

Soldiers Face Two Charges Of Kidnaping

Series Of Offenses Committed By Pair AWOL From Post

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 8 (AP)—Clarence Fred Krummert, 19 and Frank Valentine Famular, 20, Camp Hood, Tex., soldiers charged with a series of offenses including the kidnaping of a Sulphur Springs, Tex., girl, were indicted here yesterday on another kidnaping charge.

A grand jury indicted the two youths on charges of kidnaping Ruth and Wilson Abernethy, daughter and son of a Richmond minister, on Sept. 3.

Krummert, from Pittsburgh, Pa., and Famular, of Jersey City, N. J., were arrested here Sept. 5, several hours after Miss Ruth Teague, 19, of Sulphur Springs, reported to Farmville, Va., police that she had been forced to drive the two soldiers to Richmond. She said she escaped from them when they stopped for gasoline.

The pair also have been charged with armed robbery and with fleeing from justice in Texarkana, Tex. Hearings in the latter charge are set in police court here Oct. 31.

Camp hood officials said at the time the two were arrested Sept. 5 they were AWOL from the military post.

Charges of kidnaping the Abernethys resulted when state police stopped a car which Wilson Abernethy was driving. Abernethy told State Trooper Ivey Collins that the two soldiers had hitchhiked a ride in the car, held up the occupants, forced another couple in the car to get out, and then demanded a ride to New York.

Two Passengers Killed In Crash Of Airliner

Only Three Other Persons Of 46 Baddly Injured

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 8 (AP)—Gliding in for a landing through a light fog, a United Air Lines Mainliner bound for Chicago from San Francisco crashed within sight of the airport here early today killing two passengers, and injuring at least three others of 46 persons aboard.

The dead were William Wang, about 35, of San Francisco, and an unidentified woman believed to be about 50 years old.

The names of the injured were not immediately available, but company officials announced they only two or three of the 40 adults, two small infants and crew of four aboard the ship required hospitalization. The extent of their injuries was not immediately determined.

As the four-engined DC-4 plummeted to earth and broke in two, it missed striking an ammunition storage building on the Fort Francis E. Warren Military Reservation by 100 yards, according to Sheriff Norbert E. Tuck. Sheriff Tuck said the plane broke in two just ahead of the wings. The infants aboard, he added, were not hurt.

The plane was piloted by UAL Capt. L. H. Smith, who along with Co-Pilot J. L. Buchman and Stewardesses Margaret Ford and M. L. Cerney, survived without injury.

Airline officials said the ship had radioed nothing to the control tower that indicated it was in trouble. They could assign no cause for it.

The big plane was coming in for a regular landing, the only stop scheduled on its flight between San Francisco and Chicago.

The sheriff and company officials said the plane did not catch fire. All cargo and mail was saved.

Civil Aeronautics authorities, who started an immediate investigation said there was a light fog and a 400-foot ceiling.

The site of the accident was only a mile and a half northwest of the United Airlines Field.

Workmen who have been assigned to the job of refurbishing the postoffice are winding up the job by painting the flag pole and judging from the number of on-lookers who have paused to watch the proceedings, that is a feat within itself.

Floor of the postoffice building's basement were painted a battleship grey over the weekend. All offices on that floor had to suspend operations or move to temporary quarters Monday while the paint dried.

Mrs. Jewel Wilkerson of Glasscock county died unexpectedly shortly after noon Tuesday at her home, 20 miles south of Garden City. Details were not known immediately.

Arrangements, under direction of Eberly Funeral home, will be announced later.

AUSTIN, Oct. 8 (AP)—State Comptroller George H. Sheppard has concluded that the proposed good roads constitutional amendment authorizes the legislature to allow tax refunds to farmers and others who use non-highway gasoline.

He said he reached this conclusion after a study of the amendment prompted by inquiries as to its possible effect on this phase of tax exemption.

Belgium Claims Italian Treaty 'Too Harsh'

PARIS, Oct. 8 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin of Great Britain told the peace conference today "unity was the foundation of our victory and must be the foundation of our peace."

Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov of Russia presided at the plenary session.

Bevin's address followed a declaration by Paul-Henri Spaak, Belgian foreign minister and president of the United Nations general assembly, that the peace treaty drafted for Italy was too harsh in its present form.

"Renunciation of her colonies, $325,000,000 in reparations, refusal to allow Italy to ask reparations of Germany and retribution by 75 per cent of the losses suffered by Allied nations in Italy," the Belgian declared, is "asking too much."

He said the suffering which Italy caused in Ethiopia and Greece must be remembered in writing the Italian peace treaty, but that Italian resistance to the German occupation should not be declared "null and void." He lectured the delegates for adopting the last minute speedup under which much of the work of the conference was done in the closing sessions.

There was, he said, "too little to do at the start and now too much to do at the finish."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 (AP)—Possible recovery of some of the $147,000,000 that the government spent on two huge wartime pipelines hinges upon action by a special inter-agency council opening here Wednesday.

The council will pass upon 18 bids for sale or lease of the big inch and 16 inch pipelines which carried gasoline and other petroleum products from Texas oil fields to the eastern seaboard.

Because the 18 offers are highly complex and varied the War Assets Administration said considerable time may be required to pass upon the bids.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 (AP)—Postmaster General Hannegan announced today that sweeping reductions in airmail rates to foreign countries — many of them cut by more than half — will go into effect Nov. 1.

Hannegan said the reductions result from conferences with foreign postal officials during his recent round-the-world trip to study international mail conditions.

