DOLLAR DAY, MONDAY 13

Next Monday, October 13, is Dollar Day in Santa Anna, and several of the merchants have advertised some real bargains for this special day. Those who have participated in Dollar Day in the past think well of the plan, and have gone stronger this month than ever before. Read their ads and look them over Monday.

Mrs. Kingsbery Entertains the Missionary Society

Mrs. H. W. Kingsbery was hostess to the Methodist Missionary Society at her beautiful country home on Wednesday of last week. Each member was requested to carry one article of food and the hostess had prepared two turkeys for the occasion, so of course the ladies had a feast fit for the gods, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The house was decorated for the occasion and music was furnished on the victrola and piano. Mesdames Greer and Paul Williams presiding at the piano. The only visitor outside the church was Mrs. Willey.

Henry Newman and family of Sterling City visited relatives here last week-end. Miss Lucile Kirkpatrick, sister to Mrs. Newman, accompanied them home for a visit.

FORD COUPE STOLEN

Wednesday night of last week thieves entered the garage of J. H. Brannan and stole his 1924 Ford Coupe. Officers were notified and went to work, but so far have no trace or clue. Mr. Brannan offers $100.00 reward for the return of the Coupe and thief.

Mrs. W. C. Herndon of Fort Worth was here last week-end visiting her friends, Mesdames J. D. Allen and Io Shield. Mrs. Herndon was called to Coleman to attend the funeral of her father, T. J. Lewis, former citizen of Coleman county, who died last week at San Angelo and was brought to Coleman for burial. Mr. Herndon and daughter, Mrs. Madie Allen and little daughter, Dollie, came in Saturday night and stayed over Sunday with Mrs. J. D. Allen and Io Shield and family.

Judge S. J. Pieratt of Coleman was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday. The Judge says he is in receipt of a communication from the State Highway Commission, requesting that the street lights in the center of Main Street be removed before the commission takes over the highway to maintain. Just what will be done about it has not yet been determined.

SANTA ANNA BAND TO BE ORGANIZED

At the regular weekly meeting of the Business Men's Luncheon Club this week, the club voted unanimously to furnish a committee of three to act as a permanent band committee, one of whom to be organizer and general director of the band, and the others to act as an advisory committee to work with the general director. The band functioned for several months just as a temporary band without organization, and they now express themselves as being willing to organize and become permanent, if the business men of the town will join with them in an organization, and the members of the Business Men's Luncheon Club very readily voted to join them and become their sponsor. All members of the band are invited to meet with the Luncheon Club next Wednesday at noon, as guest of the club, to thrash out the details and get ready for the permanent organization. All the former members of the band are urged to be present. Committee in charge.

SUIT FILED PLACES GLADYS-BELLE CO. IN RECEIVERSHIP

(Democrat-Voice)
Hearing a petition of leaseholders asking that the Gladys-Belle Oil Company be placed in receivership for alleged failure to pay purchase price on leaseholdings and royalties on such holdings in Coleman county, District Judge J. O. Woodward last Friday granted the receivership as asked for in plaintiff's petition and appointed J. P. McCord as Receiver.

Plaintiffs in the suit are Upton Henderson and Fred Turner, individually, and S. H. Phillips, E. M. Raney, T. W. Davidson and Jason Tyson as directors of several private oil corporations, viz: the Mountain Oil Co., Hay Creek Oil Co., Robey-Cameron Oil Co., Standard Oil Co.

Snodgrass, Dibrell & Snodgrass are attorneys for plaintiffs and the petition alleged, in substance, that defendants Gladys-Belle Oil Co. were due and owing the plaintiffs $130,155 for conveyance of leasehold interests; that defendants had ceased to develop said leases since June 1, 1921, and had not used proper diligence and dispatch in development of leases but had wilfully and fraudulently failed to do so, as set out in contract; that there is now 14,000 barrels oil in storage tanks in the field and daily production as now operated is 100 barrels, when if properly conditioned the wells of the field should produce 200 barrels daily, and that defendants are acting in bad faith in not making said wells produce the proper amount of oil; that plaintiffs have equitable lien upon all oil produced to enforce performance of obligations of defendant as set out in oil lease, and that plaintiffs are entitled to equitable lien upon future production to secure performance of contract upon part of defendant.
Critz & Woodward, as attorneys for the Gladys-Belle Co., have filed a writ to move the case to Federal Court for hearing.

