HOME TOWN TALK

By Beddy

Efficiency of the fire department is bound to be improved by the new night-time system arranged by the city manager. Five men now will be on duty nights, two of them paid firemen, the others volunteers. Thus when a night alarm comes in enough men to handle ordinary fires, at least until other volunteers are awakened and reach the scene, will be at the station ready to go. This is of tremendous value to everyone.

Yesterday afternoon we ran into an old Abilene friend, Russell Stephens. He's an up-and-comer fellow and when there's an important job to be done in his city he's always willing to get in the saddle and help ride on through to success.

Russ believes in his town. He didn't hesitate to say that that town is a good one, and that it is going to get better and better.

But, he did take occasion to remind your humble servant that Big Spring is a crackin' good town. Yeah! He said that things are rather quiet in Abilene but that most everybody is finding some business at that and things are in no dangerous condition.

But he added just what a lot of fellows in Abilene or San Angelo or Midland or Sweetwater or Lubbock or most any other place in West Texas anywhere our size always adds.

And that is "if we had your payrolls we'd be hard to catch" or words to that effect. And, Big Spring is hard to catch, if you want to know.

Big Spring has the people, it has pay rolls and when the crops are gathered each year we've got just as much stuff raised as anybody, acre for acre.

Big Spring has not had 12,000 people so long as Abilene had had 30,000 or San Angelo 25,000 or so maybe it's 30,000, too. Therefore Big Spring has not had as much time to catch up with herself as have some of our neighbors.

By catching up with herself we mean Big Spring has not had as much time to go with the modern cities such as to extend conveniences sufficiently to serve the thousands of new residents and old ones who've moved into newer and nicer homes.

For instance, Big Spring will have pretty soon absolutely adequate water and sewer service and fire protection for all its people. We do not have that now—not by a long shot, to be plain. But we'll lay our bottom dollar that when Big Spring has had as much time following rapid increase in population as have some of her neighbors she will have provided just as many conveniences if not more than any of them.

One of the most promising signs of the times around here is the willingness of the citizenship to get together for solving their mutual problems. We're growing harder to stee from our own main course of getting the things we all know we need. We're getting more stubborn about going or being hauled off on unimportant side issues; dead-end lanes with blind stumps in 'em to boot.

Every time one more man or woman makes a firm resolution to fight and wholeheartedly for the good of the community Big Spring becomes a better town. And, when we all get in the saddle together and set our heads toward any given goal, boy we'll get there, yessir—we'll get there quick, effectively. And, here!

RATE CASES ARE HEARD IN SANTONE

Railroad Men Are Witnesses Before Commissioners

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 13 (AP)—Railroads of the southwest have never charged higher freight rates on large tonnage commodities, witnesses testified today at the rate hearing here before the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Texas Railroad Commission.

Carlots and trainloads of rock, asphalt, gravel, agricultural products, livestock, wool and mohair have always been given common point rates and the lowest available under the tariffs fixed by the state and national carrier commissions.

This in substance was the testimony of F. L. Gordon of Houston, representing the Southern Pacific Lines and concurred in by C. D. Borden, assistant general freight agent of the Missouri Pacific Lines, and J. A. Lynch, general freight agent of the Texas and Pacific lines.

The hearing is being held before former Governor Pat M. Neff, now a member of the Texas Railroad Commission. He succeeded Clarence E. Gilmore, who died suddenly last fall while he was conducting the hearing. Sitting with the former governor is William A. Disque, rate examiner for the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The case was brought before the two carrier commissions by the Texas Industrial Traffic League, and organization of large shippers from all over the southwest seeking to abolish higher freight rate privileges granted the railroads more than 20 years ago when some of the lines built into sparsely settled territory in Southwest Texas.

The trend of thought pointed to a healthy financial situation for the country at large, Mr. Fisher said. Mr. Fisher reviewed the strike calling attention to the settlement made Wednesday.

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 13.—Recognition of one of Frigidaires corporation's outstanding salesmen in the entire United States was given F. C. Hopkins, of Big Spring, Texas, today at the annual regional convention here, when he was called to the platform and amid blaring bands and cheering from 400 fellow salesmen from this part of the country, he was presented with $100 in gold.

Awarding of salesmen's prizes and introduction of new products were high spots of the convention at which speakers struck an optimistic note for 1930. Among the new developments in electric refrigeration presented were a hydrator, for freshening vegetables; two new compressors and two sizes of commercial refrigerator cabinets. It was announced that there are now more than 2,300,000 Frigidaires in use.

