Bill Clark Holds Winning Ticket In Bicycle Drawing

The merchants sponsoring the Bicycle Drawing at the King Theatre on Tuesday night were well pleased with the response, and Mr. Baird, manager of the King, was very enthusiastic over the attendance for the drawing. Bill Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Speedy Clark, held the winning ticket, and since he has a new bike, he is giving it to his sister, Carol.

Frossard's Department Store, Henderson's Variety and Higginbotham's sponsored the drawing. In the near future similar draw-

> All children from 9 to 21 years of age are eligible to become 4-H members and I want to urge each person, child or adult interested in 4-H work to be at this meeting. It is one of our most important meetings in which you will be enlisted in the particular project you like.

This is a community club and as such it is a family affair. We urge parents to attend each meeting, but especially to be present on September 10 when junior or daughter decides to keep a pig in the back yard or something similar. We want you parents to know what 4-H is and what it can do for everyone and we want you child to select the project most