METHODIST CHURCH

Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Fourth Quarterly Conference for the Santa Anna church will be held at the Methodist church, Dr. Porter, Presiding Elder will preside. All officials will please be present with their reports.
Preaching service at 11 a. m. by the pastor.
Brother Porter will preach at 7:30 p. m.
J. Hall Bowman, pastor.

Missionary Study Class

The Missionary Study class met with Mrs. Lee Woodward on Monday afternoon. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Chas oakes in a very able manner. The class is studying this year the child and welfare. Mrs. W. R. Kelley, Mrs. J. Hall Bowman and Mrs. Prickett, all read interesting papers on the subject. There are more than two million babies die annually in the United States while with proper care and sanitation one half of this number could be saved. The United States ranks as seventeenth in maternity mortality. This death rate could be easily reduced by proper care. These ladies are getting a great deal of good from this study course and it would be well if more of the ladies would join in with them. There were ten present.

Doctors Sherwood and Scott, surgeons of the Scott & White Sanitarium at Temple, were here Saturday and performed an operation on Mrs. T. R. Sealy in the local hospital. At last report Mrs. Sealy was recuperating and for many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Remember next Monday is Dollar Day in Santa Anna and the merchants have some special bargains for you on that day. Come and see.

W. H. LAWSON DEAD

W. H. Lawson, age 54, died at his home in Brownwood last Sunday, after a very brief illness. Mr. Lawson served for many years as President of the Brown County Singing Convention, and was known by every singer in the Central part of Texas, and many others. His death was quite a shock to his many friends, who loved and respected him so much. The editor joins his friends throughout the country in extending sympathy to his bereaved family.

Mrs. L. L. Shield left Wednesday afternoon for Austin where she will spend the winter with her son, Elgean, who is a senior in the University.

MARRIED SEPT. 28

Mr. Aubrey Williamson and Miss Esther Gober, a splendid young couple living a few miles Southwest of town, were married here, Sunday, September 28, Rev. Sidney F. Martin officiating. The News regrets very much that Rev. Martin overlooked reporting the marriage to the News sooner. Permit us at this late hour to offer congratulations and best wishes.

The friends and acquaintances of Miss Sue Nash will perhaps be interested to know that she was married in Washington, D. C. on September 30 to Mr. Wellington Ellery Pitts of Ballston, Va.

In Fashion's Favor

Styles that are decreed as correct for wear this fall and winter will be found in our elaborate display.

Selected to fit many types, our array of hats offers a rare opportunity for the woman who is "hard to suit."

They are in such numerous shapes, color combinations and variety of materials, that we feel certain we have the hat you want.

In case the hat you have pictured in your mind is not here, we will be glad to make one along the lines your taste follows.

STORY OF A FOOLISH MAN

The news has just carried the story of a young man from Kansas City who was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary for embezzlement in St. Louis. He had worked his way up rapidly in a Kansas City bank. He was unusually competent. Bankers regarded him as a comer. He went to St. Louis with high recommendations and prospered. Then came his downfall.

The pity of it. Here was a man who was making an unusual success. If he had remained honest and had gone on in the way he started he would have gone far. He simply threw away his career because he took a dishonest cut to riches. We can understand how a poor devil with no prospects and harrassed by debts will sometimes yield to temptations. He is taking what seems to him the only chance to success. But what baffles us is that a man who is doing well, who has the respect of those with whom he associates, who in every way is ahead of the game, should sacrifice himself through a dishonest course.

E. W. Howe, the Atchison Philosopher, is always preaching thru the columns of his monthly the foolishness of wrong doing. He says that, by being honest and industrious he knows he has won far more happiness than he could possibly have acquired by any other course. In other words he feels universal experience has demonstrated that it pays to be good.

