train and a single engine collided. Several of the cars were derailed. Both trains were going in the same direction, one entering the main line.

"The signal light went red in our faces, too late to do anything," fireman Sam Martin, 36, of Temple, said. He was aboard the freight train.

On the same train was engineer Kirby Vaughan, 54, Temple. Jessie H. West, 44, Cleburne, was engineer of the single locomotive and James Vail, 30, Brownwood, was his fireman.

All were injured, but not seriously.

Two Burlington Rock Island freight trains collided head-on at an underpass near Corsicana, snarling traffic. Both locomotives were damaged but none of the crew was hurt.

A two-car automobile collision Saturday at Amarillo left nine injured. Several of them were sailors and soldiers driving to their bases.

Carl Freeman, 24, of Amarillo, was critically injured in the wreck. He was a passenger in a car driven by George C. Walker, 41, Pampa. With them was Betty Chaney, 22, Borger.

Others injured, including the service men, were F. A. Frost, 20, Mason, Ga.; Arthur Alford, 19, Dallas, and Herbert Simmons, 19, Bolton, N. C., sailors. Jones, 31, McDill Field, Fla.; Everett Dowdy, 61, Shawnee, Okla.; and Lester Newberry, 39, Walden, Ark.

Police said they believed the car in which the servicemen were driving was a travel agency automobile.

Susan Lee Branch, six-weeks-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Branch of Dallas, suffocated early Saturday morning when her head became entangled with her bed clothes.

Six Bands To Definitely Be In Parade

At least six high school bands have definitely accepted invitations to participate in the Dec. 4 parade which will formally open the Christmas season in Big Spring, and officials of the junior and senior chambers of commerce reported Saturday that dozens of other organizations and individuals had been invited to take active part in the proceedings.

Acceptances have been received from high school bands of Lamesa, Crane, Coahoma, Colorado City, and Midland, and Director J. W. King, Jr. will have his Big Spring High aggregation on hand for the activity.

A special feature will be the mile-long balloon parade of Jean Gros, which will appear under sponsorship of the junior and senior chambers of commerce in co-operation with local merchants and business men.

However, officials emphasized Saturday that all service clubs, civic organizations and other groups and individuals had been extended an invitation to participate. The American Business club already has announced that it will sponsor a float in the parade, and officials hoped that others would join them. Those who wish to participate actively have been asked to contact the chamber of commerce office for detailed information.

Letters have been mailed to all schools in Howard county inviting them to join the procession. Spokesmen for the sponsoring organizations said they were particularly anxious for each school in the area to be represented.

Letters of invitation are to be mailed next week to schools in Dawson, Martin, Mitchell, Borden, Glasscock, Sterling and Midland counties.

Local merchants also will be encouraged to sponsor floats in the event.

Review Promised On School Case

The court of civil appeals, Eastland has notified County Attorney George Thomas it will review his appeal Dec. 5 on the recent decision handed down by District Judge Cecil C. Collings on the contested school election.

The original tabulation of votes showed that both of the issues at stake, proposals to hike the school tax rate from $1 to $1.50 per hundred dollar valuation and a million dollar bond project, were defeated.

Judge Collings ruled the tax increase proposal had carried after several votes had been declared illegal.

One observer here predicted that the appeal would go to the state supreme court for a ruling.

STRANGE STORY
Intuition Of Undertaker Saves Plane Lost In Fog

By The Associated Press—Otho Harrison, Seymour undertaker, tells of a Saturday night incident that had the strange qualities of a mystery story. He believes in mental telepathy make much of it. The night was dark and foggy when Harrison quit work at the Harrison hardware store. He decided to take a drive on a highway out of town—something he'd seldom done merely for pleasure. About three miles out he heard a plane, apparently in distress. He stopped his automobile. The headlights shone down the highway. Harrison got out to watch the plane. Another car approached. This was all the distressed pilot needed. Aided by the car lights, the pilot settled his plane on the highway in front of Harrison's parked car. Four men crawled out, one of them still trembling. The men were from Dalhart and included the pilot, a highway patrolman, the Dallam county sheriff and a passenger who was ill and was being taken to Fort Worth for treatment. The weather had been clear when the plane took off from Dalhart but by the time it reached Seymour it was in a pea soup fog. The radio was out, the compass

HOW MANY RAZOR STROKES PER SHAVE? BETTER GUESS TWICE

SARASOTA, Fla., Nov. 8. (AP)—How many strokes does it take you to make that morning shave? The Sarasota Herald-Tribune didn't know the answer either so it polled some of the men around town to find out, asking the shaver first to guess in advance the number of required strokes and then having the self-shaver count the razor licks. Guesses ranged from 12 to 235. Actual counts ran from 38 on a soft bearded to 175 strokes on a toughie. Take Mayor J. Douglas Arnest: He guessed 25 strokes, but his score was 98.

TEXAS POLL
Pinch Of Inflation Is Felt By Texans

AUSTIN, Nov. 8.—The pinch of inflation is being felt by a vast majority of Texas families. As Congress prepares to do something about the high cost of living, most Texans are expecting prices to continue rising or to remain the same while their earnings stay at present levels or drop. Latest statewide survey by The Texas Poll shows about eight out of every ten families have this outlook on the shape of things for the next six months. According to the survey, based on personal interviews with a representative cross-section of the adult population, there is not much difference in the way people in upper and lower income levels view the immediate future. They were asked:

1. "Six months from now, do you think your family's income will be larger, smaller, or about the same as now?"

For the present, it seems most Texans are in the mood to buy everything their families need, except one or more things which require large outlays of money. Quite a number of people say they are staying out of the automobile, home building, and furniture markets but relatively few say they are putting off purchases of food and clothing. This is probably so because a great majority of the people don't expect prices to start dropping before 1948, 1949, or 1950. The behavior and outlook of upper and lower income families are reflected in their answers to the following questions:

"When do you expect the prices of things you buy to come down?"

Highway Department Will Take No Bids During December

AUSTIN, Nov. 8. (AP)—The highway department will take no bids for road construction in December, to give prospective bidders more time to study plans and specifications for contemplated projects. State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said that projects originally scheduled for bids Dec. 16 and 17 will be included in the letting set for Jan. 15 and 16. He emphasized the action will not affect the estimated $4,715,000 project list previously announced for bids next Thursday and Friday. The new policy will assure contractors thirty days for examining plans, and preparing their bids on the various projects throughout the state.

Nominations Sought For Rental Board
AUSTIN, Nov. 8. (AP)—Harris County Judge Glenn A. Perry's refusal to recommend new nominations in place of two protested nominees he recommended for the Houston defense rental area board today brought announcement from Governor Beauford H. Jester that he would ask Houston's mayor and other county judges in the area to make nominations. Judge Perry had named Lawrence A. Weisser and Morris W. Lee, both of whom had been protested by labor and veterans organizations.

ISSUES THAT MUST BE SETTLED — Flags of the four administering nations indicate areas of Germany over which England, France, the United States (shaded), of the anti-communist bloc, and Russia, exercise jurisdiction as Deputy Foreign Ministers of the four nations met in London to prepare for the Council of Foreign Ministers conference, Nov. 26. Major differences to be settled are: (A) The border between Germany and Poland which Russia insists remain where it is, while Britain and the U. S. want a commission appointed to study the question with a view to returning some areas to Germany; (B) Russia wants creation of a special regime in the Ruhr with the Soviet having a voice but Britain and the U. S. rejected this until Germany can be made self-sufficient; (C) Britain and the U. S. want the Saar integrated into the economy of France while Russia remained silent thus blocking agreement. Activity Program Is Combined With Breeding Work For 4-H'ers

A general program of activity designed principally to increase club work interest among older boys affiliated with the 4-H club organization has been combined with a cattle and sheep breeding experimental venture on a scale never before attempted by club members in this area, County Agent Durward Lewter announced Saturday.

For use in the program, 50 heifer calves have been purchased from the T-O Ranch near Raton, N. M. and one bull from the same herd has been obtained. In addition, 14 registered Southdown ewes and one registered Southdown buck have been secured.

The Southdown sheep breeding program is to be carried out at the R. V. Fryar farm in the Fairview community, while the heifer calves have been distributed in groups ranging from three to 10 each on several farms and ranches, where the breeding program will be studied by 4-H club members.

The calves are all seven months old and the average weight at the time of shipment two weeks ago was 472 pounds. Lewter said the bull obtained at the New Mexico ranch would be used in the experimental venture, but bulls herds also will be included in the program.

The county agent said that the experiments will be observed closely, since show cattle from T-O breeding have been spotlighted at livestock exhibitions and the larger fairs during recent showing seasons.

The experiments will begin next spring, with first calving set for January of 1949.

Car Theft Suspects Are Picked Up Here

Three Negro men who allegedly stole a passenger car in El Paso were picked up here Friday night by members of the state highway patrol. The vehicle was recovered and the trio was to be turned over to El Paso officers.

One of the party protested he was innocent of any wrongdoing. He said he accepted a ride with the driver of the machine when the latter told him he knew several 'good-looking girls' in Big Spring.

Texas Building Total Boosted

AUSTIN, Nov. 8. (UP)—Construction got underway in Texas last week on projects costing $18,113,418, boosting 1947's record-breaking total to $540,869,321. The Texas Contractor Construction News weekly, reported today.

Engineering projects totaling $8,319,040 led other classifications during the week. Residential projects ran second at $5,958,514. Non residential projects totalled $3,835,564.

Almost all residential construction was small homes costing less than $7,000, the publication reported. There were 739 such construction awards made, totalling $5,273,314. Forty-five more expensive residences were put under construction at a total of $597,000. Work was also begun on apartments providing 22 one-family units at a cost of $55,000 and four duplex apartments costing $33,500.

Noting that small residential construction is continuing at "a tremendous pace," the Contractor estimated that $300,000,000 would likely go into the building year's end. To date, the year's total had already reached $235,264,165.

"Efforts to push residential work have slowed down nearly all construction in the non-residential field except schools and business buildings," the publication said. "Public building work is almost at a standstill. There have been no industrial buildings awarded in September and October. Several skyscrapers and department store structures have been put under contract in recent months, but none got underway in October."

Part-Time Deputy

M. A. Lilly, 25, Sand Springs, has been appointed part-time deputy sheriff of Howard county, replacing C. E. Kiser, who went on full-time duty upon the resignation of Tracy L. Kupper a couple of weeks ago.

Lilly will patrol the Sand Springs area and serve here on weekends and holidays. He is a World War II veteran.

British Play Down Anti-Red Campaign

DUESSELDORF, Germany, Nov. 8. (AP)—British occupation zone officials have quietly circulated a directive to British military government officers not to join the U. S. zone's anti-communism campaign in Germany, it was learned today. The British position, as expressed by one officer, is that "attacks on communism would be indistinguishable from attacks on Russia."

Potato Rationing Set For British

LONDON, Nov. 8. (AP)—Food Minister John Strachey announced tonight that potatoes will be rationed in Britain beginning tomorrow under a scheme restricting adults to three pounds weekly and children under five to half that. Candy rations will be cut 5 per cent, from four ounces weekly to three ounces, beginning Jan. 4, Strachey told a news conference. Armistice Day Dance, Legion Hut.

MRS. PAULINE TALLMAN... oil in backyard

FRIENDLY LITTLE GUSHER IN BACKYARD PRESENTS PROBLEM

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., Nov. 8. (AP)—A friendly little gusher was flowing in the William Tallman's backyard this week. The question was how to corral it. Thick black stuff—oil—has been oozing up in their lot for several days and running into the street. It seems that a cap put an old well some 20 years ago broke. But the city has an ordinance against drilling and, when an oil company offered to pump the Tallmans' well, the council drew up an emergency measure banning pumping. With oil bringing $1.40 a barrel and a company agent estimating a yield of several hundred barrels daily, the Tallmans were debating whether to cash in on the situation—or have the broken cap replaced.

