Public Schools Week To Be Observed With Open House Program Next Week

R. K. Green, superintendent of the Santa Anna Schools, said this week that all the Santa Anna Schools would observe Public Schools Week with Open House all week long, beginning Monday, March 1 to Saturday, March 7. Governor Shivers has issued a memorandum, calling attention to the Texas Public Schools and C. E. Flint, Mayor of Santa Anna, has issued a Proclamation designating the week March 1-7 as Public Schools Week.

Green stated that every parent of this school area was urged to visit at least one of the schools during the week. He urged that each visit one class-room period and attend at least one general assembly. The schools will have reception committees that will show visitors where they want to go and will be glad to answer questions for them.

The slogan for the week is: "Texas Public Schools — Democracy in Action". Today the importance of education is not a debatable subject. Our job, as citizens of this great nation, is to see that every child of this generation gets the best possible education we can give them. By visiting the schools and familiarizing ourselves with the problems of teachers and students, we can be in a more competent position to safeguard and advance the institution that is so American, the public schools.

Green said he would like to get the elementary school students in the new building in time for observance of the opening of the new building during this week, but that it would not be possible now. However, plans are being made to hold open house on a Sunday afternoon immediately after moving into the building. The move will likely be the second week in March.

Auto Crash Monday Causes Heavy Damage To 2 Cars

An estimated $1000 damage was done to a 1950 Oldsmobile and a 1940 Ford was demolished in an accident at the corner of Wallis Avenue and Parker St. about 7:30 Monday morning. No serious injury was reported to any of the occupants of either car.

Norval Wylie, 50, of Santa Anna, driving the Ford, started across Wallis Ave. going south and failed to see the other car, driven by Billy T. Johnson, 24, of Dublin, heading west. The Johnson car hit the Wylie car broadside and turned it half-way around. Wylie was in his car by himself and Johnson was accompanied by his wife and 20-month old son and Billy G. Carter of Clairette, Texas. All were treated for minor injuries at the Santa Anna Hospital and released, except Mrs. Johnson who was hospitalized and was released later in the week.

Speaker For Easter Service Announced

REV. H. B. LOYD

Rev. H. Brown Loyd, Brownwood District Superintendent of the Methodist Church, will be the speaker at the Annual Santa Anna Sunrise Easter Service at Ranger Park. The committee for this year's observance, Rev. Jack Payne, Rev. Harry Wigger and Mr. Ford Barnes announced the acceptance of Rev. Loyd this week. The service will be held at Sunrise on Easter Sunday morning, April 5.

Rev. Mr. Loyd is recognized as one of the leaders of the Central Texas Conference of the Methodist Church, an area which includes more than three hundred churches. He was the leader of this conference's twelve-man lay and clergy delegation to the General Conference, Methodism's highest legislative body, in San Francisco last year. He is one of the ten district superintendents of Central Texas.

Rev. Mr. Loyd has served pastorates at Ballinger, First Church Brownwood and Taylor during the years immediately before being appointed District Superintendent four years ago. According to his church's law, he will serve a total of six years or less in the superintendency before returning to the active pastorate.

Headhunters Wear Santa Anna Clothing

Some of the used clothing sent a few months ago to the Philippines by local Methodists is being used by headhunters in the interior of Isabella Island in the Philippines. Rev. Jack Payne received a letter this week from Rev. Felix Grospe, native Philippine preacher expressing gratitude for the gift of money and clothing and telling him that some of the clothing had been distributed by missionaries among the headhunters of the island. The united missionary program on the island is making much headway in converting these heathen to the Christian way of life.

One particularly interesting portion of the letter told of the activities of the Huks, communist gorillas, as they attacked the Christians of the islands. It was with this realization that the local American Legion recently purchased a bicycle for the son of Rev. Mr. Grospe, hoping that it would enable him to assist his father in the promotion of the ideals of Christian democracy. The money for the bicycle has been received by the minister there but the bicycle had not been purchased at the time of writing.

Rev. Payne stated recently that used clothing and money for seeds will be welcomed by him for the purpose of being sent to Mr. Grospe, who is an agricultural minister, having studied at Texas A & M College as a foreign student.

Premise Survey To Be Held Next Week

The premise survey, proposed by the sanitation committee of the Community Chamber of Commerce, will be taken next week by members of the local FFA Chapter and FHA Chapter under the directions of their sponsors, A. D. Pettit and Mrs. Earl McQueen.

The exact day for the survey has not been announced, but plans are being made for it to be completed in one day. The survey will be taken to determine just what the city needs in the way of a clean-up campaign. Covered garbage cans and cleaning up of places where insects breed will be two of the primary objects.

Every family who is not at the present time using covered garbage cans for wet garbage is urged to get one before the survey.

Light Rains Fall Here

A very light rain fell here late Monday and since that time a light mist has been in the air, not enough moisture falling to be measured. The Monday rainfall was measured at .15 here and in some parts of the county up to .3 was measured.

There will be a play-off between Wylie and DeLeon and then Santa Anna will play the winner of that game to determine second place in the district. Dates and times of these games will be announced later.

In the opening game of the district tourney, Santa Anna won over the Dublin girls 40-27 and in the semi-finals won over the DeLeon girls by a 47-42 score. They lost to Cross Plains in the final game by a 34-40 ball throughout the tourney.

James Richard Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Allen of Santa Anna, showed his Southdown lamb to the first place position in the San Antonio Livestock Exposition last week. Allen, one of the local FFA boys has showed this lamb to the Grand Champion of the Santa Anna Show, the Coleman County Show and to second place at the Ft. Worth Show. The lamb will be sold at the auction sale this week end.

In the San Antonio show, they do not pick one Grand Champion, but pick three top lambs in three classes, one in the Southdown, one fine wool and one in all other breeds combined. All three lambs sell as grand champions.

The only other Santa Anna lamb in the show was one shown by Burgess Stewardson, which placed third in the Southdown class.

Allen is expected to receive an extra good price for his lamb.

Need For Public Schools Never Change

The need for the public school never changes, but times and conditions may change or require to be changed methods and practices of public education. This is inherent with anything that grows for growth is the result of change.

