SANTA ANNA PREPARED TO GIN YOUR COTTON

Santa Anna is better prepared for the season than ever before to ginning your cotton. The Farmers Gin Company, as you will find reading their ad running in the News, has spared neither money in repairing and buying new equipment and both their gins are in tip-top shape for the season. You will get the best of service at our gins and our buyers absolutely pay the highest prices for your staple of any set of buyers in the State.

The Turner Gin has been completely overhauled and new cleaning and sampling attachments added, and the Rose Gin, owned by Simpson and Turner, is said to be one of the best gins ever built in this country. It is all new and up-to-date and is said to be modern and complete in every way. Bring your cotton to Santa Anna where the best ginning service in the world is at your command, where the buyers take pride in making high price cotton a drawing feature for the town and where you will find plenty of good stores well filled with new and up-to-date merchandise. Santa Anna has as much to offer her customers as any town in Texas, and our customers realize this fact.

Baby Stabbed With Knife

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wise from out on Home Creek brought their 2 year old baby boy to town Wednesday for examination and treatment for a knife wound inflicted when the child fell with the knife open in his hand, penetrating his abdomen. It was feared the knife blade entered the inside cavity, and would require an operation, but symptoms had not indicated any serious disorders up to Thursday morning.

Births Reported

To Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nichols, Coleman, boy.
To Mr. and Mrs. Elmer James, Coleman, boy.
To Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stuard, 2 girls.
To Mr. and Mrs. Lee Horton, Caddo, boy.
To Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Terry, Coleman, boy.
To Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dalton, Caddo, boy.

Correspondence Wanted

The News is anxious to have a good live correspondent in every community in this part of the county, but we must know who our contributors are, and have items of interest. In this connection, we have received several communications here of late, one in particular headed "Donkeyville Items," that was not signed by the author, and as usual, could not be used. Please observe the following in sending in your communications: Write plainly and only on one side of the paper, and a good rule would be to read your copy over after you have written it, and see that you have it correct. It is all right to mention visits of young folks once in a while, but having been young a long time once, we know that young people do not appreciate publicity unless it is the right kind, and we use our own judgment as to the kind. By all means, sign your name, your real name at the bottom of the last page. This will not be published if you prefer it be kept, as you can sign any pen name you wish to your communication, but we must know who the author is.

NATIONAL DEFENSE DAY

Friday, September 12th, has been designated and proclaimed as National Defense Day, throughout the United States, and every community is called upon to hold a meeting, put on a patriotic demonstration, etc., during the day, and Santa Anna will be in line with other communities and cities by observing part of the day. A patriotic program will be put on at some hour in the afternoon, and the public is invited to both attend and take a part.

The following committee has been appointed by Mayor W. E. Baxter to arrange the program: C. W. Woodruff, chairman, J. J. Gregg, S. H. Collier, P. P. Bond, Mrs. S. H. Phillips and Mrs. J. R. Gipson.

FIFTH SUNDAY MEETING

There will be a three days meeting at the Primitive Baptist church, commencing Friday morning at ten o'clock.
W. E. Vanderford.

MRS. FERGUSON NOMINATED BY LARGE MAJORITY

In the run-off primary election last Saturday, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson of Temple was nominated over her opponent, Judge Felix D. Robertson of Dallas, by about 90,000 votes. Barry Miller defeated W. C. Edwards for Lieutenant Governor by seven or eight thousand votes. The anti-klan ticket was generally nominated throughout the state.

The only local contest here was between J. E. Watkins and J. S. Gilmore for County Commissioner, which resulted in the nomination of Gilmore, the vote being 610 to 634. Mrs. Ferguson for Governor carried Coleman county just about two to one. Santa Anna North Ward lacked one vote being a tie, the South Ward gave Ferguson 25 majority. The heaviest vote ever polled in Texas voted Saturday. The next contest will come in the State convention at Austin next Tuesday, when resolutions of a radical nature will be presented.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express a word of appreciation to those who supported me in the recent primary, for Commissioner, and assure all that I hold no grudge or malice toward any one who saw fit to vote for my opponent. I accept your verdict and submit to the will of the majority and will line up with the winner and help make our community one of the best in the State. I am a citizen among you and it is my desire to be as good a citizen as is consistent, and in my power to be.
J. E. WATKINS.

The class of singers met at the Presbyterian church Sunday. A fairly large crowd attended and the singing was good. The leaders were Messrs. Morgan, Smith, Forehand, Parish, Gregg; pianists were Vera Oakes, Louise Boyd, Mrs. Forehand. Special numbers were given by Messrs. Forehand, Parish, Jim Williams and Miss Annie Forehand. Next Sunday the convention meets at the Presbyterian church for an all day singing.

Miss Louella Chambers while driving home is her buggy one day last week, passed through the path of a whirlwind, and shortly discovered her clothing on fire. She was close to a Mexican home, and she made her way into the home quickly and saved herself from personal injuries, but her dress and other clothing were badly burned. Fortunately she got the fire put out without further damage.

T. Ray Garrett and family and Miss Jewell Harris went to Eldorado Sunday and extended their trip further west Monday, where Mr. Garrett received 200 head of cattle he purchased last week.

The barn and contents on Mrs. J. H. Griffith's farm north of town was destroyed by fire Wednesday evening, being set on fire from lightning. We have not been informed as to the values of the loss.

To The People of The City of Santa Anna and Community

The President of the United States, in keeping with the law known as the National Defense Act, has named September 12th as the day on which the people of the several states should be assembled to participate in patriotic demonstration.

