

Cheerful Trade Reports Given Roosevelt

Sharp Increase In Home Buying, Other Business Developments Contribute To Optimism

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—A sharp increase in home financing and encouraging reports of other business activities cheered President Roosevelt and his advisers today.

Amid the bustle of last-minute business before starting his month-long tour tonight, the president received word of these economic developments:

- The Federal Housing Administration reported that home financing activity reached a new high in June, some phases gaining 60 and 75 percent over June, 1937. Administrator Stewart McDonald said the FHA would insure $1,000,000,000 of new building this year.
- Postmaster General Farley said postal earnings for the last 12 months were the highest on record.
- The rural electrification administration made its first allotments in the new "pump-priming" program, setting aside $11,250,000 for 98 rural power projects in 15 states and Puerto Rico.
- The interstate commerce commission authorized eastern railroads to increase coach fares one-half cent a mile. The carriers estimated this would boost revenue $30,000,000 a year.
- Chairman Jesse H. Jones announced the RFC would borrow more than $700,000,000 in the next 12 months to repay loans made by the treasury.

Stocks Slip After Brisk Upswing

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—Profit selling in industrials, tipped over the stock market today after heavy forenoon buying of rails and utilities had touched off one of the sharpest upswings of the recent recovery.

Purchasing orders from all parts of the country and abroad piled up overnight in brokerage offices and, for 53 minutes after the opening, the ticker tape was much as 7 minutes behind. Blocks of 1,000 to 10,000 shares changed hands on the resumption of the upturn with gains ranging from 1 to more than 3 points. The new stock exchange "flash" system was again put into use for a while to bring instantaneous quotations of leaders to boardrooms.

There was a subsequent substantial slow-down as offerings began to trickle into the strong industrial markets of the past two weeks. At the start of the final hour volume again expanded briskly on the outside and initial advances were reduced or converted into declines of fractions to a point or more in numerous cases. The ticker once more lagged 2 minutes for a brief interval. Activity then slackened and extreme set-backs were cut in many instances at the close. Aircrafts were given a belated round-up. Transfers were around 2,700, 000 shares.

Buoying the carriers at the start was the approval of the interstate commerce commission of the petition of eastern roads for an increase of 1-1/2 cent per mile in passenger fares. Most rail stocks were ahead at the finish, but down from the best.

In addition to the railway ruling, sustaining influences were seen in optimistic comments of Washington authorities and further signal business and industry may be getting ready to register some real improvement.

American Heads Refugee Project

United Front For Minorities Is Group's Aim

EVIAN-LES-BAINS, France, July 7 (AP)—Myron C. Taylor, the United States delegate, today was elected president of the inter-governmental committee on refugees, meeting here as a result of President Roosevelt's invitation to other nations to discuss the refugee problem.

He was nominated by Senator Henry Berenger of France. Election was by acclamation.

For the first time since the meeting began yesterday the delegates broke into applause when Berenger referred to Taylor as "the personal representative of the great humanitarian who caused this meeting to be called, President Franklin Roosevelt."

Jewish, Catholic and Protestant refugee representatives formed a united front to obtain immediate international aid for what they described as "the oppressed minorities of the world."

They agreed at a meeting to name a common spokesman and stand united on a program of petitions to the inter-governmental committee of refugees.

Representatives of the three religious groups agreed on four demands to be made on the committee:

That the committee should consider the plight of refugees throughout the world as well as those from Germany, including Austria;

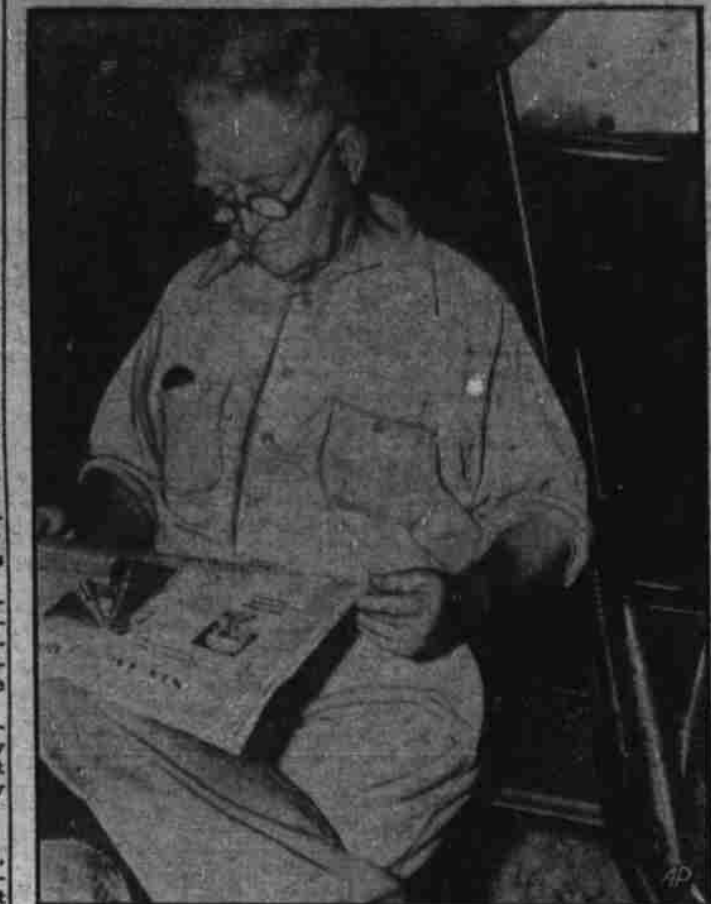

That any plans for the immigration and establishment of refugees should include those who already have left Germany as well as those still there;

That negotiations should be started with Germany to obtain permission for refugees to take goods and money out with them;

That liberty of immigration to Palestine should be reestablished.

FD Off Tonight For Tour Of Nation

GARNER TAKES IT EASY

Outwardly unconcerned over all this new talk of his being the 1940 democratic presidential nominee, Vice-President Garner remains far from the turmoil of Washington and lets his newspaper tell him what's going on in governmental and political affairs. Right now he is interested, anyhow in fishing and target practice near Uvalde. Note the guns.

Kidnaper Is Denied Help

Victim's Mother Won't Join In Plea For Clemency

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., July 7 (AP)—The Florida pardon board refused today to commute the death sentence of Franklin Pierce McCall, Jr., for the kidnaping of James Bailey Cash, Jr., at Princeton, Fla., on May 28.

WATCH IS KEPT FOR RIVER EXPEDITION

LEE'S FERRY, Ariz., July 7 (AP)—A dogged vigil was kept along the silt-filled Colorado river here today as conflicting reports seeped in regarding the date the six-member Nevills expedition planned to reach this Northern Arizona outpost.

Two river veterans expressed belief the party would not reach here before weekend.

Before the expedition left Green River, Utah, July 20, its leader, Norman Nevills, Utah riverman, told newspapermen he estimated they would arrive here July 4.

BORAH IN BED

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—Senator Borah (R-Idaho), 73-year-old dean of the senate, was in bed today under a physician's orders that he rest after a breakdown because of overwork.