The case of the young man who went wrong in St. Louis is simply one of many that are chronicled in the news week by week. It is constantly being demonstrated, that all moral considerations aside, the fellow who is dishonest and untruthful, unreliable, is a fool. The road that leads to destruction is rocky and full of thorns. It is nothing like so easy and pleasant as the road that leads through good conduct to success. —Knsas City Star.

Monday is Dollar Day.

ARE YOU SUPERSTITIOUS?

Here are some "signs" that never fail:

When you see a boy form the cigarette habit it is a sign that his future is behind him, if anywhere; it certainly is not before.

When a young woman cares more for dances and cards than she does for her mother, it is a sign that her education is not yet complete.

When you see a boy with clean lips, clean hands and clean heart it is a sign that a man will be there when he grows up.

When a town cares more for a medicine show or a carnival company than it does for a good lecture course it is a sign that something is wrong.

When a young man spends as much, or more, than he earns, it is a sign of a failure down the way.

When you see a young man earn more than his salary, it is a sign of a promotion.

When a mother gives more attention to Fido than she does to Frank it is a sign of foolishness and coming heart-break.

When you see a boy drop out of school, unless compelled to do so by circumstances, it is a sign of a tragedy.

When you see a man unwilling to share the good things of his life with the less fortunate, it is a sign of contraction of the heart—a very dangerous situation.

If the clerk watches the clock more than his work it is a sign that it is time for him to go.

When a young woman "scraps" acquaintance with strangers it is a sign that foolish girls are not all dead yet.

When a young man tries to find a better policy than honesty, it is a sign that he is going to fail.

When a father smokes or swears or is dishonest himself, and advises his son to avoid those things it is a sign of inconsistency.

When you are in Rome and do as the Romans do, it is a sign that you will do as the Romans do when you are not in Rome—especially if no one is looking.

If "all men speak well" of a person, it is a sign either of a most angelic spirit, or that he has smitten no enemy on the hip.

When a young man is willing to "make his mark" by any but honest means, it is a sign that he is not so remarkable as he thinks.

When you find a man who believes that the world is growing better, it is a sign you have found a man who is working to make it so.

When a young woman refuses to form a partnership with a young man who drinks or smokes cigarettes, it is a sign that she possesses good sense.

When a man laughs at high ideals it is a sign that he never learned that sailors steer their ships by the stars.

When you find a man who criticizes the church it is a sign that he is doing little or nothing to make it better.

When the world calls things by their right names it is a sign of a great many re-christenings.

When a young man has learned rightly to invest his cents it is a sign that he will have more sense to invest.—Moral Welfare.

There has recently sprung up throughout America a new industry. This is the modern motor bus. Those pioneering this great business are engaged in developing an enterprise which promises to be one of the most important and serviceable in the state—motor transportation. In a way there are pioneers; they are men of foresight with ability to see opportunity and seize it. And they have already achieved much. Its developments is not likely to come to a halt until the motor bus finds its way into every well populated and accessible section of the state. Unquestionably this comparatively new method of travel has had a marked effect upon transportation problems, an effect which will be more and more widespread as the building of smooth roads progresses.

Remember Monday, 13th, is Dollar Day in Santa Anna.

You often hear that some great man is a genius. The fact remains that success is often built upon inspiration and perspiration. It's a good thing for boys in their teens and young men to read the biographies of great geniuses. In every case what stands out is the terrific amount of hard work. Painters, writers, musicians, scientists, inventors like Edison, all have had their inspiration, but all would testify that the inspiration would have remained a vague thought, without the ceaseless hard work that transforms inspiration into reality.

Come to Santa Anna, Monday, October 13th, and get your share of the bargains.

Folks who persist in advertising their good qualities seldom ever possess them.

