QUESTION

What does nursing have to offer a girl graduating from high school?

ANSWER

An R. N. has wonderful opportunities to earn good wages, live a pleasant life, meet educated and cultured people, travel and marry well. They are greatly in demand everywhere all the time. Every day new jobs and higher pay are offered to registered nurses.

The average nurse works only 8 hours per day, 6 days a week or less if she so desires. She has her choice of nearly 250 different types of work from $200 to $600 per month, from private duty, floor duty, clinic, school nurse, public health, supervision, hospital director, armed service, customs officer, airline stewardess, steamship dispensary, teaching, social work, etc. Her white cap and black stripe put her on equal grounds with anyone in the world from the pauper to the prince and the monarch. The president of the American Nurse Association stated recently that the reason there were so few nurses available was because men realize how much superior to the average woman the nurse was, how much more kindly and understanding when someone in the family was ill, how much easier they were to live with, how much better homes they kept. Credit was given to the training required to make a nurse.

In only three short years, after high school, in any one of the dozens of good hospitals in central and southern Texas, with only a small outlay of money, but a lot of hard work and perseverance one can become one of those honored and respected Registered Nurses.

McFadden Infant Has Major Surgery

The 18 day old son (Stephen Lynn McFadden) son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris McFadden, underwent major surgery in an Abilene Hospital Monday morning. His condition remains very critical.

National Guard Activities

By M/Sgt. Charles W. Wristen

Two more local boys have taken the oath of enlistment and are now members of our local National Guard Unit. We welcome Don Davis and Donald Simmons as our new members. Their enlistment date is April 22, 1953. This brings our strength to 47 enlisted men. This sets a new record for strength in the company. Up until this date, 46 enlisted men had been the highest since reorganization after World War II. Our strength reached 46 enlisted men for a short while in 1950. We congratulate Pvs. Davis and Simmons for being the ones to bring our unit to a record high in strength.

Our Summer Camp begins on June 28th this year. We hope to take at least 50 men to camp with us this year. This goal will be easily reached if enlistments continue as expected.

Our drill for April 22nd consisted of outside training. M/Sgt. Hensley had the first hour of training, his subject being on Guard and Sentry Duty. Reports from this class indicate that it was well prepared and very interesting. Sgt. Melvin Pollock and William Sharp had Tank Driving for the second hour of training. This was something new for several of the younger men as it was the first class that we have had of that nature in several months. We aren't authorized but a few hours of tank driving each year and weather conditions have caused us to cancel some of the tank driving lessons.

Mrs. Boyd Rainbolt of Fort Worth was a week end visitor with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Standley.

Legion Plans Shower For Ernest Bland Saturday

Members of the local American Legion Post met Monday night in their home in Ranger Park and made plans to hold a shower for Ernest Bland and his mother, who lost their home and all their possessions in a fire last week.

The shower will be held in the Legion Home in Ranger Park from 1:00 to 6:00 p. m., Saturday, May 2, and members of the Legion Auxiliary will serve refreshments during the hours. An invitation is extended to the general public to participate in this shower.

Members of the Legion Post presented Mr. Bland with a nice package of clothing at this meeting. The package was presented by Commander Earl Erick.

Rev. M. L. Womack opened and dismissed the meeting with prayers. Earl Erick was in charge of the meeting.

Plans were also discussed for the proposed Memorial Day service to be held on Saturday, May 30. The Legion requests that anyone knowing the location of graves of service men of any wars, to please contact one of the members and give their locations.

Mile Relay Team Places Third At Regional Meet

The Mile Relay Team of the Santa Anna High School placed third in the Region 2-B meet held in Brownwood last Saturday. The team is composed of Donald Trull, Dwan Cozart, Morris Wallace and Bill Jack Harris.

Usually a person does not think too much about a team only taking a third place, but this was a very unusual performance. Junction took first place and set a new Regional record and also made better time than the present state record.

The local team ran the relay in 7.6 seconds less time than they did the same race at the district meet two weeks ago and took .6 of a second off the fast-est mile relay ever run by a team from the Santa Anna schools. The time made by the local team was faster than any other team in the state in Class-B competition other than Junction and Rochester, who placed first and second at the Regional meet. So it appears that one region turns up with the three fastest teams in the state. Only Junction will go to the state meet in Austin.

These boys are to be congratulated on their achievement.

Coach Behrens said there is a good possibility that the Santa Anna team will go to the state next year. Bill Jack Harris is the only senior on the team and the coach said he thought he would have a good replacement for him. Gary Patterson was the only other Santa Anna man to place in the Region meet. He took a fourth place in the Shot Put.

Bank Assets Show Slight Decrease Over Year Period

Assets of the Santa Anna National Bank show a decrease from what they were at the end of March last year. Assets at the close of business on April 20, 1953 were $1,898,130.54, compared with $2,032,645.33 at the close of business on March 31, 1952. Loans and discounts on the March 1952 date amounted to $487,735.58 compared with $524,368.00 in the statement published elsewhere in this issue of The News.

Present deposits amount to $1,720,916.44 and a year ago they amounted to $1,863,594.33, thus indicating a good financial condition for the local bank.

The good woman cannot tell a lie — unless it's ours.

City Council Hold Meeting Saturday Night

All members of the City Council were present at a meeting Saturday night, April 18. The meeting was changed from the meeting set for Monday night.

Plans for the continuation of the garbage disposal were discussed and it was decided to continue the operation as is until it can possibly be let on a contract basis. The Oath of Office was administered to Miss Bettie Blue as City Secretary; to Mace Blanton as City Marshal; and to Clifford Stephenson as City Outside Foreman.

The Council decided to make a separate charge for more than one commode being in a house, but to set the rate for each house at 75 cents, the same as it has been. They also decided not to make a sanitation charge against water meters used for the purpose of watering lots and garden alone. Also bills may be paid for less than a month charge when meters are being removed.

They decided to purchase the city gasoline on a dollar basis rather than on a three or more month basis.

Good Rain Falls On Tuesday

A good rain, amounting to .55 inch right here in town, fell over most of the county on Tuesday of this week. Reports indicate that upwards of 2 inches fell in some part of the county.

According to weather reports a more rain has been forecast for this part of the state before the end of the week.

Five Ward School Buildings To Be Sold On High Bids

Five of the buildings located on the old Ward School location will be sold to the highest bidder on Tuesday, June 2. The School Board will accept bids until Monday, June 1, on all the buildings except two: the one located next to the lunch room and the one on the far north will be retained for future improvements.

Separate bids will be accepted on the buildings and all will be sold to be removed from the school property.

Lions Den

Rev. John Lindsey of Little Rock, Ark., was the principal speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Lions Club. Rev. Lindsey is holding a revival meeting at the local Methodist Church. He discussed three primary points that would help a person to live in these trying times.

Lion Ford Barnes was appointed to head the ticket selling committee for the Lions Club Ladies Night, to be held Tuesday, May 5th, at the Ward School lunch room. No meeting of the club will be held next Tuesday at noon.

Rev. Lindsey, Rev. Gene Chamness of Gustine, and Mr. Zellers of Fort Worth, were all guests of Lion Jack Payne.

All Lions who desire to attend the Ladies Night next Tuesday, who do not have tickets, are requested to contact Lion Barnes before the end of this week.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB TO MEET FRIDAY

The Home Demonstration Club will meet Friday afternoon, May 1, in the annex of the First Christian Church, with Mrs. Clifford Stephenson and Mrs. A. L. Odar as hostesses.

Methodist Revival To Continue Through Sunday

The Spring Revival of the First Methodist Church will continue through Sunday with Rev. John W. Lindsay of Little Rock, Arkansas, doing the preaching. Rev. Gene Chamness of Gustine, Texas, is song leader of the meeting which began last Sunday.

Rev. Jack Payne, pastor of the church, reports that a splendid support has been given every phase of the evangelistic endeavor. The smallest number of men attending the 6:30 a. m. Breakfast Fellowship has been twenty-one and many visitors from other churches have been present for this unique phase of the week's activities.

Services are held each evening beginning at 7:30. A cordial welcome is extended to all visitors.

State Dept. Notifies Of Pending Release Of Missionary Zellers

Clyde E. Zellers, brother of Methodist Missionary, L. A. Zellers of Weatherford, was present in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Jack Payne this week and told of word having been received from the State Department that Lawrence A. Zellers was enroute to Moscow, Russia for eventual release to American authorities. A former message from the Board of Missions of the church that he was in American hands was evidently premature.

According to Mr. Zellers, the trip to Moscow was to take a maximum of two weeks and the return to America would be a matter of hours. Mr. Zellers has been a prisoner of the Communist forces for three months and this is the first official word received concerning him. His wife remains seriously ill in her home in Georgia. Mrs. Zellers was a visitor in Santa Anna before returning home two months ago.

MRS. J. C. MORRIS SERIOUSLY ILL

Word was received here Wednesday of the serious illness of Mrs. J. C. Morris, a former resident of Santa Anna. She is in a Dallas hospital suffering a stroke.