It is a healthy thing in our democratic way of life to have an intelligent understanding of the important functions of our basic institutions. This is especially true of the schools. The initiative and resourcefulness and the wisdom and leadership that our schools are inculcating in the youth of today are the answer of the problems of citizenship in the years ahead.

Yes, "bring me men to match my mountains." That is the need of our times and must come from the public schools — schools that are strong in the virtues required for building strong men and women. We can be assured of this and do our part in understanding and helping the public schools to fulfill their great obligation to our times by being a participant in the annual Public Schools Week, March 1 through 7. Schools will hold open house; accept their hospitality, and you will enjoy the experience of going back to school — if but for a day. Remember it is "Texas Public Schools Week — Democracy in Action."

ANNOUNCEMENT

The P-T. A. meeting, which was to have been held next Tuesday, has been postponed until after the school moves into the new building. The Basketball Tournament, sponsored by the P-T. A. will start Thursday night, February 26th at 7 o'clock in the gymnasium.

Proclamation

One of the great and basic institutions upon which we rely for the furtherance of our American ideals is our public school system. It is the birthright of every American to attend our public schools and to there acquire the essentials for making an honorable living, as well as an understanding of the reciprocal privileges and responsibilities of American citizenship, the advantages of our way of life, and the place of our country in the world.

We in Santa Anna are proud of the school system that has been developed in our town. We like to believe that the opportunities afforded our children for sound education are not excelled anywhere. If we are justified in this conclusion it is only because the people of our town have shown a personal interest in education and because public spirited men and women have been willing to devote their lives to the teaching of youth.

Our school system can meet the objectives expected of it only when there is widespread public understanding of our schools and the type of education they provide. This kind of understanding can best be developed by the intimate knowledge that comes from inspecting the schoolhouses, knowing the teachers and seeing the work of the pupils.

THEREFORE, I, as Mayor of the City of Santa Anna, do hereby proclaim the week of March 1-7, 1953 as in Santa Anna, and I urge every citizen to visit at least one of our schools during this period and to become personally acquainted with the programs and accomplishments of our educational system.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 16th day of February, 1953.

S/C. E. FLINT
Mayor, City of Santa Anna, Texas

P. O. Cooperates In Heart Fund Drive

The Post Office Department is cooperating with the Texas Heart Association and its affiliates throughout the state by accepting contributions to the 1953 Heart Fund campaign addressed to "HEART, care of the local post office."

Contributions received in post offices anywhere in the state for the $408,000 drive will be channeled by local postmasters to a central accounting office, which will then remit them to authorized representatives of the Texas Heart Association.

This is the third successive year that the Post Office Department has cooperated in this way with the Heart Fund, which makes possible the research, education and community service programs of the Heart Associations.

You Must See Clearly To Drive Properly

Austin — If you can't see clearly, you can't drive safely, Paul R. Kulp, general manager of the Texas Division of the American Automobile Association said today in reporting the action of Arlington, Va., traffic police in stopping motorists with fogged windows and windshields and requiring them to clear off the glass before proceeding. Drivers are warned, not arrested.

"Safety minded motorists will applaud this helpful action on the part of police to emphasize the importance of clear visibility when atmospheric conditions fog up auto windows," Kulp said. "Most drivers who encounter this condition clear off the windshields, drive slowly and take no chances, but there is always the exception who thoughtlessly endangers other drivers and pedestrians. Accident statistics show that in one out of five fatal accidents the driver's vision was obscured. In nearly half the cases, rain, sleet or snow on the windshield obstructed the driver's vision to such an extent that he was involved in a fatal accident.

"Texas drivers can well take a hint from the Arlington, Va., experience and make it a habit to clear off car glass when it becomes fogged. The increased clearness of vision, and more important, the sense of relief that you can see pedestrians and other cars will be well worth the few minutes it takes."

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris and the grandchildren, Topher and Charles Medlin, visited with the Eugene Medlins at Odessa from Friday afternoon until Sunday. The boys didn't get to see their little week old brother, Vance, as he hasn't been doing well and was still in the hospital.

1953 Chevrolet Advance-Design Trucks are more truck for the money!

4 powerful reasons why you get more of what you want...

