Peanut Junior Rodeo

PRESS POINTS JOE BENNETT, Publisher --.I--

Well, we are about to get all the kinks out of our new typesetter. We had a few problems last week just before press time and had to set some type the old way. But, so far we are rolling fine this week (Knock on Wood). I really like the new typesetter and I think it will really help the appearance of your newspaper. We will continue to do our best to give you a paper that you can be proud of and which will help to boost our town and community. With God's help we will make it. We solicit your support for your hometown paper.

We continue to need rain as the trememdous heat and sunshines continues to make the peanut crops suffer. Peanuts are real prolific, however, and seem to withstand the torturous heat fairly well. But we are sureneeding rain badly for the peanuts to grow properly and get the right root system establish-

Speaking of peanuts - It looks as though the peanut industry and the government are about to get the peanut program settled. As one industry spokesman said, "It could be alot better as far as we are concerned. However, on the other hand it could have been a 10t worse." So all in all it looks fairly good. We hope to have an article soon which will explain the entire peanut program outcome.

I have failed to mention a couple of new homes being constructed just south of the High School. One home is just behind the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell McClearen. The other home is under construction of the site of the former W. R. Collins place and is being built by Lorenzo Perez. There is alos a good bit of remodeling being done to improve the appearance of several homes in Gorman. This indicates the faith people have in the future of our community.

I understand that we are having several inquiries by doctors looking over our hospital facilities and town in thoughts of setting up practice here. I have met most of the doctors who visited her and am impressed with each of them. It will sure be an added asset to ourtown and community to have more doctors for our town and rea citizens medical needs. 1 eel sure that we will have another doctor or two in our city before very long. We have also had inquiries by a dentist who is interested in setting up a practice. Wouldn't these additions be a marvelous asset to our

We appreciate the support of our local and area advertisers in publicizing our 4th Annual Peanut Junior Rodeo which is to be held Wednesday, June 29th through Saturday, July 2. This rodeo continues to grow in size and quality each year. Hats off to the Gorman Riding Club for the great job they are doing with the rodeo.

Thanks to Harold Fritz and employees at the Gorman Milling for the appetizing fish they served to the Progress force on Tuesday. It was great and we sure enjoyed it.

"DO PEOPLE DIE because they don't eat the right stuff?' I recall asking that question of my mother when I was about nine years old.

"I suppose they do, thousands of them every day, only it is called by some fancy medical name," was her sage reply.

Perhaps that was the day when I resolved to find out what people should eat to grow to maturity in good health and to maintain themselves in vigorous, energetic usefulness throughout middle age and toward the century milepost.

What I learned is not new, for there is really nothing entirely new under the sun. A few wise men in each generation have felt for centuries that man- diet? kind was growing less and less vigorous.

In the days of the Roman THE FIRST STEP Empire, the philosopher Seneca realized this sad truth. As tu- ward re-educating you for maxitor and friend of the gluttonous mum health and well-being, I Emperor Nero, no doubt Seneca had occasion to make many an observation which finally led him to declare:

And throughout the ages since Seneca, men-and that means women, too-go right on "kill ing" themselves at the dinner tables, lunch counters and banquet boards of the world.

Why, you are probably asksuch things? An animal does not. It eats what it wants with no thought of maintaining any kind of balance. Or does it? An animal does maintain a balance in nutrition! Except that it does so by instinct, whereas man, blessed with the "superior" faculty of intelligence, can choose and select his food. What is the result?

LIFE EXPECTANCY

The average man today can expect to live to be 68; but some doctors think he should live to 150. The lower animals do much better than man.

According to Dr. Edward L. Bortz: a dog is fullgrown at two years, lives to an average twelve; a cat is full-grown at 11/2, lives to ten; a horse, full grown at four, reaches 25.

Reasoned Dr. Bortz: "If a man is physically mature at 25, then he should have an average normal life span of 150 years."

Why does not man live proportionately as long as the dog, the horse, or other animals?

For the simple reason that, given the power to think, he seems to have lost most of his instinctive powers.