COMPLETION IN RUNNELS

Crockett Discovery Shows High Yield

By John B. Brewer
SAN ANGELO, Nov. 8.—Completion of D. Harold Byrd and Jack Frost and Gulf Oil Corp. No. 1 J. B. Mayberry-J. Homer Tippett, discovery in the panhandle of northwestern Crockett county, with the highest daily potential yet registered by a Wolfcamp well—1,391.04 barrels—topped West Texas development this week. Also finished were a discovery Pennsylvania lime pumper in Runnels county 1½ miles west of Ballinger, a 5-8ths mile southeast extension to the Penwell Ellenburger field in southern Ector county and Gulf's second well in the 5,000-foot pay in the Keystone multiple-pay field in Winkler county. The high rating by Byrd-Frost and others' Crockett pool opener was based on yield of 173.88 barrels of 41.6 gravity oil during the last half of a six-hour flow. Only 500 gallons of acid had been injected through casing perforations at 6,325-40 feet. Production was assured in August by an oil flow on a drillstem test but drilling continued to 7,796 feet in the Ellenburger, which was entered at 7,694 feet, 5,034 feet below sea level, and was found barren. No. 1 Mayberry-Tippett is 660 feet from the northeast and southeast lines of section 39-31-H&TC, 1½ miles northeast of the Pecos river, 5½ miles southwest of the shallow Crockett (Grayburg) pool, six miles northwest of the Yates field and 11 miles southeast of McCombs. The well is on a Shell farmstead and calls for an east offset by Gulf and a southeast offset by Standard of Texas. Mineral classified section 4 on the north, owned by J. H. Tippett and the state, is unleased. Slick-Urschel Oil Co. No. 1 Plymouth-D. L. Alford, Ellenburger gas and distillate discovery near the center of the east line of Upton county, in section 50½-Y-P. B. Scott, recovered 180 feet of slightly salty water with 2,820 feet of oil on a drillstem test from 11,587-685 feet and drilled ahead. It had shown gas and oil in streaks since entering the Ellenburger at 11,021 feet, 3,352 feet below sea level. Southern Minerals Corp. of Corpus Christi No. 1 K. V. Northington, Runnels county strike in T. Pratt survey 365½, pumped 33 barrels of 42 gravity oil plus 89 per cent water in 24 hours for completion through casing perforations at 4,108-15 feet. The formation, believed to be Strawn, had been acidized with 1,000 gallons. Southern Minerals is drilling No. 2 Northington 933 feet southwest of No. 1. Lion Oil Co. plans to start Monday a proposed 4,500-foot, rotary wildcat in Runnels county six miles east of Winters, N.O. ¼ Harris Davenport, 466 from the south, 1,400 feet from the west line of subdivision 23, J. J. Ximenes survey 265. Phillips No. 1 Scharbauer (Forbess), second well in the Penwell Ellenburger pool in southern Ector, C SW 26-B15-pal, registered a daily flowing potential of 200.54 barrels of 42.5 gravity oil at 8,957 feet, 17 feet in the pay. Gulf N. O. 437 Goldsmith, discovery of the 5,600-foot pay in the Goldsmith field in Ector county, in the northeast quarter of section 28-44-1a-T&P, flowed 30 barrels of oil the last hour of an eight-hour gauge after washing with 500 gallons of acid, with total depth 5,750 feet. Amerada No. 9 Thos. S. Riley, bidding for discovery Glorietta production on the northwest side of the Seminole (San Andres) field in Gaines county, swabbed 77 barrels of oil, cut five per cent by basic sediment and water, in 12 hours. It had injected 3,000 gallons of acid through casing perforations at 6,336-6, 435 feet. Location is near the C SE SE, 229-G-WTRR. Sun Oil Co. prepared to start three more tests in the Jameson (Strawn) field in northwestern Coke county, where it has completed 10 producers and has four tests drilling, two in the pay.

NTSC Homecoming

DENTON, Nov. 8. (AP)—Arrangements for homecoming at North Texas State College Nov. 14-15 have gone into final phases with preparations being made to facilitate an expected attendance of 3,000 exes and many old-timers who attended the college as far back as 1850.

Control Asked On Operation Of Scooters

Police Chief W. D. Green Saturday appealed to parents to help control illegal operation of motor scooters by under-age children.

In what he declared would be his last public appeal on the matter, Green said parents could assist in solving the problem by securing operators' license for their youngsters before purchasing motor scooters for them and by refusing those under age permission to operate the scooters.

Under Texas safety laws it is impossible for children under 14 years old to obtain operators' license, the police chief reminded. Consequently, law enforcement officers must issue tickets to children under 14 and all others who do not possess license, he warned. Since the police department would indirectly be responsible if some under-aged or unlicensed child should suffer injury as the result of an accident on a motor scooter, a vigorous campaign of enforcement will be launched, the police chief concluded.

Howard County Farm Bureau Slates Meet

Howard County Farm Bureau's annual convention will be held Thursday night in the district court room, H. T. Hale, president of the organization, has announced. The session will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Highlighting the business agenda will be selection of directors for 1948. The nominating committee already has submitted lists which represent all communities in the county, Hale said. However, members who wish to submit other nominations at the convention will be given an opportunity to do so. Delegates to the State Farm Bureau Federation convention, to be held in Amarillo on Nov. 17-18-19, also will be selected Thursday night. Any member who wishes to submit a resolution may present it to the county membership.

Hale said officers of the bureau are anxious for a large number of the members of the county to attend the convention.

Aleman Vacation Is Rumored In Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 8. (AP)—Local newspapers said today President Miguel Aleman will leave this week-end for a two weeks "rest and observation trip" through northwest Mexico, but the President's office declined to comment on the reports.

The papers said the President planned to inspect irrigation projects in Chihuahua and Sonora states, and then spend a week at his ranch near Tecate in Northern Baja California territory. They said he would make the trip by plane, probably leaving here Sunday.

Cadillac

FULFILLMENT

Most people, when they come into ownership of a Cadillac, find that it brings them a unique type of personal satisfaction. It is not so much pride as it is gratitude; gratitude that, in their personal transportation, they are privileged to enjoy the greatest safety, the greatest comfort, and the utmost luxury the world affords. It is the complete fulfillment of their fondest hopes with respect to motor cars.

If you are waiting for a new Cadillac—please be assured that every effort is being made to further production. Demand is so great, however, that some delay in delivery is still inevitable. But hold to your purpose! There is no substitute for a Cadillac.

UCLA Keeps Title Chances Alive With 27-7 Victory

Rowland, Rossi Lead The Way

FORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 8.—The UCLA Bruins turned their flock of fleet backs loose against the Oregon State Beavers today and raced to a 27-7 Coast conference victory to keep alive their fading rose bowl hopes.

Little Skip Rowland, UCLA halfback, headed the scat backs, scoring the first touchdown on a 5-yard dash around end, and keeping the Bruins in Beaver territory most of the afternoon with other quick sprints through and around the ponderous Beaver line.

The Bruins went to work early, scoring in a 49-yard march the first time they got the ball. Halfback Cal Rossi set up the score for Rowland by taking a short pass and dancing out of the arms of three Beavers in a 40-yard advance to the Beaver 20.

That one came as easily as the Bruins relaxed, and midway through the second quarter found themselves on the short end of a 7-0 count.

Stanton Trims Robert Lee 11

ROBERT LEE, Nov. 8.—Stanton's Buffaloes defeated Robert Lee, 6-0, in an exhibition football game played here Friday afternoon.

Mary Standifer scored the Buff touchdown on a surge through the line.

Standifer was outstanding in the Stanton lineup along with Louie Keonice, Jimmy Jordan and Guy Henson.

The Buffs terminate their season Nov. 21 in Hermleigh.

The Big Spring victory over Red Ramsey's San Angelo Bobcats meant about the same in the local camp as Lamesa's win over Big Spring to the Tornado rooters. . . . The contest was probably the most sensational offensive struggle ever unrehearsed between the two elevens—the series is ordinarily noted for its lack of punch. . . . Conn Isaacs, who coaches the Steer B football team along with J. B. Neely, says Cecil Gilstrap, the big Shorthorn tackle, would be the outstanding lineman in District 3AA were he eligible. . . . Neely goes even further and insists Cel could make most any junior college job he ever saw. . . . Gilstrap is one of the local boys who saw military service during the recent national emergency. . . . He is being kept on the sidelines because of a Texas Interscholastic league ruling. . . . Milton (Speedy) Moffett, the assistant coach at San Angelo, would have played high school football here and not in Stanton if the Steer coach had taken time to interview him when he reported to enroll. . . . Moffett came over from Stanton for the special purpose of going to classes here but the tactless mentor wouldn't see him. . . . Speedy went on to become one of Texas Tech's greatest backs. . . . Two of Lamesa's ace backs, T. J. Corbitt and Marshall Helms, recently checked in their football togery, an act which may bring trouble to a heat in Coach Jim Neill's. . . . COURTNEY, Nov. 8.—Courtney's Eagles romped on Water Valley, 52-15, in the final District Seven six-man football game for both teams here Friday afternoon.

Led by Jackie Cates, the Wildcats made a game of it during the first half but within five minutes after the third quarter got underway the home club added three touchdowns and the issue ceased to be in doubt.

The Eagles led, 18-7, at half time.

Taylor Cross led the Courtney troops by scoring five touchdowns.

The game was originally scheduled to be played Nov. 14 but was moved up on the recommendation of Elvin Mathis, Water Valley mentor.

WEST TEXAS LIVESTOCK AUCTION

16 Of 18 Flips Are Completed

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 8.—Southern Methodist university resurrected its famed "aerial circus" today, blanketing Texas A. & M. 13-0 to roll on undefeated at the head of the Southwest conference.

Gilbert Johnson pitched two perfect touchdown passes, one in the second quarter and the other in the third, to break an eight-year losing streak against the Aggies.

Johnson, the 23-year-old Tyler, Tex., tosser, stunned A. & M. with 14 completions on 16 attempted passes for 152 yards.

Doak Walker, the Southern Methodist sophomore star, tried only two passes, completed both, then handled blocking back chores while Johnson pitched.

Less than four minutes after the second period started, Southern Methodist scored. Johnson sent a high, 30-yard pass to Paul Page on the goal line. Walker added the extra point.

In the final 20 seconds of the third quarter, Johnson climaxed a beautiful performance by whipping a flat pass to Raleigh Blakeley from the 18-yard line and the reserve Pony back scampered the remaining four untouched. Walker missed on the try for his fourteenth consecutive extra point.

A series of fumbles hurt A. & M. but the Aggies knocked on the Mustangs' goal line on numerous occasions.

Stan Hollmig kept A. & M. a constant threat with his punting and passing, aided in this latter department by Beryl Baty.

The Aggies twice had scoring drives stopped with end zone interceptions. Dick Reinking snagged one in the second period and Page grabbed another in the third.

Frank Payne's steady lunging brought the Mustangs to the seven-yard line in the waning minutes of the final period, but a field goal attempt by Walker went wide.

The Mustangs netted 17 yards on their 16 completed passes in 18 attempts, while A. & M. connected for 11 out of 27 for 179.

A flurry of desperate late minute aerials helped swell their yardage total.

On the ground Southern Methodist had a net of 131 to 13 for the Aggies.

Ackerly Loses To Buffaloes

FORSAN, Nov. 8.—Forsan's Buffaloes primed their guns for their Nov. 14 collision with Coahoma by humbling a scrappy Ackerly team, 21-8, in a six-man football exhibition here Friday night.

The visitors, who Coach Frank Honeycutt said was one of the hardest charging teams the Bisons have met all year, led at the end of the first quarter, 8-7, but Forsan was out in front at half time, 14-8.

Gerald Rogers scored all eight points for the Eagles while Wayne Huestis tallied twice for Forsan.

All-Star Game To Be Played

ACKERLY, Nov. 8.—Two Ackerly players will shortly be named to play in District 7's All-star football game, which will be unrecruited in Lamesa Thursday night.

Other schools which will be represented in the struggle include Knott, Union, Klondike, Flower Grove, Sparenberg and Loop.

Entry Fees In City Links Meet Go Into Fund For Schoolboys

The City Junior golf tournament, an annual attraction at the Muny golf course, and the high school golf team will benefit from an idea developed by Pro Foy Fanning and Johnny Malaise, high school coach.

Money realized from the entry fees of the City tournament now in progress at the course will be used to defray expenses of last summer's junior show and the remainder, something like $100, will be employed to supply balls for the high school linksmen in their proposed inter-city matches next spring.

Sports-minded merchants are supplying the needed capital for prizes in the coming week.

Contestants in the City tournament approved of the transfer of funds without exception. Fanning said, after interviewing several of them.

The prize list for the City meet is impressive. Following are the awards which will be given to the winners: listed with the donors: Medalist—Poker set and three balls, Elmo Wasson.

City champion—Trophy, Nathan's Jewelers.

Runnerup, championship flight—Shaving kit and six balls, Shaw's Jewelers.

JACK PAPPENHEIM Fenton foe

MONDAY NIGHT Fenton Squares Off With Jack Pappenheim

Jackie Pappenheim, the Oregon woodchopper who oftentimes looks like a birling expert in the ring, gets the somewhat unenviable assignment of climbing into the same arena to oppose the man with the drooping fangs, Rod Fenton, at the Big Spring Athletic club Monday night.

Fenton, a chopper himself of pretentious proportions—he revels in hacking the opposition down to size and strong-arming the whay out of them—has been hard to handle since he junketed in here several weeks ago. Ace Abbott found Roderick not to his liking last week and bet the dust most ungraciously.

