Thoughts

OF A COUNTRY EDITOR

BY JOHN C. GREGG

YOUR DUTY TO VOTE

It is the duty of every citizen who is a qualified voter to go to the polls Saturday, August 23, and cast your ballots in the two races that are still undecided so far as Coleman County is concerned.

Two very important races are to be decided in this 2nd Primary Election. The first, for a place on the Supreme Court of Texas. Although the Supreme Court does not receive much publicity and not very many people are well acquainted with their duties, it is a very important office and must have the majority of the Texas voters to say who they want to have the place.

Of the utmost importance to the Coleman County voters is the County Clerk's race. Of all the offices in the county, the County Clerk's office is next to the County Judge's office in importance. Here is where all county records are kept. Whoever fills the office should be a representative of the major part of the voters in the county. Instead of you thinking that your vote does not amount to much and so decide to stay at home and not vote — decide to go to the polls and cast your vote for the one remaining in the race who you think is the best qualified to fill the position. It is very important that each voter do this.

WHO WILL BE PRESIDENT?

The big question today is, Who will be our next President? Both the Republican and Democratic nominees are "sparring for places" right now. To me, both of them seem to be sticking their necks out so far as votes in Texas are concerned. It seems likely that Mr. Eisenhower is favorable to a lot more people being put on the rolls to receive benefits from Social Security and I wonder where the money is coming from. Of course we know it will come from the tax payers pocketbooks, but where are the tax payers going to get it? Social Security has always seemed to me to be a form of Socialism and I do not approve of it. It is a form of insurance required by the government and the working people of the nation must pay it regardless of whether they want to or not. You might say it is forced insurance and that is not what our nation was founded on. It does not give the employee his say as to what kind of insurance he will have, if any. The principal reason we do not favor Social Security is that persons who are plenty capable of working and could be working if they wanted to, had rather sit around and do nothing and draw the money from government Social Security. If a person is down and out, I am a firm believer in giving him some help, but not just because he does not want to work and make his own way. The government also says that if you are working in interstate commerce you will pay each employee at least 75 cents per hour for 40 hours per week and at least time and one-half for all over that time in one week. They do not give the employer the privilege of bargaining with his employees and advancing them on their merits alone. They tell the employer what he can do and do not ask their advice about it. To us it is a sinister circle that keeps increasing living costs day after day and there seems to be no end to it. The employer must sell his products for enough money above his costs to pay his employees, and that can be repeated several times, and then the employee must purchase his necessities of life and therefore pay an ever increasing price for them. Where will it stop?

It seems that Governor Step-

Damage Light In Co-op Gin Fire Wednesday Morn.

It was expected that damage would be light in the Wednesday morning fire at the Santa Anna Co-op Gin. Severe damage was prevented by quick action of the Santa Anna Fire Department.

The fire started when some hot steel fell from a cutting torch into an oil pit under the press. A new set of scales were being installed and holes were being cut for new bolts. J. B. Weathers, gin employee, was cutting the holes when he discovered the fire. Most of the fire was under control under the press, but a large amount of smoke made it hard to determine just where the fire was.

R. R. Terry, manager of the gin, said they were ready to operate and were expecting a first bale of cotton in the next day or two. He did not believe the gin was damaged enough to prevent their starting the season on schedule.

Terry expressed his appreciation and the appreciation of members of the Coop to the local fire department for their efforts in saving the gin from complete destruction.

On Monday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dossey and Paula Sue, accompanied by his brother, David Ray, who had been here a week from Lockhart, went there to visit the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dossey. They also visited relatives in San Antonio and returned home Saturday night.

Mrs. D. W. Stevens, Wanda, Linda, and Garland, returned home Monday night, from several days visit with her mother at Memphis, Tex. Mrs. Stevens' sons, Wilburn and Jim and their families of Pampa, visited with them at Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Griffith visited several days last week with their son, Durl Griffith and family in Ft. Worth. When they returned home Friday, their grandchildren, Shirley and Gary came with them for a visit until next week end.

E. M. Niell left Monday for Stillwater, Okla., to attend the National Rural Mail Carriers Association Meeting.

Pete Wylie returned home Saturday from a weeks visit with Jackie Whitley at Adamsville. He made the trip all alone on the bus.

henson is going to favor forced FEPC, and that I do not like. In the past years our southern senators have been able to fight FEPC through filibuster and it seems that Mr. Stephenson is going to favor getting rid of the filibuster in the Senate and when he does look out Socialism. We will have it for sure. If Mr. Stephenson wants the southern vote, and we do not believe he can possibly be elected without it, we are of the opinion that he should change some of his ideas very soon. Apparently he does not favor state ownership of the tidelands either and so far as Texas is concerned on that subject — it would be a good idea for him if he did.