Adds Georgia Date To His Schedule

To Deliver Several Talks In Cause Of 'Liberalism'

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—President Roosevelt added another politically significant speaking engagement to his cross country tour today by accepting an invitation to visit Barnesville, Ga., August 11. Mr. Roosevelt leaves Washington tonight.

George Not Present

The invitation was extended by a delegation of Georgians, including Lawrence Camp, federal district attorney at Atlanta and candidate for the democratic nomination for the U. S. senate seat now held by Senator George. George, who frequently has opposed the administration, was not in the delegation.

The president's long trip, taking on some of the aspects of a stump tour for "liberal" candidates will bring him also into three other states—Kentucky, Oklahoma and California—where he is expected to make it clear that he would like to have New Deal supporters sent to the senate.

The occasion for the Barnesville speech will be the dedication of a rural electrification development. Earlier on the same day the president will go to Athens, Ga., where he will receive a degree from the state university.

Legion Meet Set Tonight

Final Plans To Be Arranged For Regional Conclave

Consolidation of efforts to entertain more than 1,000 American Legion and auxiliary members of the fifth division here Saturday and Sunday will be getting in a meeting at the Howard County Legion post this evening at 8 o'clock at the Settlers hotel.

R. R. McEwen, post commander, said that all commitments were especially urged to take part in the meeting to shape final plans for the weekend gathering of Legionnaires and auxiliary members from Mineral Wells to El Paso and Amarillo to Del Rio.

Registration urged

Local people were being invited to register for the convention, even if not affiliated with the Legion. The fee is $1 and offers free swimming, golfing, a sing party Saturday afternoon for men and a tea for women, a dance Saturday evening and a barbecue at noon Sunday. Pre-convention registrations will be accepted at the chamber of commerce office.

On the program, beside entertainment features, are addresses by leading Legion officials of the state and nation. Outstanding auxiliary leaders, too, will appear before that section of the convention.

McEwen said he expected an early 100 per cent registration of the 130 members of the comparatively young Howard county post.

Germany Due To Share Heavily In Mexico's Industrial Orders

Reich Supposedly Will Receive Most Of Oil Which Has Been Sold

MEXICO CITY, July 7 (AP)—Germany appeared to be in a strong position today to get a good share of Mexican industrial orders through the sale of $10,000,000 worth of oil to a New York firm.

Official and unofficial sources said payments would be 40 per cent cash and the rest in credits for machinery and industrial products, most of which would go to Germany since she is understood to be getting more than half the oil.

The United States heretofore has received the lion's share of the Mexican import trade although Germany, especially eager for better foreign markets, has pushed sales of technical equipment, hardware and machinery to Mexico.

Mexico's position also was improved through the large oil transaction between the Mexican government and W. R. Davis, head of the New York company of that name. Mexico has had trouble disposing of export oil since March 15 when the government took over wells of 17 American and British concerns.

Mexico has lacked markets and tankships, for oil companies control nearly all tankers. Davis has 27 tankships, and sources here said he was confident he could handle all the oil Mexico could produce for export.

From Expropriated Wells

The new order will be filled with oil from the expropriated wells and from those the government owned before expropriation. Davis, formerly of Montgomery, Ala., has a refinery and a distributing firm in Hamburg, Germany, a refinery in Scarborough, and is building one in Dublin. His headquarters are in New York but his company operates extensively in Europe.

Oil men mentioned the possibility that the expropriated companies might attach Davis' ships should they carry oil from expropriated wells on the legal contention that the oil is theirs. If the oil can be moved without interference the transaction would strengthen considerably the Mexican economic position.

It was reported Mexico planned an increase in export taxes from four to 12 per cent to get a share of exporters' profits resulting from a decline in the value of the peso, which was quoted yesterday at 4.90 to the dollar.

Start Survey For Pipeline

Crews Running Levels For Water Main To The Concho

Lamar Acker, instrument man for Fross and Nichols engineering concern, started his crew to work Thursday on running levels for a projected pipe line route to the North Concho river from here.

Task of running the lines was estimated to require about six weeks.

The work being done by Acker and his crew is under the direction of Marvin C. Nichols to determine the feasibility of a pipe line to a proposed dam site from here.

City Manager E. V. Spence said that the plans for a dam on the North Concho had been completed together with all supporting data. Congress will be asked to make appropriations for such a structure at next session.

O'BRIEN TO ADDRESS BAPTIST GROUP

Rev. Dick O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist church in Stamford, will be principal speaker at the Men's Brotherhood of the First Baptist church here Monday evening. It was announced Thursday.

More absentee voter poured into the county clerk's office Wednesday to bring the total in date to 30 such votes. Applications confined to be received by the clerk's staff. Persons planning an absence of town or who are doubtful about being here July 22, the date of the first democratic primary, may cast absentee votes.

Terrorism Is Renewed In Shanghai

First Anniversary Of War Marked By Guerilla Attacks

SHANGHAI, July 7 (AP)—Terrorist attacks against Japanese resumed in Shanghai today on the first anniversary of the China war.

Foreign troops, including United States marines, and police reserves intensified their patrol of sultry streets to guard the International Settlement and the French Concession.

Four were killed and five wounded by bombs, grenades and bullets. Two of the dead were Japanese and two were Chinese. A British Colonial soldier was injured.

There were flurries of machine-gun fire in outlying districts and reports of sporadic shooting in industrial Pootung, across the Whangpoo river from Shanghai proper, that may have meant a new series of attacks by Chinese guerrilla units.

There had been similar outbreaks since the Japanese established control of Shanghai and drove the Chinese toward Nanking last November 9.

For the most part, however, outward order prevailed here while the battle front was carried beyond Nanking, further into the interior to the present drive along the Yangtze river in the Japanese effort to reach Hankow, China's provisional capital.

The Chinese and Japanese armies now are in a near-deadlock along the Yangtze about Hukow and Kiangning, 150 miles from Hankow and 450 miles from Shanghai.

JAPAN OBSERVES DATE

TOKYO, July 7 (AP)—Japan observed the first anniversary of her undeclared war on China today with a curious mingling of deep religious symbolism and harsh wartime practicality.

A moment of silence was observed at high noon.

Throughout the day, thousands made solemn pilgrimages to military shrines where, according to the Shinto belief, still live 100,000 of men killed in battle.

The anniversary was used, also, to spur the nation to greater personal sacrifices to meet Japan's desperate economic struggle—which has paralleled the fighting in China.

No less important than commemoration of the dead was the duty for Japanese today to live simply and frugally. Special lunches, costing 12 sen, about three cents, were eaten throughout the empire.

New Turmoil In Holy Land

Britain Sends Cruiser To Haifa As Riots Continue

JERUSALEM, July 7 (AP)—The British government today ordered the 7,500-ton cruiser Emerald to Haifa, where 131 persons have been killed or wounded in two days of rioting.

The blackest Holy Land situation since the bloody Arab general strike of 1936 caused the call for reinforcements.

Official sources said 23 Arabs and six Jews had died and 92 Arabs and 11 Jews had been wounded since a bomb yesterday fanned Arab-Jewish strife into new turmoil.

It also was reported the 32,000-ton battle cruiser Repulse, one of the most powerful warships afloat, would arrive at Haifa tomorrow.

The Emerald, homeward bound from the East Indies, was diverted to Haifa from Malta and was due at the Palestine port today.

