CALL TO BAND BOYS

All who play in the Santa Anna Band, or are interested in the organization of a band in Santa Anna, are requested to meet over the Corner Drug Company in the Shield Building, Tuesday night, November 4th, at 7:30 o'clock. Be sure and come. Committee.

Rev. Joe Nation, student in the Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth, and Editor W. T. Curtis of the Central Messenger at Brownwood, were pleasant callers at the News office Monday. Rev. Nation was at one time the writer's pastor, and we esteem his friendship very highly. He was enroute home from Eldorado, where he spent Saturday and Sunday, considering a call extended him by the Baptist church of that good little city.

Prof. M. M. Sheffield called Friday and authorized his Santa Anna News changed to Wastella, Texas, where he goes to teach school the following term. The News is keeping an eye on young Mr. Sheffield, as well as a great many other of our splendid young people who are going out to teach school. We feel an interest in them and know that many of them do real service wherever they go.

DEATH OF MRS. SPRUELL

We are sorry indeed to learn of the death of Mrs. Spruell, wife of Dr. Spruell of Gouldbusk, who died Monday of this week, at her home at Gouldbusk.

Mrs. Spruell, who is better known to Santa Anna people as Miss Ella Cox, graduated from the Santa Anna High School in 1907. As a school girl she was loved by every one who knew her. She lived a beautiful Christian life and there will be many friends outside of her immediate family who will miss her and mourn the demise.

NEXT TUESDAY, NOV. 4, IS ELECTION DAY

Next Tuesday, November 4, is the day for the general election throughout the United States. Every citizen eligible should go out to the polls and vote. May we urge that you go to the polls and cast your vote regardless of who you support. Let your conscience be your guide and vote accordingly.

Plans are being perfected for a joint recital by Miss Lyda Gresham, Miss Edna Mackey, Williamson, Mrs. Ford Barnes and Cameron Marshall of Howard Payne College. Definite announcement of the date and place will be made in our issue of next week.

BAPTIST CHURCH TO HAVE RALLY DAY

During a conference at the Baptist church Sunday following the morning service, it was unanimously decided to have a Rally Day for the church, Sunday, November 9th.

The Baptist people of this town and community have built one of the best church buildings in recent years we have ever seen in a town no larger than Santa Anna, and many people have sacrificed—even until it hurt—in order that this magnificent monument to the sacred cause might be erected. But now the home stretch and the final completion of the splendid building must be made. The main auditorium of the building is in fine shape, but the basement, oh well, we can't explain it, and we fail to possess language to describe it, and about the only way we know to put it, it just must be fixed. There are about 200 children assembled in that basement every Sunday morning for Sunday School, and we pronounce it deplorable. This is not what we started out to say, but it was in our system and we could not get our thinking vocabulary to work longer until it was exploded, so there it is, if you can digest it, we feel relieved to some extent and will go our limit toward the fixing of the basement. Selah.

THE PRODIGAL SON—WORLD'S TEMPERANCE SUNDAY

LESSON TEXT—Luke 15:11-24.
GOLDEN TEXT—I will arise and go to my father.—Luke 15:18.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Story of a Father's Love.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Parable of the Prodigal Son.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Prodigal's Wanderings and Return.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Prodigals: Prevention and Rescue.

The center of interest in this parable is not the prodigal nor his brother, but the "certain man who had two sons." In this parable in a most picturesque and dramatic manner the history of man is portrayed, from his fall to his reconciliation with God. The whole orbit of revelation is swept as it pertains to a sinning race and a pardoning God. He who falls to see the heart of our Father God will miss the purpose of the parable.

I. The Son's Insubordination (v. 12). There is every indication that this was a happy home. But a devil entered it and stirred up discontent in the heart of the younger son. His desire for freedom moved him to wilfully choose to leave home—throw off the constraints of his father's rule. Sin is the desire to be free from the restraints of rightful authority and for selfish indulgence. At the request of the son, the father "divided unto them his living."

II. The Son's Departure (v. 13). Having made the fatal decision he went post-haste to the enjoyment of his cherished vision, so he got his goods in portable shape. Having thrown off the restraints of his father's rule he eagerly withdrew from his father's presence. This is always the way sin works. Adam and Eve after they had sinned hid themselves. The son could not now stand the presence of his father, so he hastened away.

