

Two Cadets Dead In Plane Collision

Two Webb Air Force Base cadet pilots were killed shortly before noon Saturday when their T-28 propeller-driven training planes collided in mid-air about five miles south of Garden City.

Killed were Aviation Cadet Ronald W. Brauer, 23, St. Paul, Minn., and Aviation Cadet Albert F. Burkhardt, 23, Akron, Ohio.

The cadets were flying in a formation of four planes led by a Webb AFB instructor at 8,500 feet when their planes collided. According to reports, the planes had "beaked" from a formation during the routine training flight and were getting back into formation again.

The collision was the first formation flight accident involving planes from Webb AFB since the base was reactivated early last year.

Wreckage was scattered over a mile and a quarter area, crossing Highway 28. An unidentified eye-witness who reported she had seen the planes come down, left the scene before anybody could get her name or secure further information.

This fit into the position of the wreckage, largely on the west side of the highway leading to Big Lake. Site of the crash was on the Cecil Wilkerson ranch. One plane was facing south, the other north, indicating they may have spun down.

The planes apparently collided in mid-air since one of the planes was split in twain between the cockpit and tail.

Badly Smashed Trainer

A Webb Air Force Base cadet, one of two killed in a mid-air collision south of Garden City Saturday, was thrown some 50 yards from the shattered cockpit of T-28 training plane shown above. Badly tangled wiring may be noticed in the bottom of the picture. Tail section of this plane, below, was found more than 50 yards south of the smashed cockpit section. Reviewing The Big Spring Week With Joe Pickle

Burglars made about as much news as anyone last week. In addition to ransacking places, they took to helping themselves to food, drink and table linens. Just to keep anyone from applying the colloquialism as to their thoroughness, they also took a couple of kitchen sinks at one place.

The week was not without its more violent moments. Two Webb AFB cadets died in an air tragedy Saturday south of Garden City. Earlier in the week Alvin Lawson, Sterling City came dangerously close to being the county's first traffic fatality. Prior to that, the city chalked up its first murder, a stabbing in the "flats" section.

While mostly the weather was the sort you would like to write your friends about, Wednesday's blow was exactly the sort that one would like to suppress. Although it moved out quickly, the sandstorm cut visibility to less than a quarter of a mile and measured up to being the worst of the current season.

Officials reminded that this is "hand signal month," being a time when all of us are urged to obey the rules of courtesy and of driving by letting the other fellow know what we intend to do. It's a good thing, but couldn't they pick a warmer time when the windows are down?

Upwards of 400 cases of flu were reported officially at the end of the week. Actually, those staying home or creeping around with the bug number many times that amount. Some druggists say prescription volumes have set new records.

A lot of people are going to get caught without a voice in their local, state and national affairs if they don't hurry to the tax collector's office and pay their poll

Flu Is Showing Winter Pattern Of Rising Here

Influenza spread over Howard County during the past week with an incidence comparable to that reported by other areas for the previous week.

Doctors reported diagnosis of 388 cases of the infection in the week ending Saturday. They said, however, that the reports didn't approach actual prevalence of flu.

One physician suggested to the Big Spring-Howard County Health Unit that practically the entire population of the city has either influenza, virus infection or colds.

For the week ending Jan. 3 when 14 other counties reported more than 100 cases of flu, the Howard County roundup showed diagnosis of but 61 cases of the disease.

Doctors said spread of the disease is following the usual pattern of increasing in January and February.

Other communicable diseases reported to the City-County Health Unit here during the past week included seven cases of mumps, 32 cases of pneumonia, 20 of gastroenteritis, 26 of tonsillitis, 18 of diarrhea, one of measles, four of gonorrhea and one case of scarlet fever.

Elsewhere over the state, some schools were forced to close because of heavy incidence of influenza.

Webb County had 2,961 cases, Hale 1,500, Midland 600 and Lamb and Lubbock Counties 500 each.

Other counties reporting more than 100 cases each were Bailey, Bee, Brazoria, Edwards, Floyd, Guadalupe, Mills, Potter and Stephens.

Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, said that the pattern of the disease in Texas has been similar in recent years. An increased incidence usually occurs in January and the peak incidence is reached in February and March.

A decline occurs in April and May, 2,755 school children had flu in Waco and estimated 3,000 other persons were stricken. San Marcos doctors report that city was gripped by one of the worst influenza epidemics in years, with an estimated 10 per cent of the populace stricken.

At Hillsboro, doctors reported they were treating three times as many cases of flu as they were at this time last year.

Schools at Bonham and Honey Grove shut down Friday, the Bronco schools closed Thursday, and over 500 students had flu at Paris.

New C-C Board Members Meet

Fifteen new Chamber of Commerce directors will meet with 15 holdover directors Monday to complete selection of the Chamber's 1953 directorate.

The 15 new members of the board were elected during voting of the past week. They and the holdover group will choose up to 10 additional members to round out the board.

Meeting is scheduled for noon Monday at the Settles.

The new directorate will formally take office at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet and membership meeting Feb. 2. New president, vice president, and executive committee for 1953 also will be installed at that time.

The 15 directors chosen by Chamber members last week are J. D. Jones, Frank Hardesty, Dr. W. A. Hunt, M. A. Cook, H. W. Whitney, Tommy Jordan, Dick Simpson, Cecil McDonald, Champ Rainwater, Al Dillon, Meris Stewart, K. H. McGibbon, Ted Phillips, C. O. Nalley and R. V. Middleton.

Cattle Smuggling Trial Is Monday

EL PASO, Jan. 10 (AP)—Eight West Texans face trial in Federal Court here Monday on charges of bringing Mexican cattle across the Rio Grande in violation of the foot-and-mouth embargo last year.

The embargo has since been lifted.

Named in the charges are Walter Dillard Babb, his brothers, Wayne and Irving Babb, and Tom Grubbs, all of Sierra Blanca, Tex.; H. L. and Fred Wilkerson, Big Spring truckers, and Joseph Marchant, Midland cattle buyers.

The Federal indictments charge that the men smuggled stolen cattle over the border from Mexico.

General Charged As 'Insubordinate'

By RONALD AUTRY

NEW YORK, Jan. 10 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur tonight heatedly blamed any excessive American military desertions on what he called President Truman's "policy of appeasement."

It was a new peak in the feud between the Chief Executive and the commander of United Nations forces fighting in Korea.

MacArthur used the most biting language he has yet applied in answering Truman's charge that the general, whom he called "insubordinate," helped increase desertions that lately have run to 47,000.

No Comment From White House

In Washington, the White House withheld comment on Gen. MacArthur's statement.

The Army said last Wednesday that 46,000 enlisted men have deserted since the start of the Korean War but that all except 11,000 have been picked up or returned voluntarily.

For all the services—the Air Force, Navy and Marines as well as the Army—the current count of deserters still at large was given by Pentagon officials at about 13,700. These figures do not include men merely absent without leave.

Gen. Anthony J. McAuliffe, Army assistant chief of staff for personnel, said the rate of desertion during the present fighting was less than one-half of what it was during one 12-month period in the last year of World War II.

McAuliffe's desertion total was 1,000 below the figure attributed to Truman.

McArthur issued his second blast in two weeks at Truman—after months of relative reticence—as a reply to statements attributed to the President by columnist Doris Fleeson of the Bell Syndicate.

Miss Fleeson said Truman

Gen. MacArthur said: "If such desertions are indeed excessive, despite the recent denials by the Defense Department, they can more realistically be ascribed to a lack of faith in President Truman's policies of appeasement."

And MacArthur termed some of the President's attacks on him as "puerile" . . . "unjust and arbitrary" . . . "obvious spleen" . . . "savage method."

Perhaps, too, MacArthur added in his blistering statement, Truman "is animated by pique" at President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower's "interest in ascertaining my views on Korea."

The ministry expressed "no hope" for finding any more survivors.

Transportation Minister Kim Suk Kwang expressed belief that no Americans were aboard the ship which sailed daily between Pusan and Yosu, 100 miles to the west of Korea's south coast.

The ministry said the passengers were mostly a mixed group of Korean men and women—farmers and townsmen—coming to the Pusan markets from outlying points.

Among the seven rescued and brought to Pusan for first aid treatment was the ship's captain, Ha Yang Mo.

He was able to provide only a sketchy account of the disaster. He told the ministry his ship was smashed violently by a tremendous gust of wind. The next he knew was when he regained consciousness in the sea.

The sinking of the Chang Yung Ho was the latest in a series of disaster calls in the Pacific during the week.

In Tokyo, the Japanese Maritime Safety Board said it has picked up an SOS from the Korean ship Alchong near Tsushima Island in the Sea of Japan. The board said the vessel, with 33 crewmen, reported it was in trouble. There were no details.

Little hope was held for eight crew members listed as missing in the breakup of the Swedish tanker Avanti south of Japan Wednesday night. Thirty-three others were saved.

Two American military transports collided Friday night five miles outside the entrance to Sasebo Harbor, a U. S. naval base in Southern Japan. The Navy had no reports of casualties.

The transport Creighton Victory sideswiped the transport Jumper Hitch, the Navy said, and opened a six-foot hole in the Jumper Hitch's bow. The Creighton Victory, en route from Seattle to Pusan, continued on its voyage.

Both ships are in the transpacific operations of the Military Sea Transport Service.

Forecasters at Chicago said storm areas in the Northeast and the Pacific Northwest sections of the nation were easing off and the heavy blow in the Florida Gulf Coast region had petered out. A new storm center would spread rain late Saturday over a wide

244 Are Lost As Korea Ship Sinks Near Port

By BILL SHINN

PUSAN, Korea, Sunday, Jan. 11 (AP)—More than 30 rescue craft combed the rough waters outside this big port Saturday in search of survivors from the ill-fated Korean ship Chang Yung Ho but they found only five bodies of passengers. There were 244 others still missing and feared dead.

Hours after the disaster, in which the crowded vessel sank Friday night with 256 aboard, the Ministry of Transportation said only seven persons had been rescued.

The ministry expressed "no hope" for finding any more survivors.

Far East Air Force B29s dumped 170 tons of bombs on the same target in a night raid preceding the daylight attack.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said the devastating blow hit five rail and four road bridges spanning the Chongchong and Tseryung Rivers.

The Air Force said that before visual observation was blotted out by smoke and flames at least two spans of one bridge and one span of another tumbled into the rivers.

AF Air Cadet Positions May Now Be Sought

The local recruiting station is now accepting applications for the Air Force Aviation Cadet program. Sfc. A. M. Burt, recruiter, stated that there are openings for pilots and aircraft observers.

Pilot classes begin every six weeks, Burt said. Aircraft observer courses include specialization in navigation, bombardment, radar operation and aircraft performance engineering.

Qualifications for both openings are near the same. Applicants have to be between the ages of 19 and 26½ and have two years of college credit. Physical and mental examinations must be passed.

Burt stated that all applicants for the cadet program must be single and agree to remain single during training. Pilots will receive one month indoctrination, six months basic pilot training, and six months advanced pilot training.

The aircraft observer courses take 5 weeks of training, after which time men will be assigned to bombardment, transport, reconnaissance, or interceptor aircraft. Basic pilot training is given at Goodfellow Air Force Base in San Angelo, Burt pointed out, while observer courses begin at Ellington Air Force Base in Houston.

One of the advanced pilot training bases is in Big Spring, and it is possible that local men will be returned here for training, Burt said.

Pay in both positions at the end of training is $415.75 per month. During training an allowance of $105 per month is allowed, plus food, uniforms, housing and medical care.

Local men wishing to inquire into the possibilities of the training can contact Sfc. Burt at the recruiting station, 2nd and Scurry.

Mrs. Smith Is Given Life For Slaying Hubby

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
TOKYO, Sunday, Jan. 10.—Dorothy Krueger Smith, an attorney called his client a "wrecked personality" but when an Army court-martial convicted her Saturday of murdering her officer-husband she took it like a soldier's daughter and a soldier's widow.

No one stood straighter in the tiny barracks courtroom. Even as the lashing conviction and sentence to life imprisonment was read, her shoulders went back and her chin lifted.

Tears welled in her eyes as she left the room but she mustered a small smile for a military policeman at the door. And her head was high as she walked down the hall-headed for what the Army court said must be a lifetime of hard labor.

It was an astonishing windup for the sheltered 40-year-old daughter of famed Gen. Walter Krueger, leader of the U. S. Sixth Army in the Pacific campaigns of World War II.

When she plunged the foot-long blade of a hunting knife into her sleeping husband, Col. Aubrey D. Smith, at midnight last Oct. 3 it was premeditated murder, the general court-martial ruled, and not temporary insanity as her defense had pleaded.

However, appeals from court-martial convictions are automatic. The case will be reviewed by the commanding general of the headquarters and service command of the Far East Command, Brig. Gen. Onslow S. Rolfe, and the FEC judge advocate general.

It will also be examined by the Army board of review in Washington and, upon Mrs. Smith's request, by the court of military appeals, a three-man civilian tribunal. It reviews cases for all branches of the armed services.

Big Spring Chosen '53 Meeting Place For PE Teachers

Big Spring was chosen Saturday as the 1953 meeting place for the West Texas Women's Physical Education Clinic.

Three Big Spring women were named to the key offices in the association at its annual parley in Odessa. They are Lynelle Sullivan, HCJC instructor, chairman; Arsh Phillips, vice-chairman, and Anna Smith, secretary, both of the Big Spring school staff.

Eight cities were represented at the meet, which was addressed by Miss Beulah Harris, associated professor of physical education at North Texas State College. During the afternoon there was a demonstration at the Odessa junior college in modern, folk and other types of dance as well as in tumbling. Presiding over the sessions was Bell Holmes of Odessa Junior College.

Six members of the Big Spring High School Band Saturday qualified for chairs on the all-state high school band which is to perform at the Texas Music Educators Association clinic-convention in Galveston Feb. 11-13.

Regional tryouts were conducted at Odessa High School with contestants present from over an area extending from Big Spring to Lubbock and from Lamesa south to the border.

Big Spring bandsters winning positions on one of the two 90-member all-state bands were Frankie Marstrand, bass clarinet; Kenneth Briden, cornet; Harris Wood, French horn; Margaret Martin, French horn; Bill Bradley, baritone saxophone; and Pat Rutledge, clarinet.

The Saturday victory was a big gain over 1952 when one local band member — Guy Knowles — won a place among the all-stars.

The two 90-member bands, representing two approximately-equal portions of the state, will play University Interscholastic League contest music at the TMEA meeting. They also will perform at a grand concert to conclude the clinic-convention.

Guided Missiles Go Beyond 1,500 Miles Speed Of 1945

By ELTON FAY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—An announcement today disclosed the United States was experimenting more than five years ago with anti-aircraft guided missiles having speeds of more than 1,500 miles an hour.

Presumably the speeds of present-day missiles, designed to overtake the fast jet bombers and fighters of today, have been vastly increased.

The Boeing Airplane Company, now making the long-range, heavy B2 jet bombers, was able to say only that its current guided missile program "is one of the largest projects" of its engineering department and that even this priority will be increased.

The company said today that as early as 1945 it received an Air Force contract to build experimental missiles. These became the "Gapa" (ground to air pilotless aircraft) missiles.

First firing of the slim, pencil-like weapons were made at Wendover, Utah, in 1946. The project was transferred in 1947 to Alamogordo, N. M., where the first atomic bomb had been tested two years earlier.

