

PEANUT GROWERS TO MEET AT STEPHENVILLE AUGUST 31ST.

The Annual Meeting of the Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association will be held at Stephenville on August 31. Association President, E. A. Walker of De Leon said, "We are expecting the largest crowd ever to attend our Annual Meeting. We have a fine program planned which will be of interest to all peanut growers in this area. All growers are cordially invited to attend." Walker pointed out that William V. Rawlings, Executive Secretary of the Virginia Peanut Growers Association, who is the principal speaker, is one of the nation's real authorities on problems common to peanut producers.

There will be a closed membership meeting for growers only at 9:30 a. m. in the Agriculture Auditorium of Tarleton State College. In this meeting growers will be given a report on the Association operation for 1960-61. Changes or modifications in the peanut program for this year will also be discussed. All persons registering and attending the meeting will be eligible for valuable door prizes to be awarded throughout the program.

The general session will begin at 10:45 a. m. at which time Kenneth Kendrick of Stratford, Texas will describe the works of the Texas Federation of Agricultural Commodities. Kendrick is Chairman of this organization and is Vice President of the National Wheat Growers Association. He is a member of President Kennedy's recently appointed National Agricultural Advisory Commission. The principal address by Mr. Rawlings will follow. Rawlings has served in his present capacity with the Virginia Association for several years. He is a leading figure in national farm legislative activity relating to peanuts. He, too, is a member of the National Agricultural Advisory Commission. He holds a degree from the University of Virginia School of Law. Rawlings was instrumental in the successful effort of recent date to have Congress extend Marketing Agreements and Orders to cover peanuts. This is a highly significant achievement because of the varied opportunities to growers available through Marketing Orders and Agreements. He will talk about this matter in his address to those present in the general session.

Hill catering Service of Stephenville will serve lunch in the city park at noon. This feature of the agenda will be compliments of Southwestern Peanut Growers Association. Mechanical equipment to be used for the first time in 1961 by the Federal-State Inspection Service in grading peanuts will be on display in the park for inspection and demonstration.

HOME COMING NEWS

If you are coming home, it's about time now to send your suit to the cleaners and press the frills on your dress - - and all of us here do hope you are making plans to come. Soon it will be Saturday, September 9th. - Homecoming.

People here in town, the stores, and merchants are being urged to add a few frills, too, in the way of a bit of decoration in honor of Homecomers. Also, it might be fun if everybody brought out any old pictures or football sweaters or jerseys, or pep squad uniforms - - does anyone still have some grey and gold momento, for instance? By the way, the Gorman Progress walls are lined with pictures from now back no telling how far, and if you have time, you'd certainly enjoy seeing them. And there are a lot of pictures on the wall of the Progress Library, too. (The Library is new - - lots of people have donated books, and Gorman is proud to have it.)

The speaker who will make the Welcome Address at the Business Meeting has been named. Might tell you who it is next - - Oh, well, O.K. Mr. John Kimble has accepted the responsibility, and he seems to be already planning his speech - - heard him mumbling something about "aptitude tests."

There's going to be the usual Downtown Pep Rally at 2 p. m. this year, too, but some of the plans sound unusual. Not much information has been released from this committee as yet, but rumor has spread that all Ex-Pep Leaders are especially urged to be here.

The Gorman Panthers have begun football practice and expect to be ready for the Homecoming Game with Throckmorton. The talk is that Gorman has the best prospects for a really good team this year that early season previewing have promised in some time.

Now, let's see. So far news has been released about Registration, Stage Band Concert, Downtown Pep Rally, John Kimble's Welcome Address, Memorial Service, Dinner, Roy Skagg's Talk at the Business Meeting, the Football Game - - And that's still not all, but surely by now you've made plans to be here.

Eighth Annual Homecoming, Saturday, September 9, 1961!

P. S. - Letters giving Homecoming details were not mailed to Gorman area ex-students, so as to save postage, but you are supposed to read the details in this paper - - and come to Homecoming.

Good Dove Season Predicted For '61

The morning Dove season in the North Zone opens September 1st. According to Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission, the last few hot days have ripened feed seed, and darkened considerably the green effect of the abundance of foliage. According to Dodgen, it is anybody's guess as to how good the Quail season will be.

Under the general law, the Quail season will open December 1. The Game and Fish Commission will set the Quail season in regulatory counties at its quarterly meeting early in October.

On Tuesday, Sept. 22, Melvin Shell and C. W. Haley, Rt. 6, Dublin, were caught by the camera eye watching his truck load of 1961 peanuts being poured into the hopper which will carry them into either the cleaning or drying machinery or storage bins at the Gorman Peanut Co.