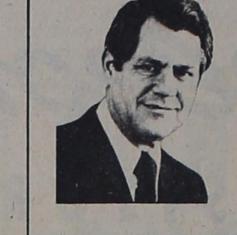

When man traded instinct for intellect he made a bad bargain as far as his health was concerned. Instinct would never lead him to over-refined foods, starches, artificial sweets and fried victuals dripping with grease.

Yet his "intellect" does!

Thus it seems that in the matter of nourishing his body and attaining a ripe old age, man fares much worse with his "brain" than an animal does with its instinctive powers.

Many people are trying to keep about half the families in America-those living in rural or non-urban areasfrom losing one of their few sources of inexpensive entertainment: Television programs.

An attempt is being made to allow pay-cable TV to siphon off the more popular shows now being seen for free.

However, according to the National Grange, "For people residing in rural or non-urban areas cable TV would come late, if ever," and if it did, to watch at home would be costly for viewers.

The American Farm Bureau Federation favors legislation to divest the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) of any power to authorize such a system. The Federation urges the FCC to adopt regulations governing community antenna systems to ensure that they do not impair free broadcast services to rural areas.

Many concerned people in rural areas and elsewhere are writing to their Congresspersons and Senators, urging them to follow the Federation's advice.

Anyone interested in learning more about the pay-cable TV situation, can write for a free booklet to Q & A Booklet, 1771 N Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.

WASHINGTON, D.C ... FROM THE TIME SCHOOLS CLOSE IN MAY OR JUNE until they open again in the latter part of August or September, there is an influx of visitors to Washington. Included are large numbers of young people who come to view firsthand those things they have learned about during the school year. For many, this is their first trip away from home and, no doubt, will be long remembered.

IT IS A FINE THING FOR PEOPLE TO SEE their Nation's Capital and, especially, the Congress in Session. It must give a greater appreciation of what the seat of Government is

WE HAVE JUST HAD A GROUP of Future Farmers of America who were here on an annual trip sponsored by the FFA and their schools. In a few days, we will have a large group of 4-H Clubbers and Government-in-Action students who will tour various Government buildings, including visits to the galleries of the House of Representatives and the Senate. This is also an annual occasion, as are a number of other groups of young people chosen from their organizations to come to Washington. THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN

HERE AND OBSERVED the Sessions of Congress may have experienced disappointments in seeing the procedures on the Floors of the two bodies of Congress. Depending on the type of legislation being considered and at what stage it is being debated, all too often the impression is left that there is not a total participation by Members. Oftentimes, a Member is up making a speech with few Members in their seats and apparently those not paying very close attention to what is being said. This impression is not good and, especially, for younger people who expect to see every Member in his seat and everything in order.

THE FACT IS THAT IT IS VIRTUALLY IMPOSSIBLE for every member to be in attendance at all times. There are Committee meetings where, in most instances, the real work on legislation is performed. Others are seeing Constituents, answering their telephones responding to the multitude of letters which arrive daily or conferring with staff people. Al sorts of demands are made on a

Member's time and becomes a part of his daily duties.

LEGISLATION IS FIRST DE BATED under what is known as "general" debate. The time for general debate is set by the Rules Committee and can be from one hour to ten hours, depending on the particular legislation. During this period, time is yielded by the managers. of the bill to other Members. When the tme for a general debate has expired, rules permitting amendments follow: Members of the Committee from which legislation comes are first recognized for amendments, followed by other Members who wish to offer some change. In this period, the attendance is much greater since only three Committees, namely, the Ways and Means Rules and Appropriations, can hold sessions during this time. It is necessary for a Member to be present to become informed before voting. SO. A LOT DEPENDS ON WHAT PERIOD a particular debate is in for visitors in the galleries to get a true impression. There are times when the conduct in the Chamber appear to be something like the New York, Stock Exchange and, again, when it appears that no one is interested in what is taking place.

AS OFTEN AS POSSIBLE this is explained to Constituents and, particularly, our young people. It seems important that they have an understanding of what goes on and why.