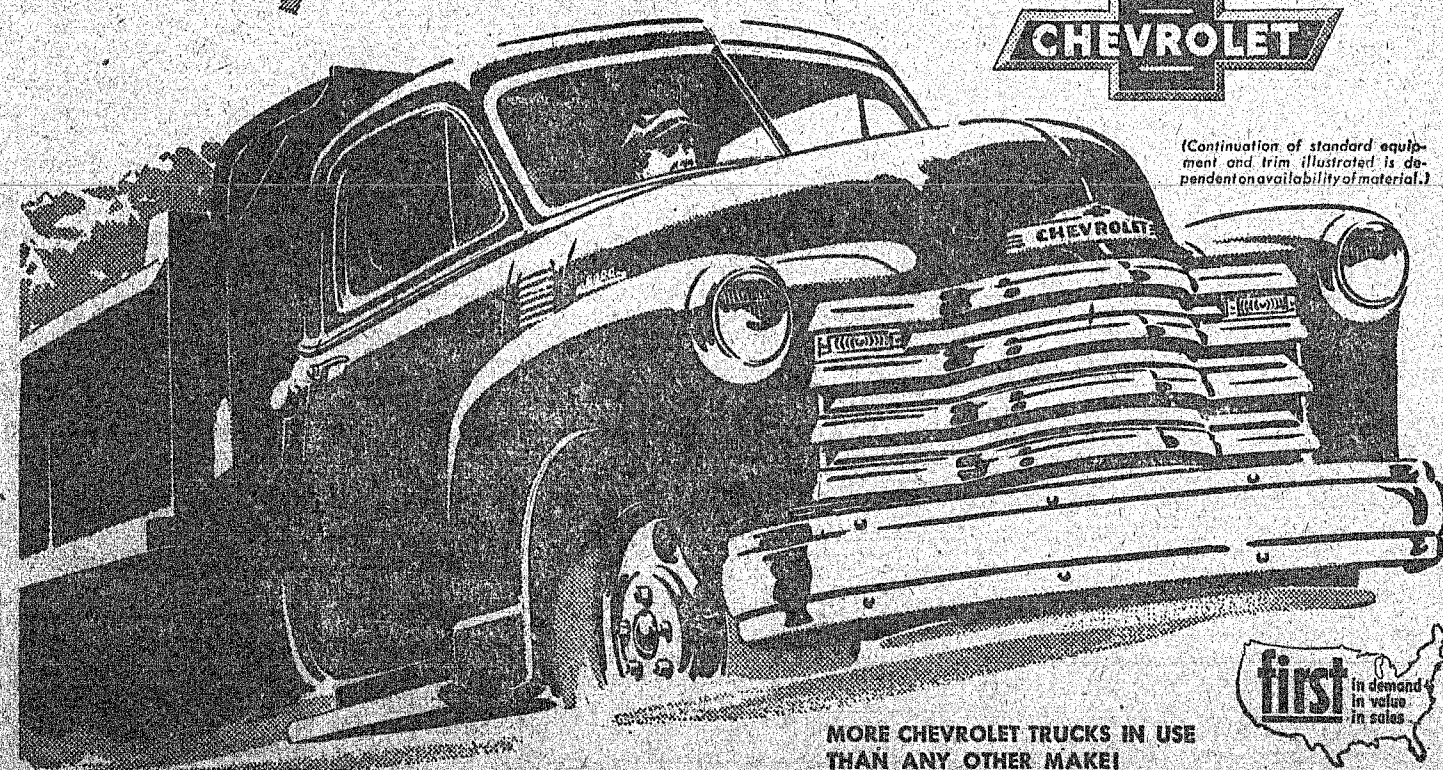

- more engine power
- more staying power
- more braking power
- more economy

Advanced Loadmaster engine—standard on 5000, 6000 Series and forward-control models, optional on 4000 Series heavy-duty trucks.

Heavier, stronger, more durable frames increase rigidity, add to ruggedness and stamina of 1953 Chevrolet trucks.

Trucks up to 4000 Series heavy-duty models have "Torque-Action" brakes. Series 4000 and above use "Torque-Action" brakes in front, "Twin-Action" in rear.

New stamina plus extra gasoline economy in heavy-duty models with Loadmaster engine, reduces hauling costs per ton-mile.

Internal Revenue
Urges You To Report All Income

Ablene — Be sure you include all your business income and all your business expenses when you prepare that 1952 income and social security tax return. This reminder was given today in a statement issued jointly by H. C. Broadus, Division Chief, Bureau of Internal Revenue, and Ralph T. Flesher, Manager of the Social Security Administration office in Abilene.

Most self-employed people are now covered under the old-age and survivors insurance provisions of the Social Security Act, and receive credits toward retirement payments and survivors payments just as do employed persons. The self-employed person makes his social security report, and pays his social security tax, along with his income tax return. This applies to all self-employed persons who have a net profit of at least $400 for the year, except for farm and ranch operators, and certain professional people.

Particular caution should be used by persons whose income is low to be sure that the tax return is filed if due, and to be sure that credit is taken for all business expenses. For example, a self-employed person who has two dependents and a gross income of less than $1200 may not think it important to include all his business expenses, since he obviously will owe no regular income tax. It is important that the amount be figured accurately, though, as he will owe social security tax if his net is as much as $400, and this tax should be paid on the correct amount of earnings.

If not all business income is included, or if not all business deductions are taken, the return may be questioned by the Director of Internal Revenue, or the social security credits may be questioned by the Social Security Administration. Such investigations represent loss of time for the taxpayer and the Government, and can be avoided by careful preparation of the tax return.

REPEAL
TAXES!

Now that we have a new Administration in Washington, perhaps this is as good a time as any to renew the long-standing plea for repeal of Federal automotive excise taxes.

In 1951, the nation's highway users paid out a total of $1,550,000,000 to Uncle Sam in auto excise levies. The toll for the past year will soar even higher — about $1,875,000,000 — according to present estimates.

As the American Automobile Association has often stated, Federal automotive excise taxes were imposed to meet an emergency, and not to become a permanent levy. Despite this fact, millions of motorists are still burdened down by them. They also endanger the economy of the States, because they are an invasion of an established field of State taxation.

To top it off, auto excise taxes are unfair and discriminatory, since they not only are imposed upon products vital to modern transportation, but they select one type of transportation for general tax purposes.

With a new President and Congress, perhaps it is not too much to hope that some attention will be given to this pressing problem. President Eisenhower, during his campaign last year, laid much stress on the need for less concentration of power in Washington. Returning motor fuel taxation to the States and repealing the other auto levies would be a good place to start.

Royd French, who recently had an appendectomy at the Santa Anna Hospital, was able to go back to school today.

Rural Letter Carriers
Oppose Highway
Spending Program

Farwell, Texas — Nelson C. Smith of Farwell, president of the Texas Rural Letter Carrier's Association, said today that his group is supporting the national Association's decision to withdraw from the nationwide PAR movement.

PAR stands for Project-Adequate Roads.

Smith said the letter carriers abandoned the movement after learning that PAR is seeking development of a system of super-highways between big cities at the expense of a sound rural road program.

He also brought the proposed half-billion dollar road program now before the state legislature into the picture. This program calls for expenditure of an additional $100,000,000 (millions) a year on Texas roads during the next five years.

"Like PAR," he said, "the road program now before our legislators apparently gives little thought to getting the Texas farmer and small town citizen out of the mud."

Both Smith and C. H. Davis of Meridian, former chairman of the TRLCA rural roads and legislative committees, said the state's rural mailmen feel that Texas should hold off on an all-out road program during the present period of extreme inflation.

"The time is coming," Davis declared, "when Texans can get full value from their road dollars. We feel that our legislators should wait until this time before committing the state to an additional $100,000,000-a-year road program which is dedicated principally to construction of super highways between big cities."