They come and they go but Fenton insists he goes on forever. The Canuck was active here in the mid-30's and those who remember him from that era insist he is a sharper article at the moment.

If Pappenheim doesn't realize he's in for a rugged evening, he had best be warned. Fenton appears capable of pressing the issue and making Pappy's victory bubble go kaput.

For an appetizer, Promoter Mrs. Pat O'Dowdy is sending another villain, Sailor Parker of Jackson, Miss., out against popular Kenny Mayne of Salt Lake City, Utah.

The fans keep thinking someone will do the Sailor in but he's still alive and active. The way he treats a foe in the ring is something awful. If Mayne wants to stay with him, he'll have to bring his bicycle into the roped square and watch for his chances from a safe distance.

The proceedings get underway around 8:15 p. m.

S'WEST TEXAS STUNS LIONS

SAN MARCOS, Nov. 8.—The lowly Southwest Texas State Bobcats knocked East Texas State from the undefeated ranks today with a convincing 30-7 Lone Star conference victory before a homecoming crowd of 4,000.

East Texas scored in the second period as Jim Batchelor passed to Tom Ramey, with Buddy Griffin converting.

Southwest Texas got its first touchdown in the third period when Milton Jirasek plunged over from the one-foot line. The next went over left tackle for 11 yards to climax a 36-yard surge. George Mabe kicked both extra points. Curbo next snared Griffin's pass and raced 42 yards for a score. Mabe missed the conversion.

Blount Scores As Texas Storms Through Baylor

AUSTIN, Nov. 8. (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns got off to a slow start but picked up plenty of momentum in the second quarter today to slap down Baylor's Bears 28 to 7 and remain in the running for the Southwest Conference championship.

Baylor gave Texas a scare by jumping into a 7-0 lead through the initial period and playing the Longhorns on even terms through most of the first half.

The Bear tally came as a result of a Texas fumble which left guard James Griffin recovered for Baylor on the Texas 37. Fullback Ben Hall hit for two, Jack Price passed to left Bobby Griffin for a first down and Lyle Blackwood made another first on the Texas 15. Then substitute Cal Crews sped around left end to score standing up. Louis Leal kicked the extra point.

With Bobby Layne completing passes at crucial moments, the Longhorns drove 63 yards for their first touchdown, substitute fullback Ray Borneaman stepping high and wide for 11 yards off left tackle for the score. Frank Guess kicked his first of four extra points to knot the count at 7-0.

With half a minute remaining in the half, full-back Ray Jones intercepted a Baylor pass and on the first play ran 32 yards to the Baylor 41. Then Layne shot a long one to end Peppy Blount, who took it on the three and galloped across. Texas was throttled back during the third quarter, then cut loose for two markers in the fourth.

Sticking to straight power, Texas marched 71 yards to score on a bullet plunge by right half Jim Canady from the 2-yard line.

Guess remained in the game after annexing his third extra point, and sped 28 yards to a touchdown, pushing his three-man interference ahead of him.

Layne, the Longhorns' aerial bombing ace, was rushed hard throughout the game but connected on 10 of 21 tosses for 144 yards. He added another 28 yards carrying the ball to give him a total offensive record of 166 yards.

Frank (Jitter) McKinney was Baylor's leading ground-gainer with a net of 58 yards.

Texas rolled up 271 yards rushing to Baylor's 151, and garnered 135 yards by passing, compared to 14 for the Bears.

B. B. Lees' Boot Difference As Steers Upset Cats, 20-19

Murphy Rally In Last Period

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 8.—Taking full advantage of the breaks they themselves helped make, the Big Spring high school football Steers defeated the San Angelo Bobcats, 20-19, here Friday night, the one-point difference providing a delightful balm for a similar licking they absorbed at the hands of the Felines a year ago.

There are those who will insist that the Bovines carried four-leaf clovers into the battle, that they were lucky to get a toe into the door. The truth of that matter was, they earned everything they made with an alert, bruising type of ball that kept the Bobcats rocking on their heels.

The Longhorns went out in front with a first period touchdown and, after the home club had deadlocked the count with a second period score, the Big Springers grabbed the lead again.

Angelo came scrapping back with a six-pointer and snatched the advantage with a third period mark-

Arkansas Forkers Battered By Powerful Owls, 26 To 0

Houston Record Still Unsuited

HOUSTON, Nov. 8 (AP)—Rice's Owls, moving on the ground and in the air on five drives, threw a stout defense at the Arkansas Razorbacks here today to gain a 26 to 0 homecoming victory.

The Owls all but completely wrecked the highly-publicized Razorback ground game and permitted the brilliant Clyde Scott and the slippery Ken Holland only brief opportunities to operate to advantage.

After cashing in on a first period fumble by moving 26 yards in three plays, Rice kept perfect its all-time Houston record of no losses to Arkansas by scoring again late in the period on a 51-yard drive, moving 76 yards for another tally in the third, and winding up with a 47-yard march in the fourth.

As the final gun sounded, Rice had the ball on the Arkansas half-yard line with third down.

Other than these five drives, the Owls managed to move into Arkansas territory only three times, twice to the 44 and once to the 42.

Arkansas, after being halted early in the game after recovering an Owl fumble and marching to the Rice 20, made its most serious threat in the second period when Holland started things rolling by returning Huey Keeney's quick-kick to the Owl 38.

The Owls did not halt this threat until they took over on downs on their own three-yard line.

After that the Razorbacks, although dominating play throughout the first nine minutes of the third quarter, were unable to move beyond the Rice 34.

It was center Joe Watson who took the lead in the sparkling defensive play that thwarted the Forker backs. He recovered Ross Pritchard's fumble to set up the first Owl score. Keeney went 15 yards for 15 yards before Dick Hoerster, on the third play, moved eight for the touchdown.

James Williams, who had a fifty-five average in four tries, missed the conversion.

Minutes later, Keeney returned Aubrey Fowler's punt to the Rice 49 and Tobin Rote immediately hit Williams with a pass that netted 43 yards and a first down on the Arkansas 7. Hoerster picked up 8 yards before Rote hit center for the second touchdown.

Late in the third period, Rice took the ball from a punt on its 24 and struck quickly to score in seven plays.

Sterling Bees Lose, 31 To 0

HARROLD, Nov. 8.—Sterling City B team was defeated by the Harrold sextet, 31-0, in a football game here Friday night.

The Harrold team registered eight first downs to seven for George Tillerson's Eagles and collected 212 yards rushing to 180 for the foe.

The Flock proved exceptionally accurate in the air, picking up 180 yards to 110 for Harrold.

Fumbles proved costly for the District Seven team. They bobbled nine times and made but one recovery.

Sterling was inside Harrold's 20-yard line ten times but could not move into pay dirt. Harrold led at half time, 12-0.

Jack Gibson scored three touchdowns on runs of 75, ten and 40 yards for the winners. L. Gibson counted once. B. Hollingsworth once while J. Huff added an extra point.

SATURDAY'S HEROES

Irish Triumph Over Soldiers

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 8. (AP)—Notre Dame's undefeated fighting Irish bade a boisterous farewell to Army in their historic series with a crushing 27-7 victory and a Shamrock-named lad, Terry Brennan, personally humbled the outclassed Cadets at Notre Dame stadium today.

The courageous Cadet who was stunned by Terry's 95 yard touchdown run with the opening kickoff never regained their poise against the inspired Irish.

Notre Dame opened the finale of this famed 34 year rivalry apparently set on gaining full measure of revenge for the wartime 59 to 0 and 48 to 0 plasterings by the Army, but they ran slightly out of gas against the stubborn Cadets.

Despite a spanking new offensive attack which piled up 361 yards by rushing to Army's 168, the Irish shot their real lead in the first period with two touchdowns, both counted by Brennan and then pecked away for the other two touchdowns in the last two periods.

The Cadets, suffering their 23rd defeat against seven victories and four ties in the memorable series which started in 1913, gained some small measure of consolation in scoring their only touchdown against a Frank Leahy-coached team in five meetings.

That came in the final period when fullback Elwyn Rowan, a gallant worker this frost-bitten afternoon, bulled over from the one-yard line to cap a 56 yard Cadet march.

The Irish threw everything but the good posts at the Cadets in a march to their sixth straight victory. Brilliant quarterback Johnny Lusk flipped surprising new aerials and sent such Irish speedsters as Bob Livingstone and Larry Coutre, who scored the other two touchdowns, and Earl Sisko and Mike Swistowicz hammering through the Cadets for big chunks of yardage.

But the real big noise in the thunder the Irish shook down from their football skies was Terry Brennan, 19-year-old 173-pound phantom from Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The Irish, who now have Northwestern, Tulane and Southern California remaining to hurdle in a charge to their second straight national crown, were in complete charge after Brennan followed his brilliant long run with a three-yard slash for his second touchdown to cap an 80 yard Notre Dame scoring march.

Quakers Stage Second Half Rally To Defeat Virginia Cavaliers

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8 (AP)—Pennsylvania slashed across for two touchdowns in the second half today to defeat the previously unbeaten Virginia Cavaliers, 19 to 7.

In retaining their spotless record the pounding Quakers twice shook loose their fleet halfback, Bob Deuber, for scoring runs of 61 and 56 yards.

The Cavaliers more than held their own through the first half, but lost their offensive punch in the last two periods.

Deuber swept around his own right end for 61 yards and a touchdown on Penn's first play from scrimmage. Again in the third quarter, after Virginia had tied the count at 7-7, he tore around the same wing for 56 yards and the winning score.

The third Penn score came some five minutes before the game ended, when Tony Minisi plunged across from the one to climax a 39-yard power parade.

Georgia Tech Capitalizes On Long Forward Pass To Defeat Middies

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8. (AP)—Georgia Tech cashed in on its one big opportunity in the fourth quarter today to pull out a 16 to 14 victory over Navy's often-brilliant but just as often luckless football team on the muddy gridiron of Baltimore's municipal stadium.

Trailing halfway through the final period as Navy's fine line consistently outplayed the big Tech forwards, the Yellow Jackets saved their undefeated-untied record when they recovered a Navy fumble and turned it into the winning touchdown on a long forward pass.

It was Tech's seventh straight victory this season and perhaps the toughest. The teams won't meet next season.

Tulsa Hurricanes Surprise Oklahoma A&M Before Stillwater Crowd, 13-0

STILLWATER, Okla., Nov. 8. (AP)—A slashing offense coupled with a storm cellar defense allowed the University of Tulsa Hurricane to uproot the Oklahoma Aggies 13-0 here today before 28,500 homecoming fans.

The Hurricane whirled 53 yards to score in the closing seconds of the first half, then cut down the Aggie chances for a comeback with a 65-yard scoring drive at the start of the fourth quarter.

Wisconsin Smothers Iowans, 46-14

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8. (AP)—Wisconsin's Badgers smothered Iowa today, 46-14, to remain in the Big Nine conference gridiron title race.

Flashing peak performances in blocking and charging, before a homecoming attendance of 45,000 and scoring in every quarter, the Badgers grabbed control with two first period touchdowns, on long punt returns by Earl (Jug) Girard, sensational sophomore back, to stay in front all the way and remain a step behind Michigan, also unbeaten in conference games this fall.

Brown's Inspired Gridders Win, 20-14

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 8. (AP)—Brown's inspired footballers upset Yale, 20 to 14 today, the Bruins, taking advantage of all "breaks" and forcing the losers to fight an uphill battle most of the way.

Bulldogs Crush Dragons, 49-0

COAHOMA, Nov. 8.—Johnny Albers' Coahoma Bulldogs crushed the Flower Grove Dragons, 49-0, in an exhibition six-man football game played here Friday evening.

The Canines scored 13 points before the end of the first period and, despite the heroic efforts of the Dragons' Everett in the line, had no difficulty in adding to their total.

Eight Coahoma players participated in the scoring. John Hall collected two touchdowns. Bruce Lindsey had eight points, Morris Duncan, Perry Walker, Joe Horton and Tommy Morrison, six each; and Jack Wolf one.

Armstrong was Flower Grove's leading threat.

The victory was Coahoma's seventh in eight games and set the stage for the Bulldogs' all-important test in Forsan next week.

VANDY ROLLS

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 8. (AP)—Scoring almost at will, a powerful Vanderbilt eleven rolled over the Tennessee Polytechnic Eagles 68-0.

BOSTON, Nov. 8. (AP)—The Demon Deacons of Wake Forest today clipped the wings of the Boston College Eagles by a 14-13 score at Braves Field.

Three 3AA 11's Idle This Week

Only four District 3AA football teams will be in action next week end.

Big Spring's Steers, who surprised last Friday with a 20-19 victory over over-rated San Angelo take on the Midland Bulldogs at home and will be favored to win that one despite the presence of Dunny Goode in the Midland secondary.