THE PASSING DAY

(By Will H. Mayes)
 Although he has lately abolished several bureaus and consolidated others in the interest of economy, Dr. Malone Duggan, State Health Officer, has created the position of Secretary of Public Health Education with a view of giving the people more direct information on matters pertaining to public health. This is a progressive step of the Health Department that must redound to the good of the public, for although physicians have of late been impressed with the value of health conservation, the people as a whole are woefully ignorant in matters pertaining to the preservation of health. This is because they have not been accustomed to thinking of health other than as a personal matter, when it is really in most cases a community or even a state or national problem. The secretary placed in charge of this work is Mrs. C. R. Fields, who has done much efficient work as an educator and as a journalist, and has besides had training through service in the Health Department.

The average citizen seldom thinks of the public health as an asset or liability to his community. The cost of an epidemic is not measured by the expense to those who are the direct sufferers, or by the suffering, or by the loss of time, but by the additional loss of community productivity. No community can prosper as a whole where its health average is below normal, for it can not produce to meet the requirements of a normal population. No person wants to locate in or move to a place where health conditions are bad, even though he could be assured of perfect health for himself and his family, because every one knows that such a place can not make a desirable home. Considered purely as an economic question it pays a people to guard the health of the entire population as far as it can be done. If the Texas Health Department can impress this truth upon the entire State, and then can even in small measure teach the people how best to conserve their health it will have justified the entire expense of its maintenance.

The best way that people otherwise unacquainted with a place can judge it is by its newspapers and the part of the newspapers on which judgment is based is invariably the advertising columns. Some 80 Texas papers reach my office regularly and I can at once tell whether a town is progressing or going backward by a glance at these papers. One can almost tell how the yards look, whether the homes are kept painted, if mud holes are in the streets, if hogs and other stock run loose, if business is good, if the merchants are mossbacks, if the town is always half asleep, just by the spirit shown by the merchants in their advertising. No town is better than its business men make it, and the business men are never better and seldom worse than their advertising shows them to be.

It does not take a big town to make a good place in which to live, but it does take a live town to make an attractive home. Some men and women grow accustomed to anything and can live anywhere, but the young people are not going to stay a great while in a place that is constantly going down, after they learn that there are better places in which to live. Youth seeks progress for its environment. Age may become content with disintegration. If the older people expect to retain the young about them, they must provide them with pleasing surroundings. There must be good streets and roads, well equipped schools, attractive homes, modern conveyances, bathing and picnicking resorts, well stocked stores, up-to-date entertainment—in short, a place must be growing and developing along with the rest of the world or youth will seek more congenial surroundings.

A good way to determine whether yours is such a place is by comparison. How does your community, if you live in the country, compare in every respect with other country communities around you? If it is worse in any way than others you know it is not all that it should be. How does your town compare with the town to the South, to the North, to the East and to the West of your town? Are any of them going forward while yours is hesitating? Have the citizens of your place, with all the natural advantages of the others, gone ahead of the others in every way that makes toward progress, or have they gone to sleep? If your town isn't just as good, just as progressive, just as growing as the others, it is time for an awakening and for serious study, for it is in danger of what for lack of a better name often is called "the dry rot."

Public Health Association

Austin, Texas, September 29.—D. E. Breed, Executive Secretary, Texas Public Health Association, states that tuberculosis is one of the most costly diseases now affecting mankind, both in treatment and in money lost because of sickness.

In 1922 there were 106,000 deaths from tuberculosis in the United States, and it is estimated that there were about 954,000 active cases. Tuberculosis cuts off two and a half years of life from the complete expectation of every individual. If each individual were to add only $100 to the community wealth for a year, tuberculosis would cost the community $250 per person. Among the 5,000,000 persons in Texas, this loss is over a billion and a quarter dollars.

It has been estimated that a tuberculosis patient is under care on an average of two and one third years. Probably for at least the last year he is unable to earn anything. We can estimate the average annual earnings of a person at $1,000.00.

The Texas Public Health Association, through the money raised by the annual Tuberculosis Christmas Seals, has been endeavoring to reduce the death rate from tuberculosis. In the registration area the death rate from consumption has been reduced from 200 per 100,000 in 1904 to 97 per 100,000 in 1922.

