VOLUME LV.

SANTA ANNA, COLEMAN COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCT. 11, 1940.

NUMBER 41.

This Week in Our Town

COTTON—Santa Anna Gins are credited with 2751 bales, as of noon Tuesday, an increase of 521 bales in five days. The record Tuesday read: Simpson's Gin 1423, Bartlett's Gin 539 and Campbell's Gin 784. Good news for everyone. Plenty cotton lots of money, even if FDR won't let much be raised except by big farms.

WOOL—Ozro Eubank said last week-end that he had disposed of 27,000 pounds of wool from the Santa Anna Warehouse at 28 to 30 cents and a small lot of short at 27 cents to J. M. Lee of San Angelo, as well as 20,000 pounds to Max Robbin of San Angelo. There are only about 36,000 lbs. of wool left in storage here at this date. Eubank turned down an offer of 33 for one clip, holding for 35 or better.

FREE LUNCH—The grammar school children of Santa Anna will be happy and healthy this winter. Through co-operation with the WPA and SCC a suitable hot lunch will be served to all the lower grade students at 5c to all able to pay, free to the children not so fortunate. It is found possible through this co-operation with the government agencies to meet the expenses. Monday noon the menu, changed daily, consisted of a big helping of beans and meat, a vegetable salad, bread, big glass of orange juice, raisin dessert and cake—a quarter dinner at any cafe. And 150 children were served in order and rapidly. Mrs. Geo. Johnson, Prof. Charlie Matthews and the serving staff deserve lots of credit and the fathers and mothers of Santa Anna ought to back this venture 100 per cent with moral support finance or both—better both.

VISITORS—He came into the office, the light at his back, and asked for the editor. One glance at the visitor and we recognized an old friend of years ago at Mission—I. N. Riley, who was in the baking business then, though in the early days of the town he had been in grocery business. We were mighty glad to see him and talk old times. He was accompanied by his brother-in-law, Theodore Cronkright, whom we remembered as a school boy. They live out near Millersview now.

FLAGS—The Legion officials are still searching for the Post's flag and banner, which seem to have utterly vanished to these many years ago. Some think 'em to be standing in some dark corner in a second story lodge or other room. Anyhow, they are perdid. Anyone having an idea as to their whereabouts, please tell Sam Presley tout de suite.

HOUSES—Quite a few folks are now talking rent houses, tourist camps, etc. With a dearth of rent houses now, it will be a crime against the town if provision is not made to house the scores of families who will come here seeking homes in the next three or four months. Those families will represent thousands of dollars of trade each month.

CORRECTION—Last week The News carried a classified ad for W. J. Hosch, offering a 5 room house and lot for sale. The ad should have offered five houses and lots for sale. Hosch says the places are clear of debt and tax paid. Chance for someone to own his own home there!

TERRIBLE MAD!—Miss Ruby Harper, over at Phillips Drug Store was so mad at herself by Tuesday she was becoming a bit scared to be alone with herself. Monday she dropped a $2.50 bottle of perfume; Tuesday she repeated. We suggested she advertise the balance of her $2.50 perfume at half price before she dropped it all on the floor.

TEMPERMENTAL—Monday we parked at the curb near the post office. Only a few cars on the street, yet we found some one had parked a car out in the street behind ours when some fifteen parking spaces were to be had, the nearest a car width on each side of ours. One would

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES HOLD UNIQUE FORM OF ENTERTAINMENT

