Thoughts

OF A COUNTRY EDITOR

BY JOHN C. GREGG

DON'T GRIPE

The Precinct Conventions of both the Democratic and Republican Parties were held last Saturday. Apparently, from the number who attended there here, no one cares much about what is done or who is our nation's leader for the next four years. Very small representation was noted at either convention.

As far as the average citizen is concerned, that was his only chance to have any voice in who is to be elected in November at the General Election. And what was done at the Precinct Conventions will not have too much to do with who will be elected.

The Precinct Conventions tell delegates to the County Convention what to do; the County Conventions tell delegates to the State Conventions what to do; and the State Conventions tell delegates to the National Convention what to do. Texas is allowed 52 votes in the National Democratic Convention, and 38 Republican votes in their National Convention. The state has 24 Electoral votes.

Each party, at their National Convention, nominates a man to be their party candidate for President and Vice President. These names appear on the ballot at the General Election in November and there the voter votes for the ones of his choice. Then in each state, the party nominee who gets the most votes in the state receives the entire number of Electoral votes the state is allowed, thus making it possible for a man to be elected as President without receiving the greatest number of votes. This has happened in at least one case. However, it does not give the voting public a real opportunity to vote for the man they want.

National Conventions are peculiar, in that vote trading and big promises are going on all the time. This is where you hear the well-known phrase, "Candidates are selected in smoke-filled rooms" for both parties and the general public is not given the opportunity to express themselves. This writer is very firmly in favor of giving the citizens of the United States a better opportunity of voting and electing to the President and Vice President offices, persons who will better represent the actual voter.

At the National Conventions, the Democrats will have a total of 1,230 votes and the Republicans will have 1,205 votes. There are 531 electoral votes in the United States and Possessions. When a man receives a majority of the delegate votes at the National Conventions, that man is the party choice, or at least that is the way it is supposed to be. But, that man may have been out doing a little work on the side, such as promising leaders of delegations that he will do "so and so" for him or show him some political favor if he will see that his state votes are cast for him.

The most prominent men mentioned in the Republican Party are General Eisenhower and Robert A. Taft. Most likely one of these men will be picked as the Republican nominee. In the Democrat Party, there is still a lot of wrangling going on, and at the present time Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee is leading with the most delegates promised him at the National Convention. However, Senator Russell of Georgia and two or three others are still considered in the contest. The factions of the Democratic Party are so divided that it is doubtful that much guess could be made as to who their party nominee will be. There is likely to be a lot of squabbling in the Texas State Democratic Convention and also

Hosts To Grass Judging Contest May 8th

MR. AND MRS. LESTER NEWMAN, pictured above, will be hosts to an educational grass judging contest on their farm 6 miles northeast of Santa Anna Thursday, May 8, beginning at 2:00 p. m. All FFA and 4-H Club members of the county will participate in the contest and adults are invited to participate. No actual awards will be made. ## Delegates Named To County Conventions Sat.

Democratic and Republican Precinct Conventions held last Saturday, named delegates to the County Conventions to be held Tuesday in Coleman. Four conventions were held in Santa Anna, two democratic and two republican.

The Republican conventions both were instructed for Robert A. Taft at the county level. Jim Robin was selected to represent the South Ward and Mrs. C. D. Bruce was selected to represent the North Ward. The conventions were held in the Jim Robin home and the B. A. Parker home. The Democrats were divided in their opinions. The North Ward voted to send an uninstructed delegation to the county convention and they also pledged to vote as a unit. No loyalty pledge was considered in the North Ward. Delegates selected to the county convention were Ford Barnes, Rex Golston and E. S. McClellan.

In the South Ward, four delegates were selected and instructed to vote for the party nominee. The loyalty pledge was also signed, but the delegates were not instructed to vote as a unit at the county convention. Delegates selected from the South Ward were Roy Stockard, M. L. Guthrie, Sr., J. B. Howington and Homer Burden.

Reports from over the state indicate that the large majority of Republican conventions instructed their delegates to vote for General Dwight Eisenhower at the county conventions.

So far as the Democrats are concerned, an overwhelming majority took the same stand the Santa Anna North Ward did and named uninstructed delegations to the county convention. However, the group called Loyal Democrats bolted their precinct conventions, held their own and named their own delegates to county conventions. It is expected the same things will happen at the county and state conventions. Who will be recognized at the National convention is the big question at the present time.

Mrs. E. C. Gay and Mrs. Kittle Walker attended the annual meeting of the West Texas Historical Society, which took place in Coleman last Saturday. Among other interesting program features, Col. Crimmins of San Antonio spoke on Camp Colorado, and James Padgett of Coleman, discussed Coleman Co. history.

Mrs. C. W. Raspberry returned home last Friday from a three weeks visit with relatives, a daughter in Odessa, and a sister in San Angelo.

City Storage Tanks Cleaned

Dick Bass, City Manager, reports this week that both the city water storage tanks have been cleaned and plans are in the making for all the city main water lines to be cleaned also.

Mr. Bass said the cleaning of the storage tanks was the cause of our water being so dirty looking for a few days.

Plans for cleaning the city water mains are working along with plans for the new filtration plant. Bass thinks it possible to get the water mains cleaned for about $6,000 or less on contract basis. When and if the city gets a reasonable bid on the construction of the proposed filtration plant, consideration will be given the cleaning of the lines. It is planned to have all mains 2-inches and larger cleaned. When these two projects are completed, we should have good, pure and clean water for an indefinite period.

