Ed Ames, the best-selling recording star, television per-sonality, and favorite entertainer, will portray the dual roles of Miguel de Cervantes and Don Quixote in the prize-winning musical, "Man Of La Mancha," as the second show of the Dallas Summer Musicals' season, July 7 to 19. He will sing the great musical hit of our times, "The Im-possible Dream," and delight with the humorous, warm-hearted antics of Don Quixote, hero of courage and ideal ism. This musical, still playing on Broadway five years after its opening, will also feature Natalie Costa, Tony Martinez and Earle MacVeigh of the national touring production.