The latest thing in what to wear "the first hour up" was fearlessly worn by Santa Anna ladies four mornings last week. Loose, stringy curls and no make-up were featured. Most of the faces had an enigmatic look and the costumes were far from scant. Amid yawns and half-closed eyes we noticed a peppy group one morning in the persons of Mrs. W. R. Kelley, Mrs. T. T. Perry, Mrs. H. W. Kingsbery and Mrs. J. R. Banister. Mrs. Leman Brown took the "come as you are" phrase literally and came out wrapped in a blanket and looking quite charming and sweet. Mrs. Frank Turner was picturesque with blue and red curlers in her hair and adhesive tape on her face as a wrinkle-curative. Mrs. Roy Reid was taken by surprise that her perpetual laughter during the party did wonders to liven up things. Then there came the morning when even the morning glories were still asleep in the vase. But that didn't bother because there was Era Richardson, Rhea Upton, Kathryn Rose Hill, Dorothy Hunter, Francine Merritt and Evelyn Kirkpatrick looking as fresh as any flower—at 6:15. And Anita Matthews, Florence Niell, Mattie Ella McCreary and Mary Alice Woods were as poised as if they had had hours of preparation before staging their appearance in the middle of the night. And did Dorothy McDonald scramble? She just couldn't find her house shoes because she was so taken aback at being called for to go anywhere at such an unthought of hour, especially "out to breakfast." A last glance and we saw Cody Wallace, Ruby Harper and Louise Purdy showing every indication of being ready for the day. Believe us, Presbyterian ladies, those breakfasts were lots of fun and a swell idea.

WPA RECREATION NEWS

Correction—Last week it was stated that Mrs. Luek Abernathy had charge of the art classes. Mrs. Jennie Oakes conducts these classes at Mrs. Luek Abernathy's home. We invite everyone to take advantage of the free art classes. Don't forget the singing night Tuesday, October 15. The class was organized with Jess Williams, president; Rev. Burgess, vice-president; and Mrs. Luther Sheffield, secretary-treasurer. The singing class meets the first and third Tuesday nights of each month at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. All singers and song-lovers are invited. The Stamp-Baxter Books are used. The Recreation Manager and Director entertained an enthusiastic group at the Wading Pool Park Friday afternoon, October 4, from four until six o'clock. The games were led by Mrs. Virginia Bryson and Jean Irick. The program consisted of circle and relay games. The sponsors furnished an adequate supply of mixed candy for an old-fashioned candy-breaking. The next party will be at Weaver Park October 11, at five o'clock. Contest games directed by Mrs. Cleo Biggs and Sherman Sheffield will be the feature of the afternoon. Prizes will be given the winning team. Twenty ladies helped with the knitting class last week.

A naval fleet of eleven men-of-war was built as one of the first acts of the Republic of Texas after its establishment in 1836. University of Texas records show. Six years later, all of the vessels were docked, however; and after July, 1943, no warship ever sailed flying the Lone Star flag.

DO YOU KNOW YOUR HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB?

Did you know that Santa Anna has an active Home Demonstration Club with a membership of twenty? Did you know that your local Home Demonstration Club won first place in the Rodeo last year and second place this year? Did you know that it won second place as having the best work of the year 1939 and this year won first place at the annual encampment for having the best stunt in the county? One of our local club women's dress won second place in the cotton style show at Coleman. The Club sponsored the Red Cross drive last year and the cotton mattress program making approximately 196 mattresses at the local center. They donated to the crippled children's fund, made and quilted a quilt for a lady that lost her home in a fire. The club helped serve luncheon for the Ex-Rangers and served the American luncheon at Coleman. They sent a sponsor to the old settlers reunion at Coleman, a delegate to the short course at A. and M. and seven members attended the district meeting at Abilene. The club was 100% with the education fee this year and each year since it's been organized. Also 100% in the survey report and 75% of the membership has attended the area meetings this year. The club's demonstrators have completed their goals in the kitchen and food. The food demonstrator has built a ventilated pantry. The club has had all the meetings and carried out each program listed in the year book and two or more members have attended council meetings each month. The club socials have been an overall and apron party and a birthday shower for the club's secretary.

G. Richards Jr., of Ingleside. Dick is emulating his dad, a member of the accounting department, who frequently utilizes some of his leisure time along the adjacent bays with his rod and reel."

TEXAS UNIVERSITY HAS 270 STUDENTS IN PHARMACY COLLEGE

Largest of the 3 state colleges of pharmacy in the United States, the University of Texas pharmacy college this fall has enrolled 270 students, Dean W. F. Gidley announces. Estimating that the State needs about 50 new professional pharmacists yearly, Dr. Gidley pointed out that employment at almost a matter of course with the Texas students. About 90 per cent of the graduates—numbering nearly a thousand since the opening of the Galveston school in 1893—have entered pharmacies and drug stores; others have gone into related fields. Three graduates of recent classes have entered the Medical Corps of the United States Army.

