"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

VOLUME LV.

SANTA ANNA, COLEMAN COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1940.

NUMBER 21.

This Week in Our Town

"One girl fractured her arm at the skating rink last Thursday," remarked one of the habitués of the rink. The girl was a young lady, Veoma Newman. Miss Newman is Sam Collier's secretary, and while her arm mends, Sam has to do more work.

"I'm staying out here enjoying this new sidewalk as much as I can," said Arthur Turner last week when the new cement sidewalk in front of the WOW building was completed. This sidewalk serves the Burris dry good store, Turner's drug store and Ragsdale's bakery. The old sidewalk was a disgrace to the places and they're mighty glad to be listed among the modern places now.

"My wife told me last summer when we were in Santa Anna that she saw you on the street," said Bob White, an old Mission, Texas, friend who now lives in Abilene. White did not know of our migration here until Tuesday when he was in town and enquired for us. Pleasant to be able to meet old friends and talk of old times and mutual friends.

"It was broken out by the wind," said one of the postoffice habitués, explaining why the big window at the bowling alley, across the street, was being boarded up Tuesday afternoon. The window, however, had been badly damaged when some enthusiastic tossed a piece of gas pipe through it Monday night. The wind just blew it to pieces. A freak wind played havoc for a few minutes. Quite a lot of red faces, too.

"Un-employment is rapidly decreasing," stated a business man Saturday morning at the post office. His statement was explained by saying that most of the unemployed were on relief and living off government checks, so were not unemployed. He admitted, however, that the relief rolls were growing by leaps and bounds, but that relief was now a real profession like law, mechanics, surveying, clerking and bricklaying.

"There were between six and seven hundred adults and children taking in either the serious program or the social hour at the bank corner Monday night," reported a gentleman who was there during the entire period. Comes Jean Erick and says almost the same number, basing an estimate on the number who registered at the sewing room during the "open house". A nice program was presented and everyone had a good time. The sewing room proved interesting and instructive to visitors.

"Can't have my grand re-opening sale until the carpenters and brickmasons finish the job on the addition," said Roy Reid when asked when the opening was scheduled. Good progress is being made on the extension and the building and Roy has all the necessary additional fixtures ready, having constructed them some times ago in a vacant store building on down the street.

"Now is the time to make them look like new," remarked Roger Hunter while slapping a new coat of red and white paint on the front panels of Hunter Brothers Red and White Store. Did a nice job, too. Art Turner got the bug the drug store. Loafers with big likewise and did over the front of feet got cussed next day. Arthur didn't paint that picture in the window, however.

Needcraft Club Meets With Mrs. Pearce

Mrs. J. R. Pearce entertained members of the Needcraft Club and guests at her home Thursday afternoon, May 16. Kingsbery, T. T. Perry, L. E. Abernathy, Clinton Lowe, W. E. Marshall, Earl Watkins, W. E. Wallace, C. W. Hamilton, Ford Barnes, S. L. TEA CLOSURE CLUB YEAR FOR SELF CULTURE CLUB

A tea, featuring a school commencement theme marked the close of the club year for the Self Culture Club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. C. D. Bruce and her mother, Mrs. J. R. Banister were hostesses at the home of the latter.

Ernest Lee Womack and Miss Francine Merritt were guest artists for the program. Mr. Womack read three of his poems and Miss Merritt read Clarence Day's "Life With Father" a very interesting three-act play that has been one of the outstanding productions of the year.

A parliamentary drill and a question and answer game, completed entertainment for the occasion. Tiny diplomas were favors on the dainty refreshment plates, served to the following ladies: Mrs. T. M. Hays Jr., W. R. Kelley, A. L. Oder, R. C. Gay, H. W. Kingsbery, Dennis Kelley, W. E. Wallace, M. L. Womack, S. R. Smith, J. Ed Bartlett, Fred W. Turner, Hardy Blue, Clinton Lowe, J. G. Williamson, J. R. Banister, S. L. Weaver, A. U. Weaver and Miss Francine Merritt.

Free Grasshopper Poison Ready For Distribution Satur.

