LETTER AND PICTURES FROM FLOODED AREA

Last week-end this writer received a letter from our friend, Mr. Orville Allen, who has been in the flooded areas of Louisiana and where the hurricanes struck at New Orleans. We appreciate receiving things like this from friends of ours who are away from home and we are glad to pass a first hand account of it on to our readers. The letter follows:

Mr. John Gregg,
Santa Anna, Texas.
Dear John:

I am sending you some newspaper pictures of the hurricane at New Orleans, Louisiana.

I was not here at New Orleans at the time but was in Shreveport, and being now employed by the Fourth Army Headquarters at Ft. Sam Houston as a Utilities Inspector, was sent on down to New Orleans after the storm to check on the utilities at the Port of Embarkation and the Personnel Center at New Orleans.

As the pictures will show, they had quite a time here as parts of the town was flooded and being below sea level, the water had to be pumped back into the gulf. They are getting the flood waters back as they have cut some of the levees on the Mississippi River canal and are letting it drain into the river.

The power was off for several hours and they could not run the pumps to pump the water out. The airport was covered with water from one to three feet deep. On Saturday and Sunday they hauled over 1,000 truck loads of trees and debris off the streets. You could not get through the streets for the trees and rubbish.

The roofs on hundreds of the buildings were ruined, some of the houses washed off their foundations, signs were blown down by the hundreds and waves of water 15 feet high over the sea wall at Army Personnel Center, which is located on the shore of Lake Pontchartrain and hundreds of cattle and other livestock drowned and several lives lost.

Since the last of July I have spent a week in each of the following Army Installations: Ft. Sam Houston, Camp Hood, Camp Polk, La., Longhorn Ordnance Installation at Marshall, Lone Star Ordnance Installation at Texarkana, Louisiana Ordnance Installation at Shreveport and will spend one week each at the Personnel Center at New Orleans and one week at the Port of Embarkation at New Orleans, then to Ft. Crockett, Texas, for about 10 days before returning to the Fourth Army Headquarters at Ft. Sam Houston.

If you will save these clipping I will pick them up the next time I am home as I will keep them for souvenirs.

Yours truly,
Orville Allen.

And Section 101 reads

Improvements

The appearance of the Queen Theatre is greatly improved by the new paint job on the front of the building. The combination of yellow with two shades of green is quite attractive.

The old wooden awnings in front of the Griffin Hatchery Buildings have been torn down and new ones are being built to replace them. It will be quite an improvement when complete.

As Follows:

Under Article 16, Section 143, the penalties for violation of the code are set forth as follows:

"Penalties for misdemeanors. (a) It is a misdemeanor for any person to violate any of the provisions of this Act unless such violation is by this Act or other law of this state declared to be a felony. (b) Every person convicted of a misdemeanor for a violation of any of the provisions of this Act for which another penalty is not provided shall be punished by a fine of not less than One ($1) Dollar nor more than Two Hundred ($200) Dollars."

District 7 Farm Bureau Meetings

A series of 23 Farm Bureau district meetings will be held in Texas September 29 through October 14, it has been announced by J. Walter Hammond, president of the state organization.

In order that more farmers may be able to attend and take part in the discussions, two meetings have been scheduled for the District 7 area. One will be held in the Hotel Wooten at Abilene on Wednesday, October 8, and the other in the Hotel Brownwood at Brownwood on Thursday, October 9. The meetings will start at 10 a. m. and Raymond McClrath of Coleman, state director, will preside.

The Texas Farm Bureau will attempt to get a cross section on the thinking of farmers with reference to continuation of the national farm program, which is in jeopardy at this time, a farm to market road plan, and many other critical issues.

"Unless farmers make a determined fight for the retention of the farm program, it will be discontinued after 1948," President Hammond warns. "There was a move on the part of congress during the past session to eliminate all price supports and AAA payments for soil conservation," he said, "and it is necessary that we rally all the support possible from our members if we are to retain our farm program."

The Farm Bureau expects to enlist the counsel and support of other groups interested in a rural road program, in formulating a plan that will provide for a source of revenue, type of roads, allocation of funds to counties, who shall determine type of roads, who shall be responsible for location of roads, etc., and have it ready to place before the next session of the legislature for enactment into law.

The road plan should be completed and ready to present to candidates for public office during the 1948 election campaign," Hammond declared. Farmers should vote for candidates who will support their farm to market road plan, he continued.