Odessa goes to Lamesa and should hand the Tornados their worst licking of the season.

Sweetwater, Abilene and San Angelo will be idle.

Odessa has already been conceded the championship but the battles for the other positions in the standings are far from over.

Abilene has the inside track for the runner-up spot by virtue of a 35-13 victory over Lamesa last week.

Angelo dropped into a tie for third place by losing to Big Spring, 20-19, while Sweetwater was being slugged by Odessa, 32-0.

Big Spring moved out of the circuit cellar, leaving the Midland team in sole possession. The Bulldogs did not play.

Table with columns: Team, W, L, T, Pts. O. Rows: Odessa, San Angelo, Abilene, Sweetwater, Big Spring, Lamesa, Midland.

CONERLY SHINES AGAIN

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 8. (AP)—Lanky Charley Conerly, the ace serialist of college football, presented another dazzling performance of his art today and his Mississippi Rebels blasted Tennessee, 43 to 13, almost incidentally.

Michigan Trips Indiana In Bid For Bowl Trip

Chappuis Shines In Offensive

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 8. (AP)—University of Michigan's unbeaten football powerhouse flattened Indiana 35 to 0 today to take another championship and a New Year's Day Rose Bowl date.

Michigan picked up the loose ends of its brilliant offense, culled to two touchdowns a game in its last two times out against Minnesota and Illinois.

Bob Chappuis, Michigan's brilliant halfback, took a leading role in the Wolverines' attack, sparking Michigan to 248 yards running and another 113 yards by passing.

60-YARD GALLOP ENABLES MINNEAPOLIS TO WIN

Minneapolis, Nov. 8. (AP)—Minnesota's persistent spurs, sparked by halfback Billy Maye, put on a second half drive that brought them a 25 to 21 victory over Purdue's fighting football team today.

Bye climaxed his best day of the season by thrilling a homecoming crowd of 63,659 fans with a 60-yard fourth period touchdown gallop to bring the Gophers from behind for the triumph.

It was the second goal line crossing of the day for the 176-pound Bye and matched the performance of a fellow halfback, Bud Hausken. Sub fullback Don Bailey added the point after Bye's touchdowns but his attempts after the Hausken tallies failed.

Purdue dominated the first half.

Bearcats Lose To Knott, 31-8

KNOTT, Nov. 8.—Knott's Hill Billies throttled the Garden City Bearcats, 31-8, in the season's last six-man football game for both teams here Friday afternoon.

Harland scored two touchdowns for the Billies to set the scoring pace while Barnes, Hughes and Ditto each had one.

Curry banged across for Garden City's only six pointer while Roberts droppicked for the two extra points.

The Billies lost only to Ackerly, champion of District Four, in regular play.

Armistice Day Dance, Legion Hut.

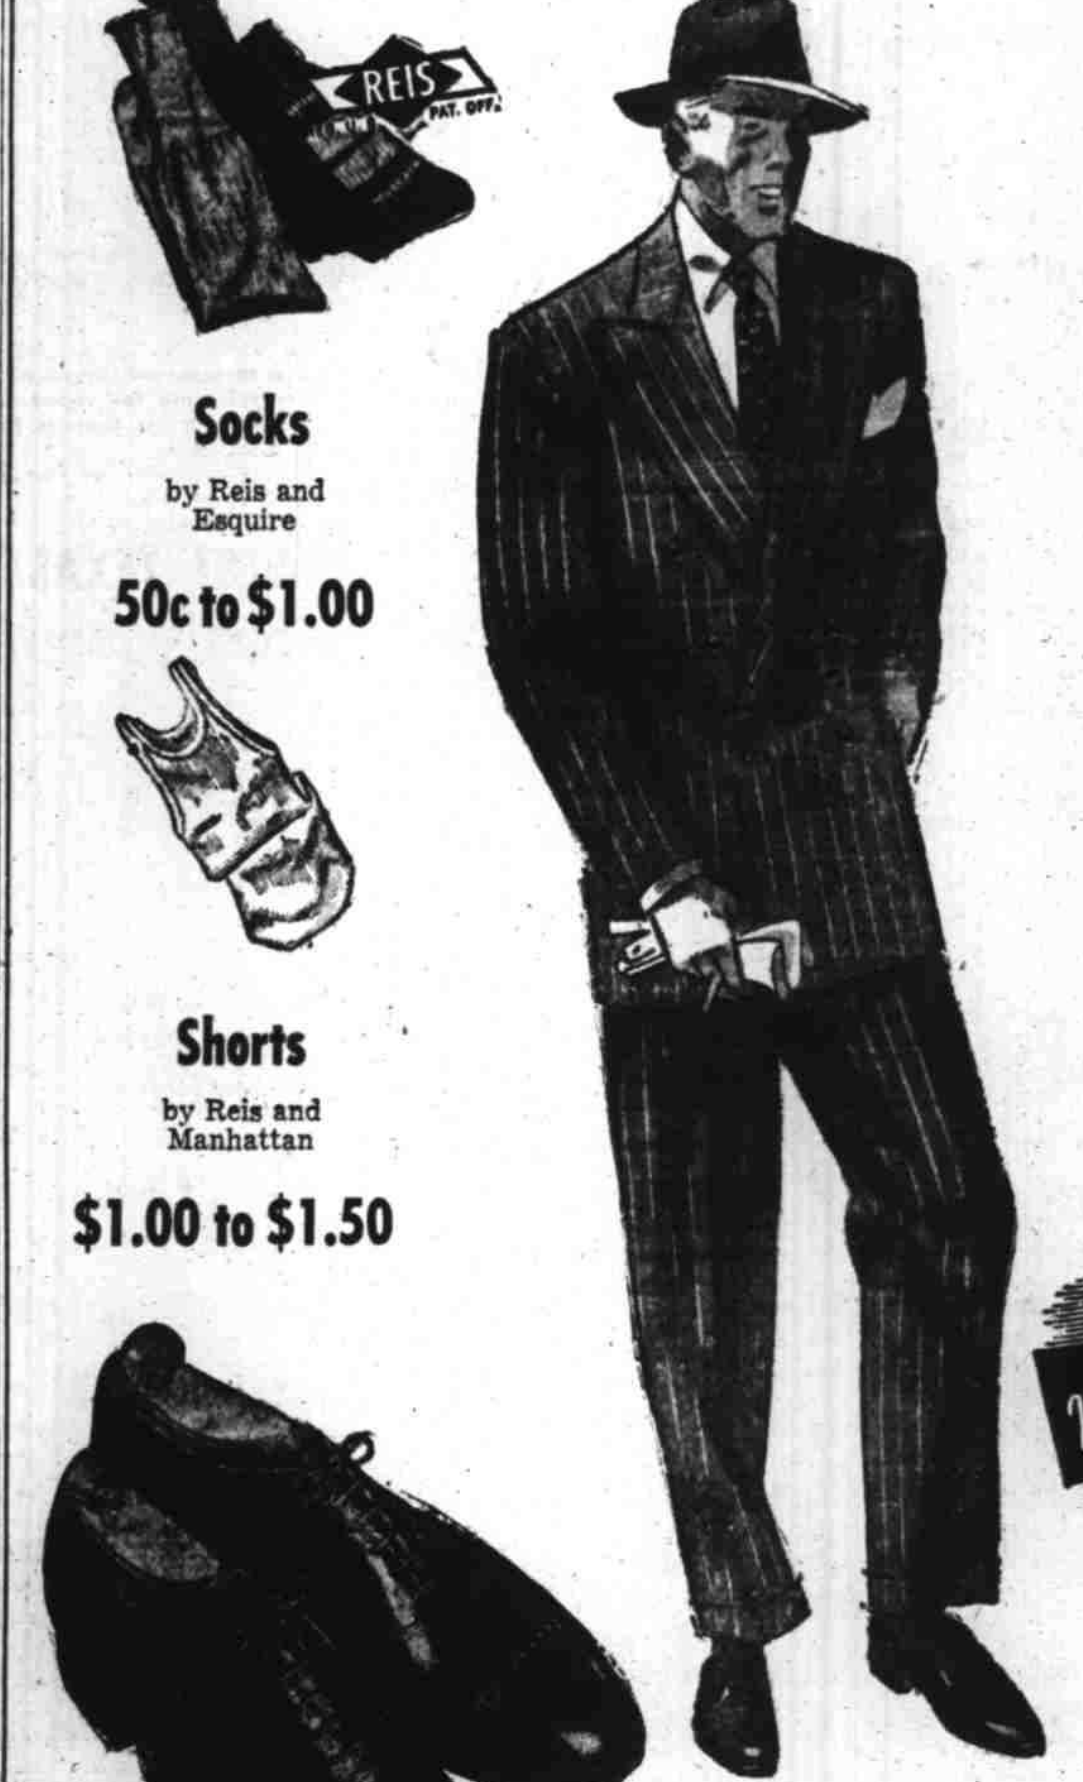

MOUNTAINEERS LOSE
MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 8. (AP)—Kentucky today made a break pay off for one touchdown and scored another on a long run to turn back a trying West Virginia team 15 to 6.

Aged Man Dies In Dallas Fire

DALLAS, Nov. 8. (AP)—A 75-year-old man was dead as a result of a fire that swept a two-story frame apartment house here today and routed six other occupants.

Firemen found the body of John H. Calvary huddled beneath a bed in his upstairs apartment.

A tenant of a downstairs apartment told investigator E. M. Sadberry he had lit an oil stove in the kitchen of his apartment and then left the room. When he returned, he said, the room was engulfed in flame.

The tenant said he and his family warned the other occupants. Investigators were not able to learn immediately why the aged man did not escape with the others.

FIRE DESTROYS COTTAGES

SALISBURY, Mass., Nov. 8. (AP)—

Fire destroyed 35 summer cottages in the Salisbury beach area of the town tonight before the flames were brought under control by apparatus from eight communities.

IN B'SPRING

Termination Of Poultryless Thursday Causes No Stir

Termination of "poultry-less Thursday" observance occasioned about the same affect upon buying, selling and consumption in Big Spring as its beginning, and that amounted to scarcely a ripple.

All in all, it appears doubtful that eating habits of more than a few local citizens were altered even slightly by that particular phase of President Truman's food-saving program.

As one local major distributor explained it, "Big Spring people never ate chicken on Thursday in the first place. They usually buy their hens and fryers on Saturday and eat them on Sunday, with an occasional purchase during the week to maintain variety in their meals."

In fact, there were not even any price fluctuations locally that could be credited (or charged) to the brief weekly observance. The market on hens did slump about two cents several days ago, but poultry distributors could see little connection between the market decline and "poultry-less Thursday"

Although eggs remain on the conservation list their status causes no more of a stir here than did the hens and fryers. The market is steady for eggs, and although more could be used, there is no indication that breakfast tables in Big Spring will be deprived of their presence in the near future.

Current indications also indicate that Big Spring families will be able to obtain their Thanksgiving turkey, unless there is a greater demand than anticipated. However, there are very few turkeys available from producers in this area, which could bring the price factor into the demand picture.

But if retail prices prove too steep, poultry men figure that housewives will substitute hens, and if enough of them do so it might knock the turkey from his perch.

As for prospects of more poultry production in this area during the winter, a complete reversal of current trends must develop before anything more than limited commercial activity can be foreseen.

There are some baby chicks on the market now, at least one local hatchery is operating on a small scale and another will begin as soon as an egg supply problem can be solved. However, baby chicks are moving slowly, especially during the past few days which have brought low temperatures.

Baby chicks will be available during the fall and winter months, however, chiefly as a service to persons who plan to raise them for home consumption. Virtually no flocks on a commercial scale are expected during the winter months.

Hatchery operators and baby chick retailers are even viewing the outlook for next spring with conservatism. Feed prices, which are discouraging many poultry raisers this winter, may be no better, or even worse, by spring, they fear.

One hatchery operator said he would have some demand for winter chicks, but he doubted that any of them would ever reach the commercial market.

HOLIDAY SET FOR ARMISTICE

Although no formal programs are planned, Big Spring will observe the 29th anniversary of Armistice Day Tuesday with the customary suspension of most business activities. The day has been observed as a holiday here since 1918.

Practically all retail establishments will be closed for the day, as will governmental and professional offices and the banks. It is a holiday also for the Big Spring schools.

The Herald's Tuesday edition will come off the press at noon.

Winant Remembers Employees In Will

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 8. (AP)—Friends and employees were liberally remembered in the will of John G. Winant former ambassador to Great Britain who shot himself to death Monday night.

The will valued personal property at $50,000, and real estate at $25,000. It left two-fifths of the residue to his widow and the remaining three-fifths to his three children.

The 58-year-old diplomat provided for the care of his aged mother and also for a year's salary for all servants with three or more years of service.

