Members of Eastland and Comanche County Farmers Unions adopted a resolution opposing Title Six of the Farm Bill which will be mailed to their representatives in Washingon. The following delegates were elected to represent the peanut farmers to discuss this Bill with members of Congress. Every season new fabrics appear on the market. Some of these new fabrics present sewing problems. One of the most popular newer fabrics has been the stretch

An early dislike for "stretch" was developed by everyone, as those who were wearing the garments made from stretch fabric were wearing them "skin-tight." This fabric was not meant to be worn this way, but rather, the stretch in the fabric was intended to provide comfort and extra ease. Keep this in mind when buying stretch fabric or garments - buy your regular size garment or pat-

There are three types of stretch

1. Crosswise stretch (sometimes called Filling Stretch).

2. Lengthwise stretch (sometimes called Warp Stretch). This is good for long pants, however, they will need a stirrup under the

3. Two-way stretch. This fabric stretches in both lengthwise and crosswise direction and is primarily used in undergarments and

In buying stretch farbrics make sure the stretch is in the direction you want it (or lay your pattern to where the stretch is in the direction you want it.) The fabric should be placed flat and smooth for about 24 hours before cutting, to allow the fabric to "relax."

While cutting the fabric do not allow the fabric to hang over the edge of the table or cutting surface, as this will stretch the fabric. Fold the excess, being careful not to stretch the fabric, as it is on the table.

A short stitch, approximately 14-15 stitches per inch, is best to use when sewing on stretch fabrics. Also use a synthetic thread one that has give and will stretch with the fabric as the fabric stretches. This is most important 'popping" out. Your sewing machine pressure should be medium to light and use a fine to medium in the hospital.

If interfacing is necessary, use the same stretch fabric, as any regular interfacing would not stretch and thus your garment would not stretch at that point

REPORT ON COUNTY FINANCES FOR 1963 and 1964 Article 1665, revised Civil Statutes of Texas, requires that an annual financial report be made each April, copies of which shall be filed with the Commissioners Court and the District Judge of the County. Each time an annual audit is delivered to the Commissioners Court and the District Judge, the County Auditor shall send a report to the bonding company of each district, county and precinct officer showing the condition of that particular office (Acts 1955, 54th. Leg.)

The above mentioned report was duly filed with the Eastland County Commissioners Court on Monday, April 12, 1965. As your County Judge and Budget Officer, I feel that the public might appreciate some comparisons and comment on this report and the financial condition of Eastland County for the past two years. These comparisons will be based upon the expenditure of funds and the payment of bonded indebtedness which concerns County-wide funds and no attempt is made to discuss receipts or disbursements for the individual precinct road and bridge funds.

On January 1, 1963 cash in all funds $274,119.55; bonded indebtedness $56,000.00, net $218,119.55.

On January 1, 1964 cash in all funds $220,925.53; bonded indebtedness $41,000.00, net $179,925.53.

On January 1, 1965 cash in all funds $204,064.24; bonded indebtedness $26,000.00, net $178,064.24.

These figures reflect $40,055.31 less net than was on hand on January 1, 1963. During the past 2 years Eastland County has been called upon to furnish right of way for the building of State Highways in the total amount of $38,875.59. This sum reflects the actual net expenditure from the Countywide road and bridge fund over and above the amount shared by the State Highway Department. This right of way was used for State Highway 6 and 206 and the obligation to spend this money was incurred prior to January 1, 1963. Eastland County has always been willing to shoulder its fair share of State Highway right of way purchases. Other expenses which were over and above normal operating expenses include items such as a new photocopy machine costing something over $10,000.00 to be used by the County Clerk's Office, ballot boxes, a camera for the Sheriff's Department, office furniture, air conditioners requested by various county offices. The total amount spent for these items for the past two years was $12,743.19. While these items were costly they are still practically new and will provide good service for many years to come.

Also a number of costly elections were paid for by Eastland County as well as a rather large sum of money spent to cover the County's cost of holding lengthy criminal hearings in this county as well as $1,683.54 paid Palo Pinto County for change of venue trial. During the years of 1963 and 1964 Eastland County has paid $30,000.00 on its bonded indebtedness.

In conclusion, the County-wide net worth appears to be less on January 1, 1965, but the County has something to show for its money. The purchase of extensive right of way, expenditures for capital out lay, unusual expenses and criminal trials account for considerably more than that sum. Also our debt has been reduced from $56,000.00 to $26,000.00.

It is my sincere hope and desire that every tax payer will become familiar with the financial operations of our county. These records are open for inspection and a quarterly statement is published in one of the County papers every three months. Eastland County has an 80c per $100.00 tax rate based on some of the lowest property values in the State of Texas.

THIS ARTICLE IS THE KEY TO THE Constitutional Revolution and the diminution of State rights which has been taking place for the last 30 years.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION IN 1962 said in his Presidential Address, "The balance of power between the Federal and State Governments has shifted dramatically since the Consitution was adopted in 1787."

TWO PREVAILING CONDI-TIONS HAVE OBVIOUSLY been the reason for changes. One is the growing power of the Federal Government over the Nation's economic and social affairs. The other is the growing application of the rights guaranteed to individuals by the first eight Amendments to the Constitutions. For instance, for the Supreme Court to have said in 1800, or even in 1925, that every State must, in criminal cases, provide legal counsel for those too poor to pay for it would have been unthinkable. But, even the American Bar Association, long recognized as a force among conservative lawyers, praised the decision by the Court, which was appealed from the State of Florida. They approved it as a great advance in the administration of criminal justice.

THE SUPREME COURT HAS BEEN INVOLVED in both aspects of this Revolution. In the late 1930's it removed the limitation it had previously placed on Federal Power. In the years since, the Court has been placing additional restrictions on both the Federal and State Governments in their relationship with individuals.

IN THE EARLY DEPRESS ION PERIOD OF THE 1930's, many critics felt the Court was hampering the Nation's growth. It struck down Laws concerning rate regulation, child labor, working hours, agricultural and industrial regulation. It interposed its ower against the will of a great majority in Congress,

IN THE LATE 1930's, the Court backed away from these earlier actions and made it possible for Congress and the President to exercise a power they had been seeking. It was then that the power of State Governments - or States' rights - may have suffered its greatest decline.

WHEN THE FEDERAL GOV-ERNMENT STEPPED into broad economic areas, the State Governments had to step out. In many instances State Governments were unable to cope with changes in their environment, such as the growth of cities and commerce which flowed across State lines in a way that was never thought of when the Constitution was written.

ONCE THAT PART OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL REVOLU-TION was accomplished, the Supreme Court turned its attention to the reverse side of the coin of increased Governmental powers - the impingement of Government on individual liberties.

BY APPLYING MANY OF THE RESTRICTIONS OF THE Bill of Rights to the States, the Court has brough the legal processes of the States closer to those of the Federal Government. Prior to this period the guarantees of freedom of religion, the right to assemble and petition for redress of grievances, the protection against unreasonable searches and cruel or unusual punishment had never been enforced against the States.

UNTIL THE FLORIDA DECIS-ION, the Supreme Court had never taken cognizance of the right to counsel by one accused of crime. Similarly, the 14th Amendment's guarantee of equal protection of the Laws had not been broadened in its application to racial problems and voting guarantees, particularly as it applies to all Elections - Federal, State and Local.