September the 12th of this year being the sixth anniversary of the significant St. Mihiel drive made by our army in northern France, is indeed a very fitting day for this celebration.

President Coolidge has requested through the Governor, that all military organizations and the civilian population cooperate in the Defense Test Day celebration.

Therefore, in keeping with the request of the President through the Governor, I take this method of calling on all clubs and organizations, both military and civilian, to cooperate in every way possible to make this a great success.

The following have been named as a committee to work out the plans for the program of the day:

C. W. Woodruff, chairman, J. J. Gregg, S. H. Collier, P. P. Bond, Mrs. S. H. Phillips and Mrs. J. R. Gipson.
W. E. Baxter, Mayor.

MRS. PIERCY BARTLETT

Mrs. Piercy Bartlett, age 75, wife of Uncle Jim Bartlett, died at her home in this city Tuesday night, after a lingering illness of about three weeks.

Mother Bartlett has lived in Santa Anna for more than 25 years, and numbered her friends by her acquaintance. She raised a respectable family of her own children, and has served in the capacity of mother to several grand-children. She was a true Christian mother and faithful member of the Baptist church. Her remains were laid to rest in the City Cemetery Wednesday afternoon, amidst a profusion of flowers after a very appropriate funeral service at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. Swindell of Ballinger.

There will probably be a further mention of her in our next issue. The News very tenderly extends sympathy to good bereaved husband and the bereaved family.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

(Sidney F. Martin pastor).
All regular services next Sunday. Sunday school 9:45. All members are requested to be present on time. New members and visitors given a hearty welcome. Let us all work together and keep our attendance up to our recently acquired and much coveted A 1 standard.
Preaching at 11:00 by pastor. All B. Y. P. U. services and evening preaching service regular hours.

Judge J. R. Ward, now County Judge of Kent county, who also served four years as County Clerk of the same county, paid the News office a short call Tuesday while enroute home from Austin, where he had been on official business. Judge Ward was an employe on the Santa Anna News for several years, beginning in the year of 1905.

Rev. Sidney F. Martin and family are visiting relatives at San Marcus this week. The church voted last Sunday to give Pastor Martin a leave of absence for a few days, but a card from him states he will be back on the job next Sunday and preach at both morning and evening hours.

LABOR DAY

Holidays are intended to celebrate events marking our national progress or in honor of men or institutions which have contributed to the public good. Labor Day means a living thought, an essential belief in the elemental thing which is the substance of our independence and an enduring basis upon which a nation is founded.

Labor Day is not for mere external show. It is not for amusement and frivolity. It possesses a deeper significance. Everyone who toils and fails concerns us. Everyone in broken health concerns us. Every family in want concerns us. Every child robbed of the common heritage of childhood concerns us. The humanity that relieves misfortune comes from the heart. Monday, September 1st is Labor Day.

RETURNS FROM WEST

A party composed of Leman Brown and family, G. W. Faulkner and family, and J. W. Parker and family, returned first of the week from a two weeks vacation, spending most of the time camping in the mountains of New Mexico. While in El Paso, the party took occasion to cross the river and pay a short visit to Juarez, Old Mexico. G. W. seemed to gain more in flesh than any of the others, and they accused him of drinking somewhat freely of Mountain Goat milk while in camp. Any way they all had a good time, but were glad to get back home.

SINGING CONVENTION TO MEET SUNDAY

The Eastern District Singing Convention will meet with the class at the Presbyterian church next Sunday in their quarterly convention, and all interested in the convention are urged to come. Don't get it in your head that the other fellow is going to do it all, but put your shoulder to the wheel and help do your part. Bring your dinner and bring enough to feed some one else. There will be plenty of dinner if all who can will prepare and bring a little extra. There is nothing the editor enjoys more than a real good singing convention, and we will try and do our part. Let's all co-operate and make our convention more interesting. Singing is the main feature of the convention, but you do not have to sing to help support the convention.

IT RAINED AT LAST

The first rain of much consequence for a period of about ten weeks, fell here early Thursday morning. The gage at the First National Bank shows 1.1-16 of an inch. Heavier precipitations were reported in the vicinity of Shield and Rockwood, where a good rain is reported to have fallen Wednesday evening. We think the rain was a great benefit to the county.

Friday, August 29, 1924

Now since the election is over, would it not behoove us all to get down to business, forget the past, and especially such things as is calculated to cause bitterness in our ranks, and all pull together for a general improvement of conditions in every way. The News feels grateful, in a measure, that we came through the campaign with as little unpleasantness as we have, and we assure you all that there never was a time during the campaign that we became aroused to such extent that we could not think and speak respectfully of the other fellow. We heard many assertions we would not have made, and heard of many that we thought very much out of place and uncalled for, but we accepted them as being utterances without proper forethought, or consideration, therefore, they are all forgiven in so far as we are concerned, and we are down to business in our usual way. The election is over and the result is ours to make the best of it we can, and it behooves us all to bury our animosities, if we have such, and forget it as soon as possible. Those who met defeat have congratulated the winners and bid them lofty wishes, so their followers should likewise. Let's all shake and be friends. The News acknowledges congratulations with thanks from both sides for the way we conducted our affairs during the ordeal, and now in the language of Rip Van Winkle, "May You All Live Long and Prosper."

Methodist Missionary Society

The Methodist Missionary Society had their social meeting with Mrs. Easley Monday afternoon. Devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Hardy Blue and some excellent papers were read by Mesdames Eck and Easley. Mrs. Bowman gave a reading which was much enjoyed by the society. After the program the ladies were invited on the lawn where ice cold watermelon was served. There were twenty-one present, and all report it one of the most enjoyable meetings of the season.