Salute To National Newspaper Week

By Kay Kyser
Hey chillun, pay attention! Class is now in session and this is your '01 Professor telling you it's about time you paid tribute to one of America's greatest institutions — your hometown newspaper!

This is National Newspaper Week and that's no "Comedy of Errors". In fact, it's time we all agreed nothing's more fun than a newspaper. Feeling very scholarly at the moment, I'd say that as the immediate reflection of a community's taste and opinion, your local newspaper is the crystallization of public thought and feeling. Not only that, but you can swap flies with a newspaper and what's better for lining bureau drawers?

Being a high class student myself, ever since I rocked Rocky Mount by winning the zinc plated yo-yo for being the best orator in the drum and bugle, chowder and peanut racing corps, I remember when Shakespeare referred to the seven ages of man. Now we can do that through the newspapers. First a baby has the comics read to him, then he learns for himself. Soon the sport pages begin to interest him and then is school current event classes cause the news section to play a part in his life. The amusement section is added as dating comes along. Then as young manhood is reached he begins to realize that the news can affect him personally. Editorials become required reading. The last stage is reached when grandpa removes his uppers and turns to the obituary page first instead of the comics.

America's free press is one of the greatest bulwarks of democracy. I tip my tassel to it and recommend we all do the same.

W. Lee O'Daniel Speaks At Lions Luncheon Tuesday

Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, his son, Pat and his secretary, Mr. Crawford were unexpected guests of Lion F. C. Woodward at the regular luncheon Tuesday. The junior senator from Texas made a short talk to the Club. Some of the things he covered in his talk that he has released to the press are reprinted in his own words.

"While other members of congress are traveling around the world on pleasure jaunts, trying to tell other countries how to run their business, I am in Texas to tell my own people what the New Deal gang has done to them.

"Unless some change is made in government politics, we're going headlong into the greatest financial depression we have ever seen.

"Unless we get somebody with spine in the state department, we're going headlong into war with Stalin."

O'Daniel added that the effort to rid the government of communists is not succeeding, "because they are not going after the big boys. They're just firing the little stenographers whom they find reading the 'New Republic'."

Other visitors at the club were Mrs. Elgean Shield and son who were guests of Lion Elgean Shield and W. T. Stewardson, a guest of Lion O. L. Cheaney. Lion F. L. Martin, a member of Lometa Club was also at the meeting. Forty nine regular members were present.

Bill Baxter and family of Alva, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Arthur Williams of Willow Run, Michigan, who had been here at the bedside of their father, Mr. Stafford Baxter, returned to their homes at the week-end. Mr. Baxter was moved to the Sealy Hospital last week, where his condition remains about the same.

City To Observe Week For Fire Prevention

Elsewhere in this issue of the News will be found a Proclamation by Major George M. Johnson, designating the week of October 5th-11th as Fire Prevention Week. During that time every citizen in Santa Anna is asked to check through their homes, offices, etc. and remove all the fire hazards.

Santa Anna has been very fortunate in that we have not had a major fire in three years. The last major fire was when the Nurses Home was destroyed in October, 1944. It appears that since that time people have been practicing Fire Prevention here, but we must never relax for even a little while. Fire Prevention Pays Great Dividends and should be practiced at all times.

The local Fire Department is sponsoring a contest for the Ward School Pupils. Each pupil who makes a Fire Prevention poster and enters it in the contest will be eligible for one of the three prizes awarded each year. The first prize is $7.50, second $5.00 and the third prize is $3.00. Also members of the local Fire Department will instruct each of the classes in the school in Fire Prevention during the week.

Other information concerning fire damages in the U. S. and other countries and laws governing firemen while they are on their way to and working at a fire will be found elsewhere in this issue of the News.

Louis Zachary left last Friday for a 10 days visit with his son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Zachary and with Jimmie Zachary at Freeport. J. W. was getting a vacation and they planned to do a lot of fishing.

Mountaineers To Tangle With May Tigers In Second Home Game Friday

The Santa Anna Mountaineers will tangle with the May Tigers in the second home game this year. This will be the fourth game of the season with Santa Anna going on the field with three losses to their credit and May with one loss and one win to their credit. All games played by Santa Anna have been non-conference games.

