OUR 61ST. YEAR OF SERVICE — 5c Per Copy

The GORMAN PROGRESS, Eastland Co., Texas, APRIL 13, 1961

NUMBER SEVEN

HULLS by Kernel Gene, aPe

If you are in the Fifties and worrying about security and taxes, the following might cheer you up.

"Between the ages of 70 and 83, Commodore Vandervilt added about 100 million to his fortune."

"Verdi, at 74, produced his masterpiece, 'Othello'; at 80, 'Falstaff'; and at 85, that famous 'Ava Marie', 'Stabat Mater' and 'Te Deum.'"

Security doesn't bother me, but the fifteenth of April does.

Check Smith reported to the Businessmen's Club Monday night that a tentative location had been selected for the new Twelve Unit Housing Project. It is hoped that a final okay will be given and construction will start in the near future.

Check and his committee are to be highly commended for the time and expense they have been out in completing this project.

For sixteen years I have found it comparatively easy to jot down a few million words for your edification. Now I am stymied. The Woman's Study Club and Gorman Jaycees are the cause of it all.

At a recent meeting of the Woman's Study Club decided to recover the Progress Library floor. Monday evening the Jaycees raided the Library (see picture) and chipped up all of the old tile. Folks have been generous in adding books to the shelves. There's a plan in making curtains for the windows. All I can say is, "you are about the most lovable people I know." Soon we will have open house and invite you down for a cookie.

In the meantime just help yourself to the books. The building is also available day or night, for meetings. It is also a nice place to meet your friends for a visit.

Factum:- Saw Check Smith studying a vehicle registration list for Eastland County. He had that "cat ate the canary" expression. I peeked. The list showed that Smith Bros. Chevrolet had sold 25 percent of the new automobiles in Eastland County from March 15 thru the 31st. . . and out of 55 cars registered, 34 were Chevrolets.

I had forgotten how much fun one can have at a Game Tournament. They are better than watching TV.

NOSEY: With all of the commotion being raised in Ft Worth over the breweries, I haven't heard anybody say they don't watch certain TV programs because these programs are sponsored by makers of alcoholic beverages.

Education Is Topic of Woman's Society

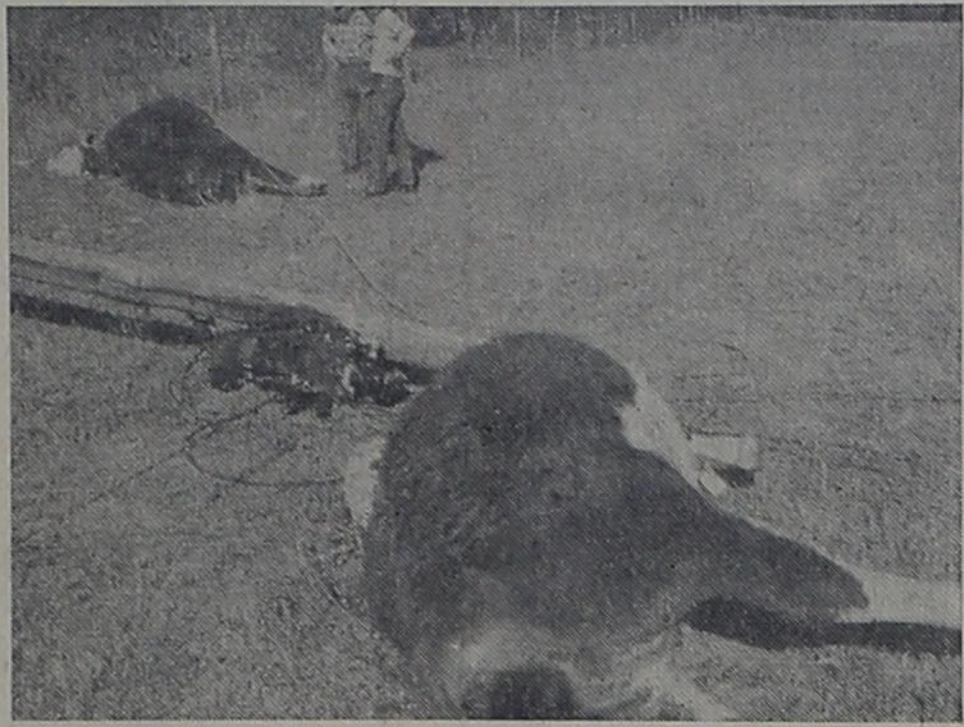

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church on Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. for a business meeting.