INDEPENDENT MERCHANTS ORGANIZED

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 13 (AP)—Independent merchants were in the field today to fight chain stores in Texas after a meeting here at which the Merchants Protective League was organized and 800 independent merchants heard former United States Senator Earle E. Mayfield deliver a scathing attack upon chain store systems.

In his address last night the former senator termed chain store systems "the greatest menace to the continued prosperity of Texas and the nation."

He centered his attack on what he termed absentee ownership and foreign control, under which he asserted the chain units "took everything and gave little in return to the communities in which they were located, becoming mere siphons for the sucking of money to a few centers in the north and east."

The major remedy proposed by him was legislation to compel chain systems to become part of the communities they serve by paying their share of city, county and state taxes, by contributing to educational and charitable organizations, and by investing a percentage of their profits, earned in Texas, in Texas properties or securities. Such legislation, he added, would be constitutional as well as equitable.

Other speakers on the program were Mark McGee of Fort Worth, former adjutant general, James V. Allred, Wichita Falls, former district attorney there, and Bert Bean, Wichita Falls merchant.

The newly organized association earlier in the day had elected H. S. Forman, Dallas, president; vice presidents, Frank Davis of Itasca, O. R. Duff, Ennis, Bert Bean, Wichita Falls, and Henry Alexander, Haskell; secretary-treasurer, H. G. Harcrow, Dallas. Temporary headquarters were to be maintained here.

The executive committee selected included: Earl Cullum, Dallas; H. G. Clay, Paris; R. F. Brooks, Waxahachie; Henry Law, Fort Worth; H. G. Mearheart, Ennis; O. C. Robertson, Terrell, and J. E. Bentley, Dallas.

Leo, Visiting Here Today, Unusual Animal Because Of Size; Occupation

In addition to having achieved fame throughout the world as the best known of all motion picture stars, Leo, the M-G-M lion, who is a visitor here this afternoon, is notable as one of the largest specimens of his species either in captivity or in the wilds of jungle Africa. Ordinarily the largest full grown male lions reach an overall length of something over nine feet.

Leo measures a full nine and one half feet from his nose to the tip of his tail. In the matter of weight and muscular development especially, Leo reaches super proportions. The largest lion rarely attains a weight of five hundred pounds whereas Leo tips the beam at seven hundred and thirty-five pounds, half again as tall as broad and as muscularly developed as any of his relation.

No wonder that motion picture patrons are so impressed with the majestic dignity of Leo. Where the ordinarily large lion's head measures thirteen inches in length and nine and one half inches in breadth across the cheek bones, Leo's head is eighteen and one half inches in length and twelve and one half inches in breadth. To a stranger it might seem that such proportions would be indicative of a swelled head, but Capt. Valney Phifer, Leo's trainer, has assured us that such is not the case. His size and power are further accentuated by his extraordinary bushy mane. Just as Gretna Owen's hand-drawn attracts a devoted fan interest, so Leo's intimate acquaintance is part of his success as a star.

Rubio's Assailant Is Arrested

TRIAL FOR MURDER IS UNDER WAY

Ten Jurors Chosen From Venire Of Forty

Ten jurors were selected to hear the J. D. Nelson murder trial in 32nd district court Thursday morning before the special venire of 40 jurors to appear at 1:30 o'clock. Judge Fritz E. Smith ordered the sheriff to summon 15 additional jurors to appear at 1:30 o'clock and it was considered likely testimony in the case would be started shortly after court convened for the afternoon session.

The state's questions to prospective jurors asked by James Little, Howard county attorney, were brief and dealt principally with whether the jurors believed the laws against slaying should apply to a white man slaying a negro.

Wilburn Barcus, who was appointed to defend J. D. Nelson with E. F. Duncan, asked the questions for defense counsel. He questioned prospective jurors as to their opinions concerning guilt of the defendant. Those who expressed themselves as already having an opinion were challenged.

The defendant, J. D. Nelson, is charged with murder in connection with the death of Earl Hayes, a negro hotel porter, who died several days after being struck on the head with an iron pipe. Defense counsel indicated by its questioning that Nelson will attempt to establish a defense plea, as every prospective juror was asked if he believed a man has the right to protect his own life if he reasonably believes he is in real or apparent danger.

W. S. Ham Given 25-Year Sentence

ABILENE, Feb. 13 (AP)—W. S. Ham was convicted by a jury here today on a charge of murder in connection with the slaying of N. V. Nixon, 33-year-old chauffeur, in 1928, and sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary.