Force by action of a government is not what the common man wants in a president. We realize that laws must be made and enforced in order for society to progress. But we do not think our government should take all rights away from any man, whether he be an employee or employer, and force him to operate his business the way the government says so. After all the person may have some ideas of his own that might be better than the government's.

So the big question is still who will be the President of the United States for another four years? It is up to the voters again to say which of the two men they want.

Band Practice Called For Monday Night

Carl W. Gilkerson, new band director for the Santa Anna Public Schools, has called his first band practice for Monday night at the high school Band Hall. The practice session is to begin at 7:30 p. m.

Gilkerson urged all band students and all who are prospective students to be present.

Community PMA Elections Announced

PMA Committee Elections will be held in the Agricultural Building in Coleman and in Santa Anna on August 22, 1952. Communities A, B, C, D, E, F, G, I, J, L, and M will vote in Coleman, and Communities H, K, N, and O will vote in Santa Anna.

At these elections, farmers in each community will vote for three farmers to serve on the Community Committee, for a delegate to the County Convention to elect the County PMA Committee for 1953, and for alternates. Voting will be either by mail or by going to the polling places for your community as listed above. In general, any farmer is eligible to vote if he as owner, operator, tenant, or sharecropper is participating or is carrying out practices in accord with programs administered by the County PMA Committee.

Chairman Eubank emphasizes that the effectiveness of Agricultural Conservation Program operations and of price support and marketing programs will depend a great deal on the Community Committees who are voted in at these elections.

The concentration of Agricultural Conservation Program operations in 1953 on the problems of individual farms adds to the need for able committees. Committees will be expected to help each farmer in determining the conservation needs on his farm and in making the most effective use of ACP assistance and available services in carrying out most needed practices.

Since this program has to do with the protection and improvement of the soil and conservation of water on the farms of Coleman County, Community Committees are in a key position in the fight for continued production.

The Chairman urges farmers in each community in Coleman County to look over the field carefully and make sure that farmers are elected who are best qualified and who will have the time to donate to the job.

WTCC Reports On Federal Spending

Reporting that the Military Establishment entered the new Federal fiscal year July 1 with a financial stockpile of $197,800,000,000 in spending authority, the West-Texas Chamber of Commerce today released figures showing what this will mean in taxes to Texas. This stockpile figure is made up of $46,600,000,000 of new appropriations approved by Congress last month, and $56,200,000,000 of unexpended balances from prior years' appropriations.

Texas share of the Federal taxes that must be borne to pay for this will be $4,461,520,000. The estimate is based on the fact that Texas taxpayers presently bear 4.34 per cent of the total Federal tax levy.

Mrs. Charlotte Hogue and sons, her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Howington, returned Tuesday from a visit at Scottville, Ky. with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hogue. They returned by the way of Birmingham, Alabama, Vicksburg, Miss., and Shreveport, Louisiana.

County Receives Road Money

Coleman County received $34,635.87 refund from the state this week. This money is what has been set aside to pay bonded indebtedness, but being as the county is not carrying any bonded indebtedness, the money has been returned and will be divided into four county precincts for road work.

Earl Hardy, Commissioner of Precinct 2, stated he intended to use his part of the money rebuilding the Whon road and building a new bridge across Home Creek near Whon.

Bids are to be opened next week on several miles of Farm-to-Market roads in the county. Precinct 2 will get about 3½ miles more road on the Trickham road.

Car Inspections Due Before Sept. 6th Deadline

According to a survey made on the Santa Anna streets Monday, one out of four cars still does not have the State Inspection tag on them. This would indicate that over 1000 cars are yet to be inspected before the September 6 deadline. Owners are subject to fines and there is a possibility of not being able to get the 1953 license plates for vehicles unless you have a receipt showing you had your car inspected before the September deadline.

There is only one local inspection station and four in Coleman. It takes several minutes to make the inspection and then these inspection stations must carry on their other maintenance work also. It looks as if there is going to be a large number of vehicles without the inspection tag when the deadline arrives.

L. A. Welch, at the only local inspection station, said he was being over run with them at the present time, but there has been several weeks during the past months that inspections were very light. Owners are urged to get these inspections completed before the deadline.

Cancer Drive Needs More Funds

Ernest L. Kurth, East Texas industrialist and state Cancer Crusade leader, spoke out today urging Texans to put the financial drive "over the top".

Calling for last-hour contributions, he challenged Texans to avert what is shaping up as a defeat against the long-range cancer control program of the American Cancer Society, Texas Division.