May is said to be a hard hitting, low tackling team. They beat Williams by a score of 26-0 and then were defeated by Early high, who were the Class B regional champions last year and are plenty strong this year. Santa Anna has had an unlucky year so far and are going out to this game to change their luck. The local boys were beaten by Rising Star by a score of 7-6, and then after beating Gorman all over the field, they were out-lucked and beaten by a score of 6-0. Last week the Comanche Indians downed them 19-21.

With all the boys back in good playing shape and eager to go, we should see a really good football game here at home Friday night.

Purdy Merc. Looted On Sunday Night

Purdy Mercantile Co. was burglarized Sunday night with the loss of some cash and an undetermined quantity of clothes, Sheriff H. F. Fenton, Jr. reported.

The burglars broke into the back window and left by the back door, taking the cash register and clothes with them. The cash register was found southwest of the store near the railroad tracks. It had 20 cents left in it and was not damaged. The estimated loss in cash was only around $10 or $20.

One hundred yards south of where the cash register was found, the officers picked up two leather jackets, three pairs of blue jeans, four pairs of boots, several pairs of socks and four belts. O. W. Gray found the clothes.

The burglars left their old clothes at the scene. Apparently they took a large quantity of clothing, to be sure of getting a fit, and left what they didn't put on. It is possible that they also carried some of the new clothing with them.

Is he your friend — or enemy?

AS FAR AS your future is concerned, Father Time is never neutral.

Right this minute, he's either working for you— or against you.

He's working against you if you're not saving money. It takes years to build up a nest egg, and if you're spending nearly all you earn, every week that goes by makes it just that much tougher for you to provide for your future.

But Father Time works for you the minute you start saving. Each dollar you put away begins to gather interest at once. And if you save regularly, it's really surprising how fast your nest egg will mount up.

One of the best possible ways to save is through buying U. S. Savings Bonds on the Payroll Plan.

These bonds are the safest in the world. And in just 10 years they pay you $4 back for every $3 you put in!

You can buy U. S. Savings Bonds conveniently at your place of work, or at any bank or post office. Think of your future, your family's future—and save away Bonds on every payday!

Better Revelation Lesson for October 5, 1947

WITH Sunday's lesson we turn into another field of Bible study for the concluding quarter of the year—messages from the Epistles, other than those of Paul.

This lesson, and the next two, are from the Epistle to the Hebrews—one of my favorite books in the Bible. The passages of study for this lesson are Hebrews 1-2; 8:6-13; with kindred passages in Matthew 3:16, 17 and John 14:5-11. Suggested devotional reading for the lesson is Psalms 40: 1-8.

Dr. Newton The title of the lesson has reference, of course, to Christ—the better revelation of the Son of God in his appearance to bring the father's plan of redemption nigh unto all men.

The Father's Son GOD, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds, chapter 1, verses 1 and 2.

And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water; and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him; and a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved son, in whom I am well pleased, Matthew 3:16, 17.

Could there be a more beautiful and impressive manifestation of God's acknowledgment of Jesus Christ as his son?

Love is the Key IN THIS better revelation of Jesus Christ, we find that love is the key that opens the door into the brightly lighted room. The father loved the son, and hath given all things into his hand, John 3:35.

Love is the key. It is ever so with all the revelations which God makes of himself to his trusting children.

And this revelation of God in Jesus Christ carries the further truth that "all things" have been placed in the hands of our blessed Saviour. We read elsewhere that "all things consist in him," which means that all things hold together in him—the world itself. Jesus said, "All power hath been given unto me, in heaven and on earth."

It is not a picture of passive love, but a picture of perfect love in action, with all things committed to his administration. Again we can sing, "This is our father's world."

Christ Reveals God NOT only does Christ reveal himself, but also the father, for they are one. Reading now into the second chapter of Hebrews, we find these words: "God also bearing them (angels) witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will."

It is God's own will that he be revealed, and he must do the revealing. Turn to John 14:5-11, where we read again that revealing incident when Jesus patiently reassured Thomas and Philip, declaring "He that hath seen me hath seen the father."

The better revelation of God in Jesus Christ brings us far beyond the revelations of God in the Old Testament, dramatic and impressive as they were.

A New Covenant THE better revelation means "a more excellent ministry," because Jesus Christ has now become "the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises," Hebrews 8:6.

The first covenant was imperfect, because it was manifest through humanity. Only the perfect son of the perfect God could manifest the better covenant. Jeremiah foresaw the better covenant. See Jeremiah 31: 31-34.