My Buddy --- my Buddy. The years are long since Johnny Doughboy slashed through the mud and snow of France, fought the cooties as vehemently as he fought the Hun, shrugged off with a few crude phrases of French the excited gesticulations of their noble allies.

Yes the years are long, and another war has come and gone, but still the bonds of comradeship are strong. To the thousands and thousands who fought the first great war there exists some strange attachments to the days of broomstick drills, cantonments of pyramid tents, ungainly and ill-fitting uniforms, the sleep of fatigue on straw-covered stone floors, the infectious strains of "Over There."

While nothing can alter this spirit time and circumstance have altered the import of Armistice Day — the holiday which for a quarter of a century symbolized peace and the sacrifices of another generation. World War II is fresher in the minds of the world with its great battles, its D-Day, V-E Day, and V-J Day. And so, Armistice Day, as we have known it all these years, may be merged with those of World War II in one accepted holiday. This may be the last of our traditional Armistice Day --- the tie which has bound us to the men of valor of three decades ago.

Let's look at a few who went away in 1917. Perhaps you may have difficulty in identifying them. Thirty years can work a lot of changes. But 30 years — yea, 30 plus 30 won't weaken the peculiar ties of kinship for "My Buddy --- My Buddy, No one quite so true."

Early in their army career, these redoubtable soldiers embraced the truth that an "army marches on its stomach," and forthrightly put it into practice as can be seen by this training camp scene. The gentleman on the left never let the Big Spring national guard company (D, 117th supply train, 42nd division) have a dull moment. Since he has been oil well driller and public servant, and is a new figure on the local business scene. The man to the right also has had a varied post-war career and for several years now has been ranching in the Van Horn area.

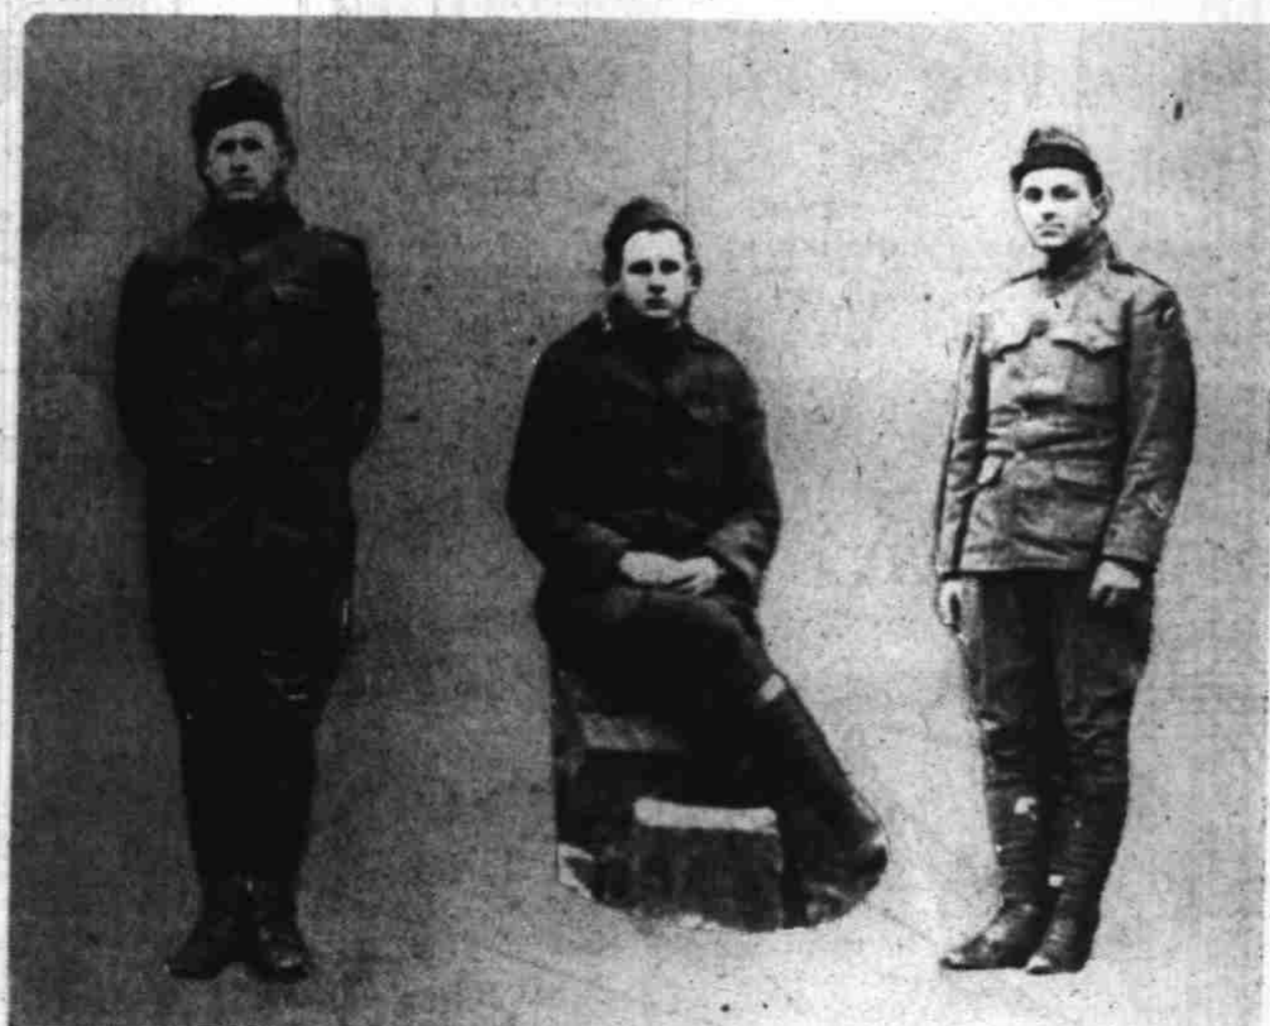

The Coast Artillery perked up when this recruit (pictured at right) put in his appearance at Fort MacArthur, California. He was much in demand at West Coast points and even was assigned to interior Salt Lake City. Answering any doubts, he attained the rank of corporal, and recalls how he was the ranking corporal of five in a larger party dispatched for home, and as such got his first executive experience which has stood him in good stead in his financial career in the intervening years.

Believe it or not, they had anti-aircraft units in World War I and this serious-minded soldier was a member of battery A, 2nd battalion, unattached, the ace of the AA. Firing French 75s mounted on automobiles, the unit had a range finder and a fuse cutter who were fast enough to down four Boche planes. It took pretty good country shooting to do that. He is still using a practiced eye today, but to detect state tax irregularities.

Had this young man served in World War II, his position would likely have been that of warrant officer, but back in the doughboy days he was a field clerk, absorbing training at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and later at Fort Benning, Georgia, where he was one of the first soldiers assigned to that station. Big Spring people know him as secretary-treasurer of one of the largest industries in this section of West Texas.

These three men, who once wrapped a mean legging, were members of the company mustered in Big Spring, but which later "adopted" a number from other sections of the country before being whisked to France in less than three months after enlistment. At left is one of the sergeants of the company, whose father was second mayor of the city. Active in veterans affairs, he also has practiced his profession for more than a score of years and currently is also a public official. Also a sergeant was this young man in the center, sitting on the step of a building in Germany. He joined his father in the "flicker" business and today is a partner in a business which had extensive interests in Texas and Oklahoma. At right is another soldier who never wanted to leave Big Spring after getting a look at "sunny France" and a part of the Ruhr. For years he was in the automotive business and for the past several years has operated a grocery

This one ought to be easy, for the years have not wrought a great deal of change in the expression of this soldier, who also was a member of the company organized in Big Spring in 1917. While on duty in Arhwiler, Germany as part of the army of occupation, he had an impulse for a picture and this is the result. Returning to Big Spring, he has continued to make this his home. He is associated with a local motor company.

Evelyn Green-John Tipton Anderson Marry In Early Morning Ceremony

In an early morning ceremony this morning Evelyn Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Green, became the bride of John Tipton Anderson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tipton Anderson, Sr.

The double ring vows were exchanged before an altar banked with fern and baskets of pink and white gladioli on each side in the parlor of the First Baptist church. The Rev. Cecil Rhodes, pastor of the West Side Baptist church, officiated.

Pre-nuptial music was played by Lillian Hurt who also accompanied Betty Ray Nall who sang "Because." Miss Nall wore a pink wool suit with a corsage of white carnations.

The bride was attired in a beige gabardine suit, fashioned with deep cut sleeves and was buttoned to the neck with gold trimmed buttons. She wore matching brown accessories and an orchid corsage.

For the traditional something old and borrowed, she wore a lavalier belonging to her mother; for something new, a bracelet, a gift from the bridegroom, and a penny in her shoe.

Bobbie Green, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a gray suit with black accessories. Her corsage was white gardenias.

Dee Thomas was best man.

The bride's mother wore a black gabardine suit with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a gray crepe dress and a pink carnation corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High school, where she was a member of the High Heel Slipper Club and served as president of the club during her senior year. She was secretary-treasurer of her senior class. She and the bridegroom attended Howard County Junior College last year and she is now employed with the school tax office.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Big Spring High where he was a member of the student council and the football team. He served in the Seabees for 14 months. He is a fireman for the T. and P. Railroad Co.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Teague and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Long of Slaton and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Whitaker of Merkel.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

The table was laid with an ecru lace cloth centered with an arrangement of pink and lavender asters, plumosus and lemon foliage. The three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom was at one end of the table and the silver coffee service at the other.

Jean Murphy and Bobbie Green served. Evelyn Arnold presided at the bride's book which was decorated with violets.

The couple will be at home at 506 Nolan after a short wedding trip to Carlsbad, N. M. and Juarez, Mexico.

Pre-nuptial activities included a gift tea honoring the bride Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gutte. The hostesses included Betty Gutte, Norma Lou Jones, Evelyn Arnold, Millie Balch and Betty Ray Nall.

In the receiving line were the honoree, Miss Nall, Bobbie Green, sister of the bride Mrs. Johnnie Green and Mrs. J. T. Anderson. Approximately 75 guests called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Raymond Hale Hosts Her Auxiliary

Mrs. Raymond T. Hale was hostess at the meeting of the Firemen Ladies Auxiliary Friday.

Sewing was entertainment. A refreshment plate was served to Mary Ann Moore, Goldie Clawson, Dorothy Meador, Dorothy Kennerly, Florence Waddell, Mrs. J. D. Jenkins, Mrs. Jewell Fields, Lona Crocker and one new member, Dorothy Taylor.

Mrs. Jenkins will be the next hostess.

Club Will Meet

The Past Matrons' club of the Order of Eastern Star is to have its regular meeting Tuesday at 7 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Brownie Dunning, 206 E. 16th street. Mrs. Edith Murdock and Mrs. Anne Eberley will be co-hostesses for the affair.

Pat Duncan Makes Highest Final Average Of School

Another record fell at the Electrician Mates' school in San Diego when final averages were computed.

It was found that the 98.14 achieved by Pat Duncan, EM3c, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Duncan was the highest grade in the school's history.

He enlisted in the Navy on May 14, 1945 and completed recruit training at NTC and was transferred to the Naval Operating Base at Okinawa, where he remained until February, 1946. He was on the USS Carter Hall and the USS Los Angeles.

Duncan attributed his high score to the fact that he had gained considerable experience before entering the Navy since he had worked in the K and T Electric shop in Big Spring before entering the Navy.

Junior Woman's Forum Plans Rummage Sale

Plans for a rummage sale for Saturday were made at the meeting of the Junior Woman's Forum Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Joe Pickle with Mrs. Rob Adams as co-hostess.

A covered dish luncheon in observance of Christmas was planned for Dec. 19 at 1 p. m. in the home of Mrs. L. D. Chrane with Mrs. W. K. Edwards, Jr. as co-hostess. The members will fill baskets for the needy.

Mrs. Marie Haynes gave a talk on "Social Graces" at the meeting.

Mrs. Cecil McDonald and Mrs. Arnold Marshall will be hostesses of the next meeting of the Forum on Nov. 21.

Those present were Mrs. Cecil McDonald, Mrs. Don Burk, Mrs. Travis Carlton, Mrs. Knox Chadd, Mrs. L. D. Chrane, Mrs. Jack Cook, Mrs. W. K. Edwards, Jr., Mrs. Marie Haynes, Mrs. Clyde Johnston, Mrs. Arnold Marshall, Mrs. Bob McEwen, Mrs. E. H. Strauss, Mrs. Burke Summers and Mrs. A. L. Tamplin.

LOST 42 POUNDS WITHOUT DIETING

The following remarkable story shows conclusively that Barcontrate DOES take off fat.

It contains nothing harmful. In fact, it contains ingredients that make you feel better. No starvation diet—no weakness—no hunger.