In subsequent tests, the missiles traveled about 1,500 miles an hour. The rocket-driven missiles, presumably with radar devices for "homing" on a target in the final stage, were 20 feet long and 2½ feet in diameter. Control was by

KILL THE TASTE BUD APPETITE TO TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Over four and a half million bottles of Barconatrate have been sold in Texas in the past year. During the past year, the makers of this product have done extensive research work and experimentation toward making an excellent product still better. We now announce the new improved Barconatrate. The original formula remains the same, except that an additional ingredient has been added.

But in addition to the liquid Barconatrate, we have added tablets which are dissolved on the tongue before eating. These tablets help to lessen the taste bud appetite—to help kill the taste buds which lie on the surface of the tongue. Thus, with the new improved Barconatrate, your stomach appetite is satisfied so that you need not know a hungry moment. And the "taste" appetite created by the taste buds is lessened.

With the new Barconatrate, you will eat all the body requires, but you will not feel and still not know a hungry moment. The liquid Barconatrate stimulates metabolism and also helps to satiate stomach hunger with less food. The new ingredient added to the liquid supplies nourishment and energy.

Colorado GOP Wants US Post For Coloradoan

DENVER, Jan. 10 (AP)—Many state Republican leaders, especially early Eisenhower supporters, are expressing growing bitterness over the failure of the President-elect to name a Coloradoan to a top federal job.

They feel they earned it by turning the state's nominating votes from Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. They feel they were assured a reward by national Eisenhower leaders who made frequent trips seeking support here.

Many are saying nothing publicly, hoping appointments still will come for top, second-echelon Washington jobs. But others now are openly resentful.

Arthur C. Sheely of Ft. Collins says he is "bitterly disillusioned." Lawrence C. Phipps Jr. of Denver is reported by friends to have said he is "disgusted." State Sen. Will F. Nicholson of Denver says he is "very disappointed." All were Eisenhower backers.

Gov. Dan Thornton was considered a likely nominee for secretary of the interior. He told Eisenhower, however, that he couldn't take a federal appointment; that he wanted to serve his second term as governor.

"I have confidence in the ability of Ike and his staff to pick good leaders," Thornton said today. "I think there are those in Colorado who can help them do the job ahead. I'm not too concerned that Colorado may be left out."

Soviets Block Road In Berlin Sector

BERLIN, Jan. 10 (AP)—Soviet tank-guns blocked roads leading from East Germany into Berlin's Russian sector today in what may be a move to seal off the entire city from the surrounding Soviet zone.

East Berliners told West Berlin police a Russian officer, backed by four machine-guns, was stopping all traffic in both directions at the big Malsdorf checkpoint.

Workers and school children were forbidden to cross the boundary into the city's Soviet sector and side streets were blocked by barbed wire, these witnesses said.

The move came after hints in the Red press that profiteers often de-toured through the Soviet sector to smuggle goods into West Berlin.

Denison HS Band Is Set To Attend Ike Inauguration Fete

DENISON, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Denison High School band—with 86,000 worth of tickets—is ready to attend the inauguration of Dwight D. Eisenhower as President.

Seventy-eight band members, plus teachers and chaperons, will leave next Saturday for Washington.

A drive for funds for the trip continues. Money still is needed to feed the group for the week it will be away from home. Donations have been received from over the state to send the band to the inaugural of Eisenhower, who was born in Denison.

Where Cadet Died

One Webb Air Force Base cadet was killed instantly Saturday when his T-28 training plane which he was flying collided in mid-air with another T-28. Pilot of the other craft was also killed. The cadet flying this plane was found dead inside the cockpit by investigating officers who sped to the scene, some five miles south of Garden City on Highway 38.

Schuman Plan Assembly Meets On Coal And Steel Development

STRASBOURG, France, Jan. 10 (AP)—The six-nation Schuman Plan Joint Assembly convened tonight to debate an ambitious scheme for an annual billion dollar European steel and coal development program.

Jean Monnet of France, chairman of the plan's High Authority, has proposed that the Assembly undertake yearly large scale investments, including possibly loans from the United States, to boost steel and coal production 20 per cent by 1953, and 35 per cent in 10 years.

France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg are associated in this effort to raise Western European industrial potential. They also are associated in an historic effort to bring the six nations into a European confederation of states.

Before meeting to consider the Monnet proposals, the 78 representatives and nine extra delegates—sitting as a special Constitutional Assembly—finished their preliminary study of a confederation charter. They adopted an outline of a joint constitution for the six nations and referred their decisions to a drafting committee. The committee must write a provisional text by March 1.

Then convening as the Schuman Plan Joint Assembly, the assemblymen, in effect, refused to allow observers from other member states of the Council of Europe, an unofficial parliament of Europe.

Peter Molyneux, Southern Writer, Due Burial Monday

DALLAS, Jan. 10 (AP)—Peter Molyneux, Southern writer and publisher who died here last night, will be buried in New Orleans, his home town.

Molyneux, 70, died of cancer at his Dallas home.

An author, world traveler and economist, he had spent most of his life interpreting the South, its effect upon the world and the world's effect upon it.

He was editor and publisher of the Southern Weekly, which went out of business a few months ago when Molyneux became too ill to devote his time to it. He began the paper in 1934 as Bunker's Monthly.

Rosary was to be recited here tonight. The body will be sent to New Orleans for services and burial Monday.

Molyneux was born April 18, 1882, in New Orleans. He quit school at 15 to work in a succession of jobs before starting as a reporter on the New Orleans Item. Later he worked on the San Antonio Express, Houston Post and Fort Worth Star-Telegram. For several years he wrote editorial page essays for the Dallas News.

He was a conservative Democrat. He was outspoken in his conservative beliefs about politics, tidelands, labor, education and world trade and relations.

He was author of several economic papers, songs and books, including "The Romantic Story of Texas."

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Etna Elizey Molyneux; four sisters, Mrs. S. R. Lewis of Dallas, Mrs. John Kerwin of New Orleans, Miss Rose Molyneux and Miss Mary Molyneux, both of Jackson, La.

Three Local Men In Jail On Theft Count

Three local men were in county jail today following arrests Saturday night on charges of theft. They are D. H. Buchanan, James Barber and Larus Barber.

Sheriff's officials are still looking for a fourth suspect. Complaint was filed by M. W. Walker, who claims a post hole digger, a brace and bit, and a carpenter's plane were stolen from him on Dec. 7.

Walker estimates that the tools were worth about $16. Deputies Dale Lane and C. H. Forgas arrested the men.

The Assembly moved to exclude in the joint European executive council, a nine-man panel which would be responsible to a joint two-house legislature. The Assembly also turned down a move to let the ministers choose the chairman, or premier, of the executive board.

The confederation plan calls for a two-house legislative arm, with the lower house elected directly by voters of the various nations on a population basis, and for a joint supreme court.

Under the present timetable, the drafting committee will submit a finished text to the Assembly here March 1. The Assembly, in turn, must adopt the final draft by March 10 and then it goes to the national governments and parliaments for further negotiation and ratification.

BY EISENHOWER

Gen. Smith Named To Top State Post

By JAMES DEVLIN
NEW YORK, Jan. 10 (AP)—President-elect Eisenhower chose two more Cabinet undersecretaries today—a long-time friend who held high posts in the Truman administration and another AFL official.

He named Gen. Walter Bedell Smith as undersecretary of state and Lloyd A. Mashburn, California labor commissioner and a member of the AFL, Wood, Wine and Metal Workers Union, as undersecretary of labor.

Smith is chief of the Central Intelligence Agency and served for three years as ambassador in Moscow after World War II. He was Eisenhower's chief of staff in Europe during the war.

James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, said he did not know Smith's political affiliation.

Mashburn is a Republican, unlike Martin P. Durkin, secretary of labor—designate, whose appointment was described by Sen. Taft of Ohio as "incredible."

Durkin, a Democrat who supported Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, the Democratic candidate for President, headed the AFL Plumbers Union.

While two AFL officials have been selected for posts in the Eisenhower administration, none has been chosen at least so far, from the rival CIO.

In the present administration, one AFL official and one CIO official hold assistant secretaryships in the Department of Labor.

In Detroit, Walter Reuther, CIO president, had no immediate comment on the naming of the second AFL man.

In Washington, Joseph Beirne, president of the CIO Communication Workers, said through a spokesman that Mashburn was well qualified for the job and that it was "an excellent appointment."

Smith is 57, and Mashburn 55. Their designations were announced as Eisenhower spent the morning at his Hotel Commodore headquarters despite his announced intention some weeks ago of keeping away from the office on week ends.

Members of his staff said he spent most of the morning working on his inaugural address and a State of the Union message he will deliver to Congress.

tax or obtain an exemption. Less than 2,000 voters have qualified, barely a fourth of the potential. Don't be a chump and get caught in long lines or caught without—go down Monday and get yours.

If the March of Dimes doesn't get the job done this time, it won't be because of a lack of opportunity to give. In addition to the traditional solicitations and the "iron lungs" in various business houses, there will be stickers urging you to put your dimes in the parking meters. Dimes won't buy parking time, but they may buy a life or a normal walk for some kid.

The city is planning to take bids Feb. 9 on an 183-block paving program. This would be the first major project of this sort in two years, although considerable paving has been done in smaller lots.

Tickets went on sale for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet Feb. 2. Dr. Kenneth McFarland is to be the speaker, and those who have heard him will tell you he is one of the country's most absorbing speakers.

From all accounts the final game of the Howard County Junior College tournament last week must have been a super-whiz. HCJC won, but had it been the other way a lot of people insist it was the best game they ever witnessed.

Howard County and South Plains Hereford Breeders averaged $572 on the animals going through the annual sale. While not as high as most would have hoped, the returns were perhaps sufficient to justify the decision to maintain continuity in the sale. Association leaders are going to work now to build a far larger show and sale.

Speedy Action Is Possible On Tides Ownership Measure

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—A bill to give the states title to oil-rich submerged lands off their shores may get speedy action in the Senate, Republican leader Taft of Ohio said today.

He said he assumes the bill, offered yesterday by 40 senators, will be one of the first to come before the Senate. A similar measure was passed by Congress last year but was vetoed by President Truman.

Taft said he wants to discuss the legislative program with President-elect Eisenhower before making any schedule commitments.

Cold, Fair Weather Due For Inauguration

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Weather Bureau today gave this forecast for presidential inauguration day 19 days hence: cold and probably fair.

But the bureau added there is an outside chance it may rain or snow.

The forecast was based on a study of current weather conditions in the Western Hemisphere, especially over the Arctic north-west area of Canada.

MacARTHUR

policies by the American people at the polls.

MacArthur took up Truman's statements to Miss Fleenon point by point.

On deserts, he said, Truman's policies had created a lack of faith because they "forbade victory to our forces committed to battle in Korea when such victory was easily in their grasp 20 months ago" and created "the growing fear that such policies will inevitably plunge us into another world war."

Then he went on to the President's charge that he failed to obey orders and said:

"Such a charge is completely untrue as shown by the testimony given before the congressional inquiry following my return."

MacArthur was referring to his return from Japan after Truman's statement that those remaining were "inaccurate and misleading."

The column that started the latest controversy quoted Truman as saying that junior officers had carefully noted MacArthur's actions and had said to themselves:

"Well, if a general can get away with that, I can."

MacArthur's statement tonight followed Truman's statement which publicly attacked me, this time with the fantastic and wholly unwarranted charge that in some strange way, although retired from active service for nearly two years, I bear some responsibility for current desertions from the armed forces. If such desertions are indeed excessive, despite the recent statement by the Defense Department, they can more realistically be ascribed to a lack of faith in President Truman's policies of appeasement which forbade victory to our forces committed to battle in Korea when such victory was easily within their grasp 20 months ago and to the growing fear that such policies will inevitably plunge us into another world war.

"No one condemns desertions more strongly than I and no one is more interested in keeping up the morale and discipline of the armed services. Mr. Truman couples me derisively with the Chicago Tribune and Scripps-Howard and Hearst newspapers' apparent because these great journals together with others not specifically mentioned by him have not hesitated fearlessly to discuss and criticize public policy and to resist the palpable efforts now being made to prevaricate history.

The President has at different times given new and wholly unrelated reasons seeking justification in my relief from command in the Far East. He now for the first time attributes such a charge to a failure to obey orders despite the fact that such a charge is completely untrue as shown by the testimony given before the congressional inquiry following my return.

"His querulous complaint of insubordination because I did not call upon him following my return is puerile in view of the circumstances attending my relief. His implication that I sought political office following my retirement from active assignment has no basis whatsoever in fact. It is difficult for me to conceal my indignation at his constant, unfounded and indeed venomous personal attacks and even more difficult for me adequately to reply in my own defense in view of the veneration I feel for the high office of President of the United States which he still continues to occupy.

"The impropriety of a President making such personal attacks upon an officer still subject to his recall at will to active service under him is self-evident. Mr. Truman's obvious spleen against me, given mounting expression since the election, is undoubtedly political, not military. It arises in my opinion from his realization that his unjust and arbitrary actions connected with my relief and related incidents, coupled with the bankruptcy of his policies in the Far East, played a large part in his overwhelming repudiation by the American people at the polls. Perhaps, too, he is animated by pique at the President-elect's interest in ascertaining my views on Korea."

Earlier today in Chicago, Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of the Tribune, said in a statement commenting on Miss Fleenon's interview:

"Truman is an infernal liar as well as a fellow traveler in trying to destroy the republic of the United States."

Average Price At Angelo Bull Sale Is $660

SAN ANGELO, (SC)—With an average of $660 being the price paid for 47 registered Hereford bulls in the Concho Association's sale here Saturday, a bull consigned by Leland Wallace of Big Spring sold for $810; two bulls from the Charlie Creighton herd, also Big Spring, brought a total of $1,100, and a bull consigned by Cecil A. Walker of Big Spring sold for $600.

The top price was $3,850 paid by W. D. Collier of Falls for a bull consigned by Frank Jordan of Mason. Last Thursday Mason judged the cattle for the Howard County-South Plains Association sale at Big Spring. This bull was the grand champion at Saturday's sale.

The reserve champion bull was consigned by W. B. Barrett of Comanche and was sold to Pat Malloy of the Jeff Ranch at Fort Davis for $1,500.

Leland Wallace was elected a director of the Concho Association at the annual business-supper meeting of the organization at the St. Angelo Hotel Friday evening. Sam Logan of Sonora was also elected one of the two new directors.

The officers elected were Mans Hoget of Sonora, president; Dr. H. A. Wimberly of San Angelo, vice president; M. B. Inman Jr., of San Angelo College was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The guest speaker at the banquet was Fred Korth, assistant secretary of the Army.

The cattle were judged Saturday morning by Henry Ariege of Seymour.

Officials said the average was "good" considering the dry weather and the consequent absence of breeding cows in West Texas.

A number of the bulls purchased by John R. Scott and Son of Merton are being shipped to their ranch in Montana.

Officers said approximately 325 Hereford calves were found buried in Hagan's back yard, along with the nitroglycerine. At Hagan's arraignment a special agent of the federal narcotics bureau claimed that Hagan was "the largest operator of the bunch, and worked with a nationwide ring of narcotics peddlers who brought their illegal contraband into the U. S. from Mexico to Dalmierfield, Texas."

Brown was a Negro.

Lopez recently was convicted of illegal possession of marihuana in 99th District Court here and sentenced to five years in prison. His case is on appeal.

