City Council Orders Parallel Parking Monday

Contract Given W. M. Morgan For Trash Pick-up

W. M. Morgan has been awarded the contract for the pick-up and disposal of garbage in Santa Anna. Requests are being made for everyone to get garbage cans and place them where they can be seen and easy to get to.

The garbage pick-up and disposal is something to most of the citizens in Santa Anna, and is also new to Mr. Morgan. Naturally there will be a number of mistakes made, and several will have complaints to make. However, with the cooperation that the citizens of Santa Anna usually give, it should not be long before the garbage pick-up and disposal will be working smoothly and our town will be a lot more sanitary than before.

Mr. Morgan request that any complaints be made to him directly, instead of to the city commissioners. In this manner he will be able to get the complaints taken care of in the proper manner, and it will enable him to give better service.

A number of stores in town now have a good supply of garbage cans in stock. It is suggested that each of you get these cans as soon as possible and place them where the garbage collector can see them, and can get to them. It is suggested that you get covered cans for all garbage. A small one is suggested for wet garbage, and a larger one for cans, trash ect. You are requested not to overload the cans to where they will be heavy for the men to handle. It is very important that the cans have a tight cover on them at all times.

We have seen what the city commissioners have in mind in the way of a clean-up campaign. They are in process now of opening the alley ways so that the fogging machine can get through them, and reports indicate that everyone is cooperating with them in getting the alleys opened up. Several truck loads of brush and trash have been hauled off.

This is the first month that the additional assessment has been added to the water bill, and it seems that the dollar a month is going to be put to a very good use. The city is getting a good fogging every few days and there is no doubt as to the good it is doing. The garbage disposal also comes out of the dollar a month assessment. The actual cost of the DDT and other preparations used to fog the town cost about $30.00 for each fogging. This does not include the salary of the operator or the depreciation on the machine.

Tom Mills Injured Wednesday Evening

Mr. Tom Mills was painfully injured about 6:30 Wednesday afternoon when he attempted to pull across the highway in front of an on coming truck. Mills was thrown out of the car in the crash and was carried to the Sealy Hospital, where the doctor said he had possible head injuries and multiply abrasions. The truck driver was uninjured. Lois Dean Chadwick, driver of the truck is from Ozona, and was headed west out of town. The accident occurred on the highway near the hospital.

The investigating officers said charges would be filed against both drivers: Mills for failing to yield right-of-way and Chadwick for speeding.

Both vehicles were badly damaged.

Mrs. L. Gene Hensley returned to her home at San Benito last Friday, after a stay of several weeks in Santa Anna.

Governor Jester Found Dead In Train Berth

GOVERNOR JESTER

Governor Beauford H. Jester was found dead in his train berth at 7:30 a. m. Monday, July 11, at Houston. Mr. Jester was on his way to Galveston for a vacation and check-up after the just ended longest session in history of the Texas Legislature. Peace Justice Tom Maes, in an official inquest verdict, said that death was from natural causes. It is believed he suffered a heart attack.

Governor Jester was serving his second term as governor of the State of Texas, and had served 6 months in that capacity. He was 56 years old at the time of his death. He will be succeeded by 41-year-old Allan Shivers, serving his second term as Lieutenant Governor.

Services were held in Austin on Tuesday, and then after the services his body was flown to Corsicana, where services were held at 11:00 a. m. from the First Methodist Church. Mr. Jester was chairman of the board of Trustees of the Corsicana church.

Rockwood Receives Fogging Tuesday

Tuesday night of this week our neighbors at Rockwood received a fogging of DDT with the new machine purchased here a short while ago.

The city officials of Santa Anna are glad to cooperate with the civic minded leaders of Rockwood in getting their town fogged. Rockwood has always been considered in Santa Anna territory, and anything that Santa Anna can do to help our neighbors, we are glad to do.

The only cost to Rockwood in getting the town fogged was the actual expense, such as the DDT, transportation to and from and the cost of the labor. No rental charge was made for the use of the machine.

Woman's Council Ships Canned Goods

The Woman's Council of the Christian Church met Monday afternoon and packed 8 dozen quarts and other containers of fruit and vegetables, and three dozen garments and household articles, most of which were new. All will be sent to the Juliette Fowler Homes for the Orphans and Aged at Dallas.

COMMING EVENTS

The Santa Anna Home Demonstration Club will meet Friday, July 15, at 2 p. m. They will also give a radio program Saturday morning at 10:15 over K. S. T. A. Coleman.