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 8 (AP)—The Protestant Orphan Home and South Side Hospital for Crippled Children at Dallas were included among 26 beneficiaries named in the will of Mrs. Mamie Kray, who died Sept. 11.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 (AP)—Army Air Forces spokesmen said today that the new B-50 Superfortresses, like all other very heavy bombardment types, are capable of carrying the atomic bomb.

Commenting on an army order for an additional undisclosed number of the Superfortresses, Wellwood E. Beall, a Boeing Aircraft company executive, said at Seattle last night that the plane "will constitute this country's principal bombardment aircraft for several years."

Florida Storm Loses Force

HURRICANE PRECAUTIONS—Plate glass windows along exposed Miami Bay front, are boarded up as a precaution against possible hurricane winds in Miami, Fla., as storm forecasters said the tropical hurricane is now headed toward the west coast of Florida. (AP Wirephoto.)

Freak Twist Brings Relief To High Winds

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 8 (AP)—A hurricane which boiled up in the western Caribbean to whirl furiously toward the thickly populated Florida west coast miraculously lost its force today, sparing the area from heavy damage.

Tampa, St. Petersburg, and other resort cities in the Tampa Bay area, had prepared for the worst. But the worst turned out to be only moderately high winds early today which swept on up the Florida mainland, turning inland and heading toward South Georgia and South Carolina.

A freakish twist, as often is the history of tropical storms, brought relief to the worried, rich West Coast. The 125-mile an hour winds suddenly dropped to gusts of 30 miles or so. There was no official explanation—only relief.

Even the bumper citrus crop appeared to have escaped. First reports from Lakeland, heart of the grapefruit and orange said the loss was minor. A record-making crop with a value of $150,000,000 has been forecast for this season.

The weakened hurricane which breezed across the Florida peninsula this morning was expected to remain inland with continued movement over southeastern Georgia and South Carolina today and tonight although strong winds were indicated as far north as Atlantic City.

The Federal Storm Warning Service in a 6:15 a.m. (CST) advisory placed the storm a short distance west of Jacksonville and moving 30 to 35 miles an hour with greatly "decreased intensity."

Jacksonville had felt winds up to 45 miles an hour in gusts with lowest pressure 29.20, the advisory stated.

The hurricane with early winds reported as high as 125 miles an hour at the center entered the mouth of Tampa Bay about midnight with great loss of intensity and moved across the state's rich citrus belt.

The 6:15 a.m. advisory stated the inland movement of the storm "will cause further loss of intensity, and gale winds near the storm center will gradually moderate today and tonight.

"The storm warnings will be lowered all over Florida as the winds subside today.

"However, precaution against high tides and squally shifting winds should be continued on the Georgia coast and northward to Charleston and strong winds occasionally reaching gale force will be felt as far north as Atlantic City today," the advisory concluded.

Police Docket Heavy Again Monday

Traffic at the Big Spring police department failed to subside as usual after a brisk weekend, when officers continued to answer frequent calls Monday.

Monday's arrests produced another lengthy docket in city court this morning, after a record breaker yesterday. Several cases on the Monday morning docket were carried over until an afternoon session.

This morning, 15 subjects appeared before City Judge Rupert Ricker, with most of them charged with drunkenness and disturbance.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 (AP)—Herman Goering wept quietly — the only break in his otherwise rigidly correct deportment — as he packed away his pictures of his wife and daughter to be sent to them after his execution, a Nuenberg jail official said today.

With a week of life remaining to them, all of the Nazi leaders condemned by the International Military Tribunal to be hanged, generally are maintaining their dignity and discipline. Maj. Frederick Teich, a security officer, told a news conference.

With the exception of the single breakdown when he regarded the photographs of his wife and daughter, Goering's deportment has been impeccable, Teich said. But both he and former foreign minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop need sedatives nightly to sleep.

Former Nazi labor boss Fritz Sauckel has broken into tears several times. He was "calm throughout the hour's visit allotted

Man Found Dead; Signs Show Struggle

MELROSE, N. M., Oct. 8 (AP)—A man tentatively identified as Felix Bass, 34, of Littlefield, Tex., was found dead early today at the southeast edge of Melrose, his throat slashed and bruises on his head.

The body was lying about 350 feet from Bass' car, from which the keys were missing. Investigating officers said tracks in the area indicated a terrific struggle.

Officers said they found considerable money in Bass' car and expressed the belief he was slain with robbery as a motive. They were seeking four men who were seen with him late yesterday.

Identification papers indicated the victim was a Navy dischargee, more recently engaged in the cotton business in Texas.

Hick's guilty plea was a surprise move in Beckham County's first murder trial in 16 years. Previously, Hicks had pleaded innocent.

In a statement to Beckham county officers, Hicks said he shot Sanders after the Texas man had given him a ride at Clinton, Okla., and the two got into an argument over direction of their journey.

He said he considered Fritzsche a "convicted Nazi."

J. D. Whitehorn, state highway patrolman, hopes the remainder of his stay in Big Spring doesn't prove as tragically eventful as his first week here.

Both Whitehorn and Strother said it was the busiest weekend they've ever experienced since they joined the state highway patrol.

Skies Clearing After Heavy Rains In Texas

The skies are clear. The sun is near. Deep in the heart of Texas! (Clap! Clap!)

That, says the weather bureau, pretty well sums up today's weather in the Panhandle and most of West Texas.

Yesterday the area was being deluged by drenching rains, which inundated farms, blocked highway traffic, disrupted railroad service, and flooded cities.

Today the skies are clearing, rains are halting, and the forecast generally is for milder weather with probably a few scattered showers here and there.

