LESSON FOR OCTOBER 16

PAUL WRITES TO THE CHRISTIANS AT CORINTH.

LESSON TEXT—1 Cor. 1:10, 11; 12:1-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity.—1 Cor. 13.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—John 13:24, 25; Rom. 12:9-10.
PRIMARY TOPIC—How to Show Our Love.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Love Does.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Letter to the Church at Corinth.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Some Problems of an Early Church.

1. Party Spirit in the Corinthian Church (1:10, 11).

In this church rival factions were contending against each other. Some were for Paul, some for Apollus, some for Peter, and some for Christ. The cause of this condition was failure to see that the membership composing His body cannot be divided. By one Spirit all were baptized into the one body (12:13).

2. Love the More Excellent Way (1 Cor. 13:1-13).

All of the Spirit's gifts are good, but the most valuable of all is love. Not all can preach or interpret tongues, but all can have the gift of love. Love in this chapter is the more excellent way of chapter 12:31.

(1) The Pre-eminence of Love (vv. 1-3). It transcends (1) speaking with tongues. For men to possess the loftiest eloquence and be lacking in love is to be as booming brass and clanking cymbal.

(2) The gift of prophecy—the ability to unfold mysteries. To be able to penetrate the mysteries of nature and providence is good, but to love is better.

(3) Faith of the most vigorous kind, even such as to remove mountains, is of less value than love.

(4) Philanthropy of the most generous sort, causing one to surrender all earthly goods for the sake of the poor is praiseworthy, but unless actuated by love is valueless before God.

(5) Heroic devotion which leads to martyrdom is praiseworthy unless backed by love.

2. The Attributes of Love (vv. 4-7).

(1) It is long-suffering and kind.

(2) It is free from envy. Those who love are entirely free from the spirit engendered because of the superior worth and success of others.

(3) It is free from boasting and vanity. Love strives to do good to all and is not careful to seek their admiration and applause.

(4) It is decorous. Love is always polite and mannerly; knows how to behave at all times.

(5) It is unselfish. It is always seeking the good of others and is forgetful of self.

(6) It does not give way to passion. It does not allow itself to be aroused to resentment. It is not quick-tempered.

(7) It takes no delight in evil, does not impute evil motives to others; is not suspicious. It is forgiving. Love has no sympathy with that which is evil, but sympathizes with that which is true; has a common joy with it.

(8) It beareth all things. It wraps itself in the gracious mantle of love and shuts all evil out.

(9) Love is trustful; it looks into the future with confidence.

(10) Love is hopeful; it seizes the things of the future and brings them into the present, appropriating them for its use.

(11) Love is firm. It is free from vacillation. It intelligently sets its attention to things that are right and with unvarying strength holds fast.

3. The Permanence of Love (vv. 8-13). (1) It outlasts prophecy. Prophecy in the Scriptures means both a foretelling of events and the teaching of the Word of God. Prophecy as prediction shall be fulfilled; prophecy as teaching shall be brought to an end in that day when teaching is not needed (1 Heb. 8:11; Jer. 31:34).

(2) It outlasts speaking with tongues. The race once spoke the same language, but as a judgment for sin and rebellion God brought confusion and caused the people to speak

WHAT ABOUT THIS?

Last week there were two salesmen in town soliciting job printing for printing plants in other towns, knocking the home printer in more ways than a farmer could come to town, and selling his product for higher prices than it would cost to have the work done at home.

As for equipment this plant is prepared to do the work for most any kind of printing that is used in Santa Anna, and what we are not prepared to do ourselves we can order from reliable houses, at a saving to the customer, for the people we order from do not have to pay these high priced salesmen to travel over the country and sell their product, but instead, they just pay us that commission for representing them, so when you want printing it will be a saving to you to take the matter up with us, and, if we are not prepared to do the work ourselves, we can save you money on the job and get a small amount out of it for our trouble.

