Did you know that it is dangerous to go berry pickin' in these parts? Quick! somebody, tell me a cure for chiggers. Such a small insect with so much poison. Between them and this terrible heat wave I am really having a miserable time, but then maybe I am not alone. If there is any consolation in that I would like to know about it. The tiny bugs were out in full force at the park last Monday night at the Businessmen's Fish Fry but in spite of them everyone had such a good time filling themselves with all that good ole fried catfish. The wives and friends of members of the Club really did enjoy a "night off" from meal fixin'. I wish to say "Thanks" again for our portion. It was very good, and we enjoyed the fellowship.