Mrs. Keith Whitt gave the devotional, based on the 21st Chapter of Luke, using the 34th verse.

Mrs. M. H. Fairbetter gave a very interesting report on the District Conference which she recently attended in Ft Worth.

The subject of some of the talks given at the conference were Great Times For Training, and The Need For Crusade of Our Foreign Scholars, of which we have 50,000 in the States.

Mrs. Fairbetter stressed the training of the youth, saying that the education of the youth of today determines the destiny of tomorrow.

CATTLE ELECTROCUTED — Frank Fonville and Hardy Tidwell, neighbors, discussing the cattle killed on the W. H. Davis Ranch, north of Desdemona.

Mr. W. H. Davis of Desdemona who owns a 600 acre ranch four miles north of Desdemona, had an unusual experience happen when a REA highline pole toppled breaking the wire which carried 70500 volts of electricity.

Two registered Hereford cows were the victims of the electricity (picture). Mr. Davis stated that it could have easily been he and his wife, as they often drove their car to the watering trough to check on the cows at the exact spot where the pole broke.

Mr. Davis says it would be wise for farmers having highlines running through their farms to check the poles and maybe save a similar experience.

The highline pole had rotted and broke at the top of the ground.

The electricity was off from 4 p. m. to 9 p. m. and Mr. Hardy Tidwell is wondering what will happen to the 140,000 turkey eggs he had in his incubator.

JAYCEES JOIN WOMAN'S STUDY CLUB IN LIBRARY IMPROVEMENT

HAMMERS IN HAND — The Woman's Study Club voted recently to raise money to place new tile on the Progress Library floor. Members of the Gorman Jaycees promptly volunteered to remove the old covering and lay the new tile when it is purchased.

What more appropriate gesture could these two civic minded clubs make during this "National Library Week."

Jaycees "pitching in" on the project were Gene Rodgers, Tom Dunn, Joe Bennett, Dick Townley, Herman Bennett, Graydon Baze, G. E. Bennett, Joe Ormsby, Bud Smith, and James Mears.

Farmer's Union State President To Speak In De Leon

Mr. Alex Dickie of Denton, who is currently the State President of the Texas Farmer's Union, will speak in De Leon on Monday night, April 17th at the City Hall. The meeting will start at 8:00 p. m. and all farmers of Comanche County are invited to be present to hear this man talk about the Farmer's Union program. A temporary organization for Comanche County was founded last week, and twenty farmers of the area became members.

The Farmer's Union is an organization made up exclusively of farmers, and one which advocates full parity prices for farm products, as well as realistic production controls. Under the current administration, it is considered very important to this area of peanut production to have an active voice in the affairs of this organization, and to support it with membership and attendance. The recent increase in the peanut price is largely due to its influence in Washington.

All farmers in Comanche County are urged to be present and hear Mr. Dickie speak.

Everyone was having so much fun the weather was forgotten. The younger set had as much well-liked on the Ranger College campus. He likes people and his sense of humor and courteous, friendly ways help him to get along well with others.

FINAL RITES FOR HUGH BASKIN HELD TUESDAY

Funeral services for Mr. Willis Hugh Baskin, who passed away at his home Monday afternoon, April 10th at 5 o'clock following an illness of about a year's duration, were held in the First Baptist Church at 3 p. m. April 11.

Rev. Creath Davis and Rev. A. D. Kyle officiated. Interment was in the Elm Cemetery.

Mr. Baskin was born at Midway, near Gorman, April 8th, 1891. He had been engaged in the cattle business for about 50 years and was a well-known figure over a four county area.

Mrs. Nelson said her daughter is "doing fine."

Camp Sweeney Film To Be Shown At Jaycee Meeting April 20, 7:30

Members of the Gorman Junior Chamber of Commerce and guests are in store for an unusual treat at their meeting April 20 at 7:30 p. m. at the Brown Jug Cafe on the patio. If the weather is bad the meeting will be held in the Progress Library.

They are to hear a talk by Edward H. Phelps of Abilene, member of the public relations staff of Southwestern Diabetic Foundation, Inc., and to witness colored movies of scenes of Camp Sweeney "in action". Phelps succeeds the late Max Bentley, veteran Abilene newspaperman and West Texas C of C publicist, who devoted several years to the financial welfare of Camp Sweeney and was one of its most consistent financial contributors. He died in a traffic accident while on a campaign of solicitation for the aid of diabetic children.

Camp Sweeney is located on a site of more than 400 acres, nine miles northeast of Gainesville, its natural beauties enhanced by man-made embellishments.