Several of the houses the salesmen called upon gave them no business, but saved their work for the home printer, which was very commendable in them, but a few of our business men placed orders for printing to be done in other cities. These same men expect a local newspaper man to boost home trade, cuss out the mail order houses and encourage people to trade at home, then want to send their work out of town. Well, it takes all kinds of people to make up a world, but some of them have always been a puzzle to us?

The management of the News are numbered among the local citizens who live in this town, and are working almost day and night for the building up of our town, and our efforts will not cease because some of our business men see fit to have their printing done out of town, we will just move right on and make the best of it we can on the amount of business we get, without slinging any mud at those who are so unthoughtful as to let some of their work be done by out of town printers, but we do appreciate a loyal supporter who respects the business interest of the local printer in his home town. Don't forget the News is prepared to take care of your printing needs and can deliver you as good work and quick work as any printery in the state, and we will meet any legitimate prices.

Miss Mattie Simmons was married to Mr. J. C. Bair of Ballinger last Sunday morning at the home of Rev. T. W. Davidson, Rev. Mr. Davidson officiating. Shortly after the marriage the party left for Ballinger where Mr. Bair is in business, to make their future home.

S. W. Puckett of Corpus Christi is here on business this week. Mr. Puckett lived in these parts for fifteen years and still has the nerve to come back.

many tongues. The day is coming when the redemption wrought by Jesus Christ shall have been accomplished in all its fullness; all nations shall be brought back to one tongue.

(3) It outlasts knowledge. The knowledge we now have is only relative, but the day is coming when this relative knowledge shall be done away by the coming in of a wider and nobler intelligence; the twilight shall be lost in maturity, for at Christ's coming we shall see Him face to face and shall be like Him. Love will always abide, for God is love.

The Search for God.

The search of men for God has been an age-long search. Throughout the centuries men have groped in darkness with the cry "Show us God," the deepest hunger of the heart, and the deepest perplexity of the mind. When Phillips Brooks was called in to give some religious instruction to Helen Keller, spending her life in darkness and isolation, she greeted him with one sentence slowly spelled out. "Please tell me something that you know about God."—Wesleyan Christian Advocate.

GREAT THINGS ARE ACCOMPLISHED THROUGH ORGANIZED EFFORTS

From Baird comes the report of a splendid organization last week of the business men of that city, for the purpose of uniting their efforts to create some industrial energy for their town.

The Baird Star gives an account of the first meeting and estimates the attendance at fifty being present. The slogan adopted is "All for one, and one for all," for the interest of Baird.

Through such an organization great things can be accomplished for a city. New people can be brought to town, new industries can be established, consumption, production and a general increase in business can be created and brought about. Is it not worth the effort?

There are thousands of people in the world looking for suitable locations to build factories and open up new industries, and the eyes of the world are on Texas, and the town or place that can offer suitable surroundings, proper location with adequate water and fuel for industrial purposes, and especially material to be used in manufacturing necessary and useful commodities, can secure industrial plants by going after them and there is only one way to go after such business and that is through organized effort.

We do not say it because we live in Santa Anna, for we said it ten years before moving here, that Santa Anna has the natural resources to justify the building of a large city. The natural advantages here are wonderful and possibilities for Santa Anna's future are great. Great things can be accomplished here if the local citizens will go to work to bring such things about.

For instance, when a man buys a good cow, puts her in the lot and supplies her with plenty of rich feed, he can take his bucket, go out to the lot and squeeze out an abundance of good rich milk, but if he made no effort to milk the cow the valuable milk could never be used because the final effort to secure the milk had not been made.

We have here numerous natural formations that would prove valuable to the world if manufactured and put to use, but like they are now is like unto the cow that has never been milked. The milk is there but the cream can never be used until the cow has been milked. Let's get busy here in Santa Anna, organize a commercial organization among ourselves, go to work to advertise, what we have here to the world and get the cow milked.

Every time a new family moves to town business increases just a little bit more, and if we can locate Five, Ten or Fifteen hundred more families in this vicinity business will increase considerably and we can do it if we will go to work at the job.