W. C. Hays, president of the Amity bank, Amity, Ark., returned to his home Thursday, after a few days visit here with his brother, Dr. T. M. Hays and family. Accompanying Mr. Hays were his daughter, Mrs. Allen and son, also of Amity.

TRIP TO GALVESTON

(By Ollie Pearce)

We left Santa Anna early Friday morning, August 15. We were delayed a great deal the first day on account of car trouble. The first night was spent in Belton. From Belton we took the Southern route going by the way of Little River Switch, Bartlett, Granger, Taylor and Elgin. At Elgin we took the Houston Highway and journeyed by the way of Giddings, Brenham and Chappell Hill. Outside of about thirty-five miles of concrete road in Washington county we found the roads bad. Shortly after we left Chappell Hill we crossed the Brazos on a ferry drawn by hand by means of pulleys. The banks of the Brazos at this place are almost perpendicular and our car almost stood on end going up. After we crossed the Brazos we pulled through twelve miles of deep sand to Hempstead. This town seemed to be run by negroes as they were as thick as black birds. We spent the second night in Houston. Left Houston early Sunday morning and arrived in Galveston by ten o'clock a. m.

Christmas of 1894 I visited Galveston for the first time, being one of a party of College students who were out for a good time. The town at that time was very beautiful and all of the country between Houston and Galveston looked very prosperous as there were a number of pear orchards then, now there is nothing. Galveston has never recovered from the great flood and now seems to be at a stand-still. The canal at Houston has badly crippled its shipping trade, and the fishing business seems to be very dull, as they had no fish in the fish houses, and the man in charge told me it might be a week before they would have any to ship out.

The beach is the most interesting place in the city. There were a number of campers all along the beach, and the hotels there were all full of people. Every one seemed to be living at ease, dressed almost as primitive as Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden. In fact, the modern bathing suit has about as much cloth in it as is in a bandana handkerchief. No one seemed to have any regard for the Sabbath-day; all the places of amusements were open and the dance hall was filled to its utmost capacity.

Before noon we had a delightful drive along the beach. In the afternoon we went on board the oil steamer "Sucrosa," and was shown through this steamer had come direct from Tampico, Mexico and carried two million gallons of oil as a cargo.

After this we took passage on the Galvez, the largest passenger boat on the pier, and had a boat ride around the bay and out to the jetties. A negro band was on board and furnished some nice music which we enjoyed very much.

We passed the immigration quarantine station and the battery where the big guns are kept for the protection of the city. We also saw a rum runner, which had been captured recently and confiscated. The Southern Pacific Railroad owns ten blocks of the Galveston pier. We spent two days in the city, and on the beach then we returned home by way of the Kings Trail to Cameron and from there to Belton. We found this route much better than the one we went. We were in eighteen counties and we did not see any crops better than we have in Coleman county.

LUNCHEON CLUB TO MEET NEXT WEDNESDAY

The Business Men's Luncheon Club, recessed for the past several weeks, will meet next Wednesday, September 3, at the usual hour at the Service Cafe. We hope to see a full attendance, as there is much to be accomplished by our coming together, and holding these meetings for the betterment of our town and community.

This was true of men long before women were given the ballot, and it is likely to be true of both men and women long after the refining influence of woman has been felt in what "Woman Voter" is pleased to call "pulling the game of politics out of the mire into which men have plunged it." So far as any effect is concerned the writer fears that he will have to agree with the Woman Voter with a sense of humor that the question was "insane." Still it would be a blessing to the country if all voters, women and men, would place principles before personalities in casting their ballots. The writer of this column is hardly optimistic enough to expect that this will soon be brought about, even with the assistance of those women who have already gone in advance of men in their political studies.

HENRY FORD LAUDS THE KU KLUX KLAN Declares It to be Victim of A Great Mass of Lying Propaganda.

(Associated Press Dispatch) Montreal, Canada, Aug. 26.—"If the truth were known about the Ku Klux Klan, it would be looked up to as a body of patriots, Henry Ford is quoted as asserting in an article printed in the Montreal Star today. "It (the Klan), is the victim of a mass of lying propaganda," he is reported to have said, "and is therefore looked upon with disfavor in many quarters, but if the truth were known about it it would be looked up to as a body of patriots concerned with nothing but the future of the country in which it was born and the preservation of the supremacy of the true American in his own land." GIN NOTICE

To Our Friends and Customers: As we enter into another gin season we desire to express our thanks for your kindly patronage and support thru the past years and hope that we may merit the same in the future.

Our new ten, eighty saw stand gin outfit which is nearly complete is the last word in gin machinery.

We have spared neither time nor expense to make this the most complete and up-to-date gin outfit in this section. It has latest improved Murray Air Blast gins on one side and the famous Daniel Prat brush gins on the other, all equipped with latest hull-extracting and cleaning devices.

We are now ginning on one side of this gin and will be ready on the other side soon.

Our other plant known as the Turner Gin has been completely overhauled and equipped with latest and sampling machinery.

We have been ginning in Santa Anna for thirty years and offer you the benefit of our experience and latest improved machinery, guaranteeing our work at both plants to be as good or better than the best.

We are the exclusive owners of these two plants and have no other gin interests in Santa Anna, and are thus enabled to devote all of our time to the management and operation of same.

We will appreciate any amount of your business that you see fit to give us, and will strive in every way to serve and please you.