Certainty Key To The Situation

In what seems to be a down-the-middle analysis of the situation, the Christian Science Monitor points out that the key to a lot of shortage situations, notably meat, is certainty.

Uncertainties, the editorial goes on to say, have muddled the meat situation. The OPA holiday cleaned out marketable livestock supplies for weeks ahead with the country eating and deep-freezing itself into a famine while the meat industry had a big day on the fears that a famine would come.

Now, the prospect exists that consumer irritation and producer pressure will destroy controls. As a consequence, feed-lot speculators are reported buying two out of every three animals that reach the stock yards in the hope of marketing them at profits when controls go off.

Arbitrary raising of controls to such high levels that they would exist in name only would be one way out of the matter, but it would be one of political expediency and one fraught with the possibility of delaying the day of real shortage.

The administration has taken a stand toward certainty in standing back of its policy for continued control. Obviously, this is taking a political risk, for meat shortages up to the time of election could have an adverse effect at the polls.

This is of moment only in that a congress committed to junking of controls would throw the entire system—not just meat—overboard. In the other event, however, the certainty of control is apt to break a producers strike or a feed-lot gamble and restore some semblance of supply to the industry.

Safer Driving Must Be Induced

It has been a long time since our immediate area experienced such a devastating weekend in traffic mishaps as that we have just gone through. We hope it will be a long time before we see such another.

Evidence points that there were a lot of irresponsible people to blame for several of the collisions. In other cases carelessness contributed. Speed played its part, too.

Whether a person lacks the good judgment to lay off driving when drinking or whether that person refuses to exercise a reasonable amount of care in driving, he or she is irresponsible to an extent. So is the person who employs reckless speed.

All this year the Herald has been urging people to exercise greater care in their driving—to look out for themselves and the other fellow, too. Apparently, a lot of people don't read or don't care.

We still hold out that appeal, however, for safe driving is the only real solution of the question. What is past is water under the bridge, but in the future it may be well for officials to consider the advisability of sterner action in driving cases. Some people will be safe because it pays. Others may be encouraged to be safe by realization that they will be dealt with surely and sharply if they are not.

The Nation Today—James Marlow

Restaurant Prices Going Up

WASHINGTON. (AP)—It's going to cost you more to eat out. Restaurant prices on meals with meat go up 15 per cent, starting Thursday, Oct. 10.

That's only part of the story. Here's the general picture. It follows around the date of June 30.

Until June 30 restaurants were not supposed to charge more for meals than they had charged in April, 1943.

OPA had ordered it that way in order to keep restaurant prices down.

But June 30 came and on that day Congress let OPA die. Right there all price controls on everything, including restaurant meals, died, too.

Price controls were off on everything until late in July when Congress, passing a new price control law, brought OPA back to life.

But Congress had made some changes. Because of the way the new law was written, not everything that had been under price control June 30 had to go back under ceilings.

For example: poultry and eggs no longer were under price controls. And fish, which had not been under ceilings June 30, remained free of ceilings.

Yet restaurants used a lot of fish, poultry and eggs in the dishes they served and the freedom from ceilings of those things meant a great deal to restaurants.

It meant that dealers who sold those foods to restaurants were free to charge whatever they could get for their fish, poultry, eggs.

If OPA had forced restaurants to go back under the ceilings they had on June 30, then this is what would have happened:

The restaurants would be paying higher prices for fish, poultry and eggs but could not charge more than they had charged June 30.

This would have meant a loss to the restaurants. So OPA told the restaurants they could do this:

When fish and eggs and poultry cost them more, they could add part of that cost to their meals which contained these things.

Thus the price to you—of meals containing these foods—were allowed to rise.

But then, after price ceilings were put back on meat, OPA told restaurants they could not charge any more for their meat meals than they had been charging on June 30.

This infuriated the restaurant people. Some of them tried to get federal courts to block this OPA order on meat ceilings.

Many restaurants threatened to close down altogether if the OPA order went into effect.

So OPA finally gave in and said restaurants, starting Thursday, could charge 15 per cent more for their meat meals.

In many cases it will mean more than a 15 per cent boost because restaurants will be allowed to round out the increase in nickels—on meals costing over 20 cents, and in pennies on dishes costing less than 20 cents.

For example: say a roast beef dinner sells for $1.50 today. On Thursday the restaurant can charge the price 15 per cent, which would be $1.725.

That's an increase of 2 1/4 cents. The restaurant, rounding out the price in nickels, will be allowed to charge $1.75 for the dinner.

On a 15 cent sandwich, the two and one-quarter cent increase will be rounded out to the next penny, or to three cents. That will make the sandwich cost 18 cents.

So, generally, restaurant meals will cost you more from Thursday on.

Krupp Family's Fate

By JAMES DELVIN (For Hal Boyle)

ESSEN, Germany. (AP)—The Krupp munitions family, like thousands of other German families, now is scattered by death, illness and the aftermath of war.

It was different in the summer of 1930 when nine members of the Krupp family posed for a huge oil portrait that reflected unity, security and wealth.

The canvas, 10 feet high and 18 feet wide, still hangs in the Krupp estate, Villa Huegel, now occupied by British authorities in charge of Ruhr coal.

Berthold, third son, then about college age, wearing a dark coat and flannel trousers, standing with his arms reclining on the back of a chair—now living in Austria.

Irmgard, eldest daughter, seated in the chair and wearing a green dinner dress and pearl necklace—married to Baron Raitz von Frentz and living in Hannover.