McSwain-Hill

A wedding which will be a complete surprise to their many friends took place this morning when Miss Iva Hill and Bertice McSwain were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place at the Central Methodist parsonage at 10 o'clock. Rev. J. H. Baldrige officiated. The only ones present at the ceremony were Mrs. J. B. Craig, a very close friend; Andrew Craig and Mrs. J. H. Baldrige. Mrs. McSwain lived in Santa Anna, and has host of friends. Mr. McSwain is of Rockwood, Mr. and Mrs. McSwain left immediately for Wichita Falls where they will make their home.—Brownwood Bulletin.

Of the Santa Anna News published weekly at Santa Anna, Texas for Oct. 1st, 1924.

State of Texas; County of Coleman: Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared J. J. Gregg, who having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the Editor of the Santa Anna News and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business manager is J. J. Gregg, Santa Anna, Texas.

2. That the owner is Clara E. Gregg Santa Anna, Texas.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are none.

J. J. GREGG.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 7th day of October, 1924.
(Seal) J. T. Garrett.
(My commission expires June 1, 1925)

Remember to look at your dates and see when your subscription expires. We are not grumbling, but we sure do appreciate our subscribers calling in and renewing when their time expires. Just a dollar a year if you live in Coleman county, and $1.50 if you live out of the county. We appreciate every subscriber we have and hope every one of you will call and renew as soon as your time expires.

In looking over our exchanges, one is inclined to think most of the merchants could close house except on Saturdays. Santa Anna has larger crowds and better business on Saturdays than on the average week days, but according to traveling men and other observers, dull days are few and far between in Santa Anna this fall. A fair cotton crop at the price puts money in Coleman county and plenty of it.

AN EDUCATION IS AN INVESTMENT

If you are inclined to think of a business training as an expense; something to put off until some later time; just stop to think what an earning capacity of over $2,500 would mean to you. Two boys started together with equal chances. One, business trained is a $2,500 executive at $3; the other, who overlooked a business education is a $18-a-week worker.

A business training is not an expense. It is an investment—the only investment in the world that combines the two factors of absolute safety and almost fabulous returns. The gambler who risks a hundred dollars in an oil well and gets back fifty thousand is not half so lucky as the young man or woman who invests an equal amount of capital in his brain thru a business training. In your home town, there are a number of young men and women who have proven to themselves the truth of this statement. What can you do to increase your income proportionally in the next six months? Is there any investment, or any speculation that will do it? There is only one investment you can make that will do it surely and safely—put into your mind ability to increase your earning capacity three fold.

Intrust your ambition to Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, and let them prepare you in General Secretarial, General Business, Banking, Railroad or Western Union, Bookkeeping, Shorthand and Typewriting, Cotton Classing, Civil Service, Radio, Penmanship or Telegraphy course. You will have the definite assurance that if you will do your part—prepare for the opportunities and grasp them when they come—you will have the nominal money cost of your training back before ten months from the date of your enrollment and will have an additional, permanent, gilt-edge brain capital upon which you will draw ever increasing dividends the balance of your life.

The first step is clipping the coupon below and sending for the large 208-page book, "Achieving Success in Business". In this wonderful book, you will learn why Tyler Commercial College is the largest commercial school and of the successes of their graduates. Send for the book now, it is free.

CITATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Coleman County—Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to summon J. O. Riley by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the County Court of Coleman County, Texas, on the 1st Monday in November A. D. 1924, the same being the 3rd day of November, A. D. 1924, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 1st day of October A. D. 1924, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1793, wherein W. M. Riley Jr., is plaintiff, and J. O. Riley is defendant, and said cause being a suit on a note for $200.00, dated January 18, 1924, signed by defendant, payable to plaintiff, with interest at 10 per cent from date, and 10 per cent attorneys fees said note being past due; and plaintiff prays judgment for the principal, interest and attorneys fees on said note, and for general relief.
Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Coleman, Texas, this, the 1st day of October, A. D. 1924.
L. Enset Walker, Clerk, County Court, Coleman County, Texas.