TESTIMONY WILL BEGIN ON MONDAY

Addressing the committee, former State Senator T. H. McGregor, representing the respondent, declared that the comptroller's department was now being audited by public accountants, and it was desired to await completion of the work before starting to meet the charges preferred to the house. He said many of the items complained of in the state auditor's report as "unsatisfactorily accounted for," had been cleared up.

GREAT FAITH IN THE NEW KONJOLA MEDICINE SHOWN

Many Prominent Big Spring People Among the First to Call at The Collins Bros. Drug Store

From every section of Big Spring and many nearby towns, there came a vast number of people to find out about this new Konjola medical compound. It is appalling to note the great majority of modern people who are suffering from different forms of stomach, liver, kidney, and bowel disorders. Several prominent well-known citizens were among the first to purchase this medicine.

Konjola is being sold in large quantities at the Collins Bros. drug store, Big Spring where large crowds are calling to purchase this medicine or ask for information and advice.

Konjola takes a different form of action on the human system than any previously known remedy. It is a liquid, taken immediately after meals, which works with the sufferers own food. It contains the medical ingredients of twenty-two natural plants. These have the best possible effect on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels so that your food works with Nature, restoring a more healthy, normal action to these important organs.

After all, it is Nature that really does the work, and Konjola simply brings the help that Nature requires. This is the safest, surest and best way to conquer the ailments so many people are suffering from, for example:

Sharp pains over the kidneys, a dull aching feeling across the back, swollen limbs, frequent night rising, dizziness, spots before the eyes, liver trouble, including biliousness, sick headaches, yellowish complexion and constipation, wild heart palpitation, feeling like fire from the throat to the pit of the stomach, intense pains and a feeling like a rock in the stomach, sour acid risings in the throat, cramps, etc.

Many other forms of suffering frequently arise from the disordered condition of the stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels. Rheumatism and neuritis are common. Catarrh often develops, which is one of the most stubborn diseases mankind is heir to, with the ringing and roaring in the ears, clogged nostrils and a general wasting away of flesh and energy. This ailment must be conquered from the system within.

The new Konjola comes to Big Spring for the first time direct from successes in larger cities. Its appearance in one large Indiana city, recently brought so many restorations to health that 561 public statements of endorsement were issued in praise of this remarkable remedy, many from public officials, nurses, ministers, and people in all walks of life.

Konjola is now being sold in Big Spring at Collins Bros. drug store, where many people are calling to find out about this surprising new medicine.—adv.

Come: Find Out For Yourself About The Medicine That Is Helping Thousands To Health

Such abundant health and new life energy is far greater than all the gold and riches in the world.

Yesterday great quantities of this new medicine were sold to the people of Big Spring at the Collins Bros. Drug Store.

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence

Men who would keep that trim, proper figure; women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves; eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain that lithe, youthful figure.

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself no well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

Another wonderful endorsement for Orgatone (Argotane) that will be read with interest was given recently by W. S. Curry, who resides at 2001 Twenty-sixth street, Lubbock, Texas, and who is in the real estate business here. In an interesting interview with the Orgatone (Argotane) man at Bowen's Drug store, Mr. Curry said:

"Orgatone (Argotane) is nothing short of a wonder. I've never seen anything in the way of medicine to equal it. It has not only gotten my wife over serious trouble, but she actually feels better and stronger than in the past two years. She lost her health about two years ago and in spite of all we did she kept getting worse. Her stomach got so weak and out of order there were very few things she could eat at all and what she did eat seemed to do her harm instead of good. She had sharp pains up and down her back from disordered stomach caused by the gas and she was constantly belching up sour, undigested food. She was very nervous and run down, and never got very much sleep at night. She had a bad case of constipation and was just getting worse in every way, every day.

"She had the very best treatment and I bought every kind of medicine anyone would suggest, but nothing did her any good. I had been reading so much about Orgatone (Argotane) and everywhere we went Orgatone (Argotane) was being praised for its fine work, so I bought a bottle and my wife began taking it. Well, it proved to be what she needed, and in a few days she began to get better. She has just taken one bottle and she looks, acts and feels better than she has in two whole years. She has gained in strength and eats anything she wants. She sleeps well every night and has the color she used to have before she got sick. I am glad, too, for anybody to know what we think of Orgatone (Argotane). I am more than glad to give this statement.

Genuine Orgatone may be bought in Big Spring at the Cunningham and Phillips drug store.—(Adv.)