Barcontrate, the original grapefruit juice recipe takes off fat quickly, safely and you can eat plenty.

Here Is Proof

"When I started taking Barcontrate, I weighed 212 pounds and wore size 46 dresses. Now I wear size 18 and weigh 165 pounds. I started taking Barcontrate in March and by June I had lost 47 pounds. I would have lost more weight had I left off fattening foods, but I was anemic at that time and afraid to diet. People who knew me before I started taking Barcontrate are amazed at the weight I have lost. My flesh is firm, I have never become flabby or wrinkled and I am 40 years old.

"Before taking Barcontrate I couldn't do my house work without becoming exhausted; had dizzy spells and my head and back hurt me constantly. I was so short winded, I was miserable. But now all those things have gone and it is really a pleasure to do the chores I once dreaded.

"Three years ago I nearly died with Typhus fever and it left me anemic and I could never get my blood count up again or get back my energy. After taking Barcontrate my blood count started up and is now normal. So you see why I praise Barcontrate so highly and recommend it. Any praise I can give Barcontrate is small compared to the relief and happiness it has brought me."—Mrs. Eula Whitehead, 609 Harmon, Corpus Christi, Texas.

At All Druggists

The above is one of hundreds of amazing endorsements we have received.

If you are overweight and want to take off ugly fat, just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcontrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonful twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, safe, easy way to take off weight, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Hyperion Clubs Undertake Project To Provide Playground Equipment

A project designed to provide playground equipment for pupils of the Kate Morrison (Latin-American) and Lakeview (Negro) schools, whose recreational facilities now are very scant, is being undertaken by the Hyperion clubs of the city.

Three Hyperion units—the 1905, 1930 and 1946 clubs—are joining forces in this project under general direction of Mrs. R. T. Piner, Hyperion clubs president.

The playground project is being headed up by Mrs. J. M. Woodall as chairman of a special committee which also includes Mrs. Shine Phillips and Mrs. Ray Boren.

The women's groups will employ various fund-raising methods, and have announced they will welcome any contributions toward assisting the north side schools with recreational facilities.

They will work with parents and teachers of the two schools. Neither elementary unit has adequate playground equipment, it was pointed out, and the Hyperions hope to raise sufficient money to equip swings, see-saws and similar equipment, plus volley balls, basket balls, etc. for organized play.

Those who will assist in the program are invited to contact either Mrs. Woodall, Mrs. Phillips or Mrs. Boren.

Mr. and Mrs. E. John and Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Panches of Abilene are spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith and Anne.

Good News For Folks Who Suffer From

- STOMACH GAS
- SOUR FOOD TASTE
- ACID INDIGESTION

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief from this noxious distress.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; and the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, lousy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Solon Learns In Greece He Can Still Hit For Foxhole

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—Reporting on his brush with mortar-firing bandits on the Greek border, Rep. Olin E. (Tiger) Teague of College Station, writes from Greece that he learned he can still hit for a foxhole "in a hurry."

The congressman speaks from considerable experience. As an Army colonel, he was wounded six times in the fighting for the Rhine and a gateway into Germany.

In letters to Mrs. Teague and his office staff, the Texan gives a graphic word picture of conditions in Greece. Some of the letters were not scribbled in pencil in dimly lighted Greek villages by night; others were written in planes flying so high that he complained of being "nearly frozen."

Excerpts from his letters:

"Athens is just like any large city and almost as modern except I have not had hot water to shave or bathe in but about twice."

"The peasants, farmers and villagers in northern Greece are wonderful people and they are going through a hell on earth. x x x"

"Talking about the bandits firing on us with mortars. The bandits had mined the road and we stopped to remove the mines and they fired about seven mortar rounds at us. I learned that I can still get in a hole in a hurry. x x x"

"The bandit situation in Greece is much worse than I realized. It is a situation that is almost impossible to cope with. The bandits live up in the hills and come down occasionally (raiding) small villages, killing and robbing a few people and robbing farmers of their wheat or anything they want."

"To recruit more bandits they force men at gun point to go with them, mostly young men. If the men do not go with them they kill them. If the men desert or run away the bandits kill their families. Roads are mined by the bandits with the terrible German color mine."

"Many civilian and Greek army personnel and a few Americans have been killed. You cannot come by train from Athens because the bandits have blown up the railroad. x x x"

"In every little village just before dark you can see all the men with guns taking their places to defend the village at night. The refugee problem is a big one. After the bandits raid the village killing people and burning houses, all the people leave the village and go to a larger city where the Greek army is located. Those people must be housed and fed and winter is coming on."

"People are afraid to work their farms and as a result next year the crops will be much shorter than they already are. Today in almost every yard women were out sheeling corn or threshing wheat by hand. They lay the wheat on the ground and beat it until they think all the grain is out. Then they move the straw and sweep up the grain of the wheat. x x x"

"These bandits go back into the hills and the Greeks claim they go all the way into Yugoslavia or Bulgaria if they chase them."

"As we were going along the road x x x we were fired on from the mountains by mortars. Of course, we could not know who fired the mortars but the Greeks thought it was the bandits. No one was killed or wounded, although the mortars fell very close. We also found mines in the road. In fact, we had stopped because of the mines when they fired on us. We left while the mortars were still firing and the Greek artillery was firing at the mortars.

8 Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Sun., Nov. 9, 1947

"We went into many villages in which many houses had been burned. At one place we stopped a woman who told us of the bandits coming and forcing her husband to go with them, and left her with six children with winter coming on. x x x"

"Our aid is just beginning to reach these areas in a little flour and a little sugar. In every small village the villagers beg that the Americans furnish them with enough arms so that they can protect themselves from the bandits."

Teague reports that the Greek people seem to have no horror of the violence and strife going on around them, only a resignation to it.

Lots of new tricks with clean, economical gas... your favorite cooking fuel! And it's unexcelled by any modern gas range in conventional cooking methods.

Glorious cooking results which made colonial Dutch Ovens famous are yours... automatically... with Maytag's new gas range. "Stored-up" heat is the secret!

First Showing of the Sensational New

Maytag Dutch Oven Gas Range

It cooks ON... with the gas OFF
Automatically

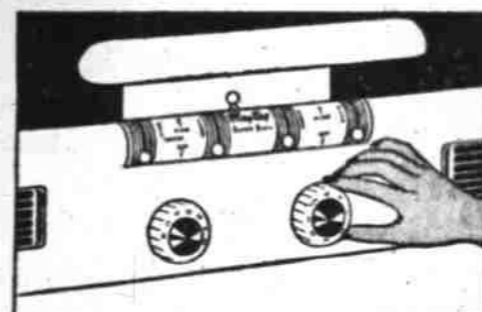

Here's a range designed for the homemaker's pleasure and leisure... a range that's completely new from base to control panel... a range that brings you... Dutch Oven Cooking... The Maytag Automatic Way!

With a Maytag Dutch Oven all you need do is prepare your meal, place it in the oven, light the gas, set the automatic control, and then... forget it! While it's cooking, you're free as a breeze... free to do as you please... go where you please. While you're away, the gas will be turned off automatically, the oven vents closed and your meal will go right on cooking with the gas turned off! Hours later... come home, open your oven door, and there inside... your Maytag Dutch Oven meal... delicious, tender, rich with its own precious juices, and piping hot, too, just right to serve!

If you wish, you can cook with the Maytag Dutch Oven just as you would with any other gas range... but why should you? Maytag Dutch Oven Automatic Cooking gives you added leisure... time for a more enjoyable life... time for a fuller life... time to live!

Kitchen's cleaner, clearer! Retained heat is the secret of Maytag's heavily insulated Dutch Oven. Vents close automatically when gas goes off. Kitchen stays cool and free of cooking odors, greases.

Cooks while you're away! Just set the Dutch Oven control dial. Automatically turns off gas, yet foods keep cooking by retained heat until deliciously done. (Safety note: small children can't reach the control panel.)

Full meal on one burner! The thrifty Dutch Cooker Well cooks an entire meal (including meat, vegetables and dessert) using only one top burner. Also ideal for cooking fruits, cereals and puddings.

Wipes clean in a jiffy! Heat-focusing Spiral Flame burners and chrome grids lift out so porcelain burner bowls and range top can be cleaned sparkling white with a swish of a damp cloth.

WEEK'S BUSINESS

Repairs Take All Building Permits

New construction projects faded from the scene last week, as building permits issued by the city all went for repair work and for moving buildings from the Army Airfield. There were 13 permits issued, but they only averaged slightly over $500 each in estimated costs. Total cost figures for the week amounted to $9,700, inching the year's total forward to $955,680.

Warranty deeds filed in the county clerk's office also totalled 18 for the week, but considerations involved in the various real estate transactions on the list jumped to $80,012. This figure represents the highest mark for a single week in some three months. The current warranty deed total for the year is $1,735,109.

Twelve new passenger automobiles were registered during the week at the county tax assessor-collector's office. Licenses also were issued for one new truck and one new motor scooter.

Prices at local livestock markets continued firm, as demands remained for butcher animals. Approximately 1,200 head were sold during the week.

GIVEN BREAK
NEW YORK (UP)—Police Commissioner Arthur W. Wal-lender announced that a new policy of avoiding arrest of juvenile delinquents for minor infractions had worked successfully for their rehabilitation. He said the police juvenile aid bureau handled 27,067 cases during 1946, but that arrests are no longer made except for crimes that would be considered a felony or a serious misdemeanor if committed by an adult.

The CHIROPRACTOR and You

One Of A Series Of Articles Published In The Public Interest To Explain And Illustrate The Practice Of Chiropractic.

CASE HISTORY No. 274. A girl of 17 who came to a Chiropractor suffering from severe headaches which she attributed to her eyes. She had worn glasses for five years, changing to a stronger type of lens every six months. However, analysis revealed that the headaches were caused by nerve pressure at the base of the skull. A series of spinal adjustments released the nerves from pressure and the headaches promptly ceased. Further, eyesight so improved that within a short time she was able to discard her glasses and has not worn them since.

CASE HISTORY No. 742. A severe case of asthma resulting from the drainage of mucous from diseased sinuses, which had affected the bronchial tubes. This middle-aged man had tried every available means of relief without success. Brought to a Chiropractor "doubting that anything could be done," he was restored to normal health within a few weeks. The cause of his condition was simply nerve pressure between the brain and the sinuses. When this pressure was removed by spinal adjustment the abnormality quickly cleared up.

CASE HISTORY No. 17. A typical case of gastritis. The patient complained of headaches, pain in the stomach, a feeling of fullness and distress heartburn, and was given to vomiting after food. The condition had existed for seven months, during two of which the patient had been unable to work. Analysis showed a displacement of a segment of the spine which had interfered with the nerve supply to the walls of the stomach. This interference was removed and immediately the patient began to show improvement. In a short time the stomach had normalized itself.

WHAT IS CHIROPRACTIC? Chiropractic is based on the fact that the brain is the human power house. It creates vital energy. Without brain energy no organ or part of the body can function. Brain energy is transmitted over the body's network of nerves. These nerves radiate from the spine, and it is in the spine that the nerves can be "pinched" by vertebrae, and the flow of energy over them impeded or cut off. When, in this way, the connection is broken between brain and one or more parts of the body, disease is the inevitable result. By skillful analysis and precise spinal adjustments, the Chiropractor is able to locate and release impinged nerves and restore an uninterrupted flow of brain energy to the part affected. Health follows naturally.

Progress Depends On Understanding

Special "weeks" come a dime a dozen, but one in which Big Spring should be particularly interested starts today. It is National Education Week.

Various activities have been planned, but the most important is a visitation campaign. Object of this is to prevail upon patrons to actually see the schools in operation and thus to gain at first hand some knowledge of how this vital institution attacks the problems of educating our children.

Now it will be quite impossible to get a complete or even fair picture of the school system, its philosophy, its implements and methods in such a short space of time, but we venture that anyone who actually takes the time to go into the schools this week will come away vastly more interested in the problems and opportunities of education.

It has been repeated often that Big Spring has many peculiar problems in connection with its school system. Small area so circumscribes us that solutions are difficult, and many suggestions are impractical. However, if and when the issues are resolved, they will be met as the result of widespread and keen interest in school matters. For after all the schools belong to the people, and only the people can come to enduring grips with the situation.

Education is bound up with democracy in more ways than one. A case in point is an abstract popularity. Almost everyone is for democracy, even though he may not be able to define the term. Similarly, almost everyone is for education, because we have been told it is a good thing. But education is more than a good thing. It is absolutely necessary to the preservation of democratic processes. One of the strengths of democracy in this nation is that enlightenment has progressed, slowly to be sure, but steadily. And thus, as conflicts and flaws have blossomed with growth of our society, the people have been able, in a great many instances, to come up with an answer.