After Mrs. Fluke set bonds, the defendants were remanded to the custody of U. S. Deputy Marshal C. E. Luce. None had posted bond late tonight.

The raids were ordered yesterday after a high official of the Narcotics Bureau arrived.

The two undercover agents were supplied with marked money for purchases. One of them was arrested at least twice with police characters in bootlegging raids.

Others in the alleged spy plot, including Mrs. Rosenberg's brother, David Greenglass, received long prison terms instead of the death sentence.

The case has sparked Communist propaganda around the world. Not in many years has a death sentence in this country kicked up such international furor.

Some non-Communists have joined in the public clamor, and the White House has been picked all this week by marchers bearing clemency appeals.

President Truman may grant the plea, reject it, or let it ride over into the Eisenhower administration.

A Justice Department official said the Rosenberg appeal will go first to the department's pardon attorneys, who will review the whole case. They will make their recommendations to the attorney general, who will in turn suggest a course of action to the White House.

The Rosenbergs, parents of two small sons, were convicted March 28, 1951, of conspiring to turn U.S. atom bomb secrets over to the Soviets.

Sweeping Dope Raids Held In Lubbock Area

LUBBOCK, Jan. 10 (AP)—A surprise two-day roundup of suspected dope offenders—the most sweeping in recent years here—was announced today by Federal agents.

Nine Lubbock residents charged with narcotics violations were arrested. One of them was identified as a Lubbock real estate man. Another was described by U. S. Treasury agents as a suspected "large operator" who "worked with a nationwide ring of narcotics peddlers." Two women were among those taken into custody.

Federal agents carried out the series of raids at private residences and small hotels yesterday and today. They were assisted by local police and sheriff's deputies.

The roundup climaxed eight months' undercover work by two agents working at the request of local authorities. It resulted in confiscation of drugs valued at an estimated $17,112 on the underworld market.

The group arrested were not linked together in any ring.

At one point during the raids Federal agents and local officers possibly came close to losing their lives. In a raid at one Lubbock home an officer bumped several pounds of jellied nitroglycerine.

Gene Rodriguez, 28, sale of 76 capsules of heroin, $2,500 bond.

All those arrested entered pleas or not guilty before U. S. Commissioner Mrs. Olive Fluke. Here are their names, the charges against them and the amount of bond set:

R. L. (Red) Hagan, 38, sale of 50 capsules of heroin, $5,000 bond.

J. D. Taylor, 29, sale of 100 tablets of morphine sulphate, $5,000 bond.

Alfonso Fox Lopez, 39, sale of 304 tablets of morphine sulphate, $2,500 bond.

Servino Lucero, 35, purchase of four capsules of heroin, $1,500 bond.

Louise Davis, 26, sale of 100 tablets of morphine sulphate, $1,000 bond.

Rachel Valdez, 40, sale of 10 capsules of heroin, $1,000 bond.

Bufford Hall, 45, sale of 125 capsules of heroin, $1,000 bond.

Raymond Brown, 33, Negro, sale of four cans of marihuana, $500 bond.

Hall was identified as the Lubbock real estate man.

Officers said approximately 325 Hereford calves were found buried in Hagan's back yard, along with the nitroglycerine. At Hagan's arraignment a special agent of the federal narcotics bureau claimed that Hagan was "the largest operator of the bunch, and worked with a nationwide ring of narcotics peddlers who brought their illegal contraband into the U. # Doomed Atomic Spies Appeal To HST For Mercy

By GARDNER L. BRIDGE
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—Presidential mercy was sought today by Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, doomed as atomic spies.

Counsel for the New York couple sentenced to die in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair for conspiring to slip atom secrets to Russia filed an appeal for executive clemency with the Justice Department.

The action, climaxing a long and losing series of court battles, meant an automatic stay of execution until five days after the President announces his decision. This is the time of our arrest. This is the time of our appeal for executive clemency with the Justice Department.

The Rosenberg, a 34-year-old engineer and his 36-year-old wife, had been sentenced to die this coming Wednesday by Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman, who called their crime worse than murder—"exposing millions of their countrymen to danger or death."

In their appeal to the President, the convicted couple again proclaimed their innocence and said they would go to the chair rather than express guilt, penitence or remorse.

Declaring themselves the victims of a corrupt verdict in a "passion-rousing trial," they said:

"We are innocent, as we have proclaimed and maintained from the time of our arrest. This is the whole truth. To forsake this truth is to pay too high a price even for the priceless gift of life—for life thus purchased we could not live out in dignity and self-respect."

They accused accomplices who testified against them of trading "Judas words for a few years of their miserable lives."

Others in the alleged spy plot, including Mrs. Rosenberg's brother, David Greenglass, received long prison terms instead of the death sentence.

The case has sparked Communist propaganda around the world. Not in many years has a death sentence in this country kicked up such international furor.

Some non-Communists have joined in the public clamor, and the White House has been picked all this week by marchers bearing clemency appeals.

Reorganization Of Chamber At C-City Reported

COLORADO CITY, Jan. 10 — Reorganization of the chamber of commerce was effected here Friday evening.

As newly elected directors took office, they selected Frank Masad, 45, clothing merchant, as president.

Other officers elected were John D. Harvey, first vice president; Gale Billings, second vice president; Ken Jennings, secretary; and Joe Bell, treasurer.

The first task to face the new officers, said Masad, is the hiring of a new manager for the chamber. It has been without an executive during much of 1952.

The meeting marked the climax of two months of work among Colorado City merchants, professional men and others seeking to revive the Colorado City Chamber which had been beset by lack of interest and finances.

Number of directors was cut sharply from 21 to 12 with the outgoing president as ex-officio additional member. Terms were set at three years with four to be elected each year.

District Attorney Eldon Mahon, who has figured prominently in the reorganizational activities, was made chairman of a committee to draw a proposed constitution and by-laws for the group. He will be assisted by Kenn Eastin, Gale Billings, and Dr. R. D. Bridgford.

A budget committee was named to include Ray Porter as chairman, aided by Jimmy Payne, Dr. R. D. Bridgford, and A. L. McSpadden. Other directors are Jeff Taylor, Ira Utz, and McSpadden.

The new president moved here four years ago and purchased the Brooks Dry Goods Company, now operated under his own name. He is married to the former Jenny Saied of Wellington, and they have two daughters, Pat 4, and Jenny Lynn, 15.

Cars Unscratched But The Women Are Not!

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 10 — A woman driver slipped into a parking space while another female motorist was maneuvering to back in and both had to be taken to a hospital for emergency treatment.

No, the cars didn't hit. The women did.

Patrolman William Jackson reported yesterday that Mrs. Evelyn Weisman suffered a bitten finger and Mrs. Renee Martin had two front teeth knocked out before spectators separated them.

Sisters Have Babies At The Same Time

OSWEGO, N. Y., Jan. 10 — Two sisters gave birth at exactly the same time, 300 miles apart.

Mrs. George Richter of North Wolcott bore a son, David, in Oswego Hospital at 5:20 p. m., EST, Jan. 4.

Now she and her husband have learned that her sister, Mrs. Lee Frazier, bore a daughter, Kathy Ann, at 5:20 p. m., Jan. 4, in Wilkesburg, Pa.

New Money Must Be Found If Highway Problem To Be Solved

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN, Jan. 10 — The 53rd Legislature may get by without raising taxes for general spending but new money must be found if Texas' urgent highway needs are met.

That is Gov. Shivers' summarized prediction for the biennial session that starts Tuesday.

The governor listed these as the Legislature's most pressing problems:

1. Pay raises for public school teachers and state employees.
2. How much the highway system shall be improved, how soon, and how the money will be raised. Shivers will make specific suggestions for solving these and other puzzles in his first message to the lawmakers at noon Wednesday.

Revenue prospects for the next two fiscal years afford "at least the possibility" of not needing new taxes for general state spending, Shivers said. That would require a hold-down to bare necessities on general expenses. It would not include whatever extra amount the Legislature decides should be spent for highways.

Estimates of additional needs for the next two years run upward to 100 million dollars.

"They can and will spend less," Shivers said. "They will have to have additional revenue and it should come from a highway use tax."

Highway use tax usually means the gasoline tax. Pre-session talk of increases have mentioned figures varying from one to four cents a gallon.

The last session of the Legislature dug up 65 million dollars in new revenue by continuing a 10 per cent boost on items in the omnibus law and taxing natural gas gathering systems.

The natural gas tax was challenged in court and revenues from it cannot be used until the lawsuit is disposed of.

Shivers' summary did not touch on other issues facing the session. Among these problems are water conservation and control which have baffled past sessions; need of cities for additional revenue; modification or repeal of the Auto Inspection Law; election law revision and a presidential preference primary; the Drivers Financial Responsibility Law; removal of the 35 million dollar ceiling on welfare spending; improvement of the Gilmer - Alkin school laws; more money for public health; truck load laws; difficulties in the state hospital and special school system.

In connection with state hospitals, Shivers listed the need for stepping up the tuberculosis program as No. 1 on a long list of projects for which additional money will be asked.

In the No. 2 spot he placed needs of the State Deaf School; No. 3, the M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research.

The 53rd will be a relatively inexperienced Legislature. In the House, 74 members have had no previous legislative experience. There are nine new senators, mostly promoted from the House.

On the other hand, spokesmen for the Truman policies were standing fast for extension of the controls law.

Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, in a year-end statement, called for no more than selective decontrol, item by item. He said "it would be foolhardy to abandon all controls so long as there remains a threat of Communist aggression."

Most Democrats in Congress feel the same and are sure to put up a noisy argument against anything less if given a chance.

Two Men Killed When Freight Trucks Hit

FAIRFIELD, Jan. 10 — Two men were killed and a third critically injured today when two freight trucks collided five miles south of here.

The dead were identified as George J. Turner, Dallas, driver of one of the trucks, and Glenn Rhoden, 24, Houston, a passenger in the other one. The highway was blocked for two hours after the accident.

Ed Parks Crenshaw, Houston, suffered head injuries and severe burns.

PROBABLY TO BE DROPPED

Economic Controls Decision Up To Ike

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 — The future of economic controls under the new Republican administration appears today to rest on this one question only: whether to kill them at once or allow them to die naturally on April 30.

Rep. Jesse P. Wolcott of Michigan, a GOP congressional spokesman on economic matters, indicated the final decision probably would rest with President-elect Eisenhower.

But in no event, Wolcott intimated, it is likely that direct controls over prices, wages and rents will continue beyond the April 30 expiration date of the 1952 Defense Production Act.

Wolcott, chairman of the House Banking Committee which originates controls legislation, told a reporter that as matters stand "the question has narrowed down to ending controls right away or waiting until April 30."

Eisenhower has appointed a committee to study the question, Wolcott said.

Three alternatives confront the incoming President. Under the law he is empowered (A) to wipe controls off the books by executive order, (B) allow Congress to do it by concurrent action of the Senate and House, or (C) simply wait until the law dies at midnight April 30.

There were indications that Eisenhower may take the initiative, either by executive order or by calling upon Congress to act.

Wolcott told a reporter that "I think I could predict controls would expire by April 30 at least— or before." There is "no necessity for their continuation now," he added.

Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) said he will urge the Senate Banking Committee next week to "ask Eisenhower to suspend wage, price and rent controls on his first day in office."

One of the biggest and noisiest debates of the new Congress is certain to be touched off if and when the issue reaches the floor of Senate or House.

During the presidential campaign, Eisenhower criticized the Truman administration for not holding the price line and advocated indirect controls for more effective economic stabilization.

An indirect control program would be likely to involve increased reserve requirements for federal reserve banks, higher discount rates, the question of support of the government bond market, the raising gold reserves against bank deposits and federal reserve bank notes.

Wolcott, in frequent statements to the House, has accused the Truman administration of abandoning these indirect curbs on inflation and embarking on a policy of "studied inflation" for political reasons.

On the other hand, spokesmen for the Truman policies were standing fast for extension of the controls law.

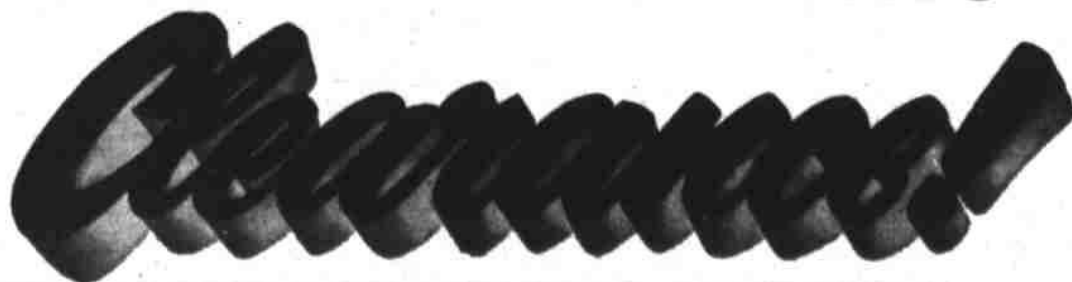

Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, in a year-end statement, called for no more than selective decontrol, item by item. He said "it would be foolhardy to abandon all controls so long as there remains a threat of Communist aggression."

Most Democrats in Congress feel the same and are sure to put up a noisy argument against anything less if given a chance.

CAN THEY BALANCE IT?

GOP Put On Spot By Truman Budget

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—The $78,600,000,000 budget President Truman tossed to Congress yesterday shoved the GOP onto something of a political hot spot.

It brings the Eisenhower administration squarely up against this question:

Can the Republican party fulfill, all at the same time, campaign promises to trim spending and taxes, balance the budget, maintain the nation's military might and continue the program of collective security for the free world?

President-elect Eisenhower himself hasn't pledged a balanced budget right away. He has said it ought to be balanced as soon as possible, and that using the scalpel on waste and fat in the military services should help.

But the talk is running strongly in Congress that 10 billion dollars can be whacked off and the budget balanced for the fiscal year beginning next July 1. That 10 billion is roughly the amount of the deficit—the amount the government will spend beyond its income—which Truman estimates for the coming fiscal year.

Few people doubt that there are many places where economies can be made in the huge federal setup without damaging any real national interest.

No less an authority than Comptroller General Lindsay C. Warren told Congress only this week, for example:

"There is not a department or agency in the government that cannot reduce the number of its employees, providing there is a will to do so."

But translating the talk of a 10 billion dollar cut into performance looks like a big job.

For one thing Congress in the past has often shown a tendency to talk economy and vote for spending.

For another, what Congress actually deals with mostly is appropriations rather than spending. It can do a neat job on appropriations and still not balance the budget for the next fiscal year.

The reason is that much of the money Congress will be appropriating won't be spent in the year ahead. It isn't often that the government incurs an obligation and meets it at the same time, like a man buying a pack of cigarettes at the corner drug store.

Congress has to supply the cash or authorize the government ahead of time to place an order. The payments usually lag behind. In the case of salaries and wages for government workers, the lag is a few days or weeks, Truman says. It may be years in the case of a big construction project, like an atomic energy plant or an aircraft carrier.

The bulk of the government's spending is for military purposes and a large share of this is on a delayed basis. In the new budget, 73 cents of every dollar to be spent is slated for items the administration lists in the national security category.

Consequently, much of the expenditures contemplated in the budget will go to pay for orders placed in the past, out of money appropriated by Congress in the past. Truman figures the government will carry over $1 billion dollars of unspent funds from the present fiscal year to the new one and that every dollar of it will be obligated.

Of course the incoming administration could cancel contracts and stop the spending of some of the carryover funds. A lot of that was done at the close of World War II.

