SCHOOL AND CITY TAX ROLLS

As most of you know, this city is in very bad need of a new ward school building. How many of you know, or have any idea of, how much the city and the schools are carrying in delinquent taxes? I don't know just how much money there is in taxes that have not been paid but after inspecting some of the tax rolls I was very surprised at the number of people who are not enough interested in the welfare of their own children, the schools and the city to pay their taxes. Most of the names that are delinquent on the rolls are able to pay taxes. If they were not able to pay taxes they should not be able to own property for very long. However, some have let their taxes go year after year until the amount that they owe now is more than the property is worth at the present prices of property. The city has in the last year collected a lot of overdue taxes and also collected a lot of taxes for the school, but there are thousands of dollars that are still uncollected.

It seems to me that if these people that owe their taxes for the last from three to four years to fifteen or twenty years, would make some effort to get their taxes paid it would go a long way toward getting the school building that we need so badly. Some of the ones who have not paid a tax in a number of years are the ones, it seems to me, that shout the loudest at the school board to build a new building. Several of these people have children in school now and some of them have had children to go all the way through the schools here and never have paid a tax of any kind.

Taxes are the only means that the city and schools have of operating. The ones that pay their taxes year after year are the ones that are mindful of the fact that these taxes must be paid to keep our city and schools running as they are. The schools are, in a manner, free schools, but there must be upkeep on the buildings, the teachers must be paid, the bonds that built the buildings must be paid and there are numerous other things that the taxes have to be collected to pay. Yet there are people who just won't pay taxes and every year that they don't pay them, they get bigger and bigger. All the time the schools have to suffer for the lack of money that should be coming in.

Now, we are asking all the rural communities to consolidate with us. If some of the good people in this town don't get in the saddle and get their taxes paid it sure won't look good to the communities that are asked to come in here with us.

There is always a way of getting taxes paid and that is by force. That is, the property can be sold at auction and the money that is derived from the auction will be split and as much as possible will go on the taxes on the property. But that is a hard thing to do, to take a man's home away from him because he won't pay his taxes. However, in the last year there have been several suits that have been settled just that way, and if the taxes are not brought up to date on all the property that the owners are able to pay the taxes on, I would certainly like to see a lot more tax suits being filed.

This brings up more cost to the owners, because if they keep their property, there is a lot of more costs to them when the suits are filed and of course these costs have to be paid.

So keep your taxes paid and

New Plumbing Shop Opens This Week

Another new business announces its opening this week. T. R. and F. T. McAden of Bangs are in the process of opening a modern plumbing shop.

T. R. McAden has been in the plumbing business in Bangs for a number of years and has been called here to do jobs of plumbing since he came to Bangs. With the decision that Santa Anna needs a plumbing shop that can give patrons here a complete line of plumbing supplies and workmen that are experienced in the plumbing business the McAdens are opening this shop.

They announce that they will carry everything that is needed in the plumbing line, well supplies and pipe.

The firm will go under the name of Macks Plumbing Co. and is located across the street from the post office.

The News joins others in wishing this new business all the success that you expect.

Fire Prevention Conference May 6-8

Committees of experts preparing data for the president's Conference on Fire Prevention are faced with the fact that America's fire losses for 1947 are rising. Losses for the first two months of this year have already exceeded last year's losses for the same period by more than 20 per cent.

Losses so far this year totaled $121,939,000. Losses for the 12 months ended February 28, 1947, were $581,347,000, the greatest this country has ever known. This exceeded by nearly $20,000,000 the highest annual fire waste the nation has ever experienced, $561,980,000.

No fire disaster has taken a large toll of lives in 1947 to compare with the tragedies of the Winecoff and La Salle hotel fires last year. Yet the death toll is mounting steadily because of the thousands of smaller fires occurring throughout the country.

The fire prevention conference, which President Truman has called in Washington on May 6, 7 and 8, will be the first organized national effort ever made to combat the fire menace that delays recovery after every war. State and municipal authorities will join with fire protection experts, scientists and others in studying ways to reduce the death toll and keep property damage at a minimum. Fire experts say that, if losses follow the same trend as they did after World War I, the destruction will reach a billion dollars a year by 1953.

To gather data for this conference, the coordinating committee appointed by the president is conducting a nation-wide survey of fires, their causes and fire losses over the last five years. More than 4,000 cities are included in this survey. Data are being obtained through the fire department in each city.

Work of the conference is being done by six committees, Building Construction, Fire Prevention Education, Fire Fighting Services, Laws and Law Enforcement, Organized Public Support and Research. These committees' reports will form the basis for the conference work.

Major General Philip B. Fleming, Federal Works Administrator and Administrator of the Office of Temporary Controls, who has been appointed General Chairman of the Fire Prevention Conference, is directing the assembly of data on which the conference will act.

the ones who owe taxes, make an attempt at paying them and we will be a lot further down the road toward getting the new school building.

A Hand In Need

National Sunday School Week will be observed this year during April 14th to April 20th by American youth throughout the nation. Sponsored by the Laymen's National Committee, Vanderbilt Hotel, New York, the sole purpose of the Week is to encourage boys and girls to regularly attend the church of their choice.

The parents of these children must look to the future with misgiving until such time as the youth of our nation reflects the possession of a knowledge of God.

Today, the world is face to face with mankind's worst enemy—HATE. It is running rampant throughout the country. It is being manifested everywhere we turn. It is being reflected by our young children in their utter disregard for established principles, law and order.

This situation will not right itself, nor will it be remedied by the waving of some magic wand. If we really want to be honest with ourselves, we will admit that it can largely, if not entirely, be attributed to our putting material gains over spiritual values.

The establishment of National Sunday School Week is not a cure-all for what is termed Juvenile Delinquency. It is only a step in that direction, but it is a right step and a practical step.

Old Magazines and Paper Wanted By Senior Scouts

The Senior Scouts are doing a fine job of picking up old magazines and papers. These boys are doing this to decorate a building that has been purchased for them through the cooperation of the Lions Club and the American Legion. The building is located about one block west of the high school building.

There have been a few of the people who live out of town that have brought old papers and magazines to the News Office and left them for the boys to pick up. And we believe that there are a lot more of you who will want to help the young men out by doing this. If you live out of town and have a large bunch of old paper that you don't know what to do with, don't burn it. Bring it to the back door of the News Office and we will stack it up and call the Senior Scouts to come and get it.