Who Makes Farm Prosperity?

American farmers are $1,200,000,000 better off than they were six weeks ago, as this is written. The Chicago Tribune in an article showing "what the farmer has to look forward to as the price to be paid for the agricultural crops of 1924" as based on Government estimates, cites the following: Wheat, $351,000,000; corn $2,264,000,000; oats, $610,000,000; barely, $114,000,000; rye, $51,000,000; and cotton (New York price), $1,620,000,000.

"Latest estimates on the world's prospective exportable surplus are around 725,000,000 bushels of wheat, which is 25,000,000 below the anticipated requirements of the world," states the Tribune.

Congress adjourned too early to claim credit for this improved prospect. The farm bloc fared too unsuccessfully to be able to pocket the glory. Is it not the bill of Tom, Dick or Harry that is to put agriculture nearer Easy street. It is not price-fixing that has put farm values on a higher level. Parties and politicians are mere wall-flowers in this latest dance of crop prices.

It is fortunate in more ways than one that prosperity is making its bow on the stage precisely so. It means that we shall hear less, for a time, of false, futile and foolhardy economics. The world-savers won't be needed for a while.

Prosperity travels not in arbitrary cycles, but on direct lines and unmistakable principles. A little study in advance can tell the wheat farmer when he is going to lose money. And an ounce of foresight is worth many pounds of legislation. Prosperity means merely that the demand is as strong or stronger than the supply. Every year would be prosperous if every farmer would heed the signs that are posted along the economic highway—Farm and Ranch.

While waiting for the big opportunities, keep busy with the little ones.

MUCH PROPERTY IS HELD BY BAPTISTS

Baptist property in Texas is valued at $34,675,297, including sixteen schools and colleges, six hospitals, one orphanage, 2,150 church houses and 550 homes for pastors, Dr. F. S. Groner, General Secretary of the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas Reports. Texas schools and colleges are valued at $9,466,742, including endowment, the hospitals at $5,919,460 and Buckner Orphans Home at $1,000,000. Church houses and homes for pastors in the State have an aggregate value of $18,289,095. No other Southern State has a greater valuation of Baptist property than does Texas. There are more white Baptists in Texas than in any other Southern State, the number being 471,140, this membership being served by 2,809 ordained ministers serving 3,636 churches.

Last year the number of baptisms in Texas reached 33,780 and the total number of additions to Texas Baptist churches numbered 51,000. Contributions to local purposes in the churches of this State totaled $3,908,889 and the amount given to Christian Education, missions and benevolences was $1,609,903, while the total amount of the contributions was $5,518,792.

The value of all the Southern Baptist church property is $184,725,000 which is a little more than a tithe of the estimated annual income of Southern Baptists. Southern Baptists are said to have an annual income of $150,000,000,000 and a tithe of this would be twice the five year objective set for the denomination in 1919. The Baptist 75 Million Campaign will be closed December 31, by which time it is hoped that $21,000,000 can be raised in the South and Texas Baptists are expected to contribute more than $2,000,000 of this. Special speakers have been designated to tour the State in the interest of the fall pay up drive of the Campaign and also to speak in the interest of the future program of the Southern Baptist Convention in which the South expects to obtain $7,500,000 in 1925 for the general work of the denomination.

Some observer remarks that in proportion as people become well-to-do in about the same proportion do they become uncomfortable, and there is much truth in the observation. As soon as a family gets well enough along to make a payment on an automobile and to fill the gas tank it begins to look around for some place to go where it will be as comfortable as at home. The discomfort of the journey is almost in exact proportion to the measure of the distance traveled. The automobile has proven a great blessing to the world and travel within reason is good for people, but when half the population takes to life on the highways there is bound to be much discomfort even if a little pleasure is mixed in with it. Auto-roaming has become the great American fad. It indicates that the American people are reasonably prosperous and that they want to show it even t the sacrifice of the comforts of the home.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Farmers Gin Co. wish to announce we are READY TO GIN YOUR COTTON

Gin No. 1, as you all know, is one of the best, most complete and up-to-date gin plants in the Southwest, and nothing has been left undone to keep this gin up to the standard of requirements. By way of new equipment at this gin we have added absolutely the latest Boll Extractor on the market—it separates the burrs from the cotton before it strikes the saws and serves as an extra cleaner.

Gin No. 2, formerly the Wallace Gin—we have added the Du-o Cotton Cleaner, and also a Huler Breast on all six stands, and this gin is now complete in every way.

Our two gins are now equipped with the latest and most up-to-date attachments known to successful gin machinery, and we are prepared to give you both, a good turnout and sample. We appreciate your patronage in the past and have gone the limit in preparing to better care for your future business. Let us serve you.

L. PRICHARD DIED TUESDAY, 20, FROM LOCKJAW

After severe suffering of but three days, Luther Pritchard, one of the most popular barbers in the city of Cleburne, died shortly after noon yesterday at a local sanitarium, the victim of tetanus or lockjaw. His death came as a great shock to his many friends and resulted from an injury of ten days ago, when he fell from his bicycle enroute to his home, 1003 East Henderson street, to which place he recently moved. In the fall he received a severe gash on the right leg, either on a piece of glass or rock. The injury was dressed by a physician and on last Saturday Mr. Pritchard was able to be down town, on crutches. Sunday morning he began suffering such pain that tetanus developed.