U. of T. Students Enlisting Not To Lose Class Rank or Tuition

University of Texas students called to arms in national defense won't lose either class rank or tuition. University Board of Regents have decided. The University's governing board, following a recent meeting, issued a statement to the effect that, during the college year, any member of the military or naval service entering active duty would receive rebate on all but optional fees. At the close of active duty, it was explained, such students may resume class work in the 1941-42 session at the point they left off and with no loss of academic status. Officials at Austin pointed out there is at present no way to check the number of University students falling under this ruling by virtue of reserve commissions, membership in the national guard or future volunteer or conscripted service.

This $2.50 includes $27.94 paid for state gasoline taxes, $13.10 paid for state registration and other fees, $7 paid to the federal government in gasoline taxes, and $4.46 paid for other federal excise taxes.

This outline relating to seasonal sequence, a study of the various subjects relating to farm and ranch life. In general it includes livestock, soils, plant life, game conservation, entomology, poultry, orchards and gardens, soil and water conservation and other minor subjects. ## ELECTRICITY WORKING ON COTTON UNDERGROUND

Texas farmers, do you know nature's underground electricity is working on your cotton crop? Well, it is—and a University of Texas engineer is measuring its force and effect on crops.

With a year's field work in and around Austin behind him, R. W. Warner, University professor of electrical engineering, reports that he has successfully recorded the flow of earth currents with potentials up to five millivolts—about one two hundredth of a volt. Knowing potentials between two given points is one thing, gauging the actual current flow, another, Warner points out. He can't hook up an ammeter, the gadget he'd employ to measure flow along a fire—for underground electricity may dart along any one of countless sub-surface paths. He concedes that the current he pursues into a practically uncharted field at times may be no more than the tiny potentials already known to exist, while at other times may amount to a considerable flow. That flow, the University engineer points out, may exert an important effect on the growth of vegetation and, what's more important, crops.

He pictured the possibility some day, for example, of electrical shots-in-the-arm, well placed in an ailing cotton field to kill bacteria on the roots of the plant. Working under grant from the University Research Institute, Warner is currently concerned with the influence sunlight may have on the direction and intensity of subsurface currents as well as the variance in current intensity in different locations around Austin.

OLD AGE PENSION CHECK TO BE INCREASED $2

The average old age pension check, which was $11.16 last month, will be increased by $2 this month, J. S. Murchison, director for the state public welfare board, announced. Murchison said the increase, which will benefit approximately 119,000 oldsters, will be accompanied by acceptance of new applications and a speeding up of eligibility investigations. The director said the board acted on the increase after considering average revenues on a basis of last year's receipts and the fact that final repayment of a debt of $230,000 had been accomplished.

So get the lead out of your pants and be at the National Guard Armory, Santa Anna, Texas, Friday, Oct. 11, promptly at eight o'clock. SAM PRESLEY, C. O. Jack Laughlin Post No. 182 The American Legion. The Commanding Officer did a nifty job of issuing the above bulletin, and he wants every one of the ex-servicemen eligible to the Legion to be present. Some kind of blow-out, but a bit different this time. Worth looking into. Costs nothing to take part in the affair. The Legion will recruit its membership to the quota set—and beyond. But it is requested that you come out whether you can join now or not—but join if you can. The Post holds certificates of merit for several years past and we want to keep it up. Come and bring another vet with you. It is not necessary that you be a Legionnaire now. If you are a World War veteran we want you to join us. THE ADJUTANT. WASHINGTON SNAPSHOTS

By James Preston

The new axis pact may have been expected, but it certainly is stimulating Washington discussion of differences between America, virtually the last island of representative democracy, and a totalitarian world.

Particularly does the discussion in legislative circles revolve around how far this nation already has gone, and may progress in the future, toward centralization of powers in the government.

The basic difference between totalitarianism and representative democracy is that in the first the state is supreme and its citizens and their interests subordinate to it, while in the second the state is supposed to be the servant of the people rather than their master.

Using that yardstick to measure American trends, some legislators have been surprised. They have supported new powers piece-meal, but the total over-all result is surprising even to them.