Alfried, eldest son, seated on the arm of the chair, dressed in a gray business suit with black and red striped tie—director of the Krupp works in Essen, he was arrested at Villa Huegel when American troops took the town shortly before the war ended. Disposition of his case still is to be determined.

Harald, fourth son, then about high school age, wearing sports clothes with a fawn colored sweater and white sport shirt—captured by the Russians at Bucharest.

Waltraut, youngest daughter, a child of about 12 with blonde curls, wearing a pink dress with white collar, white socks and black leather slippers—married to a wool merchant.

Eckbert, youngest son, about 10 years old, dressed in a white Etoupe suit with white socks and low black shoes—killed in Italy in April, 1945, while serving with the German army.

Bertha, the mother, seated in a chair, wearing a blue dinner dress, pearls and white shawl over her shoulders, and holding the youngest boy's hand—living in Austria.

Gustav, the father and head of the once-powerful Krupp dynasty. He looks the part of a big industrialist. A man with steel gray hair, ruddy complexion and alert expression, he stands, in morning attire with winged collar, behind his wife. He was saved by illness from going to trial with Hermann Goering and 20 other Nazi leaders as Nuernberg. Depending on his recovery he still faces the possibility of being tried for his share in arming Germany.

Claus, another son, seated in a top business suit—killed in an air accident in 1939.

In brief, most of the male members of the family encountered disasters of one kind or another.

Truck Driver Held On Murder Charge

GEORGE WEST, Oct. 8. (AP)—M. Lemon, 26, Dineco truck driver, has been charged with murder in connection with the death of Carol D. Hurst, 20, of Clegge, who died in a local hospital late Saturday from injuries received in a shooting on a downtown street here Friday night.

The charges were filed by Liveoak County Sheriff W. H. Smith. Eugene Holland, 21, also from Clegge and a companion of Hurst, received a flesh wound in the shooting.

Deputy Sheriff J. L. Dodd said Lemon surrendered to Sheriff Smith shortly after the episode. Late last night Lemon was being held in jail in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Pearson Defends Friendship Plan

WASHINGTON.—Many people have written regarding my proposed five-year plan for peace and friendship with Russia—some critical, some appreciative, some wanting more information. This column is an attempt to answer some of the very important points raised in their letters.

Harold Walton, Philadelphia—The idea of a five-year plan for friendship is merely a human approach to a most terribly difficult problem. It is an attempt to head off a drift toward almost certain war—if we continue the way we are going. It is an attempt to get two peoples better acquainted, always the best guarantee against war.

This is no panacea or cure-all, but a breathing space of five years in which we can work intensively at friendship and then get our bearings.

After every war, people are tired and wounded, their feelings on edge. They don't always have the proper perspective. If we can get away from war for five years, if we can quit talking about it and really concentrate on making friends with our potential enemy, then maybe we can pave the way for permanent peace.

However, I repeat that this five-year plan for friendship is definitely conditional upon Russia's going along with us 100 per cent. If she won't go along, it is much better to know it right now and prepare for the worst.

Byrnes is Right—Harold Preece, Chattanooga, Tenn.—I have known Jimmie Byrnes about 15 years, during which time I have probably disagreed with him more than otherwise. However, I am convinced: 1) That he has grown greatly in stature; and 2) that after a lot of patience and so-called appeasement, his policy of firmness with the Soviet government is right.

My proposal of a five-year plan for friendship with the Russian people in no way conflicts with Byrnes. His policy is aimed at the Russian government; the five-year plan is aimed at the Russian people, many of whom do not know what their government is doing.

Byrnes's policy at the moment is negative and preventive. The five-year plan for friendship is positive and constructive. The policeman on your beat may be a fine, conscientious guardian against crime. But when he helps to organize boys' clubs, as so many police do, then he is building constructively against crime at the source. That is the difference between the policy of firmness and the policy of friendship. Both are sometimes necessary, and Byrnes has been so busy with one he hasn't had time to concentrate on the other.

Russia goes on the rampage in Turkey, or even threatens to, then Secretary Byrnes will be absolutely right in being firm, and for one shall back him up.

Russia Needs Funny Papers—Mrs. William Cane, New York City.—I doubt if more than one or two publishers would object to my plan of a Russian radio station and a Russian newspaper in New York to explain the Soviet viewpoint to the American people.

This part of the 5-year plan, of course, hinges on the Russians' giving us reciprocal privileges in Moscow, and I am afraid we might have more trouble selling the idea to the Russians than to American publishers.

However, think what American publishing ingenuity could do with a newspaper in Moscow. American newsmen could turn out a paper so readable that its circulation would hit every corner of the Soviet. I have always contended that one thing the Soviet system needed was a regular diet of comics. We've got to show the Russian people that we are not warmongers, but are just as human as they are. If you can laugh with each other, you won't fight each other.

Goodwill Ambassador Wallace—Forse Dennis, Louisville, Ky.—Unquestionably one chief difficulty with any five-year plan for friendship with Russia would be selling it to the Kremlin. So far, the Kremlin has been opposed to anything like this, largely, I suspect, because they are afraid we might undermine their political system. Communism has been sold of the thesis that it has brought great gains to the Russian people (and, compared to Czarist days, it has; but, when the Russian people see the high standard of living of Americans or even western Europeans they can hardly believe their eyes.

However, the Byrnes policy of firmness toward Russia has the Kremlin worried, and I believe the top leaders might now be convinced that five years of real friendship would bring lasting gains to Russia. Hitherto, they have figured we would appease—a policy which would permit them to have their cake and eat it too.