A recognition given Camp Sweeney by medical authorities as "the largest exclusive treatment and recreation center for diabetic children in the world," shortly after it gained momentum, continues to hold true as time progresses.

Camp Sweeney keeps growing in physical assets, such as new buildings and equipment, and its effectiveness in teaching young diabetics "how to stay alive."

In the 11 seasons that Camp Sweeney has been operated, some 2,738 diabetic youngsters have been enrolled. They have come from many of the United States, Alaska, Mexico, Hawaii, even Belgium. More than 85 percent of the children come from homes where few adults can make even a token payment for their care, yet no child recommended by a physician as needing the services of the camp, has knowingly been turned away.

Deficits are made up with contributions received from generous citizens in numerous States, or with money borrowed from local banks by the Executive Board of the Diabetic Foundation until such time as donations may pay off the notes. These board members subject themselves to possible personal payment of the entire amount of such notes, indicative of the feeling they have for the work done at the camp.

Camp Sweeney is chartered by the State of Texas as a non-profit organization and many of those who conduct its affairs, serve without remuneration of any sort. This includes the chief medical director, Dr. J. Shirley Sweeney of Dallas, founder of the camp. He lived in Gainesville as a child.

Funds are now being solicited with which it is hoped to build and have ready for the campers in 1961, a modern filtered-water swimming pool—a memorial to Max Bentley, Camp Sweeney's first public relations director and consecrated supporter.

All interested citizens are urged to attend this meeting.

Learning the Lesson the Hard way

... is not always a virtue, neither is it adviseable. The person who buys a home or other real estate without first investigating the title is a perfect example of one who learns his lessons the hard way. True, he will learn better later, but too late for his own good. Any real estate that is worth buying is also worth the extra cost of an abstract, for upon the title rests the value and security of every real estate investment.

COOL COMFORTABLE LIVING

Weather is something over which we have no control. Yet, in cold weather we can maintain our physical comfort by heating our homes, and during the summer months we can employ air conditioning to combat the disagreeable effects of the heat. To promote efficiency in our daily lives, air conditioning has almost become a necessity in our buildings and homes.

Relief from the heat must be accomplished without ill effects to person or property. Air conditioning provides that service if we employ it properly. Satisfaction depends on an understanding of several simple principles regarding our physical surroundings.

We live in an atmosphere of air laden with water vapor. When air cools sufficiently, the gaseous moisture in the air turns into liquid water. The process is known as condensation, and the temperature at which condensation takes place is called the dew point. The dew point will vary depending on the temperature of the outside air and the inside air. The higher the outside temperature, the higher will be the temperature at which condensation occurs indoors. If the temperature inside a building is as much as 10 degrees Fahrenheit lower than an outdoor temperature of 80 to 90 degrees, water condensation can create moisture troubles in ceilings, walls and floors. Such conditions may lead to warping, cracking, or even decay of wood during prolonged hot and humid weather.

The laws of nature cannot be changed, but homeowners can take definite measures to overcome ill effects of condensation on wood which may develop from air conditioning. The proper use of insulation and vapor barriers during construction will greatly minimize condensation problems. A simple control that is frequently overlooked is to use air conditioners only when needed and at a temperature setting no cooler than necessary for comfort.

TSCRA Programs To Benefit Beef Cattle Industry

Fort Worth Texas, March 23, 1961 — The Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, meeting in Fort Worth, March 20-22, set up a budget to be used specifically in servicing cattle feeders, provided for a beef awards program for FFA and 4-H club members in Texas, and initiated other programs which promise to benefit the beef cattle industry of the Southwest.

All officers of the Association were re-elected and 14 new directors were named. Officers for the coming year are Dolph Briscoe, Jr., of Uvalde, president; Leo Wedler of Victoria, first vice-president; Fred Wulff of Brady, second vice-president; and Fred Korth of Fort Worth, treasurer.

The new directors are: R. W. Briggs, Sr., San Antonio; V. A. "Bill" Clements, Jr., Longview; Joel Fleming, Center; William Green, Albany; C. J. Holloway, Athens; Durward Lewter, Lubbock; Kerry McCann, McFaddin; L. D. Miller, Jr., Falfurrias; Otto Moser, DeKalb; Rufus Peoples, Tehuacana; J. D. Ruckman, Karnes City; Charles Schreiner, Kerrville; Frates Seeligson, San Antonio; and Leonard Traylor, San Antonio.