The Cancer Crusade began in April. It was endorsed by Governor Shivers and other lay and medical leaders in a statewide newspaper and radio appeal. It also carries an educational message for the public.

The Crusade has been extended by many local units, and, according to Kurth, still is falling short of the $600,000 goal. So far, he said, only $525,000 has been contributed for the three-way battle against the disease through the nation-wide cancer research program, education of the public and volunteer and medical services to Texas cancer patients.

Mr. Kurth said, "The cancer problem is too important and too worthy to be denied. And Texans are too proud to face this defeat without a last surge of effort."

"Greater use of existing cancer-control facilities was hoped for during the coming year and several new projects were planned. These new cancer-fighting projects will be denied the people of the state if the Crusade fails," Mr. Kurth said. Arrangements have been made with the Post Office department, he said, to forward contributions addressed to CANCER, in care of any local postmaster, to the state headquarters of the Society.

Austin — The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game & Fish Commission has been notified of U. S. Fish & Wildlife Service approval of recommended mourning dove hunting regulations for Texas.

The Federal agency has final authority over dove and waterfowl regulations since doves, ducks and geese are migratory. Huge Buffalo Bones Found Near Lubbock

Austin, Texas — The bones of giant prehistoric buffaloes have been discovered near Lubbock by University of Texas geologists.

The great beasts were nearly twice as large as the familiar buffaloes which later roamed Texas plains, Glen L. Evans, Texas Memorial Museum associate director in charge of the project announced. Some weighed as much as two tons.

Evans estimated the huge buffaloes existed in the latter part of the Ice Ages — about 10,000 years ago.

Also found in the excavation, at a lake deposit two miles north-

The University scientists said they hope to use the discoveries in reconstructing what happened in Texas during the prehistoric times. Eventually they hope to put together a giant buffalo skeleton and display it in the Museum.

HUGE CATFISH
TAKEN IN NETS

Austin — A crew supervised by Game Warden Bert Iverson of Throckmorton, seined 57 big catfish when Woodson Lake shrank from 320 to 20 acres because of dry weather.

The fish, all yellow cats, ranged in size from 21 to 105 pounds. A few channel cats, crappie and black bass also rescued were taken to the Possum Kingdom hatchery by Hatcher Superintendent Harmon Henderson. Since seining is legal in Throckmorton County and the big fish were taken from private waters, they were distributed among the men who manned the boats and seines.

When the lake was created 28 years ago it was stocked with cats taken from the Clear Fork of the Brazos River. For many years it provided good fishing but dry weather reduced it to a shallow mudhole.

Casey - Gilmore Vows Exchanged

An archway covered with pink maline, pink gladioli, and silver wedding bells formed the background for the wedding of Miss Doretha Faye Casey of San Angelo and John Patrick Gilmore of Fort Worth. Pink gladioli and maline flanked the archway and ferns and palms banked the altar.

Rev. S. R. Smith of Brownwood, former pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony, held in the First Baptist Church here, on August 9th, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Casey, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white hand clipped chantilly lace and tulle. The fitted bodice was buttoned down the back with small self-covered buttons. The deep, round yoke of nylon tulle was outlined in lace motifs of a rose design. Lace sleeves terminated in points at the hands. A lace peplum, enhanced the ballerina length skirt, fashioned of layers of tulle over net and ruffled taffeta. She wore a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

The waist length veil of imported illusion was circular and fell from a rocker bonnet of satin, covered with tulle and applied in roses and pearls. She carried a bouquet of gladioli and carnations, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Joy Sheffield of Fort Worth, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown of lace and net was pink and worn over rose taffeta. The strapless lace bodice was topped with a lace cape with buttons down the back and stand fly-away collar. The ballerina length skirt was fashioned of layers of net. Her head-dress was a lace square edged in pleated net ruching.

Mrs. Joyce Biggs and Miss Sarah Frances Moseley of Fort Worth, Mrs. Wanda Campbell of Santa Anna and Miss Margaret Williams of Denison, cousin of the bride were bridesmaids.

Their gowns of light pink lace and net were designed identically like that worn by the maid of honor. All attendants carried fans of pink lace and ruffled tulle with dark rose asters.

Duane Bivins of Santa Anna and Tom Gilmore of Ft. Worth lighted candles. Bill Campbell of Santa Anna was best man, and groomsmen were Bill Calhoun and H. L. Biggs of Ft. Worth, Jerry Fulton of Austin and John Hardy Blue of Santa Anna.

Mrs. W. V. Briddy, organist, played traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Helen Meador of San Angelo, who sang "Because", "Thine Alone", and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Casey wore a navy lace and crepe dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink gladioli. Mrs. Gilmore, mother of the bridegroom, wore a beige lace dress with brown accessories, and a corsage of peach gladioli.

