Blood and the Angel

SO JESUS PRAYED. Even in the was covered with sweat; falling to the rocky ground like dippling Blood. Naver rose prayer from a mores fortured heart, And what and 4th Sundays. came of it. In one sense, the prayer was not answered. The cup did not pass, from him, he must drink it to the last bitter dregs. The prayer did not remove the pain. Yet in a deeper sense, the prayer of Christ FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH was fully answered. 'Not as I will, Sunday school, 9:45 a.m. but as Thou wilt,' he breathed. Preaching Services 11:00 a.m. The prayer that sets one's own Training Union, 7:00 p.m. will in line with the will of God, Preaching Service, 8:00 p.m. whatever His will may be, is the Prayer Service, 8:00 p.m. prayer that always finds answer. ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH At the end, there was not release, Sunday. but power. "An angel came and strengthened him."

What Prayer Can Do

FSUS "LEARNED obedience by the things which he suffered." (Heb. 5:8.) We can share his lesson. The hour of pain is not the hour to begin praying; those who have not learned prayer before, will scarcely know how to pray in a time of agony. Yet the time of main is not the time to give up praying... When the dark hour comes, Jesus did not throw aside his faith he prayed more intensely than ever before. Prayer does not explain pain, much less explain it away.

Prayer does not always get rid of pain, even though in many cases the prayer of faith works cures where docfors fall. What true prayer