III. The Son's Degeneration (vv. 13, 14). He had a good time while his money lasted, but the end came quickly. From plenty in his father's house to destitution in the far country was a short journey.

IV. The Son's Degradation (vv. 15, 16). He had no friends now to help him when his money was all gone; so he was driven to hire out to a citizen to feed swine. It was quite a change from a son in his father's house to feeding hogs in the far country. So it is; those who will not serve God are made slaves to the devil to do his bidding (Rom. 6:16). In his shame and disgrace he could not even get the necessary food. The coarse food of the hogs was denied him.

V. The Son's Restoration (vv. 17-24). 1. He Came to Himself (v. 17). When he reflected a bit he was made conscious that though he had wronged his father and ruined himself, yet he was a son of his father. In the days of his sinning he was beside himself. The sinner continues in his sin because he is insane. If we could but get sinners to think seriously of their condition it would be more easy to get them to turn from their sins.

2. His Resolution (v. 18). His reflection ripened into resolution. The picture of his home where even the hired servants had a superabundance, moved him to make a decision to leave the far country and go home.

3. His Confession (vv. 18, 19). He acknowledged that his sin was against heaven and his father—that he had forfeited his right to be called a son and begged to be given a place as a hired servant. The sinner not only should make a resolution, he should confess his sin.

4. His Action (v. 20). Action was needed. Resolution will not avail unless accompanied with action. When the confession is genuine, action will follow.

5. His Reception by His Father (vv. 20-24). The father had not forgotten his son. During these years he longed for his return. He must often have looked for him, for he saw him when he was a great way off. So anxious was he for him that he ran to meet him and fell upon his neck and kissed him. So glad was the father that he even did not hear his confession through, but ordered the tokens of honor to be placed upon him, receiving him back into a son's position. Then the feast was made, expressive of the joy of his heart. God is love, Jesus came to reveal God. This parable makes bare God's heart.

I would have blinding headaches and couldn't stoop about my work, just couldn't go. I used and it relieved me. "About eight years ago my wife got down with liver and stomach trouble. . . We tried all week to help her, . . . but she didn't get any better. One day I said to the doctor, 'I believe I will try Black-Draught, it helps my liver.' He said that I might try it and to follow directions. She was nauseated and couldn't eat or rest. She began taking Black-Draught and in two days she was greatly improved and in a week she was up. "Try Black-Draught. It costs only one cent a dose. Sold everywhere. E-99

Taking the Wash

While seeking an inspiration for a paragraph in this column we saw a boy passing our window, pulling a homemade wagon on which somebody's weekly washing was piled high in a tub. The boy was comfortably clad and had a clean face and a sunny smile. We don't know whether he was the washer-woman's boy or the son of the home to which the washing was being taken. In either case, he will answer for the paragraph. If the son of the washer-woman he may begin now to plan for the breaking of the fetters that bind his mother to the drudgery of the washtub. Could there be a nobler ambition for his youthful mind to fix upon? When he grows up he will slay the dragon of hard work that is stealing the roses from mother's check. Help her all you can now, lad, and free her entirely just as soon as you are able. If a boy is being sent from a well-to-do home on his weekly trip to the washer-woman's to bring home the clothes, then he is the son of sensible parents. Boys should be sent upon errands upon every opportunity. They should not be too proud to haul home the washing on a homemade wagon. Show me a boy who helps mother and isn't ashamed to be seen helping her and we'll show you a boy that will succeed in life's grim battle. Hauling a tub full of washing, either way, to or from, is a mighty good thing for mama's little lamb.

Business is fine in Santa Anna, especially with the merchants who have taken advantage of the opportunity and pushed their business in an advertising way. We just naturally feel an interest in the stores that are continually advertised in our columns. Their management believe in their business, believe in the country and believe in you. Let's not disappoint, but give them the benefit of our business.

The greatest happiness comes from living modestly, no matter how much money you have.

THREE GOOD STORIES

The Santa Anna News Magazine Section for November will feature three especially good articles. "The Battle of Dove Creek," written by Austin Callan, will be one of the three articles; the "Forestry of Texas," written by E. O. Siecke, State Forester, will be the second article, and "Chicken Raising for Pleasure and Profit," by Mrs. Margaret Stute, will be the third article.