But the government would have to make financial settlements with persons holding the contracts and it might get items like half finished planes for its money. As Truman sees it, such a process would mean pulling some of the weapons and supplies out of the pipelines to Korea and to America's allies in the cold war against communism.

Furthermore, it remains to be seen whether Eisenhower will be as eager as many members of Congress to chop foreign aid money.

Even if Congress called off foreign aid entirely, as seems unlikely, it still would have to find more billions of savings elsewhere to balance the budget. Foreign aid spending for the year ahead is projected at around 7 1/2 billion dollars.

In addition, Eisenhower is a supporter of the collective security idea, which leans heavily on American military and economic help.

Thus if the new administration wants to wait, if it doesn't cut taxes too deeply, if it doesn't propose a lot of expensive programs of its own, and if it manages to avoid a big war, it may in time have a balanced budget.

Assumes New Charge

The Rev. Jordan Grooms has assumed his new charge as pastor of the First Methodist Church and will fill the pulpit at both morning and evening worship services today. He comes here from the First Methodist Church in Lamesa and succeeds Dr. A. H. Carlston, who has been assigned to Dallas. The Rev. and Mrs. Grooms have two children, Barton, 13, and Telle, 8, and are at home at the parsonage at 101 Washington. The family will be honored at a reception in the church parlor following the evening service today.

New Judge's Trial Draws Postponement At Alice

ALICE, Jan. 10 (AP)—Judge E. C. Salinas, Laredo, today postponed until Monday the trial of new 79th District Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin.

Salinas' action came 10 minutes before Laughlin was to go on trial on two counts growing out of the sale of his law library to Jim Wells County.

County Atty. Rayburn Norris, whom Burris said had asked him to assist in the prosecution, announced today he was ready to proceed.

But Salinas ordered the postponement until 2 p.m. Monday. Burris said today he was going to ask that Salinas disqualify himself from hearing the case. He said he had not been consulted on the appointment of Salinas to sit as judge.

Burris succeeded Norris as county attorney when Norris replaced Homer Dean as district attorney for the district—which includes Jim Wells, Duval, Brooks and Starr Counties.

Both Laughlin and Norris were supported in last year's elections by George Parr, South Texas political leader and former sheriff of Duval County. Norris was the law partner of Nago Alaniz, Latin-American Alice attorney charged with murder and conspiracy to murder in the death of Jacob S. (Buddy) Floyd Jr. Sept. 8.

Laughlin defeated Judge Sam Reams, who like young Floyd's father, was a political foe of Parr. Young Floyd was slain by mistake, his father said, when assassins mistook him for the elder Floyd, a prominent Alice attorney.

Laughlin was indicted Dec. 29 on a charge he misrepresented his law library when he sold it to the county for $2,185.70, and on a count that he was financially and illegally interested in county contracts. Laughlin was county judge before defeating Reams.

After defeating Reams in the Democratic primary, Laughlin won again over Reams in a write-in campaign in the general election Nov. 4. Floyd said that it was fear of such a write-in campaign that led to the assassination of his son. He also said Reams had been marked for death.

Canadian Project Due Before Board At Monday Session

AUSTIN, Jan. 10 (AP)—Authorizing of a water district as a vital step in development of the $5 million dollar Canadian River Dam project comes before the Board of Water Engineers Monday.

Panhandle-Plains groups will ask the board to pass upon the feasibility and desirability of an agency that would be known as the Canadian River Water and Improvement District.

If the board approves the plan, then it would be submitted to voters in the proposed district for approval or disapproval. The hearing Monday and the contemplated submission are essential steps in financing and distribution of waters that would be impounded by the dam near Sanford in Hutchinson County.

The interested cities are Amarillo, Borger, Brownfield, Lamesa, Levelland, Littlefield, Lubbock, O'Donnell, Pampa, Plainview, Stanton and Tahoka.

MORE PAY FOR TEACHERS

Governor Urges A Revision Of School Financing Plans

By BO BYERS

AUSTIN, Jan. 10 (AP)—If teachers are to be paid more, school financing should be revised to give less state aid to rich districts and to make all districts contribute their fair local share, Gov. Shivers said today.

Shivers will discuss school financing when he addresses the 53rd Legislature Wednesday.

The governor sketched his ideas at a press conference. He said he thought both teacher and state employe pay could be raised without levying new taxes.

He did not say how much he thought salaries could be raised. He indicated teachers and state workers would have to be satisfied with less than they're asking.

Then he outlined what he considered two desirable changes in the school financing system. He said the revisions would make roughly 20 million dollars more per year—40 million for the biennium—available for such things as teacher and state employe salaries.

Actually, what the governor proposes is some fund juggling that makes local school districts pay a larger share of the school program cost so the state will have some money to raise salaries. His plan would free state money now earmarked for school use other than teacher salaries and allow this "extra" money to be spent for salary increases.

Here is Shivers' program:

1. Make school districts pay a fixed percentage of the cost of the minimum foundation program. The Gilmer-Alkin school legislation set the total of local contributions at 45 million dollars per year, 25 per cent of the original state-and-local cost of the program.

The cost has increased so now the fixed local share of 45 million dollars is only 21 per cent of the overall total.

If local districts were paying 25 per cent, this would free about 10 million dollars a year for general state spending.

2. Shift certain tax monies from the available school fund to the general revenue fund. This would cut down the per capita apportionment which goes from the available school fund to all schools regardless of their need.

This would make some schools need state aid from the minimum foundation fund, but it would mean a saving at the state level in the case of schools rich enough not to require minimum foundation aid. Net gain for general spending purposes would be some 10 million dollars per year.

Two $100 Fines Boost Court's Total To $919

Two 100-dollar fines were assessed in Corporation Court to help boost the final total to $919 for the week ending Saturday.

The 100 levies were for discharging a firearm in the city, and reckless driving. Two $50 fines were assessed on charges of obstructing traffic.

Otherwise, drunkenness was the most notable offense docketed during the week. Twenty persons were fined a total of $288 as a result of drunkenness charges while six others forfeited deposits amounting to $155 on the same charge.

Two were fined $6 apiece for a fine. A $1 fine was assessed for disturbance and warrant was issued for another person accused of creating a disturbance.

A $25 fine was levied for driving without license. Four speeding fines were assessed for a total of $75, and one other fine, $25, was levied for reckless driving.

Leaving the scene of an accident resulted in a fine of $25. Improper turns were responsible for two fines amounting to $8, and a $5 levy resulted from parking in a prohibited zone.

A 14-year-old driver, whose father attempted to appear in his stead about 10 days ago, was required to write a traffic slogan 100 times in the next two weeks as a consequence of driving without license.

Transferred to other authorities were one person charged with murder, one charged with driving while intoxicated, and one charged with aggravated assault.

Still pending is a disturbance case postponed indefinitely Dec. 26. The disturbance charge resulted from a roving drinking party prior to Christmas.

Texas Oil Production Passes Billion Barrel Mark Again

By The Associated Press

New oil fields opened up in other areas but Texas easily retained its status last year as the world's major storehouses of petroleum.

Production passed the billion-barrel mark for the second time in history.

The thick, black liquid from beneath the ground piped an estimated $3,705,000,000 into the state's business arteries.

It flowed fast enough to fill some 2,515,900 barrels a day.

That's about 700,000 barrels daily greater than the rate of the entire Middle East, some 300,000 more than all Western Hemisphere nations outside the U. S.

The total production of 1,188,000,000 barrels during the year was almost half—45 per cent—of U. S. output and more than twice the estimated production of Russia and her satellites.

These are estimates of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn., based on U. S. Bureau of Mines figures.

And the association says there were 139,629 producers at the end of 1952, an increase of 7,152 over 1951. There were 570 more separate fields, bringing the total to 3,241.

An estimated 163,000 Texans made their living in some segment of the oil industry, up 8,900.

But Texas Mid-Continent says other year-end statistics could spell rougher times for Texas oil and gas producers.

For example:

The nation's tank farms were pretty well loaded with crude—some 268 billion barrels, nearly 50 per cent of them from Texas, forcing slow-downs in production allowable.

And even though new strikes were made, the odds against drilling success tightened slightly. In 1952, 36.8 per cent of all holes were dry, compared to 33.6 the year before.

The state tax on gross production took a 129 million dollar bite out of crude oil operations.

Oil men drilled 17,089 holes—a new record—during the year. Yet that was almost 1,000 wells fewer than generally forecast and only 88 more than the number drilled in 1951.

A dampening effect on drilling apparently stemmed from curtailment in the Spraberry Trend area, where high well costs and low recovery rates were disappointing.

And pessimism heightened by high costs and steel shortages was aggravated by the fact that although more wells were drilled in 1952, some 487 fewer were completed as oil or gas producers.

But oil was a lifesaver to a lot of little people.

Many farmers, ranchers and businessmen squeaked past bankruptcy in drought-stricken farm and ranch areas on income from lease rentals and oil royalties.

Texas Mid-Continent estimates 1952 royalty payments at about 450 million dollars.

Expansion for defense by Texas' petroleum industry soared during 1952. Nearly one billion dollars were earmarked for increasing oil and gas processing, manufacturing and transportation facilities.

Pulling into the lead at year's end was the state's sprawling petro-chemical industry, with 320 million dollars tabbed for 82 expanded projects. Right behind were pipeline operators, who planned to spend $12 million for 53 projects.

SHALLOW DISCOVERY PUMPS 98 BARRELS IN NW MITCHELL

Humble No. 1 Lucy M. Coleman, wildcat discovery in northwest Mitchell County, was still pumping Saturday preparatory to completing.

In 24 hours of pumping, it made 95 barrels of 27.7 gravity oil. It is still testing. There was a shakeout of one per cent acid sediment but no water.

This test, located C SW NW 1,980, 660 from the west lines of 75-97, H&TC, and it is about midway between the Coleman Ranch and the Sharon Ridge pools. Production is from the Clear Fork from 3,650-3,135.

Producers Worried About Oil Imports

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—Once again imports of foreign oil are causing producers grave concern. Steadily mounting shipments of both crude and refined products from Venezuela and the Middle East have renewed fears. They had been quieted with the heavy demand that was brought on by outbreak of the Korean War.

Russell B. Brown, general counsel of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, said the situation would be discussed next week by a meeting of the executive committee of his organization.

Observing that imports now have reached a rate of more than a million barrels of crude per day, Brown said that during the past six months the runs of foreign oils to East Coast refineries have exceeded those of crude from wells on the U. S. mainland.

The Iranian situation further complicates the problem.

Should an agreement be reached between the British and Iran which would permit a reopening of the field in that part of the world, the output will have to seek a market elsewhere. Stepped up production from other parts of the Middle East partially absorbed the loss of production from Iran.

Interior Secretary — Designate Douglas McKay, visiting the Department he will head after Jan. 20, has held his opening conference with officials of the Petroleum Administration for Defense.

Abilene Chief For Stanolind Is Appointed

FORT WORTH, Jan. 10.—J. B. Jenkins has been named superintendent of Stanolind Oil and Gas Company's Abilene district, in the company's North Texas-New Mexico division, it was announced today by John R. Evans, division manager.

Jenkins, former district engineer in Abilene, succeeds G. C. Wight, who was transferred to Houston as assistant division production superintendent in Stanolind's Texas-Louisiana Gulf Coast Division.

Jenkins has been with Stanolind since 1935, joining the company as a roustabout at Wink, in the company's Hendrick Area. He served in various engineering capacities in North Texas and New Mexico until 1941, when given a leave of absence to serve with the U. S. Army. He was discharged in 1946 as a Lieut. Colonel, and rejoined Stanolind that year as petroleum engineer in the company's division office in Fort Worth. He later worked in the company's Lubbock and Pampa offices, and was made district engineer at Abilene in November, 1950.

Jenkins is a graduate of New Mexico State College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering in 1933.

Delaware Discovery In Culberson Finals

Ralph Lowe has completed his No. 1-A State in Culberson County as a small discovery.

The venture is bottomed at 3,024 in the Delaware sand. Operator plugged back to 2,890 and set the 7-in. casing at 2,667. The open hole section from 2,667-90 was acidized and fractured.

Potential showed a 24-hour production of 25 barrels of oil and 125 barrels of water. Location is 660 from the south and east lines of section 9-45, PSL, 20 miles southwest of Oria.

Active Rotary Rig Total In Decline

DALLAS, Jan. 10.—A total of 2,775 rigs were active in oilfields of the United States and Canada for the week of Jan. 5, 1953, according to a report to American Contractors by Hughes Tool Company. This compares with 2,901 reported a week ago, 2,885 a month ago, and with 2,973 in the comparable week of 1951.

Glasscock Well Finals, Another Location Staked

Glasscock County gained a completion and a location in the Spraberry Trend at the end of the week.

Sohio Petroleum Company No. 1-C X. B. Cox, 1,980 from the north and west lines of section 7-36-5a, T&P, flowed 24 hours to make 943.84 barrels of 29.4 gravity oil. Size of choke was not listed. Casing pressure was 500, tubing pressure 310; 8,900 gallons of fracture were used. The gas-oil ratio was 6,836 and of the lower pay was 836 and of the lower pay was 6,892. Total depth was 7,743, the 5 1/2-in. string at 7,652 and perforated from 6,878-94.

Sohio Petroleum No. 2-B M. V. Bryans, 660 from the west and 1,980 from the south lines of the lease in section 6-36-5a, T&P, flowed 19 hours through 28-64 choke to after 4,000 gallons fracture to rate 425.69 barrels of 39.1 gravity oil. Tubing pressure was 230, gas-oil ratio 948-1; elevation was 2,719, top of pay 6,850, total depth 7,740, the 5 1/2-in. string at 7,672 and perforated 6,848-6,906.

The location was Argo Oil Corp. No. 2 Charles J. Cox, 660 from the north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 46-30-4s, T&P, projected to 7,855 with rotary. It is approximately 20 miles southwest of Garden City.

Million Dollar Suit To Trial

AUSTIN, Jan. 10 (AP)—A multi-million-dollar suit against the Texas Co., first major state case to be handled by new Atty.-Gen. John Ben Shepperd, will go to trial Monday in Corpus Christi.

The case involves more than one million dollars in previous oil income and additional millions in future potential production from more than 40 wells on 4,000 acres in Duval County.

Chief question is whether a conveyance to the Texas Co., made by a surface owner in Duval County, was mineral deed or an oil and gas lease.

Shepperd said the early conveyance purposed on its face to be a mineral deed. Previous Supreme Court opinions have held such conveyance is unconstitutional.

If the state recovers the funds, the money would go to the permanent school fund.

John Peace, executive assistant attorney general will try the case for the state and will be assisted by former First Assistant Charles D. Mathews.

Sentences Given To Czechs Aiding 'Freedom Train'

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 10 (AP)—A Czechoslovak court last night sentenced one man to death, another to life imprisonment and several to long jail terms. They were accused of abetting the escape of the famed "freedom train" to the West in 1951.

A Prague broadcast said the court at Karlovy Vary gave the death penalty to Frantisek Silhart and sentenced Rudolph Prucha to life for their part in the plot.

The prosecution blamed the U. S. Army Counter-Intelligence Corps for masterminding the daring escape of 31 Czechs from their Communist homeland.

The train became famous after it pierced the Iron Curtain Sept. 11, bringing 110 Czechs to West Germany. Seventy-nine reluctant passengers of the train returned to Czechoslovakia a month later.

