KEPT US AWAKE

Sumner T. Pike, a member of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, was in Texas a few days ago and addressed a defense rally in Austin sponsored by the American Legion.

Without mentioning any names, Mr. Pike told of talking not long ago with a cabinet member of a nation that was our ally in World War II, and this fellow "suggested that another one of our recent allies had made a vast strategic blunder in stirring up unfriendly discussion both in the United Nations and other conferences to the point where we have been kept fully alive to the possibilities of future troubles."

He did not mention Russia, he didn't need to. But for this opposition, we might have "dropped off for a nap and let our military establishment become 'obsolescent.'"

For the same reason, the activity of Henry Wallace and other "friends of Russia" has served to keep most Americans aware of the danger that lurks in complacency.

Russia might have been subtle, instead of telegraphing its punches. It might have toned down its propaganda and curbed instead of redoubling its post-war efforts in that line. It might have restrained itself in Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria, and lulled us with a false sense of security.

But it didn't. It isn't the nature of dictatorships to use moderation in anything. Their methods are ruthless, blatant and bulldozing. They are not geared and organized for the subtle touch; they are trained to use bludgeons where a broomstick might be more effective.

America with one accord turned with revulsion from war and all its horrors. It would have been easy for Russia to have lulled us to sleep. Instead, all its stingers were out, and we were shocked wide awake to reality.

Perhaps we should be duly grateful. If Russia suddenly turns sweet and gracious, look out. You have seen a cat stalk a careless bird, haven't you? — Abilene Reporter News.

Howell E. Cobb Announces For U. S. Congress

Howell E. Cobb

Howell E. Cobb of Brady, former McCulloch county judge and ex-district attorney of the 35th judicial district of Texas, and currently practicing law in Brady, announces his candidacy for Congress from the 21st Congressional District of Texas.

A native of Williamson county, Cobb lived the first year of his life at Ballinger, and as a small boy, resided for four years at Uvalde, where he entered school for the first time. He was graduated from the high school at Goldthwaite, following which he attended the University of Texas for four years, going to Brady in 1934 to engage in the practice of law.

Cobb served as county judge of McCulloch county for four years, from 1937 through 1940, being elected district attorney of the 35th judicial district, comprising McCulloch, Brown and Coleman counties, in 1940. He served in this capacity until May, 1942, when he resigned his office and volunteered for service in the U. S. Army. He saw four years of military service, the last two of the war being in the European Theatre of Operations.

At the present time Cobb is commander of the Allin-Stafford American Legion Post No. 327 of Brady, and is committeeman from the 25th senatorial district on the state democratic executive committee.

In making his announcement for the seat in congress, Cobb declared that our people must come to realize that we are today engaged in a desperate struggle to determine whether our form of government and our American way of life shall perish from the earth, or be supplanted by the ruthless slavery of totalitarian Communist Russia. He said that were he in congress today, he would cry out at the top of his voice against economic appeasement toward Russia because you can't appease a beast.

"We recently concluded the great Second World War to maintain our way of life," Cobb said, "and we must realize that the battle today, which is referred to as the 'cold war', is no less desperate and its termination no less important than was our recent fight with the Germans and the Japanese. With many other American soldiers, I met the Russian army in Austria in 1945, and I know their sole purpose and aim is world conquest and domination. They are now practicing, and have already practiced the same imperialistic methods of dominating the peoples of the world that were preached and practiced by the late Adolf Hitler, except they are doing it on a much larger scale and in a more ruthless manner. Our government is still sending thousands of pieces of transportation equipment, machinery, machine tools and industrial

Results Annual Livestock Show Are Announced

Stanley Cobb showed the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion lambs at the Eighth Annual Santa Anna Livestock Show which was held January 16 at the Wool Warehouse. The Santa Anna National Bank purchased the Grand Champion lamb at $2.00 and M. L. Guthrie purchased the Reserve Champion at $1.05. The Grand Champion calf was shown by Burgess Stewardson and the Reserve Champion calf was shown by James N. Williams. The Grand Champion sold to Piggly Wiggly for 65¢ and the Reserve Champion sold to Santa Anna Hardware Co. for 55¢.

Mr. J. B. Payne, supervisor of Vocational Agriculture for District 4, with headquarters at Stephenville, praised the show very highly and said he had attended the show for the last three years and it was a better show each year. The class of animals now being shown are some of the best raised in this section of the state.