For example, the government has power to destroy savings by changing money values, power to fix wages, hours, old age pensions, relief allowances, business practices; power to control farming methods, and so on. That is only a partial picture of the whole.

A friendly and beneficent government naturally would use these powers only for the benefit of the people. But the power to give a man high wages could be used to give him low ones; in short, existing "social" controls could be used to destroy virtually all the rights and privileges of the people.

It was the theory of HOLC and a lot of other new government bureaus that they would add to the "security" of the average citizen. But just look at the HOLC, for example. It has disclosed that in its Omaha area alone, it has lost $5,178,000 on homes on which it had foreclosed!

The government also has had to foreclose on 32,000 farms. The power to help farm and home owners was established. Its use made the government the biggest home and farm owner in the world.

The U. S. mints report they are having trouble keeping up with the demand for small coins. The Philadelphia mint alone is now producing 4,200,000 pennies every 24 hours, and is still behind.

Mint officials say the reasons are the new national defense tax and better business. Representative Taber says the trouble is that "nobody has anything to spend of a higher denomination than a nickel or a penny."

Dies committee backers are happy. Despite all the critical remarks about it by people high in government, including the President, the House has voted another $35,000 for the investigation of "un-American activities."

Representative Martin Dies' supporters say the merit of his work is proved by the fact that this brings to $255,000 the total appropriated for his investigation—the greatest sum ever granted a special House committee in the memory of the oldest Representatives.

The House evidently feels that it is getting its money's worth. In another direction, House feeling is different. Its Appropriations Committee once "suggested" that the Labor Board should abolish its Economics Division. The Board instead just changed the name to "Division of Technical Service," transferred employees into the new division, and went ahead. Average salary of the transferred employees was $3,100 a year.

Now, instead of "suggesting," the House has approved a section in a new bill directing that no money shall be spent to continue the division, by whatever name.

FARM TRENDS DURING 1940

Farm income from marketings during the first six months of 1940 was up 296 million dollars over figures for the same period of last year.

The increase came from improvement in domestic demand, which more than balanced dwindling exports. T. R. Timm, economist of the Texas A. and M. Extension Service, states in an analysis of the USDA Bureau of Agricultural Economics report.

in sight — simply a sound advance stimulated by increased industrial production for national defense. Supplies of food and feed are more than ample. The outlook for exports of farm products is very unsatisfactory as European markets which furnished an outlet for about one-third of U. S. exports of farm products are now closed. Cotton is hit worse than any other commodity.

Cotton growers, faced by a gloomy export picture, find some consolation in increased cotton mill activity in this country. Domestic mill consumption for the current marketing year now seems likely to reach 7,750,000 bales; an increase of almost a million over the 1938-39 total of 6,858,000.

The U. S. wheat supply for the current year is about the same as for last season—a billion bushels. An increase of around 25 million bushels in the carryover is offset by a similar decrease in this year's crop. World wheat supplies appear to be from 100 to 200 million bushels less than a year ago, but holdings are still about double the normal export trade.