There are now nine members of the Senior Scouts and the boys are having a lot of fun together. They would like to have more boys and young men join them. If you are a young man 15 years of age and interested in scouting, rifle practice and a lot of other things that scouts do, they want you to join their ranks and be one of them. The boys do their own planning and run their own meetings the way they want. They have an adviser with them, but as long as things are in an orderly manner, he says nothing and lets the boys take care of their own business.

Mrs. J. W. Parker returned home with her daughter, Mrs. J. V. Browning to Abilene Thursday of last week. Mr. Parker went to Abilene early Sunday morning, where all attended the Easter services together and returned home Sunday night.

FFA Judging Team To JTAC

Future Farmer judging teams from Santa Anna will compete in the 19th annual judging contest to be held at John Tarleton Agricultural College April 12. Over 500 boys who are taking vocational agriculture in high schools in Central Texas are expected to take part in the judging contest this year.

The judging contest is divided into three groups—livestock, dairy and poultry. Judging of the livestock and dairy cattle will take place at the college farm, while the poultry judging will be held at the college poultry farm. The judging will begin at 8 a. m.

Entertainment for the day will consist of a mulligan stew for the judging teams, to be held in the college dining hall at noon. At 2 p. m. a full length feature and a comedy will be shown to the teams in the college dining hall. Banners with the inscription "Tarleton FFA Judging Contests 1947" and the name of the contestant, will be awarded to the high point team, for each of the three events. These banners are white lettering on a purple background. There will also be awards of belt buckles and belts with the official Future Farmer emblem on the bronze buckle.

A. J. Spangler, head of the agriculture department in John Tarleton, announced that last year's contest was won by Richard Springs.

The school representatives will be over the Santa Anna National Bank Building.

In order to be qualified to attend this school a man must be a farm operator either as a cash lease, 1-3 and 1-4, or a farm owner. The place must be big enough to furnish a living to the operator and pay for itself in 40 years at 4 per cent interest.

Martin Tuesday evening. All the men, regardless of what denomination you belong to, are cordially invited to attend.

Lions Celebrate 22nd Anniversary

The Lions Club celebrated its 22nd anniversary with the meeting Tuesday. Fifty three members and two guests were present.

George M. Johnson is the only member of this club that has been a member for the full 22 years. There are ten members of the club that were charter members, but all the rest have at one time or another dropped out and later been reinstated. The charter members who were present were called on to tell what the Lions Club has meant to them in its 22 years of operation. Some of the members who have been a member for a long time also were asked to give their views of the club.

The club was organized in April, 1925 and the membership has gone up and down since that time. The present membership stands at 86 with about an average of 50 members attending each regular meeting.

Guests were Teddy Stewardson and Fred Wright.

The ten men that are charter members of the club are George M. Johnson, J. W. Parker, J. J. Gregg, Jack Woodward, A. M. Turner, Frank Crum, Sam H. Collier, Ford Barnes, Leman Brown and L. O. Gattett.

State Dept. Of Health Letter

By proclamation of President Harry S. Truman, the month of April is Cancer Control Month throughout the nation. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, is asking each citizen to consider the danger signals and secure medical advice at the first appearance of any suspicious symptom. There are many causes of cancer; the most common form of which is chronic or prolonged irritation.

One of the questions often asked is whether or not cancer is hereditary in human beings. Tendencies to form cancer may possibly be inherited; however, since the method of inheriting such tendencies is obscure, the presence of cancer in one or both parents should be merely a cause of greater alertness in looking for and recognizing suspicious symptoms on the part of family members. There is no need of a fatalistic attitude. The facts concerning heredity do not justify it.

At the first warning signs recognized, consult your physician. The early symptoms are any sore that does not heal, particularly about the tongue, mouth or lips; a painless lump or thickening, especially in the breast, lip or tongue; irregular bleeding or discharge from any natural body opening; progressive change in the size or color of a wart, mole or birthmark; persistent indigestion; persistent hoarseness or difficulty in swallowing; and any change in normal bowel habits. See your doctor about any of these signals.

Early recognition of cancer symptoms will lead to early diagnosis and treatment, and in many cases the victim can be entirely cured and live out a normal life span.

What do you think railroads make?

The public thinks we make 15%

What do you think they should make?

The public thinks 10% would be fair

10%

What are the facts?

Actually the railroads earned only 2 3/4% in 1946.

To provide the service you want, railroads need to earn at least 6%. But estimates indicate that even with the recent freight rate increase, the return for 1947 will be only about half that requirement.

2 3/4%

Why it takes 6% to make the grade...

Impartial research polls show that, on the average, people think we make 15%. They also think a fair return would be 10%.

What We Make

But for the year 1946, with the biggest peace-time traffic in history, the railroads earned only . . . 2 3/4%. This is less than one-half the comparable earnings for other industries.

The reasons for this low return are not hard to find. Since 1939 railroad wages have increased 52 2/10% and the prices of fuel, materials and supplies have gone up 61 1/10%.

But freight rates have just recently been increased an average of only 17 1/10%—a year after the effective date of the last big wage increase.

What About This Year?

It is estimated that the return for 1947, even with the recent freight rate increase, will be only about half the 6% minimum return required to provide the improvements and service needed. This will be because of increased costs of materials and supplies; because certain wage increases granted in 1946 were in effect for only part of 1946 but will be in effect for all of 1947; because of increased special payroll taxes on railroads; and because of a decline in passenger business.

What Does This Mean To You?

The answer is "Plenty!" Your standard of living is the highest in the world because of MASS PRODUCTION. But mass production would not be possible without MASS TRANSPORTATION, which the railroads provide at low cost.

Why 6% Is Needed

The kind of service your standard of living requires takes a lot of money for new equipment and improvements. To carry out the post-war improvement program for better equipment, tracks, terminals and modern safety devices, a minimum return of 6% is needed.

So when the railroads make only 2 3/4 cents on each $1.00 of their net property investment, it concerns you.*

The funds for future new equipment and improvements must come from railroad earnings and also from investors. They will furnish money on reasonable terms only if they have confidence in the future earnings of the railroads.

You Have Another Stake In This

Even if you do not own any railroad stocks or bonds, insurance companies and savings banks do. So you still have a special interest in seeing that the railroads are allowed enough to do a good job . . . for you.

We are publishing this and other advertisements to talk with you at first hand about matters which are important to everybody.