At a reception held in the church parlor, Miss Charlotte Moseley served cake. Mrs. Otis Bivins and Miss La Dell Camp of San Angelo presided at the punch service. Guests were registered by Miss Alice Anna Guthrie.

Others assisting at the reception were, Mrs. Tom Kingsbery, Miss Nancy Wylie, Mrs. C. M. Moseley, Mrs. Lovell Richardson, Mrs. Alma McNut, Mrs. Jeff Horner, Mrs. Vernon Herring and Mrs. Richard Horner all of Santa Anna and Mrs. E. N. Williams of Denison.

The bride is a graduate of Santa Anna High School, Tarleton College and N. T. S. C. of Denton.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Gilmore of Ft. Worth, is a graduate of Santa Anna High School and attended Texas Tech at Lubbock. He served two years with the U. S. Navy.

Candles, mint cups and napkins all in yellow, a large square cake with white icing and decorated with yellow roses centered with "80" was the main feature of dinner when Mr. R. W. Nevans was honored on his 80th birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hunter on Sunday.

Other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Maxey and Lowell of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Kelley of Santa Anna; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Harrison and Marilyn of Ft. Worth; and Mrs. Ella Nell.

Relative to the high cost of living, Mr. Nevans recalls when he operated a meat market in '93, he bought 30 fat yearlings, for $100, never gave over $5.00 each, a cow cost $8.00 and the best grade of steak sold for 8 cents a pound.

burne; and Mrs. Glenn Williams. Beth and Sue of Tulane, Calif. Mrs. Yancy's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Bledsoe of Bangs were also present and he was also having a birthday. Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Yancy and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bledsoe of this vicinity were others of the family attending. Felicitations and conversation furnished entertainment, along with opening and viewing the many gifts the honoree received.

Punch, cake and ice cream were enjoyed as refreshments by the large number of persons attending.

Why He Failed

Lesson for August 17, 1952

THERE IS NO such thing as a "nation" apart from the people who compose it. Destroy the people, destroy the nation; build up the people, build up the nation. Some people are, of course, key persons. What they do and are affects a vast number of people besides themselves. Such persons can make the difference between failure and success for an entire nation. Their tragedy or triumph is their nation's tragedy or triumph. Suppose Napoleon and Hitler had been at last successful? Suppose Alfred the Great and Abraham Lincoln had failed?

Dr. Foreman

A Double-Minded Man

SAUL, first king of Israel, is a tragic illustration of all this. He was a big handsome man with a creditable war-record; so the people elected him as their first king. It was not the first time, nor the last, that a man's military record has misled people to believe that he was good in other respects as a leader.

Saul had some serious defects in his character, so serious that they led to his personal failure. One of these faults was a general instability. He would make promises and not keep them.

You could not be sure whether he was friend or foe. He turned against members of his own family. He professed to want to know God's will and yet he would not do it. He officially stamped out witchcraft and yet he consulted a witch when in trouble. He would make vows and then back down from them. "A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways," it would be written many centuries later. Such a man makes a poor follower, and a fatally bad leader.

A Jealous Man

JEALOUSY is a word too often limited. It should not be confined to the way a boy feels when another one is stealing his girl, or vice versa. It refers to the mean feeling people have about any one who in any way, as they think, is out to "do in" him.

Now this King Saul was a jealous man, as most dictators are. One of the great kings of Egypt could not bear to think of any other king as having built better buildings than he; so he employed the royal chiselers to remove from every public building the name of any other Pharaoh and replace it with his own.

King Saul could not be jealous of the kings before him; for there were none. But he could be insanely jealous of any one he thought might be more popular than himself.

So we find him pursuing David vindictively, relentlessly, first making an outlaw of him, then a fugitive among Israel's enemies.

A Superstitious Man

THE FAMOUS STORY (Chap. 28) of Saul and the witch at En-Dor raises a number of questions to which nobody has the guaranteed answers. One thing, however, is clear from that story: Saul was a superstitious man. He thought that the dead could be conjured right out of the ground.

Whether the woman of En-Dor actually conjured Samuel up, or only induced Saul to think she did, the reader must judge for himself. The point is that Saul, who paid small attention to Samuel living, was very eager to talk with his ghost.

Superstition marks a man as full of fears, for fear is the food of superstitions. Fear also was the root of Saul's jealousy; and fear at last drove him to suicide. True leaders must be made of sterner stuff.

A Disloyal Man

SAUL FAILED not only because he was shift, jealous and a coward. He failed because he was disloyal to God.

His public career began by his recognizing in Samuel a prophet of God, and in Samuel's instructions the will of God. But as time went on he took counsel only with himself; he listened to Samuel only when it was convenient. And so God rejected him.

