FROSSARD SALE AND TRADES DAY BRINGS RECORD CROWD TO GORMAN With Trades Day and Frossard's Anniversary Sale on the same day, parking space in Gorman was difficult to find. The crowd is heading toward the truck where Joe Bennett, Herman Bennett and E. E. Todd are getting ready to draw names from the squirrel cage.

Merchants participating in the drawing have decided to give the full $80 away at the next drawing on Friday, August 11th. If the first named called does not answer, tickets will be drawn until someone wins.

(A new Roping Club is being organized and tentative plans are to have a Horse Parade on Trades Day, August 11th. A group is meeting tonight and if they decide to have a Horse Parade, circulars will be distributed.)