Ralph C. Busser, Jr., Philadelphia.—My idea is proposing that Henry Wallace go to Russia as US ambassador in because of his probable influence with the Russian people and government.

The men at the top in Russia are going to need a lot of selling on friendship, and Henry Wallace's sincere idealism plus his long-time sympathy for Russia should help. The Russian people, basically most friendly, unfortunately have been so unfairly informed by a government-controlled press that they don't know what the real score is.

Abolish Aggressive Armament—Constantine Brown, Washington, D. C.—You are absolutely right that total reduction of all aggressive armament between the United States and Russia should be the ultimate goal of a plan for peace. My proposal of an immediate moratorium on all rearmament should be merely a start toward the abolition of all aggressive armament later.

Robert Goss, Palo Alto, Calif.—Your fellow townsman, Herbert Hoover was so right, back in the relatively peaceful days when we were trying to disarm, when he proposed that big battleships, long-range submarines, tanks, and other offensive weapons constitute a hazard to peace and a temptation to make war. This should be our aim under a 5-year plan for peace with Russia. Small PT boats or destroyers are quite efficient to police any nation's shores, keep down smugglers, and handle island difficulties. Likewise, you don't need tanks to quell riots or trouble at home. The only time you need these aggressive weapons is when you want to go out and use them against the other fellow.

Heavy bombers are in the same category. A fighter plane, unable to fly long distances, is almost purely defensive. No one can object to it as an aggressive weapon. The heavy bomber, of course, is different.

However, reduction of armament with Russia must be a two-way street. It can't be one-sided. In other words, if the USA reduces its offensive weapons—and, after all, our tremendous industrial capacity to turn out these weapons is one of our greatest strengths—then Russia must reduce her tremendous army. At present, the Red Army is only a little smaller than during the war. And for a nation geographically contiguous to other European nations, a big land army can be just as great an offensive weapon as bombers and battleships—in fact, more so. All Russia has to do is give the order, and her tremendous army could sweep across western Europe to the English Channel in three weeks.

Inspect Arms Factories—Al Cohn, Los Angeles.—One of the most important things we have to do to restore harmonious relations with Russia is permit free access to both nations. At present, Russians come and go freely in the United States. They have passports to enter, but once inside the USA they can go and come as they please. They can count the number of munitions factories we have and the number of plants which are making atomic bombs. They can travel all around the atomic plant at Oak Ridge, Tenn., though they can't go inside it. Neither can American citizens, without very special passes.

On the other hand, one thing that keeps US Army-Navy officers jittery is the fear of another Pearl Harbor. They haven't got over the terrible error they made when the Japs caught them cold. They never want to get caught that way again. You can't blame them.

And the thing Army-Navy officers fear most is a so-called "suicide blitz" or a long-range atomic attack via the North Pole. This possibility is what makes some Army-Navy people talk about a preventive war with Russia.

On the other hand, many Army officers I know would give Russia the secret of the atomic bomb if the Soviet would permit us free access to their factories and free exchange of information. Each side would then know what the other was doing. So far the Russians haven't been willing to do this. That's extremely significant. I am not prepared to say whether Bernie Baruch tactics or diplomatic bungling or plain Russian belligerence is the reason. But it's one of the most important points we must fret out if we are to win peace with Russia.

Interpreting The News—DeWitt MacKenzie

Is The British Empire Shrinking?

That was an amazing speech which former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill delivered at the week-end when, as leader of England's Conservative Party, he painted a gloomy picture of a shrinking British Empire.

Churchill was bidding for a continuation of his leadership at a party conference (a leadership which was confirmed with deep-throated cheers), and he was charging the present Socialist government with making grievous mistakes to the detriment of the empire. Still, it must have been hard for him—the quintessence of British imperialism—to make these admissions.

The famous war-time premier attacked the Socialist government especially on two lines—Palestine and India. He charged that the government was "vacillating without plan or policy" for the Holy Land and was "holding on to a mandate in which they have no vital interest." He declared such a course was "gaining the distrust and hostility both of Arab and Jew."

It was regarding mighty India, however, that which he really let himself go. He accused the Attlee government of so mishandling the situation that "no one can measure the misery and bloodshed which will overtake these enormous masses of humble, helpless millions, or under what new power their future destiny will lie" (this last was a reference to Russia).

Well, now, what about this empire which "is being reduced" so sharply—the empire upon which the sun never sets? Whitaker's almanack (published in London) says:

"The British Empire occupies over one-quarter of the known surface of the globe, and its population exceeds one-quarter of the estimated number of the human race. Most of these millions are in India.

Of course mother England herself made a major imperial change when she conceded the sovereignty of the great dominions—Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the Union of South Africa—which became members of the "British Commonwealth of Nations." Now the Socialist government in London has offered India this same dominion status, with the same privileges of withdrawing from the commonwealth if she so desires.

Still, since all the signs are that Russia is going to wield vast influence in the Orient, we can see what Churchill has in mind. Also one might make the observation that if India's interests seem to her to lie with England, then Hindustan will remain within the commonwealth. If she thinks she belongs exclusively in an Asiatic bloc—not unlikely dominated by Soviet Russia—then the British Empire will be the loser.

Melchior Boosts Art

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Lauritz Melchior, who can be vocal on or off the stage and screen, says he is going to take his new duties seriously when he becomes a US citizen Dec. 13.

In his baronial Hilltop home, the mountainous Melchior explained why he hadn't raised his voice about his adopted land before: "When you're a guest, you don't tell your host what to do."