Now that the better revelation is our portion, what shall be our response? One cannot be excused today by claiming ignorance of God's proffered salvation unto all men. He has revealed his love in the death of his only begotten son on the cross. He has revealed his love in abounding and forbearing mercies.

"How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?"

YOU NO LONGER GET A 'LIGHT' BILL IT'S A SERVICE BILL TODAY! The old-fashioned "light" bill, like the surrey with the fringe on top, is a thing of the past. Electricity for lighting is only one of many items represented by your electric service bill. Today, in most homes, you're likely to find two or more electric appliances in every room—many homes have a score or more. That's why your electric service bill can no more rightly be called a "light" bill than a "refrigerator" bill. The cost of a kilowatt hour of service to residential users has decreased one-third in the last 14 years. West Texas Utilities Company

The Mountaineer

The High School of Santa Anna dedicates this issue of the Mountaineer to the memory of Sue England.

Juanita Sue was born in the Sealy Hospital on March 4, 1932. At the age of six she began school at Plainview. She entered the Santa Anna school system in the fifth grade. She spent her sixth year of school in Coleman, returning to Santa Anna to remain except for two months of summer school in Ft. Worth in summer of 1947.

Sue England entered high school as a freshman in 1946. She was one of the most popular girls in her class and was in many of the school activities. Sue was song leader in the Home Economics Club and played a snare drum in the band. Sue had a fine voice and sang at several occasions. She was in a group that sang at the Junior Carnival, Mother-Daughter Banquet, Band Mothers Program and one of the football banquets. She sang a solo in costume at one of the Band Mothers' Programs in May. She was a nominee for Most Beautiful Girl. Due to her pleasing personality and sweet ways, Sue had unnumbered friends.

EDITORIAL

Every year with the beginning of school we are faced with the same fatal question, "What are my grades going to be?" We should consider that the first week and not, as many do, put it off until the day before examinations. One admirable trait in a football boy is that he not only has to be an expert player, he has to make good grades, to be eligible to play. Most of the procrastinators in the school would think football enough for a person and forget about school work, but it does not work that way. Our high school subjects are practically the same, if we make high grades and do good, we are more eligible in the game of life. Let this be a lesson to us and each one strive to do a little better from now on.

In Memory Of

Y-TEEN FATHER LISTS THREE R'S

To my daughter and also to all you girls:

So you want to know what I want my daughter to do, how she should behave, conduct herself, etc., eh! Well, you brought it on yourselves by asking, so here 'tis:

1. Study and work at her studies commensurate with her abilities — then don't fuss, fume, stew and worry about them.

Five years from now those grades will not make any difference anyway.

2. Don't get all hot and bothered about your little clique of girls, your social activities, your dates, your girl friends' dates, etc. Let them run their lives as they see fit and you do the same.

3. Be nice to all people at the school regardless of their social or financial status.

4. And for heaven's sake — right now you are developing your personality and character so put some sunshine in it. Don't save all the sunshine just around school to try to impress everyone "how sweet you are," spread sunshine at home — relax — enjoy life in a little different way. You are making hard work out of school when it can be made a pleasant mixture of work and play.

5. You are preparing for life now — in a way — but you are missing the boat in not preparing more for your biggest chore in life not so far ahead of you now.

I mean — learn now some good, old practical home economics at home. Learn to cook some and also to sew and keep house a little — but particularly learn to cook — at least a little.

Don't practice some horrible experiments on some nice young man after you've hooked him into saying "I do" — and then practically ruin him for the rest of his natural days.

6. History, English, art languages and drama and the rest of the curricular subjects will help you to enjoy life more this time — but the real old battle of living calls for a lot of practical things, remember.

7. And last and most important:

Be clean both physically and morally. It will pay you big dividends in every way. (Taken from the Clarindigo)

Make Santa Anna A Fire Safe City

Safeguard Your Home - Yourself - Your Family

Observe These Safety Rules - - - Always

SMOKING—

Smoking in bed is extremely dangerous. If you must smoke — get up.

CHIMNEY—

Cracks in the chimney are a good place for sparks to escape and start a fire.

OILY RAGS—

Never allow oily rags to accumulate. Oil treated mops should be placed in metal containers.

IN THE WOODS—

Play safe — don't leave a spark — an ember — an inflammable drop behind you.