Necessary blanks and application forms for the distribution of free poison to Coleman County farmers have arrived at the office of County Agent D. D. Steele. The poison will be used to kill grasshoppers.

Distribution of the poison from the Coleman Co-operative Gin will be on each Tuesday and Saturday morning in the future and began Saturday, May 18.

Farmers will bring their own sacks, and the necessary filler materials—such as cottonseed hulls, sawdust or bran. The poison is free and the Federal government will furnish the same amount of filler that the farmer furnishes.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR MATTRESS CENTERS

Definite plans were made for organization and opening Mattress Centers in the county at a meeting of the community chairmen, Saturday, May 18, at the County Agriculture Building in Coleman. The Santa Anna center will be located in a vacant room of the building being used for the girl's Arts and Crafts shop.

The 36 bales of cotton and 3600 yards of ticking ordered through the F. S. C. C. by the Triple A hasn't been received as yet, but are expected within the next two weeks.

All orders for cotton and ticking must be placed not later than June 30, so June 15 has been set as the "dead line" for taking applications. Applications will be taken at City Hall on Saturdays from 2 to 5 until the fifteenth. The applicants will be notified by the A. A. A. office if their applications are rejected. Otherwise, the application has been approved.

Each mattress center will have an opening day and the first group of applicants will be notified to be present. Miss Chrystene Trowbridge will open each center and supervise the making of the first mattress and tick. Afterward the community committee will be in charge.

Mrs. Roy Stockard, chairman Mrs. F. A. Rollins and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Collins were the Santa Anna people attending the meeting.

VETERINARIAN, WIFE MOVE TO COLEMAN

Dr. and Mrs. D. B. Sprott, formerly of Killeen, Texas, have moved to Coleman and expect to make their home in that city. Dr. Sprott, veterinarian graduate of Texas A&M College, of class of '38, has served with the Bureau of Animal Industry in North Carolina and with the Civilian Conservation Corps at El Paso.

There were almost as many divorce suits filed in the office of Mrs. Jack McClure, district clerk, as there were marriage licenses issued in the office of County Clerk Geo. M. Smith during the month of April. Nine marriage licenses were issued and seven divorce suits filed.

The Coleman County tax assessor-collector's office made a "score" of 100 this week when it was checked by two auditors from the State comptroller's office. It was a routine investigation. Only about a half dozen counties checked by the auditors thus far have had perfect records.

Population of Coleman county will be near 22,000, according to H. H. Jackson, Coleman district census supervisor. The population in the 1930 census was 23,699. Red Cross Drive For War Relief is Begun In Coleman County

Millions more have become the tragic victims of a ruthless war as the result of the invasion of Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg. Their people, for months in dread of war, have struggled to escape it. Now they have been forced to relinquish their safety, their security, their peace and their possessions. They join herds of others who already dwell in despair and destitution.

Your American Red Cross, since the invasion of Poland, has carried relief to Poland, and to Polish refugees in Hungary, Roumania, Latvia and Lithuania. It has rendered assistance in England and in France. It has helped brave, courageous little Finland. It has aided harassed Norway. In doing so, it has used its general funds, the results of its annual Roll Call, the contributions sent in voluntarily. It has made no appeal; no campaign for funds. It now must do so. The months ahead threaten and may demand all our resources. And so your Red Cross calls to all the country, to all its people everywhere to give and to give generously.

A minimum of ten million dollars must be had at once. The Coleman County's share of the goal is $920,000, says Chas. Mathews, drive chairman. Motorized, mechanized warfare in all its fury sweeps across brave, but little lands. Destruction is rapid. So also must be the response of those who would sustain the sufferers.

The great heart of America goes out to the victims of all wars. Our sympathies must not be empty expressions. They must be mobilized for action. Not the action that destroys but the action that gives life and hope.

Ten million dollars is the minimum needed and it is needed at once. Please send your contributions to Santa Anna Chapter, American Red Cross.