Dawson Gains Deep Wildcat, Mungerville Well Completes

Dawson County gained a deep wildcat and a completion Saturday.

The wildcat will be the Cyprus Mines Corp. and Union Oil Company of California No. 1 J. O. Goodson, 660 from the south and east lines of section 44-30-5s, T&P, 12 miles southeast of Lamesa.

This puts it about two miles southeast of the Spraberry Deep pool and a mile and a quarter southeast of Seaboard No. 1 Goff, which abandoned at 8,369 after topping the reef at 8,338 and finding it dry in January of 1952. The wildcat also is three miles southwest of Amerada No. 1 Cannon, an abandonment at 10,214 which topped the Ellenburger at 10,214 in February of 1952. It also is three miles southwest of Seaboard No. 1 Cannon, dry and abandoned at 8,404 on a datum minus 5,051 to the reef top in October of 1950. The latter two tests are over the line in Borden County. The No. 1 Goodson is to go to 9,000.

In the Mungerville pool, a Pennsylvania area in northwest Dawson, Texas Crude No. 3-95 Classen, 330 from the south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 95-M, E&RR, completed for a calculated 24-hour potential of 1,515.88 barrels of 44.8 gravity oil. The flow was through 3/4-in. choke. Gas-oil ratio was 465-1, top pay 8,609, and total depth was 8,625. Operator set casing at top of pay and completed from the open hole section.

Eastern Howard Gains New Well

Fair and Woodward No. 1-37 Snyder has been completed as a Snyder pool producer in Eastern Howard County.

The well pumped 24 hours after 6,000 gallons of acid had been injected. It made 77 barrels of 29.2 gravity oil and no water. Gas-oil ratio was 175-1. Elevation of the test is 2,310 DF, top of pay is 2,619, total depth 2,902, and the oil string (5 1/2") is set at 2,600. Location is 330 from the north and west lines of the lease in section 27-30-1s, T&P.

Sinclair Oil and Gas Company No. 71 Granville M. Dodov Estate will be an East-Howard location, 1,613 from the south and 1,646 from the east lines of section 3-30-1s, T&P, estimated elevation 2,260. It will go to 3,000 feet with cable tools to seek the Clear Fork.

Master Key Runs Longest Microwave Radio Line In World

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—A master key to the world's longest private microwave radio line was presented last night to Claude A. Williams, president of the Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corp.

The 1,840-mile communications system, which stretches from Newark, N. J. to Falfurrias, Tex., boasts 12 separate channels which can be used for telephone calls, or for other electrical tasks such as carrying signals to control motors, reading meters and opening and closing valves. The high frequency radio signals are relayed by towers spaced about 30 miles apart along the whole system.

Three Wells And Locations Added In Spraberry Trend

Three wells were finished and locations were spotted for another four in the Spraberry Trend in southeastern Mitchell County.

Atlantic Refining Company No. 3-14 Driver, 1,980 from the west and 660 from the north lines of the lease in section 14-37-4s, T&P, flowed 24 hours through 24-64 choke after 2,500 gallons fracture to make 313.22 barrels of 37.3 gravity oil and .4 of a per cent water. Casing pressure was 200, tubing pressure 50, gas-oil ratio 612-1. Elevation was 2,698 DF, top of pay 7,012, total depth 7,087; the 5 1/2-in. string set at 7,002.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 8 D. T. Bowles, 660 from the north and 1,980 from the west lines of the lease in section 44-37-4s, T&P, flowed 24 hours through 24-64 choke after 15,000 gallons hydrofrac to make 409.97 barrels of 38.3 gravity oil and no water. Tubing pressure was 300-325, gas-oil ratio 601-1; elevation 2,744 DF, top pay 7,055, total depth 7,265, and the 5 1/2-in. oil string at 7,055.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 10 D. T. Bowles will be located 660 from the north and east lines of section 44-37-4s, T&P, rotary to 7,500.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 3-A Shackleford will be 660 from the north and 1,980 from the west lines of section 10-38-5s, T&P, rotary to 8,300.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-D Sam Preston will be 660 from the north and east lines of the south half of section 19-37-4s, T&P, rotary to 7,500.

John A. Barnett No. 17 David Barden will be 69 from the south and 1,979 from the west lines of section 9-37-5s, T&P, projected to 8,200.

Unemployment Is Said At New Postwar Low

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Commerce Department estimates unemployment reached a new postwar low in the U. S. during 1952, while employment went slightly above the high level of 1951.

Non-farm employment, the report said yesterday, hit what was probably a new record in 1952. Employment averaged 61,300,000 in 1952, "not appreciably higher" than in 1951 but 1,300,000 higher than the 1950 average.

Unemployment dropped to 1,700,000 compared with 1,900,000 in 1951 and 3,100,000 in 1950.

Conductor Plunges Into Deep Canyon

BOND, Colo., Jan. 10 (AP)—Conductor Harry N. Rolston of Denver stepped from his train and into eternity today.

He fell 1,500 feet to his death in a gorge of Rock Creek Canyon. The train had hit a rock while on the way from Craig, Colo., to Denver and the engineer brought it to a halt.

Rolston, 55, apparently opened the door of a coach and stepped out into the darkness to investigate.

California Producers In Beautification Program

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10 (AP)—To be good neighbors, some California oil companies are doling up their producing fields to look like landscaped parks.

Pumping installations have been rendered odorless, noiseless—even invisible. Drilling operations have been soundproofed.

The idea of beautifying oil fields began getting serious consideration after the war when companies decided to tap pools underlying populated areas.

The firms predicted—correctly—that home owners would be hostile toward the clutter and whines of unsightly equipment and the unpleasant aroma of oil fresh from the ground.

Eliminating these nuisances meant adding thousands of dollars to the cost of each well. But the companies felt the extra dollars would be well spent because they would pay dividends in community good will.

A pioneer in the art of glamorizing oil wells was the Union Oil Co. of California. It has beautified up nearly 100 wells drilled in La Habra Heights, a district of ranches and fine homes east of Los Angeles.

Union says the opposition it met when drilling plans were announced has almost completely disappeared because residents found their fears of gushers, jungles of derricks, fires, dust and odors were groundless.

Instead of spacing wells at intervals over the surface, drill sites were located wherever possible behind hills or in canyons. And the wells were clustered in "drilling islands," squares perhaps 200 by 300 feet, then angled outward from the center.

Access roads were surfaced with material that neither grinds into dust nor churns into mud. Truck travel was restricted to daylight hours.

Before drilling began, all noisy equipment was enclosed in soundproof material—fireproofed canvas padded with glass wool. Even the towering derricks were "dressed."

After that, sounds that might have carried a mile were barely audible 100 feet away.

When drilling was completed, pumping equipment was also carefully soundproofed. Electric instead of internal combustion motors were used. Machines that vibrated got special padding. Pumps were sealed so odors could not escape.

Some units close to dwellings were installed in underground concrete "cellars," covered with an iron grating for ventilation.

Units on the surface were painted neutral shades so they blended with the landscape. Some were screened with lattice fences, others by rows of trees. Grass and shrubs were planted nearby and sprinkling systems installed.

The art of soundproofing wells has progressed so far that one company, Universal Consolidated, has won permission from the 20th Century-Fox to drill on the studio's back lot, less than half a mile from sound stages where movies are made.

However, after receiving complaints from hundreds of nearby residents, the City Planning Commission denied the firm's drilling application. An appeal is now before the City Council.

Universal now faces a public relations job similar to the one Union carried out in La Habra Heights.

Union reports, however, that one La Habra resident, who had watched workers plant a row of trees to hide pumping units from his front porch view, wasn't happy.

He asked that the trees be removed so he could see the pumps. Said the sight of their silent up and down motion intrigued him.

Recovery Is Hiked By Treated Water

AMARILLO, Jan. 10 — Water that is chemically treated gets better results than water that is not when used to increase production by secondary recovery methods, according to a report released by the Bureau of Mines, U. S. Department of the Interior.

Dr. C. W. Seibel, Regional Director of the Bureau's Region VI, said that the report is a publication of the findings of a five-year study in the Midcontinent oil fields.

Treated water maintains pressure better, reduces clogging in the oil reservoir and yields a larger percentage of additional oil, the survey disclosed.

The study was conducted by the Bureau in co-operation with the Kansas State Board of Health, the State of Oklahoma and the North Texas Oil and Gas Association. The report was prepared by J. Wade Watkins, F. R. Willet, Jr., and Charles E. Arthur, chemical engineers at the Bureau's Petroleum Experiment Station, Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Water flooding is one of several methods used to recover oil from fields where the natural or primary gas pressure is exhausted. Water injected into the underground reservoir forces oil to the bottom of the wells where it is pumped to the surface.

The Bureau's survey, which began in 1947, included collecting data from 24 water-treating plants in the Midcontinent oil field area. Detailed information on nine of these plants is presented in the report as representative of the methods and results in the Midcontinent area.

H. C. Fowler, superintendent of the Petroleum Experiment Station said that the survey should be of particular interest to oil operators who may be contemplating the use of water-flooding methods.

The survey points out that treated water not only pays off with a bigger oil return, but also stresses seven general conclusions to help get better results in future flooding operations. The report is published as a part of the Bureau of Mines research program to stimulate secondary oil recovery practices.

Besides the purpose of evaluating comparative efficiencies of various methods of conditioning different types of water, the investigation was undertaken to find ways to improve the known water-treating methods.

A free copy of Report of Investigation 4930, "Conditioning Water for Secondary-Recovery Operations in Midcontinent Oil Fields," may be obtained from the Bureau of Mines, Publications Distribution Section, 4800 Forbes Street, Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

The red herring derived its figurative sense of something used to divert attention from the main issue because English fox hunters discovered that hounds would abandon the trail of a fox and follow that of a red herring dragged along the ground.

Leaders For Mothers' March

Parent-Teacher Association unit heads, who will lead the Mothers' March as part of the March of Dimes drive here, laid plans for their activity Thursday. At a P-TA Council meeting they discussed mechanics of the special effort to raise funds for the polio fight. Seated are Mrs. Elvis McCrary and Mrs. W. N. Norred, council president; standing, left to right, Mrs. A. C. Klover, Mrs. Grady McCrary, Mrs. J. H. Homan, Mrs. Alton Underwood, Mrs. H. D. McCright, Mrs. D. R. Gartman, Mrs. Akin Simpson, Mrs. Bill Seals, and M. R. Turner, East Ward principal.

Committees Named For Dimes Campaign

Committee assignments for the March of Dimes campaign in Howard and Glasscock Counties were announced Saturday by Troy M. Harrell, general chairman.

All groups will be making detailed preparations for the campaign during the coming week, Harrell said. Plans are to concentrate the campaign into a two-week period from Jan. 19 through Jan. 31.

Harrell said he believed that a successful campaign could be conducted during that period if all committees and their workers put forth intensive efforts. "We don't want to worry the public with a long, drawn-out campaign," the general chairman explained. "Everyone is familiar with the March of Dimes, and I am sure the citizens will contribute during the period we have set aside for the drive in Howard and Glasscock Counties."

The miniature iron lungs, which are displayed in public places each year during the campaign for coin contributions already have been distributed.

Harrell said that R. L. Tollett would serve as chairman of the special gifts committee this year. He will be assisted by Dan Krause and Jack Y. Smith.

Street solicitations, which will be handled by service clubs in the city, will be under the direction of Cecil Bowles, while Wendell Parks and Dick Clifton will be in charge of solicitations at theaters.

The parking meter campaign will be handled by the local Key Club, an organization of High School boys sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, and the Lions Club, with R. R. McEwen Jr. as chairman, is in charge of the miniature iron lungs.

The Mothers' March on Polio, scheduled between 7 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Jan. 29, will be directed by the P-TA, with Mrs. W. N. Norred chairman. Presidents and other representatives of all P-TA units in the city will serve on that committee.

Other committee assignments include the following: City schools, W. C. Blankenship chairman, with all principals members of the committee; Coahoma schools, Supt. Miller and Mr. Wilson; Forsan schools, Supt. Joe Holliday and Glenn Whittenberg; Garden City, Supt. J. F. Jones and R. T. Newell; Howard County schools, Walker Bailey; Webb Air Force Base, Lt. D. W. McClendon; Veterans Administration Hospital, Carlton Carr.

Unemployment Funds Increase

AUSTIN, Jan. 10 (AP)—Texas' unemployment trust fund, the financial crutch for workers who become unemployed through no fault of their own, soared to $226,126,000 last year.

Harry Benge Crozier, chairman and executive director of the Texas Employment Commission, reported interest alone on the fund amounted to $5,558,300 and accounted for about 70 per cent of the total money paid for unemployment insurance in Texas in 1952.

TEO paid out $7,944,968 in insurance compared with $5,963,477 in 1951. The number of workers receiving benefits for one or more weeks of unemployment last year was $2,921, Crozier said.

Average period of compensation for unemployment was nine weeks. Wages paid by industry to workers covered by Texas' unemployment insurance law reached a record high of $4,751,289,000, topping the previous high of $4,216,835,000 in 1951.

Texas Jaycees Name Their Five Outstanding Young Men Of '52

GRAND PRAIRIE, Jan. 10 (AP)—A small city mayor, a big city lawyer, a ceramics maker, a lumber importer and a rancher—these were Texas' five outstanding young men in 1952 in the opinion of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce.

All are big operators in many fields of business and civic affairs. The oldest is 34, the youngest 26. The chamber announced its selections today. It was the first time the Jaycees' five outstanding young men had been identified before the annual awards banquet.

This will be held in Dallas at 7 p.m. Friday in honor of:

T. J. Vandergriff, 26, mayor of Arlington and general manager of Vandergriff Enterprises.
Rex G. Baker Jr., 32, Houston attorney and business executive.
Dayton Harold Walkup, 24, Kilgore ceramics manufacturer.
Robert F. Haynsworth, 31, El Paso lumber importer.
Nilly Sol Estes, 27, Pecos cotton farmer and sheep rancher.

The judges made their selections on these qualifications:

Vandergriff was elected to head the Arlington Chamber of Commerce when he was only 23. He was elected mayor at 25. He was a leader in the movement to persuade General Motors to establish its big industrial plant at Arlington. His business enterprises involve automobile, real estate, furniture, loan and financing and oil operations.

Baker, a partner in the Houston law firm of Berry, Richards and Baker, founded and reorganized a number of Houston business enterprises.

After a two-year fight, he organized Houston's second savings and loan association. He headed a group that purchased and reorganized the Gulf Electric Co., Houston, and a group that organized Gulf Electronics, Inc., Baker founded the Houston Civic Music Assn., helped head a drive to raise funds for Holly Hall, a charitable institution for aged women, and is a director of Fleming Memorial Hospital at Elgin. He also served two years on the Bellaire City Council.

Walkup was cited for his work in putting the Kilgore Ceramics Corp. on a paying basis, thus saving the investments of 230 townpeople. He took control of the firm late in 1949 after its first few months of operation had left an operating deficit of $122,000 and debts of $173,000. At the end of the second year, Kilgore Ceramics had a $66,000 surplus, assets of $310,000, with the long term debt reduced to $18,000.

Walkup was one of two organizers of the Little League Baseball and served two terms as president of the Kilgore Council of Girl Scouts. He toured the Texas prison system and campaigned through East Texas for prison reform. He is a top man in Kilgore's Chamber of Commerce.