"The Battle of Dove Creek," was fought in 1863 on Dove Creek, south of the Concho River, in Southwest Texas, between 300 white men and 900 Kickapoo Indians. The fight was a deplorable mistake, as the Kickapoos were peaceful Indians, passing through Texas on their way to Old Mexico to take up land for colonization purposes. The Indians were victorious in this battle, and had they followed up their military advantage, a repetition of the Custer massacre on the Little Big Horn would undoubtedly have taken place. Now is a good time to renew your subscription to the Santa Anna News. But, if you are not a subscriber, start your subscription now and you will get the issue which contains the interesting Dove Creek fight.

THAT BIG WORD—THINK!

Young man, if you aspire to be a boss you have got to be a good servant. If you have been through the ranks yourself, you understand what it means to be a good servant and you will not have any trouble being a boss when the time comes. Your men will follow you. You won't have to drive them. Intelligence is all that is needed and every normal person has a fair amount of it. Pick the thing you can do best, or think you can do best.

Think! People don't think enough. Think before you take a job. And above all, think after you go to work on that job. Then you won't have to change jobs. Change is a bad thing usually for both you and the job. Thinking makes changes unnecessary. Requirements are higher to day. But there are just as many opportunities for the boy who starts out to succeed. There are fewer get-rich-schemes. Boys must work for the so-called fat job. And if you follow the landing of these so-called fat jobs, you'll find the lander has been on the trail a long time; that it has been no overnight business. He's probably done more hard than easy things along that trail. Vision, stick-to-itiveness, courage, have gone into the making of it. And understanding of human nature.

This is an age when men who "think" are advanced to positions of responsibility.

Government employees in France are discontented with the salaries paid and it is proposed to grant an increase by reducing the number. Under the increased schedule salaries will range from $300 to $2,000 per annum. France ought to be saving money.

Eastern college students propose a debate on "Resolved That We Pity Our Grandchildren." And a hundred years hence their grandchildren will be pitying them.

How One Editor Proved That People Read the Ads— Convinced Merchants

So many customers were out of town on vacation that a merchant in a nearby town concluded that it wasn't worth while to continue his advertisement in the home paper. He knew the editor well and called him up and ordered out the ad. "I don't believe the people see it, anyhow," the pharmacist informed his friend the editor. The latter suggested that it might be well to change the copy, but the pharmacist had made up his mind.

The paper came out as usual, but following the editor's instruction, the illustration in the pharmacist's ad was upside down. That evening the editor strolled into the drug store and was immediately hailed by his friend.

"What's the idea of having that cut upside down in my ad," he inquired. "I told you to take out the whole ad."

"Well, you're probably the only one that noticed it," replied the editor.

"Is that so?" replied the pharmacist. "Why, I'll bet that fifty people have already called my attention to the change—asked me if I had seen it. A dozen customers brought their own papers to show me. Two women went to the trouble to call me on the phone about it. I didn't realize that so many people noticed my ad. You had better let it run and I will get up some new copy right away.—Ex.

Every day we meet faces on the streets of Santa Anna that we are not accustomed to seeing. These people, most of them live out some distance from town, and are attracted to Santa Anna because of her splendid cotton market and source of mercantile supplies. Often we hear them remark, they have come a long way to Santa Anna, but feel they have been fully compensated by reason of selling their cotton to advantage and making quite a saving on their purchases of fall and winter supplies of merchandise. This is the way it should be and the News is glad to carry the message.

JUDGE MAXEY ASKS A FEW QUESTIONS

Says Rev. Knickerbocker Asking Voters to Break Pledge

Sherman, Texas, Oct. 22—Saying that although he had been a reader of The Dallas News from its first issue, he had never before tried to break into its columns with political or other matter, Judge Rice-Maxeay Wednesday gave out the following statement:

In 1922 when George Peddy was making the race for United States Senator as an independent Democratic candidate, endorsed by the Republican party, against Earle B. Mayfield, the Democratic nominee, the Rev. Knickerbocker was pastor of the Methodist Church at Wichita Falls, and an ardent supporter of Mr. Mayfield. A few weeks before the election he turned his pulpit into a political rostrum (a thing that should have condemnation of every right-thinking man and woman) and, under the guise of preaching a sermon, made a political speech in favor of Mr. Mayfield. Though a political speech, speaking as he was from the pulpit, he felt compelled to take a text, and used the language of the Savior. He furnished the press with the manuscript of his speech which was published in The Dallas News on October 6, 1922, from which I quote:

"Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's." The vital point in that you can't render unto God the things that are God's unless you do render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's.