The Hosch family received a phone call Tuesday from their sister, Mrs. V. F. Carpenter, in San Antonio, that her husband had been found dead in bed, in his hotel room in New York City. Funeral arrangements were incomplete as we went to press, but the body will be brought to Santa Anna, and services held here. Mr. Carpenter had been connected with the Associated Press for about 30 years and had been attending a school of instruction for several weeks in New York along lines of his work. ## Walter K. Boyd Makes Statement

WALTER K. BOYD

TO THE PEOPLE OF COLEMAN COUNTY, TEXAS:

Since my announcement for County Judge some few months ago, I have been encouraged by the response and support given me; however, I know that in this short time there are many people I have not been able to see, and I wish to take this opportunity to state my qualifications and convictions.

I was born in Mexia, Limestone County, Texas, and lived there all my life until coming here, except the three years served in the Air Force as navigator in the States, overseas and as a German prisoner of war. I am a graduate of the Baylor University Law School and licensed to practice law in the State of Texas. It has been my privilege to be in the general practice of the law in Coleman County, Texas, since October 13, 1949. On February 13th, 1950, I was appointed Special County Judge of Coleman County and served in that capacity about five months from which experience I learned the duties and demands of the office, and I believe an understanding of what type of County Government the people of this County want.

I have built my home in Coleman County, started my law practice here and intend to live with my family for the rest of my life in Coleman County. With this in mind, it is my intention, if elected, to serve and do my duties in such a manner, as to have the friendship and the respect of the people of this County when my time is up.

It is my belief that a public official is a public servant and exists only to serve those under whose jurisdiction he might be. As such, it is his duty to carry on the business and duties of the office economically, openly, honestly and with the devotion of his time and loyalty. These things I will do to the best of my ability for the best interest of Coleman County and all the people who live here.

It is my intention to see, talk and shake hands with everyone possible in Coleman County. If for any reason I have not visited with you, please call, drop a card or come by my office in the First Coleman National Bank Building, and we will talk, for only through talk and exchange of ideas can any part of our government be successful.

Any support, influence and help that you might give to my campaign for County Judge of Coleman County, Texas, will be appreciated.

H. D. Club Honors
Mothers At Meeting

The Santa Anna Home Demonstration Club which annually previous to Mother's Day, has a meeting and program honoring mothers, had the meeting on Friday, May 2nd in the home of Mrs. Doug Moore, with Mrs. W. A. Standley assistant hostess.

During the short business session, it was voted to make a donation to the Red Cross, and there was favorable discussion concerning a contribution for pipng water to the cemetery. This will be taken up later. It was voted to have a family night party, in the latter part of May.

Ellen Richards was in charge of the program. The group sang Sweetest Mother.

Bible Mothers were brought to memory in a quiz by Mrs. W. E. Vanderford, and in discussions by Mrs. Clifford Stephenson and Mrs. Oder.

Mother and Daddy Live There, Mansion Over the Hilltop, and Mothers In Glory, were sung by Mrs. Arthur Talley, Mrs. J. W. Williams and Mrs. Sam Rutherford, with the latter playing the accompaniments.

Mrs. W. A. Standley, permanent Club Mother, was presented a China tea service by the club.

During the social period that followed the program, lovely refreshments of chocolate angel cake, punch and nuts were served.

The house throughout was colorful with arrangements of spring flowers in wide variety, many of them such as our mothers used to grow. It was appropriate that there was a profusion of flowers as Friday marked the 21st wedding anniversary of the Moores.

Thirteen members were present and seven visitors, Mrs. Roy Stockard, Mrs. George Richardson, Mrs. Annie Taylor, Mrs. Walter Sharp, Mrs. Sam Moore, Mrs. J. W. Williamson, and Mrs. Ernest Roberts from Brown Ranch.

Summer Brings
Need For Better Sanitation

With the approach of warm summer days, emphasis on home sanitation becomes increasingly important, stated Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

At this season of the year our State Health Department puts special emphasis on a clean-up designed primarily for the twofold purpose of elimination of flies and rats. These two health hazards can be controlled only through sanitary practices. Places where they feed and breed and rest must be destroyed.

The common house fly has demonstrated that it can spread more than 20 human diseases. Some of the more serious are typhoid fever, diarrhea and dysentery. They have also been implicated in the spread of polio.

Rats and mice have been accused in the spreading of 20 to 30 diseases.

"It is plain to see," says Dr. Cox, "that your health and that of your family and community depends in a good measure upon your maintenance of clean, fly and rat free premises."

Spraying to kill flies and poisoning of rats are valuable supplements to the sanitation program, but will not do the elimination job by themselves.

Sanitation is largely a personal matter. It is the way of life expressed in clean healthful surroundings.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goodglon had their three little granddaughters, Donita, Linda and Brenda Shaw visiting with them last week. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw (the former Doris Goodglon) came for the girls on Friday and all returned to their home in Dallas, Saturday

U. D. C. Has Tuesday Luncheon Program

On Tuesday, May 6th, the Sam Davis Chapter of the U. D. C. had a luncheon at the Library building. The menu consisted of fried chicken, gravy, lima beans, English peas, congealed salad, iced tea, chiffon cake, orange sherbet, etc. The meal was served on a linen cloth, centered with an arrangement of nasturtiums, sweet peas, and pansies.