Hansworth's firm is one of the largest importers of select lumber on the U. S.-Mexican border. In addition, he has built 30 new homes in El Paso subdivisions. $600,000 worth of commercial buildings and now is building a 700-home subdivision to care for military expansion at Fort Bliss. He has other varied enterprises. He is one of the five members of the El Paso Democratic Executive Committee and holds various city and Chamber-of-Commerce positions. Haynsworth is vice president of the Sun Carnival Assn. and organized the Little League baseball program in his home town.

Estes built his farm and real estate empire on a little ewe lamb his parents gave him when he was 13. In six years of 4-H club work, he pyramided the profits from this single lamb to $38,000. His operations, at 19, included 122 head of sheep, 170 acres of maize and wheat, 200 head of beef cattle, 624 head of swine.

By the time he reached 27 this year, Estes had added to his holdings a string of rent property, a $500,000 cotton crop, bought three air bases and organized a big salvage concern, dealt extensively in farm and ranch lands and housing units, started a firm to manufacture all-steel farm buildings and became part owner of a giant country store doing $80,000 worth of business a year.

He has contributed for new buildings for his own church and for others at Earth, Pecos and Van Horn. Oil field workers of Snyder know that if they are disabled, they can live in one of Estes' tourist courts without charge until able to return to work. And Estes maintains a standing agreement with grocersmen of Clyde, Callahan County to supply food to any needy person and send him the bill.

Suspect Makes Innocent Plea

CHILLICOTHE, O., Jan. 10 (AP)—A 34-year-old Texas, who police said admitted a string of Western Union safe cracking jobs in 34 states, pleaded innocent in Common Pleas Court today to charges of breaking and entering and burglary.

He is Glen Shelton Orren Jr., Matagorda, Tex. He and Albert P. Johnson, 28, also of Matagorda, are held for a series of robberies that netted an estimated $150,000. Johnson pleaded guilty to the same charges before Judge Howard Goldsberry.

Chillicothe police and the FBI held two women without charge in connection with the robberies. Police Chief A. H. Poole identified the women as Mrs. Albert P. Johnson, Matagorda, Johnson's wife, and Alice M. Johnson, 23, Sinton, Tex., Johnson's sister and Orren's girl friend.

The two women arrived last night in a $5,800 Cadillac. Mrs. Johnson came to the police station and asked about her husband.

Nine Are Arrested

Nine Latin-Americans were placed in county jail Friday by the Border Patrol. The men had been arrested in Big Spring and are being held for immigration authorities to transfer back to Mexico.

IOOF Installs New Officers

Installation of new officers of the local IOOF order, Prescott No. 75 encampment, was conducted at the lodge hall Friday night. District Deputy Grand Patriarch Jones C. Lamar installed the officers.

Dr. R. L. Brady assumed office as Chief Patriarch, succeeding W. C. Cole.

Others installed, and the offices which they took, included: R. B. Hughes, Senior Warden; J. T. Gross, High Priest; J. C. Fyfe, Junior Warden; H. B. W. Gilliam, Scribe; H. F. Jarrett, Treasurer; Jones C. Lamar, Guide; W. O. Wasson, First Watch; J. Lacource, Second Watch; Wayne Gound, Third Watch; Ben Miller, Fourth Watch; W. C. Cole, Inside Sentinel; J. N. Cross, Outside Sentinel; R. H. Unger, First Guard of Tent; T. P. Coker, Second Guard of Tent.

Plans were made to confer the Patriarchal degree on candidates elected to membership. Members present pledged support to the District Deputy in his visits to lodges within the district, which include Big Spring No. 151 and Twin City (Midland) No. 29. Approximately 20 persons were in attendance.

Girl Runaway Caught

A 13-year-old girl who had run away from home was taken from a bus as it passed through Big Spring Friday night. A. E. Long, juvenile officer, stated that her parents came from Kermit to pick her up.

Bearcats Gain 48-37 Victory Over Billies

GARDEN CITY, Jan. 10—Staving off a third quarter onslaught, Garden City boys annexed their second conference win of the season here Friday night, turning back Knott 48-37.

Knott A team girls clipped Garden City 50-13, but the Garden City B Boys grabbed their game 37-23.

In the feature game, Garden City hopped to an early lead and held a 24-16 advantage at the half. During the third quarter, however, Bednar and Rich went out on fouls and Knott pulled within four points before the hosts broke away to win handily. Bryant Harris was high point for the winners with 16, trailed by Frazzell with 14. Phillip Stovall and Jerry Roman tied for Knott with nine each.

Garden City led Knott 15-10 at the "all in the B boys game. High point man was Richard Carter for Garden City with 16, while Doyle Ralback paced Knott lads with nine.

Garden City built a quick four-point lead in the girls game only to see it melt rapidly away. Knott led 26-6 at the half. Leonora Lancaster poured 18 points through for Knott while Theora Calverley had 11 for Garden City.

The Garden City A boys go to Sterling City Tuesday for another conference game.

Smith And Watson Pace Fem Bowlers

Seven-Up Bottlers and Dibrell's Sporting Goods achieved 2-1 victories in Women's Bowling League standings the past year, turning back the City Plumbing Company and Cecil's Package Store, respectively.

Seven-Up had high aggregate with 2152. Marie Smith of Dibrell's posted a 187 for game high and had the second best aggregate, 501.

Nellie Mathis of Seven-Up posted a 183 for second best single game while Jesse Pearl Watson of Seven-Up accumulated the best total score, 583.

AN EARLY BARGAIN Baseball Tickets On Sale Monday

Season tickets for local games, the good for 60 games and costing $40 each, have been turned over to the Big Spring Baseball Club by the printer and will be made available to the public on Monday.

Bill Frank, general manager of the club, had 200 of the tickets printed and hopes to sell them all. The tickets offer the buyer a saving of $11.00 over the season, first time in history that they have been offered at reduced rates. They are not transferable.

Bloc tickets, ten to a bloc, will also go on sale at the Bronc base-

League Adopts New Regulations

All players of the Webb Air Base, HJCC and High School basketball teams will be barred from future play in the YMCA Industrial League, it was decided at the parley of managers held at the Y Headquarters Friday afternoon.

The decision was reached after Knott had entered a protest that Western Auto was using personnel of the Webb team in a game against Knott. No action was taken on the protest.

It was also decided that players leaving one team would have to remain idle for two games before they can begin play with another quint and then only if they get approval from the manager of the club which they are leaving.

In Y games Friday night, Knott trounced Forsan, 43-37; Western Auto turned back Vic Mellinger's Fliers, 48-28; and Dibrell's Sporting Goods skinned by Coca-Cola, 29-25.

Monday night, Knott plays Toby's Medics at 7 p.m.; Dibrell's tangle with Western Auto at 8 and Coca-Cola has it out with Phillips Tire Company at 9. The games will be played in the Junior High Gymnasium.

Standings: Team W L Pct. Knott 10 2 .833, Western Auto 8 4 .667, Dibrell's 7 5 .583, Fliers 6 6 .500, Mellinger's 5 7 .417, Phillips 4 8 .333, Toby's 3 9 .250, Forsan 2 10 .167.

East Ward Winner Over Park Hill

East Ward nudged Park Hill, 21-18, in a Ward School Basketball League game played in the Junior High School Gymnasium Saturday night.

Wayne Fields paced the East Ward club with seven points. Charles Russell had six and Jimmy Parkhill and Bernard McMahan four each.

Jerry Graham was Park Hill's standout performer. A game between Kate Morrison and Central Ward was postponed until this week. It probably will be played on Tuesday.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN PRANK

FBI Looking Into Cage Star's Kidnapping Story

VILLANOVA, Pa., Jan. 10 (AP)—Bob Schafer, Villanova College's high scoring sophomore basketball star, was kidnapped near the campus here Tuesday night by four strangers who asked him to be "less active in future games," a college spokesman said today.

The spokesman said Federal Bureau of Investigation agents are investigating.

The 19-year-old Schafer reported his 45-minute ride to college authorities, and after four days of investigation, the college spokesman said, no one is certain whether Schafer was the victim of a prank or an attempt by gamblers to influence his play.

Schafer's reported experience first was disclosed by a Philadelphia Bulletin Reporter. It occurred the night before Villanova beat Millersville (Pa.) State Teachers College 88-79 with Schafer scoring 40 points. Last Monday night, Villanova, a 14-point favorite whipped Princeton 72-45 at the winner's Main Line Field House. Schafer scored 18 against the Ivy League.

As related by the college spokesman, here's what happened: Schafer, a Philadelphia, was in his dormitory at the college, Good Counsel Hall, when he received a mysterious telephone call about 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The caller said there was a package for him at a postoffice on Spring Mill Road, just off the campus. When Schafer arrived at the postoffice, an automobile was parked outside. A man got out of the car, approached him, started to talk and then "pushed or crowded" Schafer into the car.

Three other men were in the sedan but it was too dark for Schafer to get a good look at them. He recognized none.

The driver kept on the move near the college for 45 minutes or more. Schafer struggled to get out but the men wouldn't stop and his efforts were futile.

During the ride the men talked basketball, Schafer said he thought at first it was a prank and joked with his captors. Later, however, they told him they wanted him to be "less active in future games," and the kidnapping no longer seemed a jest.

Schafer was let out of the car unharmed, in front of his dormitory. He eventually went to the Rev. Thomas Burke, OSA, prefect of the dormitory. Schafer did not get the license number of the car.

College authorities notified the FBI who asked that the story be kept secret in the hope of trapping the men. The Villanova spokesman said this was the first time any member of the team had been approached and added, "All the officials at Villanova are convinced that Bob told the truth."

Schafer was an outstanding scholastic basketball player in Philadelphia at Roman Catholic High School. He was selected on the city's all-Catholic and all-scholastic court teams and was sought after by many colleges over the country.

PECOS IS STILL SEEKING PILOT

Seven of the eight managerial posts in the Longhorn League have already been filled.

Pecos, a new member of the league, has yet to name a field boss for the 1953 season but all other teams are ready to go.

Big Spring was the latest to announce its manager, James (Hack) Miller takes over here as the field skipper. He formerly bossed the Abilene club.

Jay Haney will begin his first full season as Midland manager. Bobby Martin is back as Odessa chiefman. Pat McLaughlin, last year with Vernon, is both business and field manager at Carlsbad, new entry in the circuit.

At Artesia, Earl Perry is preparing for another season. He paced the Drillers to a four-place finish last year.

Pat Stacey moves from Big Spring to Rowell as boss. Stacey has managed a club in the league every season since it was organized.

At San Angelo, Rudy Briner — last year the regular catcher at Artesia — succeeds Mark Christman as manager.

There is no indication who Owner A. C. Gonzales will hire as manager at Pecos. Alex Carrasquel and Johnny Morris divided time as manager of Gonzales' team in Sweetwater last season. It is probable Gonzales will bring in some one from his Paris or Decatur clubs to mstermind the Pecos team.

Grid Numerals To 25 Players

LAMESA — Football letters have been awarded to 25 members of the 1952 Lamesa High School team, 16 of them to seniors. The Tornadoes won eight games and lost three last fall, sharing the District 1-AAA crown with Vernon.

In addition to the 16 seniors, six juniors and three sophomores won monograms.

Senior lettermen were Leland Bartlett, Donnie Koonce, Carlos Berry, Alvin Smith, Glenn Crews, Glenn Matthews, Hulon Preston, Jimmy Robinson, Millard McConnell, Carl Todd, Charlie Jenkins, Bobby Pritchett, Neil Buckley, Keith Ball, Wesley Lawler and Billy Hatchett.

Junior lettermen were Johnny Jones, Bobby Burnett, Dee Phillips, Sherron Dunn, Lawrence Hill and Elwood Hamilton.

Soph numeral winners were Ken Bartlett, Doyle Fancher and Conrad Alexander.

Bartlett, Smith, Robinson and Jones each won their third letters.

Forsan, Knott In Tournament

STERLING CITY, — Garden City meets Merton and Forsan squares away with Sterling City in boys' games the opening night of the Sterling City Basketball Tournament Thursday.

Garden City plays Merton at 5:30 p.m., Forsan and Sterling City have at it at 8:15 p.m.

On Friday night, Christoval mixes with Barnhart at 3 p.m. and Bronte tackles Knott at 5:30 p.m.

Championship finals in the boys' bracket is down for 9:20 p.m. Saturday.

A new titlist is assured, since the 1951 king, Blackwell, is not returning to defend its laurels.

Price Is Given New Contract

AUSTIN, Jan. 10 (AP)—The University of Texas regents approved a five-year contract for football Coach Ed Price today at a salary of $12,500 per year, effective as of last Jan. 1.

The salary is a $500 boost for Price, who coached the Texas Longhorns to a clean sweep in Southwest Conference play and a 16-0 victory over Tennessee's Volunteers in the Cotton Bowl game.

Price, 44, took over the hot-spot coaching post Jan. 1, 1951, after Blair Cherry quit because the pressure to develop winning teams became too great.

Except for three years in the Navy during World War II, Price has been on the Texas football coaching staff since 1936. He served variously as backfield coach under the late Jack Chevigny, freshman coach under present Athletic Director D. X. Bible, and line coach under Cherry.

Under his tutelage, four Texas players have gained All-America recognition. They were tackle Dick Harris, 1947; guard Bud McFadin, 1950; safety Bobby Dillon, 1951, and end Tom Stohalnske, 1952.

In 1926, Mississippi State threw 31 passes and completed 15 as Alabama defeated the Maroons 26-7.

Futurity Slated For Early May

Applications are being received at the local office of the Texas Horse Breeders Association for the second running of the Texas Futurity, which will be held in Del Rio the first three days in May.

Nominations for the Futurity close Feb. 15.

There'll be $1,000 added purses for each of three divisions of the race: 300 yards, quarter mile and 3/4 furlongs.

Nominating fee has been pegged at $100, which must be posted Feb. 15. An additional $100 starting fee must be paid by April 23. Elimination trials will be run April 15-16. Purses will be split 60, 30 and 10 per cent along the first three horses.

The Texas Futurity was held in San Angelo last year. Before that, it was known as the Big Spring Futurity and was staged here.

Ira, Midway Play Thursday Night

MIDWAY, — Boys and girls basketball team representing Midway School are scheduled to play in Ira Thursday night.

The Midway boys' team is coached by Clyde Dial, the girls' contingent by M. B. McFall.

The Midway girls have been experiencing a successful season, having won ten games and lost five. Their last starts have been losing ones, however.

They were beaten by Coahoma, 17-12, last Tuesday night and by Knott on Thursday, 19-14.

The Midway lasses have beaten Ira on two occasions, 31-29 and 21-18.

Members of the Midway starting lineup are Pattie and Peggy Francis, and Ruby Gilchrist, forwards; and Veda Rocher, Leta Smith and Linda Johnston, guards.

IT TELLS COLLEGES

NCAA Will Enforce Athletic Principles

By HUGH FULLERTON Jr.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—The National Collegiate A. A. shined up its still-new policeman's star today by taking on added powers to punish member colleges which stray beyond the bounds of the organization's principles for athletic conduct.

Continuing the movement begun a year ago in Cincinnati to put the NCAA back into the enforcement business, delegates to the 47th annual convention voted to make the NCAA council virtually the prosecutor and jury in handing out punishment, short of suspension or termination of membership.

This wasn't done without some lively objections from a few Southern members and a couple of checks were put on the council's powers. This top policy-making group of the association will be entitled to act only on the recommendations of the membership committee, and its actions will be subject to review by the convention.

