TWO KINDS OF QUOTAS FOR WHEAT

Two kinds of quotas designed to protect the wheat growers income will be in effect in 1941. With the approval by 80 percent of the growers voting in the nation-wide referendum on May 31, wheat marketing quotas will be in effect on the 1941 crop. A two-thirds majority was necessary.

At the same time, Secretary of Agriculture, Claude R. Wickard, announced that President Roosevelt had established import quotas on wheat to protect United States farm income from the world wheat situation.

Import quotas, as provided in the Agricultural Adjustment Act restricts shipments from foreign countries if they threaten to reduce the effectiveness of the National Farm Program's supply and price-support measures. Fred Rennels, assistant state administrative officer in charge of the AAA in Texas, pointed out, "The wheat program is holding the price of our wheat above world level so that even a slight rise might completely offset the effect of the 42-cent tariff, Rennels explained.

Import quotas and marketing quotas, combined with already existing portions of the farm program, including acreage allotments, conservation and parity payments, loans, and crop insurance, will provide adequate protection for the U. S. wheat grower's income in 1941, the AAA official said, with the result that for the first time in many years, the wheat farmer cooperating with the AAA program will receive parity prices for his product.

U. S. O. Seeks Funds For Welfare

Approximately 1,500,000 fine young men are now receiving military training in the various camps throughout the country. In order for this training to be fully effective, consideration must be given to the social, moral, and spiritual welfare of these young men.

Many of our camps are located near small towns where recreational advantages are quite limited. The United States Organization for National Defense of which the YMCA, YWCA, National Catholic Community Service, Salvation Army, Jewish Welfare Board, and the National Travelers Aid Association are members — the organizations which did this character of work when our boys were training for the World War.

The Government will provide quarters outside of these camps but the responsibility of providing the equipment, etc., will have to be met by the public. The quota set for Texas is $400,000. Mr. E. S. Mayer, of San Angelo, has been named chairman for the 21st Congressional District, by Mr. E. B. Germany, Director for Texas, and he has been asked to raise $12,000.

In a recent letter to Paul V. McNutt, Coordinator of Health, Welfare and Related Defense Activities, President Roosevelt said "Every man and woman in America wants to have a share in defending the Nation. Contributing to the U. S. O. is one way — one important way — in which all can serve." It is my sincere hope that Mr. Mayer will receive the active and loyal support to which he is entitled in rendering this patriotic and unselfish service.

NATIONAL DEBT MOUNTING SAYS MAGILL OF COLUMBIA

The United States will soon face a national debt of from 75 to 100 billion dollars.

This is the viewpoint held by the State's lawyers, who were addressed last week at Austin by Roswell Magill, Columbia University professor of law and former undersecretary of the treasury. Magill spoke before the First Texas Lawyers' Institute, meeting on the University of Texas campus.

The Columbia tax expert warned that the American public immediately faces taxation of four or more times that of last year, in addition to increasing governmental regulation and power to commandeer property and men.

Magill was optimistic, however, concerning America's ability to conquer its "new frontiers."

"We need not be unduly pessimistic about the future. We still have the resources, we still have the manpower to make this a great nation."

TRENCH SILOS URGED FOR SAVING GRAIN CROP

With continued rains, the problem of saving the grain crop in many sections is becoming serious. The use of the trench silo will aid in solving this problem. According to E. R. Eudaly of the Extension Service:

Threshed oats, wheat and barley can be stored in trench silos where the grain is to be fed on the farm. In a great many cases the rainy weather is making it difficult to get the grain dry enough to store the threshed grain in granaries. Trench silos will solve this difficulty since you want the grain wet when storing in a trench silo.

Be sure the trench silo has drainage. Either dig the trench so the water can run out at one end or in soil that will permit the water to pass out through the soil at the bottom and sides.

If the ground is level and clay soil, build two parallel levees of dirt on top of the ground; put gravel or rock on the ground between the levees of dirt so there will be no mud. Fill in between the levees with grain or other silage crops. Cover over with at least twelve inches of dirt. This is what some people call a trench silo upside down.

When filling a trench silo with threshed grain, packing is not necessary. Wet the grain about like a heavy dew would wet it. Fill the trench full enough so that the grain in the center will be higher than the level of the ground or walls. The grain may be covered with paper or sacks before covering with dirt. However, this is not necessary. If you cover with clay dirt, it will be best to first cover with about six inches of dirt and then wet this dirt thoroughly; then cover this with six inches of dry dirt.

If the grain is to be fed cattle it might pay to grind the grain as it is being put into the silo. This also applied to threshed grain, sorghum and grain sorghum heads. Grinding is not necessary, however, to make it keep.

The Secretary of Agriculture has requested that we speed up livestock and milk production. It takes feed to do this. Therefore, we should save all of this year's feed crop. It can all be saved with trench silos.

SUGGESTIONS ON COTTON INSECT CONTROL GIVEN

It is expected that a great deal of damage will result from cotton insects this season. A very timely warning is issued by the County Agent to begin early in controlling these pests.