The only drawback to our show is, the weather. Off hand this writer is not able to say further back than three years, but for the past three years the weather has been a big handicap in getting a large number of visitors to attend the show, and yet it seems that regardless of how cold the weather is, all three shows have entertained large crowds with an increasing amount of livestock each year.

Prospects For National Guard Company In Santa Anna Very Good

The members of the American Legion Post have been working very diligently trying to get a National Guard company in Santa Anna. According to members of this Post the prospects now are very good for the company that was here before to be reorganized here.

J. T. Garrett, Ted Walker, Zeb Payne, Ben Vinson and J. W. Fulton went to Austin last week for a conference with Gen. Berry, who is Adjutant General of the National Guard. According to the reports they brought back, the General will send a Field Representative here this week to check housing facilities and the number who might be interested in joining the National Guard. Anyone who might be interested in becoming a member of the National Guard may contact J. T. Garrett, Ted Walker or Ben Vinson.

The Company in prospect for Santa Anna is an Anti-Tank Company of the 142nd Infantry.

material to Russia and her satellites. This has been called economic appeasement. If I were in congress today, I would cry out at the top of my voice against this practice, and would continue to cry out until it ceased. You can't appease a wildcat.

There are many issues confronting the people in this campaign. Cobb asserted, adding that to discuss them all in this announcement would be impossible. However, he stated his position on a few of these issues as follows:

Support of Marshall Plan For the Recovery of Europe

"I well realize that this will be costly and will bring about some hardships on the American people. However, the cost and the hardships will be small indeed compared to what it will be if all of Europe should come under the domination of Red Russia. And this very thing will surely happen unless our assistance is adequate and timely. We can not afford to be too late with too little. If Europe falls to Russia, so will Africa. Then we will be the victim of that great pincer movement which we feared so much during the last war with one pincer in France aimed at our shores and one in Africa aimed at South America. If this should happen, our economic position and living standards would decline, and the burden of maintaining an adequate defense would be almost unmountable. Surely we have learned that it is better and cheaper to keep a dictator confined to his own precinct than to blast him out after he has fastened his grasp upon a country.

Our Military Establishment

Under the United Nations organization, the purpose of security and maintaining world peace, it should favor the maintenance of the present military establishment as far as possible. This should include the establishment of some military bases and fortifications in Alaska and in the strategic islands of the Pacific which we won at so great a cost from Japan. It should include a program of universal military training. I do not mean a program that would conscript our young men into the Army of the United States, but a training program under the supervision of the Army and Navy designed to train our young men in the latest and newest military tactics in order that if they should ever be called to bear arms and protect this country in a future war, they would know more about protecting themselves from the weapons of the enemy and have a better chance of coming home alive and sound of health.

Military Courts

During the war I had a good deal of experience with military courts, and I think they are an important part of the military law. I believe that the military law should be changed to provide for a more complete system of courts for the military. I believe that when an accused is being tried for an offense, also it should be required that an person being tried before a military court should be provided with defense counsel who is well versed in the practice and procedure of such courts.

Income Taxes

"I believe that the payment of taxes on individual incomes should be tied in directly with the cost of living, and the personal exemption to which every person should be entitled should reflect the actual individual cost of living. It is certainly the duty of every man to first earn enough to pay for the bare necessities of life for himself and his family, and it should be his privilege to retain that amount of his earnings each year before paying income taxes to the government. We know that under present conditions a married couple earning $1,000 per year will barely have enough to pay for the necessities of food, shelter and clothing. Yet under the present law, that couple is required to pay the sum of $120 in income taxes. I believe that it is an unnecessary burden and one that no government should require of its people.

The State Tideland Question

"Since the formation of the states into the union of our United States, the title and ownership of the offshore tidewater lands and the land beneath the rivers, lakes and bays have belonged to the respective states. In June of last year, under a decision of the Supreme Court, the Federal Government claimed paramount rights and dominion over these vital natural resources. Fortunately, the final decision is up to Congress. I will support and work for the passage of adequate legislation recognizing and affirming state ownership of these lands and natural resources to the respective states in accordance with our heretofore long recognized rights.

Farm Program

"I favor an adequate farm program with special emphasis on soil and water conservation practices, and extension of the rural electrification system with every farm home in America having electric service available to it.