*On total property investment, the railroads made only 2.15%.

How to make your ship come in ... LIKE THIS!

Remember the old saying, "I'll be sitting pretty when my ship comes in?" Well, there's a good way to make sure that your ship does come in—and in the not-too-distant future. Just keep buying Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan—and before you know it, your ship will be dropping anchor right in your back yard . . . bringing you that new home! Or that new car! Or those new furnishings! Or that education for your children! And where will all these wonderful things come from? From the money you save! For instance, if you set aside as little as $3.75 each week through Payroll Savings, you collect as much as $1,004.20 in five years! As much as $2,163.05 in ten years! That's because Uncle Sam repays you $4 for every $3 you save! So make sure your ship is headed for home! Buy Bonds regularly through your Payroll Savings or at your bank or post office!

Trickham News

(By Mrs. Beula Kingston) Mrs. Stacy and Mrs. Kingston visited Mrs. Ben McIver last week. Mrs. Clara Shield Caudle of Breckenridge came down last Tuesday and took her mother, Mrs. C. F. Shield home with her. Mrs. Shield was slowly improving when she left home. Mr. and Mrs. James Ford moved into the Cleveland community last week where he has employment. Sorry we overlooked mentioning that Willie Evans Burney was home for the week-end before last, since he has moved to Coleman and is busy as county treasurer. He doesn't come home very often. All of our college boys and our one girl were home for the Easter holidays. Willie Calcote from A. & M., Pat McClatchy, Daniel Baker, Felton and Minola Martin, Howard Payne and say had you noticed that new 1947 Ford car Felton is driving around? Believe me, it is a beauty! Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Boenicke and Mrs. Kingston visited Mr. and Mrs. John Pentecost last Thursday afternoon. They thought that he was improving pretty fast, but today's report is that he isn't feeling so well. We do hope that he can soon be up and about again. Mr. J. H. Rodgers of San Angelo is here visiting his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Laughlin. Mrs. R. D. Kirkpatrick gave her school pupils a picnic lunch on the school lawn for an April Fool Day surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Grady McIver came with a lot of home baked doughnuts and soft drinks and with those sandwiches and other goodies, the children really had a time. Rev. Miss Nellie Hill and Laura Dolan of Whon visited members of their church who live here at Trickham. News this morning, Tuesday, from Gordon Stearns is that he seems to be better. Mrs. Leston Cozart visited Mrs. Kingston Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Walters and son of O'Donnell, Texas visited their daughter, Mrs. Buck Means and family of Mt. View last week. The Means are the parents of a fine baby girl. Walters visited with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Haynes and as friends of the years gone by, we will never forget their kindness in taking Mr. Kingston and I to San Angelo when the news came that our son Antry Monsey had been killed in a plane crash. Mr. and Mrs. James G. Laughlin and family of Brownwood spent Sunday here with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Boenicke attended church at Santa Anna Sunday morning and at Mt. View Sunday night. Did you ever see a more beautiful Easter day than Sunday was? Sorry no program of any kind had been arranged for that day. Not even a flower was brought in. We used to arrange for a nice Easter program and Easter should mean as much to us today as in former years. Hoyell brought us a real good message on this scripture, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above. Where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God." Col. 3:1. We had quite a number of visitors out. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Storm from Landig College, Houston, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sheehan and son of Bastrap, Mrs. Herman Martin and daughter, Mrs. George Bobo, Felton Martin and a girl friend, Miss Bettie Cox, Minola Martin, Pat McClatchy, all of Brownwood, Bert Carter, Whon, Mr. and Mrs. Hilburn Henderson and family, Santa Anna, Mrs. Sellers and her son, Joe Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. Tal McClatchy, Jr. and J. H. Rodgers on San Angelo. Mrs. Walter Stacy and Mrs. Oscar Boenicke attended the H. D. Council meeting in Coleman Saturday. Mrs. Lula Haucock of Zephyr, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hiedbrier and Patricia Bagley of Brownwood spent Sunday with Mrs. Zoan Stacy, with the other children around here coming in in the afternoon. Mrs. Zona Stacy visited with Mrs. Emma Perry and Mrs. Eda Miller Saturday afternoon. We are glad to know that Mr. Fellers is able to be up and about again. Gordon Stearns is in a hospital in Brownwood, having been there since last Friday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Stearns, also a brother, Ed Stearns, have gone to visit him today, Monday. William Bradley was brought home from the hospital last Friday. He is much better but the doctors advise him to stay off of that foot for 30 more days. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Chleo James and Roberta attended the singing at Brooksmith Sunday afternoon. While there they visited with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Reed for a short time. Mrs. Reed wasn't quite so well, but was so glad to have them come by to see her. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stacy and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Thompson attended the singing at Brooksmith Sunday afternoon. Ansalum George Cheney, one of our neighbor boys of years ago, but now of Crockett, passed through here one day last week, leaving his address with Buck Mitchell. George is now proprietor of the Cheyney hotel at Crockett. Should you be going through Crockett, why not stop over with him? At the school trustee election held here Saturday, I have been informed that Marion Ford was re-elected. A wise choice, I would think, as he has been doing his best to keep our school here. Twelve or 15 men sure have been busy today, Monday, digging and shoveling dirt for the foundation of the new church house. Mrs. John (Emma) Wells telephoned me she was happy to have all her children and grandchildren home Saturday night and Sunday. One son, Cpl. Ray Wells, who re-enlisted in the army came in home on a 15 day furlough from Oliver general hospital, Atlanta, Ga. Ray drives an ambulance for the hospital there. Ray, we are proud of you and the record you are making and trust you will continue to be a boy to make everybody proud of you. So far as I have been able to learn, none of our Trickham boys failed to make good for the U. S. A. and our community. God bless you and the other boys from here who are still in service. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Haynes and Nancy Jo spent several days in Ft. Worth. Glenn went there for a test for asthma. As you know he has suffered for years with it. They gave him the 160 test, and found many things he was eating and things he came in contact with were causing the trouble. He is greatly hopped up and thinks there is now a good chance for him to get well. Waymon Matthews and family of Concord spent Sunday in the Gene James home. Mrs. Jewel Stearns spent Sunday afternoon in the Key Bradley home. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ford and family spent Saturday night in the home of Marion Ford and family. Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Martin were happy to have all their children home Sunday night. Remember next Sunday night is our regular singing night. I regretted very much that I wasn't able to go with the friends who came by from Whon going to Brooksmith to visit Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sheffield and R. L. I did manage to go to Sunday School and church in the morning. But had to spend the afternoon in bed with a deep chest cold. I am feeling better today, Monday. I was so glad Mrs. Gertrude Martin and Minola came for a brief visit before going to church. Do you know Jesus said one time in talking with His disciples with the many other things. He said, "I was sick and ye visited Me." Read Matthew 25:36. Let's watch ourselves more closely and see if we are doing the things Jesus spoke of in the 25th chapter of Matthew. He also said when we do these things for one another, we do them for Him.