Smith said the rural mailman's feeling about the state's road needs are best set out in a resolution adopted by the association's executive board last September. The resolution, in part, reads:

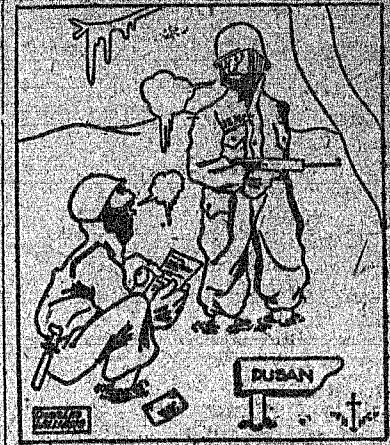

"In as much as our road dollar is worth only about 43c, and in as much as our state is and will continue to be an agricultural state for many years to come,

"Therefore, be it resolved: That until economic conditions are more stabilized, we recommend that our primary system of highways be preserved and protected as it is, and that we concentrate our efforts on expanding our present rural roads program."

Mrs. James Seddon and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Banister returned to their homes in Houston last Friday, after about a weeks stay here while their mother, Mrs. J. R. Banister was very ill in the hospital. Mrs. Banister is now being cared for in the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Bruce.

Thomas Myron Hayes and wife, Susanne and Tommy, arrived here on Wednesday night of last week after a six months residence in Athens, Ga. He has been called back into the service, a Navy Lieutenant, Senior Grade. They will be at their home here for awhile. He will report to Dallas on March 15th for 7 weeks, after which he will be stationed at Pensacola, Fla.

Some would rather speak ill of themselves than not to speak of themselves at all.

Home Demonstration Club Met With Mrs. J. F. Goen

Mrs. Frank Goen was hostess to the H. D. Club last Saturday at 2 p. m., the meeting being postponed from Friday because of the funeral of Mr. Fred Brusenhan.

Roll was called and minutes were read by Ellen Richards.

Council report given by Mrs. Goen contained several items of interest that will be acted on at next meeting.

Plans are being made to have a First Aid School.

Rockwood MYF Met Wednesday

After everyone enjoyed the valentine party, we settled back down to our regular meeting on Wednesday night of last week.

We continued our study on the Local Church in Our Community. Several gave real interesting parts on the subject.

During the study, we sang 3 songs, "In the Garden," "Tell Me The Story of Jesus," and "Rescue the Perishing."

Mrs. Leon McMillan concluded our program with a summary of our lesson as a whole.

Patsy Rehm gave a short talk on the district meeting held in Ballinger on Monday night. A short business session was held following the study. We decided to send cards to the sick and afflicted of our community.

There were 18 present and 3 adults, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rehm, and Mrs. Jack Bostick.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON-SERMON

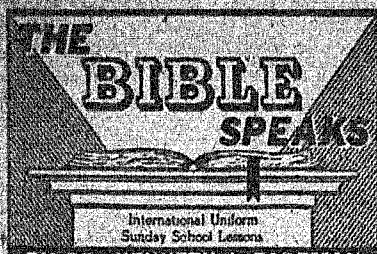

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Christian Science churches this Sunday. It is pointed out that Jesus' clear understanding of man's relationship to God, the Father, enabled him to heal the sick and sinful, and raise the dead.

The Golden Text illustrates his purpose (John 3:17): "God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

In appreciation for Jesus' contribution, Paul wrote in Hebrews: "Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith" (12:1,2). The Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, based her religion upon the teachings of Jesus, and this is apparent in her words from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "It is possible, — yea, it is the duty and privilege of every child, man, and woman — to follow in some degree the example of the Master by the demonstration of Truth and Life, of health and holiness. Christians claim to be his followers, but do they follow him in the way he commanded? Hear these imperative commands: 'Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect!' 'Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature!' 'Heal the sick!'"

Hypocrites

Lesson for March 1, 1953

"HYPOCRITE" is a bad word. You should be careful about calling people hypocrites, because perhaps you do not quite mean it. A hypocrite is not the same thing as a weak Christian, or a stumbling Christian, or a half-developed Christian, a 50 per cent Christian. These are pretty common; the regular simon-pure hypocrite is a rarer bird. A hypocrite is a person who is knowingly and intentionally bad, and has no intention of being anything else; but he puts on a mask or disguise of goodness. It is only a front, he does not mean a bit of it. He is just a devil playing angel. Such persons may be somewhat rare, but they do exist. They are to be found in the church, they are high up in the state. No walk of life is altogether free from them.

They Will Not Lift A Finger

Almost the entire 23rd chapter of Matthew is devoted to Jesus' slashing attack on the hypocrites he knew. The modern reader will be struck by certain family resemblances between hypocrites of all eras. Jesus, be it noted, was talking about the religious "experts" of his time, the men who correspond to today's big city preachers, professors of theology, Bible teachers and so on. He did not mean to say that they were all hypocrites but definitely some of them were. One mark of the hypocrite is that he preaches but does not practice. As Jesus puts it, he lays heavy burdens on other men but he will not lift a finger to help carry such a load himself. Common modern examples of this kind of person include the politician who yells distractedly about dishonesty in the other party but hush-hushes all the irregularities in his own; the business man who demands to know why we can't have honesty in government while all the time he and his firm are carrying on crooked deals; the young man who demands that his sweetheart must be true to him while he carries on with one girl after another. Insisting that others live up to a standard we will not accept ourselves, is what Jesus called hypocrisy.

They Want To Face The Cameras

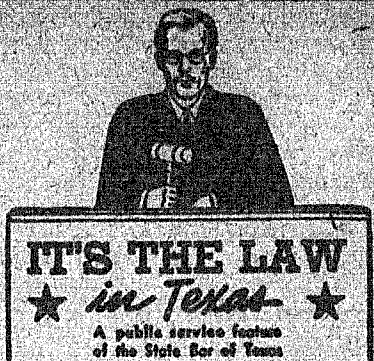

A cartoon shows a football team in a huddle. The captain is saying: "Let's try a run around the other end. Never mind if you're not facing the television cameras!" Any one who can remember seeing the great political conventions of last summer on television will recall how time after time the roll call would be slowed down by some one demanding a poll of the delegation. Shrewd observers remarked that in numbers of cases there was no real doubt about the accuracy of the vote; there was no good reason except that for a few brief moments the man who asked for the re-count would have the cameras trained on him. This playing for the grand-stand, scene-stealing, all that sort of thing, is part of what our Lord calls being a hypocrite. In fact the very word "hypocrite" in Greek means an actor.