THERE IS BUT ONE WAY TO judge any system of government and that is by what it produces for the great masses of people who live under it. Today there is a struggle going on in the world between two diametrically opposed kinds of government. One kind is state socialism, which has spread over much of once-democratic Europe. The other is the system of private enterprise, which is found, with one or two minor exceptions, only in the English speaking world. And here in our own country, where private enterprise has come to fullest flower, there are those who would have us abandon it in favor of some form of foreign state socialism, experiments in which are already under way. It's up to the American people to make their choice. And that choice must be based on a thorough knowledge of the facts—of what the two kinds of government have been able to achieve. For that kind of example, Soviet Russia is a perfect example. State socialism has been practiced there longer than anywhere else—for more than twenty years. And the communists in our country are working twenty four hours a day to "sell" their theories to us. A short time ago the New York Times closed its Moscow Bureau, which it had maintained for eighteen years, because censorship made it impossible for any but German correspondents to obtain accurate news. The Times representative, G. E. R. Gedye, sent his paper a long "workers' paradise" on teaching Bulgaria on the way home. And here, according to this authority, are some of the fruits of long-established state socialism in a potentially rich nation of 160,000,000 people. A horde of purchasers descended upon Mr. Gedye, seeking to buy household effects when he left Moscow. The wife of an important ambassador begged for old pots and pans. Another ambassador sent a special messenger on the chance that Mr. Gedye might have some dog biscuits to sell or give away. People appeared at all hours to buy anything and everything, including worn-out wearing apparel. Hopes of a second-hand pair of boots and Gedye's rumor that some store has a few oranges, if the owner who might be induced to sell an old pair of raincoat. These are the questions that agitate the average Soviet citizen. Even the government has added, finally had to admit "serious deficiencies in almost every direction." That is life under state socialism and the statistics back up every word of it and more. One survey showed that a good woolen suit cost, $213, U. S. money, in Moscow—the equivalent of 115 days' work for the average worker. A suit of wool underwear cost $28, or 15 days' work. In 1938, the average unskilled laborer received the meager sum of $12 per month. That should be incentive for a lot of our communists to move to Russia to take these lucrative jobs. America in depression is infinitely more prosperous than Russia in a boom. The same is true of other nations where state socialism, with all its destruction of liberties and private opinion on top of destruction of the workers' own standard of living, has been forced on the people. Everyone who favors Russian law should be deported to Russia by this government at government expense as a good riddance of rubbish.

The new Japanese - Italian - German axis agreement did not come as a complete surprise to experts in this country. And, by the same token, the President's embargo against shipments of scrap to Nippon was hardly unexpected. The vast weight of American public opinion is known to favor a strongly pro-Chinese and anti-Japanese policy. The embargo would probably have been effected some time ago, but a few dissenters in the state department delayed matters. It may be that the San Francisco speech of Wendell Willkie, in which he pledged himself to help China and oppose Japan's empire building aspirations, was also a factor. It was apparently a coincidence that these two events took place within the same week. In one way, it is a good thing they did come together, they served to clear the air and put Japanese-American relations on a more realistic basis. There is no more pretense here of regarding Japan as a friendly power. Instead, we regard her as a potential enemy of American interests. And now the question is, What are likely to be the results of the scrap embargo and the axis military pact? The embargo is without doubt a hard blow to the Japanese militarists. We have provided Japan in the past with some 90 per cent of the metals she must have to keep her vast military establishment going and growing. She has no other source of an adequate supply now—her totalitarian friends, Germany and Italy, haven't enough for their own needs, to say nothing of exports. It is the American hope that, totally lacking as she will be from now on in essential scrap, her military activity will gradually bog down. And there are other steps we can take if this one does not prove sufficiently effective. We could, for instance, refuse to admit Japanese silk into this country, and by that single act deprive Nippon of her biggest and most profitable foreign market.

The new axis agreement does not mention the United States by name. But it is obviously aimed at us—as fascist spokesmen have exultantly observed. The meaning of the agreement is crystal clear. If we should join England in war against Germany and Italy, Japan is pledged to immediately attack us, thus making it necessary for us to keep our fleet in the Pacific and away from European waters. And, on the other hand, if we should go to war with Japan, the other axis partners are bound to help the Land of the Rising Sun with "all political, economic and military powers" at their command.

These are strong words, but some feel that there is considerable bluff behind them. At the present time we are helping England with everything we have. We could hardly do more if we were actually at war. But Japanese newspapers, which are government controlled and inspired, have said that she does not regard such American aid to Britain as the destroyer trade as a belligerent act. In other words, Japan, despite the obvious anger of her military men, certainly hasn't shown an eagerness to fight. And if she did go to war with us, it would obviously be impossible for her to get significant aid from her allies as long as England is fighting on—and the military experts here, are coming to the conclusion that England's position is getting stronger daily.

Unanswered question so far is what effect this pact will have on Russian policy, and that may turn out to be the most important question involved. Unofficial Soviet spokesmen were shocked. For the differences between Russia and Japan are completely irreconcilable so far as one can see now, and Russia has favored China in the Far Eastern war. Some experts are hazzarding the guess that this pact may negate the German-Soviet pact of last year. If that should happen, Germany would have lost far more than she has gained. She would be confronted with the possibility of another enemy—and an enemy which is potentially extremely strong, even though it is badly disorganized. If the axis friends thought the new agreement would throw a scare into this country, resulting in our reverting to a more neutral attitude, they were greatly mistaken. Washington's response was that, if anything, the agreement would result in giving even more aid to Britain. And that policy will go on no matter who wins in November—both Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Willkie are strongly pro-English and anti-fascist. So one result of the pact may be to benefit England in her war with two of the pact's three signatories.