Soloman laid down the plank in this platform 3,000 years ago when he said, "The integrity of the upright shall guide them, but the perverseness of the transgressor shall destroy them."

"Let us apply now these great principles to one or two practical political matters upon which we as Christians are going to have to decide. First, there is a question of moral casuistry in the race for United States Senator, for which much has been said both pro and con. That question is a simple one: Is it morally right for a man to break the pledge with which he bound himself when he voted in the Democratic primary? I voted in the Democratic primary. On my ticket was printed these words: 'I will support the nominees of the Democratic party.'"

"That was a very large price for me to pay for the privilege of voting, for it would have indeed been a bitter experience to write James E. Ferguson's name on my ballot, but, so help me God, as an honest man, I would have done it even though the heavens fell."

"Nothing tends so much to moral confusion as the failure to define a deed in words that are clear-cut, unequivocal and strong. Therefore, I must confess that if I fail to carry out the pledge made as mentioned above, I would count myself just a simple, plain, everyday liar. And if I entered into a contract of this sort and then not only broke the contract, but went further and asked other men to break theirs, I would have to write my platform down in one simple plank, 'I am a liar, and I want the support of all liars like me.'"

Asks Questions
If in 1922 Jim Ferguson had been nominated and the Rev. Knickerbocker had voted against him in the general election he would have counted himself 'a simple, plain, everyday liar,' if he had been consistent and was now supporting the nominee what kind of a liar would he count one who went into the run off primary in 1924 and in the coming general election votes for the Republican candidate?

If in 1922 the Rev. Knickerbocker had not only broken his pledge but had gone further and asked others to break theirs as he is now doing, he would have written his platform "I am a liar and I want the support of all liars like me," if consistent what platform would he now write for those who went in the primary in 1924 and are now opposing the Democratic nominee and advising Democrats to break their pledge?

If Jim Ferguson had been nominated in 1922 the Rev. Knickerbocker "as an honest man, so help me God" would have voted for him "even though the heavens fell" because he had gone in the primary and pledged himself to do so, as an honest man what would be his position in 1924 and his advice to a Democrat who went into the primary between Felix Robertson and Mrs. Ferguson?

Of Democrats, and especially the good Christian women Democrats I ask whom will you follow when you go to the polls in November?

Will you follow the Rev. Knickerbocker of 1922, keep your pledge and be true to your moral obligation who in an open field fairly won the Democratic nomination, or will you follow the Rev. Knickerbocker of 1924, break your pledge, disregard your obligation of honor and vote for the Republican candidate and help turn Texas over to the Republican party?

Nearly 450 years ago the lookout on the Pinta sighted the land outposts of America after a most dangerous voyage. A few days ago a great power propelled balloon traveled the same ocean path at the speed of the fastest express trains without a stop or a mishap, making the 5,000 miles in 81 hours and 25 minutes. This airship was built by Germany and will cost the United States them sum of $2,200,000. It will carry 30 passengers and 15 tons of freight. Under the Versailles treaty it cannot be used for war purposes but, like the trip of the Shenandoah, it opens wonderful opportunities for passenger and commercial business.

If people could always feel optimistic and never become discouraged, imagine how pleasant this old world would be. We wonder sometimes why it is that stupidity comes over us and we find ourselves all undone, discouraged and full of gloom. Then we come to our better sense of realization, we know that there are no lasting days in this life, and perfect peace, contentment and happiness are only to be enjoyed in the world that is to come. Then it is we renew our efforts, continue our struggles and look through faith to better things to follow in another world.

The News takes pleasure in boasting Santa Anna. We realize that Santa Anna is not the only town on the map, but in so far as we are concerned, it is one of the best towns on the map for several reasons. We have some of the biggest stores, best and cleanest stocks of merchandise, safest and most congenial banking institutions, purest water, best schools and churches, and best system roads leading to our city of any town on the map, and we could say twice as much and truthfully say "The Half Has Never Yet Been Told." Come and see!

