Thank you, Mrs. Mae Dunn, for Your attitude and thoughtfulness for others is manifested in the character of your children.
Kernel Gene regrets that so much bitterness has arisen in regard to the proposed Hospital District. We still have hopes of forming a district and am sure these people will be welcome to use all hospital facilities when needed.
As one prominent businessman remarked: "You just can't turry your back on folks you have do turn their back on you."

A contribution to the hospital fund in memory of my brother, Dean Moorman. – Don Moorman.

Am enclosing a $10 check to be used on the Gorman Hospital Fund. Dr. George Blackwell fitted me with my first pair of glasses when I was just a young girl. We also had a daughter byrn there Nov. 1, 1997 (still-born). A son, Joe Fonville, was born there Dec. 21, 1938. He now lives in Lewisville, Texas. A daughter, Sue Fonville (now Mrs. George Peacock of Albany) was born there June 17, 1940. My husband had surgery in 1945. I had surgery in 1967.