Mrs. Morris' home address is 319 North Polk, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. R. W. Singleton returned home last Saturday from a weeks stay in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Arnold in Abilene. A little daughter, weighing 2 lbs., and 11 oz. was born to the Arnolds at 11:30 p. m. on April 18. The little one, named Neta Lou, is getting along fine. Linda Sue Arnold came home, with Mrs. Singleton for an indefinite visit.

Arthur Dean Talley, Naval Petty Officer, who is on a 30-day leave visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Talley and Luther, will leave soon for Moffett Field, Calif. Before coming home he had spent two years on Guam.

Major and Mrs. H. A. Mooney and their 4 children visited from Friday until Sunday with her mother, Mrs. B. M. McCain and Louie. They were moving from Grand Prairie to San Antonio, where he is stationed. Murray McCain and sons, Bruce and Jack of Rankin, were also week end visitors in the McCain home.

Visitors with Mrs. R. S. Stearns and Mrs. Gifford over the past week end were: Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Holland of Brady; Mrs. Odell Stearns, Mrs. Elmer Selley, Linda, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Laughlin and Jackie, all of Brownwood; Mrs. Kingston, Mary Boencke and Nancy Jo Haynes.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Mountain City Garden Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Arthur Casey at 3 p. m. Friday afternoon, May 1st.

The final event in the school activities will be held on Friday night, May 22, when the high school senior class will hold their graduation exercises in the high school auditorium.

John Hardy Blue Goes On Field Trip To East Texas Oil Fields

John Hardy Blue, a senior student at the University of Texas and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Blue of Santa Anna, was one of a group of 25 Texas Petroleum Engineering students participating in a senior field day trip in the East Texas oil fields recently.

The group visited foundry and machine plants, drilling operations and salt water disposal units in the Lufkin area and natural gasoline plant at New London.

John Hardy will graduate this year with a BA degree in petroleum production engineering. He has been attending college for the past six years, attending two years at McMurry in Abilene and four years at the University of Texas.

Mrs. Robert Turner and a friend, Mrs. Helen Gaines, brought Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vanderford home from a visit in the Turner home. The ladies returned to their homes in Denison Monday.

Army Reserve Summer Training

AUSTIN, TEXAS ---- Due to the uncertainty of international affairs, employers of members of the U. S. Army Reserve are being urged by the Army to encourage and assist them to participate in the annual 15-day summer training programs from May to September, according to Col. M. E. Jones, Chief of the Texas Military District.

In recent years reserve units have had a high percentage of attendance through the cooperation of business and industrial employers. In some instances, vacations have been granted with pay in addition to regular vacations, or employers have made up the difference between military and civilian pay while the employees were in camp.

Employers are realizing, Col. Jones pointed out, that employees who are members of the U. S. Army Reserve have assumed certain obligations to participate in the summer field training and that they are contributing immeasurably to national security.

AAA Urges Drivers To Wear Sunglasses During Day Driving

Austin -- Viewing with concern the staggering prospect of 66 million vacationists in 32 million automobiles traveling night and day during the coming months over crowded, unfamiliar highways, Paul R. Kulp, general manager of the Texas Division of the American Automobile Association today sounded a word of warning on an item dear to every vacationing motorist -- sunglasses.

"Wear them when driving by day," the AAA official advises "but take 'em off when you're driving at night."

Studies reported by AAA safety experts show that exposure to too much bright sunlight by day results in a serious vision loss at night. By wearing sunglasses with a 12 per cent transmission during the day, but not at night, the after-dark loss of vision will be prevented.

some manufacturers that tinted glasses will improve seeing at night are "contrary to all the evidence concerning effective vision."

Visitors At U of T To See Power Show

Austin — Visitors to the University of Texas Exposition and Power Show May 7-9 may see some "wonders of nature" never witnessed down on the farm.

A crystalline tree will grow rapidly in a "chemical forest," steel balls will float in "cream," water will flow uphill and be twisted into beautiful patterns, and rocks will glow in brilliant hues when exposed to "black light" at the Power Show, scheduled 5-11 p. m., Friday, May 8.

Engineering, natural science, architecture and ROTC units will present more than 100 entertaining and educational exhibits in the Show, a feature of the University's annual open house, welcoming high school students here for the University Interscholastic League state meet.

During the three-day open house, the Main University will put all its teaching, research and public service facilities on display and have faculty members on hand in each of its 53 teaching departments to discuss course offerings, education and living costs, scholarships available and other matters of interest to prospective students.

Visitors may observe classes and attend social events with University students.

Fort Worth — Fed cattle prices reacted and well-finished steers and yearlings sold strong to 60 cents or more higher at Ft. Worth Monday. Three loads of steers scaling 1,064 pounds from Castleberry Bros., Donley County, cashed at $21.50, appeared fully 50 cents up. Two loads of steers from Post, Texas, averaged 1,166 lbs. and were lot mates to steers sold here last week. Monday they brought $20, against $19.50 a week ago.

Emphasizing the good outlet for truly fat young cattle was a shipment of Crossbred Brahma yearlings and heifers from J. E. Jones of Marquez (Leon County, Texas). These young cattle averaged just over 700 pounds and the price was $20. Creepfeeding of calves to produce beef calves comparable with these is being planned by cattlemen throughout the territory and it looks at present like the best bet since Northern feeders claim they are going into the loan with lots of their corn this year. Some sources in the Middle West are saying they feel that stocker calves and yearlings should be bought around $12 to $15 this Fall under present conditions. If such a market as that develops it will be good business for cowmen in this area to figure on selling "beef" calves by creepfeeding this Summer.

Governor Proclaims May 3-9 As State Mental Health Week

"Good mental health of all our citizens makes for a better state and a better nation," Governor Allan Shivers said in proclaiming May 3-9 as Mental Health Week and in calling upon the citizens of Texas to help in its observance.

Mental Health Week in Texas will be observed by services in the schools, by special programs in service clubs and PTA's, by visits to state hospitals and by the showing of mental health films.

Committees to assist with the Mental Health Week programs have been set up in nearly every town in Texas.

Governor Shivers urges all citizens to note this important week and to help in its observance.

Creep Feed Beef For Faster And More Uniform Gains

Beef producers can put extra pounds on their calves — faster and more efficiently — by creep feeding. That word comes from U. D. Thompson, animal husbandman for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Right now, he adds, every "trick-of-the-trade" must be used by producers if they are to realize a profit from their operations.

Creep feeding will put additional weight and finish on calves and thus increase their market value. The mother cows, nursing creep fed calves, will remain in better condition; usually less time is needed to get the calves in top market condition and they go to market before losing their bloom.

Grain prices are still high, points out Thompson, but since the cows had a pretty rough time, calves were weak when they arrived and the grain should give them a chance to overcome this condition between now and weaning time. It will also, he adds, give the cow herd a chance to more fully utilize the good range growth for getting back into top condition.

Thompson says one of the best growing feeds for calves is whole oats. Additional protein feeds may not be needed for this can be supplied by milk and grass. When calves reach four months of age, they are old enough to take on corn or milo and these two grains may be added to the oat ration.

The specialists suggests a ration of 65 lbs. of corn or milo and 35 pounds of oats for calves when they reach four months of age. When the green grazing disappears, consideration should be given, he says, to the addition of protein to the ration.

If protein is needed, Thompson suggests adding about 10 pounds of cottonseed meal to a mixture of 25 pounds of oats and 65 pounds of corn or milo. He adds that the total supply of the protein should probably never amount to more than 15 percent of the ration — with the balance grain.

Generally, he says, early calves started on creep feeders make more economical gains and learn to eat in less time than do calves started at later dates. It is not necessary, he explains, to grind the grains since young calves can efficiently utilize threshed grains. However, he adds, the older midsummer calves being creep fed should have their grain cracked or ground.

Don't, says Thompson, overlook having bonemeal and salt available at all times for the calves. He likes to locate the salt and bonemeal supplies near the creep so both cows and calves can get their necessary minerals.

Finally, he says, the local county agent can supply additional information on creep feeding including a bulletin which contains details on the subject.

Fuel Dealers Can Help Farmers To Valuable Short Cuts

Now that the spring rush is underway again, many farmers can find short cuts to save valuable working hours in the fields by having a talk with oil tank truck drivers on fuel, lubricating and maintenance requirements.

In every oil man's farm kit is the timely reminder of the need for proper tractor tuneup. This job ordinarily requires no major overhaul; only some items of minor maintenance which may be responsible for a power loss of 10 per cent or more. To regain that power loss with a proper tuneup means stepped up fuel economy and faster work. It often permits "shifting up" a gear when plowing or pulling more than one implement. These tuneup hikes in power expedite plans for time-saving hitches such as pulling two or three drills or disks at one time.

Minor maintenance for typical tuneups take two main lines. The first is the cleaning of the cooling system, air-cleaner, and tractor. The second is adjustment of valves, spark plugs, carburetor needle valve, and distributor points. Clear instructions for making these adjustments will be found in tractor manuals.