former Billie Fay Lewellen. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sutton and son of Brownwood and Mr. and Mrs. Stanly Price of Ballinger visited in the home of Mrs. Sue Walker and son on Sunday. Alton Diseren of Austin was here from the University of Texas and spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Diseren. Misses Alma McNutt and Dorothea Casey visited from Saturday until Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Williams and children at Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Stephens have returned from a visit of two weeks with friends and relatives at Odessa, Andrews and other points. Among others visited was their niece, Mrs. Tommie McDonnell at Plains, who is the MOTHER'S in the kitchen, dreaming up a meal. Grandma's in the laundry, busy washing clothes. Dad plugs in his razor, and whisks off his whiskers. Lights shine, the radio plays merrily, and Sister skims the cleaner across the bedroom rug.

This is a house with dozens of servants—dependable, willing electric servants—ready day and night to make work easier and life more comfortable. This is living the modern way—the electric way!

Yet how little it costs! Grandma can spin the dirt from six heaping tubs of wash—for only a penny! A few more pennies get Mother through her meal and Father through his beard, too. Sister can clean that rug and five others like it before her cent's worth of electricity is used up.

Dollar values for penny prices—that's the story behind every electric switch in your home. That's our song of service!

GOSSIP

April Fools Day provided quite a bit of material for this column. Here are some of the highlights of that day:

Seen Tuesday morning in Coleman playin hookey were Ooretha Casey and Paul Versher. Why did you try to hide from him Friday when "Mozelle" arrived, Doretha? Also in Coleman were Virginia Lewellen and Billy Campbell. We hear they had fun!

Seen in Whon were most of the student body of S. A. H. S.!! The most outstanding were Sue England and Hilton Sherriod, Wanda Price and Olin Horton (who were seen several other times and places, too). Say, what's going on around here anyway?

On an excursion to Coleman Tuesday afternoon were 11 senior girls and two junior girls with Miss Anglin, Mrs. Singleton and Mrs. Williamson as playmates for the afternoon. They reported lots of fun and did you too see Betty Ann McCaughan and Jean Rowe in the back of Mrs. Singleton's car?

Who was that cute blonde freshman, Helen Day, with Monday night of the 31st? Could it have been another cute blonde—Arthur Dean Talley?

My! How you do get around, Doretha — Weren't you with Glenn Smith Thursday night? What do you say, Pat?

Was that Lonnie Carter that Ruth Cole was with at the show Friday night?

Virginia White looked happy Monday as Gene Ray was here.

We hear that wedding bells are to ring in June for one of our faculty—or should we have mentioned it?

Virginia and Barbara, who are the two Coleman boys that you had dates with for Friday night at the pie supper and Womanless Wedding?

Another Friday night date was Sedonia Simmons and LeRoy Stackard.

In the hall last Wednesday was Evelyn Zenor talking to Elgean Shields.

Hmmmm — at the drugstore Saturday night were Dorothy Burrage and a certain junior boy.

Some of the other kids here for the holiday were Jeannete Eubanks, Boyd Stewardson, and just almost all of the kids from college.

As an afterthought, we add the steadys were all seen. Even Bob and Betty Ann since he got back from Arizona.

News comes that Jackie Watkins still expects to come soon after delays of illness and other things.

Who were all those kids in Coyita's car Saturday night after church?

Kids who were out at Earl Jean's Monday night reported a good time. Wonder why!!!

Was that Olin and Helen Day we saw in Coleman Monday night? Could be!!

Tommy Sue and Gene seem to be hitting it off fine—they were in Coleman Sunday afternoon at the show.

Say, Ann P., you enjoy second period typing class, don't you—is it because of the senior boy sitting next to you? Hmmmm!

Time passes quick when we gossipers gossip but guess we better stop for now. Come on, kids, and fill that little white box full of gooey gossip. — Yours until next week, Peep and Squeak.

WHO'S WHO

This week we are proud to present another one of those dignified senior girls, Vivian Tucker Price. Vivian is 17 years old, stands 5'4" tall and weighs 114 pounds. She has beautiful brown eyes and brown hair.

During her high school days she has been quite active being a member of the homemaking club three years, pep squad two years and press club one year.

Vivian states that her likes are her husband (Curtis Price), walnut sundaes, fried chicken, and being a senior. Her dislikes are giggling girls, silly boys, her leaky fountain pen and celery. Her favorites are: Subject, book-keeping; teacher, Mrs. Williamson; actor, Tyrone Power, and actress, Olivia De Haviland.

Vivian says her ambition is to become her husband's secretary.

She plans to take a business course when she finishes school and then, sometime in the near future, she and her ideal person (Curtis) plan to take a trip to Alaska.

Here is wishing you the best of luck in everything you tackle and hoping you have a wonderful time in Alaska. Good luck to you from all your senior friends.

Now, get a load of this, we mean lend an ear while we go over the description of this dignified senior, namely, Bonnie Rushing.

This senior proudly declares she is 5'7", has blonde hair and brown eyes. She moved here in 1941 and attended ward school.

Bonnie has been a member of the Home Economics Club three years, the Spanish Club two years and the Press Club one year.

For Bonnie's favorites: Her teacher, Mrs. Singleton; actress and actor, Ester Williams and Dane Clark; writer, Cornelia Skinner; persons, Mother and Father. Her likes include records by Artie Shaw, a certain ex-G.I. college freshman and chocolate cake. Her dislikes are snobbish people, "shoot em up" movies and carrots.

Bonnie's ambition is to be an interior decorator, and her most exciting adventure was on the campaign trip with Faye and Boyce House. Bonnie plans to go to North Texas State College when she graduates. Here are bushels and bushels of good luck wished for you by the entire student body to a wonderful senior.