Foot and Mouth Disease Control

"I think it is imperative that we attack this threat to our economy now, and as far south of the border as conditions will permit. We should take every preventive measure now to halt this disaster and keep it from spreading to our side of the border, and at the same time we should cooperate in every way possible with Mexico in eradicating the disease from their lands. These and many other issues will be discussed at length as this campaign progresses, but in closing this announcement, I want to make this further statement: I may be a little old-fashioned, perhaps a little wedded to the past, but I believe the Constitution of the United States along with its first ten amendments which we call the Bill of Rights, is the greatest document ever penned by the hands of mortal men, and I would yield to no man in my defense of the rights guaranteed us as American citizens under that Constitution. But I do not believe that any man or group of men has the right or should be permitted to use those rights and privileges to the extent and for the purpose of destroying the very instrument which guarantees those rights to them. And this should apply to all subversive elements who seek to overthrow our form of government and as well to the labor bosses and racketeers who have fastened themselves upon our people."

Chester Ray Shields

On Monday night, January 19, Chester Ray Shields met death while working on the Hord's Creek Dam Project at Coleman. Hauling machinery turned over, burying him under a load of gravel. He is supposed to have smothered.

Other workmen say he had started up the embankment and lost control of his jake on the icy ground. It is not known whether he jumped or was thrown from the machine. The workmen found his body 30 feet down on the concrete floor of what will be the lake.

Chester was 20 years old on January 12, and had served between one and two years in the Army.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shields of Santa Anna; four brothers, Robert with the Navy at San Diego, Earl with the Army in Alaska, Leo and Hollis of Santa Anna and four sisters, Mrs. Woodrow Gilbert of Brownwood, Leona, Tyrene and Lonelle of Santa Anna.

Funeral arrangements were in complete charge, Wednesday afternoon.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh From Sheepskin to Sheep There aren't too many college graduates in our town. Good honest thinking, yes... but most folks went from high school into farming. No harm in that! But I admire veterans like Dick Newcomb... who's 23, but going to college under the G.I. Bill of Rights. Intends to be a sheep farmer—but a better-informed, more scientific farmer, with more know-how! And veterans like Dick aren't letting anything interfere. What little relaxation they allow themselves is in the form of needed exercise, or books, or conversation and an occasional glass of beer with friends. Seems as if, just by having their education postponed, they've put a higher value on it... and on things like temperance (that glass of beer, for instance), understanding, and good citizenship. And from where I sit, when Dick gets his sheepskin—he won't have lost much time. He'll be an even better farmer than his Dad. (Exactly what Dad wanted!)

SCRIPTURE: II Corinthians 5:20 to 6:10; Hebrews 11.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Romans 12:9-21.

When We Work With God
Lesson for January 25, 1948

DR. E. STANLEY JONES was in Atlanta on one of his several visits, and some of us were asking him about his notable and unique experience as a missionary in the Orient. "If you had it all to go over, Dr. Jones, would you devote your life to the peoples of faraway Asia, or would you choose to live in America with its abundance of good things?" he was asked. Quick as a flash of lightning he replied: "If I had a thousand lives to give, they would all gladly go to the wistful souls of Asia."

Paul would have been enheartened in the day that he wrote II Corinthians 5:20 to 6:10, and Romans 12:9-21, to have heard someone talk as Dr. Jones talked that afternoon, for in our lesson for Sunday, Paul is summoning every Christian to the highest possible commitment to the will of God as we go forth in the task to beseech all men to be reconciled unto God through Jesus Christ, who hath taken upon himself the iniquity of us all, "that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

Thus we come to see the significance and the meaning of the memory verse for Sunday's lesson, "We are fellow workmen for God," I Corinthians 3:9.

PEOPLE WHO WORK WITH GOD
READ Hebrews' 11th chapter for a picture of some of the noble souls who really worked with God, by faith, as the writer delights to put it.

Abraham, for example, "went out, not knowing whither he went," but when he came to the end of life's day, he was accounted the friend of God. Moses, "choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season, esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, endured as seeing him who is invisible."

HOW WE WORK WITH GOD
READ again that eleventh chapter of Romans to discover how the men and women named there worked with God. Two words will quickly come to light — faith and obedience. They believed God, and they obeyed God. Junior boys and girls will do well to recall some of the heroes of history — men like Washington and Lincoln and Lee — and in every instance you will discover that they, too, believed God and obeyed God. Remember the story of Washington kneeling in prayer in the snow at Valley Forge?