Farmers who consult with their local oil man as a regular part of their spring preparations get extra protection against disrupted work schedules at the peak of the rush season.

Coughs are Symptoms And Not Disease

A cough is just a symptom and not a disease, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. It is an indication that something is wrong in the body's respiratory tract or breathing tube.

When an object obstructs the respiratory passage a cough is nature's reflex to remove the obstruction. Such a cough is simple and transient. The same thing happens when the throat or lower passages are irritated during a cold, whooping cough, asthma, smoking, low humidity and dust.

A cough can be produced by more serious conditions such as tuberculosis or cancer. Constant coughing brings on fatigue as a person's rest is affected by the constant hacking.

A prolonged cough might indicate chronic bronchitis, a condition which in most cases is secondary to an infection elsewhere, such as the nose, throat or sinuses. Mucous draining into the throat may cause such irritation that the victim may involuntarily cough repeatedly to bring up the material.

Hoarseness is produced by persistent coughing in some persons. Hoarseness is a symptom of an inflamed larynx. Hoarseness lasting for six weeks or more is a serious symptom suggestive of cancer and must not be disregarded.

No persistent cough should be disregarded. The nature of the infection and its location may be shown by an examination of the material expelled, and a thorough examination by the family physician will determine the cause and give a basis for treatment.

What Kind Of Language Do We Use?

Wednesday night at our weekly Rockwood M. Y. F. session, we had a very interesting study on the kind of speech and language we use today. Our study was centered around "A Wholesome Tongue Is The Tree of Life." Mrs. Leon McMillan gave the introduction to our lesson, then several of the youth took part and added to the discussion. They were: Wendell Rehm, Kay Steward, Mae Williams and Patsy Rehm. We sang "Saviour Like A Shepherd Lead Us," "Marching To Zion" and "Have Thine Own Way Lord", before and after our lesson, led by Raymond Estes and accompanied by Richard Deal at the piano. Raymond also read the scriptures.

We were dismissed with our M. Y. F. benediction. There were nine members present. Visitors are always welcome to come and study with us.

Mrs. Glenn Hampton and Walter of Arch, N. M., came Sunday night for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pritchard

Interesting Letter From Germany

Editor's note: Following is a letter received recently by Mr. and Mrs. Rex Golston from their daughter and family who are in Germany.

Dearest Folks:

I want to tell you a little about Schwabisch Gmund, but words can't describe the beauty of this country. Gmund is a city of about 35,000, it doesn't look that large but people live very close together and as many as ten live in a four room flat.

Gmund dates back to the year 777 as the site of a small monastery and settlement. It is located in the Land (State) of Wuerttemberg-Baden and is in the middle of Southwestern Germany. About 30% of the population are refugees, expelled from behind the iron curtain. We are in the valley of the Rems, a branch of the Neckar River, which flows from East to West. Gmund is known as the "Silver City" with over 600 years of tradition in the art of silver and gold smithing. There are over 50 silver and gold factories located here. One of the newest industries is the Gablonz Glass which produces fine Bohemian glass ware, established by refugees of Czechoslovakia.

The people here are a deeply religious people, they are predominantly Catholic, about 65%, the rest Lutheran. There are many churches, the oldest dating back to the 11th century, built by Duke Friedrich of Hohenstaufen. He is said to have built the church as a token of gratitude for the fact that his wife's wedding ring, which she had lost during a hunting party had been recovered. The stone ornaments representing fabulous animals decorating the church and steeple, interest architectural and art experts from all countries. Another Cathedral of Gmund is the Munster, erected in the 14th century by the Parler family, it is one of the most beautiful and impressive Gothic monuments in Southern Germany.

To the North of Gmund is a natural park, the Taubental Forest, at the entrance is located the Salvator Chapel carved from one large rock. In ancient times this was used as a pagan altar. You can walk for hours in beautiful wood paths leading up to Schonblick, a health resort. To the South are the three Emperor mountains, the Rechberg is the nearest about three miles. This is where the ruins of the former castle of the Duke Rechberg is. From this castle a road with the Stations of Cross leads up to a church overlooking the entire Kreis (county), this is where we went last Sunday afternoon. People from miles around, young and old walk this, every Sunday to go to church, it is about a mile up and a beautiful sight, on a clear day you can see thirty miles. Beyond this about eight miles is Mount Hohenstaufen and the ruins of the Water Castle, the Ancestral home of the Hohenstaufen Dynasty. Southeast of Gmund is Kalte Feld the highest point of the Gmunder foothills, the best known skiing spot in this area. Here is located the Riden's chapel and an old lime tree, which is a popular place for painters and photographers. Near here is Heubach, the ruins of pre-historical caves. To the West of Gmund about four miles is Lorch and the Lorch Monastery which contains the tombs of the Hohenstaufen Kings.

In this place are traces of the old Roman wall built 2000 years ago. All these places you can drive to the foot of the mountain and park, only a foot path on up.

Everything is on top of a mountain and the one we live on is the only one with a road you can drive to the top. From our windows we can see all of this but we have to walk everywhere to see anything. We have enjoyed seeing all of this but we wish for the sight of Santa Anna Mountain.

There is much farming done in this part of Germany, and they use every available space, very few people have tractors or horses, most of them use cows and the women do most of the hard work. The vegetables and fruit are good and plentiful and they have them the year round.

The forests are as clean as most yards in U. S. A., along the rivers and streams are kept clean and are lined with rocks. No one is allowed to cut a tree unless he is given permission and then has to plant one to take its place.

Gmund was not bombed during the war as was near by Gappenger and Stuttgart, it was surrendered to American forces in 1945. Many people are bitter toward Americans and want us to go home but most would rather us stay as they say they were starving when our troops moved in, now about 400 from Gmund are employed by the U. S. government and many profit from what we spend in the stores.

Our government has to pay dearly for the buildings we use and the land we occupy. The German government pays for the buildings we occupy, but we in turn pay enough rent back to them that they profit many times the cost.

Maybe this will give you an idea of our surrounding and how nice it is, but we'd rather see Coleman County any day.

Lots of love,
Lenora, Evelyn and Paul.

Parent's Day Set At Tarleton State

Stephenville — Tarleton State College will hold its annual Parent's Day here May 3.

Starting at 9 a. m. on the college drill field will be the coronation of the Tarleton queen. This will be followed by a review of the cadet corps by Major General Albert Sidney Johnson, Commander of the 49th Armored Division, Texas National Guard. On the afternoon program is a band concert in Hunewell Park, open house in all departments of the college, and a reception for visitors in the parlor of the girls' dormitory.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Priest and children of Olton spent several days at the week end with the home folks here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. (Jack) Shields and family have moved from Mountain Ave. to the T. A. Mills home on Ave. A.

DRAFT LAW AND REGULATIONS

(Editor's note: Following is one of a series of articles concerning the Draft Laws and Regulations of the nation and information to men of draft age.)

It is a local draft board's responsibility, under law and regulations, to decide, subject to appeal, the class in which each man registered with it shall be placed.

Each registrant is considered as available for military service until his eligibility for deferment or exemption from military service is clearly established to the satisfaction of the local board.

The board is obligated to receive all pertinent information on classification presented to it, says Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state draft director.

Mailing by the local board of a classification questionnaire to the latest address furnished by a registrant is notice to the registrant that he will be classified in I-A, unless information is presented to the local board, within the time specified for return of the questionnaire, which will justify his deferment or exemption.

Unless the local board gives him added time, the registrant must return the questionnaire filled out within 10 days from date it was mailed.

The state draft director points to this paragraph in the Selective Service Regulations which the board must always keep in mind:

"In classifying a registrant there shall be no discrimination for or against him because of his race, creed, or color, or because of his membership or activity in any labor, political, religious, or other organization. Each such registrant shall receive equal justice."

State Accepts Five National 4-H Awards Programs For 1953

4-H Club members in this State will be eligible to participate in five 1953 national awards programs offering medals of honor, all-expense trips to the Chicago 4-H Club Congress next November, and $300 college scholarships, the State Club office has announced.

The programs and donors are: Farm and Home Electric, Westinghouse Educational Foundation; Field Crops, International Harvester; Girls' Record, Montgomery Ward; Poultry, Dearborn Motors, and Tractor Maintenance, Stanolind Oil and Gas Co.

With steadily increasing participation in these programs during the last five years, it is estimated that in 1953, 100,000 members will enroll in Farm and Home Electric, 328,000 in Field Crops, 1 million in Girls' Record, 220,000 in Poultry, and 68,000 in Tractor Maintenance.

All five programs are conducted under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service. County Extension Agents will furnish complete information.

How To Give Needed First Aid

"First aid" should be truly AID and should not harm the patient.

There are very few real emergencies, that is, conditions which if unchecked may cause death. Too much or prolonged bleeding, lack of breath, or poisoning are three in which it is necessary to act fast and do the right thing.

First aid usually doesn't involve extensive treatment. For the inexperienced, some don'ts might be memorized. (1) Don't move the patient unless danger exists in leaving him where he is; consider the use of splints if he must be moved. (2) Don't waste time treating minor wounds if he has deeper injuries. (3) Don't force fluids if he is unconscious. (4) Don't give whiskey as a stimulant, as a rule. (5) Don't use a tourniquet if bleeding can be controlled by other means.