New Crop Peanuts Arrive In Gorman

Mr. Haley's farm is located about half-way between Dublin and Stephenville, and his 30 acres of peanuts were grown on mixed sandy land.

The peanuts graded Sound Mature Kernels, 63%; Sound Splits, 5%; for a total of 68%. Other Kernels 7% and damage 1%. After cleaning and drying, foreign material was 2% and moisture 7%.

Mr. Haley had two truck loads of Argentine peanuts which amounted to $2,281.29 after the cleaning and drying charges were deducted. His base price was $225.36 per ton. Gorman Peanut Co. paid a premium of $2.00 per ton.

After the peanuts were cleaned and dried no deductions were made for foreign material, moisture or excess damage.

The Businessmen's Club of Gorman presented Mr. Haley with a check for $100 for bringing in the first load of peanuts.

Wood is a versatile material. Civilized man is dependent on wood every day of his life from the cradle to the coffin. There are about 200 tree species in Texas. However, only 35 of these are of economic importance. Each of these different woods has its own distinctive structure and physical properties. These lend to each wood the quality of usefulness for specific purposes.

The general characteristics and properties of wood which we can easily recognize are color, lustre, odor, taste, hardness and weight.

Everyone has his favorite color and grain of furniture wood, whether it be the light-colored maple, the dark-colored walnut. The possession or lack of odor and taste in wood is important for such products as wooden cigar boxes, cedar chests, beer kegs, and other food containers.

The hardness of a wood also helps determine its use. For example a soft wood, such as cypress or cedar, would not be satisfactory for mallet heads or floors. Similarly, the weight of wood is often an important property such as its use for crates where freight charges are involved.

A Hymn Is Born BY CLINT BONNER

Abide With Me

A sick preacher takes a walk

During the first half of the last century it was not uncommon for the townspeople of Brixham, England, to see a frail middle-aged man stroll thoughtfully along the seashore. The mild-mannered man was the town's parson and he had taken his daily walks by the sea for 20 years. That was the way he worked out his sermons.

But on a Sunday afternoon in September, 1847, the Reverend Henry Francis Lyte took his walk with a heavy heart. He knew it was the last time he would tread the familiar path. When he was 30 years old he had taken the little church at Brixham because he thought the salt air would help his health. Now he was 54 and his lung trouble had grown worse. Doctors said he would have to go to the warmer climate of Italy.

At the morning service Lyte had conducted his last sacrament. And now, as he walked beside the sea, he made notes for his farewell message to friends whose joys and sorrows he had shared for nearly a quarter of a century. In Italy he would be among strangers. But the gentle man knew there was one Friend who would go with him . . . "in life, in death" . . . wherever he went. He put his sentiments on paper, gave the paper to a relative who put it away in a trunk. Henry Francis Lyte died in Southern France two months after leaving Brixham. He never reached Italy. In 1861 his poem came to the attention of a London publisher. Composer William H. Monk set it to music . . . thus was born an immortal hymn.

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me!

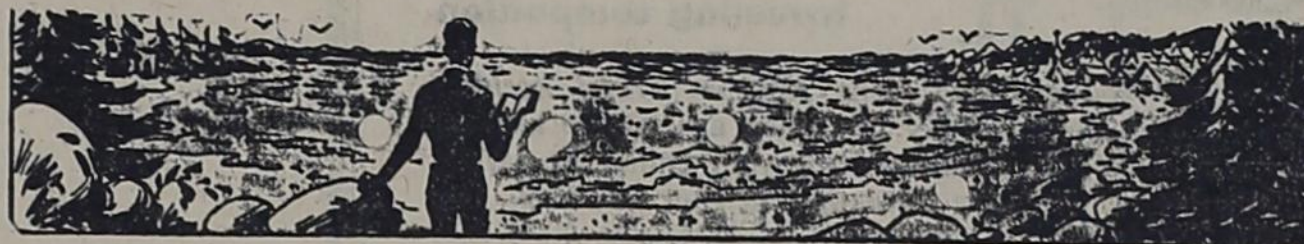

Swift to its close ebbs life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;

O Thou who changest not, abide with me!
I need Thy presence every passing hour;

What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Thro' cloud and sunshine, O abide with me!

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the loom, and point me to the skies;

Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee—
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

The 1961 Gorman Panthers responded to the weather Tuesday night as the cool air came in to put football fever shooting upward. The boys played above expectations as they scrimmaged the Eastland Mavericks at Brogdon Field.

The Panthers moved the ball well as Ronnie Page, manning the Quarterback position, showed real running form and some pin-point passing. He directed the team to two touchdowns and time ran out when they were on the one-foot line.