THE BIG SHOT

by FRANK L. PACKARD

SYNOPSIS: Enid Howard, a pretty Canadian girl, comes to New York seeking "color" for a novel. She finds it; also a man and adventure. The man is Phil Martin, a reporter, who is attempting to capture the Big Shot, underworld chieftain. The girl becomes enamored when she finds he is her missing brother. She gained the clue through a photograph given her by Shive Frank, a gangster, for Martin. Frank is assassinated. Determined to see the Big Shot, she tracks him to an East Side house and enters in time to save him from capture by police. They escape and Enid, wounded, faints after they get into a car that speeds away amid an exchange of pistol shots.

CHAPTER X THE GIRL BANDIT

Enid sat up in bed and looked around her.

The sunlight was streaming into the room. Mechanically she raised her hand to her head. Her head was bandaged.

There was pain there, but it was not very severe. She was conscious of a sense of weakness, but she did not feel ill. Where was she?

She remembered last night. She remembered being wounded and of losing consciousness; and she had a hazy recollection of periods of semi-consciousness during which she had been lifted out of the car and carried somewhere, and of some woman who had put her to bed, dressed her head, and given her something to drink.

A glance at her wrist watch told her it was 3 o'clock.

This unfamiliar room bothered her. It was a very nice room, and richly furnished. It was certainly not a police cell! Therefore the car must have escaped the police. But what exactly had taken place? Had anyone else been wounded besides herself? Someone, perhaps, been killed?

At the thought of this possibility she twisted her hands nervously, anxiously together. The Big Shot—Roy—was he safe? Where was he now?

Her glance fell suddenly on a newspaper that lay on the bedside table. For an instant she stared at it, then reached out and snatched it up.

The captions that had caught her eye were set in big type at the head of two columns of text:

JEWEL HJACKERS FOILED; GIRL BANDIT SAVES GANG

Enid read on. The story detailed the suspicious of Patrolman Keeney on seeing three men at 3 o'clock in the morning enter the house where the mother of Twisty Morgan, a notorious underworld character, lived. He had crossed the road to investigate—and found the door had been unlocked, presumably by a skeleton key.

A brass chain on the door had been cut in two by some instrument introduced through the inch or two-inch opening which the chain, when intact, had permitted. Enid understood that! That was Skinny's work—with the "door tools" that Izzy Myers had told him to take along.

The next paragraph brought on her lips. The gang's "lookout" had been a girl—that was all that had saved them. The girl bandit had been posted on watch somewhere outside, so the paper said. Patrolman Keeney had seen her dart into the house to give the alarm while he was across the road telephoning to the station house for assistance to trap the men.

The girl bandit! The sudden realization that in the eyes of the law she was a criminal, wanted with the rest of the gang, brought tears to Enid's eyes. How little she had weighed the price she must pay when she impulsively came to Roy's rescue.

The rest of the newspaper account she read almost mechanically. Some of the details she knew and others she had surmised. What she had not known was the aftermath of the gangsters' escape.

Giving up the chase when forced to the curb by bullet-punctured tires, the police had returned to the Morgan home and searched the place, confident that it was no ordinary crime that had been foiled. Mrs. Morgan had been abusive, but uncommunicative. The police, however, were persistent.

As a result they had found the proceeds of the Maiden Lane jewel robbery of the night before in the cellar and now were looking for Twisty Morgan.

The paper fluttered from Enid's hands. She strove to think coherently.

Who had placed that newspaper so obviously on the bedside table? And why? Who lived in this house? The Big Shot—Roy—must have brought her here. What connection was there between him and the occupants of the house? And—where was Roy. Where was anyone?

She looked around. A bell push hung from the head of her bed. A queer little smile crossed her lips as she rang the bell. Wherever she was, the establishment seemed to lack nothing in the way of comfort and convenience!

Perhaps a minute passed, and then, answering her summons, there was a knock, and the door opened.

As she stared at the figure standing there, leaning somewhat against the door, which he had closed behind him, she felt the blood drain from her cheeks.

She was sure now that it was Roy. Last night she had not seen his face; she had recognized only what she had thought were certain mannerisms in his walk and carriage; but now she was prepared to swear that she recognized his every feature—that it was the same clean-cut, handsome Roy who, until last night, she had thought was dead.

How well he looked, how much the perfect gentleman, as always! Roy—the Big Shot—therefore a criminal. This well groomed figure a criminal! Her lips trembled. It was well known to everybody that the successful crooks knew how to wear their clothes!

There was no responsive recognition in his face. Those dark-brown eyes of his, the replica of her own, were regarding her merely in a friendly, speculative way.