Whatever a man's qualifications may be, if he compromises his own ideals, if he will not live up to what he recognizes to be best, if he will not listen to men of God, if he sets his own will above the will of the people, even above the will of God, then he is not only not a wise leader, he is a very bad one.

HOME BUYER'S ATTORNEY PERFORMS VARIED FUNCTIONS

When the real estate sales contract provides that the seller is to furnish to the buyer an Abstract of Title, then it is up to the latter to employ an attorney who will examine the abstract. After the examination, the lawyer will give the buyer a written opinion as to whether or not the seller has a good marketable title. If the title is defective, then his opinion will state what action is necessary to bring it up to par.

In addition, the attorney usually advises on important matters not revealed by an abstract. He will ascertain whether any delinquent taxes exist against the property. He will check on the possibility of some third party being in possession, claiming the property as his own. He will determine whether a survey has been made so that the buyer may know that required footage is there and that the neighbor's fence, driveway, etc. is not encroaching upon the property being purchased. He will explain the practical effect of each legal paper which you sign or accept in closing the deal.

If the contract of sale provides that the seller is to furnish the buyer a Title Insurance Policy, then the latter should employ an attorney to examine the policy offered and advise him on other details in closing the transaction. The fact that an attorney designated by the Title Insurance Company examines the Title is not sufficient to protect the purchaser in every respect.

A title insurance policy is similar in principle to a fire insurance policy. Just as you insure yourself against damage caused by failure of title. As is also common with fire insurance policies, you must be named as the insured in the policy, in order to collect the proceeds. You cannot recover more than the amount stated on the policy even though the damage caused by the fire or the title failure is greater than that amount. The property insured must be accurately described in the policy. There are exceptions to the coverage which may cause harm to a particular buyer who is not aware of their meaning, or even of their existence.

Insurance companies, in order to stay in business, cannot afford to accept too great a risk in proportion to the premium charged. A fire insurance underwriter decides whether your house is a safe risk for his company in view of the coverage provided by the fire insurance policy. An attorney hired by the title insurance company decides whether your property is a safe title risk for his company in view of the coverage provided by the Title Insurance Policy. Making such decision is the sole obligation of that attorney in the transaction. He is not in a position that enables him to advise you as to the quality of the title you are acquiring — his only duty is to his client, the title insurance company.

It might also be said that an attorney who passes on the title for the mortgage lender is in the same position. His main obligation in the transaction is to advise his client on whether your title is adequate security for the loan, which is for quite a different purpose than if his client was buying the place, as you are doing, for use as a home.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

FIVE-YEAR FARM OUTLOOK

A nation-wide survey has been recently completed which offers some reassuring figures to those who fear we may have reached a peak in agricultural production.

The study indicates that in the next four or five years, farmers of the nation can produce about 20 percent more than they did in 1950, and 18 percent more than in 1951 if there is a need for such a volume, and provided that steps necessary to assure it are taken.

Agriculture is the foundation on which to build for national defense. No one can dispute that high efficient production of food is necessary if any government is to survive — in war or peace. The survey was prepared as a possible guide for future agricultural plans.

This report of capacity to produce in a defense period is the combined work of Land-Grant colleges and Departments of Agriculture of the various states, Federal and state workers, thoroughly familiar with farming in their areas, prepared the report. The results represent neither a goal nor a forecast of future production. It does, however, indicate potential capacity, or the rate at which farmers could increase production under favorable conditions.

The farmer could, under "favorable conditions", produce about a fifth more of both crops and livestock than he did in 1950. Nationally, the projected increase is based on estimates that he could increase hog output 12 per cent above that of 1951, cattle and calves, 14 per cent; milk, 12 per cent; commercial broilers, 30 per cent; eggs, 12 per cent; corn, 21 per cent; wheat, 40 per cent; rice, 13 per cent; cotton, 11 per cent; soybeans, 14 per cent; tobacco, 11 per cent, and potatoes, 24 per cent. Labor costs and improved farming practices would be an important factor in realizing these figures.

The study further indicates that the South has the greatest possibility of increasing production percentage-wise. The North Central, Mountain, Northeast and Pacific regions follow in that order. More than half the increase could come from feed and livestock. The rest might come largely from food grains, fruits, vegetables and cotton.

The production capacity report can be obtained by writing John C. White, Agriculture Commissioner, Land Office Bldg., Austin, Texas.