An informal meeting was held at the table following the meal. In all these meetings, former faithful members, Mrs. Henry Campbell, Mrs. Ollie Weaver, Miss Louella Chambers, and others, who have passed on are missed.

The Confederate Veterans held their last reunion last year, with only one or two of the old soldiers being able to attend, but their daughters and granddaughters continue to meet in memory of the "Lost Cause."

Those attending the meeting were: Mrs. J. R. Banister, Mrs. C. D. Bruce, Mrs. R. C. Gay, Mrs. Kathryn Walker, Mrs. A. L. Oder and Miss Dora Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. Banister brought the first register of the organization, which tells of the Chapter being organized on September 9, 1903, with Col. Will Hubert and several women from Coleman coming to lead in the organizing. The Chapter had 37 charter members, a majority of whom have passed on, or moved elsewhere.

The Santa Anna Self Culture Club was also organized in 1903, and through the years, many Santa Anna women have belonged to both organizations.

1953 will find these organizations observing their Golden Anniversaries.

Garden Club Met With Mrs. A. Casey

"March winds and April showers bring Spring flowers", was well in evidence when the Mountain City Garden Club met Saturday, May 3, in the country home of Mrs. Arthur Casey.

Neither drought nor greedy insects could daunt the "Green Thumb" brigade, who armed with spray insecticides on one hand and a flowing water hose on the other, gayly marches in their gardens at early dawn.

Proud results was a Flower Show for each and a paradise for the Cardinal and Mocking Bird.

Twenty-six members attended the meeting and sat entranced by the gorgeous arrangements of iris, roses and many other spring flowers.

Mrs. Kathrine Walker gave an instructive discourse on "Our Common Garden Flowers"; Mrs. Hardy Blue talked on "Planning for the Passers-by"; and Mrs. Charles Moseley told "How to Grow and Make Corsages". She demonstrated her lesson by decorating each member present with a sample of her skill.

Refreshments of punch, cookies and mints were served by the hostess, to the departing visitors, who toured her garden on their way out.

Mrs. M. T. Cornelius of Abilene spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Nanie Miller.

Home Dem. Club Is Organized At Liberty Thursday

Marlalyce Smith, H. D. Agent, helped to organize the Liberty Home Demonstration Club, Thursday afternoon, May 1st at the new Liberty Community Building.

Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. W. H. Pittard, President; Mrs. M. W. Powers, Vice President; Mrs. Virgil Lancaster, Secretary; and Mrs. Lester McClellan, Council Delegate. The hostess, Mrs. Pittard served refreshments to Mesdames: John Howard, M. W. Powers, McDonald, Howard Norris, Lester McClellan, Eaf Day, Vernon Penny, Leonard Davis, Virgil Lancaster, J. D. Howard, Jr., Howard Moren, Lee Smith, Regan, John Perry, and Miss Smith and two children.

The next meeting was called for Tuesday, May 13th, at 2:00 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Lester McClellan when Mrs. John Perry will give a demonstration on Master Mix.

Mrs. J. Tom Newman was brought home from Brownwood at the week end where she had been a hospital patient since early last week, when she suffered a fall at her home. She is getting along very well, but is still not walking.

Parsons Family Has Reunion

The F. A. Parsons family met for a family reunion Sunday, May 4th, at the Riverside Park, in Brownwood.

All were present except one step-son, Emmet Williamson of Beaumont.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Nevy Parsons, Barbara, and Mrs. H. N. Wells, Coleman R. I; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Norrell Parsons, Walter, Norelene and Waverly; Mr. and Mrs. Newell Parsons and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Goodgion and Roy, and Muriel Parsons, all of Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Parsons and Larry, San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Nonis Parsons and Norica of Bridgeport; Mr. and Mrs. Walton Parsons, Billy, Betty and Clinton, Big Lake; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Wright, Darrell, Clara Lou and Lynn, all of Santa Anna. Dinner was served picnic style and there were plenty of cold drinks and ice cream.

Plans were discussed to make the reunion an annual affair.

G. W. Faulkners To Observe Golden Wedding Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Faulkner will be honored with an open house given by their children at their home in Dallas on Sunday afternoon May 11th. The affair is given in recognition of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. They were married on May 7th, 1902, and before moving to Dallas some years ago, had spent most of their lives in Santa Anna.

They were charter members of the First Christian Church and active in all affairs, and participated in things civic, social and cultural.

From about 1910 to 1920 Mr. Faulkner was publisher and edi-

Whose Sunday?

Lesson for May 11, 1952

A newspaper column is entitled "My Day," not such a conceited title as you might think at first glance. Whose day is this, anyway? Yours, of course. What? you ask in surprise. My day? I have to work from morning to night in the house or on the farm or in the schoolroom or in the office or on the road somewhere. My day, indeed! I'd like to get ten minutes of it for myself if I could.

Dr. Foreman

Now wait a minute. Suppose you do have only ten minutes' worth. What do you do with your own personal uninterrupted part of the day? But that's not the whole story, not the whole question. The day is more yours than you think. For you can bring, and you do bring, to every day you live, a certain mood, an intention, a spirit. The same scene in sunlight and under heavy clouds is quite different. The same person in sickness and in health is not one but two people.