The Panthers displayed some fine defensive play as they limited the Mavericks to only two first downs during the one hour scrimmage. The down-field blocking was very impressive as the combination of Page, Jim Rodgers, Harrison and Files moved the ball well. The Panther line, consisting of Boyd, Shell, Snider, Puckett, Baze, Simmons, and Joe Bob Rodgers, did some outstanding defensive play and really had the leather popping.

From what the fans were saying Tuesday night one thing can be sure, the Panther ball club will be an exciting outfit this year. The blocking, passing and a more wide open attack is expected if Tuesday night's scrimmage was any indication of the type of club the Panthers will field this year.

ord held by the Sultan of Swat, Babe Ruth. Even with all the home runs by sultans Maris and Mantle the Detroit Tigers is still hanging in there with only two games off the pace. The big gun for the Tigers has been an El Dorado, Texas flash by the name of Norm Cash. He is leading the American League with a batting average of .368 and has batted in 113 runs.

It still looks like the Yanks in the American League. But as yet in the National League it could be the Giants, Dodgers, or Braves, if Cincinnati should falter any in the closing days of the season.

Should the L. A. Dodgers get in the series with the Yankees their 100,000 seating stadium and the Yankee Stadium seating around 70,000 it would easily be the richest series in history. In fact, the players or most of them, would make more out of the series than their regular salary would be.

WRIGHT REUNION HELD AT FRANK GRAY PARK

ROScoe REEVES, JR. RETURNS FROM SHORT TOUR WITH MERCHANT MARINES

Roscoe Reeves, Jr. returned home last week after a three and one-half months tour of duty with the Merchant Marines.

He reports a wonderful experience observing the people and customs of other lands and countries.

Leaving port from New York City, they traveled to the West Indies and Trinidad, and down the East African Coast.

One of the most interesting places he visited was Durvon, South Africa, a city 50 miles inland, a place that Mark Twain has written about in many of his short stories. He called it the "Valley of Thousand Hills" and the name seems to have stuck with the place and it is known as the "Valley of Thousand Hills".

The native carved ebony figurines are one of the treasures Roscoe brought home with him.

Roscoe has a desire for the knowledge from books also. He and his brother, Charles, a 1961 Gorman graduate, plan to enter college together this fall. No choice has been made as to which school they will attend.

Roscoe attended Abilene Christian College in Abilene last year.

BRENDA POCOCK GOES TO JUAREZ FOR U. S. VISA

Brenda Pocock, 3, will go by bus with her father, Edward Stanley (Ted) Pocock, to the U. S. Embassy in Juarez, Mexico August 26th to receive her visa to the United States.
 The British family, Mr. and Mrs. Pocock, Deryck, 15, Brian, 13, Marie, 9, David, 7, and Brenda, 3, hope in time to become citizens of the United States.

Orphaned early Ted knew the tragedy of war as a teenager. He recalls that because of his slight build, to him fell the lot of crawling under or squeezing through the debris in fear of the dead left by the Nazi bombs.

 Later he joined the Royal Navy, but not before he had met Lily Rose Clarke, to whom he was married in August, 1945.
 In 1958, with unemployment high in all of England, Ted answered a Canadian magazine advertisement offering farm jobs. With 600 other families, Ted, his wife and four children came on passports to Toronto, and to their disappointment found all jobs had been taken. After days of waiting Ted found a job on a farm with a small two-room house. Then Brenda was born, and the house seemed even smaller.
 Ted located a job at a cannery in Calborn, Ontario. But the canning season was soon over. Ted again faced unemployment. Mrs. Pocock wrote her mother for fares back to England. A day later she received an invitation from her sister to visit her. A war bride of G. I. James L. Haynes, living in Carbon, Texas.

A 1947 sedan got them to the Haynes home, but troubles were still with them, both Mr. and Mrs. Haynes became ill. A British passport via Canada does not permit one to work in the States. When Carbon peanut farmers understood, they guaranteed work, an act which cut red tape for obtaining visas for members of the family, except Canadian born Brenda, who had no British passport.

Ted has since been steadily employed by county commissioner Morgan Bennett.
 Mr. and Mrs. Pocock and all their children over 14 years of age can apply for citizenships to the United States in two years, and when they become citizens the other children automatically become citizens of the U. S.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Pocock declare, "Never have we seen the sincerity, generosity and friendliness Texas people have shown."

Mr. John Schoolfield of Eastland, who is District Scout Executive of Comanche Trail Council Noreast, visited the Progress office Tuesday to render whatever service and help he could to the Scout officials, Gene Baker, Neighborhood Commissioner, and W. C. Browning, Council Troop Executive

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Douglas, along with Mrs. Datha R. Jones and Miss Mamie Roberts of Brookhaven, Miss. are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roberts, who originally lived in Brookhaven. Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Jones and Miss Roberts are nieces of Mr. Roberts.