We have received so many compliments on our paper here of late, we just cannot think of words sufficient to express our gratitude. We confess that we have put our whole life into the work, and have exerted every effort to furnish you a local newspaper of the live class, but we do not claim all the laurels for making the Santa-Anna News one of the best weekly newspapers printed in the Southwest, for such can only be done in a real good town. Every subscriber and advertising customer of the News have had a part in helping us to publish a real live paper in your midst. We think we have the finest set of people here of any place in the world, and the patronage we have enjoyed fills us with a still greater desire to give you the best that is within us. Such people deserve the best and here's hoping you will never be disappointed.

COOLIDGE CERTAIN OF DEFEAT SAYS COMMITTEEMAN

"It is absolutely certain that Coolidge is already defeated," is the assertion made by C. W. Jurney, for many years secretary to former Senator Chas. A. Culberson and now occupying a similar position with Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York.

"This conviction is expressed in a letter to Judge John L. Young of Dallas, Associate Director of Finance for Texas, Democratic National Committee."

Mr. Jurney, a Texan, who long has been in touch with the national political pulse, wrote Judge Young as follows:

"There is no question about Coolidge's defeat, for Davis has 206 sure votes and LaFollette 60, which makes 266 of a majority of the electoral college which makes it utterly impossible for Coolidge to win there."

"The only question is whether Davis in the remaining weeks can get a clear majority in the electoral college, or whether the contest will go to the House, but in either event, he is certain of selection either in the electoral college or in the House."

"You can put it down that it is going to be President John W. Davis after March 4, for if he fails of a majority on Nov. 4, he will get a majority in the House. There will be a joint session of the House and Senate on the second Wednesday in February, 1925, to count the vote. This falls on February 11, next year, and if nobody receives a majority after the vote is canvassed, the House will then proceed to the election of a President and there is no question that, if it goes that far, Coolidge will be entirely out of it and the only question will be whether it will be Davis or Bryan. There is no doubt in the mind of anyone in Washington about the result in that sort of contingency, for the Republicans would solidly vote for Davis before they would let Bryan have it. The Democrats are going to win in one of these two ways."

"In the 206 sure votes for Davis that no one can take away from him are not included those of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Indiana, Ohio or Illinois, and he has a fine chance to pick up sixty votes in these States and get a clear majority in the college."

"Regarding the situation in New York, Coolidge will lose one million votes on Nov. 4, which went to Harding four years ago. Four hundred thousand of these, the German block, are going to vote for LaFollette. A hundred thousand block, the negro vote, is going to be for Davis on account of his opposition to the Ku Klux Klan. A block of three or four hundred thousand Jewish and Italian votes is going to be divided between Davis and LaFollette on account of the new Republican immigration law."

"Tammany is more interested in putting Davis over than it has been in any National campaign since Tilden, in 1876, and it can be depended upon that the Democracy of New York and the state is going to vote to the limit. Davis has helped himself greatly by his wonderful campaign, and with the help of Al Smith, I believe we are going to carry New York. If we do, New Jersey, Connecticut and Rhode Island will swing in line."

Note—the above sounds interesting and would be still more interesting if we could muster up courage to believe it, but some how, we guess our name or't to be Thomas?

A very interesting meeting of the Sam Davis Chapter of the U. D. C. was held in the home of Mrs. W. R. Kelley on October 26. Several new members were reported and delegates were appointed to attend the State Convention which meets in Houston in December. The following Confederate Veterans were elected as honorary members of the Chapter: L. C. Pierce, J. L. Dodgen, Jim Bartlett, W. M. Newman, W. L. Close, H. W. Kingsbery, J. H. McKinney. After the business session a very interesting program was rendered. The Chapter then adjourned to meet with Mrs. E. P. Ewing on Nov. 28.

STAR TELEGRAM'S HOME BEAUTIFUL

Light Crust Flour Ready in Pantry

Unlike the old woman's experience, the pantry will not be bare when they open the Electrical Paradise on Tulsa Way in Strathmore. The Burriss Mill and Elevator Company has taken care of that. It will place a sack of the finest grade of flour manufactured by the concern in the pantry. It will be of "Light Crust" quality. And if the occupants of the house, if there are any when the house opens, desire delicious biscuits, Burriss flour will fill the bill.