Fort Worth — Nothing new to report this week on the new hog plague called vesicular exanthema. Quarantines and embargos are still in effect in many points of the middlewest and some relaxation is indicated in latest reports, since it appears the program for indemnity payments to hog producers is getting set up and disease is being localized.

sion says there have not even been any suspected cases nearer Texas than that distance. Everything shipped to Fort Worth must go for slaughter still. No stockers or feeders allowed to go out.

Looks like the CIO Packing House Workers and Armour & Co. may be squaring off for a strike. It was reported at some points that Armour and other packer buyers were slowing down Monday, but that was not the case at Fort Worth Monday.

Rumors that the calf gang, the sheep killing gang and the hog gang walked out from the local plant were heard here, but lots of other packers, large and small, gobbled up the supplies of livestock at improved prices at Fort Worth.

Reading in the Bowie News (Montague County) a story with a breath of the Old West in it — a cattle stampede! Seems that W. C. Gowan of Clay County was loading better than 400 steers on rail cars at Bellevue when the train frightened the cattle and they tore down the fence and spilled all over the place. He was delivering the steers to the Corbett Ranch of Breckenridge in Stephens County. Some of the cattle rampaged for ten miles before being rounded up again. Both Gowan and Corbett are well known at Fort Worth and ship many top quality cattle to market each year. The late Quincy Corbett, in addition to being a fine ranchman, was also one of the best cattle feeders in Texas and before his death, annually topped the market with prime finished heifers or steer yearlings.

A government "specialist" this week asked an order buyer at Fort Worth why he paid $24.50 for some feeder steers, and some others brought $18. "Same reason I'd give more money for a Cadillac than I would for a Ford!" was the terse reply.

Fort Worth — Most classes of cattle and calves staged a sharp rally Monday at Fort Worth. Cows were 50 cents to $1 higher and bulls sold strong to 50 cents higher. Stocker calves were from 50 cents to $1.50 higher, and slaughter calves were strong to 50 cents higher. Stocker and feeder cattle were strong to $1 higher, and some stocker yearlings were over $1 higher. Slaughter steers and yearlings sold steady.

Butcher hogs and sows opened the week with a 50-cent advance at Fort Worth, best hogs at $23. Sheep and lambs cashed at steady prices for both slaughter and stocker kinds.

A partial walk-out of CIO Packing House Workers at the Armour Plant in the lamb, calf and hog departments had a negligible effect on the trading at Fort Worth.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings sold for $28 to $32, and common and medium grassy and supplementary fed steers and yearlings cashed at $16 to $25, with cull yearlings around $13 to $16.

Fat cows sold for $15 to $18, a few heiferette kinds higher. Canners and cutters sold for $10 to $15. Bulls cashed at $15 to $23.-50.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold from $24 to $27.50 and plain and medium butcher sorts sold from $16 to $24. Culls cashed at $13 to $16.

Good and choice stocker calves moved at $25 to $29.50 and common to medium quality sold from $16 to $24. Stocker and feeder steers and yearlings bulked at $18 to $26, with a few extreme lightweights to $27, and commoner kinds sold at $15 to $18. Stocker cows moved at $14 to $19. Stocker and feeder heifers sold from $25.50 downward.

Good and choice slaughter Spring lambs sold for $25 to $27 and the medium killers sold around $20 to $24. Stocker and feeder Spring lambs cashed at $12 to $20. Stocker and feeder yearling wethers sold at $10 to $15, and fat yearlings sold at $18 down.

Two-year-old wethers cashed at $9 to $12, and aged wethers drew $10 downward. Slaughter ewes sold at $5.50 to $8. Old bucks drew $6.50 down.

Good and choice butcher hogs sold Monday at a top of $23. Sows drew $16 to $18.50. Butcher pigs sold around $12 down.

Hugh Lewis and a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Douglas of San Antonio and another daughter, Mrs. Harvey Martin of El Paso, were Sunday visitors with Mr. Lewis' sister, Mrs. Seth Risinger. Others visiting with Mrs. Risinger Sunday were: her nephew, Doughty Miller and his two little boys from Austin.

When Mrs. Murrel Spence and Linda left for their home in Van Nuys, California, Monday, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Taylor, accompanied them for an indefinite visit. Enroute, they planned to visit other members of the family in New Mexico.

What sign were you born under?

It makes a difference, some folks say! But whatever your sign — one thing you probably have in common with most Americans is that either directly or indirectly you're an owner of one of America's electric light and power companies like the West Texas Utilities Company.

It's like this: about three million people from all walks of life — teachers, housewives, doctors, mechanics, farmers — put their savings into companies like the West Texas Utilities. They're direct owners.

Another seventy-five million people, through their life insurance policies and savings bank accounts, are indirect owners. For their banks invest a substantial part of their premiums and savings in the securities of the nation's electric companies.

