I'm just a little shaver and of course folks don't pay much attention to me but, Mister. I'm just like all kids. I like baseball once when our team scored I got so excited I swallowed my chewing gum.

_I `like marbles — gosh you Stumpy understands.

I'll bet my daddy is the best go way up in the mountains to fish. Soon as we got things unpacked we'd stick trout flies all over his hat and Mother would say, "Jim, don't you ever dare make fun of my hats." Then he'd put his hat on all crooked and say "Come on Jimmy, this is no place for a couple of he-men. Let's go fishing." He would grab I'd almost split my pants trying i to take long steps like Daddy. When we'd get to a good look-

I'm going to leave old granddaddy right here for you to catch when you get big enough to wear my waders."

I wish you could see my daddy shoot birds, Mister. I'll bet he's the best dog-gone shooter in the shoot. He used to call me Jimmy Retriever because when he'd shoot a bird in a grain field I'd get it for him. Sometimes I'd

It seems that the county government has operated fairly smoothly the past year, but there has been considerable strife in the State and National political offices. There has been so much friction going on in the National picture the past few years that a number of changes are expected to be made this year. We urge all who can qualify to vote in the elections this year to pay your poll taxes in order that you might voice your opinions when the elections are held.

It seems that a large number of qualified voters do not even take the trouble to go to the polls at election time to express their opinions. Then they complain about the way the government is being operated. Every American Citizen has the opportunity of expressing his views on how our country is to be operated. SCRIPTURE: John 1:18-51. DEVOTIONAL READING: Isalah 55:

How to Find Christ

Lesson for January 6, 1952

NOT every one finds Christ in just the same way. This was true at the beginning and it is still true. A very interesting recent book by David W. Soper. (Westminster Press, Philadelphia, $2.50.) It contains the stories of a dozen modern persons who have become Christians. No twoof them have the same story to tell, yet there is something in common among all of them. Each of them in gome way has "found" Christ. It is a mistake to think that all Christians must be east in the same mold, or that each of us must plant his feet exactly in the footprints (for example) of St.

Sensational Conversions

T the beginning of John's gos-pel we find the story of one person after another who followed Christ, There is only one of these who believed in Jesus on the basis of what could be called a "superhatural" experience. This was John the Baptist. He testified that he had "seen the Spirit" (that is, God's Spirit) coming upon Jesus.

Now you cannot "see" the Spirit in the same way you can see a fence-post. Even if you take the story in the most literal way, and take it to mean that the Spirit had taken the visible form of a dove, the question still is there: How would John know that this particular dove was not a dove, but the Holy Spirit?

Whatever you make of it, John was an exception. All the ethers in the story became followers of Jesus through some ono's word, suggestion, invitation; some one introduced them to Christ. That still is true.

Very few people who are Christians today started out with some vision in the sky, some vision of a dove or an angel or of Christ himself (like Paul, later on).

Simpler Cases

TUST as likely, it was not spectacular at all. (Most of the conversions recorded in the New Testament were not in the least spec-ing, it might be reading that book perfore the meeting. about how some in our time have. "found the way",-or it might even be reading this column.

However it comes about, two things are always true. First, some one introduces you to Jesus. Then, you make the deeision for yourself. You are not likely to come to Christ unless some one else suggests it and helps you; but no other person however good, and no church, however great and true, can do for you what you alone can do for yourself: make up your own mind to say "Yes" to Jesus Christ.

Nowadays much is said about "Fellowship Evangelism". There is nothing mysterious about it. For instance, a man who has never thought about becoming a Christian and perhaps no intention of being one, joins (say) a men's club at some church . . . and one thing leads to another, and he gets acquainted in this way with the minlater or with some one else who has had a real and happy experience with Christ . . . and presently his heart is stirred and he too becomes c Christian—because he has made Christian friends.

Soying a Good Word

PUT it is a strange thing: many people will talk about anything e they believe in, before they will thic about Jesus Christ.

Suppose that from the begin-alog overy one had been as close-mouthed about film is most church members are? Siso Felds, for one, would never two presents a Christian. If his in not upon for his breifles An-are, who shows what would have become of Elmon Peter? In commercial lingo, Jesus "sells" himself. First-rate things, ideas or persons always sell themselves. But even the finest articles in the world need to have their story told, they have to be introduced, people have to know about them. Every church, every Christian, ought to be (in the best sense) advertising Christ. Is yours? Are you?