We cannot work with God unless and until we believe and obey him. "Can two walk together except they be agreed?" You cannot please your earthly father unless you believe him and obey him.

GOOD WORKMEN ESSENTIAL
WE COME now to the deeper implications of the lesson, revealed in II Corinthians 5:20 to 6:10. "We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain; but in all things approving ourselves in much patience, in afflictions, in distresses, in watchings, by kindness, by love unfeigned, by the power of God."

Here is the acid test of doing the work of an ambassador of Christ — we must first be fully committed to him before we can persuade others to accept him as Saviour and Lord. We shall not have better homes and better churches until we first have better Christians. We shall not have better business until we first have better business men.

And the only way by which we become good workmen is through the redeeming, transforming grace of the Lord Jesus Christ.

JOY OF WORKING WITH GOD
WHY did Dr. E. Stanley Jones answer so quickly about giving a thousand lives to the benighted, wistful souls of Asia? Because he had discovered the unspeakable joy of working with God in reconciling men unto him. The largest, surest wages in this world is the experience of working for and with God. "What I kept, I lost; what I gave, I have."

Gouldbusk News
(Alene Menges)

Rev. Buckles of Brownwood filled his regular appointment here at the Baptist church Sunday. A very nice attendance was present. Everyone was glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen able to come back to services after their illness.

Mrs. S. H. Spruell is back home after a very nice visit in Abilene with her stepson, Vernon Spruell and family.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Clay Norwood is in the Abilene hospital. She has been very ill.

Do you believe it? It is difficult to believe until you try it. Indeed, I would say that it is beyond all imagination to grasp the meaning of working with God. You have to take Christ at exactly what he meant when he said, "Come and see."

"When we walk with the Lord, in the light of his word, what a glory he sheds on our way!"

Friday, January 23

We have recently purchased the Mollie Nabours Grocery and Market. We have redecorated and painted all equipment and will endeavor to serve our patrons, both old and new, with quick, courteous service and the best quality of merchandise. Our opening day is Friday. We invite and urge all to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Henderson

but is expecting to go home about the middle of this week.

Mr. Wad Mochern is better at this writing. We hope he will soon be able to come home again. Glen Downey will be leaving again this week for the government hospital, where he will have about six months more of treatments.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Henry and Alene were guests in the Frank Allen home Sunday.

The Gouldbusk Singing Club will meet at the George Allen home Tuesday night.

Mrs. William L. Livingston visited Miss Nora Knight and Mrs. Bill Cornellous Friday.

Mrs. A. W. Cry has been in the hospital from a cat bite, which was very serious. She is, however, doing fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Henry and Alene visited in Santa Anna on Saturday.

We hated very much to give up our old bus driver, Mr. Couch, who resigned last week. He was a very faithful bus driver and we all certainly appreciate his efforts. Mr. Howard will continue the same duties. We hope he will be of the same stock as Mr. Couch. Luck to you both in your respective ways of life.

Shield News
(Mrs. J. B. Weathers)

We have had quite a change in the weather. The extremely cold weather that we are now having hurts quite a lot since the past few days have been so warm that we thought spring had arrived.

Miss Vickie Dalton, who was a long time resident of our community, passed away at the Coleman Hospital on Friday. Rev. Evans I. Burleson conducted the funeral services at the Baptist church here Saturday afternoon and burial was here at the Shields cemetery. Our deepest sympathy to the family.

Several boys from our community had entries at the Fat Stock Show at Santa Anna Friday and Coleman Monday and Tuesday. We are proud of these boys for they have worked very hard getting ready for these events.

The bridal shower on Monday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Floyd Shelton, was attended by a large crowd. After the many gifts were opened and displayed, refreshments were served.

Mrs. T. T. Perry of Santa Anna visited her daughter, Mrs. E. S.

Jones on Monday. Mrs. J. B. Weathers visited her mother, Mrs. L. E. Page of Trichham Tuesday.

Those from here who attended band practice in Coleman on Thursday night at the home of Miss Rosa Evelyn Ray were Mr. and Mrs. Wenton Eppler and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Newton, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Weathers, Pauline Lowe, Otis Howard, Annie Belle and Odell Elliott and Grady Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Weathers visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams and Winniford on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Jack Black and Mrs. Cunley of Junction and Mrs. Frank Jackson of Eden attended the shower for Mrs. Shelton on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Shufford of the New Central community spent Thursday with Mrs. Versher and Homer.