In most cases, it will be enough to keep the patient quiet and warm, relieve pain as much as possible, and reassure him while the doctor or ambulance is on the way. When the doctor is called he should be informed where the patient is, how serious his wounds are, what kind of first aid equipment is available, and what treatment (if any) is being given. Accurate directions for reaching the patient must be given or valuable time may be lost.

What if an unconscious, unidentified patient is found lying in the street? Assuming there had been no traffic accident or apparent injury, the good Samaritan would be wise to call (1) a doctor or ambulance and (2) a policeman. Even supposing the victim is an epileptic or diabetic patient who carries a card stating what should be done and the name of his doctor, a search might be interpreted as an attempt at robbery. Also, the right kind of treatment might take a medical expert.

Another reason for calling the legal authorities is the possibility of attempted murder or suicide. All traffic accidents should be reported, of course.

Once the patient has been identified, his next of kin should be notified and his own doctor, if another physician hasn't already been called. The patient's head and shoulders should be lowered when possible so that if he vomits his breathing won't be cut off or the stage set for pneumonia. If the victim regains consciousness, he may be able to tell what should be done for him, such as giving him a piece of candy or other sweets if he is diabetic.

To stop bleeding, one of the following methods should be tried: (1) Press against the wound, using a freshly ironed handkerchief or sterile gauze. (2) Press the fingers against the blood vessel above the wound as it crosses a bone. (3) Tie a tourniquet (a band of some kind, such as a handkerchief, tie, belt) around the limb to cut off the circulation. Loosen it every thirty minutes to see if bleeding has stopped and keep it in sight so that it will not be forgotten.

If the patient quits breathing, remove any obvious cause such as a heavy piece of metal on the chest, any foreign object in the mouth (loose teeth, dentures), or tight clothing. Do not place your fingers between his teeth because the bite that may result may be dangerous and troublesome. If these measures fail, start artificial respiration and keep it up until the patient begins and continues to breathe naturally.

For suspected poisoning, search the patient's surroundings to find out whether he took or was given poison and if so, what kind. Give several glasses of water to dilute the substance, make the patient vomit, and give the antidote if it is known. One exception in which vomiting should not be induced is if a strong acid or alkali has been swallowed, because the stomach wall may rupture.

So that first aid may be given promptly after an accident, a kit should be kept in the home or camp, automobile, and office or factory. A good kit will contain at least a first aid manual, eye pads, large and small sterile gauze squares, finger dressings, adhesive tape, absorbent cotton, rubbing alcohol, baking soda, aromatic spirits of ammonia, an antiseptic, a burn ointment such as petroleum jelly, three 2 inch roller bandages, and two triangle bandages made of muslin or other strong material. In addition, a good flashlight should be carried in the car.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Goen returned home Monday noon, from Richland Springs, where they had gone on Thursday for a visit with relatives. On Sunday they and Mrs. Goen's brother, Jim Lafferty and wife, visited with Jesse Goen and family in Austin.

Dove Outlook Reported Good

Austin — The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission said reports generally indicate promising hatching conditions for mourning doves in Texas.

He said field studies show a high dove population at this time but added that some of the birds apparently are merely stopping over enroute to northern nesting areas.

"The present population of mourning doves indicates that we should have another good hatch of birds, particularly if moisture conditions continue to improve," said the Executive Secretary. "Of course, there are many deterrents. Any trend toward violent weather would be costly since the flimsy dove nests, containing eggs or young are vulnerable to the elements."

The Director of Wildlife Restoration for the Commission (W. C. Glazener) said field observations "are very promising." He noted one unusually heavy concentration of mourning doves in the Alpine area as described by Flying Game Warden Frank Hamer. The Director said it had not been determined whether the doves were transient or part of the permanent population.

The Director added that the current healthy condition of the mourning dove flocks has accelerated the banding program. He said an increasing number of individuals are assisting warden and other field men in this vital routine "since they realize the profound effect banding has on efforts to learn more about migration and other habits of doves."

The Womens Council of the First Christian Church will meet in the home of Mrs. L. O. Garrett on Wednesday afternoon, May 6th, at 2:30 p. m.

Public Urged To Keep Hands Off Wildlife

Austin — The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission asked the populace to "keep their distance" during the Animal Kingdom's rearing season.

He said Texans can contribute mightily to the wildlife family by not trying to make pets of wild creatures or by trying to domesticate eggs of any kind.

"The sad part of the mistakes people make in molesting the birds and beasts," said the Executive Secretary, "is that they think they are helping out. Well, there are rare cases when they can. I repeat these cases are very rare.

"Any baby animal or bird deserves a chance to be restored to its natural protectors, if it actually does get lost or does seem to need help. People see stray creatures, such as a fawn. Maybe they are overwhelmed by an irresistible impulse to 'save' the fawn. Generally if left alone, the animal will be found by its mother. Of course there are extraordinary instances where the mother deer is killed by a car, or some such, where a fawn may be saved. But even then if they do survive and are raised as pets, they usually become a nuisance and sometimes harmful. Furthermore, it is unlawful to pick up fawns."

The Executive Secretary said taking or handling or even "looking at" wild bird eggs may be disastrous. Some birds, such as wild turkey, will not return to a nest which has even been approached by humans. He added that although eggs placed under a domestic bird do hatch, the incident merely circumvents nature since anything hatched under such circumstances invariably is lost to the cause of wildlife.

Mrs. Dot Moore returned to her home in Cisco Saturday after a stay of several weeks in Santa Anna. She was a patient for awhile in the Santa Anna Hospital and later visited in the home of her brother, Jack Mobley and family.

Others from here going to the funeral services were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Neeley Evans, Mrs. Jimmy Clett and Molly.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy White and children were in Brownwood Sunday, where his mother, Mrs. Dora White was being given a birthday dinner. About 30 members of the family attended the gathering which was held at Brownwood Lake View Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Flores of California are here visiting his sister, Mrs. Sam McCray and family and other relatives in this area.

Mrs. W. P. Burris and her daughter, Mrs. Fred Brusenhan, are back in their home, on Ave. A., after being away for several months. Mrs. Burris has been staying in the home of her son, Loyd Burris and wife, and though well up in her nineties, has been getting along fine. Mrs. Brusenhan, who has not been well, was for a time in Houston, but in recent months, has been with her daughter, Mrs. Lunsford in Coleman. She is much improved.

Stovall - Eubank Wedding Announced

The engagement of Miss Shirley Gayle Stovall to Mr. Max Windel Eubank was announced on Saturday, April 25th when Mrs. Cecil Stovall and Mrs. Jim Gill entertained with a tea at Taylor Tea Room in Coleman. The sixth of June was disclosed as the date for the formal wedding which will be solemnized in the Church of Christ, Coleman.

Mrs. Jim Gill greeted guests at the door. In the receiving line were Mrs. Stovall, the honoree, and Mrs. Ozro Eubank.

The bride-elect's colors, pink and green, were used in the dining room. The table was covered with a lace cloth over pink suede paper. A large silver engagement ring with small pink roses in a nest of net, representing the stones, in an arrangement of pink roses and snappdragons on a green base formed the centerpiece. Pink ribbon streamers extending from the top of the ring were imprinted with the words "Shirley and Max, June 6". Green tapers completed the table appointments. Other arrangements of pink roses and snappdragons were used for the occasion.

Mrs. James Eubank and Mrs. Tommy Saunders served punch. Others assisting in the dining room were Misses Ann Moody, Lillian Miller, Marilyn Nowlin, Barbara Golson and Glenda Cullins.

Miss Mariana Wilson and Mrs. Edward Rankin registered guests in a satin-covered book ornamented with a bouquet of pink ribbon roses in a nest of net. Tied onto pink and green ribbons extending from the bouquet were an engagement ring and a wedding ring.

Mary Glen Fleming and Ruth Watson played piano selections during the afternoon and accompanied Jane Griffin, soloist. Mrs. Joe K. Taylor and Mrs. Earl D. Byrd said good-byes.

Miss Stovall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stovall of Coleman. She is a senior student in Coleman High School, a member of the National Honor Society, and business manager of the annual. She was a "Miss C.H.S." nominee twice and was runner-up for that honor this year.

Mr. Eubank, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ozro Eubank, of Santa Anna is a graduate of Santa Anna High School. He attended A & M two years, and is now a student in Texas Tech College at Lubbock.

Ninety guests called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Bill Melton of New Mexico, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. James Dockery, and they have visited relatives in Comanche and other places.

Mrs. J. L. Williams Honoree At Party

On Sunday, April 26th, Mrs. John L. Williams was honored in her home with a "Happy Birthday" luncheon, a courtesy of her children. Mrs. Williams, who was quite ill for awhile, has steadily improved and enjoyed the occasion greatly. She was the recipient of many gifts including a tea towel shower, by the members of her S. S. class.