How Will You Feel on Monday? THERE is one day of the week which, as Christians believe, is God's special gift to man. It is for everybody's benefit.

Let us suppose there is a town where everybody works, one way or another, for one man, spending most of their time making one man rich. Six days a week, that is; then comes Sunday and nobody works. This is everybody's day, not the boss's day.

Such a town would be a little hard to find; but even there everybody does have one day.

Jesus said, "The Sabbath is made for man. Not for preachers, not for a favored few, not even for Jews and Christians only; but for man. The Jewish Sabbath of which Jesus spoke has its successor in the Christian Sunday. It is quite true that Christians appreciate the day more than atheists; but God made Sunday for man just as he sends rain and sunshine on one and all.

Our forefathers sometimes got hold of Sunday by the wrong handle, just as the Pharisees did in their time, with the Sabbath. They talked a good deal about not "breaking" the Sabbath as if it were a very fragile something to be kept under glass and never touched.

No, Jesus meant that the day is to be used; and the purpose of it is to keep man from being broken.

But that is still not all of it. This blessed day is not simply a day which we rise back, so to speak, to our normal level after the weariness of the week has dragged us down. It should be, and it can be when wisely used, a day on which we can grow, mentally, socially, spiritually.

Do you need a rule or guide on how best to spend your Sundays? Then ask yourself this question: How do I feel Monday mornings? I should be a better person Monday morning than I was on Saturday night. The best way to spend Sunday is to spend it in such a way that I shall begin next week a little better than I began last.

The Lord's Day WHOSE day is it? Jesus said "Something else about it: The Son of Man (by this he always meant himself) is Lord of the Sabbath. So the Christian church has called it the Lord's Day ever since.

Now this particular Sunday in May happens to be "Mother's Day" in the United States, and every one can understand that there are good ways and poor ways to celebrate Mother's Day. You write your mother or visit her, or if she is gone from this earth you think about her, you spend the day doing the kind of things that she would enjoy doing with you.

So on the Lord's Day you celebrate in Christ's honor.

The Day of God WE must also remember that this is God's Day, the "Sabbath of the Lord thy God." It is his because he gave it; his because it is dedicated to him.

It is for man, yet; but man is never fully man so long as he leaves God out. Man without God is a ship without water, a bird without air, an earth without the sun. Man needs God; and Sunday is the golden day for finding him.

This is the day when we have the most time for reading and hearing and thinking about God's Word; a day when we have greater freedom to do something in his service; a day when the loneliest soul may find the heavenly Friend.

LAWYER'S DUTY TO PERSONS ACCUSED OF CRIME EXPLAINED

People often misunderstand the reason a lawyer puts up the fight he does for a client who is accused of a crime. "It might be all right," they say, "if the man were innocent, but why put out so much effort defending him when everyone knows he is guilty."

The obvious answer is that not everyone knows all the material facts. The accused is not a criminal in any legal sense until, by due process of law and under rules of evidence insuring equal justice, the court and jury arrive at the conclusion that he has committed a crime.

The Canons of Ethics governing the lawyers of Texas say: "It is the right of a member (of the State Bar of Texas) to undertake the defense of a person accused of crime, regardless of his personal opinion as to the guilt of the accused; having undertaken such defense, the member is bound by all fair and honorable means, to present every defense that the law of the land permits, to the end that no person may be deprived of life or liberty but by due process of law."

If this were not the case, innocent persons, victims only of suspicious circumstances, might be denied proper defense. Such

SANITARY GRAIN STORAGE

The Texas warehouseman is no longer a mere holder of goods left in his care for storage. He must also be a "good housekeeper."

A state-wide program of grain storage inspections being initiated by the Federal Food & Drug Administration is designed to promote good housekeeping habits in grain storage warehouses and elevators. Its major goal is to assure purchasers of grain and grain products that they are getting "clean" commodities, relatively free of insect and rodent damage. Farmers, too, could benefit through a program that may protect them from losses incurred by depreciation in value of grain stored in unsanitary facilities.

legal defense is a basic principle of American justice. The rights of the accused to defend himself are nowhere as well guarded as in the British Commonwealth and the United States where government is based on the common law.

In France and other European countries a person accused of a crime is presumed to be guilty. If he is to escape the penalties of the law, he is obliged to prove that he is innocent. But in common law countries an accused person is assumed to be innocent until the state presents enough properly admissible evidence to convince an impartial jury that he is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

In serious cases, if the accused cannot afford to hire his own attorney, the court is required to appoint a lawyer to defend him without charge. The Canons of Ethics require the lawyer to defend such a man with the same vigor and skill as he would an ordinary client.

Corresponding to the Canon governing lawyers who defend the accused, there is one for the prosecuting attorney — the attorney retained by the government to present its case against the accused. The Canons and Ethics on this point say: "It should be the primary duty of a member engaged in public prosecution not to convict, but to see that justice is done."

How seriously the public, as well as lawyers, consider the rights of defendants accused of crime is found not only in indignation against government officers who violate these rights, but also against mobs which try to take the law into their own hands. If either officers or mobs can take over the law, then no one is safe and the basis of our type of civilization is gone. The laws pertaining to criminal trials were made, not only to protect the rights of the accused, but to protect the rights of all persons.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

The program of the Food & Drug Administration is divided into two "phases", the first of which will be in effect during this year's crop season. This "phase" is a strict inspection of all grain storage plants and commodities held therein. Later, the F&D will initiate "Phase Two" — the inspection of carloads of grain at terminals.