Mrs. Ollie Pearce Weaver, who had surgery recently in a Dallas Hospital, is convalescing at her home.

Are You Interested In A Paved Street To The Santa Anna Cemetery?

For about the past eight or ten years discussions have been being held concerning the paving of the street to the cemetery. Now it seems that we may be able to make these dreams come true.

The City of Santa Anna is in the process of paving some of the streets in town. Recently they have completed paving one of the most needed streets in town and others are being planned. Work is to start this week on paving Bowie Avenue from the First Methodist Church to the corner, where you turn to go to the cemetery. It is approximately 3300 feet from this corner to the city limit, just past the cemetery, and donations are going to have to be requested to finish paving from the corner to the city limit.

The Santa Anna Lions Club, the Santa Anna Chamber of Commerce, the Santa Anna Cemetery Association and the Santa Anna Garden Club have decided to join efforts to get the money to pave this street. And most of this money is going to have to come from donations.

This writer doubts if there is one citizen in Santa Anna who has not in some manner discussed how we could get the street paved. There is no better time than the present to get it paved. The work is starting this week on putting a curb and gutter along Bowie Avenue. As soon as the curb and gutter is completed, paving will be started. While the men are working on this road, it would be cheaper for them to go ahead and pave on to the city limit, rather than quit at the corner and then sometime later go back and finish paving the remaining part.

We are all interested in our cemetery, and would like to see it made a more beautiful place. The first step, of course, would be to get the road paved. When the road is paved the Santa Anna Garden Club has plans to do some other work in beautifying the cemetery.

Now, within the next few days, we are going to have to have as many donations as possible. There is a number of citizens in town who are ready to open the drive with $100.00 donations, and there may be others who will want to donate more than that. Of course everybody can't donate $100, but most everyone should be able to make some kind of a donation to a cause as worthy as getting the cemetery street paved. The Santa Anna National Bank will have a fund in the name of "Paving for the Cemetery Street", and the donations may be left there, or turned over to W. Ford Barnes, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and they will be added to the fund at the bank. Pledges will also be accepted by Mr. Barnes, and when the paving is started, you will be requested to pay the amount of what you pledge.

As most of you realize, the amount you donate to a cause of this kind, is deductible from your income tax return. The drive for funds will be started in the next few days, and each of you are requested to build up the paving of the cemetery street, rather than make statements that it would be better to do it some other time, or not to do it at all. Let's all get together and put this drive over. It is a very worthy cause, and is well worth the time, effort and money each of you put into it.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Z. May, of Sidney, visited Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Paterson and family. Gary Paterson returned home with his grandparents for a visit of several weeks.

It's Doctor Simmons Now

With greatest of pleasure, we received in the mail Sunday, an announcement from the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, of Fort Worth, Texas, announcing the Commencement exercises Thursday evening, July 15, 1949, and listed among the graduates is, Loved R. Simmons, Doctor of Theology.

Dr. Simmons was pastor of the Baptist church at Whom in this county several years ago, during which time, he was a student in Howard Payne College, Brownwood. The day he graduated from Howard Payne, he and our oldest daughter, Queenie, Clara Gregg were united in marriage. He has labored faithfully and long for several years during such time he has held several pastorates, two in the state of Illinois, and two or more in Texas, and now is pastor of the Evans Avenue Baptist church in Fort Worth, which is a large and a very active one.

Congratulations and best wishes to you Loved, and may the Lord continue to bless you in your chosen field of labor.

Hardy Blue Installed As New Lions President At Ladies Night Program

Lion Hardy Blue, long time merchant of Santa Anna and a member of the Santa Anna Lions Club for 17 years, was installed as Lions Club President for the 1949-1950 term at the Ladies Night program last Thursday night at the high school gym. Lion Blue served the club for 12 years as secretary and has a 10 year perfect attendance record. He has seen the club grow in membership from 16 to 93 members. There are 70 members in the club at present.

The Ladies Night program is an annual affair, and is usually held sometime during the summer months. This year it was decided to have the Ladies Night program and the installation of officers at the same time. About 66 Lions and their ladies were present for the program.

A group from Ballinger furnished entertainment for the group, with a young man from Coleman furnishing a part of the program, by presenting tricks of magic. Cal Adair, president of the Ballinger club, played several piano solos, and Mrs. Jack Nixon Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Wilbur Duke, sang several numbers. Mr. Jack Nixon, Jr., was the principal speaker for the evening and had charge of the installation of officers.