LOCAL NYA PROJECT OF MATERIAL BENEFIT

The local P. T. A. with the assistance of the teachers of the smaller pupils in the elementary school distributed 34 play-suits and other garments to needy children last week. The committee has other garments to distribute to children of pre-school age as well as outing garments that will be given away next fall. These clothes, numbering 92 garments, were made available through the Home Making and Craft project under the supervision of Mrs. Alfie Moseley.

The personnel of this project is divided into three shifts working 8 and 9 at a time. At present they are weaving rugs and upholstering furniture, as well as carrying out their usual routine training of cooking and home making.

The girls are busy all the time at tasks any housekeeper should know, and are taught to use anything they have to make something useful as well as artistic.

There is a plan to use a room in the building for a clubroom or for book reviews, lectures and social affairs. The girls are to make curtains and weavers serve refreshments to a group for a little additional cost.

DATE CHANGED FOR LOG ROLLER MEETING HERE

The Santa Anna Woodmen of the World camp, oldest in this district, will be host to the Central-West Texas Log Rollers Association in its next convention to be held Friday night, July 12. Change in date from Thursday night to Friday night is cited by W. T. George, district promotion director in notices sent out at the week-end.

Hopes of making the meeting the largest held by the regional association are entertained in that the session comes immediately after conclusion of the W. O. W. Fiftieth anniversary campaign.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS WPA CELEBRATION

Directors in charge of the opening program in observance of "This Week Pays Your Community Week" given Monday night on the street corner at the WPA sewing room, estimated an attendance of 675 people.

The opening address was made by Mayor Geo. M. Johnson, who spoke of the benefits derived from the sewing room, recreation, library and street projects. After the invocation by Rev. M. L. Womack the audience sang, "America." James Jordan area engineer, spoke on "What these Projects Mean To Our Community" and Charles Mathews, principal of the Santa Anna Ward School pointed out the usefulness of the Recreation program.

Following the talks a social hour was enjoyed with a sing song, marching and circle games furnishing entertainment. A. L. Lewellen and his orchestra supplied the music for the affair.

Congress Increases Farm Tenant Relief Bill Fifty Millions

Keen satisfaction that the House has concurred with the Senate amendment to the 1941 Agriculture Appropriation bill, continuing and increasing the farm tenant program, was expressed by Congressman Chas. L. South today.

The amendment provides for the appropriation of $50,000,000 to be borrowed from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation at an interest rate of 3 percent per annum, and is in effect a continuation of the farm purchase program which has been in operation for the past three years.

It will be remembered that Congressman South waged a vigorous fight for continuing this program when the original farm bill was being considered in the House some weeks ago.

"This is one instance in which the government can render substantial aid to a limited number of farmers without increasing the deficit, or paying a direct subsidy," says Congressman South.

Heart o' Texas News Briefs

Opening with the grand parade on Tuesday, July 2, the eleventh annual Texas Cowboy Reunion at Stamford will have its big closing day on the Fourth of July. Improvements on the grounds and buildings are underway and added features for the celebration which brings some 65,000 people to Stamford each year are being worked out.

A total of 233 carloads of cattle and sheep have been shipped from the Brady stockpens during the past month, and though the moving season is about over, heavy shipments were still going out this week. A total of 135 carloads of cattle went to grass pastures and 92 carloads were sent to market.

Twenty-one WPA projects, involving expenditures of $443,539 in WPA funds, and $322,302 supplied by local government agencies, were authorized to start Wednesday, according to information from San Antonio.

Brady may be chosen as site for an annual state-wide encampment of Texas' outstanding 4-H club members, representing all counties in the state. If the encampment goes over and Brady is chosen, between 300 and 500 boys would spend a part of every summer at a permanent camp in that city.

Ground breaking was made last week for a new Brownwood industrial plant structure on U. S. Highway 67. The plant will house the Texas Glass company, makers of glass lamp chimneys. The Texas Glass company started operations two years ago with two persons employed and is now working 16 men. The company turns out big amounts of lamp chimneys to supply the Southwest. Other items than lamp chimneys will probably be added to the manufacturing schedule at the new plant.

Bert Hawthorne, highway engineer at Brady, has been transferred to Coleman where he will supervise the project on the feeder road from Coleman west toward Winters and the project from Santa Anna to the Brown County line.