FADS AND FANCIES

With the weather turning warm, the birds singing, and the flowers blooming, the girls of S. A. H. S. are starting to wear their little spring dresses, thin white blouses, and ruffled skirts instead of wool skirts and sweaters. Sandals on bare feet are commonly seen around the campus.

Cool upsweep hair dos are being worn by the girls, too. Little baby ribbons are used for holding the hair back of those girls with their long bobs.

Coats are being shed and boys are wearing polo shirts with their levis. The football jackets are of no use any more until next winter and then most of the boys will have new football jackets.

The most striking difference in costume is seen the seventh period south of the building when the boys put on their track shorts and the girls put on their shorts to play volleyball. I wonder if both parties get much work done.

John L. Lewis Shares Blame

Old John L. Lewis, striking fast following the terrible Centralia mine blast which claimed the lives of 112 coal miners, attempted to blame Interior Secretary J. A. Krug, Coal Mines Administrator, for "criminal negligence" and "murder" in connection with the disaster.

Testifying before our labor subcommittee last week, before Klug lights and radio microphones, Lewis vented his spleen toward Krug and made admissions that branded himself with guilt and criminal negligence.

In my questioning of the witness I branded him as being far more guilty than Krug. The basis for my charge was these facts:

1. In the contract with the government, it was provided that at each mine "there shall be a mine safety committee selected by the local union". The contract provides that "if the committee believes conditions found endanger the lives and bodies of the mine workers, it shall report its findings and recommendations to the management". It is further provided that the findings of the committee are conclusive and the safety code entitles the workers to then withdraw from the unsafe area without additional authority.

2. Lewis said he personally knew of the unsafe conditions in the Centralia mine and knew it might "blow up" at any time.

3. While knowing of the imminent danger that existed, Lewis as head of the Mine Workers Union took no steps to withdraw the miners from the danger area, which he had a right to do under the terms of the contract with the government.

4. While knowing of the imminent danger at Centralia, Lewis did not see fit to personally call the fact to the attention of Mr. Krug, as Coal Mines Administrator, and lodge a protest.

"What is your excuse," I asked, "for not appealing to Mr. Krug for correction of the Centralia condition?"

"Why, Mr. Krug and I were at war," boomed Lewis. "Didn't you hear about it? Least of all we could communicate with Mr. Krug about a local condition."

Thus we have the sordid story of an arrogant old man who knew the Centralia mine disaster might happen at any moment but who wouldn't call it to the attention of the Coal Mines Administrator because "we are at war".

The Wool Bills. Both the house and senate committees have reported favorably bills providing government wool programs for a period of two years from last January 1.

It is hoped these measures will be acted upon at an early date. This will depend, however, upon the republican leadership which has control over what legislation is taken up and acted upon.

The present wool purchase program expires on April 15. It was for that reason we have urged that action be speeded. Through the efforts of Bryan Hunt, of Sonora, president of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association; Vestel Askew, secretary; Steve Stumberg of Sanderson, past president and M. C. Puckett of Ft. Stockton, vice president, and others, the house committee on agriculture reported a bill two weeks ago. But the house leadership has not yet permitted the bill to come up.

The house bill would continue the present purchase program for two years and allow the CCC to sell our wool at prices competitive with foreign wools. The senate bill does the same and provides for a revised parity price formula which is called "comparable price". This would mean an increase of about two cents a pound to domestic wool producers.

Spokesmen for wool growers have urged that, in view of the government subsidy program, the wool be sold on a free mar-

Air Show In B'wood Sunday

A free air show April 13, marking the first anniversary of the Brownwood Municipal Airport as a civilian field will provide most Central Texas residents with the first opportunity for close inspection of latest army jet fighter planes, B-29 Superforts, navy fighters, dive bombers and patrol bombers.

The show is sponsored by the Brownwood Junior Chamber of Commerce.

March Field, California, will send two P-80 "Shooting Star" jet fighters to the Brownwood show. Ft. Worth Army Air Field will provide at least one B-29 bomber.

The Naval Air Station at Grand Prairie will send a PV-1 medium bomber, TBM carrier torpedo plane, F6F-5 and FG-1D carrier fighters, PBV-5A patrol bomber and an SB-2C carrier dive bomber for ground demonstration.

In addition, a mass formation of 30 naval planes will put on a demonstration including simplified combat target attacks and fighter acrobatics.

A huge new C-82 twin boom "flying boxcar", cargo plane, a C-46 and CG-4A gliders from Bergstrom Field, Austin, will participate in the Brownwood show. The gliders from Bergstrom were one of the principal attractions of the 1946 event.

Many of the newest civilian planes will be available for inspection including the sensational Republic Seabee amphibian.

Air show hours are from 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., but most of the activities will take place after 1:00 p. m.

Brownwood Jaycee officials emphasized there will be no admission charge, and plenty of free parking space is available on the 1,500 acre airport. Soft drinks, but no food, will be sold during the day.

The Brownwood Municipal Airport is five miles north of Brownwood on U. S. Highway No. 283.

H. L. Briggs Stationed In Germany

Wiesbaden, Germany, March 27 - Cpl. Howard L. Briggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Briggs of 414 West 11th Street, Coleman, Texas, will have much to tell about Germany when he returns to the states. Wiesbaden, itself, now the home of the Headquarters, United States Air Forces in Europe, the organization policing occupied Germany from the air, is one of the most famous spas and health resorts of pre-war Europe. Cpl. Briggs has found much of interest in the city, where he is with the special service unit of Headquarters command.

The Wiesbaden Military Community has taken over many of the famous buildings of the city. For example, the Kurhaus, a famous casino built in the classic style, is now the home of the American Red Cross Club. Hotels and pensions have been taken over for billets and just ask Cpl. Briggs when he gets back about the hot mineral baths.

Cpl. Briggs, with his fellow soldiers, is taking his job with the occupation forces seriously. Work with the German Youth Activities Program, which seeks to bring the benefits of the democratic way to the youth of post-war Germany offers him a change from the more serious job of policing the occupied country.

All in all, says Cpl. Briggs, life with the regular army in occupied Germany is an interesting one.

Boyce House "Gives You Texas"

My friend, John Gould, wrote in the Wichita Falls Daily Times: "There ought to be a symphony of Texas, wrought by one with ket, provided additional protection is given in the form of import quotas on the imposition of import fees on wool dumped on our domestic markets from foreign countries.