Mr. Nixon has served the District 2-A, Lions International, well, during the time he has been a Lion. He has served as deputy District Governor, served on the cabinet of the District Governor, served as Zone Chairman, and as president of the Ballinger Club. There is some talk now of running him for district Governor.

Other officer installed were: Roy Richardson, 1st Vice-president; Norman Hosch, 2nd Vice-president; Jesse K. Barton, 3rd Vice-president; W. V. Priddy, secretary; Ted McCaughan, treasurer; Aubrey Brewer, Lion Tamer; Bill Griffin, Lion Tail Twister; Emzy Brown, Bill Stiles and Loyd Burris, Directors. Tom Stewardson and R. K. Green are carry-over directors.

New committee members were named at the regular meeting Tuesday.

Defy all fetters though they may be made of gold.

Paving Work To Continue On Cemetery Street

Announcement was made this week that work would begin within the next few days on paving the street from the Methodist Church to the cemetery. The city commission stated that the engineering work on the street has been done by the State Highway Department and that when completed, will meet State requirements. The part of the street just completed, from the corner of Hoshch Grocery to the railroad, was engineered by the State Highway Department also.

The State Highway Department has started work on the paving of the shoulders of the main street this week. According to information received here, the work will be completed in two days or two weeks, unless the men are called off this job for some other work. However, it will be completed in the very near future.

M. Sel and Mrs. O. T. Stacy and little daughter, of San Angelo, visited Sunday with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stephenson, and family, and attended services at the Christian Church.

Harvey began his career with the Radford Grocery Co. at the Coleman branch office in 1933. Later he was transferred to the Cisco office where he remained as a salesman until 1942 when he was named manager of the San Angelo branch. While at a later post he was inducted into the Navy, where he served two years.

Following his discharge from the service, Harvey returned to the company as manager of the Lubbock office.

Harvey is a graduate of Baylor University and a former student of Hardin Simmons University. He and Mrs. Simmons have one son Bobby, age 6.

MRS. R. P. CRUM DIES

Word was received Thursday morning that Mrs. R. P. Crum had died early today. Funeral services will be at 10:00 a. m. Friday at the Hosch Funeral Home.

Mrs. R. Nettleship returned to her home at Richland Springs, Wednesday, after visiting since Saturday with her sister, Mrs. J. F. Goen.

Miss Sandra Shields is visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Max Prater, in Austin.

Announcement was made this week that effective at 6:00 a. m. Monday, July 18, parallel parking will be put into effect in Santa Anna on the main street. This does not include the side streets and other streets. It pertains only to the main street that runs east and west through town.

A letter from the State Highway Department received early this week indicates that some of the provisions granted the City of Santa Anna in September, 1947, have not been complied with, and therefore the privilege of angle parking on the main street has been revoked.

The Uniform Traffic Code Act put into effect September 5, 1947, over the State of Texas. This code stated as a law that every vehicle stopped or parked upon a roadway where the adjacent curb shall be flagged or marked with the right hand wheels of such vehicle parallel to and within eighteen (18) inches of the right hand curb. Under paragraph 6, Section 66 of the code also stated, Local authorities may, by ordinance, permit angle parking on any roadway, except that angle parking shall not be permitted any Federal Aid or State Highway unless the State Highway Engineer has determined that the roadway is of sufficient width to permit angle parking without interference with the free movement of traffic.

Mr. Leo Ellinger, State Highway Engineer for this District, gave the city of Santa Anna permission to angle park on main street as long as no trucks or delivery wagons of any kind were allowed to park on main street. This provision has not been very well enforced lately, and as a result, the privilege of angle parking has been revoked. According to the Highway engineer, only wheel base trucks have been parking at an angle in Santa Anna and they are out far enough in the street to prevent the safe passage of traffic.

This week the street will be marked off for parallel parking. Mayor F. Z. Payne states that all parking on the main thoroughfare will be parallel after 6:00 a. m. Monday.

There will no doubt be a large number of person who will have trouble parking parallel. It has been a long time since parallel parking has been used in Santa Anna, and as best this writer knows, it take a lot of practice to park parallel with any amount of ease.