We need not expect to get any milk by taking the bucket out on the prairie, sitting down and waiting for a cow to come along and back up to be milked, for good cows are not out looking for that kind of men. If we expect to get milk we must go after it and the same applies to business. Do you get us?

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bartlett of Ballinger were visitors in Santa Anna last Sunday.

Americanism is a good doctrine, but it doesn't always set well when preached by a man who talks with a foreign accent.

The man who "lives at home and boards at the same place" has not been loudest in complaints about the high cost of living.

Maybe they are called infant industries because they are always squalling for protection.

Don't be too hard on the fellows who play golf. They might play poker, which is worse.

Some of our worst citizens are very strict in their observance of the Sabbath day. They are in jail.

AT THE CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m., J. Frank Turner, Supt.

Let every member of the Sunday School be present.

Judge Lattimore will speak at the Tabernacle Sunday morning, in order that our people may hear him, we will have no preaching at 11 a. m. Judge Lattimore is a man very prominent in Church and State as well, and every one should hear him.

The pastor will preach at the evening service at 7:30. The Epworth League will meet at 6:45 p. m.

All are cordially invited to these services.

R. A. Crosby, Pastor.

NEXT SUNDAY TO BE A BIG DAY AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Next Sunday, October 16th, has been designated for Rally Day at the Baptist church and a special program has been arranged for the day.

Pastor Reynolds has appointed several committees to notify the various members to come and bring their families, and the public in general is invited to come and spend the day.

Judge O. S. Lattimore of Austin, one of our Supreme Judges, a layman and good speaker will address the congregation at the eleven o'clock hour and again some time in the afternoon.

A public dinner will be spread at the noon hour, and it is the special request of the committees in charge that all will bring a well filled basket and make this hour one to be much enjoyed.

Immediately after the noon hour a song service of some two hours has been arranged, and we expect to make this part of the service a real treat to those who love good singing. Come and join in the singing and make it a real success.

Much could be said pertaining to such meetings as we expect to have next Sunday, but most generally such meetings can never be described. Since the days of all day services and public dinners, there is something lacking in the hearts of the people. We hope the outcome of next Sunday will be such as to mark the returning of the "Good Old Days" of long ago, when people could come together and spend the day in singing, talking, praying and truly worshipping God in the old fashioned way.

Every member of the Baptist church in Santa Anna should consider that they owe something to the cause to make this day a success. Come and contribute your part to the work.

SANTA ANNA HOSPITAL NOTES

Mr. L. C. Kinser underwent a serious operation at the local Hospital last week. Mr. Kinser had the remarkable experience of walking around attending to business for some hours after his appendix had ruptured. He is resting well today.

Mr. Irvin Baggett of the Plainview community had an emergency operation at the local Hospital last Sunday. Irvin is one of the local High School pupils and his friends are delighted to know that he is on the road to recovery.

Mrs. S. W. Brame (nee Ellis) who is very pleasantly remembered by many of her old patients that she nursed here several years ago, is now in our local Hospital for treatment.

The friends of Mrs. J. W. Johnson will be pleased to learn that she is now improving.

Uncle Virge Cross, who suffered a broken hip some three weeks ago is now resting comfortably and expects to be out of the hospital in a few days.

Mr. J. L. Baker of the Liberty community had the misfortune to have his left arm broken near the shoulder and suffered other injuries as a result of the overturning of a buggy last Friday night. He was sent to the local Hospital by Dr. John Nichols of Bangs.

Miss Grace Lackey of Post City came in Sunday night to attend school here.

THE JOLLY "SOPHS" AND THEIR NEWS

We at last have shed our green dress and started into work with our minds made up to do good work, if the faculty will just let us have a little fun sometime. We believe that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, and we know by experience that all play and no work makes him a still "duller" boy.

The Sophomore class met Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of electing new officers for the year. The following were elected: Thady Caton, Pres.; Estus Polk, Vice Pres.; Robert Turner, Sec. Treas.; Bernice Freeman, Class Reporter; Social Committee, Thelma Martin, Chairman; Cleg Gassiot and Lida Smedley will assist her in the work.