The observance included a huge birthday cake iced in white and decorated with pink roses, which was the gift of her son, Doyle, of Santa Anna.

Other members of the family present or having a part in the observance were: Mr. Williams and Patty of Santa Anna; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Avery and their 5 children and Mrs. Floyd Kemnitz of Abilene. Two of the Avery children, Charlene and James, very talented singers, sang "Happy Birthday Mama Dollie," and a group of sacred songs. Making the day complete, Mrs. Williams' son, Jimmy, stationed at Alexandria, La., called by phone and wished her a "Happy Birthday."

Friends who were present to enjoy the occasion and to add to the happiness of the honoree were, Mrs. W. A. Featherston, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McKnown, Mrs. Kathryn Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. House, Barbara and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mulroy, all of Santa Anna and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Horton of Slaton.

Mrs. Bryan Hostess To R'wood WSCS

The Woman's Society of Christian Service (WSCS) met in a social meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Tom Bryan. Mrs. Don Jopling and Mrs. Bryan had charge of the recreation.

Punch and cookies were served to Mrs. A. L. Crutcher, Mrs. Blake Williams, Mrs. J. C. Ferguson, Mrs. Sam Estes, Mrs. M. D. Bryan, Mrs. Don Jopling, Mrs. J. T. Avants, Mrs. J. A. Hunter, Mrs. Woodrow Estes, Mrs. Uless Maness, Mrs. Jack Bostick, Mrs. Marcus Johnson, Mrs. Bill Rehm, Mrs. John Hunter and the hostess, Mrs. Bryan.

Oliver Circle Met With Mrs. Boggus

The Oliver Circle of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. J. L. Boggus Monday afternoon, April 27. An interesting program on "Women Missionaries in Training School Overseas" was rendered by the following: Mmes. D. R. Hill, Dovie Chapman, J. L. Boggus, and Seth Risinger. Others present were Mmes. J. R. Watkins, J. F. Goen, Wallace, Dennis Kelley, John Brown and Miss Alta Lovelady.

Self Culture Club Met At Library Fri.

The Self Culture Club had an interesting, and quite well attended, meeting on Friday afternoon, April 24th, in the City Library, which the club sponsored the organization of, and has continued to sponsor.

Mrs. R. C. Gay, the president, was in charge. Mrs. Norval Wylie read the new or amended Constitution and By-Laws, which were accepted.

Other business was attended to including the 50th Anniversary of the club which will be held in the library on Friday afternoon, May 22nd. Committees have been appointed for the various features of the observance. Program will include a historical skit.

Former members of the club living in this vicinity will be invited. The observance will also include social features and an antique and hobby show. Officers for the next two years will also be installed at that time.

The program for last Friday was based on "Writers Too Good to Miss." The following members discussed some of these writers: Miss Dora Kirkpatrick, H. M. Tomlinson; Mrs. M. D. Pinkerton, Sholan Asch; Mrs. Gay, William Beebe; and Mrs. Nona Woodruff, George Santanya. Mrs. Woodruff also discussed Robert Sherwood and his writings, for Mrs. C. L. Eeds, who was out of town.

The next meeting on May 8th, will be in the home of Mrs. M. D. Pinkerton, when a program on Contemporary Biographers will be given.

Mrs. Billy Woods Honored With Tea

Mrs. C. V. Drennon and Mrs. J. E. Howard were hostesses at a miscellaneous gift tea at the Drennon home on Tuesday afternoon, April 21st.

Mrs. Billy Woods, who before her recent marriage, was Miss Billy Ruth Mathews, was the honoree.

Flower arrangements were of pastel pink, orchid and white snappdragons and iris.

Mrs. Lois Henderson met the guests at the door, and in the receiving line were the honoree, Mrs. Billy Woods, her mother, Mrs. R. W. Mathews, the groom's mother, Mrs. D. D. Woods, Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Drennon.

Annabelle Price presided at the white leather bride's book, gift of the groom's parents.

Alternating in serving the guests were Betty Scott, Shirley Lewellen, Sandra James, Bobbie Parish and Jo Ann Dunn.

The tea table was laid with a hand made white linen cloth. All appointments were of crystal. The centerpiece was a lovely arrangement of baby pink carnations in green crystal, the bride's chosen colors.

Gifts were displayed by Mrs. Lonnie Knutson and Carolyn Woods, sisters of the groom, Mrs. J. A. Dunn and Mrs. Vernon Campbell.

Others in the house party were Mrs. Luther McCrary, Mrs. Buster Woodard and Mrs. Roy West.

Local WSCS Met With Mrs. Golston

Members of the W. S. C. S. met Monday in the home of Mrs. Rex Golston, president, for a final session on the study of Africa. Mrs. Hardy Blue, secretary of missionary education, was in charge of the program. Miss Elsie Lee Harper gave the

Rockwood WMS Holds Bible Study

The Woman's Missionary Society (WMS) met at the Rockwood Baptist Church Monday afternoon in Bible Study, using the text, Women of Destiny. Mrs. F. E. McCreary, Sr., was in charge of the service. Others present were Mrs. Lon Gray, Mrs. Ray Steward, Mrs. Goldie Milburger, Mrs. Evan Wise, Mrs. J. W. Box and 2 visitors, Mrs. J. S. McLean and Mrs. Bailey.

Mrs. Fleming Host To Trickham HDC

The Trickham H. D. Club met on Wednesday afternoon, April 22nd, in the home of the president, Mrs. Charles Flemings, who presided.

Ten members were present. Pledge and prayer were led by Mrs. Jack Dockery and songs were led by Mrs. Oscar Boenicke. Each member answered roll call by naming her favorite salad. Mrs. J. E. Williams directed the recreation.

Plans were made for the H. D. Week exhibit, which will be May 4th, also plans were made for several members to attend the District Meeting at Menard on April 23rd.

The Council report was given by Mrs. Albert Dean.

After a short business session, Mrs. Flemings, the program leader for the day, gave a demonstration on making salads.

Salads should be wholesome, economical and attractive, Mrs. Flemings stated.

Five different kinds of salads were demonstrated and served.

The next meeting will be at the Trickham Club Room with Mrs. Felton Martin hostess.

Mrs. Emmet Day Heads State Optometric Auxiliary

Mrs. Emmett Day of Kaufman, formerly of Santa Anna, was elected President of the Texas Optometric Auxiliary, when the Association met in Austin last week. She was pictured in dailies with the outgoing president and the Auxiliary Convention Chairman. Mrs. Day's husband is an optometrist and so was her father.

During the several years the Days lived in Santa Anna, during the 30's, Mr. and Mrs. Day, Robert and George, made many friends.

Known as a very efficient woman, Mrs. Day's friends will be glad to know her abilities are being recognized.

It's probably true that all things come to him who waits; but we're inclined to believe that they are likely to come too late to do any good.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Scripture: Acts 18:23-21:14.
Devotional Reading: I Corinthians 3:10-15.

A Minister

Lesson for May 3, 1953

GOING up in a canal-boat to the interior of China or somewhere, stopping now and then to preach a sermon and distribute some Testaments and then showing along to the next stop—this is some people's idea of foreign missions, but it won't do. It isn't the way the best work has been done. And it most certainly is not the New Testament way of spreading the Gospel. St. Paul, for instance, traveled many a mile, and he is known for his "missionary journeys." But an examination of the New Testament story shows that his journeys were mostly stops, some of them right long ones. Paul believed not only in preaching the Good News but in establishing churches. He stayed in Corinth a year and a half, and in Ephesus two whole years. He left going congregations behind him at both places, and he kept up with them, for years.

Dr. Foreman

Minister

All sorts of names are given to ministers. Some call them "Reverend," a title hanging over from the Middle Ages and one that most ministers, to tell the truth, would just as soon not have. Some call them "Preacher," and they do preach; but few ministers preach for more than two or three hours out of the 168 hours in the week. A bigger word and a better word is just "Minister." This is a word St. Paul used about himself, and it was not original with him. Our Lord used it of himself. Our English language rather conceals the fact that the word means "One who serves," for in the Greek that Paul used, the word "serve" and the word "minister" are almost the same. Minister does not mean "servant" in the cap-and-apron, hired-man sense of the word. It does mean one who is of service. There is one country minister in North Carolina, much loved by his people, who not only preaches and cares for the souls of his people but who has shown them how to raise strawberries better than were ever grown in those parts before. He spells Service in letters that spread over all of life.

Teacher

If all you get out of church is a "good feeling," you don't get what was intended, or else your minister isn't quite up to his job. The minister who takes St. Paul for his model will be a teacher and not simply a preacher. We know that Paul at Ephesus taught in the lecture-hall of Tyrannus every week-day, perhaps Sundays too. The good minister's sermons will be a kind of education; but he does not stop there. The minister can't teach all the classes in Sunday School but he can see to it that the Sunday school selects good teachers. He can oversee the whole business of religious education in his church, check on what is being done, help to plan with the teachers and other workers, see that the teachers have a chance to attend training classes, help build up the Sunday school library... there is hardly any end to what the minister can do as a teacher, if he has half a mind in that direction. Above all, the minister is the Bible teacher.