This world is full of actors and they are not all on the stage. Even in the pulpit we can sometimes see men who think more of what the Monday papers will say about their sermons than of what God will say. A good reputation is a good thing to have; it is not to be despised.

Frosting and Gravy

Furthermore, hypocrites are excessively fond of all the outward signs and benefits of being (or being thought to be) "big shots." Every once in a while the newspapers tell of some man who has pretended to be some European count or other titled gentleman. Imitating the manners of the aristocrat, he lives off quite a number of gullible people before the police catch up with him. Now the true aristocrat is a responsible person; he carries many responsibilities. Titles and so on are incidental. But the bogus aristocrat is irresponsible; all he cares about is glamor. Now you can't make a poor cake good by giving it thick coat of frosting; you can't make a tough steak tender by slathering it with gravy. It takes more than frosting and gravy to make a good meal. But the hypocrite, in the church or out, cares more for life's cover-up than for what is underneath.

NATURALIZATION PROCESS EXPLAINED

Most of us accept with little thought our American citizenship and the rights and privileges it bestows. We might do well to reflect upon what it takes to become a citizen of the United States under our present laws. Many of us would probably be unable to pass at least two of the requirements if called upon to do so.

One of these requirements is that the applicant for citizenship may be able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court a knowledge of the Constitution of the United States and the principles which it affirms. In addition, he must show a fairly comprehensive knowledge of the workings and organization of the American government.

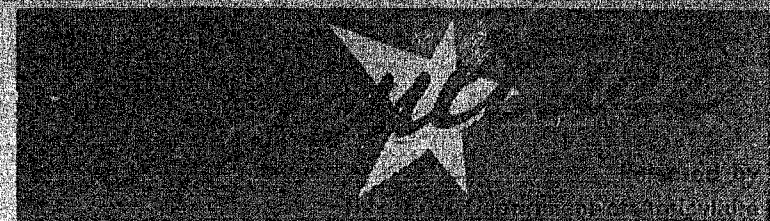

But that is only a small part of the process of becoming a naturalized citizen. To begin with, an applicant for citizenship (if he is an ordinary case) must have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence. Then he must be entered on the registry of the Commissioner of Immigration, acquire an alien registration card, and receive a certificate of arrival from the Immigration Department.

Some time later he will receive a letter from the government telling him where he must file a declaration shortly after he arrives in this country but not before he is 18 years of age.

After he has lived in the United States five years, and his first paper is at least two years old, the future citizen may file a petition for naturalization, known as "second papers." He must have lived in the state in which he filed for at least six months.

He will then be called for two hearings — one before the immigration authorities, and the second in federal court. At this time he must be able to speak and understand the English language, and he will be questioned regarding the Constitution, history of the United States and the government organization.

After 30 days the applicant will be notified to appear at the court for a final hearing on his petition. When the court grants a petition for naturalization, the applicant takes the oath of renunciation and allegiance — he

PLENTIFUL FOODS FOR MARCH

A wide variety of foods will be available during March for the Texas housewife who wants to stock her deep freeze while prices are favorably low. The Production and Marketing Administration office at Dallas counts a total of 17 foods or commodity classifications which are expected to be in plentiful supply at a right price.

Fryers top the list. Indications are the fryer marketing will be at a near record level during March when supplies will exceed that of last year. Eggs are included, although egg production is slightly below March 1952. Cold storage holding of turkeys have recently been unusually heavy and supplies should continue liberal during the month. Prices will probably remain favorable to budget-minded buyers.

Production and stocks of milk and dairy products are heavy for this time of year and may be expected to continue, increasing as the peak production period approaches. Butter, cheddar cheese and skim milk products, cottage cheese and buttermilk will be plentiful.

March retail supplies of beef are predicted to be larger with prices well below those of a year earlier. Herds of beef cattle have increased substantially in the country during the past three years and offerings are at an all-time high. Cabbage and carrots are abundant. Volume production of cabbage continues to assure ample stocks and carrots from Texas, California and Arizona are moving at prices that will appeal to consumers.

Raisin supplies are heavy due to a bumper crop last season. The production was considerably above the 10-year average. Market costs of raisins are reasonable and March should be a good time to include them in food buying plans. Not to be neglected in "value shopping" are fresh and processed oranges and grapefruit. Current orange supplies are about one-fifth larger than the 1941-50 average. The grapefruit crop is below that of last year but more will be on the fruit counters due to a drop in demand by processors. That popular staple, the Irish Potato, is more plentiful than last year, although storage holdings are smaller than usual. Dry baby lima, large lima and navy bean stocks are bigger than expected and costs are considered nominal.

Honey, edible fats and oils, and peanuts and peanut butter are also on the suggestion list for the value wise shopper.

Tidelands Legislation is being advanced early in this session. Already the Senate committee has begun hearings, and in the House committee the subject was set down for February 17, then postponed a week. Both committees announced the hearings would be brief, with but a few witnesses to be heard. This was justified in view of the voluminous hearings that have been held in the past, all of which were printed and are available for those who want to read them.

It will be recalled that President Eisenhower and congressional leaders recently announced that tidelands legislation would be one of some 10 major measures that will be dealt with during this session. At a White House luncheon recently, with Adlai Stevenson sitting by him, the President is reported to have informally reaffirmed his conviction that the States have a just claim to their offshore petroleum deposits. He told of the occasion when he learned about the Texas rights, of how the Republic of Texas had been admitted to Statehood only after agreeing to assume her public debts and retain her public lands. The boundaries of the Republic of Texas had been fixed and recognized. They extended seaward 10 1/2 miles along the entire coastline. The President said that looked to him like a blinding agreement that could not in good conscience be repudiated by the Federal government.

Other legislative activity last week included the session's first appropriation bill. It was a supplemental request sent to Congress in early January, calling for appropriations totaling $2.3 billion for a dozen agencies to spend during the remainder of this fiscal year, which ends in June. By drawing on unexpended funds previously voted, and reducing various items, the total was whacked by 60% - down to less than $1 billion.

At the same time, the House Ways and Means Committee reported out a bill to reduce personal income taxes a maximum of 5 1/2% this year and 11% annually thereafter. But Republican congressional leaders immediately announced that the bill would not be put on the House calendar until later in the session, pending action on spending bills. It was indicated that a strenuous effort will be made to cut expenditures and bring the budget close to balance before the tax cut would be debated.