Inspectors will be armed with check sheets which list sanitary regulations the warehouseman must meet if he is to continue handling the farmer's grain. Federal officials indicate that if they find obviously filthy conditions in an elevator, or if the grain is badly contaminated, they will take immediate action. "Action", in this case, means they can ask the federal court to issue an order preventing shipment of grain from the warehouse into interstate commerce, or they can ask the court to seize the grain if interstate commerce is involved.

A "rule of thumb" test for badly contaminated grain as interpreted by the F&D, can be made by the farmer or warehouseman, himself. Wheat, for example, may be classified as unfit for flour if it contains three or more weevil exit holes per quarter-pint of grain, or one or more rat or mouse pellets per pint.

But the warehouseman cannot bear the sanitary burden alone. The farmer must take steps to protect his grain from infestation and contamination before storing it in a public grain warehouse or elevator. In some cases, the warehouseman may be forced to reject farm-stored grain that is obviously in bad condition.

Federal authorities maintain that no undue hardships will be placed on farmers and warehousemen in the program. A series of articles has been made available to warehousemen with suggestions as to means of maintaining sanitary conditions.

If the farmer is in doubt as to how he can comply with sanitary procedures, he should consult his warehouseman or elevator operator.

Mrs. A. B. Dodgen was able to be taken to her home last Friday, after being a hospital patient for a week during which time she was very ill. Her friends were glad to see her able to be in town Saturday doing some shopping. During her illness the neighbors were very thoughtful.

A number of the men of the community gathered on the farm and did a lot of planting for Mr. Dodgen.

While on vacation, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fletcher and Adrin of Graham, visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thigpen. Before coming to Santa Anna, they had been on a sight-seeing trip to New Mexico and other points.

Mrs. Lorena Conley and sons Dave of Lubbock and Audie Lee with the Navy at San Diego, California, were week end visitors here with their daughter and sister, Mrs. J. D. DeSha and family.

Letters To The Editor

Mr. J. C. Gregg,
Editor,
THE NEWS,
Santa Anna, Texas.
Dear Mr. Gregg:

Although I am not a subscriber to the News, I still manage to read it almost every week, thanks to my folks who send it to me. Since you started the column, "Thoughts of a Country Editor," I have missed one or two issues of the paper, and your column is the first part I read.

This is the first time I have written to the editor of a newspaper with a complaint. Maybe I shouldn't be writing this one, but I have decided to sound off about some of the bad publicity our president has been receiving in the newspapers recently. Please do not take offense about the piece you had in the April 25th copy of the News, because this letter isn't intended for that.

I am only giving my viewpoint of the situation and more or less sounding off at the public for letting the fighting man down.

In your column on April 25th, you criticized Mr. Truman about three things. (1) His seizure of the steel mills; (2) his saying he could take control of the press; and (3) his sending our troops into the Korean War. You, and several million other Americans, disagreed with him on all three measures. I, and I hope many others, agree with him.

Let's look at the first one, his seizure of the steel mills. We are at war, and Mr. Truman seems to be the only one who realizes this. Certainly not our steel workers or they would realize that we must have guns, tanks, airplanes and other steel equipment to fight and win a war. Every day in Korea we are having tanks and planes damaged, guns and equipment ruined. The tanks and planes have to be repaired with steel parts and some have to be replaced. The guns have to be replaced too. If our steel workers struck and weren't on the job for say six months, it could prove disastrous to some G. I. on the front lines if his gun barrel got so hot it split or warped. Or when the Communists started moving up and the tanks and planes to stop them had been put out of commission a day or week before. Somebody's son would die because a steel worker wanted another ten cents an hour. Now Mr. Truman comes along and says no the steel workers won't strike. Nine of ten G. I.'s will say the president is right. Nine of ten civilians will say the president is wrong and should be impeached. But in order to save Pvt. Joe Doakes' life let's allow the president to have the power to seize anything important to our future when an emergency is on hand. And, this is an emergency!

At the meeting of two or three hundred editors and publishers in Washington a few weeks ago, one of the gentlemen asked the president, who was guest speaker, if he thought he could seize control of the press. Mr. Truman's reply was something like this: "In an emergency he probably could, in fact he was sure he could." Mr. Truman didn't say he would, or even threaten to, seize the press. But when safety and comfort are at stake, why shouldn't the president take over the press if it were jeopardizing our national security? After all, hasn't the press already revealed almost 95% of our closely guarded secrets? It is my belief that the president should personally check every article concerning our secret weapons before it is released to the public. The Korean War is still a tender spot to us all. Some call it a police action, some a conflict, but call it what you like, to the men fighting in it, it is a war. No, Mr. Truman didn't ask Congress to decide whether we should send men to Korea when the war started. Congress wasn't in session at the time and the president probably thought there wasn't enough time to call a session of Congress to officially send our soldiers into battle. Yet if he had done so, Congress most certainly would have done the same thing. Remember, in the hectic days that followed, there was a session of Congress. They could have told the president they were bringing our men out of the battle. But they too realized that if the Communists took Korea they would then head for Formosa or another place.