Not all the problems have been adjusted or conquered, nor perhaps will they ever be, but the presence of not only challenges within our own nation but in the whole world as well cries out more urgently than ever for an educational program that will meet the demands of the day.

This sounds plausible you say, but where do we come in? Right here at home. That's where our great movement must take root, for our philosophy of society and government rests finally and inevitably upon the voters of the land. Our leaders govern only as we suffer them to govern. Hence, it is imperative that we rear succeeding generations equipped to discern more clearly than we are, and to act in good conscience with firm faith in the sacred rights which ought to be their heritage.

Our schools, functioning more effectively and in closer coordination with other key agencies, can do much to promote general enlightenment, and thus press back with positive pressure the forces of fear, prejudice, intolerance. They can have a mighty part in equipping our children with mental and spiritual honesty, with the abilities to earn honorable livelihoods, with the sense of responsibility to their community and fellow men.

But they can do only as much as we will them to do.

And how much we will that our schools shall be given opportunity to do depends in a large measure upon our understanding of our schools. A good point of beginning is in first hand observation this week in classrooms.

A Decade Of Marriage

NEW YORK, (U)—When you travel a long uphill road you often can't see just where it's leading you, but after you climb a while you can at least look back down and see how far you've come.

That's the way I feel today. Ten years ago I walked down a short one-way path in a church, and when the traffic jam was unscrambled there I was an innocent man married for life.

It has been really a trial marriage. Certainly a trial to my wife anyway. When I asked Frances on this anniversary what had caused her the most trouble during the last decade, she didn't have to think it over for a moment.

"You," she said.

I thought at first I ought to sulk about that remark, then I finally decided it was a compliment—in a wifely way. If they lose interest in you, of course you aren't much trouble to them.

Matrimony has convinced me that the angel who does the book-keeping in heaven on the deeds of us mortals here below must be a woman.

Looking back on the last ten years, married life to me seems pretty much a confused but generally happy blur, marred chiefly by a four-year separation brought about by the late Adolph Hitler.

But to Frances each event of those years—the bitter and the sweet—stands out separate and in complete detail like the beads on a rosary. I wouldn't have noticed it if the minister at our wedding had lipsticked on his collar, but if I asked Frances today whether his glasses were bifocal, she would know.

Married life has taught me more, as it usually does a husband—he comes to it with less understanding. Only three things come to mind offhand, however.

One is the wonderful discovery of breakfast. Before I was married I started the day off with a sack of peanuts and a bottle of soft drink, or else a dish of ice cream. I have come to believe that bacon and eggs are better.

The second thing I have learned is that a husband is doubly fortified in the battle of life by the fact that his wife—unless he is dumb indeed—has a wisdom beyond him that he needs. This is her instinctive feeling of what is best for him in the long run, which corrects the gaps in his own intelligence. Most men are fools if they make a major decision without their wife's advice.

Third, I learned that it is impossible to understand a wife, but they love you to keep on trying.

HAPPY DAYS
ATLANTA, Ga. (UP)— State Revenue Commissioner Glenn Phillips reports that Georgia's taxable property values are now the highest since the Civil War days of 1864, when slaves were assessed at $762,105,900. Valuation of all taxable property for 1947 stands at $1,415,443,505 against $1,612,502,806 in 1964.

Americans Prove Their Generosity

ABOARD THE FRIENDSHIP TRAIN—South California— This train of freight cars which pulled out of Los Angeles last night en route to New York and Europe represents something basic and important in the American system. It's a symbol of the participation of the average American in the foreign policy of his country.

For a long time foreign policy has been something ethereal and distant which the man in Bakerville or San Bernardino could do absolutely nothing about. He had to leave it to ambassadors abroad, the State department and the Senate.

All he could do was vote to kick out the senators and the president who let the country in for a bad foreign policy. But that takes time and in the interim a lot of people have stood on the sidelines, feeling helpless, futile, frustrated.

All they could do was write letters to Washington, which is pretty much like aiming an arrow into the ocean in the hope of hitting a whale.

And in the end, he had to fight wars after foreign policy flopped.

Now, however, for the first time in history the average American sees a chance to do something to influence the foreign policy of his country.

FOOD AND FOREIGN POLICY
For food quite definitely has become an instrument of foreign policy. It is just as much an instrument of foreign policy as tanks or battleships, possibly more so. Food means the difference between a chaotic Europe and a gradually reconstructed Europe. In the end it may mean the difference between peace and war.

And Mr. and Mrs. America—if this Friendship train is any barometer—are only too glad to help send food to certain countries of Europe, if that food will offset the drought in France and Italy, counteract the huge wheat crop harvested by Russia and show our friends in western Europe that they don't have to duck under the iron curtain for help and protection.

These boxcars of food of course, are only a token, and most thousands more boxcars of food must be sent later. Furthermore, this food doesn't come from nowhere. It comes from meatless days and breadless meals, past and future, and by countless economies at the American dinner table which may continue many months into the future.

Nevertheless, it is an important token of American generosity. American saving and American friendship—a token which can be dramatized and which Europe can understand.

In the past, drama has been something completely lacking in American food distribution.

The Russians landed a scant 16 tons of wheat in Italy last year—which is just one boxcar. But the parades they staged as a result of that one boxcar made thousands of Italians think Moscow was their sole benefactor.

In France, when one meagre ship unloaded Russian wheat at Marseilles, the communists declared a holiday, bedecked the city with flags and cleverly convinced a good many Frenchmen that they would live off Russian wheat the rest of the winter.

Meanwhile, shipload after shipload of American wheat was poured into both France and Italy. But since it was turned over to the French and Italian flour millers, it reached the people merely as flour. There was no way to distinguish it from any other flour. Few people knew it was American.

In contrast, the food now being loaded aboard the Friendship train will be distributed through the joint American relief committees in France and Italy. These committees are composed of the various American relief groups functioning in Europe—American Baptist Relief, National Catholic Welfare Council, American Friends Service committee, Lutherans, Mennonites, Brethren, Congregationalist Service Committee, Unitarian Service Committee, and most of the American church groups abroad.

Their skilled personnel will undertake to make sure that the French and Italian people who receive this food will know that a great many American people took a lot of trouble to gather it from their fields—as the Friendship label reads—"Bringing it to your doorsteps in the hope that it will tide you over until your own fields are again rich and abundant with crops."

THE AMERICAN WAY
There is another thing about this new instrument of foreign policy which is important. It fits into the American scheme of things. It's just as friendly as the individual American.

People traveling abroad can usually spot an American—largely because he's a friendly person. He likes to get along with others, talk with people, wants people to like him. He acts this way abroad because he acts the same way at home.

The Russian government, on the other hand, is anything but friendly. Its tactics in the satellite countries behind the iron curtain are terroristic, not friendly. Wherever the Russian government has gone, it has left a trail of resentment. The Russian people, as individuals, are warm and friendly, not unlike Americans. But the people of Russia, unfortunately, aren't running their government.

So the present American foreign policy of friendship is just as simple as baseball. It's to hit where the other fellow ain't. The other fellow's government, in this case, isn't friendly and we are.

That's the main thesis behind the Marshall plan for helping Europe. And that's the main objective of the Friendship train by which the American people, far ahead of their Congress, are already showing that doing unto others as we would have them do unto us is the American way of making democracy live.

What Can We Do About This Matter?

By FRANK GRIMES
Herald Special Writer

A week from tomorrow the 80th congress convenes for the consideration of two major problems: (a) what to do about helping Europe through the winter and (b) what to do about stopping runaway inflation in this country.

Other matters, including a third GOP filing at tax reduction and the final form of the Marshall plan, will be injected into the proceedings; but the cost of living here and the immediate relief of a hungry Europe will get first call, both being in the nature of emergency business.

All these matters are parts of a whole, the whole question of postwar adjustments and the general peace settlement.

Our lawmakers have difficult and delicate tasks before them, and the country might well set aside a day of prayer for the success of their undertakings. We might pray, in particular, that God give them the strength and the wisdom to put aside thoughts of the 1948 election long enough to grapple with problems infinitely more important. Knowing politics as we do, we know that only the power of God could turn politicians into statesmen overnight, and in asking Him to work this miracle we feel that we would be imposing an unjust burden on the Almighty.

If ever the country stood in need of far-seeing and unselfish statesmanship, that time is now; for if we take the wrong turning, if we fail to meet our responsibilities manfully, if we let selfishness and blind ignorance dominate our national thinking and doing, we run the risk of losing the precious heritage of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

We took the wrong turning after the first world war, and thereby contributed an unholy part that set the stage for the most recent conflict.

In the midst of the last war we vowed we should never make the same mistakes again, but we have been making them nevertheless. Our first and most tragic mistake was in throwing away our military might, which could have been the most stabilizing influence in the postwar world. After all the bitter experiences of the past, we are again practicing shogun diplomacy with nothing but a peashooter military service to back it up.

If congress can't work out a sensible plan for a major contribution to the present assistance and ultimate stabilization of Europe; if it can't devise ways and means of slowing down and turning back the outrageous price inflation which is building up to a mighty bust; if it can't keep its itching fingers off the tax structure long enough to make at least a dent in our mountainous national debt—if it can't do any of these things; if it could at least repair some of the damage done to our military establishment.

We should do whatever is necessary to build our air forces into the greatest on earth, instead of its present behind-the-eight-ball condition. We should acquire and develop strategic air bases in every corner of the world, swapping financial and economic assistance for landing rights.

We should build our army up to its authorized strength of 1,070,000 men. (It is far below that today.)

And finally, we should have a universal military training law enacted and functioning within the next six months.

In the present unsettled state of the world, a state that shows every sign of getting worse rather than better, it is inviting national suicide to neglect our military preparedness. At least half the potency of our diplomatic maneuvers is lost because it is not backed up by a mighty military force-in-being. Russia and her satellites today possess at least four fifths of the organized and operable military strength on the globe. If you don't think this fact figures in Russia's calculations and in her bold maneuvering and her outrageous insults flung at this country, you are blind indeed.

So let us hope congress tackles the nation's problems prayerfully and manfully. It may not be possible to wave a wand over Europe and snatch it from decay and enslavement, but at least it's possible to put our own house in order and prepare our strength against the wrath to come. If we can save Europe, the demand on our strength will be much smaller. If we can't save Europe, we'd better be building the mightiest military establishment the world has ever seen, and pray that it is big enough.

The Nation Today—James Marlow

Communists And Our Constitution

WASHINGTON, (U)—Here's an ABC on the No. 1 stopper to the present talk of outlawing the communist party.

That stopper is the right of you, or any individual, to say what you think, worship any God you choose, or join any political party you wish.

That right is guaranteed by the first amendment to the U. S. constitution. It's the cornerstone of living in this country.

Under the protection of that first amendment, the communist party has existed in this country for years.

The number of people in the party—party members are accepted pretty carefully—has been large.

Total membership in the party—including now—probably has never numbered more than 100,000.

That figure doesn't show the full strength of the party. Thousands of people, not party members, are sympathizers or fellow-travelers.

For years, operating under protection of the first amendment, communists here have criticized the government and system.

For years, in turn, the communists have been attacked and denounced. But the attacks on them never have been so strong as now.

Anti-communist feeling is so strong now that there's talk of outlawing the party altogether, in spite of the constitution.

Critics of the communists say the communists are a special problem and don't deserve the protection of the constitution.

But why, after all these years, talk of outlawing them now?

Here's why: Right now there's tension between this country and communist Russia. Talk of war floats around.

Critics of the communists—they include people who really fear communism and those who for their own reasons hate it—argue:

1. Communists want to overthrow this government by force. Once they did, they'd wipe out the constitution and all the freedom it guarantees.

2. So why permit them to get the protection of the constitution to come to power only to destroy it when they got there?

(The communist party constitution doesn't say anything about taking over by force. But, then, it hardly would say that.)

2. In case of war with Russia, American communists would be loyal to Russia and work inside the U. S. as a Russian fifth column.

So why permit any organization to exist here if it might be a big help to an enemy in wartime?

3. American communists are really agents of the Russian communists. Moscow pulls the strings. They can't be trusted from day to day.

The Supreme Court has never given an opinion saying American communists were Russian tools.

But American communists carefully don't criticize Russian aims or views although they're free with criticism of this government.

Critics of American communists point to the case of the Canadian citizens who, sympathetic to communism, recently stole the Canadian government secrets for the Russians.

But all this gets around to the No. 1 point mentioned in the first paragraph of this story:

1. The right of an individual or a group, guaranteed by the constitution, to say what they think or join any political party.

Is that a right that can be taken away at any time? Or is it an unchanging thing?

Do we let a group enjoy the constitutional guarantees only so long as that group remains small and there's no danger from it?

And then, if that group grows stronger or there's danger of war, take away those guarantees for that group?