Right now new Department heads are going over the Truman budget, submitted before President Truman left office, and looking for non-essentials. If the budget is to be balanced, several billions must be taken off budget requests. And the job of finding the place to cut without damaging the preparedness program has Republican leaders in a sweat. But the best guess now is that the budget cuts will be rather substantial, that they will be supported by a majority in Congress, and that some tax relief will be brought about at least by the end of this year.

Careless Use Of Medicine Can Cause Illness or Death

Austin — The careless or uninformed use of medicines cause much serious illness and even many deaths in Texas every year. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today in a statement urging the public to use caution in self medication.

"It is never safe to take medicine in the dark," Dr. Cox warned. "Always read the label carefully to make sure the aspirin you expect to take is not a bichloride of mercury tablet or some other poison. As a matter of fact, poisons and medicines containing poisons should be kept together, well out of reach of children and marked in some distinctive manner. Another thing to remember is that medicines should always be taken exactly as directed by a doctor because many beneficial medicines can do untold harm if taken too frequently or in too large quantities. It is well to stop and think that you may be taking your own life in your hands when you take medicine casually."

The State Health Officer also warned of the danger in the inclination of many persons untrained to diagnose and treat their own ills. Such persons are apt to guess wrong he asserted, and while they may not take medicine that is actually harmful, ful, they are nevertheless postponing an accurate diagnosis and the resulting proper treatment that could help their illness.

The safest rule is never to use medicine, internally or externally, that has not been prescribed by your doctor and for that particular illness with which you are suffering.

American Legion To Honor Korean Veterans

Austin — Texas citizens have been called upon by the state commander of the American Legion, Albert D. Brown of Austin, to join that organization in honoring Texans who have died in or returned from the Korean War in what he has designated "Korean Veteran Appreciation Week," March 15 to 22.

The occasion of the American Legion's 35th birthday, March 15, was taken by State Commander Brown to put the more than 800 Texas American Legion Posts in a plan to honor the men of Texas who have served in the Korean conflict.

Mayor R. C. Gusman of Bay City, state chairman of the American Legion's community service committee was named chairman of the movement by Brown.

Returned Korean veterans will be issued Appreciation Certificates from The American Legion and families of those who did not return will be presented certificates also.

"Our Korean Veterans have been leaving Texas by the thousands, returning the same way, without bands playing or without any notice being taken of what they have done for our country," Commander Brown said. "It is far past time for us appreciative Texans to show these men that we are aware of their efforts."

Public meetings will be held by American Legion posts in which the entire community will be asked by each Legion post to participate.

Pastors of all Texas faiths will be called upon by the Rev. Henry F. Selcer of Marshall, American Legion state chaplain, to honor Korean veterans from their pulpits, Sunday, March 15.

Mrs. Carl Ray had surgery in a Brownwood hospital last week, where she had previously had surgery. She is reported to be getting along quite well. It is hoped she can be brought home at the week end.

Mrs. Roy Stockard and daughter, Mrs. Joe McCluskey, Karen and Joe L. visited with relatives in Stephenville last Friday, attended to business in Temple Saturday, and spent the week end in Ft. Worth with Leroy Stockard and other relatives. While they were gone, the Richard Powells of Kerrville, visited with Mr. Stockard. They left Garyn and will return for her next week end.

So the People May Know

LAWS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS provide that many county, city and other officials must publish in the newspapers certain information about their finances and operations.

The lawmakers passed these rules because of their belief in the fundamental principles of democracy that a people can properly govern themselves only when they are adequately informed.

There have been violations of these publication laws.

These have been violations of omissions: That is, some officials have neglected to publish information as required by state law.

The people are entitled to know what information their local officials are required to publish.

This newspaper, therefore, will print a series of articles, prepared by The Texas Press Association — presenting in plain language pertinent facts in regard to the publication law.

Are you, as a citizen, getting through your newspaper all of the information that law says you should have — concerning the operation of your local government? Find out by following this series of articles in your newspaper.

Highlights and Sidelights State CAPITOL

Austin — Abolishing gasoline tax refunds would provide for a perpetual farm-to-market highway fund and give $4 million a year more for schools.

Chairman E. H. Thornton, Jr. of the Texas Highway Commission made that assertion as he prepared an analysis of the state's road situation for presentation to the Legislature.

Gasoline tax refunds go to those using the fuel for non-highway purposes. Last year refunds amounted to $15,367,000 of $120,244,000 collected. Most of the refunds go to farmers who use gasoline for farm vehicles and machines.

Thornton is asking for an additional $100 million per year to bring Texas highways up to the highest standard and maintain them for the next 10 years.

The highway commission has a new member, former Senator Marshall Formby of Hereford, who succeeds Fred Wemple of Midland. The third member is R. J. Potts of Harlingen.

The highway problem is a foremost one in the Legislature, and many proposals have been made to solve it. Governor Allan Shivers has asked the Legislature to add at least one cent a gallon to the gasoline tax to furnish additional money.

One cent per gallon would bring the state $25 million per year.

Another plan was put forward by Representative Charles Murphy of Houston, sponsor of a constitutional amendment requiring all highway user taxes to go for road building, maintenance, and policing.

Should the amendment be passed by the Legislature and affixed by the voters, the schools would lose their share of the gasoline tax revenue. They now get one-fourth of it.

Both Houses of the Legislature struggled with the highly controversial auto inspection law — the one that requires you to have that little yellow sticker on the windshield of your car.

Senator Carlos Ashley of Llano typified opponents of the law who want it repealed. Ashley thinks the law is discriminatory in that it works a hardship on lower income bracket people who cannot afford extensive repairs on their cars.

Accidents, Ashley contends, are caused, not by defective automobiles primarily, but by drunk drivers and speeders.

The senator argued that poor people in his native hill country make a living hauling cedar posts in slow-moving trucks that wouldn't pass inspection in a junk yard.

"Why should they have to pass a windshield wiper inspection when they don't have windshields?" Ashley wanted to know.

Senator John Bell of Cuero, on the other hand, worked to retain the bill and modify it so that the safety sticker would not be a requisite to purchase of an automobile license.