"We thought we'd let you sleep as long as you could," he said pleasantly. "It was the best tonic you could have. You had a narrow squeak, but I'm glad to say it was only a scalp wound. You'll be around all right in two or three days. We didn't call a doctor because—" he smiled as he lifted his shoulder—"well, questions might be asked and the police aren't very happy this morning."

She found her voice. "Oh, never mind about my wound!" she cried, and in a surge of love and yearning reached out her arms to him. "Roy! Roy! Roy! Don't you know me, Roy?"

"I'd like to put 'em around my neck," he said with a grin, "but even a crook, which you know I am, sometimes plays the game. I owe you too much to take the embrace under false pretenses. Whatever the mistake was that brought you into the game last night I'd have been pinched if it hadn't been for you, and what with a few other things that they'd have been able to stick onto me, I'd have gone up for keeps. I'm for you, kid, strong, but I don't know who you are. I never saw you in my life until last night."

THE CRIME WAVE
The crimes of this day are entirely too large and most of them are committed by youths of school age. Why is this? Are they dissatisfied? Can't they find any pleasure in living without breaking the laws? There should be a course in law and all students should be required to take this to prevent ignorance from leading to fractures of the law. We are quite sure that they are not mean, or do not think of the harm they are doing. They merely have what they call their fun. But in the eyes of the law they are law-breakers and criminals. After having received this name they never do any good with anything.

FOOTBALL LETTER MEN GIVEN HONOR AWARDS FOR SEASON

In gratitude for the splendid efforts put forth during the football season of 1935-36, the athletic council of Big Spring High school presented athletic awards to the football men in a special exercise held in the auditorium, Friday afternoon. Superintendent W. C. Blankenship made the presentation address.

Blankets, sweaters, gold and silver footballs were the awards received by the letter men.
Captain Burma Barley and Luther Glover received the highest awards, sweaters, with three service bands on the left sleeve. Rawleigh Mims and Frank Fisherman received second-year awards. Those receiving first-year awards were Paul Smith, Horace Hargroves, Buster Bell, Elmer Pardue, Cecil Neel, Franklin Orr, Ted Phillips, Harmon Morrison, Finis Bugz, Buren Edwards, Robert Kidwell, and Dick Moore.

Coach Bill Stevens was presented with a blanket, and Coach George Brown received a sweater for their services during the past season.
The Big Spring Steers played for the first time in class A conference, and from the good showing they made a winning team is predicted for the coming year.

Secret Practice

The football game was over, and before the parlor grate a maiden and her player were lingering rather late.

They talked of plays and passes, and the boys of gridiron fame, Till Cupid donned a noseguard and broke into the game.

He lined that couple up, and made them toe the mark; and soon he had them going, with a scrimmage in the dark.

The game began in silence, and the play was rather tame till the fellow took a notion that a kiss should end the game.

He proceeded then to try one, just an amateur affair, but he lost it on a fumble and kissed, instead, the air.

And then he tried another, this time he chalked a score, for he made a thrilling touchdown where twice he'd failed before.

As they sat there silent still, communing soul and soul, the parlor door swung open and father kicked a goal.

Gossip Slips From Pen Of Miss Parcella

My Dear Priscilla—Nope, dear, I haven't forgotten you. I've had my mind so taken up lately, basketball, dances, parties, etc., that I just haven't had time to write. Oh, you should see Elmer Pardue, Sloppy Smith and Buster Bell and all the rest of our basketballers. Those physiquis—really, they are Greek gods if I ever saw any. And, you know, hon, we do have the name of being pretty good judges of physiquis. You met Randal Howie when you were out here this summer. Well, remember out at the "Bucket of Blood," one night? Well, he's still steppin' out lately and you can't imagine who he's giving a big ol' rush to—the charming Vera (Sue Carol, ID). Would you believe it?

Well, anyway, we gotta hand it to this pep squad. They're all O. K. You've heard of them I'm sure since they are almost known internationally.

Talk about keen parties! When we went to Lamesa even our dear pros, cut up pretty big (just like the—everything) they're still young though, and can we blame 'em? Nope, we're all for 'em.

Honey pie, I must close—pressing business on hand.

Ever yours,
PARCELLA.

P. S.: Remember Ruby Smith? Well, she's sure giving some heman a break. Note the love light in those eyes of blue?

Loving,
ME.

SPORTS ON PARADE

HIGH BUSINESS We're an addict to big business now. Yesterday afternoon, before the high school student body, we entered into a verbal contract with the Steers basketball team. We told members of the squad and the student body at large that we will be personally responsible for construction of a trophy case in the school building if the Steers are out in front Saturday night when the tournament comes to an end.