Principal objectors were Blake Van Leer, president of Georgia Tech, and T. P. (Red) Heard, Louisiana State athletic director.

They were joined by a few others, but when it came to a vote on the key amendment to the constitution, it was passed by a 135 to 15 margin.

Van Leer objected to the whole philosophy of trying to discipline colleges on a national basis, arguing that the conferences had a hard enough time trying to keep order in much slimmer groups. Heard called the legislation "the old sanity code dressed up in a new suit."

The sanity code, the association's initial effort to formulate and enforce definite rules of conduct, was voted out of existence two years ago. Last year certain enforcement powers were granted to the council and to its enforcement arm, the membership committee. Today's action extended those powers.

This legislation was passed after the convention had turned down a Big Tea effort to increase spring football practice time to 30 sessions; had listened to a special committee's report calling for even shorter seasons and practice periods and had heard the membership committee's warning that if the NCAA didn't police itself, other agencies would step in to do the job. This was a particular reference to the president's committee of the American Council on Education, which drew up a stiff set of rules for athletics last spring and called upon the NCAA and the academic accrediting agencies to take over enforcement.

As a result of the membership committee's work the council already has dealt out punishment to three universities and 10 other cases are under consideration. The convention gave a rubber stamp vote of approval to the actions against the University of Kentucky, Bradley University and Midwestern University.

In the first real contest for the presidency in about a decade, Dean A. B. Moore, head of the University of Alabama law school, was selected to succeed Hugh C. Willett, University of Southern California president, who has served three terms. Moore's opponent was William H. McCarter, Dartmouth athletic director. The NCAA never had an athletic director as president but the vote this year was a close one, 81-72.

Lorraine Winner

LORAINE, — Lorraine rolled to a 45-35 District 21-B basketball decision over Hermleigh here Friday night.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Bill Frank, the general manager of the Big Spring baseball mercenaries, toyed with the idea of holding a contest to change the nickname of the team, but finally decided to put it off until 1954. . . . Frank is going to stage a beauty contest at the local park to elect a Miss Big Spring, who will compete for the honor Miss Longhorn League. . . . Winner of the latter title will probably get to make an all-expense paid trip to the minor league convention in December. . . . Sale of the Lamesa franchise to Plainview interests undoubtedly opens the door for the Longhorn League to move into that city. . . . Lamesa fans want organized baseball and promoters there have come to the conclusion that the cost of living isn't as high in the Longhorn circuit. . . . The Longhorn League, incidentally, is given a much better chance of going through the season with its membership intact than the WT-NM League, which has Pampa, Borger, Plainview and Clovis as question marks. . . . Pampa, they say, is on the ropes financially. . . . If Hal Sayles takes over as president of that circuit, he's got a job on his hands. . . . The San Angelo Colts chose an umpire, and a 220-pound one, at that, as their business manager. . . . He is John Carleton. . . . He worked as an arbiter in the Eastern League. . . . Perhaps Carleton can bring order out of front-office chaos there. . . . The Colts cleared $30,000 two seasons back but money didn't bring happiness among the ranks of the owners.

Trotters To Appear In Odessa Again

Indications are now two Little Leagues and a Pony League (for boys 13 and 14 years of age) will operate here this summer. Forsan and Coahoma boys will be invited to compete in the circuit. The boys may even have a lighted diamond. . . . D. R. Gartman, who worked unceasingly to promote Little League bal here in 1952, has already rolled up his sleeves and gone to work on this year's program. . . . In reply to several inquiries, the famed Harlem Globe Trotters will again appear in Odessa this year, this time on Feb. 7 against the Rotary Engineers of Midland. Tickets go on sale at Bill Hale Motor Company in Odessa Jan. 26. Don Mouser, the ex-Pecos mentor, is almost sure to land one of the assistant coach's jobs at Plainview High School. . . . Where does that leave Good Graves, the former Big Spring star? . . . Graves didn't campaign too much for the head job there, apparently with the assurance he could remain in the system. . . . Now that Santa Clara's football team has tumbled in the sponge, College of Pacific is the only major independent school fielding a team on the Coast and COP may not be able to book a major schedule, since most Pacific Coast Conference teams won't play the Tigers. . . . Jim Larkin, who has produced fine athletic teams at Valley Mills High School (near Waco) the past several years, is a nephew to our Town's George Melear. . . . Tom Caskey, who dealt the Big Spring High School athletic teams misery while a student at Plainview, has departed San Angelo's Celtic effort for the military. . . . Ray Flaherty, who holds some sort of record by serving as coach of the Washington Redskins for seven seasons, is now a beer distributor in Spokane, Wash.

Pilgrim Leads Jets Against Webb

It is generally agreed that the schoolboy football in Texas is played in West Texas but did you notice how District 1-AAA boys were ignored when it came time for the Texas Sports Writers Association to select a AAA All-State team? . . . Not a lad of this area was named to either the first or second team, although Lamesa gave the eventual champion, Breckenridge, the scare of its life. . . . Just gives you an idea of how the voting panel is packed with writers from other areas. . . . Baseball contracts have been sent to 18 members of the Midland club, including Pitcher Ralph Blair and Outfielder Lou Dawson, who are returning from the service. . . . Don't be surprised if Floyd (Little Pepper) Martin of our Town winds up performing for Odessa again this year. . . . His contract is owned by Midland but Jay Haney intends to return to regular duty with the Indians and Brother Bobby Martin would like to have Floyd again. . . . Coach of the Sheppard AF Jets, who play Webb AB here Tuesday night, is L. L. Norman Pilgrim, one of Oklahoma A & M's all-time court greats. . . . Sheppard won the Southwest Air Force Conference title and went to the finals in the World Wide (AF) Tournament last year. . . . HJCC had three players and Wharton took three during the all-star squad picked during the recent Howard College Tournament but all ten players hounded hailed from different

Longhorns Play Snyder Friday

Wayne Bonner sends his Big Spring High School Steers into District 1-AAA basketball action for the first time this week.

The Steers, who play a practice game against Kermit here Tuesday night, take on Snyder in Snyder Friday night.

Big Spring Steers finished second in conference play last year but were hit hard by graduation and many observers are picking them to wind up in the cellar.

Sweetwater is considered the team to beat in conference play but the defending champion, Lamesa, will be hard to handle and Vernon and Plainview are also due to be hard to handle.

The Steers started slowly enough but now have won five games and lost seven.

Kermit nudged the locals by two points last week but the Longhorns could be tough to handle in their own gym.

Hat Trick Was Pulled By Trio

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK, Jan. 10 (AP)—Do you know how many times the late great Babe Ruth hit three home runs in a game?

Well, the fabulous Bambino was able to do it only twice in an illustrious career which covered 21 years and 714 home run blasts.

Actually, three round trippers in a single major league game has been accomplished many times. Six times players have hit four homers in one game.

Last season, three players—Al Rosen, Hank Sauer and Ed Matthews—were able to wallop three out of the park in one tilt. No one hit four homers in a game during 1952.

Rosen came through with his trio April 29 at Philadelphia. The Cleveland third baseman had a banner day that afternoon. In addition to the homers off Alex Kellner, Harry Byrd and Roland Hoyle, Rosen added a single and batted in seven runs. The Indians won, 21 to 9.

Sauer's homers, June 11, came with no one on base and gave the Chicago Cubs a 3-2 decision over the Philadelphia Phils. Lefty Curt Simmons was the three-time victim. Oddy, the only other time Sauer connected for "three" it also was off Simmons Aug. 28, 1950.

M. B. McFall Plans Tourney

Midway Tourney Starts Jan. 28

MIDWAY — The annual Midway Invitational Basketball Tournament for boys' and girls' teams, will be staged Jan. 28-29-30-31.

Grady is the defending champion in both divisions of play and will be back to try and make it two titles in a row.

Twelve junior teams are entered in each division of play.

M. B. McFall and Clyde Dial, Midway coaches, will co-operate in directing the meet. Trophies will be offered to winners of first three places in the championship division, as well as the top two clubs in the consolation bracket.

All-tournament teams will be chosen in both divisions of play, too.

First round pairings: Boys Bracket: WEDNESDAY, JAN. 28 — Green Grove vs Gay Hill, 1 p.m.; Flower Grove vs Coahoma, 4 p.m.; Knott vs Ackerly, 6 p.m.; Grady vs Midway, 8 p.m. THURSDAY, JAN. 29 — Ira vs Center Point, 8 p.m.; Vesalmo vs Sterling City, 4 p.m. Girls Bracket: WEDNESDAY, JAN. 28 — Green Grove vs Gay Hill, 1 p.m.; Flower Grove vs Coahoma, 3 p.m.; Knott vs Ackerly 5 p.m.; Grady vs Midway, 7 p.m. THURSDAY, JAN. 29 — Ira vs Center Point, 1 p.m.; Coahoma B. vs Sterling City, 3 p.m.

Finals in the girls' bracket will be played at 7 p.m. Saturday while the boys' title will be decided at 8 o'clock.

McGranery Hands Over Biggest List Of Cases

By JACK ADAMS
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—Atty. Gen. James P. McGranery, a busy man these last eight months, is handing over to his Republican successor the biggest batch of active court cases ever passed on from one administration to another.

Also probably the most explosive which the incoming A. G., Herbert Brownell Jr. of New York, will find on his desk includes some very hot potatoes.

Most government agencies have been marking time of late, pending "the change." Not so McGranery. With his tenure down to a matter of days, he still is sending up juridical skyscrapers which are landing on all sides of the political fence.

Assorted actions of the past week included:

An antitrust indictment against the Kansas City Star and its president, Roy A. Roberts, long-time foe of the Pendergast political machine in President Truman's home state and ardent supporter of President-elect Eisenhower.

Two grand jury indictments against T. Vincent Quinn, longtime Democrat, currently district attorney of Queens County, N. Y., and a former assistant U. S. attorney general under Tom Clark. Quinn was accused of unlawfully accepting legal fees while a member of Congress in 1948-51, and for representing individuals and business concerns in civil tax cases.

Quinn is the latest of a long list of fellow-Democrats to feel the sting of McGranery's investigative activity.

The attorney general meanwhile continues to push a District of Columbia grand jury inquiry into an alleged international oil cartel, involving most of the large petroleum companies in this country and some of the big contributors to the Republican campaign chest.

This is an antitrust proceeding which McGranery would like to add to the list of 137 other antitrust cases, on trial or being prepared for trial, which he is handing over to Brownell with a "you take it from here."

The roster of these cases, some initiated by Attorneys General Clark and J. Howard McGrath, reads something like a Who's Who in big business.

The list includes: American Telephone and Telegraph Company and its subsidiary, Western Electric; E. I. du Pont de Nemours and members of the wealthy Du Pont family of Wilmington, Del.; General Motors; U. S. Rubber; General Electric; International Business Machines Corp.; Armour and Company; the Borden Company; Cement Institute; the A & P grocery chain; Kroger and Company; Jewel Tea Company; Procter and Gamble; Colgate-Palmolive; Lever; and a score of the nation's largest investment bankers—to mention a few.

In the criminal prosecution field, the new administration inherits for trial the indictments of one-time State Department consultant Owen Lattimore, charged with perjury in his repeated denials that he ever promoted Communist interests; Henry W. (The Dutchman) Grunwald, charged with contempt of Congress for refusing to answer questions about his contacts with influential Washingtonians; former Internal Revenue Commissioner Joseph D. Nunan Jr. and his ex-top-aid, Daniel A. Bolich, for alleged income tax evasion; the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, accused of filing false financial statements with federal agencies while negotiating for RFC credit.

There is a raft of others, large and small, involving charges of perjury, contempt, tax evasion and other frauds against the government.

McGranery still has before a grand jury here the strange story which Abraham Teitelbaum, Chicago attorney, told a congressional committee a year ago about an alleged attempt to shake him down for $500,000 in connection with a tax case settlement.

Another jury here has "the case of the surplus ships," reputedly bought cheap and sold dear after World War II to net millions in profits for a small group of prominent persons headed by former Rep. Joseph E. Casey (D-Mass.). In full swing is a McGranery drive to denaturalize and deport more than 100 aliens who rose to underworld power after acquiring American citizenship. About a score of these proceedings are already under way. A similar program has been started to get rid of naturalized American Communists convicted under the Smith Act, which prohibits conspiracy to teach overthrow of the government by force.

Incidentally, it will be up to

Brownell to adopt a policy readmitting British comedian Charles Chaplin, now abroad on a visit. McGranery has posted stop-orders at all ports of entry against his return, asserting Chaplin must undergo examination "like any other alien" to establish his admissibility whenever he comes back to the United States.

The action, McGranery said, was prompted by "public charges" associating the actor with communism and "grave moral charges." Within the Justice Department which the Republicans are about to take over, McGranery has just made effective a flat ban on outside law practice by department attorneys.

All this appears to be McGranery's reply to the shouts of the opposition when he was appointed last year that he would never do anything about what some called "the mess in Washington," including alleged foot-dragging by the Justice Department.

Now there are charges that the Justice Department's recent activity has included some elements of vindictiveness. Sen. Carlson (R-Kan) made such an accusation this week. Carlson described the indictment against the Kansas City Star as "punitive action" prompted by President Truman as a result of that newspaper's long fight against corruption in Missouri.

McGranery has made no reply. His friends report that he is packing up with the feeling that he cleaned out a lot of bottom drawers in the Justice Department and will leave behind a record of activity for successors to shoot at.

Eleven Local Scouts Sign For Jamboree

Eleven boys from Big Spring have paid registration fees to attend the third National Boy Scout Jamboree to be held at Irving Ranch in Newport Harbor, California, from July 17 to 23.

Jimmie Hale, local field executive, stated that the quota for the Lone Star District, of which Big Spring is a part, is 22.

Hale warned area Scouts to get in their reservations before Jan. 31 if they intend to go to the Jamboree. He stated that in February reservations will be thrown open on a council wide basis, and the local quota can be filled by boys from other places.

Those who have paid their $10 reservations fees up until now include Donald Lovelady, Adrian de Grafenoord, George Peacock, Bill French, Art Dodd, Richard Engle, Frank Powell, Bernard McMahon, Tommy Buckner, Kelsey Meeks and Lee Denton.

Although the district is supposed to have only one boy from each troop, seven of those registered here are from Troop 2. Hale explained that some of the troops will not be represented so all the boys will be able to go.

The adult leaders from the district who are planning to attend the Jamboree include Bob Davenport from Stanton, Arnold Seydler, Big Spring, and A. E. True, Big Spring. These three men will look out after local Scouts on the trip.

There will be 175 Scouts and 15 leaders to attend from the entire Buffalo Trail Council, with headquarters at Midland. Approximately 50,000 Scouts are expected to attend the Jamboree from all over the country.

Hale said that the total cost to Scouts of the local Council has been set at $205. The money will include expenses for the entire 21-day trip. However, Hale said it did not cover personal equipment, uniforms, and spending money.

President Eisenhower is expected to attend the Jamboree. The opening ceremony will be in his honor, Hale said.

In addition to the Jamboree, Scouts going on the trip will visit Grand Canyon, San Francisco, the Redwood Forests, Salt Lake City and the Great Salt Lake.

The trip will be made by special train. Hale stated that more than 100 trains would be used to transport all the Scouts to the Jamboree.

Preparations at the Irving Ranch are now being made for the Scouts, Hale said. Telephone lines, roads, and camping areas are now being constructed. Survey crews and earth-moving equipment are now swarming over the camping area, he said.