All cattle feeders in the state of Texas were invited to attend the convention, and those present pledged to contribute approximately $11,500 to finance activities of the TSCRA Cattle Feeder Committee. A like amount will be set aside by the Association for this specific purpose.

This action was the outgrowth of several months study and research, which showed cattle feeding is rapidly becoming of major importance in the cattle industry of the Southwest, and already had made some giant strides which affect every phase of beef production and marketing.

In reporting results of a comprehensive survey which has just been completed, Lloyd Bergsma, Texas A&M Extension livestock marketing specialist, pointed out that 97 new feed yards have been built in Texas since 1955. "Fifty-one of these were established during 1959 and 1960, and several more were completed early this year," he added.

The 4-H and FFA awards program will start on the county level and continue through the state level. "These youths will be a major factor in the progress of the beef cattle industry of the Lone Star State in the future, and we believe this program will stimulate activities which will keep Texas in the forefront as a beef producing state," President Briscoe said.

The Association passed a resolution recommending that the Texas Animal Health Commission accept and use any available Federal funds, provided such can be accomplished without placing the individual producer or the State of Texas under additional obligation or restriction.

The efforts to eradicate Brucellosis under Type 1 program as provided by the laws of the State of Texas, have heretofore been entirely at the expense of the producer.

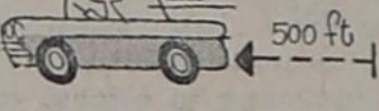

Tips on Touring

How Do Brakes Work?

A gentle touch on the brake pedal by a dainty shoe and two tons of metal, zooming along at a mile a minute, are brought safely to a stop. As the woman who drives the family car, you should know how it's done.

12 Seconds to 60mph

4 Seconds to stop

The brake pedal is attached to a lever assembly that increases your "push." That is, a pound of foot pressure can make as much as 7½ pounds of pressure at the end of the assembly. Twenty pounds of foot pressure makes 150 pounds, etc.

The increased foot pressure works a kind of pump—called the master cylinder. The master cylinder forces fluid—called hydraulic brake fluid—through metal tubes. A tube goes to each wheel, and each wheel has its own pump—or hydraulic cylinder.

When the pressurized liquid reaches the cylinders in the wheels it forces the cylinders to move the brake "shoes." (In each wheel a set of brake shoes grips a heavy drum as your hands grip a heavy jar you want to lift.) So...you push the pedal, the pedal pushes fluid, the fluid pushes brake shoes, the shoes grip the drum—which is part of the wheel—and the car slows down.

A 200 horsepower car can reach 60 mph from a standing start in 12 seconds. Its brakes can stop it in four seconds; they have a stopping ability of 3 times the engine's propelling ability. In distance, it takes the car 500 feet to hit 60 mph, but the brakes can stop it in 150 feet.

Be sure yours can do it. Have your service station dealer check them regularly.

Where will you find a handsomer hardtop than this Impala Sport Sedan!

MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

When one car outsells all the rest the way this new Chevrolet is doing"—there's got to be a reason. And we can think of some pretty good ones. The clean-etched look of the new Body by Fisher, for example. The eager brand of "git" that's under the hood. The easy way it handles. Plus the added advantage of extra-cost options like triple-turbine Turboglide.

But to sample all these reasons together, you have to get a Chevrolet out on the road. And there's where that Jet-smooth ride takes over with its own gentle kind of persuasion. If you weren't absolutely sure, you'd imagine you were riding in a far costlier car.

No wonder people are buying more Chevrolets than any other make! Chevrolets have more of what it takes to please people!

AND JUST ONE JET-SMOOTH RIDE WILL SHOW YOU WHY!

*Official R. L. Polk & Co. registration figures show full-sized Chevrolets outsold the second-choice make by a record-breaking margin in 1960—and Chevrolets continue to set the pace for the industry this year!

TO ALL OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS OF THE GORMAN-DESDEMONA AREA

After seventeen days in the hospital, I am fortunate enough to be able to return home. I am on the mend, but will have to stay in bed about five weeks longer. In the meantime, our establishment is staffed with a "Full Crew" and will be able to serve you in time of need. Licensed funeral directors, embalmers and ambulance attendants are on duty at all times, giving you the same courteous service that you have received in the past years. I hope it will not be too long before I can return to full active duty.

May I also take this opportunity in expressing my heartfelt thanks for all of the many kindnesses shown me during my illness. Fae and I really appreciate our many friends among the good people of the Gorman and Desdemona area.

Sincerely,
DELTON NABORS