TROPHIES HERE The Big Spring Chamber of Commerce publicity committee has purchased two beautiful trophies which will be presented to the winner and runner-up in the district tournament, and it just occurred to us that the Steers need an attractive case in which to keep tokens of victory. We were perfectly frank with the students and team, telling them that we could not finance the deal single-handed, but that there are five or six organizations in this city that will be willing to furnish the capital if the proposal is submitted. We know our part of the bargain can be filled, so it's now up to the Steers to come through.

MAIL BAG Let's glance through the mail bag. Here's a note from our friend, Jimmy Smith, at Snyder, in which he relates the story of Snyder's triumph over Dunn, 29 to 12, for the cage championship of Seary county. There's one outstanding characteristic about Jimmy, and that is he will never lack modesty. Jimmy shouts Snyder's praises from the housetops, or rather would if there were any high enough for his shouting in Snyder, and here is what he has to say, in part: "Injuries may keep the Tigers out of the finals, but an advising you that whatever Snyder takes the court against the Snyder bunch, they will know it has been somewhere and it won't be a feather pillow fight, either. Coach Red Moore has taught our boys to fight every minute and they do it cleanly and in a sportsmanlike way, so that is why I'm telling you that the group at your meet will know they have been in something."

Now, now, Jimmy, don't scare all the boys off before this tournament actually gets started. Suppose the Girard team, from Kent county, sent all this. Do you think that delegation will still have the nerve to enter? Even our own Steers, who sorta figured they may have a chance in the tourney, are about to withdraw. Consequently, Jimmy, please don't write any more threatening notes until the tournament is actually played.

WRONG GUARD Here's another little note from G. T. Hatton, principal of Vincent school, who writes in concerning selection of the all-county quintets that appeared in the Sunday Morning Herald. Mr. Hatton is wondering if the men picking that first all-county team didn't get M. Richards and E. Dunn mixed up. He says E. Dunn is by far the outstanding guard his team boasts, despite the fact that Richards is capable. Here's what Mr. Hatton writes in part: "In regard to the selections on the all-county basketball teams that appeared in the Sunday Herald, I would like to say that someone must have made an error in the selection of M. Richards, for Vincent, for guard on the first team. It was E. Dunn, of Vincent, I am sure, that the judges had in mind when selecting the team. E. Dunn is a clever and fast little guard who played a wonderful game against Coahoma. I merely write this note because I like to see credit dispensed fairly and in justice to the deserving."

It's entirely possible, Mr. Hatton, that the judges did get your boys all crossed up. We have seen stranger things happen in this business of picking all-teams. Personally, we did not see the Vincent-Coahoma game, or the Vincent-Lomax contest, consequently, we can't settle the problem. We feel sure that it was our loss in being deprived of an opportunity to see the Vincent lads in action, but with a hungry madam to feed, it comes in line of a married man's duties to feed the hungry mouth, and it was just about eating time when Vincent played both its games last Saturday. Excuse the error, if one has been made, Mr. Hatton, and we will attempt to check the judges' votes that were handed us after the final tournament contest.

Mrs. William Robertson, of Toyah, is among the out-of-town persons attending the Edward Malone funeral here Tuesday afternoon.

Parade Friday Will Open District Cage Meet

VISITING TEAMS TO GIVE HELP

Entire Student Body Pledged To Assist In Procession

A parade Friday noon in which 200 or 300 high school students and six visiting basketball teams from Ector, Kent, Fisher, Mitchell, Nolan and Scurry counties will herald the opening of the first district basketball tournament ever held in Big Spring.

The procession will start from the high school at one o'clock and will travel thru the business district of Big Spring. The girls' pep squad and the high school band will lead the parade followed by automobiles carrying all visiting teams. Plans are to have a each county championship court squad riding in separate automobiles properly labeled to acquaint citizens of Big Spring with the teams that will participate in the tournament.

Coaches will meet at the high school building at 1:30 o'clock for plans drawings and the first battle will be called at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. Two games will be played Friday night and two on Saturday morning, starting at 9 o'clock. The final contest is slated Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, which will be followed by presentation of trophies.

SIX WINNERS Winners in six of the seven counties to be represented here Friday and Saturday have already been named. Big Spring will represent Howard county; Girard will be here from Kent county; Roby from Fisher county; Snyder from Scurry county; Odessa from Ector county; Colorado from Mitchell county; and either Roscoe, Blackwell or Diviso from Nolan county. The deciding games in Nolan county will be played between the three contesting teams at Roscoe on Thursday night. Each of the three clubs has won one game in the championship round.