Pastor

When all is said and done, however, there is no finer word than Pastor, and no higher word than what he does. There simply is not anywhere any institution except the Christian church that has anything like the place and work of the pastor. An old-fashioned name for this is the "cure of souls" and that never meant just the cure of sick souls, but also the care of souls to keep them from being sick. Paul, when he was reviewing his work in the church at Ephesus, could have mentioned some of the startling and sensational events which Luke mentions in chapter 19. Instead, Paul describes his own day-to-day, door-to-door work as pastor of his people. To put it as simply as possible, the pastor brings God into the lives of his people, and brings his people to God. While the minister may have a salary, as in most churches he does, he can never be paid for what he does as pastor. How can we pay a man in money for comfort and warning and faith and strength, that we would not have known without his help?

IMPORTANCE OF PREVENTIVE LAW EXPLAINED

Can you afford legal protection and guidance? Certainly you can! Competent, responsible legal service is within the reach of everyone.

A lawyer bases his fees upon the benefit you receive from his services and upon the time and effort he has expended in your behalf. But beyond this, if you can't afford to pay the customary fee, this fact is taken into consideration by the lawyer in fixing his fee. He assumes as his first responsibility the duty of seeing that every member of the community is able to secure a lawyer's service when in needs of them.

Preventive law — legal guidance to avoid errors and prevent lawsuits — is reasonable in cost. It is far less expensive than the cost of trying to rectify mistakes after they have been made.

Here is an example: Mr. N. was transferred by his company and needed a house. He finally found one, an old one in poor repair. The owner told him he could have the house on a 2 year lease if he would "fix it up." Mr. N. took the owner at his word, had the house painted and repaired and moved in.

Less than 3 months later he received notice to vacate. The owner had sold the house over his head.

Mr. N. then sought legal advice — only to discover too late that he should have had a written lease describing the length and terms of his occupancy. Mr. N. now feels like "kicking himself." He could so easily have saved himself the annoyance and expense of litigation now necessary to establish such rights as he may have.

Another example: Miss H., a business woman, lived happily in her own home. She wanted a friend to have her property upon her death. Miss H., believing she knew how to accomplish her wishes, prepared a deed to the friend, signed it and placed it in her safety deposit box. Having made the deed, she made no will.

But her friend did not get the property upon the death of Miss H. Title did not pass because the deed had not been delivered during Miss H's lifetime. A deed is never effective so long as the grantor may recall it at his option. This is one distinguishing feature between a deed and a will, which may be changed or revoked at any time before death of the maker. Today several of Miss H's distant relatives are suing each other over the property.

PEANUT MARKETING PROGRESS

Now they've done it! They've taken the peanut taste out of the peanut.

Are you one of the old-fashioned persons who likes peanut butter? Get "hep" neighbor! The modern peanut, aided by a little nutritional hokus - pokus, may soon be available in orange, maple and chocolate flavors. Or for you gourmets who love mexican food — how about a chili flavored peanut snack?

You would hardly recognize the origin of the two "chang-lings" called "Peanut Snack" and "Peanut Spread." The products were developed with the aid of the Production and Marketing Administration to create new demands and outlets for the lowly peanut. Preliminary studies show the products are popular with the consumers.

This should be good news for growers around Gorman and other peanut areas of Texas. The yearly demand for peanuts has been known to vary to such a degree that sometimes we can get as much as $9,580,000 for our crop, as in 1952. Yet, growers can remember other times when the market was so bad that it was more profitable to feed the crop to the hogs. Any new developments which catch the public fancy will give more strength to peanut sales.

Research and marketing officials may have hit a jackpot on this latest revamping of the peanut. Sales reports indicate the "new look" in peanuts proved more popular in some test areas than the old reliable peanut butter.

Supplies of the new products are not generally available yet.

It may be some months before studies are complete and the products appear on the grocery shelves. But once they do, you may buy "Peanut Snack" in orange, maple and chili flavors, packed in a cellophane roll for slicing like bologna. "Peanut Spread" will have the consistency of peanut butter for cracker or bread sandwiches.

Yet, no matter whether you slice it or spread it, the peanut industry may get a shot in the arm.

When the county tax collector intends to sell real property for taxes, it is his responsibility first to publish in a newspaper information about the sale. Texas law says:

"In making sales of real property for taxes, the Collector shall advertise the same for sale in some newspaper published in the county where the land is to be sold, for three successive weeks, if there be one; and the publisher of such newspaper shall receive as compensation the legal rate of Two (2) cents per word for the first insertion of such publication and One Cent per word for each subsequent insertion or such newspaper shall be entitled to charge for such publication at a rate equal to but not in excess of the lowest published word or line rate of that newspaper for classified advertising, and such fee shall be taxed as other costs of sale against such land, and the Comptroller shall allow the Collector such fee to be paid by the Collector to the newspaper in each case where the land is bid in and sold to the State. If there be no newspaper published in the county, or, there being a newspaper published in the county and the publisher thereof refuses to publish the advertisement at the price herein fixed, then the advertisement shall be made by posting the same for thirty (30) days previous to the day of sale, at the courthouse door and three other public places in the county where the land or lots are situated, giving in said advertisement such description as is given to the same on the tax rolls in his hands, stating the name of the owner if known, and if unknown say "unknown", together with the time, place, and terms of sale; said sale to be for cash, to the highest bidder, at public outcry at the courthouse door, and between legal hours, on the first Tuesday of the month."

Austin — The Legislature seemed ready to boost teachers' salaries last week. Already the Senate has voted a $600 increase for the teachers. The House moved in the same direction.

Where is the money coming from?

That's a good question — the one that kept the House from taking final action on the teacher pay increase.

On Second Reading, the House passed a $600 per year pay raise for the teachers. Then heard Representative Lamar Zivley of Temple, sponsor of the measure, say, "Whoa, slow down. We've got to pass a Tax Bill."

The Legislators have passed a General Appropriations Bill, providing for the expenditures of the state for the next two years.

That Bill takes up all the money in sight. If the State is going to spend any more money, there will have to be new taxes to raise it.

The State guarantees teachers minimum pay of $2,400 per year. The bill being considered by the Legislature would give them $3,000.

To do that, there would have to be additional state revenue of something like $60 million to $70 million for the next two years.

One prospect for getting the money was a tax on gathering natural gas. That tax was passed by the last session of the Legislature, but it was challenged by the gas companies, and is now being tested in the courts.

If the tax is found to be constitutional, the Treasury will get about $45 million. That would be enough to start the program for increased teachers' pay.

But if the Legislature passed a pay boost for the teachers without providing the money in some manner it would, as Governor Allan Shivers has said, be an "empty gesture."

Opposed to the Zivley Bill was Representative Joe Burkett of Kerrville, who said "This proposition has started off all wrong. I'm opposed to this Legislature telling the school boards you can't hire anybody unless you pay them what we tell you."

Burkett argues that "The people up there in my county in the Forks of the Creek know better what's good for them than anybody in this Legislature."

At 1 A. M. the Senate lacked a quorum, so Texas Rangers and Austin police had to round up enough members to supply the necessary number — at 3 a. m. Adjournment came at 4:15.

Another proposed constitutional amendment had smoother going. The joint resolution calling for it, by Senator Jep Fuller of Port Arthur, was passed by both Houses and signed by the Governor.

The amendment, if voted by the people, would lengthen the terms of district, county, and precinct elective officers to four years instead of the present two years.

That was the first proposed constitutional change to be passed during the present Legislative Session.

Still in the news was District Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin of Alice, who was investigated by a State Bar Committee and by a Senate Committee.

Elected last year with the help of political boss George Parr, Judge Laughlin has been in trouble ever since. Recently a Jim Wells County Grand Jury complained to Governor Shivers that the Judge placed stumbling blocks in the way of its investigations.

Specifically, the Grand Jury referred to its inquiry into the killing of Jacob S. Floyd Jr. shot down in his garage. Floyd's father claimed that the slaying was a mistake and that he was the intended victim, not his son.

The same Grand Jury indicted Judge Laughlin for selling his law library to the county for a price that was said to be too high. The Judge re-purchased the books and the case was dropped.

Directors of the State Bar Association heard a report on Judge Laughlin's activities when they met in Dallas, end of the week. The report was made by a special investigating committee headed by J. G. Davis of Huntsville. It started, among other things, that certain acts of the Judge were "reprehensible in every respect." The Board asked the legislature to investigate and prescribe "suitable punishment."

Then a resolution was introduced in the legislature to remove Judge Laughlin from office. This can be done by a rarely-used process called an "address." Two-thirds of the members of both the House and Senate have to approve it before the governor is required to remove the Judge.

Burkett is author of a bill that would repeal the Gilmer-Aikin Law.

"The Gilmer-Aikin Program, the foundation fund, is socialism from the beginning," Burkett said at a committee meeting.

Under the Gilmer-Aikin Program, the state guarantees a basic standard of education to every child, regardless of whether he lives in a poor or a rich district.