BOLL WEEVIL DAMAGE LIGHTEST IN YEARS

Boll weevil damage throughout the Cotton Belt has been abnormally small this season, for a number of reasons, according to the Bureau of Entomology of the United States Department of Agriculture. Emergence over the Cotton Belt as a whole was generally rather light, with the possible exception of some extreme southerly points such as the Gulf coast of Texas. In most of the cotton territory the initial emergence was only from one-fifth to one-tenth of last year's. Weevils therefore, were not abundant enough to cause any particular injury to the bottom crops of cotton. Following this, from Alabama westward the season has been abnormally dry. In many sections there was no precipitation other than light local showers from May to the middle of August. This absence of rain insured a high degree of climatic control of the weevil, accentuated by the unusually small plant growth of the season.

While there may be in almost all localities a few fields which produced a more or less normal growth of cotton and were somewhat damaged by weevils, these are the exception rather than the rule. At Tallulah, La., where the Bureau of Entomology maintains an experiment station, there is in a normal season some weevil damage in almost every field of cotton; this year not over half a dozen fields out of more than 500 under observation have experienced any damage whatever from weevil.

Recent rains may have somewhat stimulated the multiplication of the weevils, but the majority of crops are so completely mature that this will chiefly affect the probable abundance of weevils entering hibernation. In Georgia and South Carolina weevil damage has been very much heavier, though probably not as heavy as in these States during the two preceding years.

Remember Monday, 13th, is Dollar Day in Santa Anna.

THE TOOTHBRUSH

"What do you consider the most helpful device on your toilet table?" was the question asked a great beauty. "My toothbrush," she answered, "found for almost every other article there is nothing to take the place of regular, two or three times a day brushing of the teeth, from earliest childhood to old age. Then too without the beauty of sound teeth all other beauty fails."

"How do you select your toothbrush?" she was then asked. "I choose one with bristles neither too soft nor too hard, that is, not too soft to cleanse the teeth and not so hard as to injure gums. The teeth should be brushed up and down rather than across. A dentist tells me that 3 out of 4 people neglect the back teeth which is one reason for their rapid decay. It is particularly important to brush the teeth before retiring. Of course a good tooth paste or powder is the brush's helpful ally," she added with a smile that displayed the white beauty of her own teeth.—The Progressive Farmer.

MISTAKEN DEPTHS

A news item from Champaign, Ill., reports that one hundred wild ducks broke their necks diving on a wet concrete pavement upon which the moon was shining after a rain, mistaking it for a lake or pond.

How much the ducks were like the great majority of people, figuratively breaking their necks for selfish pleasures, and overlooking the real joy that comes from serving others.

The ideal of service as the foundation of a business or the motive of a life is the first essential of real success, but it is lost sight of in the shallow water in which most of us paddle around.

"The Best Looking Home in Your Neighborhood"

It isn't so much a matter of design, but of appearance. If the paints and stains are fresh-looking and rich in color—if they harmonize well—your home will be the best-looking one in your neighborhood.

And you can get this result by using Lowe Brothers High Standard Liquid Paint. It's fine paint, finely made for long satisfaction and true economy. It goes on smoothly and evenly. Its rich, even colors retain their original freshness of color. And it surely does withstand the wear of long weathering. That's why it's so economical.

BEST THEATRE

Monday & Tuesday, 13 & 14
BUSTER KEATON
"SHERLOCK JR"
You all know Buster. This is one of his best, and a new picture. As a plain clothes cop, Buster cops the honors and the girl. Buster as a Gum Shoe man, gums things up. Funny enough to give a bald head a permanent wave. Buster hot foots it after crime and puts his foot into it every time. Romance and rheumatism, roses and rocks.
A comedy of errors—William Shakespeare.
"TELEPHONE GIRL" in connection.

Wednesday & Thursday, 15 & 16
THOMAS MEIGHAN
in
"THE ALASKAN"
By James Oliver Curwood.
Here is a real he man story of the far north, an epic of Alaska. Tom Meighan, as the son of a Gold Rush pioneer, in the title role of James Oliver Curwood's story, which thrilled the million or more readers of the Cosmopolitan magazine in which it appeared. Here is a picture you'll be talking about for the rest of the season. Estelle Taylor is the girl and there is a great supporting cast.