If so, is freedom under the constitution only a name or a luxury which we give to the weak but withhold from the strong?

And, if the communist party can be denied those constitutional guarantees today, may not some religious group lose them tomorrow?

But—and this is a point on which many sincere and honest people break their teeth—should we let this happen?

Should we give full protection of the constitution to a group if, through that protection, it could come to power and then destroy the constitution?

HOLLYWOOD, (U)—Bing Crosby and Barry Fitzgerald, who twice have rung the box-office bell with screen appearances together will try it again.

Barry, now in "Sainted Sisters," said he hopes his next will be with Croz and suggested "maybe we could be lawyers in the next one." A stone's throw away on the "Conn. Yankee" set, Bing told me Paramount was plans for them, but not along legal lines. In their next, to be made in 1948, Barry will portray an Irish merchant and the crooner will be an American insurance investigator sent to Eire.

Linda Darnell as "Lydia Bailey"? The Dallas gal may portray the Kenneth Roberts heroine after "Walls of Jericho," if the novel can be filmed without too great cost. Execs at 20th-Fox want to make it at half the cost of "Amber," which ran about $6,000,000. Locations would be at Haiti and Linda is eager to go. She's yearning for work after her six-month vacation.

When Ray Milland returned from Europe he found 32 sacks of fan mail waiting for him in his dressing room. Ray, who starts "Sealed Verdict" in two weeks assures that he won't be the Paramount workhorse any more. "I'll just get 'sick' like the others do," laughed hard-working Ray.

"The Iron Curtain," 20th-Fox film of Russian espionage in Canada, is slated to start Dec. 8 in Ottawa, and the studio will try to rush it to the screen while the topic is still hot. Dana Andrews would like to be in the picture, but it starts the day after he finishes "Deep Water."

Besides, Mrs. Andrews expects their fourth child in January, and he'd like to be around.

Texas Today

So you have two weeks off, a limited budget, and you want to go to Havana for your vacation. Well, go ahead. It's easy for Texans. You not only can make the Havana trip, but also take in Guatemala in your two-week holiday.

Just to give you an idea, we'll let you look at our check stubs and photograph album—we just got back from such a jaunt.

First you contact a steamship line. (We took a United Fruit company banana boat.) Arrange for the tour. Ships leave on the 11-day Cuba-Guatemala cruise every Saturday noon.

Then drive to New Orleans, and have a good time in that colorful city for a day and a night. You can't beat the Latin quarter there for gayety.

Catch the ship at noon Saturday, and your fun increases. Your cabin is a lot better than you'd expect. The boat will be carrying bananas on its return trip, but until bananas enter the picture, people are important—the passengers, that is.

The food is wonderful, and the big menus have no price marks after any item—you order everything, if you want it, and it won't cost a cent because food is figured in on the tour cost (about $200 per person).

The Gulf is usually calm and you won't get seasick. None of our party did. Flying fish will begin rippling the water the first day out. The air is crisp and invigorating.

And that first glimpse of Morro Castle as you edge up to Havana at dawn is a sight you'll never forget Morro Castle, near where the Battleship Maine was sunk.

Then comes a round of shore excursions, with the ship your hotel. The shore trips are worth the $5 or $6 each you'll pay for them. You see all Havana has to offer. (The fee even includes night club cover charges).

You leave Havana and head for Guatemala, in the Caribbean. You pass British Honduras, Yucatan peninsula, other mainland points and islands.

You land at Puerto Barrios, Guatemala, and spend two exciting days and nights in the little banana republic. You make trips inland on narrow gauge railroads, through banana plantations and tropical foliage so thick you couldn't walk through it, up mountains to hidden pools where you can swim and cool off.

After the ship is loaded with bananas (millions of them!) you head for New Orleans and home. A leisurely, relaxing two days on the ship, usually sufficient time to get the Cuba livres out of your system.

And so we say farewell to Havana and Guatemala, nestling in the tropical lands south of the Gulf.

But not yet. We're going to backtrack and let you look at Havana, and other points of interest. Don't go away.

Cosden Heads Are Off For Oil Meeting

High officials of Cosden Petroleum Corp. left Friday for Chicago, Ill. to attend the annual meeting of the American Petroleum Institute.

Heading the group from Cosden were R. L. Tollett, president and general manager. Others making the trip are Marvin Miller, vice-president in charge of distribution; George Grimes, refinery superintendent; Doug Orme, transportation manager; Nelson Phillips, Dallas, general counsel; Emby Kaye, Tulsa, Okla., consulting engineer.

Tollett is a member of the API committee on public relations operations, the pipeline transportation committee and is on the board of counselors. He also is a member of the Transportation Association of America, which will hold its annual luncheon and election of officers on Wednesday afternoon, at the conclusion of the API sessions. On Monday he attends the executive board meeting of the Western Petroleum Refiners association, of which he is vice-president. Tollett and Orme will continue to Toronto, Canada to confer with officials of the British-American company on tank car problems and return to New York for a meeting of the Cosden board of directors on Nov. 17. Orme will return by way of Philadelphia on business while Tollett is to pause for conferences in Washington, D. C., Atlanta, Birmingham, Ala. and New Orleans before returning to his office the latter part of the month.

GET ADVICE — Larry Parks and Rita Hayworth (above) get a word of advice from James Gleason in "Down to Earth" opening today at the Ritz theatre.

Hayworth Has Role Of A Goddess In Attraction At Ritz

Titan haired Rita Hayworth has the role of a goddess in the unusual Technicolor production "Down to Earth" which begins today at the Ritz Theatre. Starring with Rita in the male romantic lead is Larry "Jolson Story" Parks, who's really hit the big-time as was predicted. Rita dances with handsome Marc Platt, goes dramatic with Roland Culver and George Macready, has fun with James Gleason and Edward Everett Horton, finds a rival in luscious Adele Jergens; but mostly she's making with the many Hayworth charms at young Mr. Parks, who needs little urging to respond. That refreshing book presents a love story with an inspired touch that you simply must see for yourself. Suffice it to say that Rita is the star of a Broadway production highlighting the lives and loves of a lovely goddess. Miss Hayworth insists that the role should be played one way. Mr. Parks, who just happens to be the producer of the show, insists that it should be played another. One episode follows another as the two debate the merits of their own interpretation of the role, until the breathtaking climax when Miss Hayworth takes matters into her own lovely hands and... But what happens next would be telling, folks, and we just can't do that. You'll have to learn the answer yourself, and you'll certainly have an enjoyable time doing it. Of the many spectacular dance routines staged by Jack Cole, one in particular, the Gramercy Park routine, is a masterpiece of rhythmic magic. The music is from the accomplished team of Allan Roberts and Doris Fisher. "Down to Earth," a Don Hartman production, owes much of its success to its capable director, Alexander Hall.

Legion Is On Lookout For 'Name' Bands

Leading off with an Armistice Day dance on Tuesday, the American Legion has booked a number of "trial balloons" looking toward bringing nationally known dance bands to Big Spring. The Tuesday event, scheduled for 9 p. m. in the Legion Hut, will feature the music of Harrison's Texans of San Angelo. Facilities at the Legion Hut, H. P. Steck, commander, pointed out, will permit accommodation of a far larger number of couples than in most places in this area. Thus, name bands might be brought here without necessity of almost prohibitive prices. Leonard King and his orchestra have been booked for Dec. 6, and Danny Daylong and his orchestra for Dec. 13. Both these bands, while small, have proved popular at Lubbock, Abilene, and Odessa. All net proceeds from these affairs will go toward redecoration of the clubhouse, which was formerly the officers club at the bombardier school. Plans call for ultimately making the hut here one of the finest in the state, said Steck.

Scott And Francis Head 'Daltons' Cast

The vivid story of the Dalton gang which terrorized Kansas and the surrounding territory in the middle of the last century is retold in "When the Daltons Rode" coming to the State screen today. The cast is headed by such well known stars as Randolph Scott, Kay Francis, Brian Donlevy and George Bancroft. The action of this fast moving western has been tempered by well played comedy and an underlying theme of romance.

HCJC Will Hold First Open House

Residents of Howard county will be special guests Monday at 8 p. m. when open house, the first for the institution, is observed at Howard County Junior College.

Formalities will begin with a brief address at that hour in room 508 (the speech and music room) by Elizabeth Koch, National Education Association representative for Texas. There will be a brief interlude of music before those attending are conducted on a tour of inspection of the college plant, said E. C. Dodd, president.

Among points of interest will be the science laboratories, representing an investment of approximately $20,000; the industrial education shop; the library, which has acquired more than 1,800 volumes in little more than a year; the cafeteria; classrooms; administrative offices and the gymnasium. Preceding the open house affair, the Howard County Schoolmasters club will have a dinner affair at the college at 7 p. m., with Miss Koch as the honoree. Student guides and faculty members will be posted throughout the plant to answer any questions visitors may have. Board members also are due to be present for the occasion.

PHARMACOLOGIST PERFECTS AN AMAZING FORMULA FOR SICK PEOPLE

Works Quickly To Overcome Conditions Which May Have Been Causing Untold Misery Over A Long Period of Time aided many people back to better health.

It has been found by researchers that many physical discomforts often arise from the accumulation of poisonous waste matter in the system and from the lack of certain health-giving elements supplied in plants by nature.

Penicillin is made from mold, a plant growth; serums are made from animals raised on grass grown in mineral rich soil.

A pharmacist has now perfected an amazing formula for sick people which contains 25 ingredients—mostly herbs, roots and other plant growths of mother nature. This medicine, called Merto, gives you the needed ingredients to help tone up your system; eliminate poisonous waste matter and supply the health and energy giving ingredients so necessary to your well-being so that you can go about your daily tasks with a new feeling of energy.

This medicine goes to work quickly to help overcome the torturing pains of rheumatism. It tones the bowels into a more rhythmic action. Gas and bloating, indigestion, sour stomach are quickly relieved. Kidney and bladder troubles are helped so that the annoying, broken rest from having to get up frequently at night is lessened. Dizziness and run-down feeling is overcome quickly. Merto can be taken by every member of the family. It contains no narcotics, opiates or calomel and will not make you sick or nauseate you in the slightest degree. You can now get Merto from all well stocked druggists in Texas in 8 ounce bottles.

Man's greatest blessings have come as a result of painstaking research. For years researchers have been finding new alleviation for the ills of mankind; new hope for the miserable. Pasteur, Koch, Lister, Madam Curie and many other great medical minds, since the time of Hippocrates, "Father of Medicine," have contributed their share to science, that we may live longer and in greater comfort. Since the time that medical history was first recorded research has discovered new diseases and the way to control them. Pharmacology too, has contributed its share to scientific advancement and proprietary medicine has

District Boy Scout Board Will Meet

A meeting of the district Boy Scout committee has been called for Monday noon at the Settles by Champ Rainwater, district chairman.

At the luncheon session reports will be heard from the nominating committee, and plans will be made for the annual meeting to be held in December.

At the annual meeting, committeemen for 1948 will be selected.

Harold Steck Will Speak At Seminar

Harold Steck, district manager for Fidelity Union Life Insurance company, will be one of the speakers on the program of the company's fall training seminar which will begin in Mineral Wells on Nov. 19.

His subject is re-adjustment income through an insurance estate. Purpose of the meeting is to inform agents of current trends and developments affecting insurance policies, such as taxes, beneficiaries and settlement options.

Oil Lands Will Be Up For Lease

One hundred and 16 tracts in Andrews, Crane, Crockett, Reagan, Irion, Pecos and Ward counties will be up for lease at the 21st public auction of the university oil lands.

The auction will start at 10 a. m. at the Stephen F. Austin hotel in Austin on the appointed date. Booklets with full details of the available tracts may be obtained from the office of Bascom Giles, state land commissioner.

Christmas Seals To Be Sent Out Early This Year

Business firms in Big Spring will receive Christmas seals early this year, officials of the Howard County Tuberculosis Association, reported Saturday.

Heretofore, seal supplies have been mailed to local stores at the same time they were submitted to individuals. However, many store managers requested that their seals be delivered in time for use on December statements to their respective customers.

The Tuberculosis Association will hold a meeting within the next few days to arrange for packing and mailing of seals to individuals in the city and county. The annual Seal sale begins officially on Nov. 24 and continues through Dec. 24.

VA Man To Confer With HCJC Vets

U. B. Pratt, representing the Veterans Administration office in Big Spring, is to confer Monday with veterans enrolled in the Howard County Junior College.

His visit to the school will concern itself primarily with checking into cases where veterans have not yet received subsistence checks. A precursory check Friday revealed that the vast majority of servicemen who are students at the college are getting their checks satisfactorily, said E. C. Dodd. However, in the cases where trouble has been encountered, Pratt will seek to locate and solve the trouble.