He is survived by his grief-stricken wife and two pretty little baby daughters, Elsie Marie and Annie Laurie. He is also survived by four sisters, as follows: Mrs. Edna Blanton, Tojar; Mrs. Myrtle Blanton, Ralls; Mrs. Lizzie Murphy, Ralls, and Miss Rhoda Pritchard, Dallas, and by four brothers, M. A. of Santa Anna; C. C. and C. L. of Cleburne, and O. C. of Ranger. He is also survived by his aged father, a veteran resident of Johnson county.

Mr. Pritchard, an employe of the Sam Peacock Barber Shop, was born and reared in Johnson county. His birthplace was at the old homestead, three miles east of the city, on July 5, 25 years ago. He had been employed by Mr. Peacock for more than five years and numbered his friends by his acquaintances.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the East Henderson Street Baptist Church and will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Harwell. Burial will follow in the Cleburne cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be his co-workers, as follows: Sam Peacock, Trace Lockett, Billy Patterson, Clint Dameron, Tom Guthrie and John Peacock.

The honorary pallbearers will be: Oliver Seats, Chas. Barr, Roy Ewing, Jack Huff, Leslie Weaver, P. C. Crozier, Curtis Poindexter, Carl Wright, Roy Lankford, Ben Williams, Roy Doak and Eugene Poole.

"I have never seen a man who had more friends than did he," declared Mr. Peacock last night, in commenting on the untimely death of this popular young man. "He was honorable in all his dealings, courteous and kind to all whom he met and he numbered his friends by the hundreds. He attended strictly to his own affairs and was always found at his post of duty. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen and of the Barbers' Union.

The Morning Review extends sympathy to the bereaved relatives in this sad hour.—Cleburne Morning Review.

The Hero of Every Day

The heroism of the world is not displayed only in cases of danger. The world's battlefields are often in the human heart and walking the path of plain duty often develops real heroism. Who can imagine the mental anguish endured by thousands upon thousand of unknown heroes? Who can conceive of the numberless aching bleeding hearts that beat with a dull, maddening persistency within the weary hearts of many a noble heroine? Many men and women live long lives without ever encountering the necessity or having the occasion to show their mettle in times of danger, and yet who daily enact heroism.

Heroism is in fortitude as well as in courage; it is moral as often as it is physical. There are men who remain steadfast at their posts through many trials, who, impelled by strict regard for duty, sacrifice health and all the sweetness of life in honorable fealty to others.

There are husbands and fathers whose prolonged years are but one record of self-suppression. There are wives and mothers whose lives are made up of self-sacrifice and devotion. Obligations and duties are the web and web of ordinary experience, and there are but few of us who are below or can claim to be above the burdens they impose. The admiration which heroism inspires could not exist if the world were filled with untold meanness and grossness. We are all prone, whenever heroism is enacted under picturesque or dramatic conditions, to exalt it too much above the daily self-sacrifice of other men; but the heart of human nature in its sympathy for these acts of self-abnegation proves that it is not so bad as the cynics paint it.

If the driver in front holds out his hand, you can always tell what he is going to do if you are a mind reader.

The shrewd man steps into the path a little ahead of progress and waits for it to catch up with him.

People who think they are sick usually outnumber those who really are.

Two More Intellectual Idiots

Two more youths—this time a flapper and 'jellybean'—are held for murder in a northern state. The girls laughs, tosses her shorn locks, asks for cigarettes and says she knew her rival was to be choked to death by their mutual sweetheart when the three started out automobile riding. The boy, shown the new shoes his victim was to have worn to the marriage altar with him, brushes back his oiled hair and asks: "When do we eat?" Obviously these two idiots have been reading about the unemotional intellectuals in Chicago, whose fight to escape the gallows for the kidnapping and murder of Bobbie Franks is costing their parents and the state about $600,000. Loeb and Leopold have mocked death with such scorn that it is only natural for weak-minded simpletons in other sections of the country to try to emulate their brutal feats.

The Michigan boy and girl are making a pretty sensational start on flagrant disregard of human life and the sympathetic emotions of the human heart. But their day will be short and soon they will realize that murder isn't as funny as they thought it would be. The boy, guilty of two crimes for either of which he should be called up on to pay with his own life will soon have something else to worry about besides the glistening appearance of his pompadour and "when do we eat." There is little hope for any girl who laughs at a murder in which she confesses an important part, tosses her bobbed hair and demands cigarettes. She will likely get to spend the rest of her days within halls where peals of laughter ring out only to mock human happiness as she and her dapper Lothario from a Michigan farm now are painfully striving to mock betrayal and murder.—Temple Telegram.

Fewer Laws

Laws are made for the protection of people who live under them. If a law is a good one, it should be enforced. No favor should be shown either rich or poor, powerful or insignificant. If it is not a good law it should be repealed.

We have too many laws that are dead letters, for our own good.

This condition is well known to the public, and even to the younger generation, just coming into maturity. It is not calculated to increase respect for law. It is a breeder of evasion and the father of contempt.

We need fewer laws, but we need good ones that are enforced.

Are You Reading The News?

Do you like the sheet? Do you think it is worth the money, ($1.00 a year)? If you do we want to keep you as a reader, and we have the temerity to ask you to say a good word for the paper to your friends and neighbors who are not regular subscribers. It is the ambition and desire of the publisher to mail a News each week to every home in the country. This paper has so much in common with all county residents that you can not afford for the sum of one dollar to miss receiving the News regularly. We are egotistical enough to believe in our competency to secure and publish the news. There is so much of vital importance occurring right here in Coleman county which you should keep posted on that you cannot further afford to do without this paper. In this day of science, progress and civilizing development you cannot learn and achieve as fast as your associates unless you read, and you must have the right sort of information. We only succeed as we become enlightened. Now, we don't pretend to label this publication a literary model or authority, but we do claim that scientific campaigns such as those made for more dairy cows, co-operative marketing, better grades and a greater production of wheat, corn, poultry, etc., are discussed thoroughly in this paper. We feel that your public affairs are of some importance to you. All information pertaining to your county, city, school district, etc., is found in the News. Political news, local and state is found in these columns a plenty, and can you afford to miss all these for the sum of one dollar a year?