With the flour there, the rest would be easy. The electrically operated oven would produce the light, brown-crust dainties in a wag of the sheep's tail and the smacking of collective lips would be the next thing on the program.

Texas Mercantile Company has sold the Light Crust Flour for twelve years in Santa Anna, and Light Crust has given more universal satisfaction than any flour we ever sold. Every sack of Light Crust flour guaranteed to satisfy or money back. If we bought this flour today we would have to get $2.40 a sack, but for a few days we will sell Light Crust for $1.85 the sack, saving of 55c. Try a sack of Light Crust quality flour. The Burriss Mill and Elevator Co., of Ft. Worth has been making Light Crust Flour for 41 years, and stand behind every sack sold. TEXAS MERCANTILE CO.

REVIVAL AT ARMORY CONTINUES WITH INCREASED INTEREST

Tent shows evidently are not the only attractions in Santa Anna. The old-fashioned Gospel still has a mighty attraction for men, women and children is evidenced by the large crowds attending the Max A. X. Clark evangelistic campaign each night at the Armory. And the fellow who said the revival would soon peter out has been badly repudiated the past week.

Evangelist Clark's clear-cut presentation of the Gospel of salvation and healing is winning favor, especially with those people who believe that religion should be more than skin deep—that it should go down into the heart in order to produce fruit for the kingdom of Christ.

Last Sunday, sixty young people motored over from Coleman to attend the Clark rally in the afternoon. Under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. Clark and Elder D. D. Derrick of Coleman, a parade was formed in front of the Armory and marched down Main street. A brief open-air service was staged in the down town section in which fully a hundred persons participated.

Tuesday evening, after an inspiring song service led by the Rev. Derrick and little daughter, Miss Ernestine, a sermon on the subject of "Making Life's Choice" was given by Mrs. Derrick.

Quite a number of sick people have been anointed with oil and prayed for in the Clark meetings. Among those claiming to have been healed or benefitted through the ministrations of the evangelist is Mrs. Emma Wilson of this city who has been a sufferer from eczema for 25 years. After being prayed for at a recent meeting in the Armory, Mrs. Wilson testifies she has been able to sleep soundly and that the sores on her body and limbs are rapidly disappearing. Another case is that of W. E. Melton who was brought to the meeting by relatives. He was unable to walk without assistance, he testifies, that after being prayed for by Mr. Clark was able to stand up and walk. A few meetings later, to show his enthusiasm for divine healing, this man danced a jig around the altar in the Armory.

In addition to the regular services each night at the Armory, an open air rally will be conducted in the down town district Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Fully a hundred persons, old and young, are expected to take part in the demonstration. A service especially for children and young people will be conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Clark at the Armory preceding the out-of-door meeting, at 2:30 o'clock. An invitation is extended all the children of Santa Anna to attend this service.

On account of the increasing interest being manifested in the Clark campaign, the revival will continue another week. From now on, Rev. Clark announces he will pray for the sick and afflicted at each service.

"The Cause and Cure of Disease" will be the Rev. Clark's subject Friday night at the revival. On Saturday evening, the Rev. Mr. Derrick, pastor emeritus of the Coleman Assembly of God, will bring the message at the Armory. There will be two meetings Sunday, at 2:30 in the afternoon and in the evening at 7 o'clock.

Sunday night's meeting will be designated as "Family Night." At this service, Evangelist Clark will deliver his lecture on "Better Homes." All those who are related are requested to occupy seats together. The largest delegation will be asked to stand and sing a song.—Contributed.

Oh You Waste Basket! Open Wide Thine Mouth!

Never before since we have been in the newspaper business was our mail worse lamed with political dope. It could require two good men to read the stuff much less to publish the dope sent to us with the request that it be published. The editor takes time to open it all, and where it is headed "Released" that's as far as we read, and proceed to stuff the waste basket. Where it is "Enclosed find," we read further and if the contents are not objectionable, we follow instructions. In our opinion, there is being more money spent on this campaign than ever was spent preceding any election, and what it is all about would scare an unhatched chicken.