Bell also would specify what particular parts of the car would have to be examined to get the inspection tag. Bell and others believe that the law, if retained, will cut down on highway deaths.

The chances that horse racing will return to Texas seem slight.

Representatives Ed Sheridan of San Antonio introduced a bill to legalize parimutuel betting, but when the time came for a committee hearing on the measure, Sheridan said he was willing to postpone the whole thing.

Stout opposition to the bill had been gathering, and Sheridan said he wanted to "let it cool." Observers here doubted it would cool enough to let the bill pass.

Quick action was needed, Governor Shivers said, to provide for 900 tuberculosis patients who are now being treated at Weaver H. Baker Hospital at Mission.

The Air Force will take over the hospital on July 1.

Bills to provide for the patients passed the Senate, but moved slowly in the House.

What regulation should there be about home rule cities annexing adjacent areas?

In the legislative process is a bill by Senator Johnnie B. Rogers of Austin to restrict annexation. Such a law is needed, say its supporters, to prevent cities from taking in farms, pastures, and dairy lands.

Opponents of the bill from Houston and other cities say it would practically stop annexation and force cities to retain their present boundaries.

The Senate made up its mind about the five-day banking bill — and killed it. The bill, which had the support of some big city banks, would have permitted the financial institutions to operate on a five-day week basis.

Opponents were banks in smaller cities, where the rural people come to do their banking and shopping mostly on Saturdays.

Senators considered the question of whether we would have a preferential presidential primary in Texas — whether we should select delegates to national nominating conventions by vote of the people rather than at state party conventions.

We should, said Senator Jimmy Phillips of Angleton, because "I have never seen anything go wrong with a secret election and a free ballot."

We should not, argued former Senator Joe Hill, because if delegates are elected only the very rich stooges of some pressure group could ever go to a convention.

Senator George Moffett of Chillicothe proposed a constitutional amendment to get money to build needed state office buildings from a two-cent property tax now going into a Confederate pension fund.

The fund now has a surplus of $5 million over what it needed to pay the pensions of two veterans and 500 widows of Confederates.

In the Senate is a bill, already passed by the House, that is intended to give stronger control over Communists. The bill would make it easier for officers to enter and search the homes of persons suspected of being subversive.

Opponents of the bill contended that it was a threat to civil rights.

The Senate and House met jointly to hear Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, ace of World War I, condemn the Roosevelt-Truman administration for a "weak and vacillating foreign and domestic policy."

This is how Rickenbacker would stop the Korean war: blockade the Chinese coast, cut the railroad between Manchuria and Indo-China, and use atom bombs behind the Korean front lines.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, says that in 1951 there were 1,062 automobile accidents in Texas caused by livestock roaming the highways. As a consequence, 12 persons were killed and 129 injured.

Morris Frank, Houston Chronicle sports columnist, who visited the capitol recently, advised the Legislators that he was the "only guy who ever went to Washington and returned empty handed."

And his wife lost her purse while he was addressing the Senate.

Wrong "Train" of Thought

Most of us knew the streamliner stopped about four miles from town last Thursday — but we didn't know why...

Seems the train was hurrying along, then came the screeching of brakes — some fellow had pulled the Emergency Stop cord.

When the conductor asked him why he did it, he said, "The train was just going too fast—I wanted to get you to slow down."

From where I sit, that streamliner has been going at that speed for the past seven years with a perfect safety record and the passengers have always been pleased. Now—along comes a fellow who wants the train to go at his speed. Some people are like that. Some still would begrudge another person's right to a temperate glass of beer even though that person wouldn't dream of flashing a "Stop" sign on their preference for, say, milk, coffee or tea. Respecting the rights of others is the only way we can keep "on the right track."

The Dark Can Kill You

America's millionth traffic victim has been dead a year. Yet auto wrecks go right on changing our country crossroads into killer corners.

Where's the villain?

Some say "more cars on the road these days." Some point to "reckless youths" ... "lax laws" ... "drunken driving" ... "speeding."

But something else may be more to blame for auto accidents than any of these. Darkness. Plain old darkness.

Look at one case. In a Connecticut area 182 pedestrians were killed at night in two years—179 on poorly lighted streets.

Busy traffic centers are waking up fast, lighting their death-trap streets. Salt Lake City cut night deaths 92% in one area, Grand Rapids 78%, Bridgeport 93%.

Some small communities have been first to pick up the newest in lighting equipment. Oakwood, Ohio, has the largest installation of fluorescent street lamps in the country. And there's a broad-daylight look in Lyndonville, Vermont, even late at night. Fluorescent lighting as developed by General Electric has now been extended to street lighting.

Good street lighting has been a pet project of ours for years. General Electric engineers work with local officials on other community problems, too—traffic control, water shortage, waste disposal, farm and home modernization—wherever electricity can help progress. For progress is our most important product. General Electric Company, Department 2-123, Schenectady, N. Y.

Methodists Start 11 Week Protestant Hr. Worship Services

The eighth annual Methodist radio program over the Protestant Hour network of more than 170 stations will be heard for the next eleven weeks. Featured as speakers will be Dr. Robert E. Goodrich, Jr. and Bishop John W. Branscomb.

Dr. Goodrich, pastor of First Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas, and formerly pastor of churches in Port Arthur, Houston and El Paso, Texas, is one of the outstanding leaders in the field of religious radio and television. Since 1950 his weekly dramatic TV program "The Pastor Calls" has been recognized as one of the nation's best religious television programs.

This 8th series of the Protestant Hour is presented in cooperation with the National Council of Churches and the Methodist Radio and Film Commission.

This program may be heard over radio station WOAI, San Antonio at 7:30 A. M. each Sunday and over radio station WFAA, Dallas, at 9:30 A. M. each Sunday.

While sponsored by the Methodist Church, the programs are designed on a non-doctrinal basis and will be interesting and helpful to those of all churches.

Health Dept. On Watch for Horse Meat

Austin — Spot checks of meat markets by the State Health Department meat inspectors insure Texas housewives that when they buy a pound of hamburger they're getting a product whose contents have been carefully defined by state law, declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

In revealing that more than 1,000 meat samples were collected last year for laboratory analysis from all sections of the state, Dr. Cox says that the food and drug inspectors have been ordered to increase the frequency of their inspections of community butcher shops in an effort to curb the sale of horse-meat as hamburger.