A recent circular issued by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station gives the following information concerning the control of the cotton flea hopper:

1. Examine weekly the terminal buds, beginning when cotton plants have 6 to 8 leaves.
2. If flea hoppers are present in damaging numbers, small blackened, dead squares less than one-quarter inch in size will be observed, also young flea hoppers in the terminal bud will be seen.
3. Dusting should be started when flea damage is observed on one plant out of ten consecutive plants examined, or when 20 flea hoppers are present on the terminal buds of 100 consecutive plants.
4. Use 10 pounds of dusting sulphur per acre applied early in the morning before the wind rises, regardless of dew. This rate is sufficient for small, young cotton. Large cotton requires 12 to 15 pounds per acre.
5. Sulphur should be applied at weekly intervals until squares one-quarter inch in size are numerous. Sulphur will continue to be effective for a week if not washed off by rain.
6. Two to three dustings should set a crop of squares. More dustings may be required if showery weather prevails.
7. Sulphur dust will kill young flea hoppers within 24 hours after applying if not washed off by rain.
8. Flea hoppers usually attack young, rapid-growing, tender cotton, and are not so likely to be destructive on slow-growing or heavily fruited cotton.

Those interested in Cotton Insect Control should secure a copy of Circular No. 92, "Simplified Instructions for Control of Cotton Insects."

Editorial

GOVERNMENT HAS SUBSIDIZED so much in the nation that one wonders why some industries have been persecuted to the point of extermination while others of lesser importance have been given every financial aid to grow. Only a huge greed on the part of power-seeking bureaucrats and their hirelings can explain it. One minute punishing and persecuting, the next moment begging for production and tax money in greater and greater volume, is what has happened. Socialized power, the aim of some of our communistic brain-trusters, would give power users low rates, pay little or no taxes itself, run the taxpaying industry out of business and deprive the consumer in other ways of more than he saved on the low rates. Since the power sought to be produced by the brain-truster is to be paid for with tax money, why not tax him — out of everyone and give free juice. One electric company paid its 1940 tax bill of $22,531,000, by far the largest of its expense items. This tax was 4 1/2 million dollar shigher than in 1939, and its 1941 tax bill will be staggering. Federal tax was over $10,000,000, state taxes over 2 1/2 million, local taxes in 47 counties and 158 municipalities exceeded $9,916,000, one large city receiving more than $1,845,000. Government owned competition is able to use your tax money to sell you wares for less, but would it hand back, as in this case, over 12 1/2 million dollars of tax money for state and local governments to use? Nay Pauline; it's a dulcet pipe dream, used by wise birds to snare gullibles. Now they use "national defense" as sucker bait. Russia is rich in natural resources, yet their standard of living after 20 years of this "utopia" remains at rockbottom and Russian production is notoriously low, wasteful and inefficient.

Important Notice
To All Delinquent
City Tax Payers

By reason of a recent act of the Texas Legislature the City of Santa Anna, now has the authority to remit penalty and interest, except 6 per cent, on all delinquent taxes prior to 1940, but this does not affect 1940 taxes in any way. However, the City does not have the authority to remit this saving to the tax payers, only on the condition that the taxes are paid before November 1, 1941. Another condition is that all the delinquent taxes due on any one piece of property be paid at one time to get the benefit of the reduction. To all tax payers who have taken advantage of the one-half payment of 1940 taxes, must pay the last half, not later than June 30, 1941, to avoid interest and penalty being attached.

John Garner Wants Smooth Wire

Former Vice-President, John Nance Garner, who is known as an ardent hunter and fisherman, is advocating the use of smooth wire by ranchmen and farmers, especially on the bottom of their fences.

Deer and other game animals often crawl under fences instead of jumping them. A cut from barbed wire means that screw worms have easy access to the deer's body and will eventually kill it.

"I have seen deer come down to the water, wade in and lie down, completely submerged except for their heads," the former Vice-President said recently. "This is to drown the worms."

Tarpon Round-Up

You know, it's got to where nowadays when someone says, "rodeo" you don't know whether they are speaking of cattle or fish! I've been on one of those rodeos once in my life and I had more fun than throwing shelled corn at newly weds. They tell us that over in St. Pete, Florida, they are really going to "whup 'em up" between dates of May 15th to August 1st. It's one of those famed Florida tarpon fishing rodeos you hear so much about. You go out and fish, have a great time and then, if you're lucky, you get a nice prize. Tough life. I'll have another round of it, please! If you can make it, all data on the whole thing can be obtained from G. M. Neal, C. of C. St. Petersburg, Fla.

Peeping Tom

He saw her swimming in the brook
A moment swift and fleeting,
And from the shock of that brief look
His heart almost skipped beating.

He worked his way around the trees
To where the view was clear,
And then on trembling hands and knees
He edged a little nearer.

He'd never seen such perfect lines
As she was there displaying,
Beneath the spreading towering pines
In languid splendor playing.
Her twists and turns were full of grace,

Her body smoothly moulded,
And, O! What joy was on his face
As each new charm unfolded.