We are going to give you a good newspaper and we want the people of this county to read it. Far be it from us to attempt to force our opinions on you. But this is a newspaper, free, unhampered and unbossed. Our editorial column is the editor's opinion, and no other. It is a newspaper for all the people, honestly and conscientiously striving to serve its readers and patrons. We want you for a reader.

THANKS

To those who have so loyally stood by me and supported me in the recent race for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, my heart goes out to you and I don't know any word that could express all of my gratitude. So will only say I thank you. To those who did not support me I have no hard feeling and will try my best to serve you just the same.

The Battle of Adobe Walls

The battle of Adobe Walls, fought in 1874, where twenty-eight straight-shooting plainsmen held five hundred Comanche Indians at bay for five days, and with their withering rifle fire finally brought conviction to the Indians that the scalps of the twenty-eight were not worth the price it would take to get them, is a desperate adventure of frontier days in the Panhandle of Texas.

John J. Clinton, who died at Abilene, Texas, June 1, 1922 and who at one time was Abilene's chief of police took part in the Adobe Walls fight. Chief Clinton, in relating incidents of the battle, said it was the most thrilling experience in the more than half century of his life as Confederate soldier, government scout, cowboy, Indian fighter and Texas ranger.

The fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Adobe Walls was fittingly observed by the citizens of the Panhandle, June 27 and 28, 1924. A monument to the valor of the 28 men who participated in the fight was unveiled on the battle grounds, in Hutchinson county, Texas, and the corner of Adobe Walls marked with concrete markers and appropriate marble slabs placed on the graves of the three white men who were killed in the battle.

Read the details of this stubbornly fought contest in the Sept. 5th issue of the Santa Anna News. It will appear in the Magazine Section of this issue. If your subscription is about to expire renew now and don't fail to read this most wonderful chapter in the life of John J. Clinton.

Making Divorce Easy

Judge T. O. Hatchcock of the Municipal court of Atlanta, Ga., believes that to make divorce easy, marriage should be made more difficult.

This is a paradox that is difficult to comprehend. In making marriage regulations more strict the aim is to overcome the divorce evil.

The judge's conclusion is that if hasty marriages were prevented by uniform laws, divorce would be simple because those seeking legal separation would have good reason and the cases would be materially reduced.

"Divorce is a splendid thing," says the judge, "when two people find they can not live together."

There may be cases where divorce is a "splendid thing" but they are few and far between.

The meaning of those fateful words "for better or for worse" will have to be understood by the candidates for matrimony before a beginning will be made in the direction of solving the divorce evil.

Laws are not so much the solution as education. It is clearly the province of the parents to prepare their children for marriage. Only when they understand what marriage means, will young men and women be prepared for wedded life.

The mothers who want their daughters to be "perfect ladies" should remember the days of their youth and profit by it.

WILD-EYED DRIVING

"Motorists Kill Three and Injure Two," says a newspaper headline. There's nothing particularly unusual about that. It happens every day in some city or some rural community.

Lives are continually being slaughtered at the altar of the god of speed. People are becoming so accustomed to the daily occurrence that they no longer feel the sense of horror that once accompanied such tragedies.

Wilful disregard of laws and safety rules, as well as the rules of common decency, as practiced by a growing number of motorists, is certain to bring into being a flood of "thoushalt-not" bills in the legislature. Though public sentiment seems to be asleep, it will flare up some day, when reckless drivers go the limit, and decent drivers will have to suffer in the reaction when the pendulum swings back.

It would be the part of wisdom to attempt to curb wild-eyed driving before the many have to suffer for the sins of the few.

Blinding Headaches

"For about twenty years," says Mr. F. A. Walker, a well-known citizen of Newburg, Ky., "one of our family remedies has been Black-Draught, the old reliable. . . I use it for colds, biliousness, sour stomach, and indigestion. I was subject to headaches when my liver would get out of order. I would have blinding headaches and couldn't stoop about my work, just couldn't go. I used

Theford's

and it relieved me. "About eight years ago my wife got down with liver and stomach trouble. . . We tried all week to help her. . . but she didn't get any better. One day I said to the doctor, "I believe I will try Black-Draught, it helps my liver." He said that I might try it and to follow directions. She was nauseated and couldn't eat or rest. She began taking Black-Draught and in two days she was greatly improved and in a week she was up. "Try Black-Draught. It costs only one cent a dose. Sold everywhere. E-99

To Eat Sweets and Get Thin

Too much food of all sorts rather than many sweets is the cause of overweight, Dr. James McLester of Birmingham, Ala., told members of the American Medical Association in session of Chicago recently. One can still eat sweets and lose weight, he said, provided a moderate quantity be taken. Says Science Service's Daily Science News Bulletin (Washington):

"Sweet desert may make a slim meal seem satisfying. Dr. McLester said, and therefore they should be permitted to patients on a diet in order to hold them to minimum intake of other sorts of food. Dr. McLester continued: "The extent to which food gives a sensation of well-being and satisfaction is called its satiety value. Meat has the highest satiety value of all foods; it "sticks to the ribs" longest. Hard-boiled eggs have a higher satiety value than soft-boiled eggs, although both are of equal caloric value. Potatoes are to be preferred to bread. The strict limitation of the total intake of food together with exercise are the two standard principles upon which the system of reduction is based, Dr. McLester declared. He said: "It is not necessary to resort to freak diets in order to accomplish a reduction in weight. Rational measures, which follow known physiologic laws, consistently observed, are safer and, in the end, more effective. Finally, a warning should be uttered against rapid reduction in weight. A loss of three to six pounds a month when continued sufficiently long, will obviously bring weight to any desired figure." —Literary Digest.