There is a lot of support for that position in the house and we are hopeful the republican controlled rules committee, which decides what bills may come up and what amendments may be offered, will permit the solution to be considered on the house floor.

the art and the affection to compose it, and he could put into it the howling of coyotes and the swish of the baffled sea against the granite wall at Galveston, and the tramp of marching feet and the industrious clatter of an oil rig and the bright music of a mocking bird singing in the rain, and the plaintive bellow of a newly branded calf, and the crunch of Sam Houston's men gnawing raw corn after San Jacinto and the voices of children repeating the pledge to the flag, and the sound of an old hymn at the brush arbor revival and the whirl of airplanes, and the cry of a tame vendor calling his wares to the passers by.

You should know, too, the smells of Texas, the smells of saddle leather and chili and pine forests and sheep dip and wild plum blossoms and gasoline and sweat.

But when you have learned all this, not yet will you know Texas as she would ask to be known. Not even her own sons and daughters know her as they should; not even they have caught all her moods and her mysteries, her shading and her overtones.

But they know that there is something that draws men to her and makes them Texans partaking of her heritage. They know that wherever, under the flag, whether in Iceland or Rangoon, there is one called Tex, he is one of whom men know that he will not fail in the crucial hour.

Texas is a catalyst which works a change without itself being changed. It is a salute and a challenge. It is a prayer and a song. It is a land that one must love.

Home Repair Plans In County Provide Huge Job For '47

Coleman county's non-farm home owners will spend an estimated $323,000 on repair and modernization work during 1947.

At least a third and probably more than half of all dwellings in the county will be improved or repaired this year, according to estimates released by the Tile Council of America. "Increased supplies of building materials and easing of restrictions should make possible a record volume of home modernization throughout the county," said F. B. Ortman, chairman of the Council's Residential Construction Committee.

The county's 4,940 single family homes will account for most expenditures, the study revealed. Painting is the most often wanted improvement, with about a third of all owners planning to redecorate home exteriors or some room of the interior. At least one out of every 16 dwellings needs carpentry repairs and large numbers will have water pipes repaired, bathrooms tiled or showers installed during the year, according to the report.

As evidence of the increase in building supplies, Ortman pointed out that floor and wall tile volume is expected to hit an all-time high this year. "Stepped-up" production of materials means that the construction industry can both build record numbers of houses and do the repair work neglected during the war," he said.

Home repair expenditures in the county are part of a $141,360,000 modernization program being undertaken in Texas this year, according to the study.

Anthrax — Cattle Disease

Anthrax, sometimes referred to as charbon or splenic fever, is an acute infectious febrile disease of livestock and man caused by a specific micro-organism which is known as the anthrax bacillus. In its most common form the disease usually presents a picture of acute blood poisoning and is characterized principally by its rapid onset and rapidly fatal course. The suddenness with which it strikes, the heavy toll it takes, the long life of the infection in the soil, and the many ways by which the disease may be spread make the problem of control a common cause to which every livestock owner should contribute. To this end, all persons concerned are in duty bound to cooperate to the fullest extent with the local veterinarians and livestock sanitary officials, who are charged with the responsibility of controlling diseases of livestock.

There is experimental evidence to indicate that dried anthrax spores can still germinate after being stored for more than 40 years. Well controlled experiments, indicating that a temperature of 135 C. or 275 F. for 5 to 10 minutes are necessary to kill anthrax spores. The better ways of handling the anthrax carcasses are (1) remove carcasses and thoroughly burn and disinfect the ground, never drag the carcass. (2) Burn the carcass with all ropes and tools used on animal, completely. (3) Bury carcass with ropes and tools not less than four feet deep. Avoid actual contact with the germ laden body.

All domesticated animals are susceptible to anthrax. Anthrax in dogs and cats usually occurs as a result of eating meat from anthrax infected carcasses. While all dogs are more or less resistant to the disease, older dogs seem to be the least susceptible.

Out of a reported 1,683 cases of anthrax occurring in human beings, there were 353 deaths. Another report shows 375 human cases and 61 fatalities. Anthrax may occur in man as a result of direct contact with diseased animals or their discharges or with carcasses of animals dead of the disease, or from handling hides, furs, hair and other by-products. Skin infections result from the handling of carcasses and their by-products. Originating as localized infections in the form of small pimples, the lesions develop rapidly and may terminate in a fatal septicemic or blood poisoning. Prompt medical attention is most important whenever anthrax infection is suspected.

National and International News Hi-Lights of the Week

Troubled Greece buried a king Sunday and the government plunged ahead with the task of restoring order in the strife torn northern frontier.

The government issued a statement denying a Russian accusation that it was responsible for publication in three Greek newspapers of an interview with Premier Stalin attributed to a United Press correspondent.

Passing its first big test, President Truman's $400,000,000 Greco-Turkish aid bill Thursday was approved, 14 to 0, by the senate foreign relations committee but an amendment authorizes the United Nations to halt the American program at any time by a simple majority vote of its security council or general assembly.

With an eye on the telephone tie-up, the senate labor committee went to work Monday on legislation authorizing court injunctions to block strikes which "imperil the national welfare or safety."

Chairman Robert A. Taft of Ohio told a news conference this is a provision of the preliminary draft of a general labor bill that he hopes to sell to the senate floor next week.

The nation's rich soft coal industry was crippled badly Monday as at least three quarters of 400,000 miners remained idle in response to AFL United Mine Workers leaders demands to stay out of the pits until federal safety conditions are met.

Surveys were hampered by a national telephone strike but the first reports from the leading bituminous mines gave only between 20 and 30 per cent of the normal output of 2,000,000 tons daily.

A nation Tuesday mourned the passing of Henry Ford, a symbol to all the world of American industrial genius.

Hailed by his cohorts as the father of mass production, he died of a cerebral hemorrhage late Monday. He would have been 84 next July 30.

By chance, a flood had converted his modern home at the time of his death into a fireplace heated kerosene lamp lit building, strangely reminiscent of the quiet world of his birth.

Coal operators accused John L. Lewis Tuesday night of perpetrating a "hoax" and a "deceitful dodge" in an effort to delay the back-to-work movement which the government said had boosted soft coal production to 40 per cent of normal.