Yes, we are losing men in Korea and we will continue to lose them in the days that come. Losing men in war brings to mind a speech that was delivered to me in basic training, back in 1949. The flight chief — we secretly called him the walking soldier's handbook, because he knew it word for word — told us we were being paid for one thing, no matter what job we were put on. That one thing is to fight. It was a dramatic little speech that flight chief made to 60 scared basic trainees, three of whom were from Santa Anna. Dewey Dunn and Billy Mills and myself.

Yet how are we going to fight without the American public and especially the president backing us to the hilt? We can't hope to win when 650,000 steelworkers tie up production by striking. Or when another few hundred thousand oil workers strike and shut off our gasoline and oil supply. How would Mr. Steelworker and Mr. Oilman feel if all the G. I.'s struck over in Korea because he thought he should have another five dollars a month for letting the Communists shoot at him? It would leave a straight path for the Commies to go up to the oil or steel worker's front door. You know us servicemen have had a pay increase bill before the house for several months now and still haven't gotten it passed. Reckon we should strike?

In closing this letter I would like to say that Mr. Truman is still the man who runs the nation, and I think he is doing a good job of it. Remember election time comes in November, and everybody — 21 and over — has a chance to vote for the man they like best. But if in two or three years you start complaining about your choice, Mr. Citizen, just remember you helped put him in office.

Sincerely yours,
Douglas H. Moore Jr.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

As a Matter of Fact...

Out of all the newspaper and magazine columns I read, the ones I enjoy most are those that pack in a whole lot of facts — unrelated facts, but each one an interesting bit of information in itself.

These columns go something like this: "Did you know that humpback whales are addicted to snoring? That bees have been bred with red, brown, and buff-color eyes?"

"Did you know that lead can be converted to gold — at a cost of $1,000,000 an ounce? That a 555-pound fat girl went on a diet and lost 401 pounds in 12 months? That a chrysanthemum has been developed that smells like a violet?"

From where I sit, maybe I'm a kind of "Johnny-one-note." My own columns always seem to revolve around one idea — a plea for us to make sure we respect the other fellow's rights — like the right to vote for your own choice or the right to enjoy a glass of beer now and then. I may not be in style, but I believe my one fact is worth repeating — and remembering!

County To Control Mesquite By Spray

The Coleman County PMA Committee has again approved the practice of controlling mesquite by the airplane spraying method. The planes must have special spraying equipment and be bonded and licensed by the State Department of Agriculture. For best effect very little pressure is placed on the sprays — just enough to cause a rain-effect from the plane. Last year 11 ranchers carried this practice on a little over 4,000 acres. It proved very effective except on a few ranches on which the mesquites were infested by worms and those farms which mesquites had partially dead tops.

Quite a few additional ranchers this year have indicated a desire to carry out this practice. The airplane spraying companies have indicated that they are able to carry out this practice according to specifications for $3.50 per acre. The Government's assistance on this practice is $1.75, which will leave a payment by the rancher of $1.75 per acre.

The Committee will start this program on May 20 and we will have 30 days in which to do our spraying. No spraying will be carried on after June 20 of this year. The flying companies are required to carry liability insurance which will protect the rancher in case of damage to crops belonging to someone else. Fly-

A haydrier can save you money. It means better feed for your stock and less waste.

Now is the time to plan and build a drier. A slatted air tunnel or a main duct with slatted floor areas with fans powered by motors from 2 to 7½ hp. depending on the size of the barn or loft can reduce moisture in hay to 12% if it has been cured in the field for a short time.

Barn dried hay grades 40% higher than field dried. It has more leaves, has richer color and cows like it better too.

Better hay means less concentrates to feed, better physical condition of the cows and improved milk.

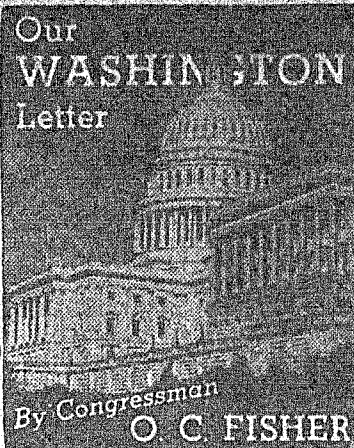

Mow dried hay also reduces the fear of fire by spontaneous combustion.

Plan now to beat the weather on your farm. When installing electrical equipment have your wiring checked over, too.

See your co-op manager and county agent for further assistance.

Agriculture and its place in the American economy was debated for two days in the House last week, as the annual appropriation for that agency was considered and passed.

It was disclosed that since 1940 the appropriation for that agency has been reduced 32 percent, whereas most of the other departments have mushroomed in growth and cost. Twelve years ago money to run the Agriculture department represented 13 percent of the Federal budget, exclusive of national defense; today, exclusive of the national defense and payment on the national debt, the cost is three percent. The employees in that agency, it was developed, have been reduced by over 41 percent since pre-war.

Among other facts developed during consideration of funds to run this agency during the next year, were these:

Only 175 years ago we had in this Nation 500,000,000 acres of fertile soil. Since then we have wasted 200,000,000 acres of that land, and there is another 100,000,000 that is wasting away today.

By 1975, according to the present rate of increase in population, we will have a population of 190,000,000. Unless we make advances in science it will take 115,000,000 more acres to maintain the present high standard of living.