All Palestine was tense. Ships closed down as Arabs attempted to demonstrate.

Twenty-eight funerals were held at Haifa in the early morning under heavy police guard.

Fire Rescue Fails; Ten Boys Perish

LISBON PORTUGAL, July 7 (AP)—Ten boys died today when firemen failed to rescue them from a fireproof wooden structure set ablaze to permit an exhibition fire drill.

Ten others were injured as they fled the drill at Colubra, 160 miles north of Lisbon.

The building was soaked with gasoline for the spectacle with boys from 12 to 20 distributed through its rooms. The boys, some sons of firemen, were to receive 15 maracas (45 cents) for their trip.

The drilling brigades went to headquarters 400 yards from the building to await a green-lit alarm after the fire was started.

The flames spread quickly and in terror, the firemen, intent through the smoke to effect the planned rescue.

Two of the remaining boys died in the flames. Eight were burned fatally in jumping from windows.

Oil Mill Official Is En Route Here

Vester Smith, who represented a large processing concern in negotiations with local leaders for establishment of a cotton seed oil mill here, was en route here from Paris Thursday, the chamber of commerce advised.

He hoped to have local subscriptions of stock in hand and to clear title to a factory site northwest of town, it was said.

As soon as the stock money, only a fractional part of the $100,000 value of the proposed plant, is received and the land title approved, foundations will be poured for the mill in order that it may be ready for operation by November 1.

J. H. Groene, chamber of commerce manager, urged those who have not given their subscription checks to their bankers to do so at once.

Armed Fugitives Head For Texas

DURANT, Okla., July 7 (AP)—Four armed men, at least two of whom believed to be Kansas state reformatory fugitives, fled south toward Texas today in an automobile taken at gunpoint from a Durant hardware merchant.

Sheriff John Williams said the men left behind on a country lane seven miles south of here an automobile stolen from Clarence White, a lunch stand operator, at Sand yesterday.

The Sand robbers had abandoned there an automobile stolen from Capt. E. J. Coffman of the Hutchinson, Kan., reformatory, during the break.

E. P. Hall, the Durant hardware merchant, said he was robbed late last night by four men after he stopped to fix a flat tire on his car. With rifles at his back he was roused down the road and told to "keep walking."

BILLIONS TOSSED AWAY IN THE FIRST YEAR OF CHINESE WAR

SHANGHAI, July 7 (AP)—The first year of the Oriental war has seen treasure by the billions tossed into the garbage for an empire.

China has suffered material damage of perhaps $1,000,000,000, counting the destruction of the nation's economic life. Her cost for waging the war must be of similar amount, but can not be estimated.

Japan has poured at least $2,000,000,000 into her bid for conquest, which has resulted in her annual occupation of all or considerable portions of nine of China's richest provinces, penetration of her land forces into two others and heavy damage by aerial bombardment in six more.

Foreigners have suffered heavily, too, and a fourth of the total foreign investment of some $2,000,000,000 is believed to have been lost. American citizens' losses up to April were estimated at $122,000,000; British losses at perhaps twice that.

These rough estimates take no account of the vast tragedy that has befallen the Chinese people and the cost in dead and wounded civilians and soldiers, which has risen well above 1,000,000.

Count Made A Mistake In Taking Yankee Girl To Be As Submissive As Her European Sisters

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Writer
NEW YORK, July 7.—The tempestuous clash in London between Sir Owen Dixon and the British cabinet provides a fine commentary on the European tradition that a man is ruler of his wife and home by divine right.

Even in democratic England man's absolute supremacy has been acknowledged (very generally speaking, though with some exceptions), since the days of the prehistoric pitdown man of Sussex who dragged his bride-to-be to his cave by the hair, and no questions asked.

I have known an English court to rule, not so long ago, that a husband was within his rights in chastising his wife if she was naughty. It is only in very recent years that a woman could get a divorce on the same grounds as her husband. She couldn't divorce him for unfaithfulness, because that was his right.

Count Haugwitz - Reventlow's mistake was in thinking that Yankee girls are as submissive as are many of their European sisters. It would seem from the court testimony that he committed a double fault by trying regimentation on a girl who not only had all the spirit of young America, but was equipped with forty million dollars worth of special prerogatives besides.

The cold truth is that marriages between American women and Europeans frequently are failures because the man expects too much submission from the wife. An American man may get along with a foreign wife, since he expects to give her a fifty-fifty break. But usually doesn't work the other way.

There was considerable debate over this point when young Lord Northesk, of England, separated from his wife, the beautiful Jessica Browne, whose face and figure once were among the decorative assets of the late Mr. Flo Ziegfeld's follies.

His lordship's reason for the rupture was interesting. He was quoted as saying that in England the man is boss of the house, while in American the woman rules. Therefore, he had come to the conclusion that marriages between Americans and English were a mistake.

Accused Man Is Declared Sane

SEATTLE, July 7 (AP)—Two psychiatrists have agreed Charles Felix Butte, once wealthy San Francisco clubman, was perfectly sane when he clubbed his wife to death. Prosecutor B. Gray Warner said today.

"Butte is in a depressed condition of mind," Warner quoted Dr. Nathan K. Rieckles as saying. "He knows he did wrong and he said he was ready to take his medicine."

Butte was being held in jail without charge. Joseph Butte, Ontario, Ore., electrical engineer, said he would not take any legal steps on his father's behalf until arrival of the latter's elder brother, Judge George C. Butte of Austin, Tex., who is expected here shortly.

Younger Men May Get High Posts In The Army

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—The war department is considering a "purge" of some of the seniors among the 12,500 army officers to make room for younger men.

A member of the high command, Brigadier General Lorenzo D. Gasser, disclosed today that a revision of the promotion system was being arranged for presentation to congress.

In contrast with the British army's recent elimination of some top-ranking officers, the American revision would affect chiefly intermediate grades of captain, major, lieutenant colonel, and colonel.

These ranks have been overcrowded by some 4,000 officers who entered the army during the World War and remained in the service. The revision, aimed at preventing stagnation, contemplates enforced retirement on pensions of those who reach fixed ages without advancing to a higher grade.

INSURGENTS FACE STRONG DEFENSE

HENDAYE, France, (At The Spanish Frontier), July 7 (AP)—Stiffened resistance of government troops south of Teruel blocked insurgent efforts today to drive down the Guadalquivir river valley and strike toward Valencia from a third direction.

General Jose Varela's Castilian forces were at the borders of Valencia province but government troops, who had fallen back 12 miles in five days, hastily dug into new positions and fought the advancing insurgents to a standstill.

COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE FAVORED

AUSTIN, July 7 (AP)—Bruce W. Bryant chairman, said today the board of pardons and paroles would recommend commutation to life of the death sentence given Willie Caesar, 41-year-old El Campo negro.

Governor James V. Allred added he would follow the recommendation of the board.

Caesar had been sentenced to die in the electric chair at Huntsville penitentiary after midnight tonight for slaying Tip M. Simmons, a special officer, in front of an El Campo dance hall, June 16, 1936.

WOULD ORDER FORD TO BARGAIN WITH C. I. O. UNION

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—An executive for the labor relations board told the board today it should order the Ford Motor company to bargain collectively with the United Auto Workers union (C.I.O.) at its St. Louis assembly plant.