We are planning for an excellent year of High School, and if we continue our conduct and work we ought not to be disappointed. What was the excitement in Algebra class Thursday morning? Ask Faye and Mildred.

The News has just mailed out over seven hundred circular letters to people who we want for subscribers, and in going so, we mailed to a few who were already subscribers, but our aim was to reach those who are not subscribers and try to interest them in their home paper. The result is very satisfactory, and we hope that all will take advantage of the offer and come in. We expect to place the News on a higher plane in the esteem of the local citizens, and we need the good will and co-operation of every citizen in the country to aid us in accomplishing our great task. A word to your neighbor who does not take the paper will be appreciated by the News force. Tell them of the proposition we are making and encourage them to subscribe and become regular readers.

Read the advertisements in this issue of the News and if you don't think you are well paid for your trouble come in and take one on the house. Several of our main advertising customers are not represented in this issue of the paper, but we want to encourage our readers to read the ads in each issue and look up the advertising customers when you come to town to buy your supplies.

This week it is our pleasure to bring our readers a real bargain message from the Rosenberg store in this city. This is the first Real Bargain sale we have had the pleasure of advertising since our advent in the city, and we feel sure without our calling your attention to this large double page advertisement, that hundreds will see it and take advantage of the opportunity to buy goods at the bargain prices they are offering in this sale.

WE DON'T KNOW

The chief of police of Chicago says one-half of the policemen in that city are booze runners or bootleggers or engaged in some manner in the illicit handling of booze.

Conditions may be as loose in other cities—we don't know.

They may be as bad in the less populated parts of the country—but still we don't know.

Even the man we meet on the street may have a flask in his pocket—and again we don't know.

But we do know that in the enforcement of prohibition Uncle Sam is up against the hardest job of his whole career.

It has been the boast of the proud old gentleman that he has never yet met defeat.

He may make good that boast in the present case, but—candidly, it will be a long time before we ever know.

GREAT IS TEXAS

"Texas" writes the author, "occupies all the continent of North America except the small part set aside for the United States and Canada. Texas owns all north of the Rio Grande, the only dusty river in the world, also the only one with possible exception of the Trinity which is navigable for mud cats and pedestrians.

"Texas is bound on the north by twenty-five or thirty states, on the east by all the oceans in the world except the Pacific and on the south by the Gulf of Mexico and South America, and on the west by the Pacific Ocean, the Milky Way and the sidereal universe.

"If Texas was chopped loose from the United States at the Panhandle it would float out into the ocean, as it rests upon a vast subterranean sea of fresh water.

"Texas is so big that the people in Brownsville call the Dallas people Yankees, and citizens of El Paso sneer at the people of Texarkana as being big snobs from the effete east.

"It is one hundred and fifty miles farther from El Paso, Texas to Texarkana, Texas, than it is from Chicago to New York City. Fort Worth is nearer St. Paul, Minn., than it is to Brownsville.

"Texans are so proud of Texas that they can't sleep at night.

"If a Texan's head were opened the map of Texas would be found photographed on his brain. This is also true of his heart. Unless your front gate is 18 miles from your front door you do not belong to society as constituted in Texas. Mrs. King's gate is 150 miles from her front door, and she is thinking of moving her house back so that she will not be annoyed by passing automobiles and peddlers.

"Other Texas landlords have whole mountain ranges and rivers on their ranches. One Texan has forty miles of navigable rivers on his farm. If the proportion of cultivated land in Texas was the same as in Illinois, the value of Texas crops would equal that of the other forty-seven states.

"Texas has enough land to supply every man, woman and child in the whole world with a tract five by twenty feet and have enough left over for the armies of the world to march around the border five abreast.

"Texas grows enough alfalfa, which if baled and built into a stairway, would reach the pearly gates.

"If the hogs in Texas were one hog he would be able to dig the Panama Canal at three roots.

"If all the steers in Texas were one steer, he could stand with his front feet in the Gulf of Mexico, one hind foot in the Hudson Bay, the other in the Arctic Ocean, and with his horns punch holes in the moon and with his tail brush the mist from the Aurora Borealis."—Ex.