Baptist Missionary Society

The Baptist Missionary Society had their regular meeting at the Baptist church, Monday afternoon. Circle No. 1 had charge and a very interesting program was rendered. The subject was the "Negro in our midst." The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Slaughter. After the rendition of the program a business meeting was held. A good crowd was present. The Society was glad to have Mrs. V. L. Grady present, who has just returned from Colorado where she spent the summer.

IT PAYS TO USE GOOD SEED WHEAT

By H. M. Bainer, Director, The Southwestern Wheat Improvement Association.

Even though Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas have just harvested a big wheat crop, good authority has conservatively estimated that, through the use of better seed alone, the total yield could easily have been increased 25,000,000 bushels. This is equivalent to an additional profit of 125,000,000, as good seed costs very little more than ordinary seed. In fact, better seed had been sown, thereby improving the quality of the crop and eliminating smut, rye and mixtures, the increase in value would easily have been twice this amount.

Mr. A. H. Leidigh, agronomist of the Texas Experiment Station, says: "Through the use of superior varieties of seed wheat in Northwest Texas, during recent years, large increases in yields have been secured. Had this kind of seed been uniformly sown last fall, in the place of a lot of country-run mixtures, the profits to Panhandle farmers this year would have been increased thousands upon thousands of dollars."

"Central-North Texas is known by the mixed wheat it grows; pure seed is almost unknown. The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has repeatedly tested the mixtures grown, as well as graded versus ungraded seed, and has found that the yield can be greatly improved through pure seed. The Station is ready to recommend and help locate seed of certain pure wheats for sowing in this part of the state."

Country-run seed can be greatly improved by cleaning.

Wesley Adult No. 3 Entertains

Wesley Adult No. 3 class of the Methodist Sunday school entertained on last Thursday with a swimming party at Idle Wild. On arriving most of the ladies donned bathing suits and proceeded to enjoy themselves in the water. After the bathing was over a sumptuous supper was spread which the crowd enjoyed immensely. Then every one returned home. Visitors present outside the class were Mrs. Eaton, San Antonio, Mrs. Carroll and Mrs. Eck.

THE WORLD GOES WHITHER IT IS LED

The destiny of any people depend upon the quality of its leadership.

The condition of the world today is the result of the leaders of generations of the past. Today we are determined that the next generation is to be educationally, socially, morally, and spiritually. And the comparatively small number of leaders among us are making us what we are today.

Every great movement has back of it some outstanding leader. With him there has been associated a few prominent leaders. This has been true since Moses led the throng of Hebrews from bondage into the promised land.

Now where are these leaders to be found? "Who's Who in America," is a compilation of 25,000 leading men and women of America. Here are the financiers, the statesmen, the educators, the philanthropists, the authors, the preachers who are shaping the life of America today.

Of these 25,000, seventy-three per cent are college trained. Only twenty-seven per cent are not college men or college women. Yet only one per cent of America's population is college bred.

Or, in other words, America's population is divided into two classes—the mass of 99,000,000 without college training, and the small group of 11,000,000 with a college education. Yet, when we investigate, we find that of 25,000 leaders 18,250 are in the small group of college trained, while only 6,750 belong to the vast multitude who do not have a college education.

Does college education increase one's chances for success? Read, and consider—Christian Educator.

UNNECESSARY THINGS

After reading recently an article about a man in Missouri, who claims to be 65 years of age, and who during said years had never worn a collar and tie, chewed a chew of gum, rode on a train, attended a movie show, used tobacco, took a drink of whiskey, and other things which we don't just now recall to mind, reminds us of the story of a fellow who went to a doctor for a physical examination to find out at the pace he was going, just how long he could live. The doctor interviewed him in a way about like the following:

"Do you drink?"

"No, sir."

"Do you use tobacco?"

"No, sir."

"Do you gamble?"

"No, sir."

"Do you play the women?"

"No, sir."

"Well," said the doctor, without a further diagnosis, "what do you want to live any longer for?"

Of course we offer the above comment humorously, and aside from the whiskey drinking, and for "safety first" we had better include the female flirtations and the occasional peep at the "hole card," we enjoy them all, and are proud to live in a day possessed of, as the Missourian calls them "unnecessary things."

Got the Result

Mr. Charles Moore, 2415 Eakin St., Dallas, well-known Texas citizen, says Karnak, the sensational new medicine, has freed him of two years of acute suffering from stomach trouble. "Indigestion and bloating had me so I couldn't draw a deep breath," says Mr. Moore, "and I was simply afraid to eat. I had to be always taking strong purgatives, too, and was so weak I could hardly get around. "Karnak has fixed me up strong and well and for the first time in two years I eat anything I want. Karnak is a great medicine."

Karnak is sold in Santa Anna at CORNER DRUG CO.