Lately, there has been a number of vehicles parking on main street that when they go to back away from the curb, they have to back out into the street blind. They have no more idea what is behind them than someone who is not even around. As far as this writer knows, there has not been any serious damage caused from this, but there is always the possibility that serious damage can result from just such a thing.

So, after parallel parking has been enforced her for awhile, no doubt it will be better for all of us.

and the general apathy concerning venereal diseases which followed the termination of the war.

The spread of many completely false ideas about these diseases and their treatment also has led to a feeling of complacency, and the belief that a patient can diagnose his own case, and treat it with self medication. This is a particularly dangerous untruth; only a doctor can treat venereal diseases, and it is the purpose of this educational campaign to fully inform the public of the actual danger of Venereal diseases, and what measures must be taken to control them."

Dr. Cox said that this campaign of the Texas State Health Department of Health will coincide with other similar educational campaigns, which will be conducted by health officials throughout the entire nation.

Texas State Dept. Of Health Letter

Austin, Texas.—A statewide educational campaign for the control of venereal diseases, which will be carried out throughout the summer and possibly into the fall, has been announced by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who states that the public will be reached by means of radio, newspapers, movies, and lectures by health authorities.

"While it is true that great advances have been made recently in the control of these diseases, nevertheless a lack of full information on the part of the public has hindered the complete success of the program," Dr. Cox said.

"There has been a steady decline in the incidence of new cases reported, in infant and adult mortality rates, and in admissions to mental institutions due to syphilis, since 1938 when intensive measures for the control of venereal diseases were initiated. But the decline has not been enough," Dr. Cox added, "and this is partly attributable to the lack of accurate information

FARM FACTS
WORTH KNOWING

1. What is the average weight of fleeces from a range ewe? How many fleeces are packed into each bag of wool at shearing time?

The average weight of fleeces from a single ewe varies between 7 and 10 pounds. Weights also vary between flocks, localities, and seasons, influenced by breeding as well as environmental factors. When packed, fleeces are arranged in symmetrical layers in the sacks and are compressed by tramping. Each bag contains from 27 to 35 fleeces, depending on size.

2. How often should horses be treated for worms and bots, and what is the best method?

Most horses become infested with worms and should be wormed at least once a year. The proper agent to use in worming varies with the type of worm. A veterinarian can determine the kind of worm by a microscopic examination of the manure. For safety, the administration of the expellent should be left in his hands. Colts and developing young horses should be watched very closely for infestation, such as loss of flesh, shaggy coat, and generally run down condition.

3. What is the pressure method of drying off dairy cattle, and can it be used on goats?

The pressure method, which is the standard practice at the Research Farm of the Ralston Purina Company, has been found to be just as successful with goats as with dairy cattle. The doe should be milked out thoroughly. Then, suddenly reduce the milking ration to not more than one pound a day. If the doe is on pasture, put her on dry feed. Do not milk her for 7 days. Her udder, of course, will fill up. This pressure turns the doe's system away from milk-making and dries her up. At the end of 7 days, milk her out again. Dairymen who have adopted this method say that it makes softer udders.

Facts About Fly Control

By Dr. D. H. LeGear

In recent months everyone is in a furor about fly control. DDT was doing a good job against flies and suddenly the government says, "No more DDT on dairy animals." This naturally put everyone in an uproar.

The farmers ask, "What can we use now? Will the DDT we have been using poison our stock or us?" "Is DDT as harmful to beef cattle, horses, mules, swine, etc., as it is to dairy cows? Will our milk supply be outlawed if we use DDT anywhere on the farm?"

Whoa! Back up there. Let's go over the government's statement on DDT again.

"Do not use DDT and similar chemicals on dairy cattle and in milk barns."

Notice that there is no recommendation for use against DDT on other animals or on buildings around the farm other than those used in the production of milk.

The fact is . . . DDT is just as good as it should be used widely and regularly for fly control on farms. The only reason the Pure Food and Drug Administration is opposed to its use on or around dairy animals is that it has the quality of being picked up by the body of the cow and small amounts are being passed out in the milk.

So far, DDT has not been known to cause any health problems in humans. But milk is a food and as such the law says it must not be contaminated by any substance that might possibly be harmful to humans. Therefore DDT should not be used on dairy cows since it can be passed through the milk and it might sometime prove to be a harmful contaminant.

DDT is still "Tops" for use on beef cattle, horses, mules, sheep, swine, barns (other than dairy barns), poultry houses and farm buildings in general. Its residual action and ease of application, coupled with its economy, still make it the insecticide of choice for most of the farm.