Lewis, whose United Mine Workers ceased labor last week following the Centralia, Ill. mine disaster, dispatched a telegram saying mining should be resumed in any pit the federal government certifies safe.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

And That Ain't Hay — Or Is It?
I guess all of us secretly hanker from time to time, for the good old days and the good old-fashioned pleasures. Leastwys, Buddy Richards done a thriving business reviving the old-time hayride.
With a team of horses, and a stout straw-bedded rack, Buddy can take as many as thirty adults — at fifty cents a head!
Two or three times a week they start from Town Hall, and go out along the river; stop for a friendly glass of beer at Shoreside Tavern; and come home by way of Pound Ridge . . . nine miles in all.
Not very exciting, you might say. But from where I sit it's not excitement that we need these days—but those simple country pleasures that are part and parcel of America—the old-fashioned hayride, with its song and jollity; the horseshoe games; the friendly glass of beer; and the good companionship that they engender.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for April 13

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

THE KINGDOM ESTABLISHED

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 9:1, 2; 11: 12, 13; 15:1, 22-26, 34, 35. MEMORY SELECTION—Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.—Psalm 33: 12.

A major crisis had come in the history of Israel when we left them in our study of January-March, 1946. They were ready to change their form of government. They no longer wanted God to rule them directly through his representatives, but wanted a king like other nations round about them.

God acceded to their request and instructed his servant Samuel to anoint Saul as king, and they began that period in their history which led to their ultimate captivity and disgrace. We shall study together during the next three months, the facts and factors involved in the rise and fall of the nation of Israel.

Our lesson concerns their first king, Saul, the son of Kish, who promised to be a great and good king, but who failed through disobedience.

I. Saul—a Choice Man and God-Chosen King (9:1, 2; 15:1).

To begin well is to be far on the road to success. Here was a man of excellent quality, "a choice young man and a goodly"—in fact, there was not among his people one who surpassed him. What a splendid recommendation for the prospective ruler!

His physical appearance was also attractive. That is not as great a factor in success as some think, but it does have a bearing on a man's influence over others.

Most important of all, this man Saul was the one whom not only the people but also the Lord had chosen. The Lord sent Samuel (15:1) to anoint Saul as king, and to give him the key to success as ruler—obedience to the voice of God.

II. Saul—an Obedient and God-Blessed King (11:12, 13).

The attitude of a man toward his enemies is often the test of his character. Bitterness, hatred, revenge, or veiled hostility with a purpose of ultimate destruction—these are the common reactions of men toward them who oppose them.

Saul, who was not essentially different in his own spirit (as we shall see later), was a man after God's own heart in his early reign, for he was obedient to the Lord.

Some "worthless fellows" despised Saul and refused to recognize him as king. The urge of the flesh to destroy them was aggravated by their own unworthiness. Some wanted to put them to death for their disloyalty to the king, but Saul in true kingly spirit, and recognizing that he reigned by the good grace of the Lord, decreed that there was to be no revenge, but rejoicing.

The story which we touch on so briefly here is one that teaches the eternal truth that the way of blessing and power is the way of obedience to the laws and the will of God.

Saul began well, but before long his pride and self-will began to assert itself and he thus brought to ruin and personal disaster that which had begun with such promise and blessing. There were many such incidents, but we consider only one.

III. Saul—a Disobedient and God-Rejected King (15:22-26, 34, 35).

God had commanded that there must be utter destruction of the Amalekites and their possessions—something like the burning of a disease-infested house—a wiping out of a king and people who were condemned of God. We may not fully understand this act of God, but if we know him we will not doubt that it was in accordance with his infinite wisdom and love.

Saul chose to disobey, later contending that it was done because of the people, that sheep and oxen had been spared for a sacrifice to the Lord. Samuel cut through his hypocrisy and declared that God wants obedience rather than sacrifice. This is a lesson that many who profess to follow the Lord have not learned.

The church or the individual who denies or disregards the teaching of God's Word and attempts to make up for it by sacrifices and ceremonies declares to the world that there has been a departure from

Typographical Errors Cause Of Nation's Greatest Guffaws

The nation roared when Mrs. Roosevelt's syndicated column carried the line:

"After supper with the men, we went back to dress."

Ever since the invention of the printing press, typographical errors and printed statements susceptible of different interpretations have been the cause of universal merriment, to say nothing of a great amount of personal distress.

A compendium of ludicrous typographic errors and embarrassing printed statements is contained in an article by Morton Sonthelmer in the April issue of Good Housekeeping magazine. A few of the more glaring ones, culled from the press of the country, follow:

"Only one of the old bloc will be missing—pretty Winifred Stanley of Buffalo. Her seat disappeared in the New York re-districting."

"The members of St. John Baptist Church met with the pastor in bed . . . and had a lovely meeting; reports were good; amount $37.80."

"Sheer stockings designed for dressy wear. But so serviceable that lots of women wear nothing else."

"Attractive room—Everything furnished. Venetian blonds."

"Dewdrops on freshly blown noses."

"She had tight bridesmaids at the ceremony."

"Glen Collins was bent man."

"No date has been set for the bedding of the couple."

"Congress probes high cost of loving."

"The picture was posed by his two-headed son."

"The rain descends with the force of water from a fire horse."

"And them asses (the masses) believed him."

Then there was the literal minded printer who received an order over the telephone ordering a ribbon for a funeral wreath.

"I want it to read 'Rest in Peace' on both sides," the customer directed.

And that's just what he got. When the ribbon was delivered it read:

"Rest in peace on both sides."

Livestock And Crop Roundup

Is green your favorite color? It probably is, if you are a farmer or livestock raiser. Green is the color of like and growth, and springs green grass is ever welcome. For one thing, it means the cheapest and best of livestock feeds—so good a feed that its value may be overestimated. A timely tip to dairymen: Use your green grass, don't abuse it. Feed enough grain and protein to grazing cows to supply nutrients they need for body maintenance and milk production.

American farmers received 25 per cent more cash income during the first three months of 1947 than in the same period of 1946, but the Bureau of Agricultural Economics expects in come for the entire year to be about the same as last year.

Corn, alone, isn't enough to enable sows to produce strong pigs, Iowa State College research shows. "Balanced rations are required, with proper proportions of proteins, minerals, vitamins and, if possible, good green hay."

Cotton planting time brings encouraging word from many informed sources that 1947 offers the best opportunity in a long time to "cash in" on cotton.