The publicity committee of the chamber of commerce has secured two silver basketball trophies which will be presented to the tournament champion and to the runner-up club. The tokens of victory were displayed before the high school student body Wednesday afternoon and were then removed to the chamber of commerce office, where they will be on display until the tournament is actually under way.

Officials in charge of the parade request that all high school students possible decorate their automobiles with inexpensive crepe streamers and that each car in the parade be crowded with high school students whooping it up throughout the parade.

The parade system of advertising the tournament was adopted because it is apparent Big Spring citizens are not keyed up to the importance of a first rate meeting between the best basketball teams of seven counties. Snyder, Roby and Colorado bid for the district tournament, but Big Spring was awarded the honor of entertaining the champions of seven western counties because the meet had never been played here and because Big Spring school officials promised to entertain the visitors in an acceptable manner.

Walker Outweighed For Important Scrap

DETROIT, Feb. 13 (AP)—Mickey Walker, who regards his bout with Leo Lomski in Olympia ring to-morrow night as a step toward the light heavyweight title, will weigh in at around 185 pounds, while the Aberdeen (Wash.) fighter will have a seven- or eight-pound advantage. Lomski has had his weight down to 172 1/2 at times during his brief training here, and Walker has been almost stationary at 185. Both men had light workouts on today's schedule. The third man in the ring will be Elmer McClelland, selected last night and declared by managers of both fighters to be acceptable.

Chatterton And Stone In Madame X

"Madam X," famous stage play, vehicle for Sarah Bernhardt, for Pauline Frederick, for Dorothy Donnelly and many other famous actresses, will be shown Friday and Saturday at the Ritz theater in its ultra modern form, as Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's latest all-talking drama of the screen.

With Ruth Chatterton, celebrated stage star, in the title role, and directed by Lionel Barrymore, erstwhile stage idol, and lately turned film director, the play, while it tells the same graphic story as the older stage version, is produced on ultra modern lines, with rapid-fire action and dialogue worked out for the screen by Willard Mack.

The new picture is gorgeously staged, locales all over the world being shown in its swift action, and one of the most notable casts of former stage celebrities ever assembled for a screen drama, appears.

Lewis Stone plays the husband, and Raymond Hackett, of "The Trial of Mary Dugan" fame, the son and attorney for the defense. Richard Caine, old-time Broadway star and no wa screen player, Mitchell Lewis, Eugene Bessner, Holmes Herbert, Ullric Haupt, Sydney Toler, and many others are in the cast. The play opens in Paris, and then follows the tragic "Madame X" in her dramatic wanderings to China the Islands, South America and other colorful locales, showing in vivid and terrible fashion her slow degradation, until she reaches the depths of despair where she commits murder.

It is Barrymore's first directorial effort with a feature length drama, and follows his recent sensational success, "Confession." Carroll Nye, who played in the former picture, incidentally, plays in "Madame X," and Hackett, who supported Barrymore on the stage in "The Copperhead." The construction of the modernized version is a clever mingling of dialogue and stage technique. The dialogue is handled much after the stage fashion, but the plot and movement is based entirely on the swift action of the silent picture. For the first time "closeups" and other devices of the silent screen have been successfully used in the talking drama, unique effects thus being worked out.

SIERRA BLANCA—Sierra Blanca Laundry to be in operation soon.

Foreign Runners Win Track Races

NEW YORK, Feb. 13 (AP)—Stanislav Petkiewicz, of Poland, and Dr. Paul Martin, of Switzerland, who constitute the chief international threats of the current indoor track season, have taken their first steps toward redeeming last Saturday's defeats at the Millrose games. Each won his event at the Ogdens club meet last night.

The Polish diplomatic courier lined hardly more than a snuff in winning the mile event, but his flat footed stride carried him across the finish line in 4 minutes and 28 seconds, slow in comparison to the world's record, set by Paavo Nurmi, over whom Petkiewicz holds one decision, but fairly fast for an unbanked track with sharp curves. Loring McMillan, former Union college runner, was 40 yards behind at the finish.

Martin, Swiss representative in three Olympic games, who wears the colors of the New York A. C. during his visit to the United States, ran the odd distance of 800 yards. There was only one basis of comparison for his time, the outdoor mark of 1:48 3/4, set by Mel Sheppard 20 years ago. Martin did not threaten that record, but he ran the distance in 1:46 4/5 under more difficult conditions.