He also proposed an order to enforce reemployment to 192 workers discharged or refused jobs because of their participation in union activities and strike last November. The examiner was T. E. Dudley. His report, under board procedure allows the company 10 days in which to comply.

FRANCE WARNED ON OCCUPYING ISLANDS

TOKYO, July 7 (AP)—The foreign office announced tonight that a note had been sent to France declaring that the French occupation of the Paracel Islands was "likely to give rise to some unexpected misunderstanding between the Annamese policemen and the Japanese" working there.

Kensuke Horinouchi, vice minister for foreign affairs, handed the note to Charles Arsene Henry, French ambassador.

OIL POTENTIAL UP

WICHITA, Kan., July 7 (AP)—Kansas' oil production reached a new record high of 4,409,328 barrels daily on June 30, an increase of 26,079 barrels daily over the preceding month, the conservation division of the state corporation commission reports.

The figure was based on capacity production of 15,465 wells, compared with 15,398 on May 30 which were rated capable of making 3,315,449 barrels daily.

PIONEER IN FIELD OF VOCATIONAL EDUCATION DIES

SAN ANTONIO, July 7 (AP)—Dr. Charles Robertson Allen, 75, pioneer in the field of vocational education, will be buried at Malagorda after funeral services here today.

Known as the "father of vocational education in America," Dr. Allen at the time of his death yesterday was an instructor in St. Mary's university here. He suffered a heart attack Monday after returning from a trip to Daytona Beach, Fla.

As personnel director for the Emergency Fleet corporation during the World war, he won nationwide fame in the vocational education field by his swift training of more than 200,000 workmen to skill in various ship-building trades.

A native of New Bedford, Mass., Dr. Allen was graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he majored in electrical engineering, and for several years worked as an electrical engineer.

He was survived by his widow, Mrs. Ada Talbot Rath Allen.

The Lydians were the first to use gold currency.

GOVERNOR SILENT AS TO HIS VOTE

AUSTIN, July 7 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred will vote within the next few days but he's not telling the public what names he is favoring "unscratched."

The chief executive said today he had telegraphed the county clerk at Wichita Falls for an advance ballot. Absentees voting in the first democratic primary July 23 began this week.

KOBE CLEARS DEBRIS AFTER BIG FLOOD

TOKYO, July 7 (AP)—Flood waters that surged out of the hills surrounding Kobe virtually disappeared today and the stricken western harbor city began clearing away the wreckage of its worst disaster.

Official figures put deaths at 203, with 1,200 injured and 429 missing. Experts were expressed that the death toll might reach 1,000.

KILLED IN FALL

HUNTSVILLE, July 7 (AP)—Frank C. McClellan, 51, roofing worker, was fatally injured in a fall from a second story roof yesterday.

Fairview News

Regular Sunday school and church services are scheduled at the Prairie View Baptist church Sunday, with Rev. Rickles preaching.

After taking off Saturday and Sunday, most farmers in this area spent the Fourth at work in the fields. Because the crop is so late, they are wasting as little time as possible in cultivation. The warm weather is proving beneficial to the crops, and most fields are clean of weeds—sufficiently so to permit cultivation by plow, with little hoeing.

The home demonstration club and Parent-Teacher association at Moore are sponsoring a candidates rally at the Moore schoolhouse next Monday night. Since there will be no such meeting at Fairview this year, all residents of this community are urged to attend. Women are requested to bring cakes and freasers of ice cream.

Repair work on the school building, damaged by the storms of a few weeks ago, is about complete.

Emma Jo Graves, teacher here, has returned from Alpine, where she had been attending Sul Ross.

W. A. Langley has been on the sick list for the past week.

Grandma Reed was a guest Monday night in the J. W. Wooten home.

Mrs. Jack Reed spent the past week with her parents who reside near Lamesa.

Carl Hammack was honored on his 21st birthday Sunday when his mother, Mrs. J. G. Hammack, gave a dinner. Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hammack and children of Roscoe, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Newton of near Midland, and J. G. Hammack, Jr., and family.

Colene Langley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clotis Langley is recovering after undergoing an operation for removal of tonsils.

A house shower for Mrs. Bob Wheeler and her daughter, whose home was destroyed in the recent storm, will be given Friday night in the home of Mrs. J. W. Wooten.

A thief raided the Key home while members of the family were away last Saturday evening, taking wearing apparel, bed clothing and numerous other articles.

TEXAS IS SHORT ON CIVIL SERVICE JOBS

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—The civil service commission reported today 37 states and territories on June 30 had fewer residents in civil service positions in Washington than they were entitled to under the apportionment law.

Civil service jobs in the capital are apportioned among the states as nearly as possible according to their population.

Massachusetts with 1,583 was the only state which had exactly filled its quota. Thirteen states and the District of Columbia exceeded their quotas.

Texas' quota is 2,169 with 897 occupied.

Report Given On Liquor Revenues

AUSTIN, July 7 (AP)—Texas liquor revenues for June totaled $430,603.93, bringing revenue for 10 months of the fiscal year to $5,571,790.33. Liquor Administrator Bert Ford announced today.

Ford said $283,954 of the June revenue would be prorated to the old age assistance fund and $84,992 to the available school fund.

With June allocations completed, $14,595,199 will have been distributed to state funds, since the liquor control board was organized, including $10,942,420 to old age assistance and $3,218,872 to schools.

The enforcement division reported 202 convictions and fines totaling $17,998 in June. Fines in liquor cases go to counties in which convictions are obtained.

Chattergrams

By Jeanne Suits

Housewives think they have a hard time slaving all day over a hot stove, but the business-girl has her troubles too—she slaves all day over a hot typewriter. In fact, that's one of the things that is wrong with the world today—too much labor and not enough leisure.

Leisure is something most of the human race always lacks, but which nevertheless is the true foundation of art, beauty and profound thought. Under the modern set-up, we don't have enough time to delve into the artsy things of life, seek the beauty of nature or produce philosophy and wit equivalent to the scholars of old.

Our lives are adjusted to such a high rate of speed we seem to be whirling through the air in a fog as dense as a writer's description of death's old London. If we could either get above or below the fog, we would regain our perspective and produce what is known as culture. But instead, the majority whirl with the masses with not enough leisure in a calendar of days to fill an hour.

There are only two things in the world that can alter the leisureless class situation—fear and pain, the most dreadful of which is pain, and together they form a sort of grindstone on which to sharpen human wit. When man fears war, destruction, famine, or death, all else becomes subordinate, and he starts to think like he's never thought before. Or if something happens to him of a destructive physical nature, causing intense pain and fear of death, the mind begins a big turnover in the production of interesting ideas and positive plans.

While all of my friends are in California, New Mexico and Colorado writing back those am-havin'-a-good-time—wish-you-were-here cards, I sit before a wheezy typewriter beating out monotonous tones. The only consolation is to think that perhaps the postcards took advantage of my ignorance and exaggerated the scenes. I learned long ago that nothing is ever so magnificent as it is painted.

Circus World Sure 'Big Top' Will Be Back

Ringling's Bad Season Won't Stop Program For 1939

NEW YORK, July 7 (UP)—It has been a tough year on the nation's $100,000,000 circus industry, but "the circus will come back—it always does."