Next thing to watch for now is what Spain does. The axis is using every pressure to enlist her as their ally, but Franco, with a war-weary nation on his hands, is still dodging.

OLD GLORY FLIES

Old Glory flies again above Santa Anna High School after an absence of several years. It was raised Friday morning, after the flag chain was repaired. The students will honor it as Americans and keep it high in their ideals.

White signifies Purity and Innocence; Red, Hardiness and Valor. Blue signifies Vigilance, Perseverance and Justice. May it ever be a reminder to us to be better Americans.

Fire Prevention Week Observed

Realizing that most fires are as an American citizen, to help reduce this needless waste of both lives and property, and, realizing that most fires are the result of carelessness and ignorance, I pledge myself to practice carefulness in its every form and to inform others of the dangers which arise from many common practices.

Let us sign our names to this pledge and try to make every week in the year, "Fire Prevention Week."

Each year in October, "Fire Prevention week" is observed. The Fire Insurance Division, gives a reduction in fire insurance rates for the teaching of fire prevention in Texas public schools according to the minimum requirements of the state. A reduction of 3 per cent in the key rate is given in cities and towns.

In order to meet this requirement, the sophomores are writing themes on some phase of fire resisting construction and the seniors are writing on some principles of fire insurance, fire prevention, or fire protection.

First Fire Drill Observed

Fire drills are conducted for two purposes: (1) To train occupants to leave the building orderly and quickly in case of an emergency alarm, and, (2) to teach self-control in times of emergencies in late life.

Santa Anna high school had its first fire drill Monday, October 7.

The safety zone was reached in one minute and fifteen seconds. This was considered good because the complete student body had to use the same exit. Two drills should be conducted each month. This requirement applies to all schools, except the senior high schools, where one drill each month may be conducted; with obstructed and unobstructed alternating.

Game Scheduled for Friday

The Santa Anna "Mountaineers" will play the Winters "Blizzards" to night at Winters. The "Blizzards" are determined to blow the Mountaineers off the map, but the Mountaineers are even more determined to calm that "Blizzard" so it should be an excellent game.

Both teams have good records being undefeated in the conference. Which team will keep that record? Mountaineers don't let us down.

Come on citizens and students, let's get some of that old spirit and pep and win that game.

Freshmen Lose Two Members

The Freshman class lost two members this past week Wendolyn Campbell, our secretary and treasurer, had to withdraw from school because of illness. Audrey Mae Bouchillon moved to Brownwood. We will miss these two and hope Wendolyn will get to start again this year.

F. F. A. News

The winner of F. F. A. Sweetheart contest was finally announced as Virginia Pettit. Sixteen of the local F. F. A. boys are feeding calves for their project. With sixteen calves we should have a local project show. Those feeding calves are:

Elvis Ray Cozart, Bobbie Henderson, James Ford, Julian Whitley, Rodney Spence, J. P. Richardson, Morris Wallace, Billy Jack Deal, Elmo Eubanks, Carrol Holt, Clay Henderson, Wayne Whitley, Carl Williams, Walter Yancy, Billy McCormick and Glen Pope.

Boys Attend Bangs-Rockwood Game Friday Night

Last Friday afternoon most of the Santa Anna football boys attended the Rockwood-Bangs game at Bangs, having no game scheduled for Friday night. The score was 10-0 in favor of Rockwood.

That night some of the boys went to Winters to see the game with Mozelle. Winters won with a score of 48-6.

The boys that went were Rex Turney, John West, Adrian Speck, Clarence Watson, Wayne Whitley, Floyd Shelton, Robert Earl Lancaster, Glen Pope, H. K. Harrison, Douglas Schrader and probably some others.