When the tenor is no longer a guest, but one of the family, he intends to plug for one of his pet projects. "I would like to see a new cabinet position—a secretary of state for arts and sciences," he announced in his rapidly improving English.

The United States has led the world in many matters, he remarked, and now it must take the lead in artistic and scientific matters. "Our young students cannot study in France, Germany or Italy," he said.

"Our young people must be able to go someplace to learn something besides crooning."

If you're trying to ape the hairdos of your favorite femme stars wear on the screen, you might as well give it up. That's the edict of Eunice, hair dresser for Eagle-Lion Studios.

"What looks good on Hedy Lamarr, Greta Garbo or Sylvia Sidney, might be attractive on other women," she said, "but it wouldn't be practical. Film hair styles require an hour or more to prepare and a hairdresser in constant attendance the whole day of work."

Who couldn't look good with attention like that? she asks. Better try something not so elaborate, as the stage do disfigure when they don't have to look quite so glamorous.

Bovines Ahead Of Soldiers And Irish In Football Poll

Michigan Moves To Fourth Spot Ahead Of UCLA

NEW YORK, Oct. 8 (AP)—After two years Army has finally been rooted out of its spot at the head of the nation's football parade.

The nation's sports writers, voting in the Associated Press' first weekly poll of 1946 on the top ten teams in the country, today boosted Dana X. Bible's touchdowns-happy Texas Longhorns up to the head of the class. All told, 108 ballots were cast from coast to coast, and 69 of them voted the straight Texas ticket. Army got 21 first-place votes, and Notre Dame, finishing third, drew 15. One voter balloted for a first-place tie among the Longhorns, the Cadets and the Irish. University of California at Los Angeles and Pennsylvania each drew one of the other two first-place nominations.

Under the usual point system of scoring—10 for a first-place selection, 9 for a second, 8 for a third and so on—it was a photo finish among the top three, with Texas piling up 999 1-3 points, Army 928 1-3 and Notre Dame 913 1-3. Army's second place nominations were 36 to 13 for Notre Dame.

It has been just under two years now since Davis, Blanchard & Co. moved into their address on No. 1 Football street. That was two days after they caved the roof in on Notre Dame 590 in 1944. They've been there ever since.

But last Saturday, while the Cadets were whipping Cornell 46-21—in a game that saw a team score more points against Army than any other outfit had piled up in three years—Texas took on the Oklahoma Aggies in the nation's outstanding game-of-the-day and just about ran the Cowboys out of the ball park, 54-6. The Longhorns climbed from tenth spot in the national rankings.

Michigan, with a total of 832 points, moved up to fourth place in the week's voting, off victories over Indiana and Iowa.

Back on the top four, the rest of the first ten were distanced in the voting. The UCLA powerhouse, rolling up huge scores in its two outings, was fifth with 401 points. Alabama's Rose-Bowl champions, second only to Army last year, dropped to sixth in the current balloting, with 352. Pennsylvania, talked-up as the best in the east next to Army, was seventh with 254 1-3. Georgia and Tennessee deadlocked for eighth, with 247 each and Northwestern, impressive 28-0 winner over Wisconsin last Saturday, moved up to tenth, with 177.

The second ten: 11—Columbia, 146; 12—Illinois, 119; 13—Louisiana State—94; 14—Ohio State, 77 1-3; 15—Yale 47; 16—St. Mary's (California), 45; 17—Stanford, 38; Kentucky and North Carolina State, 17 each.

Others receiving one or more points included: Oklahoma, 13 1-3; Oklahoma Aggies, 13; Tulane and North Carolina, 11 each; Texas Tech and Tulsa, 10 each; Navy, 9; Rice, Mississippi State, Oklahoma City, and Hardin-Simmons, 1 each.

Birds Have Pitching Edge As Teams Move To Boston

Bob Ferriss Due To Climb Mound For Americans

ENROUTE TO BOSTON, Oct. 8 (AP)—Harry (the Cat) Brechen's darting screwball, the best any left-hander has shown since Carl Hubbell quit, has restored the 1946 World Series to an even proposition in which the pitching edge appears to rest with the National League champs.

As the teams took the day off for travel, riding the rails back to Boston's Fenway Park after splitting the first two in St. Louis, Manager Joe Cronin of the Red Sox still had an ace up his sleeve. Dave (Boo) Ferriss, who had reeled off consecutive game winning streaks of 10 and 12 while contributing 25 victories to the Sox' total of 104, could prove the balancing factor, but he now will be able to see only limited action.

By holding out Ferriss to work the third game tomorrow against Murry Dickson at Fenway Park, Cronin probably will be unable to get more than two games out of his ace winner, even if the best-of-seven series goes the limit. More than one baseball observer sensed in the Cardinals' aggressive play during the first two games the hint of a tremendous upset of the pre-series dope—an upset comparable to the one the fleet 1942 Red Birds handed the mighty New York Yankees.

Billy Southworth was gone, but Eddie Dyer, a new type of inspiring leader, had come along with a blend of young players and such holdovers as Terry Moore, Enos Slaughter, Whitey Kurowski, Marty Marion and Stan Musial, then a rookie with the '42 world champs.

While losing the opener in 10 innings 2-2, and grabbing yesterday's second game 3-0, the Cardinals pitchers have turned back Johnny Pesky, a .335 hitter, without a hit in nine at-bats. They also have held the great Ted Williams with the "Dyer shift" to one hit in seven trips. Rudy York's game-winning homer in the first game was the only Boston extra base hit. The Birds have registered four doubles and a triple. Dyer's lefthanded pitching by Pollet and Brechen deserve credit for shackling the Sox power. The series now will continue at least through Friday at Boston, and is quite likely to be carried to a sixth game Sunday back at Sportsman's Park. A seventh, if necessary, will be played in St. Louis a week from today, after a Monday off for selling tickets.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Our Uncle Samuel gets the big rakeoff on the cash intake in this "golden era of sports."