Mrs. M. U. Vance is spending a few days with her son, Clyde and family in Coleman.

Edward Dillingham of Los Angeles is visiting his mother, Mrs. John Dillingham.

Emmitt and Dub Lowe, who are working at San Antonio, visited over the week-end with their folks here. Mrs. Lowe's sister, Loraine, came with them.

The band met for practice on Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin West. A large crowd attended.

Oran Lewellen Stationed On Guam

Cpl. Oran Lewellen, 19, is a cost accountant with the 1934th Engineer Aviation Utilities Co. on Guam.

Oran joined the service on October 7, 1944 and was stationed at San Antonio, General Field, Washington and Hamilton Field, California.

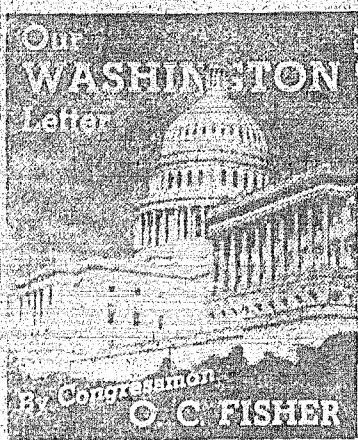

He left the U. S. for overseas duty on July 23, 1947, and will be discharged for re-assignment sometime in July, 1949.

His parents live in Santa Anna.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bland and son, David Roger of Kilgore visited several days last week with his mother Mrs. C. W. Bland and Ernest.

Mr. Rex Golston and daughter, Mrs. Paul James returned home last Friday from a trip to Galveston, Houston and Tyler. Mr. Golston has, seemingly, about recovered from his recent illness.

DON'T SCRATCH! Durham's Paracide Cream is guaranteed to relieve itching, burning, Eczema, Rash, Pimples, Ordinary Itch, and other minor skin troubles... price refunded, large 2-ounce bottle 60c at PHILLIPS DRUG CO.

This is the season of the year in Congress when most of the work is done by committees. Bills are not brought to the floor for action until committee hearings are held and favorable reports are made.

Right now the House Committee on Education and Labor, of which I am a member, is holding additional hearings on Caesar Petrillo, the dictator of the Musicians Union. This stems from Petrillo's refusal to allow members of his union to provide music for television, his restriction of music on FM broadcasts and a number of other recent developments.

Petrillo's power over his union is almost absolute. For example, the article in the union's constitution which defines the powers of the president provides:

It shall be his duty and prerogative to exercise supervision over the affairs of the Federation; to make decisions in cases where in his opinion an emergency exists; and to give effect to such decisions, he is authorized and empowered to promulgate and issue executive orders, which shall be conclusive and binding upon all members and locals; any such order may by its terms enforce the constitution, by laws, standing resolutions or rules of the Federation or to may annul or set aside some or any portion thereof, and substitute therefor other and different provisions of his own making.

The Musicians' dictator gets a salary of $46,000 a year, a huge expense account, an automobile and many other emoluments. He is proud of his power over the music world and he doesn't fail to use that power.

What will eventually happen to record making and transcriptions remains to be seen. On January 1, all contracts between the union and the record manufacturers ended. At this time no new records are being made. There is a backlog that will last a year or so, but as it looks right now, record making as it has been known is a thing of the past. Petrillo refuses under any condition or at any price, to allow one of his professional musicians to make a record. He says that instead of hiring live musicians to play on radios, etc., stations use "canned" music, and this serves to deprive live musicians of work they might otherwise get.

All contracts between Petrillo and the broadcasting companies expire at the end of January. Up to now he has shown no interest in renewing those contracts, but something will likely be worked out.

What is needed is a change in the law to make Petrillo subject to the anti-trust laws. If all the record companies got together and conspired to refrain from making records or to fix the prices, etc., they would be guilty of violating anti-trust laws and would land in jail. But not so with Petrillo, who can write monopolistic decrees that control hundreds of local unions and 230,000 individual members and be guilty of nothing.

The reason for this is that in 1914 when congress passed the Clayton Act against combinations in restraint of trade, labor unions were exempted. When the Taft-Hartley Law first passed the house last year the Clayton Act was amended and industry-wide bargaining was restricted. But the senate struck these two provisions out, and we had to take what we could get.