Those Scouts attending must be 12-years-old, at least a Second Class Scout or Explorer Apprentice, and camp hardened, Hale explained.

Any Scout desiring to attend the Jamboree can contact Hale at the district Scout office, Fourth and Scurry Streets.

Cpl. Louie Denton's Body To Arrive Here From Korean Front

Body of Cpl. Louie B. Denton, 26, killed in action in Korea last November, is to arrive in Big Spring Jan. 15. At the time of his death, Denton was a member of the 7th Marine Division and had been in Korea about six months. Rites are pending. He was the grandson of J. W. Arnold of Big Spring.

Burglary At Farm Is Probed By Officers

A Friday night burglary at a farmhouse near Luther was being investigated today by the sheriff's department. The home of Ivy V. McMurray, was entered between 8 and 11 p.m. Friday. Stolen were a .22 caliber rifle, a .22 caliber pistol, six pairs of socks, a pair of gloves and a hat. Deputies Floyd Moore and Dale Lane went to the farmhouse Saturday and have since been running down leads.

Enters Guilty Plea

Reubin B. Cosby pleaded guilty in County Court Saturday to charges of defrauding by obtaining things of value with worthless checks. He was given a 15-day jail sentence and a $75 fine. Cosby said he gave a $25 check at Anthony Department Store on Christmas Eve.

LIL ABNER

BY AL CAPP

WHY DOES YOU READ THET COMICAL STRIP? WHY DON'T YOU READ SOMETHIN' ED-JOO-CAY-SHUNAL-LIKE ME?

THAT'S ALWAYS A ED-JOO-CAY-SHUNAL SAYIN' AT TH' BEGINNIN' OF EV'RY "SWEET FANNY GOONEY" PAGE!!

HELLO, JOE!! I'VE GOTTEN RID OF SAWBUCK AND THAT ORPHAN- AND NOW TO PUT OVER OUR DIRTY RED PLOT!!- EVERY MILLIONAIRE IN THE U.S.A. IS ARRIVING HERE-

Whether you're rich, or whether you're poor, it's nice to have money!!

-Old proverb

-TO GET SAWBUCK'S WEEKLY ADVICE ON WHAT TO DO WITH THEIR MONEY, THIS TIME I'LL TELL 'EM!!- ME!! THEIR WORST ENEMY!!- SO LONG, JOE!!

BOYS!!- I'VE GOT A PEACH OF A PLAN TO LICK COMMUNISM!!-LET'S FLY TO MOSCOW, AND DUMP ALL YOUR MONEY INTO THE KREMLIN!! THAT'LL MAKE CAPITALISTS OUT OF THOSE COMMUNISTS- AND WE WON'T HAVE ANYTHING TO FIGHT ABOUT ANY MORE!!

B-BUT, SAWBUCK-HOW ABOUT OUR MONEY?

CHUCKLE!!- WE'LL GET IT ALL BACK- WITH INTEREST!!- NO ONE CAN RESIST AMERICAN BUSINESS GENIUS!!-

IT'S A BRILLIANT IDEA!! BRILLIANT!!

WE'LL OUTWIT THOSE STUPID COMMUNISTS. WE'LL GIVE 'EM ALL OUR MONEY, LIKE YOU SAY, SAWBUCK!!- LET'S GO!!-

CHUCKLE!!- (AFTER THEY DROP THEIR MILLIONS INTO THE KREMLIN, JOE AND I WILL DIVVY IT UP- AND SEND THEM TO THE SALT MINES!!)

GENTLEMEN!!- I AM YOUR BELOVED UNCLE SAWBUCK- AND THAT MAN IS AN IMPOSTOR!!

YOU!!- YOU UGLY LITTLE ORPHAN- BUT I SHOT YOU THROUGH THE HEART!!

YOU DID!!- BUT MY LIFE WAS SAVED BY A "VOTE FOR LANDON" BUTTON, THAT I ALWAYS WEAR OVER MY HEART, PINNED TO MY UNDERWEAR!!

IT'S GREAT TO BE GOING BACK TO NEW YORK, SAWBUCK- BUT WHY DID YOU LET THAT COMMUNIST SPY PARACHUTE BACK INTO THE KREMLIN?

CAN YOU THINK OF A WORSE FATE FOR ANY COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZER, THAN TO HAVE TO LIVE IN A COMMUNIST COUNTRY?

NO! NO!

Prince Valiant IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR by Harold R. Foster

Synopsis: THE PUZZLED, ANGRY PAGANS FOLLOW PRINCE VALIANT INTO THE TEMPLE. THIS IS TO BE THE GREAT TEST BETWEEN THE CHRISTIAN GOD AND WODEN- AND WODEN, THEY HOPE, WILL BRING THE LIGHTNING DOWN ON VAL'S HEAD.

WITHIN THE TEMPLE THE DRUID HARANGUES THE CROWD, WHIPPING THEM INTO A RELIGIOUS FRENZY. TURNING TO VAL, HE CRIES: "BLASPHEMER! MAY THE BOLTS OF THOR CRUSH YOU! MAY THE GOD WODEN...."

.... AT THAT MOMENT VAL STRIKES THE ANCIENT, PAINTED IMAGE WITH HIS STAFF. IT GIVES OFF A HOLLOW SOUND AND SPLITS. BEFORE THE HORRIFIED EYES OF THE PAGANS THE ROTTED WOOD CRUMBLES TO DUST; A NEST OF RATS SCUTTLES AWAY, SQUEAKING. GRUBS, ANTS AND TERMITES ARE EXPOSED.

"THE SPIRITS OF THE OLD GODS HAVE PASSED AWAY AS HAS BEEN PROPHESED; THE OFFERINGS OF FOOD HAVE FED ONLY RATS AND VERMIN." SAYS VAL CALMLY. "THERE IS NO MAGIC GREATER THAN THE TRUTH. GO ACROSS TO THE CHAPEL AND LEARN THE TRUTH!"

NEXT WEEK- The Long Road Home.

TUM-TUM-TUM-TIDDLY-UM!

I WONDER WHAT TASTY MORSELS LURK HERE TO ENTICE MY APPETITE TODAY?

I LOVE SURPRISES!

HMMM!

I'M GLAD YOU CAME ALONG, SIRE! I HAD NO IDEA TO WHAT DEPTHS I HAD FALLEN!

I KNEW Y'AD SEE IT MY WAY!

IT'S TIME I TURNED OVER A NEW LEAF!

THAT'S WHAT I LIKE T' HEAR!

"EVER ONWARD AND UPWARD"... AN' THAT SORT OF BILGE!

GREAT STUFF!

HEY!

I SHOULDA KNOWED YA WAS JUST TALKIN'! ONCE A BUM, ALWAYS A BUM!

OH, BUTCH! I'M READY!

COMING RIGHT UP, SUSAN!

HOW'S ABOUT INTRODUCING ME TO THE NEW GIRL NEIGHBOR, BUTCH?

ON ONE CONDITION, PAL! SHE ASKED ME TO TEACH HER SOME FANCY SKATING--AND YOU KNOW ME!

I'M LUCKY TO STAND UP!

AND YOU WANT ME TO TAKE OVER? IT'S A DEAL!

IT WAS NICE OF YOU TO OFFER TO SHOW ME SOME TRICK SKATING, WILLIS!

THINK NOTHING OF IT, SUSAN! IT'S A REAL PLEASURE!

GEE, YOU REALLY ARE GOOD! MAYBE IN TIME I CAN DO THIS BY MYSELF!

OH, IT MIGHT TAKE QUITE A FEW MORE LESSONS!

LOOK AT THAT BROTHER OF MINE--I DIDN'T KNOW HE WAS THAT GOOD! I COULD USE HIM MYSELF!

NOW IT'S MY TURN, WILLIS! I'D LIKE TO LEARN SOME OF THOSE FANCY GLIDES, TOO!

WELL, COME ON-- IF YOU'RE GAME!

I DON'T MEAN THIS PLAIN SKATING--SHOW ME SOME OF TH' STUFF YOU DID WITH THAT GIRL!

OKAY! YOU SKATE BACKWARD AND I'LL SHOW YOU!

OUCH!

HOW COME YOU CAN TEACH THAT GIRL SO EASILY, BUT CAN'T TEACH ME?

YOU'RE MY SISTER!

WEARIN' NOTHIN' BUT THAT LIGHT SUMMER SUIT IN SUCH WINTRY WEATHER !!

POOR THING !! IT MAKES ME SHIVER EVERY TIME I LOOK OUT AN' SEE HIM--

THAT SETTLES IT, I'VE JUST GOTTA DO SOMETHING ABOUT THIS !!

LET'S GO UP IN TH' ATTIC AN' SEE IF WE CAN'T FIND SOME WARM DUDS THERE!

WELL, WELL, AT LAST I CAN FIND USE FOR THIS BIG OL' COAT THAT HAS HUNG ON A NAIL FOR SO MANY YEARS!

THERE, NOW WE HAVE EVERYTHING BUT A WARM CAP!

GEE, GRANDMA, I HAVE A DANDY AT HOME, WITH FUR-LINED EAR MUFFS, AN' IT'S TOO BIG FOR ME--

HURRY, JOE! I'LL BE OUT IN TH' GARDEN PLOT WHEN YOU GET BACK !!

I 'SPOSE PUTTIN' HEAVIER CLOTHES ON THIS OL' SCARECROW IS KINDA SILLY, BUT IT'LL MAKE ME FEEL WARMER, ANYWAY !!

DON'T BELIEVE EVERYTHING YOU HEAR, ZERO--

A MOVIE STAR COULD NEVER HAVE MUMPS OR MEASLES--THEY'RE NOT GLAMOROUS--HER PHYSICIANS HAVE JUST ISSUED A BULLETIN--THE PATIENT IS SUFFERING FROM A SLIGHT ATTACK OF EMOTIONAL NEURASTHENIA--

WHY SHOULD YOU BE SORRY? IN THE MOVIES ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN--AND OFTTIMES DOES--RIGHT NOW OPPORTUNITY MAY BE POUNDING ON THE PANELS OF YOUR FRONT DOOR--

LOOK, ZERO--LOOK! A HUNDRED DOLLARS REAL MONEY JUST FOR PLAY-ACTIN' IN THE MOVIES!! I'M THE STAND-IN FOR THE FAMOUS LITTLE DOLLY DAWN--AN' SHE'S GOT THE MEASLES--

THE DIRECTOR SEZ I'M VERY PHOTOGENIC!! I DON'T KNOW WHAT THAT MEANS--

I DON'T KNOW WHAT THE DICTIONARY SAYS, BUT IN MOVIELAND IT MEANS YOU'RE DARN LUCKY--KEEP YOUR FINGERS CROSSED, KID--

STEP ON IT--RUSH THE JOB--OLD ESOMANN IS JUST FINISHING HIS TENTH CUP OF COFFEE!

THERE, MONEY--YOU'RE THE PERFECT LITTLE NELL FOR THE 'OLD CURIOSITY SHOP.'

OH, LET HIM WAIT--

DON'T BE SILLY--TIME AND ESOMANN WAIT FOR NO MERE MORTAL OR HUMAN ANIMAL--PUSH THE JOB ALONG OR HE'LL HAVE OUR SCALPS!!

HE ALWAYS DRINKS TWELVE CUPS BEFORE HE YELLS "CAMERA"--I WANT THE KID TO LOOK RIGHT BEFORE SHE STEPS OUT THERE--

GOLLY--AIN'T LITTLE NELL PURTY--I WISH I WAS PURTY LIKE SHE IS--

NEW VEL***
MAKES DISHES SHINE
WITHOUT WASHING
OR WIPING!

'VEL SOAKS DISHES CLEAN

- SAVES YOU ALL THE HARD WORK!

DON'T WASH - JUST SOAK
 Dishes soak grease-free in seconds! No washing needed. If food clings, a touch of the dishcloth gets it off. There's no greasy dishwater with Vel - no ring around the pan!

DON'T WIPE - JUST RINSE
 Yes! Just soak and rinse. Dishes dry streak-free without wiping! Even heavy grease in stew pots and frying pans is so completely dissolved no hard scouring is needed with Vel!

Package for package, Vel cuts grease better than the leading laundry detergent, liquid detergents or soaps!

"AND YET NO 'DETERGENT BURN' TO HANDS!"

Prove it yourself!
"HAND-HEAT TEST"
 shows why.

Dip hands in water. Then put a tablespoonful of any leading laundry detergent in one hand - put a tablespoonful of VEL in the other.

Feel the heat
 from laundry detergents, indicating presence of irritating alkalis and laundry chemicals that cause "Detergent Burn"!

Feel NO heat with Vel
 That's because Vel contains no irritating alkalis - no harsh laundry chemicals to cause "Detergent Burn"!

VEL is a miracle of mildness! Vel helps you avoid rough, red hands - causes no "Detergent Burn"!

MARVELOUS FOR DISHES AND FINEST FABRICS

SH-H-H... DON'T MAKE A SOUND, FLIP... THERE'S A COUPLE O' MEN DOWNSTAIRS!

WHEN DOOLEY GETS HERE TOMORROW, I'LL TALK HIM INTO HIRING US FOR OUR OLD FITCH... ONCE WE'RE ON THE INSIDE, WE CAN WAIT FOR OUR CHANCE TO PULL OFF THE JOB!

IF WE GET CAUGHT, THEY'LL THROW THE BOOK AT US!

DON'T BE SO NERVOUS! I USED TO WEIGH TWICE WHAT I DO NOW... AND I HAD A MUSTACHE... AND HE NEVER SAW YOU BEFORE... RELAX!

OKAY... YOU'RE THE BOSS... ONLY I AIN'T IN NO HURRY TO GO BACK TO JAIL!

GOLLY! JAIL!... THEY MUST BE BAD MEN!... AND THEY'RE PLANNING TO DO SOMETHING TO MR. DOOLEY!... I WISH I COULD SEE THEM, BUT THEY'RE JUST OUT OF SIGHT UNDER THE STAIRS!

RUSTY! WHAT ARE YOU DOING HERE? I THOUGHT I TOLD YOU TO WAIT IN THE SHACK 'TIL I CAME FOR YOU!

I KNOW IT, MR. STOVEPIPE, BUT SOMETHING HAPPENED! I JUST HAD TO TELL YOU RIGHT AWAY!

DOOLEY ARRIVED LAST NIGHT, AND HE'LL BE UP ANY MINUTE... LET US HIE OURSELVES TO A MODEST BEANERY AND BREAK OUR FAST... COME ALONG!

BUT I... OKAY, MR. STOVEPIPE!

NOW THEN, RUSTY, ME LAD... DID YOU SEE A GHOST?... OR DID THE THREE BEARS COME HOME AND FIND YOU'D EATEN THEIR PORRIDGE?

PLEASE, MR. STOVEPIPE, I'M NOT KIDDING... THOSE MEN ARE PLANNING TO HURT MR. DOOLEY... AND THEY MEAN TO START BY GETTING A JOB RUNNING A CONCESSION WITH HIS CARNIVAL!

I TRIED TO SEE THEM, BUT I COULDN'T... BUT ALL WE NEED TO DO IS TO SEE WHO GETS A JOB IN A CONCESSION... AND THAT'S THEM!

ORDINARILY A LOGICAL CONCLUSION... BUT I HAPPEN TO KNOW THAT MR. DOOLEY MEANS TO ADD AT LEAST SIX NEW CONCESSIONS!