Because of the scarcity of working capital in many European countries, and the abundance of idle capital now in the American market nearly every nation in Europe wants loans for various purposes. All the large internal banks of New York are overwhelmed with applications and it is estimated that if half the loans asked for be granted the American investment market will be called upon, during the next few weeks to place more than a billion dollars of foreign bonds.

When it comes to hanging on, nothing much beats the smell of fish and the fellow wanting to borrow money.

The world is more interested in what you do than what you say you will do.

BAPTISTS PLAN TO COMPLETE CAMPAIGN

Every Member Canvas to be Made Week of Nov. 2-9

Every Baptist church member in Texas will be visited during the week of November 2 to 9, which has been designated as Completion Week for the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, Dr. F. S. Groner, general secretary of the executive board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas has announced. The churches of the state have organized their committees for the visitation and each person upon whom a call is made will be asked to complete payment of the pledge to the campaign which has been in progress five years.

Payments to the denominational work as a result of the pledges to the campaign during the five years have reached $8,334,000 Dr. Groner said. It is expected that during completion week the largest amount ever received for denominational work in one week will be contributed by Texas Baptists. There are more than 475,000 white Baptists in Texas and the gifts during the week are expected to average more than $1 a member.

A large portion of the money will go to Texas Baptist schools, colleges and hospitals. Texas Baptists operate twenty-one institutions which have a property value totalling $14,508,166 and during the last five years these institutions have received $2,769,267. In addition to this $1,477,068 has been given to State missions. If Texas Baptists contribute during completion week as they are expected to do the amounts given to these causes will be materially increased. Already, the gifts of Texas Baptists to denominational work exceed the gifts of any other states by more than $1,000,000.

Carey Snyder, publicity director Baptist General Convention of Texas.

THE PINK BOLL WORM

The following letter from the general office of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Stamford, Texas, was received at this office Saturday:

To the West Texas Press: Gentleman:

This office has had quite an extensive correspondence with R. E. McDonald, Division of Entomology, Department of Agriculture, State of Texas; W. D. Hunter, Federal Horticultural Board, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Houston; E. R. Sasser, entomologist and executive officer, Federal Horticultural Board of Washington; R. R. Reppert, entomologist, College Station, Texas, and others in connection with the pink boll worm situation in Texas.

It is a very interesting thing to note that few people can be made to believe the dangers that are ahead in insect infestation and other ravages of this type. The fact of the matter is that a part of West Texas is infested with the pink boll worm, and to an extent of approximately the occurrence in the Laguna district of Eastern Mexico. The Federal Horticultural Board is taking extraordinary steps, not only to hold the infestation where it is in the Big Bend district of Texas, but also to wipe it out there. To do this it has been necessary to put into effect rigid quarantine regulations. In our judgment, therefore, it will be well worth your while to take this matter up with your cotton buyers and gins and request them to be on guard against importing any cottonseed from the infested district, and if you live in any part of West Texas, from which any appreciable travel from the Big Bend district enters, your people might well afford to cooperate closely in seeing that persons from that region, coming into your territory, do not bring any cotton lint or other stuff that might tend to bring the infestation into that territory.

I indeed we suggest that you get in touch with Mr. W. D. Hunter, Federal Horticultural Board, 701 Polk Avenue, Houston. Respectfully yours, Porter A. Whaley, Manager.

The established air lines of Europe carried 4,000 passengers during July of this year. It is estimated that during the year ending August, 1924, more than 15,000 people used the service.

THE AMERICAN

Among all the ideals Americans live by, or attempt to live by, there is none more poorly formulated than that determining family life. A superficial and merely statistical survey of our affairs in this field might lead to false conclusion that we are in domestic matters "the world's worst failure." No other nation has so high a divorce rate as our (unless Japan is still the exception); few nations are so unsuccessful in fostering the life of mothers, and we are far from the top of the list with respect to success in the care of babies. So far as practical discipline is concerned, the younger generation continues to present a problem by no means solved.

But it is possible to dive below the troubled surface of domestic life and discover an atmosphere and an ideal not to be despised and that makes for better conditions. The spiritual values which are prevailing more and more in American life are giving to the world a new woman—one who votes, it is true, but who is not primarily concerned with polls. It is the woman who sees that the regeneration of the world, whether at home or abroad, is to be accomplished by love—a love of divine origin and impartial scope. This is the woman least apt to be restive in family life, knowing that domestic walls do not exclude the infinite, and that the outside world, with all its rush and flare, offers no wider opportunity for spiritual victory.