So while the Taft-Hartley Law is very helpful in protecting the public and wage earners from actions of irresponsible union bosses, it is apparent that even stronger laws are needed to better cope with monopolies such as Petrillo operates.

It looks like another good year for peanut growers. Secretary of Agriculture Anderson announced his decision to forego any quota restrictions on acreage during 1948. This action has been repeatedly urged by me and others in recent months. The support of 90 per cent of parity will be in effect, though it is likely the market price will be that much or more. With present high prices and shortages, we need to encourage, not restrict, production. That is particularly true of food.

Mrs. Don Ewing returned last Friday from Henderson, where she had visited for four weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Moore. While there Mrs. Moore gave a party honoring Mrs. Ewing and Mrs. M. A. Biggerstaff of Dallas, aunt of Mr. Moore. For the occasion the dining table was covered with a crocheted cloth made by Mrs. Ewing from which refreshments were served to 27 ladies. Returning home, Mrs. Ewing visited in Dallas with two granddaughters, Mrs. B. E. Carroll and Mrs. Ed Henigar. There she got to be with all her grandchildren but one and with all five of her great grandchildren.

Mrs. J. J. Kirkpatrick left on Wednesday for a visit of several days with her children, Mrs. Claud Reid and Everett Kirkpatrick and their families.

Merit System To Hold Exams Feb. 28

The Merit System Council, which serves as a clearing house for positions in the Texas Employment Commission and the State Department of Public Welfare, will hold open competitive examinations on February 28 for a number of positions now open in both agencies, according to Chas. S. Gardiner, director of the Merit System Council.

Positions to be filled by the Department of Public Welfare consist of Field Worker, Child Welfare Worker and Senior Child Welfare Worker, Junior Stenographer and Key Punch Operator. Openings existing in the Texas Employment Commission are for Interviewers, Claims Examiners, Technical Draftsmen, Clerk-Typists, Stenographers and Clerks. Qualifications for these positions vary from high school graduation to college work and experience requirements.

Gardiner pointed out that the application to take an examination must be made on an official application blank which may be obtained by writing the Merit System Council, 803 Tribune Building, Austin, Texas, or from the Employment Commission and Department of Public Welfare local office located over the state. The closing date for submission of applications is February 7, and applications postmarked after midnight on the closing date will not be considered," he added.

Gardiner also stated that these examinations present to people the opportunity for permanent employment with the Texas Employment Commission and the State Department of Public Welfare.

State Dept. Of Health Letter

To minimize the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning during winter weather, motorists and commercial drivers are urged by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, to check up on the exhaust systems of their automobiles for defective connections and leaks.

He said that warming up a car in a closed garage is the greatest cause of carbon monoxide deaths. Leaks from manifold connections, cracked manifold, defective mufflers, leaks from loose muffler connections and leaks from hot air heater connections are potential sources for release of carbon monoxide and should be checked.

Pay particular attention to these items and remember that proper carburetor adjustment causes minimum production of carbon monoxide and that the highest proportion of this gas is caused by an idling motor.

The state health officer said that headaches which occur on long drives may be an indication that carbon monoxide is leaking into the car. Sleepiness, dizziness, fatigue and in extreme cases, paralysis are other symptoms of carbon monoxide leaking into the car. Truck drivers making long drives are particularly vulnerable, he said.

Dr. Cox described this as being colorless, odorless and tasteless. When in the air, it gives no sign of its presence and is taken into the blood instead of oxygen. Suffering or collapse result from lack of oxygen.

7 County Students Enrolled At S. T. S. C.

Seven students from Coleman county are among the 1700 now enrolled at Southwest Texas State College in San Marcos.

This is the largest long term enrollment in the history of the school as expected to be exceeded in the coming weeks as students enroll for the next semester. To take care of this increase in the number of students, college authorities have planned a greater college building program. Already one new women's dormitory and a number of smaller structures have been added to the college plant.

Students enrolled from Coleman county are Carl E. Cheaney, Jr. and Nancy L. Cheaney of Goudsburg; Mrs. Irene Crowell of Mt. Tabor; Carter Dibrell of Coleman and Gene Garrett, Ernest Wayne Harris and Hulan Harris of Bickett.

Passengers on train traveled an average of $1.50 per trip in 1942, or a little more than twice the average of 1929.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Sanders, Jr. and their son, Terry Sanders, III, who had been visiting for more than a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Barnes, left Sunday for Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, where he is the vice consul and second secretary in the U. S. embassy. They were to make stops at Memphis and Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Johnnie Gilbert entered the Sealy Hospital Wednesday morning where she remains a patient.