But when Ringling Brothers, the "greatest show on earth," announced at Scranton, Pa., that it would cut short the regular 30-week season and move back to winter quarters, the entertainment world was shocked.

Two other shows—Downey Brothers and the Tim McCoy Wild West show—had closed during the season, but 17 still are operating despite generally bad circus conditions.

Of the 17, four are "railroad shows"—Cole Brothers in Massachusetts, Robbins Brothers in Eastern Canada and New England, Al G. Barnes and Solo-Floto in the Northwest and Hagenback-Wallace in Western Canada.

Labor trouble developed at the opening in Madison Square Garden, however, and flared again in Scranton after the circus had run into a streak of bad show weather.

THE SPORTS PARADE BY HANK HART

Ramsdell Takes Mound Against Spudders Today

Aid Needed

The meeting of the committee which is selling stock for the Big Spring baseball club last night in the studios of KST in the Crawford hotel was the most representative held thus far and more was accomplished toward ironing out the local problems.

The unit is still far off its goal since the ants have been raised, several times running into apparent stone walls, but when curfew sounded the force unanimously agreed to give it another trial.

These men are giving valuable service toward making the drive a success, sacrificing their own time toward putting the club back on its feet. Local people, whether they are baseball fans or not, should be able to sacrifice a little and lend cooperation.

The committee has until July 15 to make a definite statement as to the outcome, will probably know several days before then what is really going to happen.

There is a strong possibility that Shreveport might kick through with a working agreement within the next few days. Jack Hutchinson, local franchise holder, has been dickering for the past few days toward that end.

If that arrangement could be made then that would relieve some of the financial strain.

Several expressed the opinion last night that if the funds are raised, they would favor working the club independently and taking a chance on reaping greater profits off their players at the end of the season.

However, the Shreveport aid would come in handy if the drive falls short.

Good And Bad

The infield in the local park is considered the worst in the league and we're not talking about the players but the playing grounds. In other cities, the Baron inner cordon, composed of Billy Capps, Richard Hobson, Bobby Decker and Harry Siebert, are called the greatest fielders in this loop.

Decker, at second base, especially is affected by the conditions here. He shines at Lubbock, where his play constantly draws favorable comment from the stands, and in Midland, where we've seen him perform.

If the reconstruction goes through, then we hope that pains are taken to rebuild the local inner garden and slow the lads to do some real fielding.

The continued batting slumps of Joe Saporito and Harry Siebert, left fielder and first sacker, respectively, are nothing. Manager Barashe no little.

Added to that, Jo-Jo has long had trouble with the sun field and Charley is looking for another spot to hit him.

Lucas Master Of Barons Wednesday

Lefthander Tames Locals With Three Base Licks

Raymond Lucas, a spindle legged lefthander, handcuffed the Big Spring Barons, allowing only three base hits, to lead the Wink Spudders to a 9-1 victory Wednesday afternoon at Baron park and square the series with the locals at one game all.

Today it will be Willard Ramsdell's job to stop the Tatem. Either Molly Ferguson or Red Roberts were slated to toss 'em over for the Spuds in the series finale. The Barons hit the road Friday morning, playing first in Wink, then moving to Lubbock.

Lucas moved only three Big Spring batters but his dinky little curves had the Barons popping up helplessly throughout the match. He faced only 30 batters during the afternoon, but walked two.

The Barons' ace, Johnny Soden, had plenty of trouble with the aroused champs. He gave up 15 base hits during the afternoon and was behind after the second inning when Kaerwer started the trouble by tallying on Bates' double.

The invaders counted twice more in the third before the locals chalked up their only score of the afternoon. "Tinborn" Berndt raced across the plate on Dick Hobson's long fly after singling and going all the way to third on Soden's line single.

Monheo rapped out three singles to pace the Spuds' batting parade along with Red Bates who accounted for a double and two singles and batted across two runs.

Three double plays, two of them started by outfielders, aided the Wink error along.

Bruen Leader In Britain's Open Tourney

Henry Cotton, Favored To Win, Trails By Four Strokes

SANDWICH, England, July 7 (AP)—Henry Cotton, who audibly and at length admired Jim Bruen during the last month's Walker cup golf matches, had an opportunity today to study the brilliant young Irish amateur's game from a different vantage point.

At the Walker cup matches Cotton was a spectator and commentator. Today, starting the second round in defense of his British open title at Royal St. George's, Henry, with a 74, was in 27th place. Bruen was tied for the lead, four strokes in front of Cotton.

That Cotton should be trailing at this point was no great surprise to his fellow pros. His putting, never season, yesterday, as he continued to use his new stiff-legged, piercing style on the greens, it was no better.

Bracketed with Bruen at the start of today's play were Scots Jim Adams and Johnny Falson, the latter the medalist; Marcel Dalis, Magnus of France, lone foreign threat; Ernie Whitcombe and Bill Cox, British Ryder cupper.

Omar Khayyala, author of the Rubikayn, was a mathematician and astronomer as well as a poet. He died in 1122.

FEWER FARMS IN TEXAS

The fact that there were 20,000 fewer farms in Texas on Jan. 1, 1938, than there were 12 months previously points to a condition which Texans should view with concern. This is a predominantly agricultural state, and its economy is based on the farm. A decline, within one year, of about four per cent in the number of farms, is a most unhealthy sign.

The figures are those of the state department of agriculture, which economist, Dr. C. Horace Hamilton, thinks that the increase in the number of tractors in use in Texas agriculture is the chief cause. The Denison Herald suggests that the government's policy of scarcity has driven many farmers to the cities. The number of tractors on Texas farms increased by 22 per cent in 1937, Dr. Hamilton notes. There is now a tractor to each five farms in Texas, and it may be that the farming of larger units, made possible by mechanization, has displaced many farm families.

Farm population, Dr. Hamilton's figures show, remained almost stationary in 1937. There was a gain of 112,000 and a loss of 111,000. Out of 26,000 farms, we may conclude, one-time owners or renters are now employees.

Whether it is the tractor, the depression, or the government that is to blame is a question for economists to answer. But a problem that the figures present is one for Texans to face.

OTHER PRODUCTS WITH COTTON

Almost every day come indications that cotton as king of the South has lost his throne, and that southern farmers, if they expect to make a living without government doles, will have to grow other things in addition to cotton. The trend is not only against the cotton grower but against every form of labor that produces or markets the textile.

The mechanical cotton picker has been in the making these many years. It is not yet here, but it will come. Remember what printers said when a type setting machine was announced? They said it would not work, but it did and does. So the cotton picker will work some day, and when it does thousands of part-time laborers will have no picking to do. The type-setting machine made work for more printers because publishers decided to print bigger papers with more pages. The cotton grower cannot do that way, because his acreage is set by the government and the price fixed by the government.

Now comes an experimenter proposing to plant cotton thickly and instead of chopping it to let it all grow, harvest it like grain, taking stalk, bolls and all, carry it to market in bales of about 150 pounds, press out the oil, and make the remainder into cellulose for manufacture of rayon and similar fabrics. He asserts that the cotton grower who does this will realize more money than from the present method of growing.