Burkett's Bill would distribute state money to the schools without regard to the financial status of the various districts. The committee voted favorably on the bill.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a Bill giving greater power to the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Representative Obie Bristow of Big Spring is author of the bill, which gives the Board specific authority to close down indecent taverns for a number of stated reasons such as lack of running water, contributions to political campaigns by the tavern owner, conditions contrary to the health, peace, morals and safety of people, and so on.

The Liquor Board is empowered to police beer and liquor establishments, and its officers work along that line, with the co-operation of local law enforcement people.

The Board issues permits and licenses to establishments which sell liquor, wine, and beer, and cancels those licenses for violations of the State Liquor Laws.

The Board is the collecting agency for state taxes on alcoholic beverages. Resulting funds go to pay teachers, old age pensions, and other state expenses.

Also passed by the House was a bill authorizing judges to send narcotics addicts to hospitals, to stay there until pronounced cured by their doctors.

Support for Texas and the other states interested in the Tidelands came from various state governors attending a meeting of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission at New Orleans.

The Commission, said Governor Edward Arn of Kansas,

Governor C. Norman Brundage of North Dakota voiced apprehension that the Federal Government's doctrine of "Paramount Rights" to the oil-rich tidelands could apply to navigable rivers and lakes.

Stalled by a filibuster in the Senate was a proposed constitutional amendment to authorize the taxation of public water use, the revenue to go for conservation projects.

Senators Rogers Kelley of Edinburg and George Moffett of Chillicothe teamed up to hold the floor for 14 hours and prevent Senate consideration of the proposal.

The Senators' subject was a resolution calling for recognition of San Jacinto Day, but they referred to the water measure as an "Insidious Tax."

Whon News

By MRS. TOM RUTHERFORD

WHON, TEXAS

PLEASE LEAVE NEWS ITEMS AT WHON POST OFFICE

I want to thank Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter of the Rockwood Community, who helped us work in the Whon Cemetery so faithfully Saturday. We had very little help, but the few worked hard and made a good showing. Those of each of us (including all who have graves there) want to especially say "Thank each of you who worked who have no relatives in the cemetery here. Also thanks to the Gill Ranch who sent a tractor and two hands for the day. We hope to keep improving "Our Little City of the Dead", and not let it throw a wrong reflection on the living in our little community. "THANK YOU".

Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Smith and boys of Iraan, spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith and Mr. and Mrs. George Rutherford and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cozart were Sunday visitors in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Maness in Brownwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Etoile Cozart and Dwan were shopping in Brownwood Saturday.

Vonnie Adkins of Santa Anna, spent Wednesday night with Patsy Rutherford.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Shields and boys of Colorado City, were greeting friends in Whon Thursday and visited in the Tom Rutherford home.

Mr. and Mrs. Granvil Hext of Gouldbusk, spent Thursday with his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Babe Gardainer.

Mr. and Mrs. Disk McFarlin and sons of Odessa, have recently been visiting in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Riley McFarlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cozart visited with Mr. and Mrs. Babe Gardainer Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rutherford visited with Mr. and Mrs. Elac Cooper and children in Rockwood Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Martin of Coleman spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith went to Brownwood Sunday to attend a birthday dinner in the home of a sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alenzo Hawkins, honoring their mother, Mrs. Dosa White.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Turney and children spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Turney.

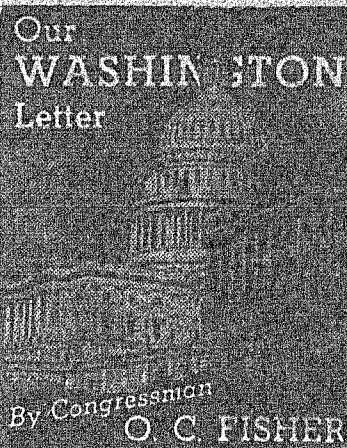

Norma Jo Eubank of Santa Anna, spent a few days with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bengé.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Black of Brownwood, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carter.

Patsy June Rutherford was the senior from our community who went to Abilene Saturday with the Santa Anna Seniors, reporting a fine time on the McMurry Campus. Patsy is the only senior from our little community this year.

While the Senate was bogged down in a filibuster against the House approved a major appropriations bill, condemned socialized housing by a thumping majority of 245 to 157, and listened to a request from President Eisenhower for the admission of 240,000 more European refugees over and above the present quota allotments.

The "give away" Senators talked and they talked. They want to give away to the Federal government some submerged lands within the historic boundaries of the States — and without the consent of those who would do the giving, namely, the States. Perhaps it would be more proper to label them the "take away" Senators. This philosophy blends in very well with the usual advocates of Big Government in Washington and the free spenders of the taxpayers money. The House action in refusing to allow 35,000 more public housing units to be started during the next fiscal year was decisive, but a hard fight remains in the Senate. These advocates of public housing want Uncle Sam to pay the equivalent of about one-half of the rent bills each month for the favored few who would be selected to occupy them. Already some 200,000 of these units have been built at a cost of more than $4 billion. If 800,000 are built, as advocated, the bill would total more than $16 billion. And if 10 million should be built (the number needed if all people in the same so-called low-income brackets are treated alike) the ultimate cost would be more than $160 billion.

In the House the majority of the Democrats, unfortunately, voted against this attempt to help balance the budget. It is to be hoped the Democratic party will not pursue this policy, because the American people have shown themselves, time and time again, to be opposed to un-sound socialistic experiments and to reckless and non-essential spending.

The President's request for a law that would allow 240,000 additional immigrants from Europe ran into a lot of opposition in Congress. Many of us feel that the U. S. has already done more than its share about taking in European refugees. What Europe is suffering from, from that standpoint, is over-population. We are simply in no position to absorb the overflow resulting from the European birth rate. It would be an endless task and one which would inevitably weaken our Republic. Already we have admitted (my vote to the contrary, however) 339,000 of the Displaced Persons in Europe. That represented more than one-third of the DP pool over there, and it represents more than our share of settling those people. The President's request to admit 240,000 more of them should be denied. Such a continuing policy is fraught with grave danger.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gregg went to San Antonio on Thursday of last week and visited with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Gregg and children. Mr. Gregg also attended the South Texas Press Association meeting and all of them enjoyed the Battle of Flowers on Friday. Over the week end all the group went to Bishop to visit a daughter, Mrs. J. B. Jones and family. They returned home Monday.

Mrs. Lillie Ray, Mrs. Carl Ray and Terry, are visiting this week in Temple with Carl, and relatives.

The good things come to those who hustle while they wait.

Highway Dept. To Increase Height of Road Signs in Texas

The Texas Highway Department has reached a new height in highway signing, D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, announced today. Greer said existing signs will gradually be replaced by taller ones 3 1/2 feet high measured from the pavement level to the bottom of the sign. The present signs range from 18 to 24 inches in height.

The reason for this change-over, Greer continued, is to reduce the maintenance cost and to increase readability and visibility, especially during the growing season when native flora often interferes with or partially covers the present low signs if not mowed frequently. In the spring, for example, we sow and cultivate wild flowers along the roadside and in order for these flowers to reseed, it is necessary to permit them to reach maturity. However, this is impossible in areas where low signs are in use since the flowers would hide the signs. Greer said that in wet weather, vehicles continually splashed mud on the present low signs, causing an expensive maintenance cleaning problem.

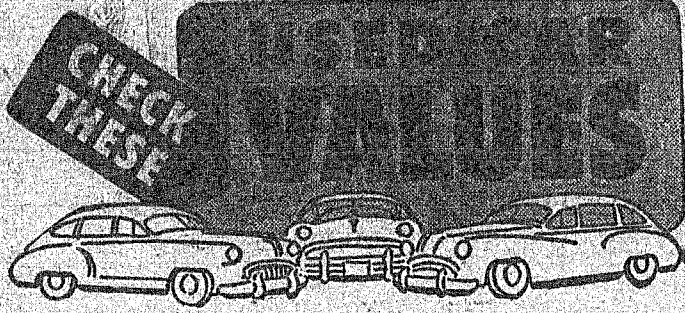

Greer added that within the next three years this change-over should be completed throughout the state. There are 208,000 signs on the 42,206 miles of state maintained highways and when replacement is necessary, the new height sign will be used. This gradual change-over will enable the department to erect the new signs at no extra cost to the taxpayers.

He pointed out that when three or more signs are to be mounted on a post, the bottom sign will be 2 1/2 feet from the pavement level so that the top sign will not be too high for easy readability. In the areas where the new signs have been tried, the results have been most gratifying. The higher signs are more visible to motorists and have greatly reduced maintenance cost, Greer said.

Mrs. Arthur Talley and sons, Arthur Dean and Luther were week end visitors with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Jesse Carl Oakes and family in Corpus Christi.

Lone Star State Up With Top Ten Vacation States

Austin — Texas, one of the 10 top vacation states in America, can expect its biggest tourist year in state history in 1953.

Predictions are that Texas will attract a substantial share of the 21,033,000 American families who will this year spend their vacations away from home.