Last Friday night, when Odessa's schoolboy Broncos came to town to do football battle with the village's Steers and brought a good part of Ector county with them, some 4944 persons, adults and children, paid their way in to see the bout. It was the biggest crowd in quite some time to view anything in the way of athletic contest here, what with the bands and other getting a free ride through the gate, and something like $3,596.70 went into the till.

Right off the top came $599.45 for taxes, which goes in a lump sum to the Internal Revenue men who are paid to look after Brother Jonathan's interests.

Expenses such as officials, ticket takers and electricity tariff, cut away another $157.71.

The schools split 50-50 on what was left, each receiving 1,419.77 and, of course, incidental expenses came out of that. When the bills had been wiped out, our school benefitted between $1,100 and $1,200.

A total of 2,849 adult paying patrons grabbed up the one reserve seats last week. General admission sales added up to 1,347 while another 948 ducats were sold to school children and teachers (who get in for the same price).

Despite the ante that has to be dealt the government after each contest, the local athletic fund should be in better shape after the season than at any time since the championship days of 1934.

John Urey, the former Big Spring athlete, isn't starting many of the Southwestern University football games this fall but is managing to play a lot.

A local party composed of Ted and Bill Roden, Jimmy Little, Hack Wright, Pete Howze, Bob Currie and B. J. McDaniel, which sat in on the Texas University-Oklahoma A. & M. grid battle last Saturday, are in common agreement that Aggies are better than the score indicated.

However, they say the Longhorns carried everything in every department for the full 60 minutes.

Bob Fenimore, they observe, is good enough to play on anybody's team but he got virtually no help against the Herd.

Peppy Blount managed to play about as much as anyone for the Texas eleven and caught one pass that enabled the Bovines to gain 30 yards. The mammoth Big Spring lad has plenty of competition for that right wing post.

Apparently Dana Bible's freshman team is almost as potent as the varsity. They took command on several occasions and used Blair Cherry's T-formation to great advantage.

Bobby Feller and Satchel Paige, the great Negro player, hooked up in a pitcher's duel in an exhibition baseball contest the other day in Chicago and the two fought

Home Runs Give Rebels Sweep Over Atlanta

DALLAS, Oct. 8 (AP)—The Dallas Rebels celebrated their first Dixie Series championship in 20 years today while the Atlanta Crackers returned home without the solace of a single victory in the post-season play-off.

Dallas beat the crackers 9-7 here last night in a free-swinging game—the fourth straight in the series—as the Rebel home run bats drove Eal McGowan, leading Southern Association hurler, to the showers in the third inning. Clint Conaster homered in the first for two runs. Dallas rose up 18 count six times in the third, featured by Harvey Riebe's home run with the bases full.

Bob Moyer contributed a homer in the fourth. The Dallas victory was the fourteenth Dixie Series championship for the Texas League in 24 meetings. It was the first since 1939 when Fort Worth won it. Nashville swept the series the next three years and the Texas League did not operate in 1943, 1944 and 1945.

The Atlanta and Dallas players will divide $22,361.28 with $8,944.52 going to the Crackers and $13,416.76 to the Rebels.

DALLAS, Oct. 8 (AP)—Manager Al Vincent and 18 members of the Dallas ball club will receive $638.89 apiece this afternoon as the Texas League champs divide the spoils of the Dixie Series which they won in four straight games from Atlanta, the Southern Association representative.

Vincent and the 18 players receiving full shares are: Harvey Riebe and Burl Storie, catchers; Hank Oana, H. K. Perry, Tom Pullis, Bob Gillespie, Bobby Hogue, Joe Orrell, Walter Wilson and Quentin Altizer, pitchers; Bob Moyer, Gene Markland, Red Boren and Red Davis, infielders; and Hal Hirschon, Clint Conaster, Nick Gregory and Frank Craswell, outfielders.

One-third shares of $212.97 each go to Emory Hresko, Jackie Sullivan and Clem Cola, and quarter shares of Tommy Reed, Al Carr, Ben Hale and trainer John Reason Hopps.

A pennant fund raised by the fans also will be divided into 23 equal shares between Vincent and the 18 full-season players plus Hale, Carr, Reed and Hopps. The pennant fund has not yet been completed.

Tornado - Longhorn Game Pasteboards Offered Public. Reserved seat tickets for the Big Spring Steers-Lamesa Tornadoes game, to be played on the Lamesa gridiron Friday night, went on sale here today. Walter Reed, high school principal, has announced.

A block of only 200 tickets has arrived, Reed said, and they are being offered to the public at the chamber of commerce office, Big Spring Hardware, and the school tax office.

If the initial supply is exhausted promptly, an order for more pasteboards will be placed with the Lamesa school athletic department immediately, Reed said. Local ticket sales are to continue until noon Friday.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC'S AT Texas Lutheran College since 1942, Bill Corder (above) is bringing that football eleven into West Texas for the first time Friday when the Seagin club takes on the Sub-Ross Lobos in the ABC club charity feature here at 8 o'clock. # Yearlings Play Here Thursday

Local football fans get a chance to see what the future Steers look like Thursday night when Jim McWhorter's Big Spring Junior High school football team squares off against the Odessa Colts at Highland Park stadium.