So, you see, these companies, like the West Texas Utilities, that serve nearly everybody are owned by nearly everybody!

Advice From State Health Department

The control of any disease must be based upon facts and not theory, asserts Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. The reason for this statement is based on the numerous theories presented by the State Health Department for the cure or prevention of polio, diarrhea and dysentery.

The spread of polio, for instance, has been blamed on weeds, air, bananas, milk, atomic radiation and many other items. All of these are theories and have no basis of fact. Facts in disease are arrived at in the laboratory, the sick room and the environment of the patient. Facts are necessary and must be the guidepost for the control of disease.

Dr. Cox is authorized by law to accept gifts and contributions for public health. The first gift to aid in research on the part played by flies and cockroaches in the spread of polio is two monkeys from Bellaire. Others will be needed to complete the study. Any contribution will be appreciated.

Education work in dysentery and diarrhea — which kills far more children than polio — is being hampered by lack of personnel to do the work. Cox said Texas has six times more dysentery and diarrhea than the national average. There were 1099 infants under one year of age who died of this cause in 1951.

"When we get rid of these two fifth borne diseases, we will have done the best thing in the world to get rid of polio," he asserted. "But it takes resources to do it. Fund and equipment shortages have been a stumbling block to the whole research program in Texas, Dr. Cox said. Despite the fact that the State Bureau of Laboratories has consistently won top honors in national competition for accuracy in disease identification.

Dublin Rodeo To Feature Roy Rogers Liberty Act

Dublin, Tex. — The Roy Rogers Liberty Act, featuring beautifully matched Palomino horses, will be one of the highlights of the 1952 Pre-Madison Square Garden Rodeo to be staged in Dublin, Texas, nightly Wednesday through Saturday, August 27-28-29-30.

The act is one of the most outstanding liberty horse acts in the world today. The horses are trained and presented by Glenn Randall, trainer of the internationally famous Trigger. Among their many precision drills in a 38 foot diameter ring are such features as the ring-curb march; the old fashioned horse walk; two, four and eight-horse wheel; and finally the grand finale of the Liberty Act.

Dublin's World's Championship Rodeo is now in its 13th year. Everett Colburn, who produces the rodeo, lives in Dublin. His famous Lightning C. Ranch is the source of the meanest and toughest stock for the biggest rodeos in America. In addition to his New York show in Madison Square Garden, and the World's Championship Rodeo in Dublin, Colburn also directs rodeos in many places throughout Texas and the U. S.

Just before Colburn takes his troupe of cowboys, cowgirls, sponsors and special performers and the rodeo stock and equipment to New York he stages the biggest rodeo of them all — in his home town of Dublin. Advance ticket sales are made to people from almost every state in the union.

Hot Weather Affects Car and Operator

Austin, Tex. — "Hot weather driving problems involve both the car and the operator of the automobile," according to Paul R. Kulp, general manager of the Texas Division of the American Automobile Association.

Warm, humid days, he explains, often result in what is called a vapor lock. The heat of the motor and the weather gets so high that the gasoline vaporizes before it can get to the intake manifold or the carburetor. This results in air, or vapor in the fuel lines, preventing operation of the car.

"Don't immediately conclude that you need a new fuel pump or that the whole motor should be dismantled at some garage. Wait a while; quit stepping on the starter and let the motor cool a bit. The chances are that you have a vapor lock which is preventing the motor from starting."

"As for the driver," he added, "fatigue comes quickly during the hot days, and this fact should be recognized. When tired or partially blinded by the bright sun, get off the road, under a tree — or in the shade — and rest awhile. Take a nap, if necessary. In many people the effects of alcoholic drinks are felt much quicker in warm weather than in cold. Avoid the use of strong drinks if you're going to spend the warm days behind the wheel of an automobile."

New Social Security Payments Due To Arrive October 3

Over 5000 people in the Abilene area will receive higher social security payments beginning early in October as a result of the social security amendments which President Truman signed into law on Friday, July 18.

Ralph T. Fisher, manager of the Abilene social security office, emphasized that no one needs to apply for the increased payments. "The Social Security Administration is already changing the amounts," he pointed out. "We expect to get them changed in time to have them in the mail October 3, the regular delivery date, but if in a few cases we don't meet that schedule we'll send the regular check and make up the difference in a later check."

Mr. Fisher pointed out that although nearly every family receiving payments would receive an increase, the additional amount would not always be divided among all the members of the family receiving monthly checks. In some cases the entire increase will go to the retired worker.

Under terms of the law, most families will get an increase of about $5; some will get less, some will get more. A few benefits now being paid, and most of those payable in the future, will be based on earnings after 1950 instead of after 1936. The amended law provides a new formula for determining the amount of the payments in these cases. Under it, a retired worker's monthly benefit would be 55% of the first $100 of his average monthly earnings plus 15% of the remainder up to $300.