These are not reports from native chambers of commerce, or convention bureaus. Rather, the authority is J. E. Farr, executive vice president of Schenley Distributors, Inc., who makes it his business to trace American vacationers and their holiday dollars. He knows that vacationing families will spend, in the first three months of this year, at least $235,039,350 for beverages, food and lodging. From these surveys, and others, his company builds its seasonal advertising and sales campaign.

"Texas' famous cities, historical sights and Gulf Coast resorts will be visited by many additional thousands of vacationers in 1953," Farr believes. "In the past decade there has been almost 100 per cent increase in winter vacations alone. This has provided resort and allied industries with almost $187,000,000 of tourist dollars in the first three months of this year."

Farr attributes the vacation boom, proven by the more than 100 per cent increase in touring Americans over the 7,000,000 who went sightseeing during the winter a decade ago, to two important factors:

An increasing number of large American corporations are now giving their employees three instead of the traditional two weeks with pay; and resort owners and travel agencies, noting this trend, are promoting it to great advantage.

Today, Farr points out, every state qualifies as a "vacation land." Currently, the nation's leading vacation states, in addition to Texas, include: New York, California, Florida, New Jersey, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and Massachusetts.

Armed Forces Day To Be Observed Tuesday, May 19

Austin — The fourth Armed Forces Day will be observed throughout the nation on the third Saturday in May — May 16 — under the slogan "Power for Peace."

The designated day and the preceding week will be distinguished as a time for tribute to the teamwork of the armed forces, to the unity of the American people and to the power and principles for which they stand in the world-wide struggle for peace. Celebrations throughout Texas and the nation will be planned along the same line as those held the past three years, with program schedules consisting of parades, luncheons, dinners, balls, mass meetings, fly-overs, military exhibits and open houses and the display of equipment similar to that in actual use on the Korean battle front. Army Reserve and National Guard units, as well as Army, Navy and Air Force installations will combine their efforts with local committees to assure the success of the observance.

In a proclamation issued in Washington last week, President Eisenhower designated Armed Forces Day "devoted to paying tribute to those whose constancy and courage constitute one of the bulwarks guarding the freedom of the nation and the peace of the free world," and called upon all citizens to not only display the flag of the United States on Armed Forces Day, but also to show the recognition of the gallantry, sacrifice and devotion to duty of the men and women of the armed forces by cooperating in local observances of the day.

Local project officers have been named in all the principal cities and communities of Texas to work with civilian committees in planning Armed Forces Day observances under the general direction of the Air Force with the Army and Navy cooperating.

It's kinda tough going nowadays when we have to do without so many things that our parents never had.

If you want to make friends at the right time, make 'em before you need 'em.

2498 Persons Killed On Texas Highways

Austin — Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today released the State's final traffic fatality figure for 1952.

Complete tabulation of motor vehicle accidents for last year show that 2,498 persons were killed, according to Garrison. This is 43 below the figure for 1951 and sets the death rate at 7.0, the lowest point since the creation of the State Department of Public Safety in 1935. The death rate is based on the number of fatalities per 100 million motor vehicle miles traveled. The national death rate for 1952 was pegged at 7.3 by the National Safety Council.

"This means," said Garrison, "that for the first time Texas fared a little better than the national average."

Total number of accidents was up some 31,000 over the preceding year and the estimated economic loss from traffic accidents was set at over $154 million, up $21 million dollars over 1951.

36 Civilians Injured For Every Serviceman

New York — Thirty six civilians are injured in motor vehicle accidents on the home front for every U. S. serviceman wounded in battle in Korea, the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies announced today.

Over the two and one half years of war in Korea, official Department of Defense figures listed 93,000 servicemen in the wounded column of the casualty lists. For the same period of time, the Association reports that injured victims of automobile accidents totaled 3,350,000 or 3,602 percent more than those injured in battle.

The Association, which first discovered that the millionth victim of the automobile would die in December, 1951, took a daily average for the 30 months since the Korean War began and found that 102 servicemen have been wounded to 3,673 civilians who suffered injuries in automobile accidents.

Starting with the first battle of the Revolution in April, 1775, and continuing through the major and minor wars in which the United States has fought, approximately 1,270,000 men have been wounded in battle. It took 177 years for non-fatal war casualties to reach that number. However, in the little over 50 years since the automobile became a means of transportation, 33,000,000 men, women and children have been injured in traffic accidents.

Thus, twenty six persons have been injured in motor vehicle accidents to every American serviceman who was wounded in all of the wars in the country's history, the Association pointed out. Putting it another way, in half a century automobile injuries total 2,603 percent more than all of the U. S. war wounded in one and three-fourth centuries.

Curbing Dogs Is Suggested

Austin — The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission suggested that Texans try to restrain their dogs for the next few weeks while wildlife concentrates on its young.

He said the roaming dogs often cause great damage to birds and animals in the spring of the year.

"Even house pets like to stray when spring comes," the Executive Secretary observed. "And they invariably get into the woods and brush and sniff out the birds and beasts when they should not be bothered."

"Game birds flushed from their nest during certain stages of incubation may not return to their eggs. Some dogs eat the eggs or destroy the nests. Marring dogs, especially when they gather in packs, can create great harm when they press pursuit of a doe deer carrying her fawn. They are definitely harmful when they chase newly born fawns."

He said that cooperation by dog owners now will mean a better break for wildlife and naturally a better break for the hunter when harvest time rolls around next fall.

"I have a dog that growls, a parrot that swears, a fireplace that smokes, and a cat that stays out all night. Why should I want a husband?" the spinster says.

Results Of Late Atomic Explosion

Austin — William L. McGill, state coordinator of civil defense, this week asked Texans to make a close study of the atomic tests which were held in the middle of March near Las Vegas, Nevada.

He pointed out that the tests on two frame houses and more than 50 automobiles gave us two aides to survival in our Atomic Age:

1. If you're inside a house and get caught in a surprise atomic attack, you should get to a basement and a shelter if at all possible. If you can't do that, get as close to ground level as you can, and also try to find some type of shelter which will ward off falling debris.

2. If you're caught in your automobile, stop immediately, open all of the windows, and get down on the floor.

For the tests, a couple of frame, two-story homes equipped with basements were built in the explosion area, one just 3,500 feet away from the center of the blast. The other was 7,500 feet away.

As an added feature, more than 50 automobiles were placed at various distances from the point of explosion. Some had their windows open while others were completely closed.

Various types of air raid shelters were also built in the basements of the two houses. Fully-dressed clothing store mannequins were placed throughout the houses as well as in many of the autos.

After the bomb was exploded, civil defense experts found that while the house 3,500 feet away from the point of explosion was crumpled to the level of the ground, the lean-to air raid shelter came through fairly well. They said that if it had been surrounded by other buildings, there is a good chance that the damage would have been less and that any human beings in that shelter would have come through without a scratch.

The second house was still standing after the explosion, even though it was badly battered. Even so, the air raid shelters in its basement were in perfect condition, just as the dummies placed in them were.

The autos which were a mile and a half and further from the center of the explosion came through fairly well as long as their windows were open. However, those autos which were tightly closed were badly dented, particularly on their roofs.

Cancer Can Be Cured If Detected Early

Austin — Many people put off seeing their physician, when they suspect cancer, because they are afraid. And yet, this fear, resulting in delay, causes many deaths from cancer. One-half of the lives now being lost to cancer could be saved if sufferers would see their doctors in time, declares Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. The sooner cancer is found, the less likely it is to have spread to other parts of the body, making cure impossible.

Most persons are familiar with the danger signs, such as a small sore on the skin, lip, tongue that does not heal quickly, a mole, wart, or birthmark that suddenly changes in appearance; a painless lump or thickening, especially in the breast, lip, or tongue; persistent indigestion; or radical changes in normal bowel habits; any unusual bodily discharges or bleeding; and persistent hoarseness lasting more than a few weeks. When any of these symptoms show up between physical check-ups, go quickly to see your doctor. They are common indications that cancer may be starting.

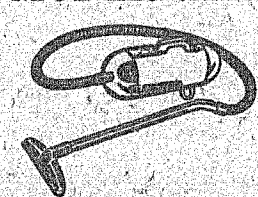

You cannot tell if you have cancer without seeing a doctor. A regular thorough physical check-up by your family physician is your best guard against cancer, plus an examination when one of the danger signals, or warnings appear. The first symptoms of cancer are scarcely noticeable. You may notice just a slight change from the normal. But do not wait until you feel pain to see your doctor. It is characteristic of cancer that there is no pain in the first stages. Pain is usually a late symptom and when it comes, the growth is often far advanced.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bruce visited several days last week with their son-in-law and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kingsbery and Ann, at Batesville.

Mrs. Grady Banister left Saturday night for her home in Houston after a stay of two weeks here. Most of the time she was a patient in the Santa Anna Hospital. The latter part of her stay, she visited with relatives, Mrs. John R. Banister and Mrs. C. D. Bruce.

Bill Pritchard came home from Gregory on Thursday of last week and remains here while recuperating from injuries received at a gin last week.