But what of the choppers, the pickers, the gins, the compresses, the railroads and trucks that now help to cotton under the present system of production for at least a part of their living? The answer is to make every Texas farm a real farm, with cotton as one of the products instead of the only product.

Now comes an experimenter proposing to plant cotton thickly and instead of chopping it to let it all grow, harvest it like grain, taking stalk, bolls and all, carry it to market in bales of about 150 pounds, press out the oil, and make the remainder into cellulose for manufacture of rayon and similar fabrics. He asserts that the cotton grower who does this will realize more money than from the present method of growing.

Washington Daybook

By Preston Grover

WASHINGTON—No Capitol Hill photographer considers the day well spent until he has caught a senator in some informal pose, and so it was that two of them were ganged up on Senator Norris of Nebraska at a quiet, rather unimportant hearing.

They wanted him to yawn so they could catch him with his mouth a gape. Nothing malicious about it; the boys just like an unusual shot like that, and the senators take it in good spirit. They moved in front of him, cameras all set, and began taking yawns. Norris watched them, his high-arched eyebrows giving him a perpetual look of innocent surprise, but he did not yawn.

Whenever his attention wandered, the photographers jiggled their cameras, aly repeating their yawns. Norris would not respond, but back of him a row of spectators caught the infection. Their yawns affected another bank of spectators across the room and behind the two cameramen. This new row of yawns opened squarely in front of the several senators at the hearing table and some of them yawned, but not Senator Norris.

The situation became so funny that the lads had to run for it, or take a round of good-natured ransing.

Funny At The Time

The president's press conferences not infrequently turn into family gatherings, with several Roosevelts present to enjoy the exchanges between papa and the newspapermen. At a recent one following the Roosevelt-Clark wedding, Anna Roosevelt Boettiger, tall, blonde and pretty, sat in on the show. The president was in high humor and not infrequently let Roosevelt laughs were going at a time.

At one point reporters asked about a stack of what appeared to be graduation certificates. The president said these were merely certificates of appointment of officials who had been baptized into federal service. Anna enjoyed that. The whole press corps joined with her in laughing at another one.

The president said he was to spend a day as guest of Eugene DuPont, father-in-law of Franklin, Jr., during a celebration in connection with the arrival of Swedish colonists in Delaware. After the visit, he said, he would journey down the coast to where they landed on the rocks—the Swedes, not the DuPonts.

Strangely enough, many of the president's quips are "atmospheric" in that they are funny at the time but fall dead with the retelling outside the electric zone of the press conferences.

Sons Unlike Father

It develops at this point that sons of Rocky Mountain senators like to work in their fathers' offices but as yet have shown no banking for political careers.

Senators Murray of Montana, Schwarts of Wyoming and Hatch and Graves of New Mexico each have a son working in their offices. Some of the boys are studying on the side—but not for political careers.

Man About Manhattan

by GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Colonel Jacob Ruppert quite naturally takes pride in his baseball clubs and his brewery, because his world champion Yankees have proved themselves the most devastating machine in the major leagues, and his brewery sends millions of flags of foaming suds down thirsty throats every day.

But there is a place where the colonel goes when his tires of business and desires the sequestration that only a sanctuary affords. Go up to Garrison, New York, and you will find it—a fine house built of stones from a pre-Revolutionary quarry. This is the colonel's pride and joy, a fact that may amuse you when you consider his millions in Manhattan real estate, his equine sports arena, his vast holdings here and there.

But this is the Ruppert hideaway. One thinks of Mr. Ruppert as Big Business—the executive who is signing a $25,000 contract for Lou Gehrig; or adding new subsidiaries to his beer empire.

At the moment he has his Yankees in a catfight with the Cleveland Indians. The colonel is a champion of sport. Athletics have always fascinated him. He used to be a fine amateur boxer, and a baseball player. You always see him at the big fights, or up at the stadium watching his Yankees do their stuff.

FLASHES OF LIFE

FORGOTTEN IN MEYER
 MERCHANTVILLE, N. J.—Miss St. Elizabeth Horner, just out of college and in search of a job, inserted this ad in a newspaper: "College grad, young and gay. Likes to play, but must make hay. Will mind the baby, sing the hash. Most anything to earn the cash."

RECORD
 NEW YORK—Chinese children are the best-behaved of any racial group in New York. The proof: only one case of juvenile delinquency has been reported in eight years among the 3,000 children of Chinatown. Proud Chinese leaders explained why by a group of inquiring legislators: "Among the young the most severe punishment is to lose their hair. The child is taught reverence for his parents."

CARE KEEPS UPON WATER
 ALBANY, Wis.—An individual

every morning at 7:45—wondering what's happened to the hired help. At the moment he has his Yankees in a catfight with the Cleveland Indians. The colonel is a champion of sport. Athletics have always fascinated him. He used to be a fine amateur boxer, and a baseball player. You always see him at the big fights, or up at the stadium watching his Yankees do their stuff.

But on the off days, on those weekends when he feels he can afford to spare the time, he slips off to Garrison, to the old stone house whose interior was fashioned from the ancestral mansion on Fifth avenue, where he lived as a child. And there he tosses peanuts to his monkeys, and scratches the ears of his grateful St. Bernard, and pours out an extra measure of oats for those old brewery horses.

That's the colonel. Pretty soon he is going to have another birthday, and on that day he'll be 65 years young. Well, congratulations, colonel. And on that one day, at least, I hope the Yankees kick the ass of the Indians.

Hollywood

Sights And Sounds
 by ROBBIN COONS

(Robbin Coons, our Hollywood columnist, is in New York for two weeks to see what movie activities are like in the East.)

NEW YORK—The search for a lady who might be called the hostess of New York leads to the Tilted Towered retreat of Vera Zorina, sometime and again-to-be of Hollywood.

Miss Zorina (courtesy Sam Goldwyn, as the program note informs) is the classic-featured Norwegian whose performance and dancing grace are such potent attractions in the S.R.O. musical of Rodgers and Hart, "I Married an Angel." In Hollywood she has been seen thus far only in the "Goldwyn Follies," in a role scarcely suggestive of the furor she could create as a romantic comedienne.

Mr. Goldwyn's courtesy recently was extended to permit Zorina's remaining for the run of the play. It was rather a strain on the Goldwyn courtesy to permit her to do the play at all, but Zorina had promised Producer Dwight Wiman long ago when she was in the London east of "On Your Feet," and to Mr. Goldwyn a promise is a promise—especially when a show looks like a hit. After Sam first pronounced the famous two words ("im-possible") Zorina hopped into a plane, caught Sam in New York, and convinced him it was possible. Sam thought a girl in pictures ought to stay in pictures. If she wanted the stage, she ought to forget pictures.

"But I could not do that," Zorina says. "I want pictures, but I want the stage and dancing too. I could never give up any of them. I want to go on—there is so much I must learn. I must learn to sing. I must develop as an actress. Some day I must play a serious dramatic role. I must keep on with the ballet. I must—"

But right here I must point out a couple of things myself. The first is that Zorina, wearing a slim-waisted blue peasantish frock, her every gesture a poem in grace, is the kind of interview subject who needn't say a thing. You can just sit and look and study—and you get what I mean. The second is that Zorina, at 21, has attained stardom on stage, screen, ballet. And not by accident. She was dancing when she was three. She was always dancing, always wanted to dance. Little Brigitte Arwid of Kristiansund, Norway, grew up in Berlin, studying dancing and the arts. She became Vera Zorina when she joined the Ballet Russe, wherein a Russian name is always demanded. (But Rodgers and Hart borrowed Brigitte for her character name in their musical.)