The Yearlings chalked up a victory over Midland in Midland two weeks ago, 19-0, and were supposed to play a return game with Midland here last week but the game was called off.

Odessa also holds a victory over Midland, having beaten the Pups by two touchdowns in mid-September.

The Yearlings have been scrimmaging the Steer B squad regularly in preparation for the test.

Careless Smoking, Use Of Matches Cause Many Fires
Careless use of matches and thoughtless smoking habits cause more than $44,000,000 in damage annually in the U.S. Fire Chief H. V. Crocker reminded today, as the local fire department prepared to begin a series of demonstrations for Big Spring service clubs in observance of Fire Prevention Week.

Careless Smoking, Use Of Matches Cause Many Fires
One of the most frequent causes of fire throughout the country is smoking in bed, Crocker pointed out. The fire chief urged that every family keep plenty of ash trays available in their homes, and also to keep matches out of reach of small children and stored in metal containers if possible.

Neighbors Boast Great Line

Sooners Should Afford Texas A Strong Test

By The Associated Press
The Southwest Conference will be out for big game this week-end with the Texas Longhorns leading the loop as it tackles five inter-sectional opponents.

Texas takes on highly regarded Oklahoma at Dallas, Rice moves to New Orleans to meet Tulane, Texas A. & M. goes to Baton Rouge to play Louisiana State, and TCU and SMU meet at Miami and Oklahoma A. & M., respectively, Friday night at Miami and Dallas.

Rounding out the program will be a conference affair at Fayetteville between the surprising Arkansas Razorbacks and Baylor University's Bears.

Outcome of the heavy week-end schedule will undoubtedly determine the conference's win and loss status against inter-sectional opponents for the year.

To date, southwest teams have just about broken even in eight games, having won three (Texas over Colorado, Missouri, Oklahoma A. & M.), tied three (SMU, Temple, TCU-Kansas, Arkansas-Oklahoma A. & M.), and lost two (Texas A. & M. to Oklahoma, Rice to LSU).

After this week only six inter-sectionals will remain to be played, Baylor and Arkansas against Tulsa, SMU against Missouri, TCU against Oklahoma and Oklahoma A. & M., and Arkansas against Mississippi.

Texas will receive a thorough test in meeting the Sooners, with the Longhorns' amazing offense pitted against a powerful Oklahoma line that gave up only 83 net yards rushing to Army and 8 to Texas A. & M.

Against Tulane, Rice will be out to gain a little Louisiana revenge after dropping its season opener to LSU, 6-7.

Homer Norton is continuing his College Station search for a back-field combination that can live up to pre-season predictions of Aggie power.

Norton's headaches are being complicated by having six of his mainstays on the injury list. They are Barney Welch, halfback, hip injury; Bob Tullis, tackle, bruised leg; Leonard Dickey, tackle, knee injury; Jim Winkler, guard, charley horse; and Willie Zapalac, fullback, and Bob Gary, center, who missed the Oklahoma game.

Prospects for the Horned Frogs against Miami's Golden Hurricane brightened sharply yesterday with the return to duty of Tom Bishop and Dave Bloxom, first string backs who missed the Razorback game.

Injuries continue to hamper Matty Bell's Mustangs at SMU. The Texas Tech game saw the loss of Ed Green, punting ace, and wingback Billy Mizell for indefinite periods. Green received a fractured ankle, while Mizell took a back injury that placed him in a cast.

Negro Defendant Guarded At Trial

LAUREL, Miss., Oct. 8. (AP)—The curious trial of William McGee was to continue here today as a squad of state guardsmen accompanied the Negro to court, presumably to insure his life against "mob justice."

Charged with raping a Laurel white woman, McGee won a new trial on an appeal to the State Supreme Court which held that the lower court erred in the original trial when it refused him a change of venue.

The case is being tried in Jones county circuit court, yet McGee spends each night in the Hinds county jail at Jackson.

McGee's attorneys sought to quash his indictment yesterday on the grounds Negroes are excluded from the Jones county grand jury. The state said the Negroes have always asked to be "excused" from such jury duty.

Orange Price Ceiling Increase Granted
McAlLEN, Oct. 8. (AP)—The OPA has announced a price schedule of $4.13, FOB ceiling, on boxed oranges from the Rio Grande Valley 1946 citrus crop.
Shippers may add 30 cents a box, for oranges packed in consumer-size bags, according to the OPA order. This will mean a ceiling of $4.43 for eight 10-pound bags or the equivalent.
The Valley's grapefruit harvest this year is expected to run between 26,000,000 and 27,000,000 boxes, with the orange crop rounding out the balance of an estimated 30,000,000-box citrus harvest.

New Congress Due To Fight Controls, O'Daniel Predicts

DALLAS, Oct. 8. (AP)—A prediction that the January session of Congress will renew a fight to abolish federal price controls has been made here by US Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, who branded the present meat and housing shortages as a "New Deal plot."

O'Daniel, in Dallas to visit his daughter, Mrs. Mollie O'Daniel Wrather, said he planned to make an extensive tour of Texas to sound out public opinion on retaining the Office of Price Administration.

"It is no accident that we have these shortages," he said. "It is a New Deal plot. Certainly those senators who voted for OPA were not so dumb that they didn't know what was going to happen. But they are getting worried now. They fear that if people get too hungry they may elect someone else."

O'Daniel termed the recent dismissal of Henry Wallace from the President's cabinet as a bright spot of an otherwise "disappointing" political picture in Washington.