SMOKE PIPES—

Watch out for worn, rusty pipes. Check for the proper insulation near wooden beams and partitions.

ROOFS—

Old curly shingles make an ideal place for sparks to start a fire.

DRY CLEANING—

Don't use highly volatile fluids for cleaning at home. Play safe and send your garments to a dry cleaner.

WIRING—

Don't take chances with faulty insulation. See that all extension wiring is properly installed.

FIRST AID—

Treat all minor burns to avoid infection. Keep a standard first aid kit handy in your home. Call a physician if necessary.

Membership Drive Planned For Farm Bureau

Membership Chairman Ben Wilson of Coleman and his assistant, Jesse Lewellen of Santa Anna made plans for the fall membership roundup at a regular directors meeting at home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jameson, Saturday, September 20 at 5:30 p. m.

Wilson asked the 20 directors who were present to act as team captains in their communities and directors who were not present at the meeting will also be asked to serve as captains.

These team captains will select men from their communities to help them canvass the county for members. At the present the federation has 625 on roll, 1,000 members is the county goal for this fall.

Pres. Luther Holder urged all members to attend a District Farm Bureau meeting in Hotel

Brownwood on October 9. Congressman O. C. Fisher of San Angelo will be guest speaker and all counties in the district will be given further information in regard to the fall membership roundup, which will be the week of October 23-30. Raymond McElrath, director of District 7, will have charge of the meeting.

Approximately 100 persons enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Jameson, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Abbey and Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Van Dalsem, Jr.

Twenty directors and wives from the county Federation and friends and neighbors of the hosts were pleasantly surprised with a bounteous fish fry supper and all the trimmings, which was served on the lawn terrace of the Jameson home.

The shepherd of this flock has gone away. He's seeking the ONE sheep that has gone astray. America is becoming alarmed over the sheep that is out of the fold. This land was founded upon the right to free worship. But there are so many now who don't worship at all.

Lukewarm church people have allowed the worldly to criticize churches, advertise vice, ostracize preachers, minimize righteousness and practically idolize the ungodly. Many fathers and mothers have grown indifferent about the religious teaching of their children. They SEND them to Sunday school (if they go at all) and are not much interested in whether they attend church. As parents they should lead their children to all portions of the churches' rounded program. Go out after those who have no church home, those who have wandered. Seek out that one which is lost. Be sure to take your youngsters to church school and remain for all services next Sunday . . . Your Pastor expects you.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
 THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

Cardinals To Hold Try-Out Camp October 16-18

Coleman, Oct. 1 — The St. Louis Cardinals will conduct a try-out camp for young ball players at Hufford Field, Coleman, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 16, 17 and 18. This camp, made possible by the splendid cooperation of B. A. Butler and Bob Russ of Coleman, is one of more than 60 such camps held by the Cardinals this summer. It will be open free to all players who believe they have what it takes to embark upon a career in professional baseball.

Tryouts will start at 1 o'clock Thursday and Friday afternoons and will continue throughout the day. Saturday's workout will get under way at 10 a. m. C. A. (Runt) Marr and Fred Hawn, veteran Red Bird scouts, and former minor league players and managers, will be in charge of the camp and put the players through their paces. The aspirants will be put through drills in running, fielding, hitting and throwing, and the pitchers will get a chance to show their wares in camp games played between teams made up of players in attendance.

Every player in camp will have an excellent opportunity to show what he can do at his particular position. Players should bring their own gloves and baseball shoes and uniforms if they have them, as the Cardinals do not supply this type of equipment for their trial camps. All players signed to contracts will be refunded all expenses incident to attending the camp.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"It's Living That Counts"

I stole the title of this column from a magazine article that said a whole lot better than I can what farm and country life can mean.

We talk about farm profits, production, research, and mechanical improvements... but isn't it true, what we really value is the life country living offers us?... the chance to be close to our families and neighbors... children sharing in the chores... working with our own hands at a worthwhile job.

And country pleasures are simple: good talk at day's end, and a glass of mellow beer with friends... the companionship of man and wife, unruffled by distractions of the city... the mutual tolerance of one another's tastes—in choosing a friend, or a glass of beer, or a candidate for Governor.

Mind, I'm all for material improvements. But from where I sit, the real goodness of our country life is that spirit of tolerance, moderation, and good fellowship.

Joe Marsh