By state law, hamburger is defined as "chopped or ground fresh beef, with or without the addition of beef fat as such, and with or without seasoning, and shall contain not more than 30 per cent fat."

That definition, health offi-clals say, makes it unlawful to add chemical preservatives or fillers such as cereals or skim milk.

It prevents unsuspecting housewives from paying ground beef prices for a high-fat content product, or one which has been doctored with inexpensive cereals. It protects the consuming public against a spoiled or adulterated product which could be hazardous to health.

More than 95 per cent of the meat products analyzed in state laboratories last year were hamburger. State law makes no distinction between hamburger and ground beef.

The 30 per cent maximum fat content of hamburger is a standard set by the Bureau of Animal Industry, and except for one or two exceptions is adhered to by all states. A similar maximum has been established for moisture content.

Twenty-six meat inspectors work under the jurisdiction of the Texas Health Department's bureau of food and drugs. More than one errant meat dealer can testify to their diligence.

The reason they call money "jack" is because it lifts such a load off a person.

There have been a number of complaints over the county about dumping trash, garbage, brush, etc., in the public right-of-way.

This is a violation of the law, and anyone found guilty of it is subject to a fine of from $10 to $200.

We respectfully request your cooperation in avoiding this action

Lions Den

Linden Jones, business manager of the Santa Anna Hospital and Melvin Webber, technician at the hospital, joined the Lions Club this week. Both were guests of Lion Charles M. Henner at the regular meeting. George Tucker and Ernest Bland, representing the local American Legion Post, presented a new American flag to the club, as the program for the day.

Reports were made on the committees appointed last week. The ticket committee reported the tickets for the annual chicken barbecue were ready to be put on sale, and requesting each member of the club to take as many as they thought they would be able to sell. Tickets will be issued out next Tuesday. The food committee said they were making preparation for about 300 persons to attend the annual affair.

R. K. Green, who has just returned from the National Association of School Administrators Convention at Atlantic City, New Jersey, gave a report on the most interesting parts of the program was a debate between a Democrat Senator of Illinois and a Republican Senator from Kansas on "What is the future of the United States in the Foreign Aid Program."

The program committee for next week is Lions Loyd Burris and Calvin Campbell.

Will Parkers' Move To East Texas

On Saturday, February 21st, Mr. and Mrs. Will Parker departed for East Texas to make their home. They are living on a farm several miles from Canton. Mr. Parker, born at the old Parker home in the gap of the mountain more than 60 years ago, knows a lot of Santa Anna history. This has been his home almost all the intervening years. Mrs. Parker also has lived here for many years. They will be missed by their many friends, who will wish them well in their new location. They state they have "burned no bridges" behind them.

They have sold their tailor shop to their son and daughter-in-law, Vernon and Ruby, who from their long years of work in the shop will know just how to carry on the business an old establishment of Santa Anna.

Methodists To Attend Rally At Talpa

A good representation is expected from the local Methodist Church at a sub-district rally Thursday night at the Talpa Methodist Church. The rally is expected to draw leaders from some twenty Methodist churches in Coleman and Runnels county. The purpose of the meeting is to kick off a united drive in every church to improve the Central Texas Conference Camp at Glen Rose. The Methodists of the conference have set out to raise $75,000 to make the fifteen year old camping grounds one of the most adequate for church summer camping programs in the entire nation.

Members of the local church committee for the Glen Rose Lake Camp project are: Oscar Etheredge, Mrs. Ben Yarborough, Harry Crews and Cliff Herndon.

Two Santa Anna Boys In Alaska

A letter received this week from Billy D. Mills, a local boy, related an unusual incident that happened to him at his Alaska Air Police Base. He stated he walked up face-to-face with Gayle Stevens, another Santa Anna boy, and he did not even know he was on the base. Now Gayle has been assigned to the same outfit as Billy, which is the 39th Air Police Squadron. Now the boys work the same shift and live in a room together.

Billy has been in Alaska for nearly a year and states that he hasn't yet seen anything that looks as good as Santa Anna would. He said he felt sure Gayle felt the same way, as the first question he asked Billy was how fast does time go by up here? The letter also stated it was 35 degrees below zero when this letter was written, on February 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Bowker, Jr., of Ft. Worth, were visitors last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Griffin.

The man who is down on everything is usually up on nothing.

Decline In Farm Prices Serious To Farm Bureau

Waco — the decline in farm prices — considered the most serious problem facing the Eisenhower administration outside of the Korean War — eventually may give prominence to a proposed national farm program which originated here in Texas. The program would lessen the need for government subsidies and dependence upon exports, according to J. Walter Hammond, Tye, Texas, farmer, who authored the plan.

Hammond president of the powerful Texas Farm Bureau Federation, returned last week from Washington where he had met with key farm leaders in an effort to find a solution to the diminishing exports of cotton and other surplus crops.

The state farm leader met February 11 with representatives from other cotton-producing states in a meeting called by Allen Kline, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation. Next day he attended an industry-wide meeting called by Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson, to discuss stepping up export of cotton and mapping plans to forestall possible marketing quotas next year.

While in Washington, Hammond and other members of the AFBF board of directors were called to the White House to meet with President Eisenhower. This was the first time Farm Bureau leaders were welcomed to the executive mansion since the AFBF differed with former Secretary of Agriculture, Charles Brannan over the ill-fated Brannan Plan in 1949.

E. Huggins. They also did sight-seeing in Houston and Galveston. They also saw something they hadn't seen much of lately — lots of rain.

The Lester McCullough family has moved back to Santa Anna after a residence of several months at Daingerfield. They are living on the J. L. Bogus farm. Their oldest son, Welton, remained with his job at Daingerfield.

Mrs. Ross Mitchell returned last week from New Jersey, where she had gone, following her husband's death, in preparation for moving to Santa Anna. She will live with her mother, Mrs. Fred Turner. Gay Turner, who accompanied her to New Jersey, remained in Washington D. C. for a visit with Mrs. Norman Walters, the former Mrs. Era McClellan.