As if a nightly show and the usual matinees and a morning devoted to ballet study were not enough, Zorina has serious plans for painting and sculpture. But as a "host of New York" she is almost naively delighted. "I have two nice letters from people who want to organize Zorina fan clubs. Isn't that sweet—but what must I do, how should I answer them? I try so hard to answer all who write—I write and write so much that I have no time to write my own family. I am so flattered when my autograph is asked, but I cannot understand this craze for autographs. From the President, and from famous statesmen and writers and musicians, yes—but we who dance and act, we come and go so quickly that will our names be worth a few years from now?"

I couldn't answer that one. But if I collected stage and movie autographs, I'd want Zorina's on past performance and future promise.

CHINA CASUALTIES PUT AT 1,300,000 AFTER FIRST YEAR

TOKYO, July 7 (AP)—Marking the end of the first year of the "China incident," the war office announced today that Japanese had occupied 776,000 square miles of territory and caused 1,300,000 casualties.

The war office said this was estimated on the basis of 819,137 bodies left on battlefields. The announcement said 85,000 bodies were found in Nanking and the vicinity during December, or 2,000 more than it claimed were found around Shanghai during fighting there the previous three months. Japanese losses were listed at 85,000.

LOVE ON THE RANGE

Chapter 112
 by HILMA E. ITO

"YOU DEVIATION BAD MAN!" There was conviction in Lee's low voice when she spoke. "Moose Hackett is no four-fusher, if he's not the 'you-man' type."

"Neither is a coyote," Ankrom countered. "He's a believer in the motto: 'Them as fights an' runs away, will live to fight another day.' Now let's talk about something else. As a conversational topic, Brother Hackett grows extremely odious."

He was aware that in the darkness her eyes still remained upon his face; he realized his slip almost as soon as he made it and so was not surprised to hear her say: "Where did you learn to sling words around like that?" He answered carelessly, "I wanted a number of years at a university once," and was relieved that she let it go like that and did not rush at Ankrom backed away. Then suddenly Ankrom stopped—stopped short in his tracks and struck. That lashing fist took Hackett flush upon the jaw and checked all movement. His body sagged and he took an uncertain backward step or two. Then Ankrom's fist lashed again. Hackett reeled against the stable. A moment he paused spread-eagled there, then slumped inertly to the ground.

Ankrom stood where he was and waited. He wanted this settled now. A minute dragged in silence. Ankrom knew the men inside the bunkhouse had got wind of the affair and guessed that they were watching. But he did not turn; all his faculties were concentrated on that huddled mass that was Moose Hackett. The man might be out, or he might be playing possum. Long experience had taught Hur Ankrom to take no chances.

Another minute passed. Hackett stirred and groaned. His eyes opened and looked dull, uncomprehending. Finally he got to his feet, staggering a little. He was a strong man, injured to danger. Obviously he had never known a pulse of fear till now. But as his eyes encountered Ankrom where he stood as cold and motionless as some man of bronze, Moose Hackett's knees shook visibly, his eyes went wide and he drew air into his lungs in noisy gasps.

There fell a silence; strained, portentous. Ankrom broke it. "Well!" (Copyright, 1938, Nelson C. Nya.)

Coolness grew between Lee and Ankrom, tomorrow.

Second Half Looks Better To Oil Men

Production Curtailed, Consumption Going Higher

AUSTIN, July 7 (AP)—The oil industry enters the second half of the year with signs of general improvement.

Continued curtailment of production, the beginning of the peak period of gasoline consumption and indications of a possible business upturn have combined to create at least a statistical picture of betterment.

Students of the industry pointed to these factors as favorable elements in bringing supply and demand into balance. Mounting stocks of crude oil and gasoline caused sharp curtailment of production beginning in May and many agreed the lowered output was justified by the results.

Proponents noted crude stocks 37 per cent lower than a year ago and a reduction in gasoline supplies of 3,000,000 barrels for the week ended June 25, bringing motor fuel in storage to level only 3.4 per cent greater than a year ago.

Market observers who have estimated probable requirements for the rest of the year asserted confidence demand would be steady in July and August, providing there was no over-extension by operators and refiners.

Fuel oil stocks have shown a seasonal increase and were 37.2 per cent greater than a year ago but there was belief in some quarters that consumption would cut heavily into these inventories. A stock market advance and a reduction in steel prices were considered possible indications of a business upturn for the remaining months of the year which might include greater demands for fuel oil.

Crude oil and gasoline markets generally remained firm last week.

The Oil and Gas Journal reported a decline of 23,906 barrels daily in production of the nation's oil wells for the week ended July 2.

Oklahomans Await FD's Address

They're Wondering What He'll Say About Campaign
OKLAHOMA CITY, July 7 (AP)—Oklahoma politicians rushed through the closing days of a red-hot primary campaign and speculated anxiously today about what President Roosevelt will have to say here Saturday.
Preparations for his visit, three days before the nomination of candidates for senate, house, governor and other offices, have gone forward in a growing air of tension.
Supporters of Senator Elmer Thomas, seeking renomination, took the lead in arranging for the president's reception and they openly predicted a Roosevelt pat-on-the-back for their favorite.
But Gov. E. W. Marland, ardent New Dealer, who also is in the senate race, believes the president will not openly endorse Thomas, because Marland received a telephone call yesterday from a presidential secretary, he said, inviting him to board Mr. Roosevelt's train at McAlester in Eastern Oklahoma. The governor will accept.
"it would seem to me peculiar to have me ride on the train and then have Thomas receive an endorsement," he said.
Thomas will board the Roosevelt train, probably at Memphis, Tenn. His headquarters announced he would be "official escort" here.
A third senatorial aspirant, Gomer Smith, fifth district congressman, appeared much less concerned about the president's visit than Thomas or Marland. Smith has tentatively accepted an invitation to serve on the official reception committee.
Meanwhile, five men struggling for the democratic nomination for governor wondered how the president's visit would affect their chances. Four of them are New Deal democrats—Leon C. Phillips of Okemah, former Governor Jack Walton, W. S. Key of Wewoka, and Ira Finley, Oklahoma City. The fifth, former Governor W. H. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, tried to wrest the presidential nomination from Roosevelt in 1932, and in 1936 introduced Alf M. Landon, republican presidential nominee, at Oklahoma City.

Eyston Preps For New Speed Marks

WENDOVER, Utah, July 7 (AP)—In this little railroad tank town straddling the Utah-Nevada border, Captain George E. T. Eyston of England optimistically began making preparations today for an attempt to hold his land speed record of 311.42 m.p.h. to 330 m.p.h.
Eyston inspected the vast Bonneville salt flats 18 miles east of here where he hopes to unleash his 24-cylinder "Thunderbolt" to a new record late this month. He also went over circular tracks where he will attempt to set new distance records in his second racer, "Speed of the Wind."