The editor is in receipt of a Press Ticket to the Texas Cotton Palace at Waco, which opens October 22nd and closes November 6. A program of the proceedings was also inclosed. The Cotton Palace is not only amusing and entertaining, but real instructive and educating. The very best agricultural and livestock exhibits that can be found in the country are there to be seen; and one cannot help but be benefitted and elevated by visiting this great exposition. We will try to take advantage of the opportunity and attend.

THEY DO SPEED

If by chance you imagine our American women are lacking in speed, your imagination is clearly at fault.

Speed is one of their many long suits. In fact, they are becoming so speedy the men are gasping in amazement and consternation over the possibilities of the next fifty years.

Only a few years ago we laughed at the "absurd idea" of any woman ever being allowed to vote or hold public office on a par with men. But they are doing it now, and it doesn't seem to have sent either the country or the people to the bow-wows.

Now the women are preparing to have congress to amend the constitution in such a manner that they will be given equal rights and privileges and be placed on a par with man in every respect and in all things. In other words, if they are successful in their present undertaking the matter of sex will disappear entirely so far as it relates to rights, privileges and responsibilities.

That would mean the eligibility of women to become mayors, governors, congressmen, senators, judges, and even president of the United States.

No doubt the opposition will do some more laughing at their "presumption," but the laughter will not be so long, or loud, or hearty.

"Because, you know, we have the most charming, intelligent and progressive women in the world, and when they make up their minds to do a thing they just simply speed up—and it's done.

Prices on Dining Cars to be Reduced" says a headline. Yes, but few of us can afford to travel when we want to eat.

When daughter eats onions for supper it is a sign that she is not expecting company that night.

Herein: Fail Not, but have you before said Court on the said first day of the next term thereof this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

WITNESS L. Emet Walker, Clerk of the County Court of Coleman County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Coleman, Texas, this the 27th day of September, A. D., 1921.

(Seal) L. EMET WALKER, Clerk, County Court, Coleman County, Texas

We have decided to sell the Walters farm, providing we can get a reasonable offer for same. To those who are not acquainted with this farm it will pay you to look it over. Farm consists of 177 3-10 acres, about 126 acres in cultivation, all improvements would cost today at least $4,500.00, plenty of water. We think we have one of the best farms in the county, and the crops raised on it this year will show for itself. Will want at least two-thirds cash down and the balance could be carried for a term of five years at a reasonable rate of interest, but would not object to all being cash. Farm rented for this next year to J. B. Richardson.

If interested, and you wish to make a bonified offer for this place, write to G. C. Walters, Cameron, Texas, Postoffice Box 148.

Friday, October 14, 1921.

There are still a few men with mercantile aspirations who try to build up a lucrative business in the mercantile world without using newspaper advertising. They will never succeed for there is not a case on record where such has ever been done. A firm may stay in business and for a while hold their own, but the firm who advertises consistently and backs up their advertisements by giving service and delivering the goods will always be the ones to come out on top at the end. There is no argument against newspaper advertising, and one who tries to succeed in business by ignoring the newspapers will always fail, because the public gets tired going to places where they are not invited when the other places in town extend them a hearty invitation and cordial welcome. Who could blame them? That old saying about your friends will look you up is a joke, for they will only look you up when they want to find a quiet place to rest.

PROGRAM AT

Best Theatre

For Week Ending Saturday, October 22nd.

MONDAY NIGHT ONLY

"WHAT EVERY WOMAN LEARNS"

Starring three Paramount stars, Enid Bennett, Milton Sills and Theodore Roberts.

This drama is packed with excellent situations, which strike home to every audience. Miss Bennett in this production does what all critics have called the best acting of her career. A Burton Holmes Senic will be shown with this picture.