Highlights and Sidelights

From Our State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex.—Ben Ramsey's appointment as Railroad Commissioner -- after a decade in which his name has been synonymous with the Lieutenant Governorship with the Lieutenant Governorship -- carries with it several major political implications.

First, it's a pretty safe bet that the quiet-spoken East Texans will not be in the field of contenders for the Governor's chair. Pre-Campaign speculation has had Ramsey in practically every gubernatorial race in recent years.

Second, it leaves the 1962 race for Lieutenant Governorship wide open. At least a half-dozen likely prospects already have been mentioned.

Third, it puts Sen. Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi automatically in charge of the Lieutenant Governor's duties. He was elected by his colleagues as President Pro Tempore of the Senate shortly before Gov. Price Daniel's announcement of Ramsey's appointment.

There could be several Lieutenant Governors' before the election this year. This depends on how many legislative sessions occur between now and then. Texas' Constitution provides that a President Pro Tempore shall be elected at the beginning and at the end of each session.

Gov. Daniel has announced that he will call another special session before the end of the year. So it will be up to the Senate to elect a man who will assume the duties of Lt. Governor for that session. Then another will be chosen for the interim between its windup and the beginning of the next one. And so on!

Meanwhile, Reagan is first in line of succession to the Governor's office.

Ramsey's appointment to the $17,500 a year Railroad Commission post came as no surprise in political circles.

Appointment is for the unexpired term of the late Olin Culberson, which runs until January 1, 1963. Then, if Ramsey desires a six-year term, he will have to stand for election.

Ramsey joins Ernest O. Thompson and William J. Murray, the present chairman, on one of the most important agencies in the state government. The Railroad Commission not only regulates all Texas oil and gas production, but all highway and railroad freight and passenger rates in the state.

ANOTHER SPECIAL SESSION ASSURED—At the close of the called special session which voted a teachers' pay raise averaging $810 per year, Governor Daniel announced he will call another session sometime before the end of the year, to act on several matters.

He said he will submit such subjects as loan shark control legislation, a law to include banks in the recently-passed abandoned property act, juvenile delinquency legislation, and control over municipal annexation.

The short session, in addition to the teachers' pay raise, also provided additional money for the operation and maintenance of school buses and for administration.

A law requiring runoffs in congressional elections when one candidate doesn't receive a majority was passed in the dying moments of the session.

Although the major objectives of the Texas State Teachers Association have been reached, there are more to come.

These include a sick leave plan for teachers; provision for assistant superintendent units for large school systems; using average daily attendance instead of scholastic census, as the factor for determining distribution of the State's available school funds to local districts; more driver education teachers; compulsory attendance for all children, six through sixteen, for the whole school year; and creation of regional film libraries.

Incidentally, the $810 teacher raise doesn't necessarily mean every teacher in the state will get such a raise. Some districts already are paying their teachers more than the state minimum. In such cases it's up to the districts to decide whether a raise is in order.

SALES TAX EXPLAINED — Prime targets of the state's new two per cent sales tax, which becomes effective September 1, are furniture, household and kitchen appliances, clothing with some exceptions, household supplies, toys, restaurant meals and gas and electric utility bills.

Rory Craig's father is employed with the Pioneer Natural Gas Co. in Big Spring.

JERRY WILSON ENLISTS IN THE U. S. ARMY

Jerry Wilson, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hicks of Gorman, has enlisted in the U. S. Army and left Wednesday, August 16th for Fort Ord, California for basic training.

CARD OF THANKS

May I express my heartfelt thanks for the many kindnesses shown to me and my family during my illness. For the cards, visits, gifts, and prayers.
May God bless each of you.
Mrs. Lawrence Farley

But those are not all by any means, as you'll soon discover.

However, groceries, housing, medical and dental bills, insurance and telephone service will not be covered by the new levy.

One break for the taxpayer came with the new tax bill. The three per cent tax which was on television sets, radios and air conditioners will be reduced to two per cent. Cosmetics tax will be lowered from 2.2 to 2 per cent.

It should be some consolation, at least, to know that all sales taxes under the new law are consumer taxes and thus deductible from the federal income tax.

Wilbur Shell stated that if the foreign material is excessive the penalty saved by running the peanuts through this machine will pay the cost. This equipment is capable of handling 10 to 15 tons per hour.

Practically every year Melvin and Wilbur add new machinery or renovate their shelling plant to keep it in A-1 shape for the coming season. Where formerly peanuts were handled by hand, now they can go through the shelling plant and into sacks without being touched. To the best of our knowledge, Gorman Peanut Co. has one of the most modern and up-to-date plants in operation.