Read, Bostick And Owens To Fight In SA

Ellis Opposes Vick, Bostick Featured With Williams
Three Big Spring boys will leave tomorrow for San Angelo where they are slated to exhibit their fighting wares before the Concho folk again Friday evening on Don Legge's TAAE show.
Alton Bostick, popular welter who has scored two knockouts in as many starts in an Angelo ring, will be pitted against David Williams of Abilene in a featured bout.
Ellis Read, whose opponent "took a powder" in his last trip to Angelo, is all set to go with Lloyd Vick, a tough Abilene boy while Johnny Owens, feather, will be pitted against George Young of San Angelo.
Read has been working out the last two weeks while Bostick and Owens joined him for the first time several days ago.

Scientific G-Men Open Campaign On Those Bad Bugs From Abroad

By The AP Feature Service
WASHINGTON—The year's big drive on enemy aliens is on. They aren't human criminals—they're insects.
The big drive is on just now because this is the peak of the season when enemy insects invade the United States. In the past, such invaders have got in and done enormous damage to crops—the boll weevil, the Japanese beetle, the gypsy moth, the fruit fly, the white fringed beetle, to name a few.
Uncle Sam wants no more of these insect criminals, so he has a corps of scientific G-men to hunt down the few among the many thousands of insect species that can do harm. These men work in ports and in Washington laboratories to ferret out the bad insects. Here's how they do their job:

1. A WORM FROM ABROAD is examined through a microscope by an entomologist at the port laboratory. The worm came in with a plant, which parcel post inspectors referred to the plant quarantine inspector. Noting insect activity, he sent it to the lab.
2. HE CAN'T IDENTIFY the worm, so the entomologist kills it and puts it in a special glass container, which he seals in a small envelope and sends to the specialists in Washington. The fate of the plant shipment will depend upon the identification.

3. A WASHINGTON EXPERT compares the unknown worm with known worms of the same family and makes the identification. If it's an insect that might become a new pest in this country, the shipment on which it arrived may be embargoed.

Church Opens Revival Here

Rev. Goodman Heard In First of Series of Sermons

"Fig Leaf Religion" was the topic discussed by Rev. Horace C. Goodman, pastor of the Fundamental Baptist church, as he conducted the first service of an open air revival at Fourth and Benton streets.
A large crowd heard him assert, "There is too much head religion and not enough heart religion; it takes more than a mere profession of Christ to be assured of a home in Heaven."
Rev. Goodman will speak tonight on the topic, "Birth Marks."
He said in part Wednesday evening: "God created the man and woman, in innocence they were put in the garden, where they met Satan, were tempted and fell, and the fall the curse passed upon all men. Not only must men die physically but they have died to God spiritually, in Adam.
"The eyes of them both were opened" no doubt; and this was the thing that Satan had tempted the women with, "your eyes shall be opened and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil." But Satan left out a material part of the truth, namely, that they should know good without the power to do it, and they would know evil without the power to resist it. Their eyes were open but also to take a sight—it was to discover their own nakedness. They opened their eyes upon their condition which was "wretched and miserable and poor and naked." They knew that they were naked and fruit of the tree of knowledge. It brought no new revelation of God and His goodness, no closer walk in His happy fellowship at the close of the day, but it brought fear.
"Fig-leaf religion is not true Christianity. He was afraid." And this is the difference between true Christianity and human religionism. The former is founded upon the fact of a man's being clothed; the latter, upon the fact of his being naked. The former has for its starting-point what the latter has for its goal. All that a true Christian does is because he is clothed perfectly clothed in the righteousness of God which is Christ. All that a mere religionist does is in order that he may be clothed. The more we examine the genius of man's religion, in all its phases, the more we shall see its thorough insufficiency to remedy his state,

COLLEGE LEADER IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

ATLANTA, July 7 (AP)—Dr. R. E. Blackwell, 84, president of Randolph-Macon college, Ashland, Va., and a former president of the Southern Association of Colleges died in a hospital here early today.
Dr. Blackwell was born at Warrenton, Va., Nov. 14, 1854, and was one of the oldest college presidents in the United States. He taught English to four generations at Randolph-Macon, a school where he spent the greater part of his life, starting as a student at the age of 18.
A daughter, Mrs. J. F. Mowick, of Atlanta, survives.

Texarkana Wins Over Palestine

By The Associated Press
Palestine's Pala, still clotting the ball determinedly, out-hit the league leading Texarkana Liners by five blows yesterday but the Liners came through in the pinches to win the first of a series, 6-3. Palestine got 12 hits, Texarkana 7.
The Jacksonville Jack, hitting consistently, downed Longview 6-3, and Tyler amassed 15 hits in beating the Henderson Oilers 5-2.
Veteran Fred Browning scattered eight hits in pitching the Trojans to victory.
Marshall and Kilgore were idle, washed out by rain.

Yanx Favored To Edge Out Cleveland

Have Long Home Stay Ahead; Bucos Are Dangerous
Save your nickels, folks. The possibility of a third straight subway series for little old New York is becoming somewhat less far-fetched than a trip to the moon in a rocket ship.
A month ago, such a suggestion would have resulted in general outbreaks of hilarity. On the basis of performances in the last couple weeks, it becomes "a horse from a different garage."
Of course, neither the Giants nor the Yankees are a shoe-in for the current pennant chase. But with the National leaguers sporting a 3-1-2 game bulge in their race and the Yankee finally clicking offensively and defensively, Bill Terry's troupe and murderers' row once again are definitely the teams to beat.

Girl Is Rescued After 10 Hours On Mountain Ledge

KEENE VALLEY, N. Y., July 7 (AP)—An 18-year-old German nursemaid, trapped more than ten hours on a ledge half way up a 1,000-foot adirondack mountain cliff, was rescued early today by a part of men with ropes.
The girl, employed by Dr. Paul Wolfe, Evanston, Ill., Congregational minister spending the summer here, was little the worse for her experience, Constable William Isaham said.
The rescue party of nine men, directed by Constable Isaham and including James Brown, brother of the 1936 Olympic two-man hobbled champion Ivan Brown, was unable to scale the cliff which the girl, Marie Gersen, climbed yesterday afternoon.
Instead they ascended the mountain from the rear, split into two groups, and lowered one of their number with a rope to haul the girl from the ledge.

MORGAN CHALLENGES FD'S RIGHT TO REMOVE HIM

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 7 (AP)—Dr. Arthur E. Morgan in a chancery court action on file here today challenged authority of the president of the United States to remove him as chairman-director of the Tennessee Valley Authority.
The gray-haired engineer-educator asked that the presidential order ousting him last March 22 be declared void and illegal.
He also asked that TVA Director David E. Lighthall and Harcourt A. Morgan, present TVA chairman, be ordered to recognize him as a fellow director and as chairman of the vast valley development project.
This sudden move by the former Antioch college president came late yesterday while a congressional committee prepared to start Monday an investigation of TVA activities—an investigation precipitated by Dr. Morgan himself.
The former chairman several months ago threw congress into a furor when he accused his associates of hampering efforts to secure "honesty, efficiency, decency and fairness" in administration of the TVA.
Orlubi, one of the Hopi villages in northwest Arizona, is said to be one of the oldest continually inhabited communities in the United States. It dates back to 1870.