And when she floated with the stream
The sight was so entrancing,
Her wondrous body seemed to gleam
From sunbeams softly glancing.

He yearned for her with heart and soul
And then he fell to wishing,
For he had neither hook nor pole—
And bass are caught by fishing.

Manslaughter

In Franklin County, North Carolina, a man was convicted of manslaughter for shooting at a wild turkey. The hunter did not know that another man was anywhere near when he shot. He missed the turkey but killed the man. However, as the hunter was hunting during closed season, and was therefore engaged in an unlawful act, the court held him guilty of manslaughter.

Ball of Butter, Eh?
The butterfish is bright and almost as round as a silver dollar, and is frequently called the dollarfish.

Ain't It the Truth?

There are two ays of addressing your pet reel—one before you cast, and the other after you backlash!

A hen is the only creature we know who can sit still and produce dividends.

TALK FAITH

Talk faith. The world is better off without
Your uttered ignorance and morbid doubt.

If you have faith in God, or man or self,
Say so, if not, push back upon the shelf
Of silence all your thoughts till faith shall come;

No one will grieve because your lips are dumb.

THIS WEEK IN DEFENSE

Information Released by the Government and Reviewed by the National Defense Advisory Committee of the National Editorial Association.

Federal Loan Administration Jones announced the allocation of $650,000,000 for use in enlarging and speeding the bomber program by building Government-owned plants and increasing the supply of essential materials.

The War Department announced the award of contracts totaling $322,500,000 for 22-ton bombers to be produced at new Government-owned plants at Fort Worth, Texas, and Tulsa Okla. The Department described the award of the contracts as a "major step toward the 500 bombers a month goal" set by the President when he said the democracies must achieve superiority in the air.

The Navy reported its air program "slightly ahead of schedule" with 3,500 planes on hand May 1, as compared with 2,172 ten months before. The Department said that by January, 1942, its training program will supply sufficient pilots for 15,000 planes, its goal.

The Maritime Commission announced the delivery of seven new ships, an addition of 50,200 tons, to the American merchant fleet. The Senate and House enacted legislation authorizing the President to requisition foreign shipping immobilized in U. S. ports.

President Roosevelt established an Office of Civilian Defense and appointed New York's Mayor LaGuardia as Director to carry out programs for the protection of life and property in an emergency with the volunteer help of men, women and children throughout the nation.

President Roosevelt approved legislation authorizing the purchase or construction of 58 additional naval auxiliary ships. The Maritime Commission began immediate acquisition of the vessels, including the 27,000-ton "America," largest liner ever built in the United States.

The President asked Congress for an additional $2,790,000,000 for planes for the Army and $529,000,000 for planes for the Navy. The War Department announced that construction of new Air Corps schools is "proceeding much faster than expected," with eight of 100 stations already completed and 50 partially occupied.

War Secretary Stimson announced arrangement to train 8,000 RAF pilots, bombardiers and navigators in U. S. civilian and Army schools. The U. S. will defray some of the cost from lease-lend funds.

The Maritime Commission awarded contracts for 123 additional merchant vessels. To date, the Commission said, 850 ships have been ordered, 312 emergency vessels, 85 cargo ships for private concerns, 72 tankers and 60 ships on British contracts.

Advertising IS Good News

Specially now, when the world is so full of strife, misery and anxiety, it's good to be able to get the pleasant news that comes in the ads.

About a light-hearted summer turban... sportswear coolly stolen from the men... a refreshing hot weather beverage...

A pipe that promises a smoke-treat... a light straw hat for the steaming brow...

The ads are reminders that life can't all be woe... reminders to be as normal and comfortable as possible... reminders to which you can sensibly respond.

The ads lead you to sound values.

FIGHTING MOTHS

Clothes moths feed on wool, hair, feather, fur, upholstered furniture and leather, but they do not eat cotton, linen, rayon, or other fabrics of vegetable fiber or silk.

He says articles in a seasonably tight trunk, chest or wooden box can be protected perfectly during the summer by scattering between the folds of the clothing either flake naphthalene or paradichloro benzene.

Either of these moth-preventatives should be separated from the clothing by sheets of thin clean paper. Four ounces will give protection under ideal conditions, but the specialists say it pays to use more—possibly a pound—and be safe.

The addition of flake naphthalene is advised since it destroys any moth which may have gotten in the clothing before it is wrapped. Under any circumstances, however, keep all covers tightly closed.

Cold storage is excellent for protecting furs, garments, and rugs from moth injury, Mr. Sidel adds. He explains that dry cleaning kills all forms of moth.

during that process but it does not give moth resistance. The same is true of washing garments in a strong solution of neutral soap.

Clothing just dry-cleaned or washed, if wrapped in paper with its edges well folded back or sealed carefully, will remain free from moths indefinitely if the paper is not broken.

The United States produces more than 160,000,000 pounds of honey a year and from five to eight million pounds of bees-wax.

Steam-pressure cookers need to be rechecked each year to see that the pressure gauge registers correctly.