The formal withdrawal of Mr. Ford's proposition to operate Muscle Shoals puts an end to a long-drawn-out controversy. It is now up to those who opposed the proposition to offer some practical substitute. The government has already expended nearly $100,000,000 on the plant, and the question is, will the government finish and operate it, or will some other private industry get the benefit?

CHILDREN MAY SOLVE PROBLEM OF TRAFFIC

Awards Offered Elementary School Pupils of Nation For Best Essays on Highway Safety. Washington, D. C., October 25. Can children solve the traffic problem? In connection with the fourth national safety educational campaign announced today by the Highway Education Board, American school children are to be given an opportunity to answer the vexing question that now engages the attention of the best engineering minds of the country. The announcement offers more than $5,500 in cash prizes and medals to elementary school pupils and elementary school teachers who submit the best essays and the best lessons in the 1924 national essay and national lesson contests. The basic principle of the contest is to train children in careful conduct on streets and highways and to impress upon them a sense of personal responsibility. This contest is the fourth consecutive competition conducted under the auspices of the Board, approximately one million, two hundred thousand pupils, an average of at least 400,000 annually, having participated in the three preceding contests. All pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eight grades are eligible to compete, whether attending public, private or parochial schools. Four hundred and eighty-eight checks and as many medals will be given for the best state essay, while three national prizes will be awarded for the three essays chosen as the best of all those to be written throughout the nation. All state and national prizes in the pupils contest are given by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, which has incorporated in its safety program a plank calling for safety education in the schools. In addition to the prizes and medals for pupils, this organization offers to the teacher writing the best practical safety lesson a check for $500 and a trip to Washington. As second and third prizes checks for $300 and $200 will be given to the successful teachers. Pupils are requested to write essays on the subject "My Conduct on Streets and Highways," while teachers are invited to prepare practical lessons for use in the class room. Essays are not to exceed 500 words in length, while lessons by teachers may vary between 1,000 and 3,000 words, according to the inclination of the teacher. Each state is entitled to one prize, a gold medal and a check for fifteen dollars, and to one second prize, a silver medal and a check for ten dollars. The number of third prizes, bronze medals and checks for five dollars, varies in proportion to the elementary school enrollment. Posters and folders containing detailed information concerning the contests are being sent to all schools throughout the country, as well as to Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, the Philippines, and the Canal Zone. Individual requests will be promptly answered if addressed to the Highway Education Board, Willard Building, Washington, D. C.

SUPPORT THE TEACHER

There are approximately eight hundred thousand school teachers in the United States, not including superintendents, supervisors and principals. Here are eight hundred thousand opportunities for service that can not be measured in ordinary terms, if they are appreciated. Teachers who live up to their possibilities do more than teach children facts that may be learned from books. They teach them to appreciate the good things in life; tolerance for others; that joy comes not from selfish pursuits, but by making others happy, and that the well-rounded man or woman is not self-centered. Though they have a powerful influence over children, school teachers can not accomplish the results most to be desired without the aid of parents in providing the proper environment at home. Every community is proud of its schools and its boys and girls. The measure in which their lives redound to the glory of their home community depends upon the support which the teachers receive. Back them up for results that count in later years. A lot of fellows who are eternally wishing that some one would give them a chance, mean a chance to get money without work.

IT CAN'T BE DONE

One of the very first things an editor learns is that he can't please everybody. The ones who haven't learned this are too dumb to be trying to run a newspaper. Human nature is so constituted that some of our readers would like to have us feed them on scandal; some would like to have us tell the unvarnished truth about them, while others would kill us if we did. It is a comforting thought to the editor to know that the Savior Himself did not please everybody while He was on earth. We labor hard to entertain and please our subscribers, but that we should occasionally fail is to be expected. Yet you will always find us ready to be forgiven. No matter how old we may grow to be, however, there is one thing that we are never going to forget. And that is that an editor can't please everybody. If he could he would be wearing wings on his shoulders in another world instead of patches on his pants in this one. —Exchange.

Failure is what happens to a man when he achieves success and then sits down to enjoy it.

Holding on to a good thing is excellent advice, but exchanging it for another is better.