Now - "What to do about dairy cattle, milk barns, etc.?" That's easy. Authorities now strongly recommend the old time-tested "daddy of all insecticides" Pyrethrum, with its activity stepped up with Piperonyl Butoxide. This chemical increases the action of Pyrethrum many times, making an insecticide that is more effective, longer lasting and very economical.

Pyrethrins I and II, activated with Piperonyl Butoxide, are readily available to all farmers in a new Fly Spray especially recommended for use on milk cows and in dairy barns. This product kills and protects against stable flies, horn flies, horse flies, deer flies, mosquitoes and gnats and will in no way be a milk contaminant. So it is now easy for farmers and dairymen to use a safe fly killer without any fear of contamination or any change of a reduction in their milk check.

Bill McDavid and Wayne Brien were home from Irvine, visiting with the home folks over the week-end.

Local Methodist Church News

All services the second Sunday were well attended. At the evening hour a beautiful and impressive installation service of our church officials was held. Following the prayer of consecration the pastor delivered a message of admonition not only worthy for officials but for all Christians.

The W. S. C. S. met for a business session in the church parlor Monday afternoon. The devotions were directed by Mrs. Blake. In the absence of the president, Mrs. T. M. Hays, Mrs. Golston presided. Reports from the different officers were most commendable.

The second Wednesday in each month is time to be used by the stewards in planning work for the advance of our program along all lines. Not all who have the work of the church at heart are on the official roll but certainly all those who are officials, since they are specially chosen, do sense their obligation for the cause of Christ. As church representatives they are behooved to set worthy examples.

A number of our intermediates are making plans to attend camp at Glen Lake the first of August. Others are to attend later.

Come where a friendly welcome awaits you.

Why Church Music?

Lesson for July 17, 1949

Why church music? Many people are asking this question. There are a lot of people who are asking this question. Why church music? Many people are asking this question. There are a lot of people who are asking this question.

Liturgy SINGING in church was not in vogue until the Psalms, as in our country the Psalms were usually written and intended for use in public worship.

Our familiar "Holy, Holy, Holy" was written for use in an early morning service. "Bread of the world" was written as a Communion hymn.

"Day is bright in the West" is best used in an outdoor service. "Thy Palace" was written one Sunday afternoon in North Carolina for use in an evangelistic meeting.

Songs of the Temple THREE liturgical Psalms are our lesson selection. Use your imagination when you read them. As you read Psalm 24, think of a great procession marching through the streets of Jerusalem on a holy day and approaching the tall temple standing on the city's highest hill.

The little kings (in Israel and over the world) have come and gone; only the Lord of Hosts is the King of Glory. Singing the glory of God brings it before the mind far better than reading about it in a book!

Then the 84th Psalm is taken from what they called the "Chief Musician's Collection," evidently a part of what we now would call the choir library. It is the song of a man who loves the church and loves the people whom he finds there.

The Best is Not Too Good IF in ancient times when God's people were learning to sing, the noblest poems of inspired men were set to the best music available and used for the honor of God and the help of man, then surely Christians ought to do no less.

If you had a friend coming to see you, one whom you respect and wish to honor, you certainly would not set the table with all the chipped-up old kitchen china and you wouldn't put wilted flowers on the table and you certainly wouldn't keep the radio tuned to the tin-pianest trash you could find on the dial.

No, if you have anything for him you want it to be of the very best. Why not so with God? The house of God is no place for cheap, bad music, jingly meaningless rhymes instead of noble hymns and psalms, tiresome grind-organ tunes or jazzy swing stuff instead of music that has real power and beauty. If nonsense is bad in a sermon, it is worse in a prayer and worst of all in a hymn. If mere noise is bad in a sermon, it is worse in a prayer and unbearably bad in a hymn.

A Weekend in Texas

A respite from the legislative grind came last week with the house recessing from Thursday, June 30, over to Tuesday, July 5. That gave some of us a chance to get away from Washington for the week-end. For myself, I headed for Texas and was able to visit briefly in the district for the first time this year.