The Pink boll worm has shown up in many Texas counties. It spread to 17 new counties last year. Annual losses on cotton alone due to insects and diseases exceed $1 billion.

The annual loss from insects to timber and to crops is in the billions. Since colonial days, insects and fire have destroyed 6,750,000,000 board feet of timber, which is nearly equal to our original stand.

On agricultural research — which results in new methods to cope with pestilence and disease — we actually spend each year only a little more than the cost of one destroyer or the cost of 12 B-36 bombers.

Through research, for example, the Department of Agriculture has developed an entirely new poultry industry. The annual cost of this scientific discovery has been equal to only 12 percent of the cost of a medium size tank. The Bureau of Animal Industry has found by adding vitamin B-12 to poultry feeds we can produce 9-pound broilers in 9 weeks on 9 pounds of feed. This represents a saving of at least 800,000 tons of feed worth $80,000,000.

Other items for which funds were appropriated or loan authorizations provided included 4-H work, vocational agriculture, forest service, soil and water conservation, Federal crop insurance — now on an experimental basis, Farmers Home Administration, school lunch, rural electrification and rural telephone loans, etc.

A recent letter from a friend in Junction referred to the cost of the support program as applied to potatoes, eggs and butter. Actually, there has been no price support program of any kind on potatoes since such supports were prohibited by Congress in 1950. In the case of butter, there has been no price support on that commodity within the past twelve months, and the same is true of eggs.

The egg and potato programs were scandalously expensive in the past, both being perishable in character. The cost of the action which eliminated potatoes from the purchase and support program.

Most of the other so-called programs on farm products have fared better. Both cotton and wheat have made the government money — the government purchasing on depressed markets, then holding to sell on rising markets. Cotton alone netted the government nearly a hundred million dollars.

two amounted to 63 percent of the total cost of the government support program. In the case of potatoes the Secretary of Agriculture designated potatoes as a basic war commodity several years ago which enabled the extravagant price support program to be applied. Many of us questioned the judgment of the Secretary in so designating potatoes. When the exorbitant cost resulted, the Congress took the action which eliminated potatoes from the purchase and support program.

OIL STRIKE AFFECTS US

The strike of the oil unions has affected The Santa Anna News. We had a large Humble advertisement scheduled to run this week, but a telephone call Monday cancelled the ad. The company who placed the ad with us said that due to the oil strike, the Humble Company would have to cancel the advertisements, due to not being able to obtain the desired amount of fuel to put on a large advertising campaign. The ad, tying in with the "get acquainted" program being sponsored by the company, will be published at a later date, after the oil unions go back to work.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

This week we received a letter from Doug Moore, Jr., of San Antonio, who is stationed at Randolph Field, Texas. Although the letter is rather critical toward some of our editorials, we appreciate the letter and also appreciate Moore's feelings. After having served some 5 years in the service during World War II, and during that time several of the large industrial concerns of America took advantage of the situation to strike. We felt then about the same way as Mr. Moore feels now, and we also still feel the same way. But we still do not feel that Mr. Truman has the privilege or authority to take over operation of any industry, when the Constitution of the United States does not grant him that authority.

We would like to have others express their feelings in letters to the editor. After all, this is supposed to still be a free nation, with freedom of speech. We admire a person who has the nerve to stand in the face of opposition and express his opinion. That is our heritage and we believe in it.

The Same Old Mom

You may not know it, but every member of the family has his or her own special day. Here they are, in case you're interested: Mother's Day, the second Sunday in May; Son's Day, the first Sunday in June; Daughter's Day, the second Sunday in June; Father's Day, the third Sunday in June.

Yeah, the Old Man is apt to observe drily, just as I thought — Dad comes last. They took care of every member of the family, and then, as an afterthought they decided to give the Old Man a day of his own. Come to think of it, that's not so strange — somebody has to pick up the check.

Mother's Day, of course, will be next Sunday. It was the original of the family days, the first having been proclaimed in 1909 in South Dakota. By 1913, Congress got around to endorsing it as a national celebration. Mrs. Anna Jarvis is generally credited with the idea.

This year, the "American Mother of 1952" is Mrs. Toy Len Goon of Portland, Me., a native of China who has been naturalized. This 57-year-old mother, widowed 12 years ago, operates a laundry and manages to raise eight sons and daughters, the youngest 15 and the oldest 29. Neighbors testify that she did an outstanding job, but mother — like she modestly gives most of the credit to her kids.

The American Mother of today is a changed woman from 1913. To begin with she bears fewer children. Today there are less than two-thirds as many children under five years old per thousand women between 20 and 44 as there were in 1910. But they are healthier kids, for in 1915 infant mortality came to 10 per 100 live births, whereas today it is less than 3 per 100 live births.

Today's mother is twice as likely not to live on a farm. In 1910 35 out of every 100 Americans were in the farm population; in 1950 only 16 in every 100 were so situated.

In 1913 a woman's ankle was her own business, but in 1952 even grandmothers wear bathing suits that leave little to the imagination.

County Democrats Go Uninstructed

The Democrats adopted a resolution at the county convention Tuesday, sending an uninstructed delegation to the state convention May 27. The vote was 22 to 3 in a very orderly convention.