Since the 800-yard distance had never been contested indoors before Martin's mark established a record. Thomas Brennan, of the New York A. C. tried to offer some competition to Martin and took the lead, going into the final lap, but the Swiss ace left him 10 yards behind at the finish.

Two More Victories BY TANLAC OVER "RHEUMATISM" AND STOMACH AILMENTS

Only Medicine That Does What It Claims says Nicholas J. Jansen

Neuritis and Stomach Gas Ended For This Lady

You folks who have tried medicine after medicine without benefit, take heart. Read this letter of Mr. N. J. Jansen and then let your conscience be your guide. "Before starting Tanlac," said Mr. Jansen, "I was very run-down and suffered terrible agony from pains in every bone in my body. My back hurt until I felt it was pulling in two. My appetite was very poor and gas would form on my stomach and I would heat until I thought I would burst. I couldn't sleep and didn't care whether I worked or not. I tried medicine after medicine and none gave me relief until I started taking Tanlac and this is the only medicine that does what it claims. Now I feel fine in every way. Pains no longer trouble me, my appetite is good, I sleep good and get up in the morning feeling like a new person."

You may think because you have been suffering so long and terribly that nothing will help you now. But you cannot read this letter of Mrs. Margaret Wallace without believing that there is hope for you, too. In Tanlac "All the good things I could say about Tanlac would not express my true sentiments. For 13 years I suffered stomach troubles worse than anything it seems to me. Gas filled and smothered me causing a pain around the heart and the pain would send to my back and shoulders and then turn into neuritis. I suffered awfully. Whatever I ate resulted in heartburn. Tanlac is the only medicine that could cope with such severe troubles as mine. It relieved me fully, my stomach is in best condition in 13 years, no longer causing acid, gases and heartburn."

Other Remedies May Promise But Tanlac Performs! A REAL medicine that backs claims with a guarantee ACCEPT NO SUBSTITUTE AT ALL DRUGGISTS

Connie Mack Given $10,000 Bok Check

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 13 (AP)—Connie Mack, veteran manager of the world's champion Athletics, has received the 1929 Edward W. Bok award, presented annually to the man or woman who, during the preceding 12 months, "rendered the most outstanding service to Philadelphia." The gift, a $10,000 check enclosed in an ivory case, a gold medal and a scroll, was presented last night at a dinner at which Mack and 50 prominent citizens were guests of the board of trustees of the award. Mack, who had been in Florida awaiting the beginning of the baseball training season, made a hurried trip from the South to receive the honor, heretofore bestowed on artists, scientists, educators and philanthropists. Charles E. Fox, former district attorney, made the presentation speech and lauded the gray-haired manager for his years of effort devoted to the honesty, decency and efficiency of the national game.

Greater Beauty - Finer Performance

Never has a Chevrolet car won greater praise for its appearance than the new Chevrolet Six. Its new Fisher bodies reveal in every detail the artistry that has made the Fisher name famous throughout the motor car world. In beauty of line and color, in balance and harmony of design, they represent one of the greatest style triumphs in Fisher history. Upholsteries are richer and more durable. The instrument panel carries a new and more attractive grouping of the control instruments. Seats are wider and deeper. In fact, not a single feature has been overlooked that would add to the comfort and convenience of both driver and passengers.

In addition to its new beauty, the new Chevrolet Six represents a remarkable advance in every phase of performance. Its improved six-cylinder valve-in-head engine has been increased to 50 horsepower—giving faster acceleration, and greater reserve power. Steering has been made safer and easier. Four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers provide exceptional riding comfort. Fully enclosed, internal-expanding, weather-proof brakes give positive braking control. And numerous structural improvements add to the car's dependability, endurance and long life. Come in today and see this car. And remember, it is now available—

She's Getting Thinner Every Day

Her Fat is Melting
Fast Away

All over the world Kruschen Salts is appealing to girls and women who strive for an attractive, free from fat figure that cannot fail to win admiration.

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses. Every morning take one-half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Be sure and do this every morning for "It's the little daily dose that takes off the fat." Don't miss a morning.

The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful acids and gases are expelled from the system. At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are toned up and the pure, fresh blood containing Nature's life-giving salts are carried to every organ, gland, nerve and fibre of the body and this is followed by that Kruschen feeling of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

Get an 85c bottle of Kruschen Salts at Collins Bros. Drugs or any drug store (lasts 4 weeks) with the distinct understanding that you must be satisfied with results or money back. One Montana woman lost 18 pounds of fat in 4 weeks and feels better than she has for years.—adv.