Home Making III Girls Have Candy Pull

Last Friday night the Home-making 111 girls had a candy pull in the homemaking laboratory. Those present were, Mrs. Hill, their sponsor; Marie Harris, the host; Thressa Webb, assistant host; Bill Rutherford, Elouise Callaway, Rex Turney, Carolyn Kingsbery, J. T. Garrett, Edna White, James Moore, Mary Jo Gregg, Willard Wilson, Fay Lee, Ila May Lee and R. G. Bland.

They made fudge, divinity, taffy, popped corn and played a number of games.

Scribblers Have Initiation

The "scribblers" initiated the new members into the organization last Tuesday night. The party was at the home of Miss McCreary. The new members wore short dresses and the only boy in the organization, Bob Jefferys Jr., wore short trousers. They ate onions before the party began. To help them remember to be a good scribbler, each old member recited a rule of journalism and smeared lipstick on the faces of the beginners. After other forms of punishment had been inflicted, iced watermelon was served by the hostess.

Before they were allowed to call themselves full fledged scribblers, the new members had to appear at school Wednesday with an onion tied around their neck, a suitcase in which to carry their books to class, and a toothbrush to scrub the sidewalk.

New members initiated were, Opal Mae Stockard, Virginia Pettit, Bob Jefferys Jr., June Newman, Helen Cruger, Allie Cille Garrett, Margie McCoy, Bitha Barrington and LaVerne Martin.

Pep Squad Initiation

The members of the pep squad met at the high school Thursday evening. They hiked to the Ranger Park where a picnic supper was enjoyed.

To the surprise of the freshmen, an initiation was part of the program. The new members ran races drinking soft drinks and eating dill pickles. Then they were blindfolded and fed bananas to each other. After many laughs at the expense of the new members, the pep squad sang school songs and gave a few yells. The Freshmen walked back to town barefoot. They stopped on the street corners and disturbed the peace with a yell for the upperclassmen.

Freshmen Are Pushing On

We, the members of the Freshman class believe that we have made a good beginning in our first year in high school. Our candidate for F. F. A. Sweetheart won in the finals, which ended Friday afternoon. We are proud to say the winner is Virginia Pettit, a freshman girl.

"Try and stop us high school, the Freshmen will push on."

Cheewing Gum Abolished

Cheewing gum is now a thing of the past in Santa Anna high school. The announcement was made Friday in chapel, that if a student is found chewing gum at any time in the school building, they will be sent to the office. Students have lately been throwing gum in the corridors, and as a result we have some very ugly places on the floors.

Speech Class Enjoys Work

As twenty-five students gathered in our class room this last week, some outsiders noticed how much laughing was being done. They found later it was Ray Hartman telling a story which caused all the laughter.

Now they are studying phonetics in their Speech Class which has really attracted the class' attention. This is the first year that Speech has been taught here in Santa Anna High School.

THIEF VISITS HIGH SCHOOL

Last Sunday night the Santa Anna High School building was visited by a thief who entered the building by a window in the band room. He broke the lock on the office door and also the lock on the safe where some of the bursary School of Poultry lecture the classes had money. Approximately a hundred sixty dollars belonging to the Seniors, the F. F. A. boys and the general science class, was taken. First Lap of School Ends

The first lap of school is almost over, we take the first examinations this week. Will you pass or will you make a failing grade? Many have been out picking cotton, while others have been sick, so the grades may be lower than usual. If you make a low grade, don't be discouraged. Start in right now to make a good grade next six weeks. It can be done, try it!

TOO BUSY—Oscar Cheaney is about the busiest man in town these days, fixing up cotton papers, putting out cash and taking it in. We were in the bank about fifteen times between Monday A. M. and Wednesday P. M. and still had not been able to get his attention on his advertising program. He has one secretary, and she is near prostration handling cotton forms.

BURGETT—Rev. Burgett of the Cumberland Presbyterian church here, showed us several newspaper clippings relative to the initial game of Eastern New Mexico College, attended by his son Quinton. ENMC Greyhounds opened against a superior team from Oklahoma and suffered defeat after an heroic battle in which young Burgett was reputedly the only member to merit special mention. The boy is evidently exceptional timber for center, judging by the reports.