TUESDAY NIGHT ONLY

The famous Paramount Star, Charles Ray in "CROOKED STRAIGHT"

A little different from most of the Ray pictures, though made up of the same human elements. In it Ray is a country boy who comes to the city and through hunger turns crook, later he reforms and is living straight when finds he must turn crook again to save a friend. It's real and human all through with plenty of comedy. Charles Ray is the Star who appeared here in "The Egg Crate Wallop." It's a Thomas H. Ince Production. A Burton Holmes Senic reel will be shown with this Picture.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

Jane Novak and Lewis Stone in "THE RIVER'S END"

BY

James Oliver Curwood, the most famous writer for the screen in the world today. James Oliver Curwood is the author of "Isobel," the picture we are showing Saturday, the 15th. Sixty thousand copies of this story in book form have already been sold and to those who have read "The River's End," the picture will need no introduction. On the edge of civilization there are no traditions. There men meet life with all the strength of soul within them. That's why the greatest stories have always been written, not of the atrophied emotions of society, but of the virile people nearest the great outdoors. You'll see in "The River's End." A stirring tale of the Northwest Mounted Police. A tender and most unusual love match. A heart breaking chase across the snow wastes. An outlaw masquerading as an officer of the Royal Mounted. A murderer secreted in an opium den, and doped to shake his nerve. The burning of the opium den and the return to God's Country and love.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON and NIGHT

Eileen Sedgwick in 5th episode "TERROR TRAIL"
 Jack Sherrill and Ruth Clifford in 7th episode "THE INVISIBLE RAY"
 Snub Pollard comedy and Pathe News.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON AND NIGHT
"COLD STEEL"

A special production with an all star cast, with Harold Lloyd in "MOVE ON."
 Admission each night—17 and 28 Cents

COLEMAN COUNTY POULTRY SHOW

The date for the Coleman County Poultry Show has been fixed to begin November 17 and continue through the 19th, thus giving three days.

Arrangements are in progress to have at least one day devoted to the study of classing poultry for breeding purposes and culling them for laying qualities, this to be under the direction of recognized authority on poultry culture.

We invite every person in Coleman County to co-operate with us and assist in making this an event that will be appreciated by our own citizenship and at the same time show to the visitors that we are awake to one of the leading agricultural industries of the state.

Through the courtesy of the Wilson Motor Company we have secured the stone building used as a store room by them, for the display, hence wont be hindered by bad weather.

It is understood that the first prize to be offered is the modern poultry house now standing on the Court House lawn, other premiums of value are to be included of which a complete list will be announced soon.

Begin selecting your poultry and arrange to bring them to the show.

Entry charges will be as follows: 25c for single birds, $1.00 for pen consisting of four females and one male, $1.50 for flock consisting of fifteen birds any age or sex.

Turkey entries to be the same as chickens.

Coops for display will be furnished, and every head of poultry showing disease will be eliminated from the show.

For further information see or write R. C. Lockhart, Pres. Coleman County Poultry Association; or W. F. Robinson, County Agent, Coleman.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

On last Saturday evening at five o'clock little Edith Lowe gave a birthday party in honor of her ninth birthday.

The house decorations were ferns and pinks, the beautiful birthday cake held nine candles.

Those present to enjoy the occasion were Little Misses Lula Harvey, Tiny Parsons, Roxie Garrett, Evelee Bell, Evelyn Eck, Marion Polk, Mary Adams, Lois Adel Adams, Dorcelee Franklin, Ivy Brannon, Odel Brown, Sibel Ripley, Masters Lyn May, Reuben Fulton, Gerald and Ray Franklin.

PREPARE FOR A COLD ONE

An extremely cold winter is predicted—more severe than any we have had for many years past, they say.

If such is the case it would be wise for our home people to make preparation for it in advance, not only that our families live in comfort, but that the live stock and poultry may not suffer.

It would be well to go over the barns and poultry houses and close up all cracks and holes where the air could drift through, with the exception of the ventilation space, and that that should be covered with canvass. A poultry house lined with tar paper would be vastly warmer and the egg yield would be much more satisfactory.

With depressed business conditions prevailing generally it would be the height of folly to allow an extreme winter to render them worse when a little forethought and energy will provide against such possibility.

Do it before cold weather comes.