Mrs. H. B. Monroe has about recovered from a several days attack of bronchial trouble.

ALL ABOARD

ALL are travelers. But movement does not necessarily mean progress. There are ways and destinations good and bad. Between these each faces the privilege and necessity of choosing. Be sure that the way selected leads to the destination desired. "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the ends thereof are the ways of death."

FORTUNATELY there is a road which leads to life eternal. Jesus the Christ declared: "I am the way." You may journey in this way if you will. However there is no compulsion. You must travel in that way if you are to reach that destination. "The path of the just is as a dawning light that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."

IN a great Railway Station are trains bound in opposite directions. In life you may move toward the heights or the depths. Time for departure is scheduled, preceding which each must make decision and take action. Many have dabbled until they missed their train. Decision and action should be made promptly.

Whither are you bound? You may choose light, or darkness; honor, or shame; pleasure, or pain; life, or death! Remember it is impossible to travel the wrong road and reach the right end! The Lord's counsel is: "Strive to enter in by the narrow gate!" To those who follow his counsel he says: "Ye shall find rest unto your souls!" ALL ABOARD!

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU
 Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a sterner democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good.

Milk Flow Can Stay Up When Mercury Drops

Cold Weather Rations Will Help To Offset Lack Of Grazing (Editor's Note: This is the 7th article of a series published as a service to livestock producers. Dairy production doesn't have to go down with the temperature. Lush green pastures and mild weather are ideal for dairying, and when the milk-producing feed in pasture are not available, cows cannot continue to produce on the memory of better days. But livestock authorities say "Old Bossy" can be kept producing efficiently during cold weather through proper feeding of protein supplements, roughages, grains, vitamins and minerals.

Dairymen who provide year-round pastures are fortunate and wise. Many dairymen cannot or do not provide green winter grazing, however, and milk production declines rapidly as pastures dry up, unless balanced rations are fed. Protein is very essential to maintain winter milk production because it rebuilds and maintains body tissues, forms an essential part of milk, increases appetite for other feeds, and stimulates milk production. Cottonseed meal contains protein elements dairy cattle need and usually is readily available and relatively cheap in the cotton states. Ample roughage is also especially important to maintain milk production and reduce costs. Dairy cattle can economically use feeds containing much roughage and in proper combination, roughage and protein supplements can save much high cost grain this winter. Silage is especially desirable when cows are not on green pasture. Dry roughage, such as hay, cottonseed hulls or sorghum bundles, should be available to cows at all times. When not on green pasture, dairy cows should receive all of the bright green grass hay they will eat, or two or three pounds of green alfalfa hay, daily per head, to supply vitamin A. The protein content of concentrate mixtures should be balanced according to the roughage fed. Cows not on good green pasture, or fed all of the high quality legume hay they will eat, need a mixture containing about 20 per cent protein. A simple mixture is: 700 pounds of ear corn chops or sorghum head chops, 400 pounds of cottonseed meal, 22 pounds of ground limestone and 11 pounds of salt. When pastures begin to furnish some green grazing, the cottonseed meal may be gradually reduced. When cows are on excellent green pasture, the mixture may be composed of 900 pounds of ear corn chops or sorghum head chops, 200 pounds of cottonseed meal and 11 pounds of salt.

The concentrate mixture should be fed according to milk production of individual cows. Jerseys and Guernseys need 3 pounds for each gallon of milk produced, and other breeds 2 1/2 pounds of the mixture for each gallon of milk.

A practical way to save grain in dairy mixtures is to replace 1-4 to 1-3 of the grain with sweet potato meal or dried citrus pulp.

Other profitable practices include providing dry shelter during severe weather, and abundance of fresh, warm water, regular milking and feeding hours, and elimination of low producing cows from the herd.

New Scientific Chiropractic Clinic

NOW OPEN IN COLEMAN

The neurocalometer is being used by Dr. Rist to analyze the spinal nerves as they emit from the spinal column. This analysis is made to locate the area of major nerve wave interference causing functional trouble.

The case histories listed below are actual cases and serve as example of the scope of Chiropractic.

Paralysis

CASE NO. 1628: A little girl, age 4, had been helpless from the hips down since a bad fall when at age 2 1/2. After this disheartening period in which no improvement availed itself, Chiropractic was given a trial and to the surprise of the parents, she responded remarkably. A year later she played with other children and had no symptoms of any kind.