Trouble In Britain

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

ENGLAND has gone down for a small count. That of course is no reason why anybody should be ready with the old "I-told-you-so." However, some observations are in order. Outstanding Englishmen have been outspoken during the fuel crisis current in their country. An examination of the underlying causes of the crisis in England ought to make a good treatise favoring the American economic system.

In England or anywhere else in the world, it is my feeling that little or nothing along the socialist order is to be found there that we would wish to adopt in America. Even before the coal and power crisis reached the terrible proportions of mid-February, the British were being urged by critics within their own realm to abandon plans for further nationalization.

National MR. SHINWELL, minister of fuel and power, along with Sir Stafford Cripps, president of the Board of Trade, asked that the country forego any further reorganization of the electric power industry. The idea behind their plea was that British industry could not afford to be exposed to the uncertainties and hazards that would accompany more experimentation. It was time for danger signals to go up.

The government, it was stressed, would have to concentrate on the task of preserving the economic life of England. Another warning came from a prominent religious leader. The English people were confronted, he said, by immense danger in the planned society becoming so common. If Higher yields on more acres should pay big dividends this year.

Sweet potato meal, increasingly popular southern livestock more and more orders had to be issued "about which the people would have to put up with and obey," it would be the beginning of national suicide.

No Lack THE BRITISH do not lack coal because they have no plan. Socialism is full of plans. The coal mines are there, too. What socialism forgets, however, is that private and personal initiative, meaning hard work and high production, make up the factors that insure economic stability. English miners can never dig coal with paper plans. Men dig and distribute coal to consumers of fuel largely because of various incentives.

Not the least of these incentives is that men make money in the process of getting the coal out of the ground. But a nation does not get rid of monopoly by making the monopoly one of government. The prime products of socialism and communism, with their monopolies of government, have been low standard of living and meager production.

Things to remember is that no anti-trust laws can reach this kind of monopoly. It takes either revolution or world conflict to sweep out failures of monopolistic government, once they become entrenched by long habit.

Responsibility falls with increasing weight upon America. These duties lie most fully now in the part we must play of making our free and dynamic economy, without taint of socialistic experimentation, the example for the whole world. In that way can the American people perform their best statesmanship.

feed, is good for poultry, too. Louisiana experiment station had good results using it as 20 to 25 per cent of the mash mixture to replace other carbohydrates in chick rations. Cull vegetables, vines, leaves, tops, peelings and other waste on farms and in processing plants offer promise as livestock and poultry feeds, says U. S. Department of Agriculture. Many of these wastes are rich in vitamins and other feed values. Speaking of wastes, a Kansan has suggested that grasshopper might be dried and fed to livestock.

American cotton textile exports during 1946 were the second largest in history, and the 1947 export outlook is good, which is more encouraging news for cotton farmers.

One hundred pounds of cottonseed cake fed with silage to stock cattle at Kansas experiment station increased gains 60 pounds over silage fed alone. Calves fed one pound of cake daily made more than twice as much daily gain as those fed only silage. Discussing costs, the report says there is seldom, if ever, a time when it would not pay to supplement low protein wintering rations with a protein concentrate.

Is 1,529 pounds of lint cotton on one acre a world's record? That's what Jack Belk, 17 year old 4-H Club member, Union County, North Carolina, produced in 1946, and it paid him $521.10 for income for his labor, after paying other costs.

Soil fumigants may be the best way to get rid of nut grass, Mississippi experiment station tests indicate.

Fertilizer consumption increased at the rate of about a million tons a year during the war, and reached a peak of more than 14 million tons in 1946, compared to the 1935-39 average of about seven million. Midwestern state, especially are using more fertilizers.

Authorities warn farmers to lay in supplies of poisons and poisoning equipment early; don't let the boll weevil and other-pests catch you short.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gregg left Wednesday morning for Ft. Worth, where he will mingle with old friends attending the 62nd annual convention of the National Editorial Association. While there they will visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Loyd Simmons. They will return home Friday or Saturday.

Announcements have been received here of the arrival of a daughter, named Judith Ann, April 2nd to Mr. and Mrs. James S. Jones at Dyersburg, Tenn. Her weight at birth was 7 pounds and 13 ounces.

Mrs. O. A. Etheredge and Mrs. Henry Price will attend the Vacation School Conference meeting in Hillsboro Thursday of this week.

Q. How can I get rid of lice in my hogs?

A. Results at the Idaho Experimental Station indicate that hog lice may be controlled by spraying hogs twice at 14-day intervals with either DDT or rotenone. Fourteen days after the first treatment the degree of infestation of lice was reduced more in the DDT group than in those treated with rotenone, due probably to the higher residual effect of DDT. After the second treatment with DDT all pigs were free from lice, and in the rotenone group only one pig was slightly infested with lice.

Q. Do mites remain dormant in poultry houses over the winter?

A. Yes, they do remain dormant in brooder houses, colony houses, and range shelters. These should be thoroughly cleaned in the spring, or the mites will cause a lot of trouble when the warm weather comes. Make sure that all cracks and crevices are cleaned out. Then spray with a good insect oil, such as Pirina Insect Oil, which will keep down mites for as long as a year.

Q. Will feeding vitamins to calves prevent scours?

A. Preliminary results from experimental work at Cornell on the value of supplementary vitamins in calf nutrition indicate that there was no difference in the incidence of scours nor in the rate of recovery on two test groups of calves. The one group of calves received supplementary vitamins, while the other group received the same care and management but were fed no supplementary vitamins. Observations clearly indicate that extra vitamins did not prevent scours. Furthermore, the calves recovered from scours whether they received the vitamins or not.

Q. Can turkeys be raised in batteries?

A. Turkeys are often started in batteries and kept there until four weeks of age, but it is more practical to keep them there only two weeks. Turkeys do not adjust themselves well to a change in environment after two weeks of age.

The menu consisted of fried fish, pickles, onions, salad, creamed potatoes, coffee and cookies. The tables were set in U shapes and decorated with bluebonnets.

Alve Bowen dressed as a negro boy and sang the "Boll Weevins" and "Craw Dad Hole." A silent prayer was offered in memory of Mr. W. E. Norwood.

After the supper, the men sat around an open fire telling fish stories, while the ladies held the regular quarterly business meeting.

At the meeting, reports of the different committees were given. It was decided that the auxiliary will sponsor an entertainment in the near future by the Curtain Club of Texas University at Austin of which Tommie Jones is arrangement manager.