Delegates named to the state convention were: W. Ford Barnes of Santa Anna and H. O. Woodward, L. Emet Walker, Wallace Dingus of Coleman with Clyde D. Allen, Cecil Gray, Mrs. Ruth Ransburger and William O. Leach being selected as alternates.

No reports have been received as to how the county Republicans instructed their delegations. However, over the state General Eisenhower received the majority of delegates.

Humble Company Is Re-Building Service Station

Carl Autrey, local operator of the Humble Service Station located in the west part of town, announces this week that he will be closed for the next approximately 90 days, while his station is being completely rebuilt. This has been brought about as a result of a damaging fire recently suffered by the station.

Autrey stated the company was going to spend a little over $22,000 in making the new station. They have purchased about 30 feet more land on the east side of the present location. The station will be completely new throughout and will feature a number of the new advancements of the oil industry.

Elsewhere in this issue of The News, Autrey expresses his appreciation to his customers and invites them back when he opens again.

Mrs. Ella Stiles returned home Monday night from a visit since Friday with two uncles, Judge and J. Will Tate at Giddings. She went with an aunt, Mrs. Artella Hazelwood and son of Abilene. Sunday was Judge Tate's 82nd birthday and they got to be with all the family at a big dinner.

Revival At Christian Church To Begin Sunday, June 8th

Lawrence W. Bridges, experienced pastor and evangelist of Mt. Vernon, Texas, will lead a week's meeting at the First Christian Church in Santa Anna beginning Sunday, June 8 through Sunday June 15. Only evening services will be held, starting at 8:00 p. m. each evening.

Singing of old fashioned gospel hymns will be a feature of each service. Bro. Bridges is a good song leader as well as an evangelist.

For the past 26 years Bro. Bridges has held an average of three revivals per year. He has been full-time State Evangelist under Texas Christian Missionary Society of Fort Worth for more than two years, holding two revivals per month, each month in the year.

Straightforward and positive preaching of the simple gospel of Jesus Christ will be heard at each service. Everyone regardless of affiliation is extended a cordial invitation to attend each service. The church desires the prayers and cooperation of all Christian people in this revival.

Mrs. Byrd Arnold will leave Friday to visit through Mother's Day with her daughter, Mrs. Malcolm Burklow and family in Ft. Worth. A son and family from Midwest City Oklahoma will visit with her there.

1952 Cotton Price Support Program Details Announced

Details of the price support program for 1952-crop upland cotton were announced today by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The program differs from previous programs principally in that it gives greater encouragement to the use of local lending agencies and local administrative committees in the granting and servicing of loans on cotton, and makes purchase agreements on cotton available for the first time. Equity transfer agreements also will be available to producers.

The Department announced on November 29, 1951, that 1952-crop cotton would be supported at 90 percent of parity. On February 21, 1952, the Department announced that the average loan rate would be not less than 30.91 cents per pound, basis Middling 7/8-inch cotton, or 90 percent of parity at the beginning of the marketing year (August 1, 1952), whichever is higher. The final loan rate will be announced about August 1, 1952.

To facilitate granting and servicing of loans, loans will be made this year (1) by local banks, production credit association, and other qualified local agencies that have entered into agreements with the Commodity Credit Corporation to make loans, or (2) by the Production and Marketing Administration county committees, which will be authorized to issue sight drafts drawn on CCC. The loan documents will be kept in the local area, either in the local lending agency or in the office of the PMA county committee. In other years such documents were required to be transmitted to the PMA Commodity Office at New Orleans or San Francisco within 15 days. The change this year will speed up servicing of the loans, since it eliminates the time previously lost in waiting for the return of essential documents from distant custodial offices, such as the Federal Reserve Banks or a PMA Commodity Office. Producers will be encouraged to obtain loans through local lending agencies.

In the past, equity transfer agreements were supplied to producers at the time of making loans. Under the support program for 1952-crop cotton, an equity transfer agreement will be made available to a producer after he has agreed to sell his equity in one or more bales of cotton covered by a particular note. Such agreements will be available at the local PMA county office where they will be dated as of the day of issuance, and will have a valid life for loan redemption purposes of 7 days.

(Note: A producer uses an equity transfer agreement to sell his remaining equity in the cotton over and above amount of the CCC loan, plus interest and other charges.)

The Department stated that

Commodity Credit Corporation will make price support loans available to eligible producers in the early harvesting areas on 1952-crop upland cotton prior to August 1, 1952, at 30.91 cents per pound, basis middling 7/8-inch cotton at average location.

Premiums and discounts for all qualities of 1952 upland cotton also were announced. The premiums and discounts have been determined in the same manner as in previous years, on the basis of actual market differences for the various grades and staples.

The basic support rate for 1952-crop cotton will apply to Middling 7/8-inch cotton at average location. The loans and purchase agreements will be available through April 30, 1953.

The loans will mature July 31, 1953, or earlier upon demand and producers must deliver any cotton tendered under purchase agreements by August 3, 1953. If the loans are not repaid prior to maturity CCC may take over the cotton from producers, sell the cotton to others, or pool the cotton for producer's account.

Loans will be available on cotton stored in warehouses approved by CCC and in farm storage structures approved by PMA county committees. Any cotton delivered under purchase agreements must be in a warehouse approved by CCC. Approved lending agencies may make advance loans to producers prior to the time loan values can be determined.