Headache

CASE NO. 1688: Woman, age 26, had headaches with a tension and soreness in the neck and shoulders. There was so much pain and numbness in the arms that she could not work after trying numerous remedies and losing a year's employment. She gave Chiropractic a trial and was surprised how quickly the discomfort vanished.

Sciatica

CASE NO. 1735: Man, age 43, had pain in right hip and leg, his muscles cramped, his head felt dull and he could not sleep. Under Chiropractic care his trouble cleared up and he was soon feeling fine.

High Blood Pressure

CASE NO. 1781: Woman, age 58, had severe headaches. She also had indigestion and hot flashes with high blood pressure but nothing seemed to give her and relief until Chiropractic adjustments were given a trial.

Dr. Harold G. Rist, Chiropractor, is a graduate of the Palmer School of Chiropractic, Davenport, Iowa, where he studied anatomy and other subjects pertaining to the body and its function in health and sickness and x-ray technic, as well as the science and art of Chiropractic.

The 2500 full class hours taught at Palmer School compare favorably with the 2163 to 2400 class hours required by our State Universities for a B. A. Degree. Thousands of patients use the Free Student, Out Patient Clinic and affords every senior ample opportunity to practice his profession on a wide variety of complaints. In addition, Dr. Rist has had two years of practical experience at Irene, South Dakota at which time he had ample opportunity to practice his profession on a large number of variable cases.

The latest scientific instruments for a complete Chiropractic analysis and the Palmer method of corrective adjustments are used by Dr. Rist. You may consult him with full confidence and assurance that he is well trained in his profession.

H. D. Club Met With Mrs. Perry

Notwithstanding the extremely cold day there was a very good attendance and an interesting program rendered when the Santa Anna Home Demonstration Club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. John Perry.

The subject for the afternoon was "Entertaining in the Home." Roll call was answered by "What I Dislike Most in Entertaining."

Mrs. Perry, our guest, comely representative, gave a fine report of the last meeting of the club.

Mrs. L. W. Campbell, the previous president, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. C. T. Conley, who was unable to be present.

The following program was rendered: "Entertaining in the Home and Hints to the Hostess" was Mrs. Ed Jones' subject.

"Rules for Entertaining and Refreshments" was the subject discussed by Mrs. C. W. Stephenson.

"Guests in the Home" was Mrs. Campbell's topic.

Following the program, the hostess served refreshments of potato chips, fresh pork ham sandwiches, cookies, hot chocolate and coffee.

Those attending besides those mentioned were Mrs. J. F. Goen, Mrs. R. W. D... Mrs. D. Moore, Mrs. Arthur Talley, Mrs. A. L. Oder, Ellen Richards and Carolee Campbell.

Don't Cross Yellow Line On Hi-Way

Austin, Jan. 17 - Officials of the Texas Highway Department Thursday told the story about the bright yellow lines now being seen by motorists every day throughout the vast 27,000 mile system of paved highways.

The new yellow no passing line being put down on our highways is a "double indemnity device," State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer declared.

"It gives a flashy and obvious warning of danger to the motorist who wants to protect his own life and the lives of others," he explained, "and it gives the police something definite on which to jail or punish the driver who apparently cares little for his life and thereby endangers the lives of innocent motorists in the other lane."

Last year, President Truman's Highway Safety Conference urged the states to concentrate on improvement of highway center stripe in a major attempt to reduce the ghastly toll of accidents due to head on collisions and sideswiping.

In all states, the color was changed to yellow, which tests have shown is more visible in all kinds of weather than any other type of marking.

This yellow color is used also to impress the motorist that where yellow is seen on the road it must not be crossed.

Sixty five thousand gallons of yellow paint are being used by the Texas Department's painting crews to mark these no-passing zones. The painting operations have been under way since November and are now moving rapidly toward completion.

Highway Department officials pointed out the statewide yellow striping program for no-passing zones is considered the best way from the engineering point of view for temporarily combating the traffic accident menace on the highway system.

The officials are hopeful the traveling public will soon become yellow line conscious, since crossing the yellow line is not only an invitation for loss of life and limb, but is a violation of Texas law under the new uniform traffic code making violators liable for a maximum fine of $200.

"Do not cross the yellow line," is the new password to safer driving.