A site in Erath County has been selected for the experimental sub-station of the West Texas Cross Timbers, Sandy Land area, it has been learned. The station is to be located near John Tarleton College, Stephenville. Brownwood has led a six-year fight for the sub-station.

The S. S. Thomas warehouse of Brownwood has sold over 200,000 pounds of contract wool within the past few days it was announced. The wool, which went to the Colonial Wood Co. of Boston, brought thirty cents a pound.

Scoring 925 points out of a possible 1200 and 125 more points than necessary for membership in the Rochelle chapter of Future Farmers of America is assured of receiving the Lane Star Chapter award for this year. Their scrapbook was judged first in the local federation, winning over Brady, Lohn, Melvin, Doole and Rochelle, and second in the district, comprised of 19 schools.

A FEDERAL OFFICIAL MAKES the astonishing statement that commercial motor vehicles are paying too much for the use of the highways, while the private car is not paying enough, basing on the assumption that home-owners, farmers and others who pay general taxes should pay 60 percent of all highway taxes, while those who use the roads should pay but 40 percent. deeply Santa Anna is sleeping just now, but we do know that while we are drying up and blowing away Brownwood and Coleman are thriving expanding, building, securing business, can't supply housing for new families. We have no commercial body to work for the interests of the town and its people don't want one, judging from reaction to efforts to form a chamber of commerce. Only two new homes built in a year and as many failed attempts to buy nothing of residences so old they had to be abandoned. See old vacant store building that can't be rented because owners demand pre-depression rent or no deal. More and more people going on relief, going at a rate that will soon put all the population on the relief rolls who are not on the government rolls on salaries. Plenty of money in the bank money to loan on good security, but none to help build on the town or save the town from destruction. The small villages and towns of Coleman county and no other counties, are doomed unless people jump and help awakening business men put their trading center on the map again. Good roads and fast cars, and an urge to see the other side of the mountain and to the devil with the home town is taking its toll. Either folks can wake up now or some day find it necessary to sell out for a pittance and move closer to a large town in order to get anything in the way of services other than the RFD and the RRA. Think it over.

LAST WEEK WE CARRIED AN advertisement for George W. Studley of Rochester, N. Y., who is an authorized dealer in army and navy medals of the U. S., as well as medals of foreign governments. Studley is probably the best posted man in the US on the subject of military medals. (His catalogue lists practically all military medals, and with few exceptions he can replace lost or destroyed medals at nominal cost on being submitted a copy of the applicant's discharge or other papers substantiating his right to possess such decoration.) The writer is wearing another campaign ribbon, thanks to Studley's interest. Knowing that we were with the 90th Div., when we recently wrote Studley about remounting medals and fixing ribbon bars, he asked why we omitted the St. Mihiel medal, since "your division certainly was in the middle of it". We added the ribbon and will have the medal before long. Men of the 90th who saw overseas service are entitled, for the greater part, to the following: To everyone the US Victory medal with from one to seven bars which gives the same number of stars on the ribbon bar. To every Texan the Texas medal, with one or more stars, one for each war the soldier has been in; To every soldier going to the front, under certain conditions, the French Inter-allied Victory Medal; To all foreign soldiers in France, the French Commemorative...

