If you have a good imagination, you can hear the faint tingling of bells in the distance. It is that time of year and a committee is working to have two Santa Claus days in Gorman - Dec. 7 and 14th. Dec. 7th. will be children's day and some of the merchants are wrapping gifts to be given away right after Santa passes out the candy. There will be cards in the stores for children to sign and drop in a box. Names will be drawn and the lucky names called will pick a number out of a box which will correspond with a gift. No obligations to register.