Beginning September 1, the new law increased to $75 a month instead of $50 the amount of money a beneficiary may earn and still receive the insurance benefits may receive the payments for each month of the year if their net earnings during the entire year are not over $300. The amended law contains a provision of special importance to self-employed people who have retired or plan to retire during 1952. Before the passage of the amendments their earnings for the year in which an application was made could not be used to figure their old-age benefit payments. Now, those self-employed people who originally applied for benefits in 1952 may re-apply at the close of the taxable year and have their 1952 earnings used in figuring their monthly benefit payments. In general, this will increase the monthly benefit payment to self-employed persons.

A similar change in the law now permits insured wage earners who retire in 1952 to have their wages for this year used immediately in figuring the amount of their benefit payments. Heretofore, it was necessary for them to come back after the end of the year in order to have all of their covered wages for 1952 included in the computation of the benefit amount.

Another amendment allows beneficiaries aged 75 or over already on the rolls to take advantage of the higher benefit payments provided under the new formula, if they have had at least a year and a half of covered work after 1950.

The amended law allows social security wage credits of $160 for each month of active military or naval service after July 24, 1947. This provision is simply an extension of the one which already gives social security wage credits to servicemen of World War II. It applies to service in the armed forces up to January 1, 1954.

Of advantage to the survivors of deceased service people is a provision in the amended law extending the time for claiming a lump-sum death payment. This applies to servicemen who die abroad and are later returned to the United States for burial or reburial. Survivors who pay the burial expenses may now claim reimbursement up to two years after the reburial instead of two years after the serviceman's death.

Overweight Can Cause Early Death

Are you packing too much fatty beef for the size of your frame? If so, you're probably one of the 100,000 or so Texans contributing to what State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox calls a "significant public health problem."

The number of obese (dangerously overweight) people in the state is growing, the doctor says, and they're laying themselves wide open to trouble.

For instance, if you are carrying too much fatty tissue you're twice as apt to get diabetes, and three times as likely to have heart trouble. Furthermore, if you get arthritis it will hurt you a good deal more because of your obese condition.

Many other conditions are made worse by a person's being too fat.

"Obesity is just as serious a form of malnutrition as starvation in the long run," the health officer will tell you. Ask why some people get fat while some don't and he'll tell you the plain and simple reason is that usually the fat ones eat more than their systems need or want.

"Obesity is exactly the opposite of starvation. Overweight people eat too much. Emaciated people don't get enough. Both types are malnourished."

But why do they eat too much? There may be many causes. The glands may not be working just right. They may be having emotional trouble.

"Dietary habits perhaps established in childhood. Part of the reason might be that an overly full stomach gives them a sense of emotional relief. They might be trying to satisfy an emotional hunger as well as a physical one."

The best way to fight obesity is to cut down the caloric intake, he says. But to do this you've got to have a real desire to have normal weight.

"This means," he explains, "the underlying emotional factors which created the obesity must be corrected by a greater urge, such as avoiding an early death."

When you get this desire you'll be willing to have your doctor prescribe a reducing diet and medicine if necessary and you will follow his advice.

"If you don't," Dr. Cox cautioned, "you'll probably find an early grave."

But people should get a good physical examination by their doctor before they start on a rigid reducing diet.

Archeology Of Texas Counties in New Book

Austin, Texas — Texans may obtain information on the archeology of their home counties in a new University of Texas publication.

Dr. Thomas Nolan Campbell has compiled a 100-page "Bibliographic Guide to the Archeology of Texas," which lists such articles, books and other publications written on each of the state's 254 counties.

Booklet On How Bills Become Laws In Texas Ready

Austin, Texas — The University of Texas Institute of Public Affairs announces publication of a revised edition of its booklet "How Bills Become Laws in Texas" by Dr. Dick Smith.

The original booklet, issued in 1948, was reprinted three times. Equal success is predicted for the completely new version, said Dr. Wilfred D. Webb, Institute acting director.

Based on rules of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Texas Legislature, the booklet follows progress of a bill through each house from introduction to final passage.

Copies of the publication are available at 50 cents each from the Institute of Public Affairs, University of Texas, Austin 12.

Texas Mosquitoes

Austin, Texas — Dr. O. P. Breland, University of Texas zoologist, has made a study of mosquito larvae species in Texas and has found key features by which they can be identified.

Printed copies of his identification "keys" are available too science students and health officials planning community-control programs. Interested persons should write Dr. Breland at Biological Laboratory 316, University of Texas, Austin 12.