At Kerrville a massive holiday rodeo was in progress. With the stands packed to overflowing on Saturday night, I enjoyed about as good a rodeo as you will see anywhere in the country. There was never a dull moment and the weather was ideal. It was that afternoon that scores of visiting doctors had come to Kerrville to inspect the new Sid Peterson Memorial Hospital— one of the finest in the whole country. My hosts at the rodeo that evening were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Meredith, Mrs. Estelle M. Gregg, the new Superintendent of Nurses went along to see her very first rodeo performance. She had just arrived in Texas to take over her new duties. After viewing the daredevil performances and watching an ambulance take away the only cowboy casualty of the evening with a broken arm, away she remarked: "Now I understand why you have such a great need of Hospitals in this part of the country!"

Then, on the following afternoon, the 56-bed ultra-modern hospital was formerly dedicated with 2,000 Hill Country citizens in attendance. It was indeed a memorable occasion. The ceremony was presided over by Hon. W. A. Fawcett, Mr. Edd Martin, the Administrator of the hospital, introduced the medical staff and Mr. Fawcett presented Mrs. Sid Peterson, widow of the late Sid Peterson, Hal and Charlie Peterson, Joe Sid Peterson and their families, and also the Board of Trustees and the Advisory Board of the new memorial Hospital.

The principal address was given by Dr. Sam E. Thompson who in his usual inimitable manner, paid high tribute to the late Sid Peterson and to the sons who choose a million-dollar memorial hospital as a means of perpetuating the name and memory of their distinguished father.

At the invitation of Bill Petmecky and the Chamber of Commerce then on Sunday evening I was in Fredericksburg for the race meet and the Peach Festival, and had the pleasant honor of crowning the Peach Queen the beautiful and charming Miss Anna Marie Lindig. The peach industry has come a long way in Gillespie and surrounding counties and promises to be a vital factor in the economy of that area in the future.

The problem of marketing a perishable crop has always been a tough one with individual producers. An individual grower is at the mercy of vagaries of seasonal markets. But that problem is to be a considerable extent solved by the facilities of the Hill Country Cooperative, a non-profit sharing co-operation to which practically all growers belong. Without that cooperative arrangement, the industry would be in constant difficulties.

Texas would do well to insist upon Texas-grown peaches and should exert themselves to support and encourage the growing of this type of fruit. In that area can be found a variety of types: the Elberta, Raie, Frank, Mayflower, Red Bird, Macine Ross, Early Wheeler, Comal China, the Golden Jubilee, New Elberta, Hale Haven and others. They are tree ripened and through the Co-op can be put on the tables of most Texas homes within 24 hrs. after they are picked. Let us all insist on Texas-grown peaches when we buy!

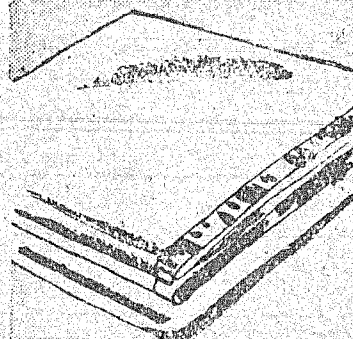

After spending Sunday night with the Walter McKays at Fredericksburg, the morning of July 4, we drove up to Brady for the annual Brady Jubilee and race meet. I had the privilege of addressing a very fine audience at Richards Park that morning and along with my wife and daughter enjoyed the race track meet that afternoon at Brady's fine race track. There, we were guests of Mayor and Mrs. Earl Rudder and the Aubrey Daves. After spending the day in Brady I returned to Washington that night.

It was certainly fine to be home for the week-end and to see and visit with so many friends there. The country looks wonderful after all the million dollar rains with which that area has been blessed this spring. My regret was that time would not permit me to spend more time in the district. Because of the pressure of legislative business in Congress, and at the suggestion of the leadership of the House, I was forced to cancel engagements at the annual REA meeting at Junction, the Soil Conservation Field Day at Ballinger, and the Pecan Growers Convention at San Saba. The last few weeks of a session are always filled with important votes.

Scientists Find Way to Make Extra Small Particles

Scientists working on the new Humble Esso Extra Motor Oil discovered that the addition of a special dispersive made it possible to break up the soot, sludge, varnish and dirt that the new product cleans from automobile engines, into particles as small as 38/1,000,000 of an inch in size. This, they say, is many times smaller than the smallest clearance in an automobile engine, so that the materials cleaned out of the engine by the new Esso Extra Motor Oil cannot damage moving parts. Humble station salesmen are urging customers to drain dirty, diluted oil and refill with new Esso Extra Motor Oil for extra protection. Adv.