THE PASSING DAY

(By Will H. Mayes)

Two hundred and thirty-five members of the Boys' and girls' clubs of Shelby County were in Austin recently for a day and two nights. They are making a thousand mile. itinerary of Texas and stopped to get acquainted with the capital of their state. Many of them had never been out of their home county in East Texas before starting on his trip. Most of them earned the money with which to pay the incidental expenses of the fifteen day automobile trip, and most of the food used was grown and canned by the boys and girls. The girls made the clothing they wore.

As an educational tour nothing quite like it or quite so helpful has ever been undertaken before. These youngsters are of an age when investigation, discovery, is like to be the keenest interest in their lives. Nothing that came within their sight escaped them; nothing that was said to them was unheard; everything will be remembered. Not only will they know and love their state better, but they will talk about it to the people back home. Shelby county will hereafter feel that it is in Texas, rather than on the border between Louisiana and Texas. The girls and boys will fire the people at home with their enthusiasm, and pride in Texas will be intensified.

The trip provided for a four day stay at the A. & M. College to be spent in an intensive study of farm and home problems and in meeting prize-winning boys and girls from all over Texas. What a wonderful opportunity! These several thousand of Texas' brightest young country people will learn from each other something of what the boys and girls throughout the state are doing. The competition for honors will be great, the rivalry will put the contest ants on their metal. The Shelby county contingent, themselves local prize winners, will be fired with an ambition to excel in whatever they do, and the ambition, once thoroughly aroused, seldom dies.

A feature of the trip that attracted much attention was that at each place where the party camped for the night, it served a feast of Shelby County products grown and canned by the girls and boys making the tour. No Texan ever ate a better dinner of nourishing, wholesome, body-building food. It illustrated that East Texas can feed itself with the best food and at slight expense, even through long seasons of drouth or flood. All east Texas needs to do is to

SCHOOL DAYS

TWO more weeks and the School Bells will be ringing again. This means the kiddies, the boys and the girls must have new clothes.

Most of them remember the good service they got from their "RED GOOSE" Shoes last year and we want to say that we have them again in all sizes and a number of styles to select from.

With each pair purchased we give a red goose free. There are higher priced ones but NONE BETTER

FOR THE SCHOOL GIRL

We have added a line of Ready-made Gingham and Percale dresses, made by the same people who make our "Happy Home" house dresses. They are as pretty as can be and sell for only 85c grow a sufficient variety of easily grown food products, can them, and live in luxury. The soil does its part; the seasons are favorable; it is only up to the people to be reasonably thrifty and energetic.

But the lesson should be worth more to West Texas than to the eastern part of the state. West Texas has periods of drouth in which but little food-stuff is raised. With sufficient regular rainfall so much is grown that a large part of it is wasted. There is not a county in all that great section of the state in which enough food could not be canned to tide over a drouth of several years' duration. But aside from that, it must be nice to go to one's very own pantry at any time of the year and get cans of fresh vegetables and fruits of all kinds, and beef and spring chicken as good as that fresh from the market house. The time will come when most Texas farmers will have on hand at all times at least a year's supply of canned food.

In almost every county of Texas barbecues and picnics have been held this month attended by thousands to hear political speeches and empty promises. Even small communities have spent hundreds of dollars in such gatherings. It is good to get the people together in political meetings, but if one half of the energy spent in political gatherings could be devoted to community improvement, Texas would soon become a most wonderful state. If the people would only take that interest in affairs for their own improvement that they take for advancing the political interests of candidates for office, Texas development would be magical. Let it be hoped that some day Texas citizens may come to regard other things as of at least equal importance with politics.

There's a Reason For All Things

The French Chamber of Deputies has pardoned former Premier Joseph Caillaux and his lieutenant Louis Malvy. They had been publicly denounced as traitors to their country, tried by a court martial and sentenced to long terms. Now M. Malvy has been re-elected to the Chamber of Deputies and it will not be long before Mr. Caillaux also makes his political re-appearance.

In South Africa General Hertzox also an opponent of the war has within the past few weeks become Premier and the Smuts government was overturned by a combination of Dutch farmers, called the Nationalists, and organized labor in the mining areas.

In England itself the present Prime Minister was as much taboo during the war as were Joseph Caillaux in France and General Hertzox in South Africa. All three were freely denounced as pro-German and as traitors to civilization. In England, also the Labor party has the support of the small landowners, the minor tradesmen.

In the United States the same tendency of farmers and union Labor to combine politically has spread. During the war Senator Robert Marion La Follette of Wisconsin was extremely unpopular on account of his opposition to the draft and American participation in the European contest. His support, moreover, comes from exactly the same elements of discontented farmers and organized labor.

Calling these new leaders bad names does not explain their return to public favor. There is a reason for all things, and in the impartial light of history compare favorably with those of the men who have led the world since the war closed. Watch and see what happens in Texas.

THE OTHER FELLOW

Do you remember the first time you took the wheel and received your first lesson in driving? Perhaps that time may still be quite fresh in your memory, or it may be so long ago that you have forgotten it. When you took your first lesson, do you remember how many beats your heart missed when you saw another car rushing toward you and sweep past, apparently just missing the side of your midguards by inches. Perhaps you got a little panicky and in your effort to avoid as you thought, an accident, you steered into the side of the road or even into the ditch. That was rather a nerve racking experience for you wasn't it? Well, remember there are thousands of new car drivers on the road today, and when you see a car coming toward you with a driver gripping the wheel with both hands and a tense look in his face, driving slowly and carefully, slow down a little and give him as much of the road as you can.—Dixie Dokey.