THOSE WHO HELP TO GET A home merchant out of business would be consistent if they put up signs in their places of business telling why they are in business, or on the gate post, if a private citizen. Take heed. We have a good baker. He is baking good bread. If he doesn't suit you, invite his attention to your problem. If you are not an exception he can fill your need. If he is failing (the majority he can be put in line quickly enough). Excluding the rare exception, all of us who buy or sell outside bakery goods should display this sign: "I demand Ma Whooziz's bread because Ma Whooziz's bakery is not in my town or my community. I favor Ma Whooziz because she doesn't pay taxes to help my town, my schools, my fire department, because she doesn't have a payroll in my town, she pays the rents in my town, she doesn't patronize our dry goods stores, our hardware stores, our grocery store, she is not supporting our churches or contributing to local funds of various kinds, because she takes out all the money she can and spends not a cent more than is avoidable, because she is helping me run the local baker out of town so I can squawk later at having to help saddle his share of home town support that Ma Whooziz refuses to. I favor Ma Whooziz because she is showing me how to run every darn business man out of town. If we can run the baker out and keeping up this fight to put Ma Whooziz in charge of his business will in time be successful then we can run grocers, butcher, hardware merchant, drygoods merchant and all the rest out of business so that Pa Whooziz and all the other Whoozizes in other distant cities can serve us through truck delivery. If you are supporting out of town merchants to the detriment of your hometown, you are qualified to sign such a statement and should get up, demand your rights, sign a statement like that and show your loyalty to Mama and Papa Whooziz and other Whoozizes in the distant city; let the public know you are supporting the schools, churches, etc. in the distant town. It may lend a gentle piquancy that would lead to a means of putting you out of business so you could go to the distant city and feel at home amidst the pleasures your money provides that city with. GOVERNMENT'S SPOKESMEN have condemned the utilities for not spending more and thus aiding recovery, when every conceivable step has been taken by government, apparently with malice aforethought, to make it difficult for the industry to attract new capital. Not long ago the SEC actually denied one of the best private operating utilities in the country the right to issue bonds for new capital, informing it that it must issue stock instead—thus doubling its interest costs. It has become abundantly clear that the "power politicians" are less interested in recovery, less interested in helping create jobs, less interested in raising the national purchasing power, than they are in socializing the industry. There is the issue, bluntly and frankly put. The utilities, once socialized, would constitute a patronage and power. So the socialization drive goes ruthlessly on—and the "to hell with the public interest" policy goes on with it.

They change the rules they promulgate each day to suit their own whims or needs. Interpretation of basic and constitutional law are made and changed overnight without regard for courts. The bill provides that when a board or bureau makes a decision which the litigant or victim thinks wrong, he may have an immediate appeal to a judicial body. THE WALTER-LOGAN BILL, now before Congress, strikes right at the heart of what is troubling the country and the world—the conflict between the rights of man, and the authority of governments. The bill is aimed specifically at arbitrary exercise of vaguely defined authority by bureaus and commissions. And many an American citizen has discovered what that exercise of power means. During recent years we have established a host of bureaus for every purpose, from counting of whiskers on a billygoat's chin to abolishing the bill of rights in

THE WALTER-LOGAN BILL, now before Congress, strikes right at the heart of what is troubling the country and the world—the conflict between the rights of man, and the authority of governments. The bill is aimed specifically at arbitrary exercise of vaguely defined authority by bureaus and commissions. And many an American citizen has discovered what that exercise of power means. During recent years we have established a host of bureaus for every purpose, from counting of whiskers on a billygoat's chin to abolishing the bill of rights in

"WE WOULD APPROVE OUR RECORD HERE"

The cost of all Electric Service used in the average home today is no more than for light bulbs just one generation ago.

Something ought to be done about this!

FORTY years ago there were few women who didn't know the back-breaking misery of doing a family washing over a tub and a washboard.

Today, few women have that experience.

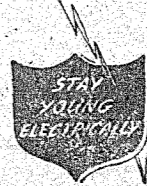

What made the change? First of all, someone said, "Something ought to be done about it."

In those words you have the real slogan of America. Great inventions, great industries, great social benefits result from Americans' deep desire for better living. The electrical industry, for example, was founded by Thomas A. Edison, a man who spent his entire life looking for better ways to do certain things; and today the people of your electric company carry on in the Edison tradition. They belong to the great army of workers—engineers, scientists, linemen, managers and many others—who give the United States the finest, cheapest electric service in the world. Yet they continue their tireless efforts to improve the quality of electric service and to reduce its cost.

Within the last fifteen years, these employees have done their work so well that this company has been able to cut the unit price of electricity just about in half. That means you can now use electric light, a radio, electric refrigerator, washing machine, vacuum cleaner and toaster for a total operating cost very little, if any, higher than you used to pay for light alone.

The aim of your electric company's employees is always to give you better service at less cost. Foremost in their minds is the thought, "Something ought to be done about it."
